Mavs and Bulldogs Play This Week-End

PEEPING THRU The KNOTHOLE

With BILL MAYES

Accident Note—At the scrimmage Tuesday afternoon one of the spectators, who was seated opposite the 20-yard line on the west side of the stands, fell through a hole. No serious injuries resulted, though the seat was torn up considerably.

Health Note—Bill Payton, Melinger Jacoby and Paul Adkins failed to show up for the Tuesday practice. Paul said earlier in the day that he was not feeling well, and hadn't for a couple of days. Later reports were that Bill and Melinger also reported they were ill.

Promptness Note—Supt. W. T. Walton has already issued us passes for the football games, which about establishes a record of some kind or another. Usually they are about a month or so late. We don't have to use them often in Ranger but those foreign press boxes, where the gatekeeper does not (Continued on page 4)

BOTH TEAMS TO PLAY GAMES ON FOREIGN FIELDS

Bulldogs Go To San Angelo; Mavericks To Sweetwater for Games.

All Oil District teams swing into action over the week-end, with Eastland's Mavericks playing their second game of the season, while all other teams will be engaging in their first encounters.

All teams play either Friday or Saturday against Class A opponents, with the exception of Brownwood, the Lions taking on the Class B Comanche team on Thursday at Brownwood.

Chief interest in the pre-season games will probably center around the Ranger Bulldogs, defending champions of the district, who take on the San Angelo Bobcats, reputed to be a larger, stronger and more experienced team than the one which lost to the Bulldogs in 1934 by a score of 19 to 0.

Equally as much interest will be displayed in the Breckenridge-Mineral Wells clash, as it will give the Oil Belt fans something more than conjecture on which to base their early season comparisons, as the Mountaineers won last week from the Eastland Mavericks by a score of 14-0 in a game in which the Mavericks showed up well against the largest and most experienced team Mineral Wells has produced in several years.

Ahrens will play at Big Spring Saturday in the first game for the Eagles, while Eastland will take on the Sweetwater Mustangs in Sweetwater the same afternoon. Eastland appears to most to be the favorite in her scrap with the Mustangs, the latter having lost the first contest of the year to the Class B. Roscoe team last week.

Cisco, the only other team in the district and the one about which little has been heard in this part of the county so far, will play a night game at Cisco with the Electra High School, formerly coached by Eck Curtis. Electra has a team (Continued on page 2)

LITTLE KEEPS CROWN

Beating the best of the country's simon pure golfers in the National Amateur at Cleveland, William Lawson Little, Jr., brawny California club swinger, retained his title when he defeated Walter Emery, Oklahoma, in the final round of the tournament. Here is Little after the match, holding the beautiful trophy.

Mid-Continent Airline's Liquidation In Prospect for Stockholders; Special Meet Called Saturday in Fort Worth

Cisco Will Stage Livestock Show On October 25 and 26

Liquidation of the Mid-Continent Airlines, Inc., in which 20 Eastland residents have stock, was in prospect Thursday when notices of a special meeting of stockholders and directors was announced for Saturday in Fort Worth.

Purpose of the meeting is of "discussing the future operations of the company and whether or not the company should be liquidated," according to a letter received by Hamilton McRae, director, from R. H. Clement, president of the line. "I regret very much to be forced to call this meeting," continued Clement, "but I do not wish to take the responsibility of operating the company at a big loss until such time as the assets are consumed by the expenses."

McRae will attend the meeting, he announced, and stated would represent other Eastland stockholders if they wanted him to act by proxy. Albert Taylor may also attend the meeting which will be held in the Fort Worth National Bank Building at 11 a. m., Saturday.

Inaugural flight was made Saturday, Aug. 31, but due to inclement weather the line abandoned operations during the week following. Later the company stepped landing at Eastland, explaining through a Fort Worth director that the government did not allow use of intermediate landing fields for passenger operations.

The line runs from Dallas to Midland.

Gorman Man Gets Ninety Days In Drunk Drive Case

Walter Owens of Gorman was found guilty of driving while intoxicated and his punishment set at 90 days in jail by a 91st District Court jury Wednesday afternoon.

Jurors were E. M. Curry, Pioneer; J. M. Grice, W. A. Love, L. E. Melton, Ranger; J. K. Hendricks, Gorman; H. R. Gilbert, Carbon; R. E. Acker, Carbon; H. B. Lane, Scanton; L. M. Barron, R. N. Compton, Nimrod; R. R. Bradshaw, Cisco; I. A. Bailey, Scanton.

CLAIM BRITISH PREPARED FOR ITALIAN WAR

ROME, Sept. 19.—Coincident with announcement of a government spokesman that the League of Nations peace proposals are unacceptable to Italy, the influential newspaper Girinale d'Italia charged today that Great Britain is preparing to fight Italy.

Girinale's editor, Virginia Gada, usually regarded as representing the views of the regime, said recent utterances in the British press manifest "a determination to fight Italy."

Regarding alleged references in the British press to closing the Suez canal and Gibraltar, and Italy's inability to stand against the British fleet, the editorial continued:

"It is incredible yet true. It is not only provocative and threatening, but an expression of a will to fight."

Italy's rejection of the peace proposal was expressed earlier.

After reading an unofficial summary of the plan, the spokesman said:

"Although we have not received the official text the apparent spirit of the proposals make them absolutely unacceptable to Italy."

He said the proposals support Italy's thesis that Ethiopia is unable to govern itself.

Little doubt remained that rejection of the proposals by Mussolini and the cabinet on Saturday would be a mere formality.

The news put it up to the league to make a better offer. It came as tension gripped aroused country in preparation for a mass "test" mobilization. The call for this may come at any moment between 12,000,000 and 15,000,000 people.

Fascists have been called on to prepare for the call, and it will keep boys and girls at designated posts until 9 p. m., men and women until midnight.

Road Chief Will Speak In Breck On Sunday Night

BRECKENRIDGE, Sept. 18.—Harry Hines, chairman of the state highway commission, will be in Breckenridge Sunday, and will deliver an address at the First Christian Church Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. Hines is intensely interested in the layman's movement of that denomination, and his address here will be in anticipation of the convention to be held at San Antonio in the near future.

Breckenridge has a kindly feeling for the commissioner from Wichita Falls, it was pointed out for the interest he is taking in establishing a connected highway through Breckenridge west to the Carlsbad Caverns.

Mr. Hines is expected to return to the city in November to address the membership luncheon of the chamber of commerce. It was said that E. O. Thompson, chairman of the railway commission will address that body in October.

J. E. McDonald, chief of the state agricultural department recently spoke in Breckenridge at the chamber of commerce luncheon, which with the coming of Harry Hines and Col. Thompson gives Breckenridge an opportunity to hear the chairman of three state departments in running order.

Two Army Pilots Injured In Crash

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 19.—Lieut. H. D. Williams was killed seriously and Capt. H. M. Turner, badly bruised and shaken today when their training plane crashed near Randolph Field.

Commission Order Voided By Court

HOUSTON, Sept. 19.—The state railroad commission has "no power to pass laws" and exceeded its authority in refusing tenders to the Lone Star Refining Company for 125,000 barrels of oil, a federal tribunal ruled here today.

MAV SECOND STRING TO START IN SWEETWATER GAME, JOHNNY KITCHEN TENTATIVELY DECIDES

For a surprise to scouts and Sweetwater, apparently, Coach Johnny Kitchen will start what in the aggregate is the second string of Mavericks against the Mustangs in Sweetwater Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Kitchen announced the probable starting lineup Wednesday afternoon while the boys worked out on Maverick field. He indicated, in an air of uncertainty, that the starters might be pulled after the first play and nothing was definite.

Only Harry Taylor, right end, Clyde Garrett and Raymond Hamilton, halves, who started in the Mountaineer game last week, will start again in the Sweetwater game, according to the coach.

The Mavs are in good shape, Billie Shoopman, co-manager, aiding the coach in the first flight placements, stated. The boys, Shoopman said, were still "stove up" from the Mineral Wells game.

The probable starters, as listed by Kitchen, position, experience and weights, are as follows:

Travis Cook	T	0	128
Wesley Lane	Q	1	130
Clyde Garrett	H	2	160
Raymond Hamilton	H	1	160
Gene Gage	E	0	145
Red Hanlin	E	0	150
Harry Taylor	G	1	150
Hab Simmons	C	1	145
Charles Van Geem	G	1	150
Alfred Greer	T	1	170
Jack Sikes	E	0	165

Only one, Clyde Garrett, is a letterman in the starting lineup group.

Reserves Kitchen will take to Sweetwater are:

L. A. Dolberry	G	1	135
Pete Garrison	E	0	140
Cleo Key	Q	0	118
Evans Mitchell	T	1	140
Claude O'Neil	T	0	150
Bob Sikes	G	1	150
Daus Simmons	H	1	160
Troy Taylor	E	1	165
Andy Taylor	G	0	145
Jim Taylor	G	0	145
Roy Taylor	E	0	135
James Hill	C	0	145
Jack Tranham	T	1	180

Letterman in the reserve group are Bob Sikes, Troy Taylor and Evans Mitchell.

Letters of graders were not known for certain by Kitchen.

DISSENTION IS NOW APPARENT IN LOUISIANA

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 19.—First definite indications of dissension among leading lieutenants of Huey Long came today with an announcement of candidacies, backed by at least two powerful members of his machine, for U. S. Senator and governor.

Lt. Gov. James Noe declared himself for the gubernatorial chair now held by O. K. Allen. Wade Martin, chairman of the public service committee sought the senate seat occupied by Long. Both offices will be filled by election in January.

Noe and Martin have support of Associate Justice John Fournet of the state supreme court and Rev. Gerald Smith, organizer of Long's share-the-wealth movement.

But in Houma, La., speaker Allen Ellender of the Louisiana house of representatives and himself a power among the Kingfish's henchmen, said such a setup (the candidacies of Noe and Martin) "is absolutely opposed to the course of action that had been decided upon by a majority of the party leaders."

Ethiopia Moves to Promote Peace

ADDIS ABABA, Sept. 19.—Ethiopia moved half the road to peace with Italy today by agreeing to accept almost entirely the proposals for a compromise.

Officials told the United Press the proposals are acceptable except for the proposal making possible the granting to Italy of paramount Italian interests in this country.

Even that reservation was expected to prove a stumbling block and officials had little hope Mussolini would accept the proposals.

Tom Mooney Still Is IWW Believer

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19.—Tom Mooney's philosophy remained unchanged after 19 years in prison.

Mooney still believes in social revolution, in a dictatorship of the working classes and the principles of the Industrial Workers of the World, he revealed in an exposition on his brief in his hearing for a writ of habeas corpus.

The man California accused of setting off the dynamite bomb which killed 10 and injured 30 in 1916 maintains that President Roosevelt stands for much of what Mooney has stood for in the years of his unionism.

Bank of France Shares Take Drop

PARIS, Sept. 19.—Shares of the Bank of France and Suez Canal broke widely on the bourse today, reflecting increased nervousness over the international situation, precipitated by the Italian-Ethiopian crisis.

Bank of France issues dropped $31 a share while Suez Canal dropped $25.

Yesterday both issues lost $20 each.

Second Bale of Cotton Ginned at Ranger Thursday

The second bale of cotton to be ginned at the Ranger gin was brought in Thursday morning by L. R. Nabors, who lives seven miles south of Ranger on his own farm.

Nabors has 21 acres in cotton this year and picked the bale from nine acres. He said that he expected to get four or five bales from the 21 acres.

At present weevils and army worms are doing much damage to the cotton in his vicinity, Nabors said.

He was presented with a check for $10 from the chamber of commerce, representing the donations received for the second bale. The premium for the first bale was $25.

Operator Finishes Arrangements For Well Near Cisco

A. A. Wisdom, Houston oil operator, temporarily located in Eastland, has announced completion of arrangements to drill six miles south of Cisco on the Gus Wende 149.5 acre tract beginning Oct. 1. The well will be drilled on the southwest quarter of Section 62, Block 3, H. & T. C. survey, 900 feet from the south line and 330 feet from the east line.

The location is one and one-half miles northwest of the old Humble Schor well and is near the Rising Star highway.

Phillips Petroleum Company has a half interest in the 1,500-acre block and in the well.

The well will be drilled to a depth of 3,500 feet, Wisdom has announced.

Assault to Murder Case Is Studied

A 91st District Court jury studying the case of Dick Pennington, charged with assault to murder, had not reported this morning after having started their deliberations Wednesday afternoon.

Jurors are L. W. Riddell, S. J. Holden, G. W. Dennis, W. M. Burris, J. N. Jordan, J. D. Weaver, H. E. Reid, A. L. Allen, T. L. Laster, A. S. Crossley, T. J. Hale, J. M. Lambright.

Good Attendance Is Observed For Lions Club Meet

Almost 100 per cent attendance was registered at today's Lions club meeting, there being only two members absent from a total of 25.

Hubert Capps, a recent addition to the Ranger High School faculty was unanimously elected to membership in the club.

A visitor today, A. W. Wafford of the High school faculty, spoke to the club in behalf of the extra curricular activities such as oratory, debate and public speaking. Wafford asked that the Lions offer some desirable prize, such as a pen and pencil set, a medal or a cash award for the winner in a series of contests in those fields. No action was taken on the matter but it will be discussed at the next meeting.

Rev. I. H. Stephens who had charge of the program, used his entire time in letting each member read and speak in behalf of his written project suggestion which each member was to hand in at this meeting to be given the major activities committee, to select three or four projects for the Lions to sponsor and work for this year.

Hall Walker told the club of the steps taken and the progress that has been made toward getting a deep-test well in Eastland county. According to Walker the test is almost positive now.

NEW MODELS TO BE SHOWN BY MERCHANTS

Everyone Invited To Attend The First Real Style Show At 8 o'Clock

J. C. Smith, chairman of the style show committee, announced today that everything was in readiness for the first real style show Ranger has ever had and that a large attendance was anticipated at the new Recreation Building tonight at 8 o'clock.

The stage was being decorated today by Webb Grubbs from The Globe, Inc., while furniture was being supplied by Killingsworth, Cox & Co. and Montgomery Ward. The floral decorations are being furnished by Ranger's two florists, the Ranger Floral Company and Golden Florist.

Clayton Hunt and his orchestra will furnish the music for the style show, rehearsals for which were held Wednesday night in preparation for the event. It was announced that some surprise features would be presented in connection with the show, which are designed to add zest to the presentation of the new fall models.

Aubrey Jameson will act as master of ceremonies and will present the models as they step out onto the stage.

Chairs were being arranged in the auditorium today and all committees, including the program committee, had worked out details in connection with the style show that promise to make Ranger's first real style show a decided success.

Stores which are co-operating in presenting the style show, each of which have about 12 models to display during the hour and a half, are J. C. Smith, J. C. Penney Company, Joseph Dry Goods Company, Hassen Company, and The Globe, Inc.

No admission is to be charged to the show and everyone in this part of the country who is interested in the new fall styles has been cordially invited to attend.

LLOYD GEORGE SAYS OFFERS NOT ENOUGH

BRADFORD, Eng., Sept. 19.—David Lloyd George, addressing the council for peace and reconstruction today, criticized the Geneva offers to Italy as insufficient.

"You cannot propitiate a hungry tiger with salted boulders," he declared.

France, he said, had offered Italy 110 square miles of desert with a population of 62, but Mussolini was not satisfied with sand, so was offered two other deserts, one of sand and one of rock.

"There is only one thing we have succeeded in doing. The United States, Britain and France had one triumph—they prevented Abyssinia from buying any munitions for defending its liberty—the last war was terrible—and you are headed downward into a greater war," he said.

Jury Is Dismissed In Swindling Case

Unable to agree, jurors studying the case of R. W. Worthing, who was tried in connection with a swindling charge, reported to Judge George L. Davenport in 91st District Court and were dismissed Wednesday afternoon.

The jury was given the case Tuesday morning.

Senators Hear About California Wines

AUSTIN, Sept. 19.—Senators knew more about wine today. They got the information at a liquor bill hearing from Jefferson Peysier, attorney, and Gerald Pearce, economist, for the National Wine Institute. Both are from San Francisco.

The two answered questions that varied why wine gives some heartburn and what California considers an open saloon.

They heard statistics showing that as wine consumption increases liquor consumption decreases. Low taxes were urged for wine to promote temperance.

Old Age Pensions May Be Delayed

AUSTIN, Sept. 19.—A resolution in the house of representatives by Rep. Edgar Keefe, Frankston, calling for postponement of old age pensions until study by a 10-member joint committee, was referred to the state affairs committee.

Rep. Jesse James, author of a chain store tax fixing a $1 to $750 scale, said 90 house members had signed the bill. Gov. Alfred said he believed the measure should not exclude lumber yards and filling stations.

State Rests Case In Murder Trial

COLEMAN, Texas, Sept. 19.—Prosecutors rested testimony today in the trial of Louis Reis, 19, of Talpa, charged with murder, after attempting to prove Reis killed Fred Brown, Talpa ranchman, in order to rob him.

The state offered testimony intended to show Brown was beaten to death, then placed in his car and the machine run over the embankment of a road near Valera, to give the appearance he died in an accident last May 3.

The Penalty for Drunken Driving

Judge W. F. Robertson has a message for trial jurors in Travis county. Driving an automobile intoxicated is a felony offense, almost as serious to him as murder.

Fred Ponder was tried before Judge Robertson for driving while intoxicated. He had run over a venerable Travis county citizen, who died of his injuries.

Judge recites the law; the grand jury indicts; but the trial jury expresses the will of the people, whether driving while intoxicated is as serious as murder.

Heavy Hand of Depression

You can get some idea of the price paid for the depression in human suffering by noticing Gen. Hugh Johnson's recent statement that one of every six persons receiving relief in New York is unable to work because of physical ailments traceable directly to the depression.

Many of these deficiencies, says General Johnson, are due to malnutrition—in plain English, to lack of sufficient food. Nervous afflictions, clearly due to worry caused by joblessness, were also found to be prevalent.

When you remember that 240,000 people are on relief in New York, and then reflect that fully 40,000 of these people couldn't earn their own living even if they had a chance, because of the way their depression sufferings have undermined their health, you begin to get an idea of the tragic cost of a trade collapse.

People who succeed in whatever line of endeavor they are engaged in must do a lot of thinking. Some people think in circles, but the successful person thinks scientifically and prepares for all emergencies and contingencies.

By HARRY GRAYSON

NEW YORK—Tex Rickard has left us. Mike Jacobs is here. Jacobs seems the reincarnation of the lamented Texan. No one even approached the astuteness of Rickard until Jacobs took the bit between his teeth and decided to be a promoter on his own account.

Rickard cornered Jack Dempsey and went on to fame and the largest of his numerous fortunes. Jacobs, following closely along the lines adhered to by Rickard, has tied up the best bucks office attraction, Joe Louis, incidentally the finest fighter of the day, and bids fair to threaten the record left behind by Tex, the showman.

Rickard guaranteed an enormous and unbelievable $500,000 to Dempsey and Georges Carpentier in 1921. When the deal was first thought out, Rickard had as partners Charles Cochrane of London and William A. Brady of New York, theatrical men, and John Ringling, circus magnate.

When it was necessary for Rickard to make good the tremendous guarantee to hold Dempsey and Carpentier in line, all three of his associates reached the conclusion that it was an unwise move. Privately, they suspected that Rickard was pointed toward the booby hatch.

Jacobs a Friend in Need

COCHRANE, Brady and Ringling left him. Rickard needed only one of the three to go through satisfactorily. He did no worrying when Cochrane bowed out. He wasn't particularly annoyed when Brady checked the proposition, but when Ringling tossed in the sponge, Tex was desperate.

Mike Jacobs loomed on the scene in Rickard's darkest hour. Mike was then just a speculator in theater tickets. He still is, by the way. Jacobs heard that Rickard had been deserted by his money men, and might not be able to get returned.

The resourceful Jacobs offered to loan Rickard whatever money he needed, and take ringside tickets as his security.

Every Show a Success

RICKARD and Jacobs trusted each other. Each respected the judgment of the other. Rickard never moved in the making of an important match without many consultations with his other half, Mike Jacobs.

Rickard was in his grave several years before Jacobs took it upon himself to promote a boxing bout. It was only when the directors of Madison Square Garden declined to permit the Free Milk Fund for Babies to share in one of their important productions that Jacobs allowed the mantle of the departed Rickard to be draped around his shoulders.

Sneered at a bit, when he was staging his first show, Jacobs has in the short space of two years put himself on the pedestal on the right of Rickard. His success has been of the story book variety. It just seems that he cannot promote anything but successful shows.

Louis Sure Winner

NEXT June will come a match between Jim Braddock and Louis, and in writing this I give you my idea of who will win when Baer marches front and center with the Brown Bomber.

I suspect that the million-dollar goal again will be attained in the Braddock-Louis battle, for Louis is the Dempsey of the day and age, both within those ropes and as a turnstile magnet.

The same Tex Rickard was of great value at gate. And now the name of Mike Jacobs is coming to be of vast importance when it comes to selling tickets. It is just as if Tex Rickard had been deserted by his money men, and might not be able to get returned.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON WITH RODNEY DUTCHER

BY WILLIS THORNTON Staff Reporter WASHINGTON—Although the U. S. Supreme Court will not officially be installed in its monumental new building until it meets there for the fall session Oct. 7, the justices are already "moving in."

Several have brought part of their equipment over from the historic old quarters in the Capitol building, and one of Chief Justice Hughes' clerks is already beginning to get Hughes' suite in order.

The old-fashioned high-backed chairs have been brought there from the old courtroom and they look very odd indeed in the beautiful, new, up-to-date setting. Of course they will be replaced with modern furniture later.

As soon as a huge rug is set and draperies hung in the magnificent court chamber, the central feature of the new building, it will be virtually completed after four years of work.

THE Gerry collection of 36,000 volumes, legal reports and treatises, old vellum-bound tomes in Latin and Greek dating back 400 years, and general volumes relating to law and police administration, has already been installed in the justices' library.

This collection was made by the late Elbridge T. Gerry and presented to the court by Senator Peter G. Gerry of Rhode Island, son of the collector.

It is expected to extend the collection by continuing series of reports already begun. A special act was required to accept the books, and Librarian Oscar Clark is among those who hope that a general law may be passed enabling the Supreme Court library to accept donations generally as does the Library of Congress.

that shows up on paper as about 13 pounds to the man heavier than the Lobos, although one report has the Lobos weighing 162 and Electra 165, while another estimate gives the Lobos an average poundage of 152. One or the other, no doubt, is a misprint, since there has been considerable newspaper comment on the fact that the Lobos will be outweighed considerably in their first game.

Although Eastland's Mavericks will be slightly lighter than the Mustangs more of their players have had some previous experience and Coach Johnny Kitchens, new Eastland mentor, has been getting much out of his charges, aided earlier in the season by Darrell Lester, All-America center from TCU.

The Ranger Bulldogs will throw a more balanced team against the Bobcats Friday night, with the line being slightly heavier than the backfield, though some of the members of the forward wall are still fairly green, having played only a few minutes during the 1934 season.

Coach Moore has been giving the team stiff workouts on running plays the last week, strengthening his offense. Wednesday afternoon he put them through the hardest workout of the season with the entire squad of more than 40 boys reporting for the last hard scrimmage before the first game.

WHEN the judges take their seats in October to pronounce their verdict on New Deal legislation, they will sit at the head of what is certainly one of the most impressive chambers in the world. Sculptured friezes run around the four walls at the high ceiling. At the sides of the room march Menes, Hammurabi, Moses, Solomon, Lycurgus, Solon, Draco, Confucius, and Octavian, Justinian, Mohammed, Charlemagne, King John, St. Louis, Grotius, Blackstone, Marshall and Napoleon.

The schedule for the entire Oil Belt for the week-end is as follows: Thursday—Comanche at Brownwood.

Friday—Mineral Wells at Breckenridge; Ranger at San Angelo; Electra at Cisco. Saturday—Ablene at Big Spring; Eastland at Sweetwater.

Veterans' Unit to Add New Posts

NEW YORK—Catholic War Veterans have launched their first membership campaign since incorporation May 9 last in preparation for the National Eucharistic Congress at Cleveland Sept. 21. Before the Congress, the veterans will hold a series of meetings, make numerous national appointments, and broaden their activities in such fields as anti-communism, welfare, education, and the arts—especially music.

Nome, Alaska, thus far is the most distant place to get a C.W.V. Post. Jersey City, N. J., will be the scene of the first out-of-state meeting of the veterans on a national scale.

Col. Wesley S. Jones, a veteran army band leader, has been appointed director of music of the organization. He seeks qualified musicians for the military concert band which already is made up of army, navy and marine musicians. Within a short time Jones expects to form a second band for amateur musicians.

Meanwhile actors and actresses who entertained the A.E.F. are aiding the Catholic veterans and some members of the stage have indicated they would offer their services to further the social and welfare activities of the organization.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

RUTH WOODSON, pretty, high-spirited girl of 19, is working work weeks refuge from a storm in an old stone house with a mine door in the little town of Northville. The queer old caretaker, BERTHA GIBBS, also known as PENNY, thinks Ruth is ELAINE CHALMERS, whose father built the house. Elaine, a beautiful, Graycastle College, yows in a sorority meeting to win the love of her childhood hero, JOHN McNEILL. She plans to go to Northville.

A man known as JOHN SMITH escapes from an asylum, buys a used-car and starts for Northville.

Ruth decides to stay on at the old house, pretending to be Elaine. For two reasons she needs a shelter and she has fallen in love with John McNeill. She is not discovered by old Bertha Gibbs' queer antics or by the strange noises she hears in the old house at night.

John McNeill has fallen in love with "Elaine" and finds her congenial company. One night, for some reason, he goes for a drive to a nearby town for dancing. They are arrested for speeding and Ruth, not wishing to put the name of Elaine Chalmers on police records, tells the officer her name is "Ruth Woodson." She later tells John this is her "favorite alias." She is happy to John's company, but is secretly planning to slip away and end the adventure.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XIX

It was Friday and Elaine Chalmers was leaving college for a week-end in New York.

As a porter carried her bags away she paused in the doorway of her room to bid good-bye to her friend, Hortense Stokesbury, who was applying herself to Renaissance art on the chaise longue. "Stay as long as you like, Hortense," Elaine said. "These rooms are more comfortable than yours."

"Thanks," replied Hortense, though not graciously. It was not pleasant to be reminded that Elaine's was the choice suit of Graycastle. "I'll stay till time to dress for dinner. Then I'll look up after me. Well, good-bye. Don't wreck Canby's rhythm at the Windmill Club tonight. He's still playing there, isn't he?"

"Yes," answered Elaine. "But don't worry about his rhythm. He taught it to Duchin and Valise. By the way, darling, do you mind if I tell my parents I'm spending fall vacation with you in Boston?"

"Of course not," Hortense assured her. "Are you actually going through with that Ohio trip?"

"Yes," Elaine replied, snapping shut her handbag. "Have a smooth time at West Point tomorrow—what reminds me, if I get any mail from Annapolis today or tomorrow, put it in a plain envelope and forward it special delivery, will you? You'll find envelopes and stamps in the desk."

That evening Hortense found the expected Annapolis letter in the school mail office and, being especially conscientious about promises, took it to Elaine's room to read it.

While rummaging for a large plain envelope to enclose the Annapolis missive, Hortense chanced on a sealed letter directed to John McNeill, 1116 Garfield Avenue, Northville, Ohio. So Elaine had written to that Ohio chap and forgotten to stamp and mail it! Well, she'd attend to that one, too. She did. Presently the two letters were mailed.

Yes Indeed You're Invited
To the autumn style revue to be presented at the Recreation building this evening at 8 o'clock, when the merchants will offer for your entertainment their official presentation of what is what for fall and winter.

Models who know their clothes and how to wear them are to act as mannequins—and what an array of handsome clothes for men, children and lovely frocks for the women.

Music will be furnished by a three-piece orchestra under the direction of Clayton Hunt, composed of Merle Stewart, Jack Davenport and Mr. Hunt.

The high light of extra attractions is to be the Master of Ceremonies, Aubrey Jameson, whom Ranger lost to Eastland this fall in that he accepted a most satisfactory position with the Eastland high school as instructor of choice subjects, with English as the feature course. In his new home place the address is Hillcrest Apartments. The group of Ranger merchants sponsoring the fashion promenade, feel deeply grateful to Mr. Jameson, for condescending to serve as their master of ceremonies, since his time is now concentrated and well taken up with his new routine of work. He, it will be easily remembered served as Master of Ceremonies at an early summer dance revue and made an immense hit for his original and fitting remarks—and the unique fashion in which he handles such entertainments.

The program as a whole is a very splendid one and you will enjoy every minute of your visit not only as a guest of the merchants but to view the handsome recreation building of which Ranger is justly proud.

Y. W. A. Postponed
Y. W. A. of Central Baptist church, has announced the postponement of the meeting formerly planned to have been held tonight due to the absence of the president, Miss Ora Mae McGee, and social happenings booked for the evening hours. Members please take note.

R. A. Chapter Have Charge Of Prayer Service
The Lockett R. A. Chapter of the First Baptist church had charge at the prayer meeting hour on Wednesday evening, with sixteen members present.

The following boys gave the program on "The 3's of Stewardship", J. H. McKelvin, John L. McKelvin, Walter Jackson, Bill Smith and Albert Jackson. Special music, a violin solo, was given by Billie Hodges.

This being the R. A.'s first public program they were well received by a large group of adults.

Next Wednesday the group will meet at the church for their regular monthly social and election of officers.

G. A. Meeting
The Intermediate G. A.'s of the Central Baptist church had a very interesting meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. O. M. Lemmond. Delicious refreshments were served to Eloise Packwood, Ruth Miller, Dorothea Jean Bruce, Minnie Lee Shirley, Bobbie Branton, Mgr. Claude Blacklock, Reba Hutchison, Madeline Howell, Doris Beach, Reba Moore, Lonnie Mae Martin, Mauleio Fay Turner; and sponsors, Mrs. F. R. King and Mrs. L. L. Bruce.

Mrs. Hamrick to Take Girls On Friday Afternoon Outing
Mrs. Mamie Ruth Hamrick will meet with her group of Girl Scouts at Young school Friday afternoon for a hike to some chosen spot.

It has been suggested that each member furnish individual food baskets, and remember to assemble at the above place at the important meeting time, 4:15 o'clock.

Wednesday Woodmen Circle Meeting
The guardian, Mrs. Ruby Greer, called to order the Julia Alexander Grove No. 3464, Woodmen Circle, Wednesday afternoon for the interest of 12 members present.

The penny prize, furnished by Mrs. Claudie Barney, was won by Mrs. Luetta Bray.

A contest which promises to draw much interest will be opened and announced at the next meeting to which all members are invited to attend.

ROALD AMUNDSEN DISCOVERED THE SOUTH POLE IN ORDER TO RAISE FUNDS FOR A TRIP TO THE NORTH POLE!

ROALD AMUNDSEN, from childhood, had ambitions to explore the polar regions of the north. While struggling to get backing for such a trip, word was received that Peary had discovered the North Pole. Amundsen, knowing that the eyes of the world now turned to the undiscovered South Pole, secured aid for such a project—all in the hopes that it later would help him raise money for a trip to the North Pole.

Stepmother Held in Girl's Death

Mrs. Ada Schaefer, 25, pictured as she arrived for the coroner's inquest at Bridgeport, Conn., into the death of her stepdaughter, 9-year-old Marilyn Schaefer, is reported to have confessed beating the girl to death in their home at Stamford. Hatred for the girl's mother is the motive cited for the killing.

Long's Brother to Run For Senate

By United Press
TULSA, Okla., Sept. 19.—Dr. George Long, dentist and brother of the late Huey Long, took up the staff of his brother and vowed to see the "Long" "share-the-wealth" program through its political crisis. Long announced his candidacy for the United States senate in Oklahoma. He swore to follow "Huey's" program without dotting an 'i' or crossing a 't'.

He said he would have 1,000 members of the Share-the-Wealth Club in Tulsa by Saturday.

Just a Bit Personal

Miss Lorene Harrell, popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Harrell, left Tuesday for Austin where she entered State University. She has attended Ranger Junior College for the past two years.

Miss Billie Boler spent one day this week in Albany, where she paid visits to friends. Other Ranger persons in Albany the same day were Mr. and Mrs. Calloway, guests of their son, Joe Calloway.

John Tarleton Note—John Tarleton has also sent us a pass, which is good for all byecum and athletic attractions at John Tarleton College, 1935-36.

Just a Note—Blondy Cross of San Angelo says that there have been some seven-point wagers placed on the Ranger Bulldogs vs. the Bobcats. He continues by making a guarded guess that he "would hazard that is a good bet—for the takers."

He also says that the Bulldog team is big and rough, as usual, but that he doesn't believe it is as strong as the team of last year, but he does believe that the Bobcats are stronger than the Bobcats were last year.

Which is a way of meaning, as we interpret it, that Blondy believes that the Bobcats are just rough enough and tough enough to win from the Bulldogs this year, which would be the first time in many many years. Maybe the first time. Even Blondy can't remember a Bobcat victory over the Bulldogs, and until 1931 the two teams were in the same district and met annually.

Anxiety Note—Coach Red Moore is all worried about the Abilene team. He is afraid that they will all dry up and blow away before the Ranger game, or something.

It seems that H. J. Jones, who played center in 1933 when he weighed something like 170 and in 1934 when he weighed about 175, is reported to be playing

Do you Hate to Meet People?

Some of us are so bashful that whenever a new face appears before us we mentally duck away! Maybe it isn't shyness so much as simply not realizing how very interesting new acquaintances can be.

Some people are shy about new foods too. One family we know has had pork and beans every Saturday night for ten years, and they see no reason for changing!

How much more interesting life—and dinner—would be for that family with a new kind of meat, a vegetable prepared some other way, a new style in dessert. New foods—new faces—brighten our days and help make living an exciting game.

Look through the advertisements in this newspaper today for new ideas in foods. They're here, in abundance... recipes, tried and tested... favorite platters of favorite people... exotic dishes from exotic lands.

The advertisements bring you up-to-the-minute news of many things. Read the regularly. Form the habit of getting the most out of life—and the most for your money.
