Worried? You'd Never Think It of Late AAA Chiefs

Little would an observer have suspected the load of care that rested on the shoulders of Chester Davis, standing, left, administrator of the late AAA, and the smiling secretary of agriculture, Henry A. Wallace, beside him, as they looked over the group of farm representatives assembled in Wallace's office.

CARBON WINS A THRILLER FROM RANGER

Carbon High School made a clean sweep of the basket ball games played in Ranger Tuesday night, the girls' team winning by a score of 56 to 12 and the boys' team winning 24 to 17.

ATTORNEYS FOR MAYHEWS GIVE APPEAL NOTICE

Law Not With Relators In Suit, Decrees Judge George Davenport. Their prayer denied for a writ of mandamus to compel County Judge Clyde L. Garrett to hear the application of C. E. and W. H. Mayhew for a permit to sell beer, attorneys for the Cisco retailers Wednesday excepted to judgment of 91st District Court Judge George L. Davenport and gave notice of appeal to the Eleventh Court of Civil Appeals.

Sharp Increase In Trade Seen

By United Press
 CHICAGO.—Increases ranging from 15 to 35 per cent are predicted for 1936 by the more than 600 manufacturers of 5,000 lines of merchandise exhibiting in the Merchandise Mart here, America's largest permanent trade fair and generally regarded as one of the country's most accurate business barometers.

A survey of these manufacturers conducted by the Mart showed an average business gain for 1935 ing no starch has greatly stimulated the wholesale and retail shirt business. The high colors to be stressed in men's wear in 1936, according to this spokesman, are an indication of greatly improved business for the new year. In times of prosperity men wear bright colors; in times of depression, dark and sombre effects, he explained.

Floor coverings, spurred by new style developments, especially in "texture" effects—the rough, homespun appearance—had "the best year since 1929," according to a consensus of important manufacturers' representatives in Mart. Notable, they said, was a complete absence of the customary July-August slump, the continuation of large orders "right up to Christmas," and a distinct trend toward wall-to-wall carpeting, traditionally symbolic, to this trade, of better times.

O'Sullivan and Ace Abbott Featured On Elk Wrestling Card

Ace Abbott of Abilene will be seen in the main event of the Elks wrestling program tonight when he meets Rex O'Sullivan. Abbott is substituting for Benny Wilson, who was scheduled to wrestle here, but who was injured in a bout Monday night and was unable to fill his engagement.

In the preliminary, Egg-Head Perry, also of Abilene, will meet Jack Duffy, the Oklahoma roughneck, in a 45-minute bout.

Post Office Awning Is Being Removed

George McManus, owner of the building in which the Ranger Post Office is located, was in Ranger Tuesday looking after properties in Ranger.

While here he issued orders to have the awning in front of the post office building, which have been sagging for some time and which had become dangerous, removed.

Workmen on the job Tuesday afternoon stated that a new awning was not to be installed to replace the one removed. The work was being completed Wednesday.

Eat, Then Fight Old Texas Rule

DALLAS, Texas.—When Texas rebelled against Mexico and went to war to win her independence in 1836 the rule was, "Feast before you fight instead of fight before you feast."

A historian's account of the arrival of a company of 75 New Orleans Grays at Nacogdoches, Texas, reveals a banquet served in their honor by the town, with the following items on the menu: Roast bear, raccoon, squirrel, and wild turkey; two large hind-quarters and the backbone of an ox; chicken and dumplings, baked and mashed Irish potatoes, corn bread, biscuits, stewed corn, beans, squash, cabbage, honey, persimmons, hickory nuts, pecans and pumpkin pie.

The table decorations consisted of a huge black bear recently slaughtered, "hide, bones, meat and claws," holding between his tusks a home-made white flag inscribed "Constitution of 1824." Revocation of that constitution by the Mexican government was one of the factors that fomented the Texas Revolution.

The historian said "copious quantities of champagne" accompanied the feast and that the guests did not depart "until the morning after" when the Grays galloped off to the front without a wink of sleep.

In New York wrestling contest, Sid Westrich throws Mario Giglio, suggesting, as a nickname for a mat flop, "just a Giglio."

THIS CURIOUS WORLD By William Ferguson

WATER IS TAKEN FROM THE AIR, BY THESE HUGE "AIR WELLS" WHICH ARE BEING BUILT IN DRY AREAS OF EUROPE!

THE WARM OUTDOOR AIR ENTERS THE DOME THROUGH THE OPENINGS, AND IS ROBBED OF ITS MOISTURE BY CONTACT WITH THE COLD INTERIOR.

FOR MANY YEARS IT WAS A COMMON BELIEF THAT HORSE HAIRS, LEFT IN WATER, TURNED INTO WORMS.

AIRWELLS already have been used successfully in southern France. The principle is the same as that of an ice-filled pitcher, on which water condenses. At night, cold air enters the dome through a central pipe and circulates through the interior core, chilling it thoroughly by morning. As the outside air warms up, it enters and deposits its moisture, which drains into basins.

Colleges Are Victims of Their Own Greed

Everybody likes to see the young folks have a good time, and the college football stadium is one of the places where they go to get one. But when having a good time includes tearing down the goal posts, tossing empty whiskey bottles at the referee, and sending boisterous hamburger salesmen onto the field for impromptu appearances, things have gone a little too far.

This seems to be the consensus of college sports leaders, as reported at a meeting in New York. The collegians admitted that a rowdy note is beginning to develop among the cash customers at these autumn Saturday afternoon gatherings, and it was agreed that something must be done to save the game from its best friends.

Such a reform is a long way overdue. No longer are the risks of the game confined to the healthy young bruisers on the playing field.

The ordinary customer stands a fair chance of having some 200-pound souse fall into his lap, or of being beated by a hastily discarded flask; failing this, he is at least certain to have his sensibilities harrowed by being obliged to look at, and listen to, a number of the less pleasant by-products of intoxication.

College authorities are quick to point out that these excesses are not committed by students or alumni. The red-faced celebrant who makes himself a public nuisance at the football game is usually some gent who never saw a college in his life and who is an alumnus of nothing more noteworthy than the gas house gang down on the other side of the railroad tracks.

But this fact does not leave the colleges in the clear. This "spectator problem" is one that they have brought on themselves, unaided.

It was not the proletariat that turned college football from a sport for students into a great hippodrome; it was the college authorities.

It isn't the unlettered public that hires $10,000-a-year coaches, fancy press agents, 10-second tackles and all the rest of the army that goes to make up big time football; it is the college authorities.

The college goes out into the open market to bid for support of the general, non-collegiate sporting crowd; it solicits and gets their patronage, accepts their dollars at the gate—and, if it doesn't like the way they behave, it can remedy matters by deflating football.

President William Mather Lewis of Lafayette College hit the nail on the head when he remarked that "as long as we in the college admit a portion of the public to our games merely upon the payment of a stipulated admission price, they are in exactly the same relative position as they would be in attendance upon any other paid performance."

That says it. The colleges find John Public's dough good enough; if they don't like his behavior, that is just too bad.

New Life for Reindeer

Success seems to be coming to Canada's interesting experiment with reindeer.

Last spring a herd of more than 2000 reindeer was delivered to Canadian officials at the mouth of the Mackenzie River. The animals had been rounded up in Alaska and driven to Canada overland—a process which took five long, difficult years.

Now it is reported that the herd is increasing satisfactorily and that prospects for its future development as a source of food and clothing for Eskimos and Indians of Canada's far northland are excellent.

The reindeer is a native of the old world. Uncle Sam established reindeer herds in Alaska some years ago for Eskimo and Indian tribes, and the stunt worked so well Canada decided to copy it. Judging by present indications, this "new deal" for the Canadian northland will meet equal success.

The Blushing Bridegroom

Sidney Summerfield is head of the marriage license bureau in Chicago, and in that job he has come in contact with bridal couples without number; and he rises to remark that the "blushing bride" of tradition is as rare as the cigar store Indian of blessed memory.

As a matter of fact, says Mr. Summerfield, it is the man who gets all trembly and colors up to the ears when he approaches the altar. The little woman is as cool and self-possessed as an archdeacon.

And this, it seems to us, is a useful bit of puncturing a very old tradition. Men like to believe that they are the level-headed ones, in moments of emotional stress, and that women get smitten with the jitters.

In reality, however, it is usually just the other way. The ordinary woman can give the ordinary man cards and spades in the business of keeping a grip on flutery nerves.

It will be easy to tell the affluent Democrats at those $50-a-plate Jackson Day dinners. They'll be the ones who have the olive pits.

CURTAINS?

Court Denies—

In rendering the decision in the case, the court said in part: "Before the court would be authorized to grant the writ of mandamus as prayed for by the relators, it would be incumbent upon the relators to show, first, that the sale of 3.2 per cent beer is authorized in the precinct where relators are seeking a permit to sell such beer, and, second, that the constitutional and statutory provisions as adopted in 1935, and now in effect, authorized the sale of 3.2 per cent beer in Precinct 6 of Eastland county, not withstanding the county as a whole is dry.

"In determining the above issue, we are necessarily controlled by the decision of the supreme court, the most recent cases involving similar issues are that of Walling vs. King, County Judge, reported in the 87th Southwestern Reporter, Second Series at Page 1077, and the case of Coker, County Judge, vs. Kmeick, reported in the 87th Southwestern Reporter, Second Series at Page 1076. The first case referred to, that of Walling vs. King, County Judge, is an appeal from the district court of Childress county, Texas. The facts in this case may be quoted from the decision as follows:

"On the 26th day of August, 1933, the county held an election to determine whether or not the sale of 3.2 per cent beer should be prohibited within the county. This election held against the proposition to make the sale lawful within the county.

"On March 2, 1934, an election was held within the corporate limits of the city of Childress, which is within the boundaries of Childress county, and at his election a majority of the voters in that city voted in favor of permitting the sale of 3.2 per cent beer within the corporate limits. After the result of this election was declared, J. T. Walling, appellant, made application to the county judge of Childress county for a license authorizing him to sell beer within the corporate limits of the city of Childress. The county judge refused to set the application for hearing or to take any action looking to the granting of the license.

"The supreme court in deciding this case upon the fact as stated held that the election in the city of Childress on March 2, 1934, wherein the voters of the city of Childress favored the sale of 3.2 per cent beer was unauthorized and was a nullity and void.

"Applying the doctrine as laid down in this case to the facts before us, we find that they are similar, it being admitted that Precinct 6 of Eastland county is dry territory, unless the election held in that precinct in 1933, was legal and authorized the sale of 3.2 per cent beer within said precinct. The supreme court having in no uncertain terms held that the election in the city of Childress held during the same year was void and without force or effect, we are constrained to hold that the election in Precinct 6 of Eastland county in 1933 was likewise void. We are not unmindful of the sound reasoning in the contention and argument of relators as to the second issue involved, but in view of the holdings in the cases of Walling vs. King, County Judge, and that of Coker, County Judge, vs. Kmeick above referred to, I am compelled to refuse the writ of mandamus as prayed for by the relators, and it is so ordered."

Borger Girl Owns Kennel of 131 Dogs

By United Press

BORGER, Texas.—If numbers meant anything, Miss Billye Payne Chandler of Borger, could start the most unusual dog kennel in the state, for she owns a total of 131 dogs. The pooches vary from a far scottie a foot long to a tiny pup but a half of an inch in length, including his tail. There are St. Bernards, bulldogs, dachshunds, pointers, pekinese, setters and just plain "dog" represented. They are made of wire, cloth, china, celluloid, fur, and one is even made from a pine cone.

Miss Chandler started collecting dogs five years ago. Friends have sent her tiny animals from Mexico and from more than a dozen states in the union. She also has a number of pins and necklaces with pictures of dogs on them.

Sport Glances.By Grayson

CHICAGO—After going back to his North Dakota ranch for his health, Charley Retzlaff will fight Joe Louis at the huge Chicago Stadium, Jan. 17. The scrap is listed for 15 rounds. It isn't likely to go more than three, but the promoters are confident that it will gross the $108,000 that the house is scaled to at a $750 top. This is just another tribute to the bucks office magic of Louis.

Retzlaff is a tall, thin-chested heavyweight out of Leonard, N. D. Charley may not be the most formidable gladiator in the world, but he's a good business man. The Dakota Dynamiter, as he is advertised, was offered $600 to entice Louis in Chicago shortly after the embalmers turned professional, July 1, 1934.

Good Business Man RETZLAFF and his manager came to Chicago to look Louis over the night the black meteor took on Adolph Winter.

After observing the Michigan Negro in action, Retzlaff and his handler decided that if they waited a while they could collect far more than $600. It was a wise decision. In place of $600, Retzlaff and the three pilots he now has are due to drag down something like $15,000, which if one is thumped around a bit is soothing salve for bruises.

Retzlaff is a bruising biter with a cutting right hand. He has been belted out a couple of times, but no one ever accused him of folding up. Jimmy Braddock will attest to the fact that Retzlaff can punch a bit for the champion dropped a 19-round decision to Charley in 1932 before going on relief rolls.

Record Impressive RETZLAFF'S record against Louis in two years is...

conomist Tells Why Townsend Plan Would Fail

By United Press
PASADENA, Cal.—The Townsend Old Age Revolving Pension Plan was pronounced just another piece of paper by Dr. Graham Laing, economics authority and writer of the California Institute of Technology.

The answer is, he said, that prices will soar. This, coupled with high taxes that would be necessary to raise the huge pension payments (he estimates this at equivalent to a 40 to 50 per cent sales tax) would place young and old alike in a worse financial position than today.

“Strangely enough, most of the panaceas seem to be associated with the problems of money, and the reformers seldom take the trouble to understand the money system that we are using.”

With All My Love by Mary Raymond

CHAPTER XLIX
DANA had entered the hospital and was making her way to the information window. The girl clerk looked at her curiously. It was only a momentary curiosity. From her post back of the grill, she had looked into tragic faces many times before.

sat tensely, anguished, waiting. A woman in front of Dana, mid-aged, gray-haired, was tapping her chair with nervous fingers. “Someone sick?” she asked. “My husband,” Dana answered. It didn't occur to her that it was strange to be calling Scott her husband.

mendous relief. She was staring at Scott. Scott who was so wonderful. Who had so much magic in his strong, skilled fingers! His face before her adoring eyes became a blur, part of a whirling panorama. She saw the amazed blue eyes of the nervous woman. Then the blue eyes were gone, too. Scott felt Dana's arms about him relax, and then she was a dead weight in his arms.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

BY MARY E. DAGUE
Sister Mary's Kitchen is a weekly column providing recipes and kitchen tips. The featured recipe is for 'Tomorrow's Menu'.

Tomorrow's Menu
BREAKFAST: Orange juice, cereal, cream, shirred eggs, toast, milk, coffee.
LUNCHEON: Beef broth with liver balls, red and white cabbage salad, canned peas, chocolate brownies, milk, tea.
DINNER: Cream of onion soup, vegetable plate, celery hearts, suet pudding with custard sauce, milk, coffee.

Bright Plates Spur Appetites
The vegetable dinner has a definite place in winter meal planning, since it provides healthful elements in which "meat and potatoes" meals are deficient.

Children particularly need vegetables all through the year, and a vegetable plate as bright as an artist's palette with the true colors of the vegetables is sure to tempt them.

Plan to use at least two green vegetables for the sake of their color. Peas, beans, spinach, Brussels sprouts, broccoli, kale, southern dandelion greens—a trip to the market will convince you how easy it is to serve green vegetables.

How Calotabs Help Nature To Throw Off a Bad Cold

Millions have found in Calotabs a most valuable aid in the treatment of colds. They take one or two tablets the first night and repeat the third or fifth night if needed.

How do Calotabs help Nature throw off a cold? First, Calotabs is one of the most thorough and dependable of all intestinal eliminators. Thus cleansing the intestinal tract of the germ-laden mucus and toxins.

Second, Calotabs are diuretic to the kidneys, promoting the elimination of cold poisons from the system. Thus Calotabs serve the double purpose of a purgative and diuretic, both of which are needed in the treatment of colds.

Calotabs are quite economical; only twenty-five cents for the family package, ten cents for the trial package. (Adv.)

Entertained in Williams Home

An afternoon's entertainment held in the form of a novel auction sale, was enjoyed by members of the Ruth Sunday school class of Central Baptist church, Tuesday afternoon when the hostess, Mrs. R. W. Williams, opened her hospitable home for the pleasant compliment.

A large selection of useful articles made up the collection, and the proceeds are to be used for class expenses.

Rose Mary Bruce, talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd L. Bruce, played two violin numbers with accompaniment by Mrs. C. D. Coe, at the piano.

A plate of fancy cake squares with coffee was served at the 5 o'clock hour to guest. Mes. O. M. Lemmond, George Rogers, T. E. Bankston, Roy McCleskey, W. B. Emfinger, J. B. Houghton, Dan Neville, C. D. Coe, Weldon Webb, L. L. Bruce, M. G. Martin, R. H. Snyder, T. L. Dupree, Odelle Cole, H. E. Parney, C. N. Deaton, C. C. Cash and E. V. Ingram.

The monthly luncheon will be held Jan. 28 at the home of Mrs. Webb.

Mrs. R. B. Canfield is scheduled to offer a talk on "Bureau of Child Welfare."

Business Session Announces Plans For February

A brief business session with the president, Mrs. E. R. Green, presiding, brought the announcement of plans for the month of February, when Hodges Oak Park school's Parent-Teacher association met Tuesday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock.

It was agreed that a school program would be held some time in early February, and decided mention was given the Founders Day tea, to be staged Feb. 5, at the home of Mrs. O. G. Lanier.

Dr. T. L. Lauderdale, who was scheduled to appear on program offering a timely talk, was called out of town and much disappointment was manifest at his forced absence.

A satisfactory attendance was recorded for the meeting.

Millionth Chevrolet Of 1935 Will Be Given Away as Gift

Chevrolet's one millionth car of 1935 production is to be presented to the owner of the oldest Chevrolet licensed and in regular use in the United States, according to Mr. H. C. Howard, zone manager, Chevrolet Motor Company, Dallas.

Mr. Howard says, "The millionth Chevrolet built within the current year came off the assembly line at Flint, Mich., on Dec. 12, just eight days after Chevrolet produced its eleven millionth car since the beginning of the company."

He continued, "Presentation of the millionth car of the year—a 1936 standard coach—will be made to the owner whose Chevrolet is discovered, between Dec. 16, 1935, and midnight Jan. 15, 1936, to be the oldest model licensed and in regular service."

He specified that, to win, the old-timer Chevrolet must have been regularly licensed for operation during the current year, possessing its own 1935 license tags issued before Dec. 1. It must, also, have been licensed as a passenger car, and be equipped with a complete car body. It must bear the original engine and chassis numbers, legible and unaltered.

To enter a Chevrolet for consideration, the owner need only drive it to any Chevrolet dealer's showroom and submit it for examination, receiving a blank on which he will report the engine and chassis numbers of the car to the Chevrolet Motor Company at Detroit, where the company's records will determine which is the very oldest in service.

"Chevrolet is happy to present this 1936 model," said Mr. Howard, "because it feels that some recognition is due the owners of Chevrolets. Our achievement of a production totaling well over a million cars during 1935 is to be credited largely to motorists who began purchasing Chevrolets years or decades since then."

"I wish that I could have the thrill that is in store for the owner whose early Chevrolet—a car maybe 15 or 18 years old—will be supplanted by a 1936 model."

Mr. Howard stated that although the presentation will be made as a new year's gift, the time for submitting cars for consideration has been extended, to include Jan. 15, because of the short period between Dec. 12, the birthday of the millionth car of the year, and the first of the year. Announcement of the award will be made on or about Jan. 22 as soon as the records can be carefully studied to determine exactly who has the oldest Chevrolet in active service.

MOTORISTS ABUSE WORD

By HARRY GRAYSON

NEW YORK—Professional boxing has tumbled to such a low estate in the east that it no longer pays a performer to make a trip of any length unless Joe Louis is his opponent.

That is the principal reason why Jock McAvoy suddenly returned to England for the holidays and why Freddie Steele is highly content to stay wearing trade on the Pacific coast.

Under current conditions, McAvoy and Steele—thar would be a match despite the disparity in poundage—can collect more coin on their home grounds than they can hope to make on what formerly was big time.

Steele, against formidable foe-men such as Vince Dundee, whose jaw he broke, and Gorilla Jones, drew $13,000 and $17,000, respectively. The Tacoma Tagger drags down 30 per cent. Expenses are normal.

Steele, battling Babe Risko, whom he probably would flatten, would play to net receipts of $25,000 in Seattle. This for a non-title affair, with the 155-pound Steele stepping on the scales with lead in his hands or being made officially overweight in some such manner.

Steele Rejected Scrap With Heavier McAvoy

McAVOY, boasting the light-heavy and middleweight championships of England, is a light-heavyweight. He agreed to make 166 pounds for Risko the night he knocked the Syracuse Pole down a half dozen times and out in the first round, but bounced on the scales at 168½.

That's the gentleman Jimmy Johnston offered Steele in the Garden. Yes, sir, Johnston certainly was looking after Steele's welfare.

At that, Steele might bolt McAvoy out, despite the undeniable class the Briton showed in flooring and outglopping the highly-garded Al McCoy who made trick weight and placing a in Risko's duke.

If any promoter can show to Miller, manager of Steele, who his boy can better himself in east, the Tacoma clouter will a-hopping Miller demands a guarantee, however.

Miller views the situation as a war to invade these shores since Ted Kid Lewis, obtaining start in repelling the formidable McCoy in what considered a mild upset, built up still hot McAvoy into action against Gorden McAvoy's share was per cent, or $1600.

Tacoman's Kayo Wallop Might Revive Interest

THE light-heavyweight class much in the same condition the middleweight in the east has been said that Steele might himself into an attraction.

McLarnin did Yeah? Well, Larnin found a natural so his foe-men were top-ranking fish holes with the favor of York cloak-and-suiters.

Steele scored nine knockouts 12 starts in 1935. Freddie drew Young Stuhley three times, Tommy Rios twice in taking decisions. The Tacoma lad rep Jones in 10, and took a decision and knocked out Payan. Other knockout victims were Baby Joe Gans, in Jimmy Rivers, Apostoli, in O'Dell, Al Rossi, Dundee, Swede Berglund.

Steele really should come. A puncher like this chap is might even stir up some middleweights, something hasn't existed since Mickey Ward and Ave Hudkins had it out.
