BEER LICENSE CASE GOES TO APPEAL COURT

Case of C. E. and W. H. Mayhew, denied by district court Wednesday a writ of mandamus to compel County Judge Clyde L. Garrett to hold a hearing on their application for a permit to sell beer, was submitted Friday to the Eleventh Court of Civil Appeals at Eastland.

The petition of the Cisco beer retailers was filed Monday after commissioners court declared results of the Jan. 3 county-wide beer election as showing a majority of votes against the legalization of the beverage.

Grady Owen appeared in behalf of County Judge Garrett in the appellate court while Don Traynor and F. D. Wright of Cisco appeared for the Mayhews.

Repairs Being Made On Old Stafford Co. Building In Ranger

The old Stafford Drug company building, on the corner of Main and Rust streets, is being remodelled and repaired after being vacant for several months.

Several merchants of Ranger are somewhat unconvinced reports that a service station may be placed on the corner, which is considered one of the best business locations in Ranger, and much comment has been heard concerning the probability that the station may be put in.

The repair work being done at present, however, is limited to a new roof for the building, new flooring in the rooms of the second story and repairs to the plaster walls, workmen said today.

At the city hall it was reported that the immediate repairs were the same as described by the workmen, and no permit for a service station had been issued as yet.

Rings Stolen In Ranger Recovered

Two rings reported stolen Saturday night in Ranger were recovered Friday by Ranger police, it was reported today by Chief of Police Jim Ingram of Ranger.

Charley Newberry, who was arrested in connection with the attempted robbery of the Clyde H. Davis Jewelry Company several months ago, confessed to the robbery, the police chief said, and told officers where the rings could be located.

The Newberry boy, when arrested in connection with the attempted jewelry robbery, was paroled to his mother, the police chief said today. He was being held in the Ranger city jail Friday morning.

ELLSWORTH AND CO-PILOT ARE FOUND ALIVE

LONDON, Jan. 17.—Lincoln Ellsworth and his pilot, Herbert Hollick-Kenyon, saved from the trackless Antarctic wastes after being marooned nearly two months on the Bay of Whales, were safe and well today aboard the rescue ship Discovery II.

The rescuer of Ellsworth, American explorer who set out with his Canadian pilot from Dundee, N. Z., to fly across the Antarctic, was described in a terse message from Discovery II today recording in a few words one of the most thrilling episodes of polar exploration.

Hollick-Kenyon was taken aboard by a searching party early yesterday, having advanced from the camp at Little America to meet the rescuers. Ellsworth, suffering from a slight cold, remained behind.

Another party was sent out and took him aboard the ship last night. The message from Discovery II said:

"Chip's party with sledges returned with Ellsworth Jan. 16, at 4:37 p. m., E. S. T."

There was nothing further, but previous messages indicated both men were in excellent condition. The explorers were forced down on the ice barriers 20 miles short of Little America, when they ran out of fuel. They made their way by dog team to Admiral Byrd's base, where there was equipment and provisions. Transmitter trouble silenced the wireless of their plane.

Two Stills Found North of Eastland

Concealed by trees and situated on banks of a creek eight miles northwest of Eastland, two stills were discovered by the sheriff's department Thursday.

One was of 50 gallons and the other of 150 gallons capacity. Four hundred gallons of mash were confiscated.

Clothing was found near the still location but no signs of the identity of the operators were discovered.

Making the raid were Sheriff Virge Foster, Deputy E. L. Woods, Constable Marion Seabourne and a former city police officer of Eastland county.

HOFFMAN TELLS WHY HE GAVE BRUNO DELAY

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 17.—Gov. Harold Hoffman issued a statement today justifying his reprieve for Bruno Hauptmann and saying he doubted the crime could have been committed by any one man.

In the face of much opposition in New Jersey to his last-minute action saving Hauptmann from execution tonight and demands from some quarters for his impeachment, he sought to explain his action to the people.

Earlier in the day he signed the official reprieve papers—one copy for Hauptmann and one for Col. Mark Kimbberling, principal keeper of the state prison.

In explaining why he reprieved Hauptmann he said he questioned the truthfulness and mental competency of several chief prosecution witnesses and promised to bend every effort toward "calmly" considering some of the "baffling" phases of the crime and the subsequent trial of Hauptmann.

Assistant County Agent Approved

Completion of arrangements for employment of an assistant to County Agent C. Metz Heald was announced Friday.

The assistant will devote full time to extension work in the field. He will be a graduate of the Agricultural and Mechanical college, to be named by the extension service.

Chambers of Commerce of Ranger, Eastland and Cisco are underwriting a portion of the salary of the new assistant while majority of the salary will be paid by the federal government.

It is expected the assistant will be named by C. E. Bowles of College Station, district extension agent, who will be in Eastland Wednesday for a meeting of 4-H club boys and sponsors.

Funeral services for Mrs. Wilie Hazlip, 28, who died at her home in Scranton Wednesday evening, were held Friday.

Immediate survivors include her husband and a sister, Mrs. Lester Foster of Eastland. Mr. and Mrs. Foster attended the funeral.

COLD WAVE IS HEADED SOUTH TOWARD TEXAS

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 17.—Snow fell over much of the southwest today and the weatherman forecast it would continue through tonight and possibly tomorrow.

A low pressure area moved northeasterly from North Central Texas, the reports said, bring snow and lower temperatures.

Nebraska, already blanketed by snow that in sections was the heaviest in years, got more snow today. A moderate cold wave was expected to send temperatures to zero in the eastern part of the state.

The weather bureau forecast continued snow and colder weather in Missouri, Kansas, Iowa and Nebraska.

The cold wave is expected to reach Texas sometime tonight.

Cameraman Clicks With Morgan

How times do change. Yes, you really can believe your eyes—that's none other than J. P. Morgan, international banker and one-time photographer evader, shaking hands with John S. Thompson, NEA Service photographer, at the Senate Munitions Inquiry in Washington, D. C. Thompson and Morgan have been friends since the famous midjet episode, when lensmen pictured the banker holding a tiny woman on his lap.

Demonstrations Are Given at Kokomo by County Agent Heald

Demonstration on piling of three hogs and extension methods of curing was made Thursday by County Agent C. Metz Heald and Cotton Adjustment Assistant A. E. Arthur on L. Higginbottom's farm at Kokomo.

Farmers May Get Their AAA Checks

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—The house agriculture committee today approved a measure to pay $296,000 to farmers who completed their contracts with the AAA before it was destroyed.

The McNary bill, calling for a $300,000,000 appropriation for the same purpose was reported favorably by the senate agriculture committee yesterday.

The house bill was introduced by Marvin Jones, Dem., Texas. It carried authorization for an appropriation to meet the payment.

Italy to Take Part In League Meet

ROME, Jan. 17.—Italy will take part in Monday's session of the league sanctions committee of 18 at Geneva, during which further applications of penalties, including an oil embargo may be discussed, it was announced today.

$25,000 In Peanuts Marketed During Week at Rising Star; AAA Ruling Is Believed Cause of Release of Nuts

RISING STAR, Jan. 17.—A shellers for the crop. Heretofore the only market has been to the shellers and too often the supply was greater than the demand making for lower prices and a glutted market.

In checking his figures Monday Mr. House found that he had bought 425 tons up to Saturday night, or 8,530,000 bushels, and had paid out $19,300 in cash for them. Other buyers here, buying for the shellers took in some $6,000 worth during the week, but taking only the very best grades, running the total receipts for the week over $25,000.

It is estimated that about half the local crop was sold before the fall rains, most of it bringing above 90 cents per bushel. All the early part of the crop was bought by shellers and practically all sold was high grade. A great deal of the peanuts held over were damaged by wet weather, and had not the oil mills come into the picture no doubt would have been a drug on the market. It is hard to estimate just how many peanuts are left in the country, but it is thought that the big majority was disposed of the past week.

Munitions Committee Split Is Expected

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—A wide-open split in the senate munitions committee today threatened collapse of the two-year-old inquiry into international arms traffic.

Two committeemen hinted they might resign if Chairman Gerald Nye continued criticism of the nation's war-time president and others who died years ago.

ALLRED STILL UNDECIDED ON EXTRA SESSION

AUSTIN, Jan. 17.—Gov. James Allred still undecided about a third special session of the Texas legislature, today was beginning to reach some conclusions. They are, to date:

A special session will be needed sometime in 1936.

There will be enough money in the old age assistance fund without new legislation to begin making payments as soon as it is possible, physically, to prepare the pension rolls.

No session will be held during the summer political campaign. Reasons for delaying the session were summarized by the governor in discussion with newspapermen today. One is a possibility that congress at its present session may change the provisions of the national security act. If the federal law is changed Texas law may need to be revised to get the maximum federal benefits.

Forger Accused of Killing Mate

Already under 2 to 14 years' sentence for forging the will of A. I. Cheney, capitalist found dead in her room in Los Angeles, Mrs. Hazel Belford Glab, suburban-haired widow, above, has been indicted for murder of her third husband, John I. ## DEBATE STARTS ON BONUS IN UPPER HOUSE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—Debate on the compromise soldier bonus bill began in the senate today with predictions it would be finally enacted into law "whether the president vetoes it or not."

Chairman Pat Harrison of the senate finance committee, sponsor of the "baby bond" measure, in effect defied a white house veto when he opened debate with the statement:

"I don't know whether the president will sign this bill or not. He has made no statement to anyone. But I say to you that whether it is signed or not it will become law because it is the best possible way to get out of this situation and because it is easier and lighter on the government."

Harrison, staunch administration supporter, did not say he would vote to override a veto, but indicated confidence there were enough votes to enact the measure regardless of the white house position.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Collins and children, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hale and children, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Vermillion and children, and Miss Lillian Nallin, all of Olden, enjoyed a goat and chicken barbecue supper, picnic style, out in the Vermillion yard, Wednesday evening.

Methodist Choir To Appear Sunday In Breck Program

BRECKENRIDGE, Jan. 17.—Announcement was made today that the choir from the First Methodist Church of Eastland, under the direction of Miss Wilda Drago, and the Eastland octet, composed of pupils of Miss Drago, will give a program at the Breckenridge Methodist Church Sunday evening, beginning at 7 o'clock.

Italian Unit Is Reported Isolated

ADDIS ABABA, Jan. 17.—Unconfirmed reports reached here today that 2,500 Italians were almost isolated at Makele, the peak of the Italian front at the north and were being supplied with food by planes.

The isolation was said to have resulted from flanking movements from east and west. There were reports, too, an Ethiopian force had been sent to attack Aksum, the holy city the Italians captured early in the war.

THREE GAMES ON SCHEDULE FOR TONIGHT

Three basket ball games will be played in the Ranger Recreation building tonight when the Eastland Mavericks and the Ranger Bulldogs meet in the first cak encounter between the two schools this season.

The first game will be between the Ranger Junior college quintet and the basket ball team from Hillsboro Junior college, which is scheduled to start promptly at 7:15. The Bulldog-Maverick game will follow immediately after the junior college contest and the Ranger High school girls will play the Alameda girls in the final contest of the evening. The doors will be opened at 6:45.

Indications are that the Ranger-Eastland affair will be one long remembered by both schools, as the two teams have played about the same brand of basket ball all season.

The Mavericks have lost two close games to Carbon, while the Bulldogs have lost once to the same team by almost an identical score. The Mavericks have defeated the Breckenridge Buckaroos have defeated both teams this week, the Mavericks losing their game by one point while the Buckaroos had a two-point lead over the Bulldogs at the close of their game Thursday evening.

Although there is to be a junior college, high school and girls' game played tonight there is to be no advance in admission prices, 10 cents being charged for students and 25 cents for adults.

Mary Allen Lanier Honored With Birthday Luncheon Party

Honoring the 10th birthday of their daughter, Mary Allen, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Lanier, entertained with a delightful luncheon party at home, Pine street, Thursday at high noon.

The dining table was laid with a handsome lace cloth. The centerpiece of violets and red carnations made a lovely spring floral note, for other appointments of amber and silver.

The birthday cake finished in shades of orange was flanked on either side with blue candle holders with tapers of harmonizing color hue.

A plate of baked chicken carried two courses and covers were laid for the honoree, Mary Allen, and Mrs. R. M. Newnam and son, Morris, Harold and Marie Green, Misses Dora Wesley and Rena Mason, Gilbert Lanier, Jr., and host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Lanier.

Mrs. Glazier Hostess To Pleasant Class Luncheon
The Adolphian class of First Christian church was entertained with a covered dish luncheon with Mrs. E. M. Glazier, hostess, at her home, South Austin street, on Thursday at 1 o'clock.

Quartet tables were attractive in covers of white made complete with appointments of silver and crystal.

Mrs. Carl Clemmer, class president, called a business session in the afternoon and plans were given brief discussion. Games occupied an entertaining hour, and the entire afternoon proved a pleasant one.

Allred Has Taken Many Trips Since Going Into Office

By United Press

AUSTIN. — Governor Allred, whose stumping tours have taken him to every Texas crossroads, had broadened his horizons greatly in his year as chief executive. Allred's out-of-state jaunts have taken him to Washington, D. C., to fight federal oil control; to Oklahoma City seeking an oil states compact; to California to see the Rose Bowl football game and to advertise the Texas Centennial; and to Nashville, Tenn., for a Jackson Day dinner sponsored by that state's Young Democrats. He considered it a special honor to be invited to speak so near The Hermitage, Jackson's famous home.

The governor's wanderlust is well-known in Austin, where he is reported to be eager to hit the campaign trail again. Allred is one of the most vigorous campaigners in recent years and companions on his speaking tours wonder how he weathers the rigorous speaking schedules. Insight into the young governor's desire for travel may be gained from the knowledge that he was a sailor during the war.

Press of other activities kept Allred from accepting a long-distance invitation to New York. In that city Jan. 7, associates honored a former Texas newspaperman, Tex O'Reilly, famed as a soldier of fortune. O'Reilly, a machine gunner in various revolutions, helped

Watch Stolen Six Months Recovered

By United Press

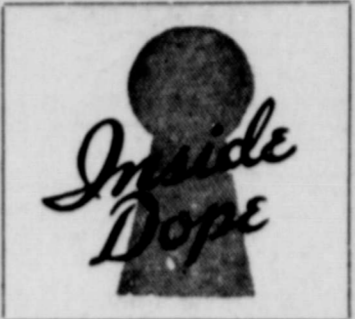

LOCKHART, Texas. — Six months ago a sneak thief entered the home of Charles Kelley, farmer living near here and stole a heavy gold watch. The watch was a heirloom having been the property of Kelley's father.

Several days ago Kelley's brother saw a Mexican lad display the watch on the street and he at once called his brother, who identified the time piece and called a deputy sheriff.

He will be sentenced Jan. 24 on two counts, carrying a maximum penalty of 10 years in prison and a fine of $2,000.

CARDUI

Cardui is a purely vegetable medicine for the relief of functional periodic pain, nervousness and weakness due to poor nourishment. It is in successful use by thousands of women.
"I have used Cardui and had good results from its use," writes Mrs. W. E. Barnett, of Taylors, S. C. "I suffered with cramping and headaches and would have a chilly feeling. Sometimes I would feel miserable and have pain more than a day, and I would be nervous. I read of Cardui and decided to use it. After taking six bottles of Cardui, I had less pain and was regulated. I feel much better."
When such suffering can be avoided by taking Cardui, isn't that the common-sense thing to do? Of course, if it does not seem to reach the cause of your trouble, consult a physician.

Benet Defines Writer's Need

NEW HAVEN, Conn.—Prosecutive authors should not underestimate the difficulty of a writing career, cautions Stephens St. Vincent Benet, outstanding American poet and author of "John Brown's Body."

difficult process most people think they are "potential novelists," the author said. "There are many who believe in the inspirational or untaught songbird theory about authors. According to this, an author is a kind of wire; and if you run enough electricity into him, he'll burn on a light. The reaction of an author to a situation is like that of a slot machine. Actually, inspiration is the molten metal of literature, but unless there is a mold for the metal in the writer's mind, it is splashed about and wasted. Benet, who was chairman of the Yale Literary magazine when a Yale undergraduate, said the greatest necessity for a writer is constant curiosity concerning the personality of everyone with whom he comes into contact. But he also must have time to find out in what fields he can write to best effect. He recalled that when Sinclair Lewis was at Yale, he was writing about knights and troubadours. "An author is fortunate to realize $700 a year from his writings," Benet asserted. "On the other hand, one successful book might make as much as $70,000." PREFERENCES TO WALK By United Press PORTLAND, Me. — Although Mark Howard, 63, owns an automobile, he walked 40 miles to attend a Grange convention. He left his car in a barn because he believes long walks "keep a man in trim."

WATER BUT NONE TO DRINK By United Press ALLENTOWN, Pa.—Residents in the nineteenth ward of this city have a new motto: "City water everywhere but not a drop to drink." STRANGE CASE OF JULIA CRAIG

by Nard Jones Copyright NEA 1935

HERE TODAY... Julia Craig had the most visible job of all the girls. But there was a stifling routine about the work that she did not like.

Julia read, "When you give her a try-out remember I'm in love with her—" prisingly few steps she was in a tiny ante-room which held only three things—a photograph of Henri Lamb and his orchestra, a seared bench, and a very young man who sat on the end of the bench smoking a cigar. He surveyed Julia critically and said, "You want to see Mr. Lamb?" "Yes," she faltered. More than once she had faced irate Woodford clients and turned them away harmlessly. But somehow she was afraid of this very young man. "I have a letter to him."

Beery, Barrymore Score In Feature "Ah Wilderness!"

FILM TO START SUNDAY AT THE LOCAL THEATRE

The delicate tracery of Eugene O'Neill's drama with its poignant humanness, its down-to-earth simplicity, and its dynamic dramatic power is vividly caught on the talking screen in "Ah Wilderness!" Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's film transcription of the great stage success, starting Sunday at the Arcadia Theatre.

Acclaimed on the stage where it was played both by George M. Cohan and the late Will Rogers, the film version now adds the lavish scope of screen production to the dramatic story. Its location scenes in the quaint, New England town of Grafton, Mass., its charming home sequences, and its camera effects add a sense of reality that only the talking screen could achieve.

Wallace Beery plays one of the greatest roles he has ever given pictures as the ineffective, alcoholic but lovable Uncle Sid, running the gamut from comedy to poignant tragedy with Aline MacMahon, who plays the spinster aunt who loves but cannot marry him.

Lionel Barrymore, in the role played by Cohan and Rogers, gives a performance that rivals his famous delineation in "A Free Soul." In the scene where he tells Eric Linden that which every father must tell his son as the youth stands on the threshold of manhood he has one of the mightiest dramatic moments in his whole career.

Young romance is represented by Eric Linden, playing the son, who gives an amazingly human and skillful performance, and Cecelia Parker, charming as the high school sweetheart, Miss MacMahon as Aunt Lily, and Spring Byington as the mother are ideal cast and Mickey Rooney adds childish comedy. Charles Grapevin, Frank Albertson, Edward Nugent, Bonita Granville and Helen Flint are excellent in supporting roles.

Clarence Brown, who has given the world many great picture successes, uses his deft human touch to the best advantage, and through out the picture his handling of the charming high school graduation sequences, Beery's comedy, the town Fourth of July celebration, the love sequences and childish quarrel are all apparent.

O'Neill's story deals with an American family of 1906, with the young son in the throes of his first love affair with its transports and despair. This is compared with the mature romance of the spinster aunt and shiftless uncle, and the steadfast love of the parents.

The boy's ineffectual urge to do something important, which involves him with a sinister character; the coming to the rescue by the father, and the varied human angles that parallel the main theme make it a living, vital chronicle of American life.

Charming photography by Clyde De Vinna adds greatly to the charm of the unique story of loves of yesterday and today which O'Neill, the author, terms his "comedy of recollection."

Boulder Dam Is Great Engineering Feat of Past Year

WASHINGTON.—The premier engineering event of 1935, according to the National Geographic Society, was completion of Boulder Dam.

Other projects of major importance cited were:

The bridging of the Mississippi River near New Orleans.

The "Little Belt," bridge in Denmark.

Electrification of the Pennsylvania Railroad between New York and Washington.

Changing to standard gauge of 150 miles of the Chinese Eastern Railway between Harbin and Hsinking.

Inauguration of a great ship canal in Russia connecting the Baltic and White seas.

Completion of a highway between the Texas border and Mexico, D. F.

Opening of the Moscow subway system.

Placing in service of the world's largest steamship, Normandie.

Boulder Dam, which bars the Colorado River, contains 4,500,000 cubic yards of reinforced concrete. It rises 726 feet. Water was permitted to gather above the dam four months before the last concrete was poured on May 29. The water level has risen more than 260 feet up the face of the dam and has formed a lake reach-

Britain Is Warned Of Birth Slump

LONDON.—A prophesy has been made by experts that Britain's population may fall to one-tenth of its present size in the next hundred years.

This is foreshadowed in a report just issued by the Royal Economic Society. The inquiry on which the report is based has been conducted by Dr. Enid Charles, of the Department of Social Biology in the University of London.

The present low birth rate will begin to cause social dislocation long before a hundred years has past, says Dr. Charles, if no new social agencies intervene to raise it. Britain will become largely a nation of old-age pensioners. Schools will be empty, and the number of men and women of marriageable age will fall drastically.

While at the end of the hundred years the population will have fallen from around about 40,000,000 to 4,000,000, by the end of 50 years it will already have fallen to about 25,000,000.

Taking the next 20 years, Dr. Charles says that although no considerable decline in total numbers need be expected, "a marked fall in the total numbers of the school age population and a marked rise in the total numbers of persons of 60 years of age and over will occur."

In the next 20 years the school population will fall by nearly one-half. In the same period the number of pensioners (60 years of age and over) will increase by nearly one-half.

As an increasing section of the population consists of people over the age at which they may have children, the birth rate will suffer. Dr. Charles estimates that in 25 years from now the birth rate will fall six per 1,000 of the population, with the death rate at 14 per 1,000.

Embarassed Fire Fighter Wears Robe

WARREN, R. I.—John Vergelli, a call fireman, places duty above everything else.

He was lathering his face, preparatory to shaving, when the fire alarm was sounded. He ran to the fire station, stepped onto a truck and started off.

Vergelli happened to glance down and to his dismay found himself clad only in his underwear, shoes and bathrobe.

Felton Praises Prison For Medical Care

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind.—Nick Pasko, serving a sentence in the Indiana state prison for arson, all but argued against being paroled when his case was considered by the board of trustees.

Pasko entered the prison several years ago with his arms and hands useless as the result of a fire. He had other physical disabilities.

"But look at me now," said Nick. "I'm well again and ready to work. Prison did that for me."

"It's up to you, gentlemen," he told the parole board. "I don't mind staying here. I'm treated fine and I have got back my health. You can parole me or keep me, it's all the same to me."

Bone Reveals a Health Secret

ST. LOUIS.—Recent studies of the shoulder blade have resulted in startling disclosures, according to Dr. William W. Graves, professor of neuro-psychiatry at St. Louis University.

Speaking before the St. Louis Academy of Science, Graves said that his studies of shoulder blades show that by their shape they indicate:

1. Probable length of life.
2. Chances of good health.
3. Degree of intelligence.
4. Capacity to learn.

Dr. Graves has classified shoulder blades into two types:

1. Convex types.
2. Types other than convex.

Persons having the convex type of shoulder blades live longer than others. Dr. Graves declared, and recent studies have shown them possessed of a greater capacity for learning. In the course of his studies he found one and one-half more convex blades among school children from 6 to 14 years of age than among children of the same age in a colony for feeble-minded.

This Is Season For Flu Epidemic

AUSTIN, Tex.—This is the season of the year when influenza or "Flu" is most prevalent, according to Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer. Colds, gripe, influenza, whatever we may call them, are believed to be spread from person to person through discharges from the nose and throat. To protect yourself and others from such disease, here are some things to be remembered:

Influenza is highly infectious. Practically everybody is susceptible to it. No matter how many times you have had the disease you may contract it again. Therefore, keep away from people who are sneezing, coughing, or sniffing or who are actively ill with colds, influenza or pneumonia. Keep away from crowded places. Have your own towel and always wash your hands before eating, and sneeze or cough into your handkerchief.

Keep fit by drinking plenty of water, by eating simple nourishing food, by some exercise out of doors every day, by dressing according to the weather, by having plenty of sleep in a well ventilated room, and by keeping the bowels regulated.

Don't neglect your "cold." If you have the slightest suspicion of fever go home, go to bed immediately and call your physician. Stay in bed until he tells you that you can get up, and follow his advice explicitly.

Disastrous results may ensue if influenza cases are allowed to get about too soon. Persons convalescing from influenza are particularly susceptible to other infections. If you are just getting over some illness, return to your normal routine of life gradually.

Since Japan rarely misses a trick, it would undoubtedly be glad to look over Hoare and Laval's line of peace proposals.

Whoever said an army marches on its stomach must have been studying Italian progress in Ethiopia.

Texas Will Have Illustrated Map

AUSTIN.—For 1936, Texas has an illustrated automobile road map. It will be issued by the state highway department as Centennial aid.

Road maps are issued every year by the department but the new addition will be more elaborate than those of the past. It will show not only types of roads, but will portend some of the state's most attractive scenes.

There will be shown also state big group of roadside parks and many things that will be interesting and valuable to Centennial tourists.

Official says Chicago got its criminals by "keeping them on the move." We understood that was provided for its own rides.
