TAX DEPUTY TO BE HERE A SHORT TIME

Tom Haley, county tax collector and assessor, announced today in a telephone conversation with J. E. Meroney, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, that a deputy collector would be placed in Ranger to collect poll taxes.

Haley stated that the collector could be stationed in Ranger only three days, and that he had selected the last three days of January as the dates on which he will collect poll taxes here.

It is expected that the deputy will be at the Ranger city hall on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week, though no definite announcement was made as to where he would be located.

Efforts are being made to have the deputy stationed here longer than the three days, as it was pointed out that only 150 poll taxes were paid in Ranger in 1935 during the two days the deputy was in Ranger.

"There are many who cannot arrange their affairs so they can pay their poll taxes at the specified time," it was pointed out in Ranger today, "but who would pay if there was someone in Ranger to collect the poll taxes whenever the opportunity arises for them to be paid."

Since the custom of having a permanent deputy appointed in Ranger was discontinued by Haley the poll tax receipts for Ranger have shown a material drop and there are many in the city who have been denied the privilege of voting because they could not make the payment on the two days the deputy was stationed here.

Ranger Five Loses To Breckenridge

The Ranger Bulldog basketball team was defeated Wednesday night by the Breckenridge Buckaroos by the score 27 to 13. The game was played in Ranger's new gym.

Their unusual defensive work and ability to shoot baskets was lacking as the tall Buckaroo team took the game. In the early part of the game the score was tied with 4 all, but the Bucks quickly took the lead and held it throughout the game.

Clas Phillips, Dean Walsh and H. P. Ball were the stand-outs for the Ranger five, while Earl Clark starred for the visitors. Starters for the winners were: Groseclose, center; Clark and O'Rear, guards; Tiffin and Ramsey, forwards. For Ranger: Ball, center; Walsh and Dinsmore, guards; Weisen and Rhodes, forwards.

A game, that was played as a curtain raiser enjoyed by all, was played between the Ranger Junior College and High School girls. The High School girls won with the score 22 to 8. The Junior College girls made a fine showing for only one day of practice.—Bob Stevens, reporter.

'Hell 'n' Maria's' Niece to Wed

Engagement of Miss Helen Dawes, above, niece of former vice president Charles G. "Hell 'n' Maria" Dawes and daughter of Rufus C. Dawes, to Louis F. Watermuller, stirred great interest in Chicago society circles. Watermuller is the son of the Rev. G. A. Watermuller of Lawrence, Kan.

OIL BELT IS NOW BIGGEST GRID SECTOR

ABILENE, Jan. 23.—The Oil Belt by action of the interscholastic league executive committee yesterday became the largest district in the state by two schools. Nine teams next fall will compete for the championship of District 3. Next largest districts are Nos. 10 and 11, with seven teams each. L. E. Dudley, Abilene, chairman of the old Oil Belt district, said last night, he will call a meeting of his committee about Feb. 1. He will notify Chester Kenley, San Angelo, chairman of the old District 3, who probably will call his committee together at the same time and place for reorganization, and to arrange 1936 football schedules.

Addition of Sweetwater, San Angelo, and Big Spring is all right so far as Abilene is concerned, said Dudley, since the Eagles played all three, anyhow, but may be considered an inconvenience for eastern teams of the Oil Belt, which will have to travel between 150 and 200 miles for some of their games.

The Oil Belt, a six-team circuit for the last five seasons, is returned almost to its 1930 form, when the same nine schools plus Mineral Wells were the contenders. With nine teams in the race, it will be necessary to begin championship play the first week-end in October early, and continue without a break through Thanksgiving.

BODY OF KING IS VIEWED BY HUGE THROG

LONDON, Jan. 23.—The body of King George V borne between lances of hundreds of thousands of his sorrowing countrymen through the streets of London was laid in state in Westminster Hall today for the highest and lowest of his subjects to pay homage.

The royal family relinquished the king's body to the temple for the next five days until the burial at Windsor Castle Tuesday among his ancient kings. George V will lie in the great hall for the people to file by for one last look at a beloved face.

There will be no distinction of rank. The most exalted powers must take their places in line with the humblest commoner and await their turns.

The body brought by royal funeral train from Sandringham was carried through the streets on a gun carriage draped in royal mourning of purple and black with the priceless crown resting on top of it. The crowd stood with bowed heads. The sobbing of women could be heard all along the line.

HUGE DEFICIT IS FORESEEN FOR THIS YEAR

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—A congress beginning to foresee a $5,000,000,000 to $6,000,000,000 election year deficit and fearful of new tax proposals, awaited today President Roosevelt's expected veto of the cash bond bonus bill.

Most of the deficit will be charged against the bonus, which appears assured of enactment, even if vetoed, and the cost of farm relief, which no longer pays its way since the AAA was outlawed by the Supreme Court.

The president's associates have indicated he will veto the bonus after it is examined. It will be sent first to Secretary of the Treasury for study. Mr. Roosevelt has 10 days in which to veto, sign the bill or permit it to become law with his signature. Congress seems inclined to leave the problem of funds for the bonus and farm benefits up to the president and Morgenthau. About $800,000,000 may be needed for the agricultural program—$440,000,000 for new benefits and $255,000,000 to $250,000,000 for payments on old contracts.

Morton Valley Girls 4-H Club Names Its Executives for Year

Newly elected officers of the Morton Valley Girls 4-H Club, organized in December, were announced Thursday by Miss Ruth Ramey, county home demonstration agent.

They are Lora McCollough, president; Glenn Duncan, vice president; Johnnie Nix, secretary-treasurer; Ruby Lee Yarbrough, reporter; Maxine Rittag, song leader; Berta Lee Pickett, yell leader; Darylene McCauston, parliamentarian; Heula Harbin, garden demonstrator.

Mrs. J. B. Rayfield is sponsor.

The club has 37 members and is carrying garden and wardrobe demonstrations. In the garden demonstration, co-operators plan to plant 146 feet of leafy vegetables per member in their family and conserve 10 containers per member. In the wardrobe demonstration, the girls will make aprons, slips and dresses.

Meetings are held first and third Tuesday of each month.

Convict Mutiny Is Now Being Quelled

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 23.—Mutineering convicts on Alcatraz Island federal prison, listing among their number mob rulers of the prohibition and kidnap periods, capitulated slowly today to a bread and water diet and the prison regulations.

Of the 100 prisoners who participated in the passive, bloodless revolt, Monday, Tuesday and yesterday, 25 were said to have signed a declaration of resignation, and the effects of a "work or starve" decree.

In return for their capitulation they were placed once more on normal prison fare.

Telephone Lines In Possible Lake Area Are Being Rerouted

Twenty American Telephone & Telegraph Company employees from Oklahoma City Thursday were reported to have begun rerouting of lines in the proposed Mangum dam area.

Plans called for removal of poles and wires from the area to coincide with a railroad in that section.

The telephone employees were sent after officials had been notified a government works project was in preparation for the erection of a dam at Mangum.

The telephone lines being removed were said to be from New Orleans to Los Angeles and not connected with exchanges in this section of the state.

'Home Fire' Burns On in Tornado

Fire still smoldered in the chimney of E. Freeman's house at Fyffe, Ala., after a tornado had moved the dwelling 15 feet and left it sagging, but still upright, as shown here. The midwinter twister, accompanied by bitter cold, killed four in Alabama and 13 in the vicinity of the Georgia-Alabama-Florida state lines, and caused heavy property damage.

NEW DIRECTORS OF C. OF C. ARE NOW SELECTED

Five new directors, who will replace five directors whose terms of office have expired, will be installed into office at a meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce Monday night, after which election of officers for the coming year will be taken up.

The five new directors who have been selected by the city commission from a list of 15 names submitted by the organization, include S. O. Montgomery, J. J. Kelly, F. P. Brashier, Hal Hunter and Coke Martin.

The five retiring directors whose terms of office expire Monday night are C. E. May, John Hassen, Calvin Brown, C. D. Hartnett and J. J. Kelly.

After the election of officers at the meeting Monday night the budget for the coming year will be taken up and work started on it. All the new directors and the hold-over directors have been urged to be present at the meeting Monday.

Rev. A. L. Leake Is Named Evangelist

Rev. A. L. Leake was added to the staff of evangelists at the recent meeting of the Executive Committee of the Texas Baptist Convention. He has been in his present pastorate in Plano for the past twelve years, and conducts his own revivals in his home church each summer with gratifying results. He seldom conducts just one revival for a church, but is called back for the third and fourth time in many instances.

Mrs. Leake will accompany him, and will be a great asset to him, since she is considered one of Texas' best musicians, both as a pianist and soloist. Brother and Mrs. Leake received their education in Baylor University and he later attended the Seminary in Fort Worth and the Southern Seminary in Louisville.

Before going to Plano Rev. Leake was pastor of the Central Baptist Church in Ranger for a number of years.

Drillers Busy At Mangum But Not For Liquid Gold

Workmen were busy on one of a series of wells at Mangum Thursday.

No application to drill had been filed with the railroad commission office at Eastland nor was there anticipation of discovery of oil.

The drilling by spudders was contracted by officers of the Leon river flood control district to determine formation of ground on which a dam to be constructed with governmental funds is proposed.

FARM AID IS NOW BEFORE COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 23.—While President Roosevelt was asking congress to pay farmers' benefits under the invalidated AAA, the senate agriculture committee today named an all-democratic sub-committee to study substitute legislation and report this week-end.

The sub-committee was appointed to study the new Bankhead-Jones farm relief bill and report back to the full committee by Saturday.

Chairman Ellison Smith said he had asked several Republican members of the committee to serve on the smaller groups, but they had declined.

The sub-committee planned to meet again this afternoon and hear the views of Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace and Farm Administrator Chester Davis.

Senator John Bankhead, Ala., on the committee said there would be no public hearings. "We have heard plenty of testimony on the farm situation already," he said.

Meanwhile the house agriculture committee at an executive meeting discussed the new program and decided to call Davis to testify before a closed session tomorrow.

Legion Figures All Business to Benefit From Bond Bonus

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The American Legion today presented its picture of where the bonus dollar will go—showing virtually every phase of industry and business will react to the trickle of fresh coins in the cash register.

The picture was based on a questionnaire answered by 42,000 and was predicted on full cash payment of the bonus.

Albert Sarraut to Form New Cabinet

PARIS, Jan. 23.—Albert Sarraut, radical socialist and former premier, accepted today the invitation of President Albert Lebrun to try to form a cabinet to succeed that of Pierre Laval, which resigned yesterday.

Sarraut sounded party leaders on the possibility of forming an all-radical cabinet with himself as premier and foreign minister, or a left-center coalition built around the radical-socialists, with support of the socialist party, which would not participate in the cabinet personnel.

Sarraut is a senator, member of the left democratic group, as the senatorial branch of the radical-socialist party is called. He was premier one month in October, 1933.

Times Aids Boy to Locate His Father After Long Absence

The Ranger Times has been instrumental in helping a 10-year-old orphan of Winona, Mo., to locate his father, whom he had not seen in many years and from whom he had not heard in five years.

The youth wrote to the Times, giving as much information as he had about his father, who was last heard from in Ranger five years ago. The Times ran a story about the boy seeking information about his father and the next day a reader told where the man was living.

A letter was written to the boy in Missouri on Jan. 2, and today a reply was received stating that the boy had been in touch with his father and had received a long letter from him.

In his letter the boy states that he is living with an aged grandfather and is trying to get an education. He thanks the Times for helping him get in touch with his father, as the two had been separated for many years.

Ranger Airport Will Get Improvements

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The bureau of air commerce today approved construction and development with WPA funds of an airport in Ranger to cost $2,535.

Resignation Is Capital Rumor

That Justice Willis Van Devanter, above, dean of U. S. Supreme Court conservatives, may resign his post is the rumor again heard in Washington. The justice, who is 77, has bought a farm near Ellicott City, Md. In view of his none too robust health, this led to renewal of rumors of his retirement. Van Devanter was appointed to the court in 1910 by President Taft.

'Many Thousands' Of Italians Killed On Ethiopian Front

ADDIS ABABA, Jan. 23.—"Many thousands" of Italians were killed and many important positions occupied in an "important battle" on the northern front, an official communication said today.

The communication said large quantities of munitions for artillery were captured.

The communication did not specify where the battle occurred or who commanded the victors. It was believed to have been fought near Makale which, according to some reports from the front, is encircled by Ethiopians.

The report said a tri-motored plane of the Italian air force had been shot down.

Bogus Money Is Circulated Over Stephens County

BRECKENRIDGE, Jan. 23.—Reports of bogus coins being received by several banks in the Oil Belt district today led bankers to wonder if there is a special counterfeit ring operating in this section.

From Mineral Wells comes the report of the greatest number of coins received. It was said there that 32 bogus dollars and half dollars have been taken out of circulation by one bank within the past 60 days.

At Breckenridge bogus halves and quarters are being found. The coins reported at Mineral Wells are dated 1902 and 1917. The bogus halves received by the bank here are dated 1911 and 1935, and the quarters are dated 1928.

It was said that some of the bogus coins are a nice piece of work and appear to be made of rabbit.

It was suggested as one way to tell the bogus coins from those of Uncle Sam's mint, is to drop them on a solid metal, marble or concrete surface. The true coin will bounce and ring, while the counterfeit piece will drop with a dead thud and not bounce so high.

It is said that some of the bogus coins are a nice piece of work and appear to be made of rabbit.

Huey Long Threat Felt After Death

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Huey Long's post-humorous primary election victory spread the anti-Roosevelt movement deep into what used to be the solid south.

It is conceivable that the man in the grave may yet stop the man in the white house as he often promised to do. The primary returns which nominated candidates of the Long machine gave notice to New Dealers that at least 10 southern electoral votes are far from certain for Roosevelt next November.

47 BIRTHS AND 18 DEATHS ARE MONTH'S TOTAL

Vital statistics in Eastland county for December show 47 births and 18 deaths. Many of the certificates filed in the county clerk's office are for births during November.

Men Battle To Save Many Snow Bound

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Jan. 23.—Frost-bitten men battled against a biting west wind and mountainous snowdrifts in an attempt to rescue 100 students and teachers marooned in isolated country schools with little fuel and food.

At Geneva, Ind., 200 pupils and seven teachers huddled around wood fires as rescuers sought to open blocked roads which held them prisoners since yesterday morning.

At Celina, Ohio, near Geneva, 200 others wrapped their overcoats around them for warmth.

At another Indiana town, Switz City, a grade school building burned to the ground, driving 150 students and teachers into 10 below zero temperatures.

Rescuers believed the prisoners at the Geneva school were in the most serious danger. Their fuel supply was barely enough to last another day.

Joe Dennis Attends Funeral For His Kin

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dennis and sons Norman and Dwan, were in Goldthwaite Wednesday afternoon, where they were among relatives who attended the funeral services of Mr. Dennis' grandfather, J. C. Burdett, who passed away at his home after a three weeks illness.

Palbearers were his grandsons. He was 87 years old.

COLD WAVE IS MOVING EAST AT FAST RATE

The Middle-West and East hoped for relief from a record cold wave which claimed at least 27 lives, tangled transportation, caused fires, closed schools and caused widespread suffering.

As the wind subsided and the storm moved east from its focal point in Minnesota and North Dakota, rising temperatures were forecast to be accompanied by snow tonight and tomorrow.

International Falls, Minnesota, which yesterday had the coldest recording in its history, at 55 below zero, had warmed up to 40 below today. Devil's Lake, N. D., which had a low of 38 below registered 25 below today.

Firemen at Franklin, Ind., fought all night at 18 below zero a blizzard which threatened the entire downtown district. Two were killed in a Chicago fire and firemen answered 172 other alarms at residences where vigorous stoking of furnaces overheated pipes and revealed defective flues.

3,004 Pol Taxes Paid In County

Three thousand and four poll tax receipts had been issued up to Wednesday night. Chief Deputy Clyde S. Karkalis reported Thursday at the tax assessor-collector's office. The figure was a 300 increase over the number Saturday night. Ninety-seven exemption certificates had been obtained.

Attention was called to rules governing issuance of exemption certificates "that only those voters exempt because they are not 21 years old on or before Jan. 1 of the year for which the levy was made and those who have moved into the state after that date are required to obtain an exemption certificate."

Exemption certificates must be obtained before Jan. 31.

Fear Is U. S.-Japan Public Jingo No. 1

Senator Gerad Nye spent his recess between the last and the present sessions of Congress nosing about in Japan and the Philippines, and he told a newspaperman recently that the Japanese people have no desire whatever for war with the United States.

And yet, at the same time, he discovered that it is fear of just such war which is egging on the Japanese to build up their fleet, get their fighting planes ready, and prepare generally to make things warm for anybody who starts anything.

They aren't afraid of Russia—tense as the situation along the Manchukuan border may be—and they aren't afraid of England. They are desperately afraid of the United States, because they think that the American people are stealthily and methodically moving for Japan's destruction.

Now if you take this bit of news and tack it up on the wall alongside any candid discussion of America's sentiment in regard to Japan, you will make an interesting discovery. You will find out that the most dangerous thing in all the world can be plain, old-fashioned, unreasoning fear.

No American needs to be told that his nation does not want war with Japan. The ordinary American has no more desire to fight the Japanese than he has to fly to the moon. But if you question him, he will probably admit that such a fight may very well take place before the many years have passed.

And why? Because the evil and untrustworthy Japanese want it to take place, of course.

In other words, fear is pushing each nation toward war. There is a wide ocean between them, they are excellent customers of each other, there is every reason why they should be friends and no reason at all—no good one, such as friendly discussion cannot remove—why they should be enemies.

Yet each year sees them drifting closer to war, because each is afraid of the other.

There is a good deal of danger in a situation like that, because fear makes people suspicious, and suspicion increases their fear, and if they get frightened enough they are apt to start shooting from pure nervousness. But there is also reason to be very thankful that the situation is no worse.

For if these mutual fears are groundless, they can be removed. Japan and America are not a Germany and a France, divided by bitter memories of attack, bloodshed, invasion, and wrong; they are two countries that can more easily live in mutual friendship than otherwise, once they are persuaded to put away their fears.

Persuading them to do that is a job which ought not to be too hard for the statesmen of both lands.

A possible comeback, if the girl friend selecting from the menu begins to get out of hand, might be, "What's this, a Jackson Day dinner?"

BUYING POWER OF COTTON

The illustration shows the increased buying power of cotton in 1935 as contrasted with 1932. To purchase a two-horse wagon in 1932 a farmer had to exchange for it the equivalent of nearly four bales of cotton, 3.93 bales to be exact. This wagon could be purchased in 1935 for 1.95 bales. In 1932 a one-row riding cultivator cost the equivalent of 2.25 bales of cotton but in 1935 it cost .97 of a bale. One ton of nitrate of soda fertilizer cost the equivalent of 1.22 bales in 1932, but in 1935 it could be purchased for .49 of a bale. These comparisons do not include approximately $125,000,000 in 1935 adjustment payments that have gone to cooperating farmers.

Sense of Humor Alone Qualifies Girls for Society

LAKEWOOD, N. J.—An ordinary garden hat which once adorned the head of one of America's famous society leaders today is the basis for one of the most unusual secret societies for college women in the country. When the late Mrs. George Gould wore the favorite headgear on the palatial estate now the campus of Georgian Court College for women, here, she never associated it with "Pietra Mitra". The organization with the Latin title, liberal translation of which means "embroidered turban", has marked the 11th anniversary of its founding as an undergraduate society. Holding the title of "Crown," corresponding to president of ordinary club, Miss Margo Joyce, senior yearbook editor, says the idea of Pietra Mitra was borrowed from the Latin satirist, Juvenal, whose writings speak of sect by their characteristics embroidered headdress upon periodic visits to an ancient city. Chief requirements for a neophyte seeking admission to that she must have a sense of humor and evince it once a year. There are 32 members of Pietra Mitra, eight of whom are selected from each incoming freshman class. Identification with the organization is a coveted honor, as the group provides entertainment at all campus parties. A Pietra Mitra, however, never exercises the duties of her office unless she wears a hat of fantastic design, selected after a secret initiation. Thus anything from discarded plumes to faded imitation of vegetables are embodied in the laugh provoking spectacle. Upon graduation, members of the sisterhood retain their prized headgear, but tradition holds that two must be passed on to succeeding officers. One is Mrs. Gould's yellow straw garden hat embroidered with gay flowers and the other, a chic sports model fashioned with applique and feathers.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON WITH RODNEY DUTCHER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER NEA Service Staff Correspondent WASHINGTON—Senator Bob Wagner of New York, aided by Congressman Henry Ellenbogen in the House, will make real noise at the coming session of Congress for a large scale federal housing subsidy program aimed at providing "decent minimum standards" of shelter for low income groups at low rentals. On the other hand, there will be some effort to take the government out of the housing construction field entirely and reduce still further the $100,000,000 which Secretary Ickes finally received from the four billion dollar work relief fund for his PWA Housing Division. THE PWA Housing Division was established in July, 1933, and assigned $125,000,000 for slum clearance and low-cost housing. To ameliorate a myriad of procedural difficulties, a federal housing corporation was created in November with an allotment of $100,000,000. The attorney general approved the corporation, but Comptroller General McCarl held it couldn't spend any money and the funds were impounded until the Housing Division got them back in June, 1934. Meanwhile, the division studied hundreds of applications for long term, low interest loans to limited dividend corporations. Few of these projects could meet requirements for low rent, good planning, and slum clearance, and many were being pushed by shady promoters. In the end only seven such projects were approved and completed. WHEN there was thorough reorganization of the division and a new policy was adopted—develop-

Eventually, what once was a single tree becomes a forest of trunks.'

GOVERNMENTS SHIFT, WORLD MAP CHANGES

WASHINGTON. — The world's governmental picture took on a noticeably different aspect as a result of governmental and territorial changes during 1935, listed here by the National Geographic Society.

The most obvious to Americans and Europeans, and important because of its potential effect on the African colonial set-up and on the peace of Europe, was the occupation of more than 30,000 square miles of the territory of Ethiopia by Italian forces, which began Oct. 2. These military maneuvers on the part of Italy have caused the mobilization of the British fleet in the Mediterranean, the imposition of sanctions against Italy, and an embargo on the shipment of war munitions to Italy and Ethiopia by the United States.

The practical secession of 25 counties in Hopei and Chahar Provinces of China and the setting up of an autonomous government, backed by Japanese military forces, on Nov. 24, was of great importance to the East. On Dec. 18, as a result of Japanese influence, a semi-autonomous government was set up covering all of Hopei and Chahar Provinces. On Jan. 13, the Saar Basin, which for 15 years had been under the control of the League of Nations, returned to German sovereignty. The shift was made following a plebiscite, conducted under the auspices of the League. A German governor took office on March 1.

A short time after the Swastika banner had been accepted as the national flag, Germany, by independent action and by an agreement with Great Britain, freed herself from the restrictions of the Versailles Treaty against the maintenance of army and naval forces.

The commonwealth of the Philippines, with Manuel Quezon as the first President and former Governor General Frank Murphy as American High Commissioner, was formally set up Nov. 15. This was a major step toward Philippine independence complete in 1945.

In a further move toward the transformation of the old British Empire into an organization of self-governing units, Great Britain, on Aug. 2, granted India a Federal Constitution. The new Federal Government, to be composed of British Provinces and Indian States, will come into operation gradually during the next few years.

Two countries withdrew from the League of Nations during 1935: Japan on March 27, and Germany on Oct. 21.

The former kingdom of Persia officially changed its name to Iran on March 22, that date being the Iranian New Year's day.

In Greece, a democratic revolution broke on March 1, seven months before the royalist coup which resulted in the restoration of the king. It was suppressed by government forces by March 11.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

BY MARY E. DAGUE
SEA SERVICE STAR WRITER

ARE you food-weary? Then try a new cut of meat, a new way of cooking an old favorite or a new accompaniment for the meat.

Instead of a dinner of veal steak and gravy and mashed potatoes, stewed tomatoes, a salad and cake and canned fruit for dessert, try turkey legs, Martinique potatoes, broccoli with cheese, stuffed apple salad, chocolate roll and coffee. I'm sure you will find the turkey legs receiving enthusiastic applause, but they will cost no more than the ordinary veal steak served in the usual fashion.

Turkey Legs

One pound lean veal, 1 egg, sifted dried bread crumbs, 1 cup milk 1 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon pepper, few gratings nutmeg.

Cut veal in strips two inches wide and twist around wooden skewers. Your butcher will supply the skewers. Mix salt, pepper and nutmeg and season each leg. Roll in crumbs, dip in egg slightly beaten with 1 tablespoon water and roll again in crumbs. Brown quickly on all sides in hot fat in a frying pan. Place in a baking dish, add milk and bake one hour in a moderate oven.

Bake the potatoes while the meat is cooking and finish the broccoli dish with this same heat.

Martinique Potatoes

Four, baked potatoes, 2 tablespoons butter, 3 tablespoons cream, 1 egg, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon pepper.

Scoop out inside of potatoes and put through a vegetable ricer. Beat yolk of egg and add to potatoes with butter, cream and seasonings. Cook three minutes, stirring constantly. Beat white of

Tomorrow's Menu

BREAKFAST: Tangerines, cereal cream, crisp broiled bacon, muffins, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON: Scalloped kidney beans, toasted muffins, carrot straws, Spanish cream, milk, tea.

DINNER: Tomato juice cocktail, turkey legs, Martinique potatoes, broccoli with cheese, stuffed apple salad, chocolate roll, milk, coffee.

egg until stiff and fold into mixture. Shape between two buttered spoons. Place on a buttered baking sheet and bake in a hot oven (400 degrees F.) until a delicate brown.

After cooking broccoli in boiling salted water until tender, drain and arrange it in one layer on a buttered baking dish. Pour over this white sauce to which grated cheese has been added. Cover with more grated cheese and bake in a hot oven until cheese is melted.

Stuffed apple salad is rather out of the ordinary because the apples are baked before stuffing.

Stuffed Apple Salad

Four apples, 1 package Philadelphia cream cheese, 4 tablespoons broken English walnut meats, 4 tablespoons stoned and chopped dates, lemon juice, 4 tablespoons sugar.

Parse and core apples. Sprinkle with lemon juice and sugar and bake until tender but not broken. Chill. Mix cream cheese, nut and dates, adding cream to make smooth and light. Fill cavities of apples with cheese mixture and serve on a bed of lettuce with mayonnaise piped around the base of the apple.

Captain Blood Is A Smashing Hit At the Arcadia

Rafael Sabatini's immortal tale of piracy on the high seas, "Captain Blood," is now acknowledged to have taken its place among the classic stories of the adventure written in the last century. Its thrilling action and absorbing romance are known to all readers whose hearts respond to the call of adventure and the lure of excitement. Now "Captain Blood" with all its color, its vividness and its thrills intact has been made into a talking picture by Cosmopolitan Productions and this film masterpiece thoroughly delighted record breaking audiences at the Arcadia Theatre where it had its local premiere yesterday as a First National release. And what a picture this is. In the immensity of its stark drama, its tremendous sets, its bizarre and picturesque background, its thrilling action and its marvelous characterizations, "Captain Blood" stands out as one of the great film masterpieces.

Heading a cast as unusual as the production itself are two young film players whose work will undoubtedly set them among the leading stars of the cinema.

These are Errol Flynn, the young English actor-adventurer who is Captain Blood in the flesh and Olivia de Havilland, the young high school girl discovered by Max Reinhardt and who scored a personal triumph as Hermia in his production of "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

Miss de Havilland justifies Max Reinhardt's faith in her. She has beauty, grace and charm and is thoroughly adapted to the role of a noblewoman who first buys the slave and then loves him.

There is Lionel Atwill, famous stage star, in the role of a wealthy West Indian plantation owner. There is Basil Rathbone portraying a cruel and treacherous French pirate slain in a duel by Captain Blood. There is the always lovable Guy Kibbee, also portraying a pirate. And what a pirate he is! Remarkably fine performances are also given by Ross Alexander, Robert Barrat, Frank McGlynn, David Torrence and Colin Kenny.

in the role of friends of Blood. The story opens with the rebellion of the Duke of Monmouth against King James, touches on the wholesale hangings and enslavement of rebels at the order of the cruelest of English chief justices, Lord Jeffreys, then sweeps to the slave plantations of the West Indies, to pirate ships cruising the seas and scuttling richly laden vessels, to fierce sea battles and the sacking of Port Royal.

Bill Angus Wins Over Will Perry

The largest crowd in many months was present last night at the Elks Arena to witness the match between Bill Angus, policeman, and Bill Perry of Abilene. Angus won the best two out of three falls. The fans were kept on their toes through the entire match and Angus was the favorite from the start.

In the finals Benny Wilson won over Rex O'Sullivan after he had tangled with the referee, Jack Duffy, on several occasions and it looked for a time as though both the referee and O'Sullivan were trying to pin Wilson.

It was the best all round card shown at the Elks in a long time.

Next week Don Carver will meet Bill Perry in the semi-finals and Benny Wilson will ply his wares against Young Tarzan of Red River.

Jack Davis of Abilene will referee.

The STRANGE CASE of JULIA CRAIG

BEGIN HERE TODAY
JULIA CRAIG, pretty young secretary to GEORGE WOODFORD of the law firm of Woodford and Brooks, is ambitious to become a night club singer. Julia shares an apartment with AMY SANDERS.
PETER KEMP, also employed by Woodford and Brooks, is in love with Julia, but she discourages his attentions. He gives Julia a letter of introduction to FREDDY LAMBE, band leader, but in the letter asks her to give her a job. Julia discovers this and tells Peter everything to over between them.
"Goodbye on his yacht he is going to come along to stay for his dinner. She is on the yacht. JULIA CRAIG, EDDY LAMBE, band leader, and MISS SANDERS, and ROYAL NESBITT.
Woodford overheard a conversation indicating that the yacht trip is to be much longer than a weekend.
NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
CHAPTER VIII
WHEN Cintra Lee had finished her cigarette and returned to the cabin, Julia stayed outside staring at the black water ruffling by the graceful hull of the Wood Nymph. Presently she noticed the red spot of a cigar glowing in the darkness and recognized the familiar figure of George Woodford.
"Your yacht is a bit of a mess, the boys and girls," he said. "I'm glad I brought you along."
Julia turned to him on a sudden impulse. "I wish I could be glad I came."
Woodford's voice held an embarrassed surprise. "Why do you say that, Julia?" He hesitated then added another question. "What did Cintra say to you?"
"Nothing," said Julia. "We get along nicely."
"Julia," Woodford seemed much relieved. "I was sure you would. But what makes you wish you hadn't come?"
"I don't know," said Julia slowly. "Somehow I feel—well, out of place."
Woodford laughed. "Nonsense, Julia! You belong here as much as any of us. A pretty young woman like you deserves every break in the world. And I've a surprise for you, too."
"Is it?" Her question was freighted with trepidation.
"Your don't have to be back at the office Monday. I've wired them it's all right."
"But I—I don't understand."
"Are you going to enjoy yourself on a real cruise, Julia. Not just a weekend. He stopped before Julia's frigid silence. "I would have told you earlier," he went on. "But the fact is, we really did plan only a weekend cruise at first. Then the night we came aboard Nash insisted he wanted to go in some hunting. So we decided on the spur of the moment to put in at Evergreen Island. I've a very decent cabin there. You'll love the place."
"Suppose I don't care to go?"
"Be afraid that couldn't change our plans now," Woodford told her. "Surely you wouldn't spoil the fun for the rest of the party by asking me to turn the Wood Nymph back to the city now?"
JULIA did not reply at once. She looked out over the rail for a long moment—then answered:
"IT WAS THE FIRST TIME HE HAD MENTIONED AMY SANDERS. Amused that he was asking now, out of Cintra's hearing, Julia told him that Amy was in excellent health and her usual bright spirits.
"Sure's a grand girl," said Nesbitt.
"The best there is," Nesbitt cleared his throat nervously, turned to Woodford and asked him an irrelevant question about the Wood Nymph. Julia slipped into the darkness and made her way toward her stateroom on the other side of the yacht. As she passed the pilot house she caught a glimpse of Bakely at the wheel, his face illuminated eerily in the soft green light from the binnacle. Acting on an impulse, she opened the door.
"Bakely turned his head from the wheel. Touching his cap, he said, "Certainly, Miss Craig."
