was inside the hangar, but left another 1,600 lbs. of the chemical behind. The burglars forced open the doorlock to gain entry, then loaded out the chemical through a hangar door.

Spray firm burglarized

Burglars took $1,500 worth of bagged insecticide from the hangar of Hart Aerial Sprayers, Inc., Tuesday night, and Sheriff's officers suspect that the missing chemical has already been sprayed on someone's field by a "cutthroat" cropduster.

TAKEN in the burglary were more than 3,000 lbs. of Chemagro Di-Syston. The granular pesticide was in 50-pound sacks, each containing five foil-lined 10-lb. bags.

Harley Wilke, manager of the spraying firm, feels the chemical was stolen to be used, not to be resold.

Everyone loses

City police broke up a card gambling party in an East Dimmitt home Saturday night, charged the home's owner with possessing alcoholic beverages for resale and cited six other men for gambling.

THE HOMEOWNER paid a $100 fine and his six guests were fined $25 each after pleading guilty to gambling in someone else's home.

For his dependability during the year, Powell was named Dimmitt's "Fireman of the Year" at the 16th annual Firemen's Banquet Saturday night in the Colonial Inn.

Fire Chief Harlin Dodd announced the Fireman of the Year and presented Powell with a large trophy as a large crowd—including Powell's wife, Marzelle—applauded the top fireman of 1970-71.

IN ACCEPTING the Fireman of the Year trophy, Powell commented, "Nobody can get anything done in a fire department without the help of everybody else, especially the chief. This trophy belongs to all of us."

Powell, who operates S&M Garage, lives at 406 NW Fifth St.

Fifty-two persons—mainly firemen, city and county officials and their wives—attended the banquet, which featured prime roast beef and baked ham.

Juries now to be chosen by raffle

You've seen raffle drawings, in which the winner's ticket is drawn from a big "squirrel cage" with a crank on it. THAT'S HOW all jury panels will be selected in Castro County from now on.

It's part of the state's new jury selection system that goes into effect today (Thursday). It was adopted by the Texas Legislature last week.

In the process to find "12 tried and true men and women" for jury trials, there are two other major changes that will have an impact in the courtroom:

FIRST, the only source of names to go into the "jury wheel" is the list of registered voters. With 18-year-olds now eligible to vote, this means we'll now have 18-year-olds serving on juries.

Second, the only people who are now exempt from jury duty are persons over 65 and women who have legal custody of children under 10 years of age. The judge can no longer excuse any juror for economic reasons. All parties to the court action (defendant, judge and plaintiff or state) must agree to excuse a prospective juror before he can be dismissed for economic reasons.

The jury wheel looks like a wire-screened, squirrel cage raffle drum. Into the wheel will go thousands of name cards, each bearing the typed name of one registered voter.

AT LEAST 10 days before each new court term, the sheriff and district clerk will draw names for the jury panel, in the presence of the judge. Anyone with a court suit pending also may observe the drawing, although the county officials cannot divulge to him—or to anyone else—the identity of those whose names are drawn.

Then comes the normal selection process of notifying, qualifying, dismissing and challenging that results in a 12-person jury for a trial.

The jury wheel selection system is now mandatory for all Texas counties of 10,000 population or more. In smaller counties, it's optional with the district judge.

WILL THE use of the poll list for jury selection have any effect on voter registration here? Only time will tell.

District Judge John T. Boyd of Plainview feels the new jury-wheel system is a good one, but he has reservations about the new exemption rules.

"We've had the jury wheel in Hale County for the last 10 years, and it's been a pretty satisfactory system," he said.

BUT concerning the strict new rule that the court cannot excuse any prospective juror for economic reasons, Judge Boyd said, "I personally feel I'd rather be able to excuse a juror for economic reasons because there's the chance that a person with pressing economic worries wouldn't make a good juror."

He added, however, "I guess that when that's the case both parties would probably agree to excuse him, but I wish this had been left to the discretion of the judge."

A judge will still have some discretionary powers regarding jury selection under the new system, though, Judge Boyd feels.

"A JUDGE can still probably excuse a juror for emergencies or obvious conflicts, such as a physician with surgery scheduled, fireman on call, or policeman with pressing duties," he said.

One thing's for sure—juries here are going to have a slightly different, and younger, look.

If you're a registered voter, your name is being typed on a card now to go into the jury wheel. Still, the odds are about 20 to 1 that your name won't be drawn this year.

But if your name IS drawn, about all you can do is get your affairs in order and be ready to serve on the jury.

BIRD'S EYE VIEW of Dimmitt Agri Industries' completed corn wet-milling plant from a southwest angle shows the millhouse and refinery (left), with a feeder line coming from the cooperative's elevators, which are to left of the photo. The large, low building in center is the warehouse-workshop, and the smaller building at right is the former Catholic Community Center, which has been converted to office building for department heads and production staff. The cooperative, formerly Dimmitt Wheat Growers, Inc., is staking its future on the success of the multi-million-dollar, semi-automated milling plant. Product quality and demand are both reported to be high as the mill builds toward capacity production.

Mill owners adopt policies

Stockholders of Dimmitt Agri Industries, Inc., met Saturday night to hear management and financial reports and to vote on amendments to the corporation by-laws.

AN AMENDMENT giving the board of directors three alternate methods for allocating a loss was unanimously approved by the stockholders. The directors can now choose one of the three methods outlined in the amendment to allocate any corporation losses.

Other changes adopted make wording consistent throughout the by-laws, to comply with the Texas Escheat Law and to clarify lien prerogatives on stock and dividends.

After four years and serving a 30-day notice, the association will no longer be liable for unclaimed accounts, and the money will be treated as other income. This amendment was added to prevent the State of Texas from claiming the money under current liability laws. A list of unclaimed accounts will be mailed to stockholders.

Another amendment was added to give the association first lien on all dividends and equity of stockholders who have past-due accounts with any division of the co-op.

Jerome Brockman, president, presented the board of directors' report to the stockholders. During the past year, directors defined the cooperative's purpose, objectives and goals to give direction to the organization's future, Brockman said. The fiscal year was changed to coincide more closely with the crop year, he added.

The elevator division made profit for the first time in several years according to Division Manager Bill Clark. He also announced changes in division policies and plant improvements.

Clark said that grain handling policies have been developed for this fall, and that grade requirements would be made concerning foreign material in corn. He reported on the losses sustained last year due to foreign material, and explained the trouble it causes in production.

To aid corn producers, a dryer is being installed at the Dimmitt elevator, Clark announced. With dryer usage, farmers can harvest earlier with a higher moisture content. The dryer will process 5,000 bushels per hour. With improved aeration processes and better moisture management, faster processing will result, he said. Grain with excess moisture will only be accepted until the capacity of the dryer is reached. High-moisture grain at country points will have to be brought to the Dimmitt plant, Clark said.

Clark also outlined proposed changes in the farm stores. At Nazareth, full service will stay, but in Dimmitt, stock will be reduced and other stock not reordered. This move is to avoid competition with the other local co-op store.

Barry Love, manager of the wet milling plant, reported operations had begun in both the starch and corn syrup departments. He explained the problems and successes at the plant during the past year.

Love illustrated the monthly grind rate in the corn mill with graphs. It has risen from 42 percent of capacity (12,000 bushels per day) in January to 91 percent in June, he noted.

RESEARCH efforts for more profits are being directed in several areas, Love said. The animal feeding industry is a prime target for future products and sales. Development of specialty corn products which draw a premium price is a target for future research.

The paper industry is the major customer for corn starch producers and Ken Arnold, marketing director, is concentrating in this area for the corporation. Promotion of corn syrup products is his next sales project. Arnold explained that starch and syrup prices relate to the cash corn price and he cannot predict future sales returns.

Jim Harsh, president of Dimmitt Management Co., Inc., described Dimmitt Agri Industries as a triad consisting of stockholders, the board of directors and the management company. He explained the management company's status, responsibilities, financial status and its future prospects.

THE ELEVATOR division will declare dividends on its net profit this year. However, the overall financial operation resulted in a net loss for the year.

A committee was elected to nominate candidates for the board of directors and associate board. Vote tabulation had not been completed when the meeting adjourned; a list of committee members is to be released later. The board of directors will be elected at a second 1971 stockholders' meeting to be held this fall after the new fiscal year ends Aug. 31.

Powell named top fireman

During the past year the Dimmitt Volunteer Fire Dept. was called out to answer 44 alarms in the city and 32 alarms outside the city.

MERTON POWELL, who has been a volunteer fireman since April 1969, answered 42 of those 14 city fire calls and 30 of the 32 rural alarms. In addition, he was present at 47 of the year's 49 Thursday night fire practices.

For his dependability during the year, Powell was named Dimmitt's "Fireman of the Year" at the 16th annual Firemen's Banquet Saturday night in the Colonial Inn.

Fire Chief Harlin Dodd announced the Fireman of the Year and presented Powell with a large trophy as a large crowd—including Powell's wife, Marzelle—applauded the top fireman of 1970-71.

THE COODY family took the July month to be sick, but they're okay now, I hear. Wanda, who is Dwain's wife, had surgery at the Deaf Smith County Hospital. Then Patsy, Earl's wife, had surgery, then Earl had skin surgery on July 7. You remember, he was injured a while back.

Rev. and Mrs. Bill Wadley visited their daughter, Willie, and her husband, Doug Dunlap, in Odessa. Doug had had surgery on his foot. The Wadleys' little granddaughter, Tina, has been in Dimmitt for a visit.

Mrs. Nannie Ginn of Earth is staying with her son and daughter-in-law, Cecil and Blanche Ginn, for a few days. She will go on to Amarillo to visit relatives.

Mrs. Jess Birchfield and her sister, Alva Gatewood Curtis of Fort Worth, met with the rest of the family at Claude for a reunion of the Taylor side of the clan.

MR. AND MRS. Earl Brock went to San Angelo to attend family gathering. Earl's brothers from Hereford and Lubbock also went. I saw Judge Wilson eating alone at the restaurant. Margaret is still in Arizona helping with the Bob Brooks' baby girl.

Some of the fishermen at Conchas Lake last week were Dale and Marie Winders and girls, Vicki and Marla; the Jesse Wootens, the Richard Wootens, Rex and Darlene Wooten and children; and Mr. and Mrs. Deroey Cates. Marla tells me that Deroey caught some fish to eat. The kids went water skiing.

EWELL AND Nell Kelly and children are home. Ewell, a vocational teacher, has been to school at some college near Dallas (I don't know which one). Sunday the Kellys visited his mother in Lubbock.

Roger and Linda Freeman of Clovis were Sunday guests of her mother, Marie Langford. Roger is with the Air Force at Cannon AFB and Linda was a teacher's aide here last year.

Recent fishermen at Ute Lake, N.M. were the Troy Langfords, the Leon Gunns, the Pete Jacks and daughters, the Floyd Shuarts, the Gene Smiths, the Buck Barretts of Hereford, and Craig Turner (he is Betty Ginn's boy). Several other Dimmitt people were seen by those folks, but the names slip my mind. Why don't you call me your news?

LOLA LANGFORD attended the funeral service for Lee Usery, a nephew, at an Amarillo church of Christ recently. Jerry and Jane Klemm and children attended the Olton Roundup recently. Jane's picture in the group made the Lubbock paper. Both Klemms teach special education at Dimmitt Junior High. They live in the Bill Henderson house at 703 W. Bedford St.

Edna Tate Cooper was hostess to many relatives Sunday among whom were her brother, Edgar "Red" Tate of Seminole, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Brazzell of Grants N.M., Sabrina Tate of Tucson, Ariz., and two grandsons of Edgar's, the Reed boys of Seminole.

MR. AND MRS. Harry Hunge of Canyon and Mrs. McCollum of McCaulley were Sunday guests of Rev. Jim and Mary Ann Pickens. The Hungees were friends of the Pickenses when Jim's dad was pastor of a church in Canyon. Mrs. McCollum is Mary Ann's mother.

Juanita Bruegel told me more about their Dallas trip. Sandy took them to the famous Flea Market east of Dallas; she says they have every kind of junk and antiques. She bought a solid copper tub washing machine dated 1912, for Jim Baker. They found a few of the good eating places, too.

VERA JONES is home from an enjoyable trip to Shreveport, La., for two weeks' vacation and a visit with her nephew, Roy and Judy Rhodes and daughters Samantha and Millicent. They saw all the interesting places around there, had a boat ride, and saw the shops. Vera says Louisiana is a pretty place, but hot in July.

Then later, the Rhodeses had their family reunion at Anson. These are Vera's folks. She and W. W. attended that party. The Joneses and son, Cecil, were hosts at Sunday dinner for Rev. and Mrs. Bill Wadley and Marshall Young. Mrs. Young is in Plains Memorial Hospital.

OTHER Lee Street Baptist news—Gary Schwalk of Wayland Baptist College in Plainview was the song director for both Sunday services. He was Cecil Jones's roommate at Wayland. Cecil plans to go back there this fall.

Rev. Bill Wadley received word of the death of his uncle, Addison Wadley of Midland. He was a well-known person there. He organized the country club and did many civic jobs.

The Wadleys' supper guests Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. I. A. McCright of Lubbock.

I have just met Becky Berryhill, who is working at the Castro County News this summer. She writes general and social items. Becky is a senior at Tech, majoring in food and nutrition. Her parents are Elmer and Helen Berryhill, who are with Dimmitt Public Schools. Right now Elmer and Helen are on a trip to New York City, visiting Helen's sister, who as just arrived from India. I want to tell you lads, Becky is a very pretty girl and probably a good cook.

ARE YOU ready for the biggest fish story of the week? Okay—Gene Smith hauled in a seven-pound walleye pike at Conchas Lake Sunday. Buy him a cup of coffee and he'll tell you all about it!

A DAILY INCIDENT!

Hardly a day passes without the newspapers reporting an automobile accident. Lives are lost and bodies maimed due to careless driving on our streets and highways.

Another daily incident which the newspapers often do not report, and to which others are indifferent, is the ruining of lives and character in the wretched, uneducated, and poverty-ridden parts of the great cities in our land. There are those who despair of ever getting out of their situation and so despondency sets in and a lack of desire to strive for worthy goals enters the spirit.

A loving God would have us aware of these whose lives, self-respect and character could be saved—if we were interested enough.

God often impresses the needs of His children upon those who attend His church. It is His will that we should show forth the love of God for mankind by helping all who are suffering.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Library gets another gift

Mrs. Margaret S. Axtell of Phoenix, Ariz., a former Sunnyside resident, has made the second donation of $50 to the library building site fund. She also intends to donate a painting to hang above the library's rock fireplace, which she and her late husband Dwight, donated.

MRS. AXTELL'S gifts were announced at the Castro County Library Board meeting last Wednesday.

Among the business discussed at the meeting was the need for another visit from the state's library consultants. Dr. Ray Janeway and Stuart Dyess. Plans for the building site fund drive were made.

Mrs. Mary Edna Hendrix, librarian, reported that since the library had moved to Bedford Street, 218 people are using it who had never had before. This, she said, confirmed the state library consultants' insistence that the greatest use of the library will be achieved if it is located in the downtown business district.

Jack Miller, chairman, conducted the meeting. Board members present were Mrs. Ray Riley, Mrs. E. R. Little, Hazel Merritt and Mrs. Hendrix.

On the Go

Mr. and Mrs. Joe M. Scott, Mrs. Scott's sister, Melba Ahafey of Fresno, Calif., and Dewitt Coffee of Loveland were dinner guests in Mr. and Mrs. Ray Martin's home Sunday night.

Three Dimmitt youths to receive 'Lone Star Farmer' FFA degrees

Three Dimmitt FFA members — Jerry Matthews, Bob Duke and Rocky Kay — will receive Lone Star Farmer degrees during the state convention of the Future Farmers of America in Houston this week.

THE LONE STAR Farmer Degree is the highest FFA award on the state level. Of the 54,378 state members only 912 Future Farmers are receiving the degree this year.

Seven members of the Dimmitt FFA chapter are attending the state convention Wednesday through Friday, according to Bob Duke, chapter president.

The three-day meeting of representatives from more than 800 FFA Chapters from throughout the state will include the awarding of advanced degrees, scholarships and awards to outstanding members of the organization.

CHARLIE SAMMANN and Dean Smithson have been elected as voting delegates of the Dimmitt chapter. Gary Webb and Brent Sanders will serve as alternate delegates.

Guest speakers addressing the convention will be Donald N. McDowell of Madison, Wis., executive director of the National FFA Sponsoring Committee, and Dr. Regan Brown of the A&M Extension sociologist, College Station.

Barham Fulmer, state FFA president from Nacogdoches, will be in charge of the convention activities. The convention will open with a vesper service Tuesday night in the Rice Hotel.

NATIONAL F.F.A. officers attending the convention will be John McCulley of Marlin, Ore., national student secretary, and Jim Beard of Mounds, Okla., Southern region vice-president.

Among the business matters to be transacted at the convention will be the election of a state president from 10 state officer nominees who have been elected by members in the 10 areas of the state. The State Public Speaking Contest also will be a convention highlight.

Voting delegates to the national FFA convention in Kansas City, Mo., in October, will be selected. In addition, delegates will elect a state sweetheart from the 10 candidates elected by the areas, and will select the top talent team in the state.

The membership will confer honorary degrees on adults who have contributed in outstanding ways to the accomplishments of the organization. More than 5,000 FFA members, advisors and guests are expected to converge on Houston and the Sam Houston Coliseum.

Now it's official for 18-year-olds

Young Texans 18, 19 and 20 years old who are registered to vote can participate in any election starting this month, Secretary of State Martin Dies Jr. points out.

RATIFICATION by the 38th state of the teenage voter constitutional amendment placed into effect immediately, Dies said.

Any election which is now in progress "must allow those 18, 19 and 20 years old to vote if they are presently registered," Dies, chief election officer for Texas, said.

Young voters not now registered must wait until the registration period reopens Oct. 1.

Housing project is full-up again

The Castro County Agricultural Housing Project hit the "no vacancy" point Friday, with all 192 apartment units filled.

WILLIAM J. T. Robertson, manager, said the housing project's population now is 1,600 or more migrant workers here for the vegetable harvests.

This is the second year in a row for the project to be completely filled, and it reached full occupancy nine calendar days earlier than last year, Robertson reported. The project is going into its fourth year.

The waiting list for apartments — which rent for $12.50 to $16 per week — includes many of last summer's residents who arrived this week without reservations, Robertson said.

"EVERYBODY is working, and we expect the project to stay full six weeks to two months — and maybe longer if we don't have those early freezes like we had last year," Robertson added.

Part of the reason for the earlier capacity crowd this year, Robertson said, is that the project had a higher year-round residual population than ever before.

Time to plan fall wardrobe

By IRENE KEATING
Now that summer is half over it is time to start planning our fall wardrobes. It is kind of hard to think of it being cool weather ever again, but it will.

EVERYONE is always interested in what the new colors and styles will be. Here's what's new this fall:

Yarns of all fibers will be made into chifons, courdurois, denims, challis and silk broadcloths. Cotton, wool, silk and all the man-made fabrics will span the seasons.

Fall has a variety of moods. You can choose from the ethnics, batik-inspired prints, natural looks, all-important denims, country looks, tapestries and the quilts—all interpreted into a variety of fabrics for daytime and evening wear.

COTTONS make the fall scene in muslins, soft twills, brushed denims, or embroideries. All cotton tapestries will also be available, with a flat weave or a deep pile furry look.

Fashionable woollens will include the print on textured, softly brushed looks with a blanket feel and challis or classic paisley prints. Adding a new touch to the classic weaves will be metallic yarns. Solids are still important in a fluffy jacquard weave that is machine washable.

Acrylic fabrics for fall come in tapestries, challis and a kiteny single knit. These fibers will be blended with wool and other synthetics. Keep an eye on the acrylics, as they have great growth potential. A dimension of mystic beauty in fall transparent nylons, sheer velvets and organza and silk chifons.

As for fall colors, they are clear and bright—blue, plum, pink, burgandy, terra cotta, papaya, green and red. Black, white, cream and gray will be the great neutrals.

WIDE PRICE variation among margarines results from the ingredients and form sold. Corn oil is twice as costly as soybean oil. The least expensive margarines usually contain cottonseed oil and possibly lard, and are good for use in cooking. Whipped and soft margarine cost more than regular types.

The changing scene

GOING UP—From the outside southern view, the Castro County Courthouse is reaching its final shape as workers finish fitting the white Austin-stone granite into place. Inside, walls and hallways in the annex have been blocked out, marble is being stripped from walls that will be removed from the old part of the courthouse, and interior finishing work is about to begin—although it will take several months to complete. The expansion project will make the courthouse twice its original size. (Photo by Becky Berryhill)

COMING DOWN—Two of the old First Baptist Church buildings, a Dimmitt landmark on West Bedford Street, are now just shells as work continues on the razing of the original church building (right) and the second sanctuary. Only the belltower still remains intact at this stage. The quarter-block is being leveled to make way for a service station. The education building on the west side of the complex was not included in the oil company's purchase from the church, and will be left standing, its future uncertain. (Photo by Becky Berryhill)

BUILDING permits for construction in Dimmitt alone totaled $745,000 in 1970, and this figure doesn't include the Western Ammonia plant, the Dimmitt Agri-Industries corn mill or the First Baptist Church.

What it costs to burn stubble

By LARRY O. STARNES
We hear numerous and varied excuses for burning wheat stubble here in Castro County. Many of these seem like valid reasons until they are analyzed closely. PROBABLY the most common excuse given is, "I want to double crop and there is not enough time to wait for the residue from wheat stubble to decompose and get the next crop planted in time to have a sufficient growing season."

Valid? Only partially! It is true that in order to make ends meet and pay off the creditors this fall, many farmers find the need to double crop. Also true is the fact that the residue from a wheat crop will not have time to decay if a second crop is to be planted in time to reach maturity by frost.

Now let's broaden our thinking and consider the cost of burning an acre of stubble. For instance, the stubble from a 30-bushel wheat crop would normally contain approximately $7 worth of nitrogen, phosphorous and potash if replaced by commercial fertilizer. Next, burning not only dries the topsoil at the time of burning, but removes the organic matter which nature uses to improve the soil's moisture intake ability and capacity as well as fertility. This water must be replaced by irrigation at a cost of about $1 per acre inch.

ANOTHER problem that farmers have to deal with is that it is sometimes difficult to plant into stubble. With today's modern equipment, stubble or mulch planting is no longer an excuse for burning. Minimum tillage and no-tillage now are gaining popularity in the Texas Panhandle and High Plains. Producers are finding these practices very helpful when double cropping is desired. This often enables the producer to plant a late crop, harvest acceptable yields, with fewer irrigations and less money invested.

Still another excuse we hear is that loose stubble blocks furrows, causing rows to break over. In many cases this is found to be an improperly designed irrigation system. Assistance is design and layout of an irrigation system for your farm can be obtained upon request from your local Soil Conservation Service.

If you are one of the many farmers who are feeling the pressure of today's cost-price squeeze, put that wheat stubble to work for you instead of allowing those extra dividends to go up in smoke.

Vegetable market news service to be opened for area on July 1

As vegetable crops made good progress in the High Plains-Panhandle areas and began to move to distant consumers, John C. White, commissioner of agriculture, announced the opening July 1 of the fruit and vegetable market news office at Hereford.

MODERATE shipments of potatoes and onions will begin next week, with heavier supplies available by mid-July. The first market report will be issued July 6, according to John D. Engle, federal-state market news reporter at Weslaco. Movement of West Texas commodities is expected to continue until Oct. 15 or later.

Engle said that Jimmie Morrow again will be in charge of the Hereford office, located at 116 25-Mile Avenue.

In addition to potatoes and onions, as harvest progresses and supplies warrant, reports will cover cabbage, peppers, lettuce, carrots and cantaloupes from the Pecos district as well as the Hereford area.

THE MARKET news service will be provided through cooperation of the Texas Department of Agriculture and the US Department of Agriculture's Consumer and Marketing Service.

The Hereford reporting office is part of USDA's 21,000-mile leased wire system connecting market news offices, which cover most farm commodities. Prices in the Hereford area will be available in a matter of minutes to shippers, buyers, haulers or other interested persons in all parts of the country. In addition to the leased wire service, latest market information may be obtained day or night by dialing the automatic answering service, Area Code 806, 364-0129. This market report will be updated three or four times daily, with a final summary of the day's trading around 5 p.m.

Exhibit features Hamilton artwork

Don and Ann Ethington were hosts for an art exhibit of the works of Lloyd Hamilton Jr. and his mother in the community room of the Western Ammonia Plant.

SOME OF Mrs. Ethington's water colors and salt and paint pictures were also on exhibit. Don's daughter served punch coffee and cookies to the guests. Hamilton, a resident of Level-land, holds a master of arts degree from West Texas State, an associate of art degree from South Plains College and a bachelor of science degree from West Texas State.

He won best of show awards in the Hockley County Show in 1970, third place in the '70 Tri-State Fair, first place in the Decempe Show in Albuquerque, N.M., and third place in the National Small Painting Show 1971.

His paintings will be on display in Houston later this month.

School board holds the line on taxes

By MYRT LOMAN
The Hart School Board last Thursday set the tax rate at $1.90 per $100 valuation for the 1971-72 school year—the same rate as the year before.

The Hart ISD Board of Equalization, upon recommendation of the school, lowered the value of cattle for the 1971-72 school year.

The board voted to include the sixth grade in the band program for the 1971-72 school year. Bus driving salaries were set at $950 for the year. The junior high and high school band books were approved for the 1971-72 school year.

All personnel vacancies were filled for the 1971-72 school year with the employment of Mrs. Mary Bechtol as school nurse, Mrs. Jan Hagler as home economics teacher, Vance Bradford as fifth and sixth grade mathematics teacher, Mrs. Dennis Humphreys as a first grade teacher, Dennis Humphreys as a science and mathematics teacher in the junior high school and Mrs. Dianne Gleghorn as the physical education teacher's aide for the elementary school.

HARMON BISHOP brought the Sunday messages at the First Baptist Church in the absence of the pastor, Rev. C. T. Cunningham.

The public is invited each Sunday at 6 p.m. for an old-fashioned singing, preceding the evening worship hour. A good program of song has been planned for each Sunday evening, with singers invited from area churches. Training Union has been discontinued for the present time.

Preston Upshaw is music director. Jim Bryant of Plainview, the youth director, will be assisting in the singings.

Army announces option program

Two new and expanded enlistment options have been announced by the US Army, according to Sfc. Bert Pinales, Army recruiter for Dimmitt.

BOTH ARE outgrowths of the "Unit of Choice" option and the "European Duty" option.

The new US Army Korea and US Army Vietnam options offer qualified young men several choices in return for a three-year enlistment in one of the three combat arms—Armor, Artillery or Infantry.

"The enlistee," said Sfc. Pinales, "has a wider range of choices under these particular options than almost any others the Army offers. Not only can a young man select the basic training center at which he wants to take his training, but he can choose from one of the combat arms."

SFC. PINALES explained that the enlistee may pick his own training center location from Fort Dix, N.J., Fort Knox, or Fort Campbell, Ky., Fort Jackson, S.C., Fort Polk, La., Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., Fort Lewis, Wash., or Fort Ord, Calif. He will also complete his advanced individual training there, providing the station conducts the advanced phase in the field for which he has enlisted.

"An enlistee might complete basic and advanced infantry training at the post of his choice," the sergeant continued, "but those choosing armor or artillery would have to take their advanced training at a post such as Fort Knox for armor or Fort Sill, Okla., for artillery."

Once he had successfully completed his training, the young soldier would then serve either a 13-month tour of duty with the US Eighth Army in Korea or a 12-month tour in Vietnam, according to the option for which he enlisted.

AFTER HIS tour of duty was completed there, he would be offered his choice of assignment in the US with one of seven of the Army's top combat units. As an alternative, he could also select assignment in Europe for the remainder of his enlistment, again with one of the combat units stationed there.

Either of these enlistment options is open to men with previous military service, provided they have less than six years' active duty and would be eligible for appointment of grade E-5 or below. They must also have been qualified in Armor, Artillery or infantry military occupational specialties.

For more information on these new enlistment options, see Sfc. Pinales at his office in US Post Office Room 322, 205 E. Fifth Ave., Amarillo, or call him at 606-373-4214.

TEMIK, a new systemic insecticide, is showing excellent results in cotton insect control demonstrations in Bell County. Cotton treated with Temik is producing more squares and larger stalks than cotton subjected to other treatments. However there are problems with the new insecticide including high cost, hazards because of high toxicity, and possible appearance of bollworms or budworms following use of Temik.

MRS. T. H. TAYLOR was the sponsor Sunday afternoon for a group of 10 members of the UMY of the First United Methodist Church, who met with youth from area churches for a sub-district meeting in the sandhills south of Earth.

Pam Shive and Kathy King presided at the guest register. Special guests were the honoree's mother, Mrs. Pauline Harris of Hart, and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Harold Portwood of Dimmitt.

Texas walleyes are doing great

Since the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department started stocking walleyes in Lake Meredith in 1965, the northern imports have been thriving and doing what biologists had hoped—eating lots of undesirable fish and furnishing sport for fishermen.

IN ADDITION to Lake Meredith two other lakes, Diversion Reservoir in Archer and Baylor Counties and Franklin Reservoir in Franklin County, now have walleyes.

The walleyes have been doing well although the Franklin Reservoir fish have had some rather unusual problems. The fish were stocked in several farm ponds which would have been inundated when the new reservoir reached the anticipated level. The rains which were supposed to fill Franklin never came, and biologists were surprised when the fish survived the summer in the small ponds since walleyes need cool water.

Not only did the fish survive, but they grew from an eighth inch to nine inches in six months. Franklin Reservoir, which has been closed to fishing in order to allow the fish to establish themselves, is filling, and biologists are hoping the holding ponds will be inundated this year.

ANGLER activity at Diversion Reservoir picked up considerably since fishermen started catching walleyes there. Three million of the walleyes were stocked during the springs of 1969 and 1970, and many of the fish are now 13 to 14 inches long and weigh one-half pound.

Most of the fishermen catching walleyes from Diversion Reservoir are using minnows while fishing for crappie.

Additional stockings of walleyes are planned for Franklin and Diversion Reservoir this spring.

SOME OF the walleyes at Lake Meredith have reached the 10-pound category and someday may reach 12 pounds. They have spawned, and biologists are capturing the offspring of fish they stocked years before. The average now is 4½ to five pounds.

Biologists in the Panhandle say they are encouraged by the dietary habits of the walleyes. Gizzard shad accounted for more than 68 percent of the walleyes' diet according to a recent study.

Because they are a schooling fish, walleyes are much more effective predator of undesirable species than the native black bass, according to Marion Toole, inland fisheries coordinator for the Parks and Wildlife Department.

THE RIGHT STAGE
Delaying the cutting of hay will result in increased tonnage, but it will lower the quality, remind agronomists the Texas Agricultural Service. Most of the increased tonnage is in the form of stalk and fiber. Cutting hay at the right stage gives the highest production of total digestible nutrients (TDN).

A GAS outdoor grill gives food a tangy outdoor flavor without the time and bother of charcoal fire. Char-broiled flavor comes from the smoke of meat juices dripping on hot briquets. Charcoal itself provides no flavor.

Permanent ceramic briquets in the gas grill reach cooking heat in a few minutes, and there is no long wait to start cooking. The heat is regulated manually so there is no need to move a grill up or down.

the Greg Hoeltings, flew to Pittsburgh, Pa., Thursday to visit her grandmother.

Those on the sick list are Frank Hoelting in Plains Memorial Hospital; Edgar Birkenfeld in Veteran's Hospital of Amarillo; Stanley Schulte, son of Elmer Schulte, and Allan Maurer, in an Amarillo Hospital.

The weather had been hot and very dry every day the past week here. Rain is badly needed.

Mrs. Boyard Keys, Suzanne and Darryl of Plainview spent a few days here visiting her dad in the hospital and keeping her mother company.

MR. AND MRS. Lou Brockman left Sunday for Arkansas.

They took Lena Hoelting back after a 10-day visit here. They plan to spend a few days' vacation in Arkansas.

Dale Brockman, son of the Arnold Brockmans, returned home safely after a year's duty with the Marines in Vietnam. He has been discharged from the service.

Mrs. Anna Hilvers of Clovis spent a week here visiting her relatives, the Venhaus families.

Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Klemm are the proud parents of a girl, born in Swisher County Hospital the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hoelting left Friday for Ruidoso, N.M., and Fort Bliss to visit the Marvin Hoeltings.

EVEN THE AIDES had to race as the students stayed behind and laughed during the Satellite School picnic last week. Students from Tulia, Hereford and Dimmitt met here for a day's fun. Activities started at 9 a.m. when the kids went to the pool for a morning of swimming. Following a picnic lunch in the park, students and aides joined in fun and games. The lunch was furnished by friends of the school, and four teams of aides brought ice cream for a big surprise.
