ACTIVITIES OF C OF C PLANNED AT A MEETING

At a called meeting of the directors of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce, held in the office of the secretary Monday night, reports of several committees were heard and action was started on several phases of coming activities.

The oil committee reported that the fishing job in the Gallagher and Lawson deep test at Desdemona had proved a failure, and that the rig was to be skidded several feet and the well spudded in again. Drilling had progressed to about 110 feet when the tools were lost in the hole.

The new hole is to be 20 inches, it was reported. The chamber of commerce directors voted to give their support possible to the test and much interest was shown in the activity.

The rodeo committee, appointed to stage the rodeo here in May, was made permanent, with power to make arrangements for other affairs of the kind. The committee is composed of Sig Faircloth, chairman; A. J. Ratliff, G. C. Love and Dr. Ross Hodges. The committee was instructed to consider a rodeo for July 5, and possibilities for a big rodeo for Labor Day both to be held in connection with trades days, if the committee found this advisable.

The oil committee was requested to investigate the possibilities of a big oil jubilee to be held in October, which will be the 20th anniversary of the discovery of oil in the Ranger field. The committee is to formulate tentative plans and find out if such a jubilee will prove practicable.

Many ideas for entertainment features, both for July 5, Labor Day and the oil jubilee were advanced by members of the board or consideration of the committee which will work out the details and submit the plan to the board at some future meeting.

The board also endorsed the oil belt Softball Association and decided that Ranger should be represented in the league. The first game in Ranger will be played Wednesday night with Cisco playing in Ranger. A complete schedule has been worked out.

Those present at the meeting were C. G. Martin, W. L. Creager, Jr., Ross Hodges, A. J. Ratliff, A. J. Larson, D. Joseph, F. P. Brasher, J. E. Matthews, F. D. Hicks, J. Anderson, Ken Ambrose, and Sig Faircloth. Faircloth is a new member of the board, attending his first meeting.

BRITAIN AND FRANCE PLAN CLOSE PACT

By United Press
PARIS, June 1.—France and Great Britain have given Italy and Germany clear intimations that continued direct action in the Spanish civil war may have disastrous consequences for all Europe, it was learned today.

The situation resulting from the German naval bombardment of Almeria was one in which a misplaced bomb fired by some excited aviator or naval officer might provide Europe with the spark needed to set off the war for which all powers are arming.

Some German warships have left for the Mediterranean to reinforce the fleet there.

Adolf Hitler and Premier Mussolini, who speak and act for their nations, are in close cooperation and left no doubt they will act together in any emergency.

On the other side France and Great Britain sought to prevent a crisis, but the fact was they seemed united for the purposes of any emergency as the Nazi-Fascist combination.

Blowout—Crash—Fire—Five Die in Flames

A blowout that careened the car in which six musicians were driving to a Cotskills resort into the path of a five-ton truck laden with barrels of inflammables near Coxsackie, N. Y., was blamed for the collision and fire in which four of the passenger car occupants and the truck driver were burned to death. The wreckage of the passenger car just protrudes from the ditch at right, above, and only the chassis and metal containers of the blazing cargo of the truck remain.

Survey Is Urged To Sift the Rising Cost of Building

By United Press
BOSTON, June 1.—The American Institute of Architects at its 69th convention here, considered conducting a nation-wide study to determine if rackets have gained a foothold in the construction industry and have impeded the housing movement.

Millions of dollars in construction are being held up in many communities because of high building costs, according to the institute's housing committee.

"Bond issues are being voted down all over the United States because of the revolt of taxpayers against the cost of construction as well as against taxes in general," the committee said. "It is suggested that the architectural profession undertake a study of all the factors having to do with the cost of housing, and that the housing program of the PWA be used as the basis on which the study is made."

The committee believed high costs resulted from "the accumulation of practices which might be investigated in order that changes may be suggested for the good of the consumer."

Three remedies have been suggested for the committee:

1. Increase the income of the American people to a point where they can pay the rents resulting from the present cost of building.
2. Reduce the cost of building to the point where the ability to pay would enable a large number of people to secure satisfactory living accommodations.
3. Partly bridge the gap.

The committee rejected the third remedy on grounds it would "merely subsidize the present evils which should be eliminated" and would "prevent the development by industry of new methods."

Canada Lowers Her Acreage In Wheat

By United Press
OTTAWA, Ont.,—Canadian farmers will plant nearly 500,000 acres less with wheat this year than in 1936, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, government statistical agency, estimates.

The bureau, basing its estimate on reports received from correspondents all over the country, places the 1937 wheat acreage at 24,367,800 acres, compared with 24,779,700 in 1936. This year's figure is 1,278,500 acres lower than the peak year of 1932, when 26,646,100 acres were planted.

Of this year's total acreage, 24,113,000 acres will be sown in the three prairie provinces, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and Alberta. Last year 25,522,000 acres were devoted to wheat in the prairies.

The bureau also forecast reductions in acreages to be planted with oats, flaxseed and mixed grains. Potato, barley and rye acreages will be higher.

Duke Paces Floor As Wedding Plans Are Completed

By United Press
MONTE, France, June 1.—The Duke of Windsor paced the floor smoking cigarettes today while the finishing touches were put on plans for his marriage Thursday to Mrs. Wallis Warfield.

It was announced the ceremony would be held at 11:30 a. m. 4:30 a. m. CST. It was explained the earlier hour was more convenient.

Thursday's marriage will be devoid of pomp and will have no religious ceremony, and will last about eight minutes and will cost less than 30 cents and there will be no royalty present.

The duke's wedding will be held at 12:30 p. m., CST, today, completing the first leg of her eastward round-the-world flight, which started this morning at Miami, Florida.

She was accompanied by her navigator, Capt. Fred Noonan.

Last March 17, Miss Earhart took off from Oakland on a westward flight around the world. It failed when she crashed at Honolulu.

HIGH COURT IN RULING ON UTILITY CASES

By United Press
WASHINGTON, June 1.—The Supreme Court concluded its 1936-37 term today by acting adversely on two New Deal pleas in three important power and utility cases brought before it.

The utility action involved court orders rather than written decision.

The court ruled:

1. That it would not, as requested by the government, consider a lower court ruling which ordered the Tennessee Valley Authority to trial in an attack brought by the Tennessee Electric Power company.
2. That it would not, as requested by the government, and the utility, hear the Electric Bond and Share company test of the utility holding company act until the circuit court of appeals has first heard the case.
3. That it would hear then, despite protests of the government, an appeal by two utility concerns, which denied their right to challenge constitutionality of PWA power loans to municipalities.

Calls Fire Trucks to Assist Stork

False alarms are nothing new to New York firemen, but even they were a little vexed when they clanged up to the home of Mrs. Sally Graham and learned they had been summoned only to assist the stork in delivering a 7-pound girl. Her mother, Mrs. Dorothy Legault (above) of Washington, explained in court that she had turned in the alarm because she had been advised, when action was wanted in an emergency, to call the fire department.

GERMANY AND ITALY TO TAKE SEVERE ACTION

By United Press
ROME, Italy, June 1.—Italy and Germany will take severe action against any molestation of their ships by Spanish Loyalist planes or warships, Virginia Gayda declared today.

The representations were made in a personal conversation here between Hull and the German ambassador. Hull made no protest on behalf of this government.

Beauty Baths Are An Aid to Hogs

By United Press
FOND DU LAC, Wis.—A little knowledge about beauty culture has aided Lester and Louis Dyer, Fond du Lac county youths, in making a success of raising Poland China hogs.

Since 1931, when their father, Eugene Dyer, a farmer, gave them two pigs, the boys have made $1,000 through application of scientific methods in breeding show animals. They have won 150 state and county fair ribbons, 90 of them for first places.

Frequent baths with tar soap and a scrub brush make better hogs, they say. Twice a month during the summer their prize animals must be placed in a small crate and bathed. Before the fairs and livestock shows open, the animals receive five weekly scrubbings with olive oil to make them appear well-groomed and sleek.

Lester, a high school sophomore plans to enter 22 animals in 7 county fairs, the state fair, and the Mississippi Valley fair at Davenport, Iowa, this summer. Louis, two years older than Lester, proudly exhibits two trophies he has won, merchandise prizes and one of 10 honor achievement pins presented by the state.

Together, the youths have raised 200 hogs from the original two their father gave them and four which they bought. They have taken in $1,590, of which $590 went for expenses. Last year, six of the Dyer animals won places at the Wisconsin state fair.

Work of installing the grass greens at the Ranger Country Club is progressing rapidly, it was announced today, with the irrigation system being installed so the greens can be watered.

A new 9-foot lawn mower has been purchased to use in keeping the fairways mowed. The huge, 350 mower is to be pulled by a truck. Since it cuts a nine-foot width the entire course can be mowed in one day, it was stated.

Installation of the pipeline for the irrigation system has started and the pump, which is to furnish water for the irrigation system of the clubhouse, was to be installed today. Watering of the greens is expected to start soon.

All greens have been built up, fertilized and sod is rapidly being placed. The greens have a light pitch to the back so that all hit onto them will have a tendency to stick, rather than to roll, it was stated.

New membership certificates have also been issued to the playing members and more interest is being shown in the country club now than at any time in several years.

English Athletes to Compete for Title 'Miss Venus of '37'

By United Press
LONDON, June 1.—A feature of the Festival of Youth to be held on July 3 at Wembley stadium is the aid of the King George V memorial fund will be a parade of 26 British girls with figures as near that of the Venus de Milo as can be found. They will represent the Women's Amateur Athletic Association.

The association has circulated 90 affiliated clubs seeking the "perfect" figures. Nothing is said about faces, but each candidate must have these measurements:

Bust—33 to 34 inches.
Hips—36 to 37 inches.

Just to refresh memories, the measurements of the Venus de Milo are:

Height—5 feet, 4 inches.
Bust—37 inches.
Hips—38 inches.

Mrs. J. Cornell, an official of the national A.A.A., hastened to explain that not for years has Venus been accepted as the perfect figure as far as bust is concerned. They were these measurements specified:

"We want to show that women can be athletic without losing their figures," Mrs. Cornell said. "People get the idea that as soon as a girl takes up sports she must lose her figure and become a huge, masculine hulk.

"Well, it isn't so. Athletics help girls keep their figures, and this parade will show how well. There are plenty of girls in the association whose figures conform to these requirements, and all are trained athletes.

"The modern girl has a better figure than the Venus de Milo; the girls in the association can prove it—and will on July 3."

There's no doubt that plenty of British girls have figures approximating these measurements. Most British girls are taller than the American average, and a national characteristic is a tendency to a large bust and hips.

The 36 English Ceneuses will wear white vests and black shorts in the parade.

Inviting a Nationwide Picnic With Death

It takes, as somebody once remarked, all kinds of people to make a world. And since our world is infinitely various, it follows that we have some queer fish masquerading as adult human beings.

Here is a little news story that got on the wires from Galena, Mo., a few days ago:

"The carnival spirit of a rural hanging tonight drew hundreds of persons to the death watch over Roscoe (Red) Jackson, 33, confessed slayer, who will be executed at 6 a. m. tomorrow.

"The lawn of the Stone county courthouse was sprinkled with groups of women who chattered as if at a picnic. Small boys ran across the board gallows platform and into the jail to peep at the condemned man."

It would be easy enough to dance around those two paragraphs briefly, conclude that the people of Stone county Missouri, are somehow more calloused and heartless than all the rest of us, and then go on to something else. The only trouble is that it wouldn't be true.

For this sort of thing has happened before, in other places than Missouri, and it will happen again. It is not unusual, for modern America. And it provides a good insight into the odd moral atmosphere of a land which can't seem to understand why it has such a crime problem.

The thing that hits you in the eye, about that carnival crowd that stayed up all night to enjoy a good hanging, is that it has no conception whatever of the sacredness of human life.

Inside that jail there was a man who was living through his last hours on earth; a man whom society, for good and sufficient reasons, was about to put out of existence. No one with any sensitivity to the infinite mystery of life and death can even think of a man in that situation without feeling sobered and humble.

And when people can make a picnic out of such a thing, the only possible conclusion is that they lack that saving sensitivity. They simply cannot understand that any life, even a bad one, is a part of the same tremendous riddle that underlies their own lives. Unless death strikes close to them they remain unmoved by it.

Now a country which can muster such picnicking crowds is a country in which life is considered cheap. And such a country, because it has that attitude, is just naturally going to have a high homicide rate, with shootings and stabbings and mob violence enough to make the angels weep. How can it have anything else, if it has no inkling of the sacredness of life?

Of course, not all of us go to hangings. But most of us do it by proxy. We insist that our newspapers describe executions in grim detail, sparing us nothing. We feast our morbid curiosity on stories of the death house, the "last mile," the grim paraphernalia and routine of death. And we do it for the same reason that that Missouri mob flocked about the scaffold.

As long as we have that attitude we have no right to wonder at the appalling commonness of homicide in our country.

"SECOND DILLINGER" TO GET REPLICATION OF GANGSTER'S DEATH, POLICE HOPE

BY NEA SERVICE
LOGANSPORT, Ind. — Indiana state police, ranging central Indiana in a frantic search for Al Brady, who deliberately seeks to duplicate John Dillinger's career in banditry, are determined to oblige him by providing an exact replica of Dillinger's ending.

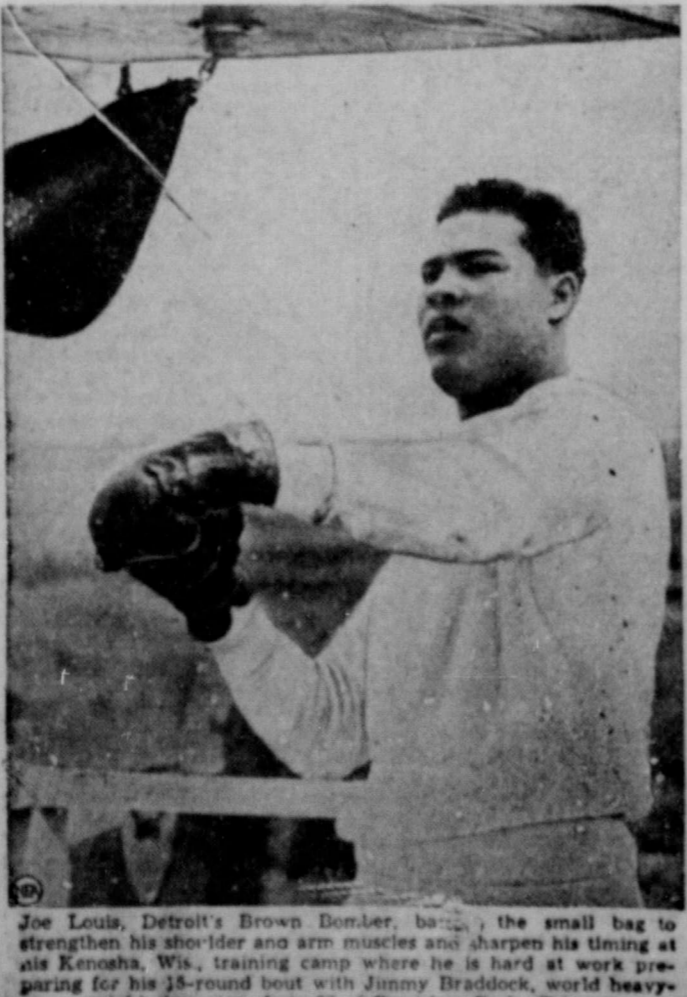

They began the same type of roving bank and jewelry store robberies as the Dillinger gang. They even turned to the same town, Lima, O., where Dillinger was liberated from jail when his thugs cold-bloodedly killed Sheriff Jess Barber. The Brady gang robbed a jewelry store there.

Leaping on Sheriff Clarence Watson in an unguarded moment, they clubbed him into unconsciousness, fired on spectators who tried to interfere, stole a bystander's car, and fled. Despite the most energetic manhunt since Dillinger, the trio escaped.

Using a technique of road blocking, aerial patrols and radio blockade developed during the hunt for Dillinger, Indiana highway patrolmen are scouring the state in an effort to oblige Al Brady in his effort to parallel John Dillinger's career. They want to make certain that the endings are the same.

Human Ears Will Be Imported By Chinese Scientist

By Frederick C. Othman
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON—The Bureau of Customs has authorized importation of a half a dozen human ears from China.

This meant no relaxation of the immigration laws. The owners can't come along with their ears. They must remain in China while their carefully wrapped and refrigerated ears make the long journey to Indianapolis, Ind.

There they will be used by a pharmaceutical house for experiments in plastic surgery technique, as developed by a Chinese servant. He said he needed six ears of his countrymen to continue his work. He also arranged to get the ears. The customs bureau never did learn how.

Whether these ears still are being worn, or whether they already have been unattached and packed for shipment, is something else the customs bureau didn't discover. The bureau is a little weary of the ear problem. It has had an ear-full.

The questions were these: Is it legal to import three pairs of Chinese ears without the usual Chinese joined thereto? If so, how much is the duty?

The collector of customs at San Francisco, to whom these inquiries went first, tugged at his own ear, but the longer he tugged the more confused he became. He couldn't classify ears as antiques, nor medicine, nor as household furnishings. He couldn't even call them hearing devices.

He was about to get an earache. He forwarded the query to Washington, which wrote to Indianapolis for more information about ears. The reply told how the Chinese physician needed them and about how they were to be used for legitimate experimentation.

The customs bureau phoned Dr. Thomas Farran, chief of the Bureau of Public Health, and asked him if he had any objections to six Chinese ears (minus Chinese) being imported. He said he didn't.

Then the bureau called the postoffice. "Yeah, ears," replied the customs bureau cheerily. "Chinese ears. Any objections to them being imported?"

The Postoffice Department said it didn't mind, either, but by all the ears in China, it was not going to carry any ears in the mails. It said it guessed the importer would have to figure out his own method of transporting his three pairs of ears from California to Indiana. The bureau decided that there was nothing prohibiting importation of ears. The next thing was to apply a duty on them. It flipped into its list of "ES" and read a couple of hundred things beginning with "E." There wasn't an ear in the book, except elephant ears, and they turned out to be a kind of leafy cusion. It has to list ears, Chinese, bush. That left the customs bureau with only one possible de-

WASHINGTON—Chairman Joseph P. Kennedy of the U. S. Maritime Commission believes that the Federal agency will be able to pay off the claims which American shipping lines by $50 without need for request further funds from the treasury. Kennedy said the commission, series of negotiations with the shipping companies, had entered into arrangements to pay off the claims which from cancellation of mail contracts under the 1936 Merchant Marine Act.

Examination of the powers of the commission in settlement of labor strife. This is now being handled by a special labor rela-tions department recently cre-ated by Kennedy.

Analysis of commission au-thority over air commerce. This will be included in a report to the Congress and will cover both air-transportation and dirigible transportation.

Kennedy indicated that the commission at some future date will request Congress to en-act legislation giving it authority to bring maritime labor similar to recent enjoyed by the National Transportation Board over carrier spokesmen, under the Railway Labor act. The whole thing is a vast job, he said, "larger than any I ever handled in private business. The limitation makes it tough. If, however, we provide that we can't handle any mail pay after June 1st, if we don't do something—do it fast—we are all washed

I have no intimation yet as to what we will proceed in the future and what recommendations we may make to Congress. My ideas are constantly changing. One thing—we have to learn to swim—take a few strokes at a time—before we can make any predictions. American shipping has fallen into an intolerable state. The president said 'Let's stop fooling ourselves about this mail pay' and we have entered into a frank subsidy arrangement. It is a necessary thing—every other country is doing it.

"And there is a growing and tremendous need for merchant shipping. Our trade policies as well as international armament have necessitated the use of more bottoms. cooperative."

"We are asking all the shipping companies to help us work out our plans—and they have been very cooperative."

Interest Growing In Grade Summer School Work Here

Several pupils and their parents reported at the high school this morning to get information regarding the summer work for grade school children. There were a few who were ready to sign up and others suggested that they would probably want to come.

In order to meet the need of all who are interested it was thought best to allow another day for registration. Hence all who are interested in taking summer work in the fifth, sixth and seventh grades are asked to come to the high school Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock if they did not report this morning.

It is hoped that a sufficient number will register to enable regular class work to begin Thursday morning. Information may be had by calling either the principal's or superintendent's office.

To Women:

If you suffer every month you owe it to yourself to take note of Cardui and find out whether it will benefit you.

Functional pains of menstruation have, in many cases, been eased by Cardui. And where malnutrition (poor nourishment) had taken away woman's strength, Cardui has been found to increase the appetite, improve digestion and in that way help to build up a natural resistance to certain useless suffering. (Where Cardui fails to benefit, consult a physician.) Ask your druggist for Cardui—(pronounced "Card-u-i").

WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—A foretaste of the propaganda attack of which Washington and the country will be subjected in the event of another general European war is being provided by the Spanish Embassy here.

Although there is now a neutrality law of problematical effectiveness, nowhere therein is contained any sort of a ban on any type of propaganda. A foreign embassy is permitted to engage in any type of "educational work" it desires, assuming it doesn't stick its nose into domestic affairs.

The Spanish Embassy has become a freely flowing source of pamphlets, statements, press releases, reproductions of documents and other items of formal propaganda, in addition to whatever more intimate and confidential methods it may be adopting.

Occasionally the ambassador, Don Fernando de los Rios, has press conferences. These conferences are effective from a propaganda standpoint because the ambassador is a brilliant intellectual with a mild, friendly personality which has attracted many sympathizers to his government's cause.

One conference was held to make public the Spanish government's amnesty offer to deserters from the rebel ranks. The ambassador also has made speeches to meetings of American sympathizers in the East. The embassy ballroom has been turned over to an exhibit of Spanish war posters and works of art illustrating the conflict from the loyalist slant.

REBEL propaganda has been comparatively inconspicuous here lately. Its only recent offering has been a small collection of photographs, labeled "Civilized people of the world, see how the hordes of Caballeros kill the men, outrage the women, wreck works

Now that the U. S. has banned the Paris air derby, maybe the committee will turn its talents to the summer mosquito marathon.

Elks Club Wins Second Victory Of New Season

Montgomery Ward got off a good start against the Elks Monday night, but a late rally the Elks showed them under the lights of the game by scoring 13 to 5.

The Wardmen started the game with a one-run lead in the first half of the fourth inning. The Elks went scoreless until the fourth, two in the fifth and more in the sixth to take the lead.

With one down and one on the Elks' big fourth in Groves hit for the circuit count for two runs, which the start of the five-run rally took the lead away from Montgomery Ward.

The game made two winners of the Elks, who are in the lead, and two losers for Montgomery Ward. After the game Elks played an exhibition game with the Ranger colored team scoring an easy victory.

HIGH TIDE OF SPRING

Blossom Time and bird time ... new leaves gleaming on the trees, and grass of unbelievable greenness springing underfoot.

Lets get outdoors!

There's magic in May sunshine that stirs desires to fulfilment. The flower-bed we've planned for years—we'll plant it now! We'll get new screens, the shining kind, and throw away the frayed old things that flies came through last summer. We'll get a new lawn-mower ... a bird-bath for the corner by the hedge ... a lawn-chair or two, and a big bright umbrella with a tiny table for tea.

Can you afford all these delightful things? Of course you can! It's astonishing what values are offered in the stores this month. As you go through your paper you'll see them. Smart, cool, outdoor dresses ... gardening hats and tools and gloves ... croquet and deck-tennis and badminton sets ... comfortable porch swings and outdoor furniture ... all so inexpensive that you can buy them now without waiting and wishing.

Read the advertisements. Plan your purchases. And let your Spring dreams come true.

Featured in "Man Who Found Himself"

Notable for its cast, new screen heroine and its theme is "The Man Who Found Himself," stirring RKO Radio drama in which John Beal, Joan Fontaine, a lovely and talented blonde newcomer, are featured. The story, that of a degenerate doctor who finds his rehabilitation in woman's love, offers the aerial ambulance service as one of its interesting sidelights, playing at the Arcadia today only.

Other Forceful Messages Heard At Revival Here

Another large and enthusiastic congregation was present at the revival meeting now underway at the Central Baptist church, when Rev. A. L. Leake spoke Monday night on the subject, "Humble Thyself Before God."

The former pastor of Central Baptist, who is conducting the services, is one of the most forceful preachers ever heard at a revival at the church and his message was an inspiration to all who attended.

He pointed out that it was necessary for everyone to humble himself in the presence of God and to put oneself in a position so that God could use them.

Mrs. Leake, who is conducting the musical portion of the revival, sang a solo in her own inimitable way, which added much to the impressiveness of the service.

Much interest is being taken in the revival, with the music playing an important part. An increase is daily being noted in both the adult and junior prayer bands, and though the revival is still young, predictions are that it will be the best Central Baptist has ever held.

This morning, in the absence of Revs. Leake and H. H. Stephens, Mrs. Leake preached at the morning service at 9.30. She spoke on "Talking Tongues." She mentioned that talking tongues often destroy reputations and admonished her listeners to take care that they did not harm the ones they loved by talk.

The two preachers were attending a meeting of pastors at Fort Worth today, but will be back in Ranger in time for Rev. Leake to preach at the evening service, which begins at 8 o'clock.

The morning services are conducted at 9.30 and are dismissed at 10.30 in order that the women who attend will have time to prepare the noon meals for their families.

Roy Moore Is Sent To Oklahoma Job

Roy Moore and family, who have lived in Ranger for the last fourteen years, where Roy has been an employee of Lone Star, have been transferred to Healdton, Okla., where he will be employed with the Lone Star as storekeeper, the same position he held in Ranger.

Moore came to Ranger from Duncan, Okla., and was engaged as truck driver, later being promoted to the gasoline division of the company as storekeeper. The Moores have been active in social and church work in Ranger and have many friends who wish for them success in their new home.

Arthur Williams, well-known employe of the Lone Star Gas company, has been transferred to the place occupied by Moore with the gasoline department, and W. M. Lassater of Healdton will be transferred to Ranger to take the place vacated by the transfer of Williams.

Mrs. Moore and children, Reba, Jean, Polly and Roy, Jr., left early Monday morning and will be joined in Marlow by Moore, who was unable to get away from Ranger until late Monday afternoon.

Massacre Data Is Sought for Family

GRAND FORKS, N. D.—Information concerning a family murdered by Indians here in frontier days is being sought in England in connection with North Dakota PWA compilations of history for the American Guide.

Fragmentary records show an English family, named Tilly, was traveling from Pembina, N. D., to Fort Snelling, Minn. The Tillys were ambushed by Indians a short distance from Grand Forks at a small stream since known as English coulee and the entire family, with exception of two young boys, was massacred.

It is recorded the two boys were taken captive, but later rescued by a scouting party from Fort Snelling.

Calm Before Storm of Cup Challenge

When it wasn't storm that beset the Endeavour, T. O. M. Soppwith's defeated America's Cup challenger in the 1935 races, it was calm. The sails of the big yacht, which crossed the Atlantic to serve as trial horse for the Endeavour II, new challenger, hang limply from the rigging above as the craft, floating on a breezeless sea, awaits a tow into harbor at Newport, R. I.

POET'S CORNER

CLASS POEM
By Ima Gene Reynolds

Four years ago, how happy were we,
For we were just green freshmen.
There was just one thing we wanted to be,
And that was to be upper classmen.

We looked forward to just such a time,
When Seniors we all would be.
We knew that from the foot we'd have to climb,
But we did; and here are we.

Part of the time we hated school,
And disobeyed our teachers here,
We were sorry when we broke a rule,
And we tried to spread good cheer.

We think that we have done our best
In work, and sports, and play,
We always faced our work with zest
So that firm foundations we could lay.

So good-bye dear old Ranger High,
For now we're leaving you;
We're each one out to swim or die,
But we'll always be true to you.
