Two Rodeo Performances Here On Saturday

DESDEMONA'S DEEP TEST IS BELOW 3,450 FT

According to a report from Cisco, home office of Gallagher and Lawson, operators on the deep test near Desdemona, the No. 1 Bobbie L. Terry was drilling Tuesday at 3,450 feet with the bit approximately 25 feet in the Ellenberger line.

The report from Cisco also stated: "The Ellenberger was topped at 3,404 feet. Unless commercial production of sufficient magnitude to justify a change of plans, the well will be carried to the Hickory and below it to the Wilbourne series in search of new oil resources believed to exist under a horizon which in 1918 and thereabouts furnished oil from that time and for a long period afterward.

Records of another test in the area, drilled during the boom and abandoned below 4,000 feet, were reported to have revealed that under the Ellenberger lies a promising sand body. Strong gas and oil rainbows were reported to have come up through a column of several thousand feet of water which caused abandonment of the earlier test, it was said.

The Terry will be able to case off any water easily. It set the longest string of 10 3-4-inch casing ever set in this section, measuring 2,731 feet of Grade D seamless pipe, about 15 days ago. The test is located about half a mile south of Desdemona and just over the line in Comanche county.

N. D. Gallagher, one member of the firm, is now supervising the drilling of the well. O. G. Lawson, the other member, is on a vacation at Mrs. Lawson in East and South Texas. At a camp near Kerrville the Lawsons will visit their daughter, Helen Louise. Mrs. Gallagher and her daughter, Peggy Jean, and son, Norvell D. Jr., are also at the camp, where they have a cottage.

Youths to Attend Six-Week Course Listed by the NYA

The complete list of Eastland county youths to attend a six-week elementary agricultural course beginning formally this week was announced at Eastland by H. A. Ziegler, assistant district 7 director of the National Youth Administration, Fort Worth, agency sponsoring the plan.

The youths listed were James Barker of Eastland, Marlin Sneed of Ranger, Elton M. Burns of Okra, John Hughes of Eastland, James Robert Gilkey of Eastland and Ben Truly of Eastland. The majority of the youths were interviewed by Ziegler and explained the schooling Monday at an Eastland meeting. Also speaking were County Agent Elmo V. Cook and Bertha Platt, Breckenridge, area supervisor for Texas Relief Commission.

The youths will earn their schooling at North Texas Agricultural college, Arlington, by performing work at the institution. Also incidental money plus room and board funds will be earned.

KIDNAPED MEN KILL, CAPTURE TWO FUGITIVES

BOSWELL, Okla., July 21.—Pete Traxler, notorious outlaw, was shot and captured, and his Texas convict pal was killed today by two men whom they had kidnaped.

J. E. Denton of Asher, Okla., kidnaped by the pair early today at Kingston, seized a gun and shot Traxler through the left shoulder and lung as Traxler dozed.

Fred Trimmer, 39, Caddo farmer, kidnaped today, seized another gun and killed Fred Tindol, Traxler's companion. The body of Tindol was brought here.

The shooting which ended a long series of depredations by the two convicts who escaped from the Eastham, Texas, prison farm, on July 8, took place seven miles northwest of Boswell.

Denton said he was riding in the front seat with Traxler when he noticed Traxler dozing. He then seized a gun and shot him.

Traxler, suffering intense pain, also was brought here, but it was not determined whether to operate on him. The bullet passed through his body.

The map of the leader of the outlaw pair proved their undoing. Five hundred officers and possum and bloodhounds took part in the spectacular manhunt.

Denton was seized at Kingston seven hours before the killing.

MONTICELLO, Ark., July 21.—With one escaped Texas convict dead and another captured, state rangers and deputies searched near here today for a third who eluded them in a surprise attack.

A convicted bank robber, Hilton Bybee, 26, was killed by machine gun fire after he fired a sawed-off shotgun into the chest of State Ranger Neal Shannon.

Harry Rice, 30, surrendered when Sgt. Buck Mooney shot a pistol from his hands. Search for the third fugitive, Harry Roberts, 34, was resumed today after an eight-hour hunt ended without results.

Traxler, who had been a convict at the state penitentiary at Dallas, was taken to the state penitentiary at Dallas. He was taken there after he was shot.

AD VALOREM TAX RATE SET AT 49 CENTS

AUSTIN, July 21.—State ad valorem taxes for this year were set at 49 cents per $100 valuation today by the state automatic tax board. Last year's rate was 62 cents.

The board refused to levy the tax to increase the school fund, already enough to pay $17.50 each for the 1,560,000 scholars, but set a seven-cent rate to raise $2,000,000 for text books.

The maximum rate for 35 cents for general purposes and seven cents for confederate pensions set the total at 49 cents.

Deficits in the general and confederate funds left the board with no discretion but to set the maximum levy.

The board comprised of Gov. Alfred, Treasurer Charley Lockhart, and Comptroller George Sheppard, listened for an hour and a half to A. W. Birdwell, president of the Texas State Teachers Association, plead for a 20-cent school tax.

New Trials Asked Denied by Court

Ninety-first district court Tuesday overruled motions for new trials asked by E. C. Randolph and H. A. Allen. Both gave notice of appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals at Austin.

Allen was recently assessed a two-year penitentiary term after conviction upon a charge of disposal of mortgaged property. Randolph had been given a two-year term upon a charge of automobile theft.

Hornsby Is Ousted As Brown Manager

ST. LOUIS, July 21.—Rogers Hornsby was ousted as manager of the St. Louis Browns baseball team of the American League today. In explaining the action, Donald Barnes, owner of the club, said it was "for the best interests of the Browns."

Final Bonds On Old Eastland County Courthouse Are Paid

Final payment of Eastland county's old courthouse was made Tuesday.

County Auditor Don Parker stated the payment was on two of $1,000 bonds of the series issued June 10, 1927, for construction of the old courthouse.

The county seven years ago attempted to pay all the remaining bonds but could not locate the owners of the two paid Tuesday. Sixteen bonds were paid seven years ago.

The bonds when issued were made to mature June 10, 1937. The final bonds were made payable to the National Commercial Bank and Trust company of Albany, N. Y. Real owners of the final bonds were not known.

Actually the final $1,000 bonds cost the county $3,000 each, as interest at 5 per cent rate had been accruing since issuance.

The old courthouse was built in 1898 after a wooden structure had burned down. The courthouse built in 1898 was demolished in 1927 because it had become obsolete and was inadequate for the county's needs. The present courthouse was financed by bonds voted Dec. 15, 1927.

The old courthouse bonds, although maturing June 10, this year, had been callable by the county after June 10, 1907.

County officials when the old courthouse was constructed included Richard Gray, clerk; B. F. Chastain, judge, and E. P. Davenport, treasurer.

SEN. BARKLEY IS CHOSEN AS PARTY LEADER

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Senate democrats by a vote of 88 to 37 today chose Sen. Alben Barkley of Kentucky to be their new majority leader, charged with disposing of President Roosevelt's hattered Judiciary Program and attempting to restore party harmony.

Barkley who defeated Sen. Pat Harrison of Miss., had been regarded as an administration candidate and an enthusiastic supporter of the court bill.

The white house, however, emphasized its neutrality.

As a result of the election, supporters of the judiciary program appeared to have won back some of the ground lost in the last few days.

President Roosevelt immediately invited Barkley and Harrison to the white house for a conference.

Asked to comment on the outlook for the court bill and the prospects for the rest of the legislative program, Barkley replied, "I can't tell you a thing now."

The caucus was probably the most dramatic in history. As the votes were counted and lead changed from one side to the other. With only one vote uncounted the vote was 87 to 87. There was a breathless moment as the final ballot was opened.

It was for Barkley.

BEST PERFORMANCE OF YEAR IS PLANNED FOR AFTERNOON AND NIGHT ON SATURDAY, JULY 24

Contestants and Spectators From Over This Entire Section of Central and West Texas Are Planning On Being Here.

Ranger's second big rodeo of the year, including a matinee and night performance on Ranger's lighted rodeo field, will be conducted Saturday, with several new features being added for the entertainment of the spectators and in which contestants can take part.

Room for more than 1,000 additional spectators has been arranged by the rodeo committee because of the fact that at the rodeo held here in May there was not ample seating place for all who wanted to see the show.

Both the afternoon and evening performances will be started with a big parade through the business section of town, led by Mayor Hall Walker, with the Ranger High School Band and the rodeo contestants taking part.

The afternoon performance of the rodeo will begin at 2 o'clock, with the evening performance beginning at 8:30.

Among the features at the rodeo will be a calf-roping contest for business men of Ranger, with Mayor Hall Walker, Dr. P. M. Kaykendall, A. J. Ratliff and Felton Brashier and S. B. Lemma as contestants.

Another feature of the show will be trick roping by Duke Purdum, one of the foremost trick ropers in this part of the country, and who has performed before rodeo crowds throughout the state. Purdum is without a peer as a trick roper and his part of the entertainment should prove to be one of the highlights of the show.

Calf roping for contestants will also be staged, with indications that between 30 and 40 ropers will be entered from all over Central and West Texas.

Following the calf roping will be wild cow milking, steer riding, bronc riding and calf belling. The bronc riding will be for mount money, while the other features will be contested between entries.

A match roping contest, with six calves roped by each, will be staged as an extra attraction. Ropers will be Vester Parrish of Wingate and Zelma Herrington of Ranger, both ropers with wide reputations and both of whom will be out to win the match if possible.

Managers of the show have announced that it will be strictly an amateur performance with no professional riders or ropers being allowed to take part in any of the contests.

Entries should register for the show as early as possible at the Chamber of Commerce office on Main street, and spectators can obtain tickets at the same place, thereby avoiding the necessity of waiting in line at the ticket booth at the field.

The rodeo Saturday will be the forerunner of a big rodeo which is now being planned for the Labor Day week-end, early in September.

Chinese Approve A Settlement With Japanese

SHANGHAI, July 21.—The Chinese National Government was believed today to have approved probably in advance, a reported settlement by local officials, of the Peiping crisis with Japan.

Officials were reticent to discuss the agreement. The fact that Chinese troops had started to withdraw and the attitude of the national government indicated the government was reconciled to an agreement.

Court Bill Seems To Be Crumbling

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Senate support for President Roosevelt's judiciary re-organization bill was crumbling today and some men committed to votes to expand the supreme court predicted privately "the bill is dead."

The Judiciary legislation appeared to be near rejection as congressional leaders began a series of informal conferences, looking toward a compromise.

Mr. Roosevelt was said to be aware that the senate would not accept the legislation, although he was not reconciled to defeat.

Rotarians Hear a Musical Program

Edwin George Jr., was in charge of the Ranger program today and presented Jack Davenport, Merle Stewart and Eddie Williams who rendered several musical selections.

Ranger Will Be Host to Fans at Rodeo Saturday

Ranger merchants and business men are again playing hosts to the people in this trade territory and are offering a splendid Rodeo program for their entertainment next Saturday.

Not only will the attraction of the Rodeo be well worth the time of all but the special bargains offered by the merchants will be an added attraction for the entire day.

This is the second Rodeo attraction of the year and Ranger will throw another party on Labor Day, which is the first Monday in September.

The Rodeo has been advertised extensively in the newspapers not only in Ranger trade territory but within a radius of 75 miles. There will be many expert riders and ropers to take part in the show.

Two shows will be held, so all the people can have an opportunity to attend. The first show will be at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and the next show at 8:30 at night.

The Trades Days that have been conducted for the past several weeks will be discontinued after next Saturday. Extra seats have been added to the Rodeo Stadium, and everyone can attend.

Two 'Good Oldtimers'
Still in the Harness

With regular airplane schedules now linking North America directly with every continent, with streamlined trains streaking on faster schedules from coast to coast, and with science almost daily bringing out some new device to increase the speed of communications, it is almost too easy to scoff at the occasional brave philosopher who sings for "the good old days."

The fact is that several of the mainstays of the "good old days," along with much of the atmosphere of that hazy era, are still in evidence. The proof was contained in two recent news stories, bearing witness to the survival of at least two transportation vehicles which had their beginnings when the nation was only a stripling.

One told of the greatest single month of June traffic in the history of the Great Lakes. For that month this year, the Sault Ste. Marie ship canal recorded more than 14,000,000 tons of freight shipping, amounting to about 100,000 tons more than the previous record, established during the boom year of 1929.

The list of items included in this shipping is significant too—lumber, flour, wheat and other grains; copper, scrap and pig iron; steel, stone, coal, petroleum products, automobiles and general merchandise—all commodities or material necessary to most individuals sometime during their daily lives. And not to be overlooked are the 4000 passengers who, apparently simply professed that kind of travel.

The other item concerned the activities of ferry boats along the Ohio river. Eight miles downstream from Cincinnati, a man has just launched a new side-wheeler to ply a route which has been in operation 121 years. But his case is not exceptional. There are 20 ferries plying the Ohio at points between Ashland and Carrollton, Ky. And the total, when this kind of transportation is figured in from all the navigable rivers of the union, might be shocking to those who scoff at old-time methods.

How long these ferries may continue to defy time is a matter of guessing. They make no challenge to the faster moving age, because they merely fill the gaps left in the new traffic arteries, and usually serve communities which can not afford bridges.

It is interesting, then, to estimate how many other "vestigial remains" from the past have hung on through the thick and thin of twentieth century progress.

Probably there are many of them. Beside our sleek new transportation facilities, the old side-wheelers and the lake boats may appear woefully outdated. But they are still delivering people and they are delivering the things people need. And really, that's all they require for their claim to recognition.

With devaluation rampant, it's time to feel sorry for the man with the heart of gold.

THE UNIVERSAL MOVEMENT

Full Church Greet
Rev. Haley at the Christian Revival

Rev. Haley had a full house to greet him last night at the services being conducted by the First Christian church, and he brought a splendid message on the subject,
"Greater Things."

The evangelist showed that the church of today has a greater opportunity to lift up humanity and to do good than even Christ had while in the world.

His picture last night was "The Church in the Wilderness." It was a great sermon in itself, and the congregation was held spellbound during the drawing.

"If you have not heard this minister you should do so at your earliest convenience," Rev. H. B.
Johnson, pastor of the church, said today. "He is one of the most interesting preachers who have come this way. His subject for this evening will be "Sad India." Don't miss it."

"You had better come early," the pastor continued, "if you want to get a convenient seat, as the house will be full early. There are plenty of chairs to take care of the overflow, so don't stay away thinking there will not be room for you will be provided for."

"I am glad to see other church members coming in such great numbers. Come, you will be welcome. The children and young folks are urged to come just a little earlier tonight as there will be a special service for them.
"The house is very comfortable as we have plenty of fans and good ventilation."

Attendance Grows
At Church of God
Revival In Ranger

The Church of God open air revival is drawing large congregations each evening with increasing interest being shown at each service.

"We want to thank the people of Ranger and others who have been present every night," Rev.
John H. Moore, who is conducting the services, said today.

Last night Rev. Moore took as his subject, "My Long Home," and tonight he will speak on the subject "Sowing and Reaping."

Thursday night a special service for the mothers of Ranger will be conducted and da larger attendance is anticipated.

The services will come to a close Sunday night with a baptism Sunday afternoon at 2:30.
"As pastor of the church I want to thank all denominations of Ranger for their cooperation in this meeting," Rev. Roy J.
Young, pastor of the local Church of God, said today. "The public is cordially invited to attend the remainder of these services."

Lions Win First
Of Grudge Games
From Rotarians

The Ranger Lions Club won the first of a series of three "grudge" games with the Rotarians by a score of 13 to 11 Tuesday night.

The Lions took an early lead when they scored four runs in the first inning, but the Rotarians came back with a three-run rally that put them within one point of a tie. The Lions scored two runs in the second, while the Rotarians tallied three times to tie the score at 6-all.

The tie was short-lived, however, the Lions coming back with four runs in the third while the Rotarians were held scoreless.
Two more runs were marked up by the Lions in the fifth, while the Rotarians made three and one by the Lions and two by the Rotarians in the fifth and final inning ended the scoring.

Home runs were numerous,
with Killingsworth, Downtain, Hill, Kuykendall and Murphy hitting for the circuit.

No errors were marked up by the scorekeeper, who was liberal in his judgment on miscues, while he marked up eight hits for the Lions and 11 for the Rotarians.

The winner in two of three games is to be given a watermelon feast by the losers.

In the second game of the evening Montgomery Ward de-

Sanderford Defends Raising School Aid $3.00 Per Scholastic

By United Press
AUSTIN, Texas — President Ghent Sanderford of the State Board of Education defends vigorously the action of the board in voting a $22 per scholastic state aid to school districts.

By doing so, the board disappointed hopes of Gov. James V. Allred for a reduced state tax rate, with no school tax.

Senate Finance Chairman John Redditt of Lufkin said the state automatic tax board might reduce the state tax rate regardless of the Board of Education action. The education board estimated that the present 20 cents tax on $100 valuation would be needed to pay the $22 per pupil. That is 15 cents below the maximum school tax that could have been Redditt's suggestion irked Sanderford, especially a quoted statement that the Board of Education should have given the taxpayers a rest.

"He didn't seem to be digging his heels in very hard to hold back when the Texas Senate was voting its appropriation for state colleges," Sanderford replied.

Board of Education members contend that they really are saving the majority of taxpayers money by raising the school apportionment.

The argument is this: If the state lessens its aid to school districts, local school taxes will be higher. The state school tax is paid only on property not subject to the $3,000 homestead tax exemption. The exemption does not apply to local school taxes. The big property owners pay the state tax; the small property owners escape a local tax that would be levied except for the state aid.

Board of Education members say further that they really are being liberal to the taxpayers in holding the apportionment to $22. Member John Laird argued that they really should make a $25 apportionment to provide a six months school term in every part of the state. The board estimated a $19 apportionment could be paid without any state school tax levy; that a $20 apportionment could be paid with a 10-cent levy; a $21 apportionment with a 15-cent tax levy and $22 with a 20-cent tax levy. Maximum state school tax possible under the constitution is 35 cents.

Many answers were given when the Board of Education asked local school officials who attended the board meeting what they propose to do with the additional money they will receive. Contrary to expectation, eight out of 10 proposed to use it for purposes other than raising pay of teachers. Most of them want to fix up school buildings, which, they said, had been sadly neglected during the depression. Some proposed to increase the teaching staff and offer full day sessions to children now attending half-day sessions. Some propose to pay off debts incurred to keep schools running during the depression days.

One Language Is Urged to Weld the Peace of Nations

LONDON.—"Nothing will make more for world peace than a common language—a tongue that will enable ordinary folk of all nations to fraternize with one another."

This assertion is made by Sir Benjamin Drage, business chief and technical adviser, who has launched a campaign calling on the League of Nations to sponsor a universal language.

"Daily we are physically brought nearer our fellow-men," he said, "but the mental distance continues. A common language will bring the world closer, mentally and morally. I am appealing to the statesmen of the league to give this proposal their grave consideration."

Sir Benjamin said that the medium for a universal language was a matter of indifference to him. It might be Esperanto, Ido, Basic, English or an entirely new language created by experts appointed by the league.

Whatever medium was chosen, the universal language would have to be taught compulsorily in all schools of the 52 league countries. Newspapers would be asked to print columns or sections in the universal language. Soon all countries, whether in the league or not, would be bound, from commercial interests alone, to adopt it.

"At present language is a bar to mutual understanding," he declared. "The curse of Babel is upon us yet. The solution lies in a common tongue."

Mountain Fever Reported In Texas

AUSTIN.—Appearance of the dread Rocky Mountain Fever in Texas was evident this week when two cases of the disease reported in Southeast Texas were officially diagnosed as such by Dr. R. H. Spencer, spotted fever expert of the United States Public Health Service. Dr. Spencer, vacationing in San Antonio, was pressed into service by State Health Officer Dr. Geo. W. Cox, to diagnose the two cases, one of which proved fatal.

Dr. Spencer's diagnosis is the first official recognition of the presence in Texas of spotted fever, a disease transmittable to men by the bite of infected ticks. Although many wood and dog ticks are not infected with the fever, the disease in man is serious enough to warrant the practice of precautionary measures. A person with spotted fever will develop the disease within 2 to 12 days after receiving the infection. When the ticks appear, they are unfed and are seeking some animal to attach themselves to and suck blood. When the tick drops on an animal, including man, it does not start feeding at once, but usually spends some time searching for a suitable place. Experiments have shown that a previously unfed tick will attach itself to the body and feed for a few hours before transmitting the infection, but it then becomes highly infectious.

Three measures may be used to prevent spotted fever; avoid ticks, remove ticks from the person as soon as possible, or be vaccinated. Vaccine to prevent spotted fever is not readily available, so precaution should be used to avoid or eliminate ticks from the person immediately.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Colman—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning!
The liver should pour out two pints of bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sick and the world looks junk. Laxatives are only makeshifts. A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pints of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else.

Respects Paid To Marconi By Many

By United Press

ROME, Italy, July 21.—Thousands of Italians, rich and poor, filed silently today past the bier of Guglielmo Marconi, who died in the midst of the most amazing experiment of his amazing inventive career. His body lay in state in the Royal Academy, of which he was president. From Statements, kings and scientists came messages of condolences. At dusk today private funeral services were to be held at the little church where Marconi often prayed.

COWBOYS AND COWGIRLS INVITED TO BE IN THE PARADE STARTING FROM CITY HALL

WASHINGTON NEWS

FROM CONGRESSMAN
CLYDE L. GARRETT

VISITORS
This week we were greeted by several visitors from the District. Mrs. Hattie Gray of Roscoe and Miss Annie May Gray, Miss Win Harris and Miss Dorothy Tims of Sylvester were here on their way to the New England States. Mr. Joe Weaver of Eastland was here to see us Wednesday. Mrs. Snow of Abilene was also a visitor several times during the Boy Scout Jamboree. She was here with her two sons, Charles Casey and Tuscola was also a visitor here over the Fourth.

JAMBOREE
This town was taken by storm by 25,000 Boy Scouts. They have been a well behaved gang and one which has made us all proud of the youth of our land. Texas boys made a fine impression and one of them stood out like the boys from our part of the state with their stunts. Horned frogs and cow boy stuff made a big hit all over town. We were glad to see all of them and enjoyed their visits to the office and around the capitol.

MORE VISITORS
Billy Dillon of Comanche county has been in to see us several times the past week. He is attending the Institute of Public Affairs. Dr. Sandefur of Abilene also visited us recently, as did Tom Hudson and family of Anson.

TEXAS ADVERTISING
Texas advertising was well and capably done by the boy scouts while here. The boys from our section of the State had plenty of fun swapping horned toads for souvenirs. They brought a fancy price at the last of the jamboree. One of the boys took an alligator home with him which he got from a Florida boy.

THIRD MONDAY TRAITS
Third Monday traits just keep popping up in the Texas contingent. When the Scouts broke camp Cockerill and I went down to tell the boys good-bye. Cockerill got all the cactus he could carry in a cracker box and he is now trying to swap with the other secretaries here on the hill for Agriculture Yearbooks. So far he has done some fair trading.

However, the boys left too much of it on the grounds available for those who came after it for him to get a clear title to either the Lincoln Memorial or the Washington Monument for what he brought back to the office.

NO RELIEF
The weather is getting extremely warm here in Washington, but there still seems to be no relief in view for Congress. It is very likely that we will not adjourn before August 15. Chances are more likely it will be around September 1st. There is still a great deal to be done and much legislation to be worked on.

INSURANCE FOR CROPS
The Crop Insurance Bill has an even chance to be passed by the House. The bill has already been approved by the Senate. This resulted in insuring the 1938 wheat crop at a cost to the Government of about $10,000,000 as an experiment.

HELIUM
The House Committee on Military Affairs has approved a bill for the purpose of exporting helium for commercial purposes under the supervision of the National Munitions Board and three Cabinet officials. The bill came about because of the recent disaster of the dirigible "Hindenburg" and because of the fight put up by Dr. Hugo Eckener, Zeppelin expert. He said that it was necessary in order that lives and ships would be safeguarded, that the U. S. sell helium to other nations.

PROSPERITY AHEAD
Although the labor unrests have caused a considerable drop in activity and production, a new recovery peak is now predicted. It is expected that once these disturbances are settled and activity is renewed, the country is bound to come back to prosperity. Normal farm crops are expected to aid in the recovery.

SILENCE
The President is maintaining a discreet silence in all phases of the labor situation. He refuses to comment on published reports that he had "split" with John L. Lewis, the CIO leader. He has commented on the wage and hour bill, however, by saying that he was hopeful of favorable action on it.

Britain's Answer to Sea Attack

The speedy bombproof target boat (below) is indicative of the intensity of British preparations for any war eventuality. Controlled by radio, the vessel darts along coastal waters to test the skill of the Royal Air Force pilots who soar overhead in the Bristol Blenheim bombers (top), called the fastest medium bombers in the world. By perfecting the bombers' marksmanship, Britain's military chiefs hope to be ready to meet any challenge from the sea.

Housing Project in Dallas to be Ready To Occupy in Fall

By United Press
DALLAS.—Laborers are rushing work on Cedar Springs Place, the Federal Government's $900,000 contribution toward better housing in Dallas and officials of the project said it will become the home of 181 families by early in the fall.

August 1 is the deadline set for completion of interior work and landscaping on the model housing project, said James T. Halle, its manager.

Soon after work has been finished on the project, government managers of Cedar Springs Place will pick 181 families to live there—families whose annual income is no more than five times their annual rent in the new community—from a list that now numbers 500 applicants and is growing rapidly.

The families, many of whom have had their applications in for several months, must pass approval of a group of investigators to be set up by a local committee and must be approved finally by local committeemen themselves.

Low-cost housing—rarely will monthly rent and utilities be more than $7—will be offered in the form of two, three, four or five-room apartments. Furnished in Most as much has been said about complexions, especially poor ones, as has been said about the weather — little if anything can be done about the weather — but with little attention one can do plenty about one's skin. Reflected sunlight can be most as harmful as direct sunshine . . . the actinic rays of the sun do the damage, and it's obvious we West Texans get plenty of sun and wind.

If you are one of the many of us who overestimate the resistance of your skin you are cordially invited to call Hassen's and get an appointment with the charming representative, Miss Mildred McCullough, a special associate who knows her Dorothy Perkins products and their proven ability as none better.

There's nothing more refreshing than a well-given facial. Your skin will be grateful for your consideration.

Vivian Porter, Protege of Local Church, to Spend Vacation in Ranger

Interesting as well as constructive was the Bible lesson held for members of the Ladies' Bible class of Church of Christ at the church Monday afternoon, with Mrs. Henry Woods leading the lesson from second chapter of Peter.

Mrs. A. G. Langley offered prayer, and the lesson was thoroughly discussed. The cooperation noted by this group of workers is outstanding and largely responsible for the many fine projects mastered along lines so worthwhile. For some time it has been the aim of members to aid in assisting needy families, visit the sick and other greatly appreciated acts of kindness.

The present undertaking is to be responsible for a pleasant visit to be spent by the church's protégé, little ten-year-old Vivian Porter, who is due to arrive during the coming week for a visit with different members of the church.

Even though the warm summer afternoons are unpleasant, much benefit can be extracted from these fine lessons.
