MOTOR FIRM HEAD BEATEN ON HIGHWAY

Jack Anderson, one of the owners of A. G. Motor Company at Cisco, was assaulted in a hijacking attempt late Thursday night near Strawn, Sheriff Loss Woods reported Friday.

Anderson, said the sheriff, picked up a hitchhiker while returning from Fort Worth near Metcalf Gap. After traveling a distance the hitch-hiker used a rock to inflict a head injury upon his host.

Anderson, continued the sheriff, was able to force the assailant from the automobile and sped away. No money was obtained from Anderson, according to the sheriff.

FLOOD SURVEY ON VAST SCALE WILL BE MADE

By FRED O. BAILEY
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—The Department of Agriculture, in co-operation with army engineers, is planning a flood control survey on the largest scale ever undertaken in the United States.

Dr. A. L. Patrick, former professor at Pennsylvania State College, has been named chief of the survey division of the soil conservation service to direct a detailed survey of 222 watersheds, comprising one-fourth of the land area of the country.

Authorization for the survey was contained in the Omnibus Flood Control act of 1936. Funds for starting preliminary surveys are contained in the army supply bill. The army and agriculture department will divide the $1,000,000 appropriation equally.

Three Year's Time Required.

The preliminary surveys, which may take two or three years, are to be made to determine the feasibility of making later detailed surveys as a basis for erosion and flood control operations. Surveys will be made first on watersheds which have the most important bearing on floods.

Dr. Patrick will co-ordinate the work of the forest service, the soil conservation service and the bureau of agricultural economics in making the surveys. He said the $1,000,000 probably would be insufficient to complete even the preliminary surveys.

Field officers will direct the gathering of data describing the area in each watershed, damage resulting from floods, land value, economic information and extent of erosion. The Department of Agriculture has set up a committee to co-ordinate the information.

Erosion Damage Vast.

H. H. Bennett, chief of the soil conservation service and long an advocate of up-stream flood control, estimated that more than 100,000,000 acres of agricultural land already have been ruined or seriously impoverished by erosion.

"Unless we make rapid advance against the inroads of soil erosion, the cumulative cost to the nation during the next 50 years is likely to exceed $20,000,000,000 and it may easily extend beyond $30,000,000,000," Bennett said.

Pointing to the damage already done by uncontrolled erosion, Bennett said this country has been squandering its natural soil resources more rapidly than any other nation, civilized or barbaric.

Three-Fourths of U. S. Affected

Asserting that the erosion has been allowed to gain headway on 200,000,000 acres, in addition to the 100,000,000 already seriously paired, Bennett estimated that three-fourths of the agricultural land in the United States is affected by erosion in some degree.

A direct relationship exists between erosion and floods, Bennett said. He said gullies caused by erosion become, in effect, man-made tributaries which speed up the concentration of surface water in the headwater streams.

Urging that downstream engineering work be co-ordinated with upstream engineering, Bennett said "we have left little undone to spread the violence of erosion and to increase the volume of floods. Unless downstream structures are supplemented with smaller upstream structures and comprehensive conservation treatment at flood sources, I see no permanent escape from the flood hazard."

Americans March Off With Davis Cup

After 19 years on foreign shelves, the Davis Cup here is started on the journey back home as the victorious young American tennis team marches off the court at Wimbledon, with the non-playing captain, Walter Pate, carrying the coveted trophy. Left to right are Don Budge, Frank Parker, Capt. Pate, Bryan (Bitsy) Grant, and Gene Mako.

Eastland, Ranger Girls Play Tonight

The Fire Girls of Eastland are due tonight to play a return engagement with the Rangerettes softball team on the Ranger field.

Saturday night the Eastland girls will go to Fort Worth where they will meet the Triple X Thirst Station girls in a game at North Main Park at 8 o'clock.

The Triple X team is one of the leading contenders in the four team girls' league at Fort Worth.

Eastland Orchestra Is Due Over Radio

Ace Horton's orchestra of Eastland will play for a 15-minute program beginning at 6 o'clock Saturday evening over KREB in Abilene. A similar program is planned for Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock.

EASTERN CRISIS IS BECOMING MORE SERIOUS

WASHINGTON, July 30.—President Roosevelt described the Chinese-Japanese hostilities today as very disturbing and said he intended to remain near the White House during the week-end to keep in touch with the situation.

He said he might board the presidential yacht tonight for a weekend cruise but would instruct the captain to remain near the capital in order that he might return in two or three hours.

A statement issued by Sen. Key Pittman, chairman of the foreign affairs committee, emphasized the United States' determination to stand clear of far eastern hostilities.

HUNTSVILLE, Texas, July 30.—Leaving behind a 17-year-old widow and the unsolved details of one of Texas' most shocking crimes, George Patten, 54, died in the electric chair early today for murder.

He killed the J. W. McGeehee family of four, including two children, who were tenants on his East Texas farm. He said once they were beaten to death and he boiled the flesh in a meat cooking vat and buried the bones in a cow pasture.

The motive was obscure and the crime was not discovered for three years.

Four Killed Or Missing In Blast

BALTIMORE, Md., July 30.—The smouldering wreckage of the 26-year-old stern wheeler, "City of Baltimore," wallowed in Chesapeake Bay today as officials counted two dead, five injured and two missing in a fire which converted the vessel into a furnace last night.

Safe on shore were 91 passengers and crew members, many of whom leaped with lifebelts into the bay to escape the flames which came from an unknown source below decks.

One crew member and one passenger were missing.

COMMISSION TO RULE UPON ROAD PROJECT

Commissioners' court today promised a decision this afternoon upon request of a delegation for aid in the securing of right-of-way and building fences for a road between Desdemona and the intersection of Highway 89 and Highway 1 about 10 miles east of Ranger.

The State Highway Commission last December designated the route as an extension of Highway 81 north from DeLeon.

According to the delegation of Desdemona and Strawn citizens appearing before the court Friday morning the State Highway Commission at a cost of several thousand dollars will build the road following assurance of the county right-of-way will be secured and fences built. Following securing of right-of-way the state will survey and locate the road, estimated to be about 17 miles between Desdemona and the intersecting highway.

Comanche county commissioners have assured the highway commission of securing of right-of-way and building fences for the eight-mile portion of the Highway 81 extension between DeLeon and Desdemona.

Because of lack of money the county, explained commissioners and Judge W. S. Adamson to the delegation at the session, it would be unable to finance buying of right-of-way.

The delegation agreed that they could secure right-of-way if fences would be built by the county through sponsorship of a WPA project.

Among those speaking before the commissioners were Leo Ehlinger, district highway engineer, Brownwood; T. H. Key, mayor of Desdemona; R. M. Harris, president of the Chamber of Commerce of Strawn; J. L. Eneke, secretary of the Strawn chamber; L. C. Underwood, Gorman; J. O. Allen, Desdemona; J. H. Rushing, Jr., Desdemona; J. B. Brandon, Gorman; F. D. Hicks, Ranger; T. L. Acres, Desdemona, and L. E. Clark, Desdemona.

Farley Performs 'Milk Dedication'

Something different in dedication beverages was used by Postmaster James A. Farley when, as shown here, he christened the new $86,000 postoffice at Oconomowoc, Wis. Inasmuch as the city is in the center of the state's dairy industry, Farley very appropriately splashed a can of milk over the side of the building.

Famous Monument Grows Steadily at Two Feet Each Day

HOUSTON, Texas.—Growing two feet daily, the San Jacinto battlefield monument on the shrine of Texas independence has become the steepest tallest structure and soon will be the tallest in the nation.

When completed, the $1,800,000 shaft will surmount the 555-foot Washington monument by at least 10 feet. It is located on the spot where Gen. Sam Houston's band of 1,800 Texans defeated a Mexican army twice its size 100 years ago.

The shaft, constructed with state and federal money, will be penetrated by two elevators which will take sight-seers to a floor 493 feet above the ground.

Officials expect work to be completed by next March. They said that the monument will exceed in height only by two smokestacks in Japan.

The monument will weigh 70,300 pounds. The outer surface is of Texas limestone, quarried and fabricated at Austin. The limestone, varying in thickness from three to six inches due to vertical flutes in the sides, blends solidly with reinforced concrete poured against the interior to form the walls.

Large floodlights will play upon the lower part of the shaft at night, gradually fading toward the top. Then other floodlights located farther out on the terrace will focus upon a huge Texas star atop the monument.

With the shaft more than 50 per cent completed, a wide view of surrounding countryside is possible at the present level.

To the westward, Houston's skyline is plainly visible 18 miles distant. To the north is seen the winding ship channel formed by Buffalo bayou on which banks the Texans and Mexicans fought. Eastward, the town of Pelly, Goose Creek and Baytown, near the short of Galveston bay, are visible, with coastal plains stretching into the distance to the south.

All around the monument, thousands of dollars are being spent to landscape the entire battlefield, to make it the patriotic showplace of Texas.

ECONOMY MAY BE ASKED AT EXTRA SESSION

AUSTIN, July 30.—The September special session of the Texas legislature might be asked to consider economy measures, Gov. Allred hinted today.

Submission of economy measures depends on a report by a senate committee. Allred refused to divulge his suggestions for cutting expenses.

"The difficulty is our government is not coordinated," he said. "It is sprawling out. There are at least 12 departments collecting taxes."

Allred meanwhile evaded announcing whether he would run for a third term.

Ed Clark, secretary of state, said that the governor was prepared to run again "if necessary." A successful fall session, enacting into law his program to reduce the deficit and regulate utilities might dissuade Allred from another term Clark said.

GUNMEN ARE BEING SOUGHT NEAR HOUSTON

HOUSTON, Texas, July 30.—One of the two men who shot and killed J. C. Stiff, 57, cafe operator, was slain by a policeman today as a posse of several hundred officers and citizens searched in a wooded section.

Spreading out of the city the flyers encountered officers who opened fire. The two men were cornered but fled afoot into a heavily wooded section while returning the gunfire.

Aid Is Sought For President's Program

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Administration leaders sought to bolster President Roosevelt's program by pressing the wages and hours bill toward a vote in the face of a stinging attack by Sen. Pat Harrison of Mississippi.

Harrison declared "if this administration is progressive, I am progressive" but he didn't desire to "go as far or as fast or I might get out of breath."

Fire Girls Win a Tough One From Rangerettes, 7-6

The Rangerettes, playing in Eastland last night, lost a tough game to the Fire Girls 7 to 6. The Fire Girls, after taking a two-run lead in the first inning, lost it in the 3rd, when with two on bases, Juanita Morris, Rangerette home run king, slammed out her customary home run to make it 3 to 2. Then Captain Lane, next batter up, duplicated the feat with another hit to center field for her fourth home run in the last three games. This put the Rangerettes ahead 4 to 2 in the third inning. The Fire Girls came back in the last half of the third to tie the score with a long hit ball to left field that scored two runs.

But the Rangerettes were not through. In their half of the 4th they scored two runs to again go ahead 6 to 4 and there it stood until the last of the 5th when the Fire Girls again started scoring and with two runs tied things up. From then on the Rangerettes failed to score any runs but the Fire Girls broke the tie in the last of the 6th and the final score was 7 to 6.

This was about the best played girls ball game played this year. No errors were made by either side. Many hot grounders, good throws and running catches featured the game throughout and thrills were plentiful.

Score by Innings
Rangerettes—004 200 0-6
Fire Girls—202 021 x-7
Tonight the Rangerettes meet the Fire Girls in a return game on the Ranger ball field, and from all prospects this is going to be "some ball game." The Rangerettes are now pepped up to a point where nothing is impossible and they are out to win this game tonight. The Rangerettes-Fire Girls game will be the first game.

Tonight's game will wind up the Rangerettes games for the week, they having played five games in the last four nights.

Lone Star and Dr. Pepper Winners In Games Thursday

Lone Star and Dr. Pepper were winners in games Thursday night at the Municipal Softball field, Lone Star defeating Elks by a score of 9 to 2 while Dr. Pepper trounced Montgomery Ward by a score of 13 to 7.

Lone Star took a two-run lead in the first when Pace singled and Latham dropped. Foy's long fly and both scored. The Elks tied the score by making one run in the third and another in the fourth, but Lone Star accumulated six more runs while the Elks were being blanked the remainder of the game.

Montgomery Ward got off to a big lead early in the second game, but were unable to hold it. They scored six runs in the first two innings to have Dr. Pepper down 6 to 0, but Dr. Pepper scored two in the third and staged a six-run rally in the fourth, went on and accounted for eight more runs.

Camphor Doses Are Aid In Mental Case

By United Press
BUFFALO, N. Y.—A new treatment for schizophrenia, or dementia praecox, one of the most common and serious of mental diseases, has been announced by the Buffalo City hospital.

The treatment, introduced in this country by the Buffalo institution, consists of injection into the blood stream of large doses of a specially prepared camphor solution.

Treatments under the new method were started here a year ago and hospital officials reported improvements in 80 per cent of the cases.

Based on little known research of Dr. L. V. Meduna, superintendent of the Royal State hospital in Budapest, Hungary, the therapy here has been carried on by Dr. Emerick Friedman, internist psychiatrist at the hospital, under the direction of Dr. Samuel W. Hartwell, chief attending psychiatrist.

Hartwell said 40 patients have been treated in the institution and that the success shown by the method was "well-nigh revolutionary," because until the last few years "no form of drug seemed to have any effect in dementia praecox cases."

He said the camphor method was regarded as more successful, less dangerous and more economical than the insulin method which has been used recently in the treatment of the disease.

Thirty-two of the 40 patients treated improved so "remarkably" that they were sent home, Dr. Hartwell revealed. He explained that administration of the camphor preparation brings about a profound irritation and stimulation to the central nervous system and gradually causes the patient to emerge from his imaginary sphere.

Think Neutral, Too,
to Keep Out of War

There is now the gravest chance of a war between Japan and China. That was might involve Russia, which might involve Germany, which might involve France, which might—

The possibilities that lie in every brush between Japanese and Chinese sentries around Peiping are almost too awful to think about. Yet we must think about them, and think hard.

Ninety-five per cent of the American people are absolutely against having any part of either the Spanish or any Asiatic war. Regardless of personal sympathies in either case, it is clear that almost all Americans agree that the first duty of the President and of Congress is to keep us out of these slaughterhouses that have claimed too many lives in Spain, and will claim many millions in Asia once the mad dog of war are unchained there.

Every citizen must remember this: there is now law, and there can be no law that will insure our keeping out of these wars. Certain laws may help, may make it easier, but there is only one guarantee that offers any hope whatever:

That is an unshakable resolution on the part of a big majority of Americans that we will not become involved, that we want and will have no part of it.

We are not so likely to become involved through "neutral shipping rights" or "freedom of the seas" as we were in 1914. Those excellent and civilized principles have been murdered by the kind of war that is waged today. For today, all articles of trade are contraband because anything that is of any use to anybody is of use in war today.

It is loss of American life that is most likely to start the war fury burning. The most vital difference between British and German trampling on American rights during the World War is that the German trampling cost life, the British cost only money and inconvenience.

Thus the first step is to see that American citizens are kept out of war and danger zones, or at least that they go or stay there at their own risk.

The next and most important step is for every individual to think neutral, and not to yield to propaganda that, in the case of Spain, has already begun and, with the start of an Asiatic war, will aim at showing America that this war is different, that country A or faction B is pure and the defender of civilization, while country C or faction D is the barbarous defiler of all that is good.

And the atrocity stories. Whenever you read an atrocity story today think of the Crucified Canadian and the Handless Baby of 1914. Twenty years afterward, we found that they didn't exist, never had existed. To every atrocity you read today add three large pinches of salt.

Ask yourself two questions every time any one appeals for sympathy in these wars: Just what is my stake in this?
and Am I willing to die for it?

CHAPTER II
PROMISING Phil that she would make his apologies, Judith held the receiver of the telephone in a frightened hand. She knew that he had no conference, no client, no business. He was taking Marta Rogers to dinner. She knew it, and yet she wanted to keep that telephone connection which bound her to her husband. When it broke, he would go back to the other woman.

shining under the simple blue sailor that matched the hyacinth jacket. "It's a sellout. We have to wait until we can get seats." "I'll send you tickets." A boy and girl from Pittsburgh, walking together again. She thanked him as she turned off at the street which led over to the East river and her apartment. He would send two seats, of course. She had a premonition that she would be seeing the play alone. But she didn't call off her engagement. Instead she left a note for Phil and went. He came when the play that followed the dinner was half over.

AS she started up the avenue, a pleasant voice spoke at her shoulder. "Maybe we met on a walk somewhere!" She turned to see Bruce Knight. She felt oddly pleased. "I hate teas," he said, smiling disarmingly. "So do I," she answered. "But I go to hundreds of them." "Why do we do it?" She answered, explaining it more to herself than to him. "My husband likes them... the geniality after the day's work. I like people but not in crowds. I feel that my thoughts are being stepped on."

put down her spoon. Two familiar figures were approaching. One was a small woman in a leaf green frock with a saucy hint of a hat on yellow curls. The other was a broad-shouldered man, tall and lithe, and he smiled down at the woman as he talked to her. But Phil smiled at everyone that way! After all, a man couldn't have a set of special gestures for his wife. Judith looked up as Phil looked down. Her gray eyes, steady and dark now, were serious but her lips curved humorously.

There were introductions and no one but the woman who loved him knew that Phil was disturbed. Then he and Marta found a corner table, the grapefruit was replaced by creamed mushrooms, and the conversation went back and forth like a well-trained bouncing ball. Strange how life changes one. Judith was thinking. Ten years ago she would have gone home to cry. Not now, though. At least, she had a background of experience against which to make comparisons, a foundation of courage. So, when the luncheon was over, she flung a smile, gay and devastating, at the two who loitered. She wanted to laugh because they had chosen such a discreet room for their rendezvous. Life was so funny—so terribly funny. . . .

BRUCE suggested the matinee of his play when they were on the street and she accepted. She didn't want to go home alone. So it happened that she spent the afternoon watching the man who had taken her home that one night, long ago, bring courage and faith and sacrifice to a role. He was a great actor. She knew that now. She wouldn't tell him who she was. She wouldn't see him again. She must just thank him and say goodby. Voices from his dressing room shut her out, even when the attendant had granted entrance permission.

"I don't want to love you, Bruce. I honestly don't. But I can't help it!" That was Millicent, facing life with the utter candor of the younger generation. "You don't—you mustn't—Millicent, it's madness. I'm 31, you're 19. . . . You'll get over it, Milly. It's nothing, nothing—"

SEATED with Bruce in the comfortable, chintz-draped dining room of the Union Club, busy with iced grapefruit, Judith suddenly visiting her at present. Mr. and Mrs. Felix Sparks and sons, Sam and Jimmie, left Friday for their home at Belleville. They have been visiting his sister, Mrs. Ella Tidwell and her brother, Mr. Claude Daniel and family. Several from this community are attending the Methodist meet-

WASHINGTON—President William Green's assurance that of L unions will be permitted to support C. I. O. strikes if they so desire is interpreted by C. I. O. leaders as a big break for the Lewis group. Some of the C. I. O. people optimistically predict that a by-product of the pronouncement will be an acceleration of the disintegration of A. F. of L., which they fondly expect. Lewis also has promised to support A. F. of L. strikes. But most big strikes have been C. I. O. strikes in newly organized territory, and if the Green statement means added support from A. F. of L. affiliates, as C. I. O. anticipates, the Lewis organization will be the chief beneficiary.

ATTENTION, Washington editors! shouted a famous radio voice as Congressman John M. Houston of Texas, and Maury Maverick, Jr., would soon announce their engagement. The voice went on to say that the daughter of Congressman Houston, who is 15. That's the only time Patricia and young Maury ever saw each other. Further, says the young man's mother, lovely Mrs. Terrell Maverick: "I can't even persuade him to call her up, go to see her or to bestir himself in the direction of any other girl." SO many stories from the Roosevelt-du Pont wedding have gone into circulation that a publisher could almost make a book of them.

CLEVELAND—Steve O'Neill's future as manager of the Cleveland Indians is fully as secure as that of a cake of ice placed on the pitcher's mound at Sportsman's Park, St. Louis, at 3 o'clock any of these afternoons. In his latest pronouncement to patrons of the troubled Tribe, President Alva Bradley makes out a fine case for that ancient stunt of passing the buck to a losing manager. This is nothing new in the baseball file of Bradley. Similar statements preceded the dismissals of Roger Peckinpough and that grand exacter, Walter Johnson. In no other major league city is the old gag of pillorying the pilot still revered as it is by Bradley in Cleveland. In Philadelphia, the 74-year-old Connie Mack goes on from season to season, respected by everybody despite repeated failures.

BUT here is Bradley, with the best-looking fifth place outfit you ever saw, telling the customers that the manager must be the goat. "Steve knows as well as I do that the fans won't stand for a good ball club finishing in the second division," says Bradley. "But I see no reason why we should finish there. Perhaps it's too late to catch the Yankees, but if our team plays anywhere near its ability, it should be very much in the race for second place. I hope that happens, because I want to see O'Neill on the job for years to come." "The team has looked the last few days like we have a right to expect it to look."

Bradley ankle into the visitors' clubhouse at Yankee Stadium to inform all and sundry that the fans broke managers, and that unless the noble athletes died for dear old Peckinpough, dear old Peckinpough would go. Dear old Peckinpough went. IT always suspected that O'Neill has had very little to do with Cleveland baseball affairs aside from running the works on the field. Who maneuvers the Indians? Who gets them in bad with baseball writers? Not Steve O'Neill. Fighting for tactics and fallacies has become very tough for the Cleveland players, and now performers don't like to come to a team which used to be one of the elite. The consensus in Cleveland is that Bradley is only wasting a first rate coach in keeping Cyril C. Slopnicka in the front office. Also that it would be a grand thing for Cleveland and the American League if the Indians were sold to more practical baseball men. It and when O'Neill gets the ozone, the current Cleveland board of wisely might consider Nick Altrock and Al Schacht. They'd be as funny as the owners.

IN PITTSBURGH, PENNSYLVANIA, BEFORE SMOKE REFORM POLICES WERE PUT INTO FORCE, IT WAS ESTIMATED THAT THE ANNUAL SMOKE DAMAGE AMOUNTED TO TEN MILLION DOLLARS. CONTRARY to a popular belief, stone arrowheads were not made by dropping cold water on heated flint. The most common method is that of pressing a bluntly-pointed tool against the edge of a piece of flint, which causes it to flake off.

Inspirational Bible Lesson:
Wednesday evening was especially enjoyable for the prayer meeting and Bible study hour at the First Baptist church. There were about eighty persons in attendance to hear an interesting discussion by the pastor, Rev. Chas. T. Talley. A surprise in the form of a watermelon feast constituted a pleasant social hour following the regular meeting. Everyone is invited to attend these meetings. Come and bring your Bibles and your friends.
Those attending the Young People's Bible Study class at the First Baptist church on Thursday, evening expressed sincere enjoyment of an excellent discussion on "Prayer" given by Rev. Chas. T. Talley. This is an unusual opportunity for the young people of the city and it is hoped that many more of them will come and see for themselves how very worth while and interesting it is. The discussion for next Thursday evening will be found in the Acts and concerning The Holy Spirit. This should be inspiring and it is hoped that an increasing attendance will be present.

The early bird gets the worm . . . if he knows where to look!

Watch a robin on the lawn some sunshiny morning. A few hops, then a pause. A few more hops, and he listens again. Then, triumphant, he pulls out a fat, wriggling worm.

A silly bird, you would say, if he merely pecked here and there, hoping to strike it lucky.

Reading the advertisements is for you what cocking his head is for the robin. Advertisers tell you just where are the juiciest buys.

Cock your eye on the advertisements in this newspaper. They may save pecking on barren ground.
