WORLD AIR ACES MEET TODAY AT CLEVELAND FOR NATIONAL RACES

National Air Races Beginning Today Draw Notable Group of Aviators, Particularly for the Thompson and Bendix Trophies; Turner is Favored.

Upwards of 100,000 persons daily—Ohioans and vacationing outsiders—will watch this year's events, staged on the newly-improved reaches of Cleveland's vast municipal airport.

Major interest centers, as usual, on the Thompson trophy and Bendix transcontinental races. In the Bendix, fliers will dash from the west coast to Cleveland, then, if any has a chance of bettering the transcontinental mark, on to New York.

Speed fliers have trimmed the wings of their ships in an effort to beat last year's winning dash—264.261 miles per hour. The races this year will have at least their usual one "mystery plane." Frank W. Fuller, San Francisco sportsman-pilot, has taken delivery on a Seversky fighter, called sometimes the fastest pursuit ship in the world.

One of the biggest thrills afforded during the Thompson race was in 1935 when Col. Roscoe Turner made a dead-stick landing with his ship following smoke. He drew down in front of the stands when spectators had expected him to be burned to a horrible death, and stepped out to grin at 100,000 watchers.

In the Bendix transcontinental dash, women are eligible. Mrs. Louise McPhetridge Thaden, of Memphis and comely, won the race last year.

Women fliers have only one closed-course race of their own, with a $1,000 purse. This has been made into a memorial event in honor of Amelia Earhart, missing in the boundless Pacific on a round-the-world flight.

They broke the Japanese lines in five places. The Chinese began to reach the banks of the Whangpoo river and tried to drive the invaders into the stream. So desperate was the Japanese position that a spokesman announced "The imperial navy may have to change its attitude and attack Chinese civilian areas."

The statement caused panic among 1,000,000 Chinese refugees crowded into native quarters. Shells fell in the Anglo-American quarters. Several were wounded. One anti-aircraft shell hit the roof of the U. S. Marine headquarters. It did no damage.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 3. (Friday)

On Tuesday afternoon of last week fire destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. (Curly) Craig who have lived the past year on their farm about two miles west of town. The fire was supposed to have started from a defective fuse as there was fire in the kitchen stove and the ceiling and roof were blazing almost before it was discovered. The house was quite an old one and burned very quickly so they were able to save very little. Mr. and Mrs. Craig and their eight children went to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Wilhite, whose farm is near there. Mr. Craig had to give up his work as a barber a few years ago on account of his health but since moving to the farm his health has improved and he has raised a lot of potatoes and vegetables on the 16-acre tract. Almost as soon as word of the fire reached town their many friends began getting together clothing and household furnishings for them and cash donations were given sufficiently to buy a small house which is being moved to their farm. Besides cash, clothing and furniture there were also gifts of food, one grocer giving $25.00 worth of groceries.

Parts of the metal containers were imbedded in Mr. Daniels back and cut off one ear. First reports were that his injuries were such that he could not live but later news stated he would likely recover.

Abilene Eagles to Be Heavy But Main Backs of '36 Gone

ABILENE, September 1.—The Abilene Eagles reported at the school gymnasium Friday afternoon, August 20 to receive equipment for the 1937 season, and regular training was started Monday, with practice sessions held twice daily the first week.

Just where Dewey Mayhew's lads will wind up in the Oil Belt campaign depends considerably on replacements for his two star backs, Odell Herman and John Kimbrough.

Others missing from last year's state quarter-finalists include big Len Jorja at tackle, Mack Mowyer, Ross Sheppard and Bob Beams at guard, Charles Powell and Frank Waters at the terminals, and Norman Cumpston and R. B. Galbraith, Jr., in the backfield.

The team will be heavier than the 1936 aggregation should the veteran mentor decide to shift his lineup a bit to include two more of his beefy tackle aspirants.

The change, which was tried in spring training, sends Zolus Motley, 195-pound regular tackle, to fullback, and Red Desmond, 190-pounder, to guard post.

That would leave Tommy Proctor, another 195-pounder and regular on the 35 team, and Raymond Chambers, who scales 180 for the two tackle berths. They would be aided by Conley Ethridge and Abels, both going over the 200-pound mark.

Roland McAdams, veteran wingman, is returning along with J. T. Bell and Lester Dorton, who saw a little service at end last year as squads.

Lilius Virden is back at his old center position this fall. Virden's under study, Dale Sibley, may be shifted to guard. Other guard prospects are Gip Oldham, Ellis Jones and Leach.

Two 1936 regulars are returning in the backfield. They are James Beams, a triple-threat quarterback, and R. H. Hughes, shifty halfback. A. K. Doss, Jr., a squadman, may fill in at the other halfback post. Doss is a good block-

Would Avenge Insult To Texas Sweetheart

The days of chivalry are not dead—J. D. Farmer, left, and Larry Lee, below, handsome band director, both of whom are appearing at Casa Manana in Fort Worth, will prove if they can locate the stranger who recently slapped Miss Grey Downs, (right) Texas Sweetheart No. 1, at a dance. Farmer, 210-pounder, strikes a fighting pose in the bizarre costume which he wears in the beautiful Oriental scene of Billy Rose's revue. Miss Downs was slapped when she declined to dance with a stranger who had "cut in."

Rural Boys Look Toward City Lights

COLLEGE STATION.—Rural boys and girls again are looking in increasing numbers towards the bright lights of the city. Dr. C. Horace Hamilton, economist on the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station staff, has found in a study of rural population trends.

The United States as a whole showed a decrease in farm population in 1936 for the first time since 1929, and Texas saw her rural folk dwindle in number by nearly two per cent in two years.

Rural births topped rural deaths in Texas by some 33,000 in 1936, but the farm-to-city movement outpaced the city-to-farm trend by 47,000 people, Dr. Hamilton's report showed. An additional 12,000 Texas farm folk also sought new pastures in other states. The city goers and the people moving to other states teamed together to tear down the state's efforts and left a decrease of 26,000 in Texas farm population for the year.

Drought and increased use of farm machinery was responsible in part for the decrease but the largest single contributing factor probably was returning industrial prosperity, Dr. Hamilton found.

The exodus from the farm was most pronounced, in general, in West and Central Texas. Southern and Eastern portions of the state, particularly the Rio Grande valley area, picked up more rural citizens than they lost.

Noting that the farm birth rate is falling about one per cent a year, Dr. Hamilton said the supply of young people from the farms for growing cities will not be as great in the future as in the past.

"Certainly no increase in the Texas farm population is likely without a return to the conditions of the next few years," he added.

Good Man!

By annexing the American Amateur golf title at Alderwood Country Club, Portland, Ore., Johnny Goodman of Omaha stepped into the immortal rank of golfers who have won both it and the national Open Championship. There are only four others—Jerry Travers, Francis Guimet, Chick Evans and Bobby Jones. Here's the winning smile of Goodman flashed on the Alderwood gallery.

2,290,700 on Jan. 1, 1937, Dr. Hamilton estimated, a loss of 51,673 since the 1936 census figure of 2,342,373 and a loss of 26,000 since the estimate of 2,316,700 made by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, United States Department of Agriculture, for Jan. 1, 1935.

"The young people of today ride too much in autos," she says. "Early to bed and early to rise and hard work, are the secrets of good health."

JAILER TO LOCK PRISONERS OUT

By United Press
LEWISBURG, Pa.—Prison gates will soon be locked against prisoners if Uncle Sam continues to disregard the "standing room only" situation at Northeastern Penitentiary as indicated by reports of Warden H. C. Hill.

Hill said the capacity population of 1,250 prisoners was passed some time ago, but judges still complimented him with more "guests" until a total of 1,500 men "lived" at Northeastern.

By that time prisoners had to double-up with extra cots in single cells.

It was the limit, however, when a contingent of 21 prisoners arrived from West Virginia and cots had to be placed in corridors. Warden Hill not only appealed again to Washington, D. C., authorities, but intimated a "bit of pressure" was being used to reduce his population.

Poultry and Egg Shipments Are Up

AUSTIN, Texas.—Shipments of poultry and eggs from Texas to interstate points during July, although approaching their seasonal low, were well above those of the corresponding month last year, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research has announced. Poultry shipments totaled 45 cars in July this year, as compared with 32 cars a year ago, a gain of over 40 per cent; and egg shipments for the two comparable months were 40 cars and 31 cars respectively, an increase of nearly 30 per cent. Only two cars of eggs were brought in from other states, compared with nine cars in July last year. Style note says that skirts will be shorter this fall. Wasn't that the trend about 1914, too?

Ballyhoo Business—Century and Half Ago

National advertisers are pretty smart. They engineer national campaigns that change the tastes of a nation and they stage contests that keep a million persons home nights puzzling and puzzling. But they have yet to top the best trick of the bunch, and that happened nearly 150 years ago.

It was in Sweden, where coffee and tea arrived simultaneously, as it did in other Scandinavian countries, late in the 18th century.

Rival groups of dealers imported the ingredients for the two beverages and each group had a natural and understandable desire to establish a market before the other. Through the advertising mediums of the day and the forerunners of the modern press agent, each contingent began advancing claims as to the beneficial values of its product.

The claims eventually became so fantastic and the country so worked up over them that liberal King Gustaf III became mildly annoyed. So, when twin brothers, identical in every physical respect, were convicted of murder and condemned to death, the monarch saw an opportunity to end the ballyhoo.

He commuted their sentences to life imprisonment and further sentenced each to drink a strong potion each day—one of tea and the other of coffee. Physicians were designated to examine the two and report on the progress. The nation lined up and took sides. King Gustaf III watched from his throne and the doctors took up their stethoscopes.

But nothing happened. Interest was high at first, but it lagged when the puzzled doctors, at the end of the first month, said they really couldn't notice any difference. And after six months even the doctors got tired of watching.

It was a royal order, so the prisoners continued their daily libations. After several years one doctor died and then the other, but not the prisoners. In 1782 King Gustaf III was assassinated. The prisoners lived on until one finally succumbed—at the age of 83.

History doesn't record the ultimate end of the other, whether coffee or tea drinker, but it is safe to assume that he ultimately died of his excesses also.

In the meantime, with the contest long forgotten, Sweden had developed into the champion coffee drinking nation of the world, where it remains today. Presumably the tea faction moved to England and caught the coffee dealers napping.

The modern exploitation men aren't too original. The episode in Sweden stands undefeated and untied. But somewhere, much further back, there probably was a super, colossal stunt that beat it all hollow.

Arctic Climate Growing Warmer

MOSCOW.—Prof. V. Vize, the well-known Arctic scientist and explorer, has completed a study dealing with the change of climate in the Arctic. According to his studies, the mean annual temperature in the Arctic in the regions adjoining the Atlantic Ocean has risen by 2 degrees during the last 17 years. During the winter months the rise of temperature as compared with 17 years ago, is up to 5 degrees. On Franz Joseph Land, the temperature rise reaches even 7 degrees.

NEW YORK—If you are looking for a clew as to why the New York Giants are back up there in the National League race look no farther than the second line of their box score. There, once again, you will read: Bartell, ss. This is one of the most important lines in history—as important as the 1924 Seven Mules of Notre Dame, the Seven Rocks of Fordham, and the International Data Line. For two different seasons this season the line was missed. One afternoon Mr. Bartell, who, as you may suspect, plays top ball, scooped it up, and in his own furious fashion threw every last ounce of his body behind a heave to first base. It so happened that the last ounce objected to being thrown around like this. Mr. Bartell came up with a crick in his back, or something, and had to go to the sidelines. This happened on the afternoon of July 18. At the time, the Giants and the Chicago Cubs were as close as these two lines of type. Mr. Bartell's team was only a bit of a percentage point behind the leading Cubs. So then what happens? Mr. Bartell plays every minute of the next four games and the Giants promptly win four straight and the Cubs' lead melts like a schooner of ice cream dumped on the steaming corner of Hades Highway and Satan Avenue. All of which would seem to indicate that if Mr. Carl Hubbell is deserving of the flattering title of The Meal Ticket certainly there could be no harm in nicknaming Mr. Bartell Bill Terry's World Series ticket. If Terry gets into the fall classic, as we say, it will be on the strength of Mr. Bartell.

CAST OF CHARACTERS
KAY DEARBORN—heroine who makes a yacht for vacation.
MELITA HOWARD—Kay's roommate and co-adventurer.
PRISCILLA DUNN—the third adventurer.
WORMBERT BROTHERS and GRANT HARPER—young scientists whose expedition turned out to be a rare experience.

Yesterday, investigating the strange cabin ashore the girls had the body of a woman. The next day she has disappeared! And when the girls return to their cruiser they find a great hole has been cut in the dinghy.

CHAPTER VIII
FILLED with dismay and fright, the three girls regarded the jagged hole which had been chopped through the bottom of the overturned dinghy. Footprints leading down to the boat from another part of the wood were plain, evidently made by a man wearing a good-sized outdoor shoe. In the excitement and fear of the moment, they failed to notice that the footprints did not lead away from the damaged dinghy. And lying near, its handle in the water, was a short and ugly ax with which the damage had evidently been done.

"There's nothing for us to do but to swim to the boat," Kay pointed out.

Melita shook her head. "I don't want to run this risk. We may need it badly. I'll stay here while one of you swim to the 'Chinook' and inflate the rubber life-raft. With that we can keep the life safe."

"You won't be afraid to stay ashore?" Kay asked.

"No, I guess not."

Kay turned to Priscilla. "You stay here with her. Whoever your steamer friend may be, he'd probably be less likely to bother two of us. But keep your eyes on the wood. He's probably watching us from back there somewhere."

A confident, strong swimmer, Kay plunged into the water and started for the anchored cruiser. She did not look back to see the frightened Melita and Priscilla crouching on the sand, their wide eyes searching the trees and underbrush. They heard Kay's rhythmic splashes grow fainter behind them—then all was silence.

"It might be a good idea," mentioned Melita, "if we got down behind the dinghy. It's probably got a gun, too, and he might take a shot at us before we can even see him." She dropped prone on the beach behind the inadequate shelter of the boat, and Priscilla followed suit.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

THE ANABAS FISH, WHICH WALKS OVERLAND AND CLIMBS TREES, ACTUALLY DROPS IF DEPRIVED OF AIR.

IF THE WALLS OF A ROOM ARE BUILT EXACTLY STRAIGHT UP TO ANY GREAT HEIGHT, THEY WILL BE FARTHER APART AT THE TOP THAN AT THE BASE, SINCE A PLUMB BOB POINTS TO THE CENTER OF THE EARTH.

IT IS NO EASIER TO SWIM IN DEEP WATER THAN IN SHALLOW WATER.

THE Anabas fish frequently finds it necessary to leave a pond of water that is drying up. In seeking another body of water, the fish crosses dusty roads and traverses a considerable distance in a comparatively short time.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

CHICKEN in every pot is not so interesting as a chicken under every broiler. To say nothing of the oven. Now that broilers and fryers are the belles of the poultry world, the following different recipes will put a lot of fun in Sunday dinner.

Special Roast Chicken
(6 servings)
Select two 2-1/2-pound frying chickens. Singe the chickens, wash inside and out and dry. Place a teaspoon salt in each chicken and shake to distribute evenly. Salt the outside lightly and rub with 3-4 pound of butter which has been creamed. Scrape and cut in pieces 2 large carrots. Peel and slice 2 small onions. Cut 2 stalks of celery into 2-inch pieces. Place vegetables evenly in the bottom of a roasting pan from which rack has been removed. Add 1-2 bay leaf and 1-4 teaspoon poultry seasoning and a little water. Place the fowl on the vegetables and roast. Baste frequently. Do not cover chickens unless they brown too rapidly. Bake from 45 minutes to 1 hour moderate oven (350 degrees F.). When chickens are cooked, strain off gravy from the roasting pan, add 1-2 cup of soup stock and 2 tablespoons of tomato sauce. Remove excess fat, thicken with 1 tablespoon flour and serve in a gravy dish.

Fried Chicken a la Creole
(4 to 6 servings)
Two 2-pound frying chickens, 1 egg, 2 cups tomatoes, 1 onion, 2 sprigs parsley, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon pepper.
Cut each chicken in 4 pieces, wash well and dry. Dip in flour and then a batter made of the beaten egg, tomatoes, chopped onion and parsley and seasonings. Fry in deep fat, serve with tomato sauce.

Pan Fried Chicken
(6 servings)
Select 2 broilers weighing 1 1/2 pounds each. Wash carefully, dry and cut in halves. Place in a roasting pan and salt and pepper well. Pour over them 1-2 cup of melted butter and 1 cup of heavy cream. Bake about 3-4 hours in a hot oven (400 degrees F.) basting frequently. When almost done add 1 teaspoon of paprika to gravy. Fry small pieces of bacon very crisp. When ready to serve pour pan gravy over chickens, place a piece of crisp bacon on top and serve with spiced peaches.

Tomato Sauce
Two cups tomatoes, 2 cups water, 1 teaspoon cloves, 1 teaspoon allspice, 2 sprigs chopped parsley, 1 tablespoon chopped onion, 1 tablespoon butter, 1-2 teaspoon salt, dash pepper, 1 heaping teaspoon cornstarch.
Boil together tomatoes, water, seasonings and onion. Place in a saute onion in butter, add starch and cook well. Add this to tomato and seasoning, cook until thick and strain.

WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON.—Members of Congress will have to be taken quietly to the fact before they approve the State Department's proposal to lease six U. S. naval destroyers to Brazil.

A British armament firm has been building six destroyers for the Argentine Brazil, which traditionally has had much more friendly relations with this country than Argentina, and have been about to rent her half a dozen destroyers until she could get some of her own built.

The question was put up to Roosevelt. The idea of naval cooperation with Latin American nations carried a strong appeal to the President as a great pro-navy man, and he acquiesced at once. But now this government and Brazil have joined in a statement that they will stand pat on the leasing agreement.

Behind the whole business is the fact that Germany and Italy have been increasing their propaganda penetration of Brazil at a rapid rate.

Those two nations, it is believed, are trying to solidify such a favorable attitude toward themselves in South American countries that England would be obstructed in any future war from obtaining raw materials and foodstuffs on which she depends.

THIS may come a bit late, but it is now here where the guess is still continues.

August Rated As Healthiest Month

By United Press
INDIANAPOLIS.—If you believe Dr. Herman G. Morgan, Indianapolis health board secretary, there aren't any "dog days" any more.

He says it's all because of scientific development of preventive medicine, public health administration and more sanitary disposal.

There was a time, you know, when, in August, horses at the mouth, dogs went to little boys were warned to stay from the swimmin' hole, the green scum.

Because sanitary conditions were at their worst the death rate was higher.

But not now, August now of being the most healthful of the year when it was once loved the most unhealthful, has the lowest illness and death rate of them all, Dr. Morgan said.

Livestock Shipments Show Upward Trend

AUSTIN, Texas.—Shipments of Texas live stock to Fort Worth stockyards and interstate points continue fully to maintain the wide margin of increase over last year which has been noted in these reports for several months, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research has reported.

Total shipments of all classes of Texas live stock for July was 5,926 cars, against 2,659 cars last year, an increase of 123 per cent. Cattle shipments amounted to 4,145 cars, an increase of 160 per cent; calf shipments, 869 cars, an increase of 89 per cent; sheep shipments 414 cars, an increase of 4 per cent, and sheep shipments, 498 cars, an increase of 146 per cent.

"As in previous months a large part of this sharp increase in forwarding was destined for the Fort Worth market," the Bureau's report said. "Especially was this true for cattle, calves, and sheep."

District Convention To Convene in November

Members of the Royal Neighbors of camp No. 9059 met at the IOOF hall this Wednesday afternoon passed and entered into a session which proved interesting yet brought several changes being in with future plans. For instance the district convention originally planned to have been staged here this month has been placed forward and will be held with this chapter hostess in the month of November. Principal speakers and other details caused the change.

During the social Mrs. Carrie E. Henry district deputy presented Mrs. Maud Marlow, with a number of attractive handkerchiefs gifts from the personnel.

A salad course was passed to Mmes. Pearl Childs, Joe Ford, Laura Todd, Jewel Green, Loana Arterburn, Julia Brown, Ida Harrell, Julia Hanson, Mary Johnson, Maude Marlow, Lena McDonough, Styles, Carrie Henry, and Mary Jane Todd, Inez Harrell, Jimmie Beth Todd and John Ford.

Invited to Pretty Bridal Compliments: Miss Freddie Tolle, sister of Miss Ruby Tolle, who recently resigned her place at the Paramount Coffee shop to become the bride of Ray Trammell, is also to be a bride this month.

Included in Breckenridge social happenings this week was a lovely shower tendered Miss Tolle bride-elect of Mr. Robert Floyd, of Odessa, whose marriage takes place over the week-end. The compliment was given by the honoree's aunt and uncle of Breckenridge at their Florist home on the front garden.

Music was furnished during the affair held during the twilight hour. A dainty color note of silver and orchid was used in gift wrappings and plate favors. Shasta daisies fashioned into small bouquets were attached to each napkin when the delicious refreshment plates were passed.

The compliment contributed largely to happenings of the current season and those from Ranger attending were: Mrs. C. H. Suits, Mrs. Mattie Parrish, Misses Voncell and Mary Francis Strong, and Miss Ruby Tolle, formerly of Ranger.

Named James Edward Milburn: Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Milburn announce the arrival of their son, James Edward September 1st. His weight was seven pounds and six ounces. Mother and son are doing nicely.

Mrs. John Tibbles has enjoyed a pleasant week's visit with friends and relatives at Waxahachie.

Miss Ruby Tolle left Ranger this week for Breckenridge, the home of her parents, for several days visit before leaving for Abilene where she will become the bride of Ray Trammell, formerly of Ranger and a brother of Mrs. J. C. Smith of the Smith store.

Jack Clements who has been spending a large part of his time in different sections of New Mexico transacted business here this week.

K. C. Edmonds, Jim Morris and Floyd Killingsworth are visitors in Fort Worth, attending a Philco meeting.

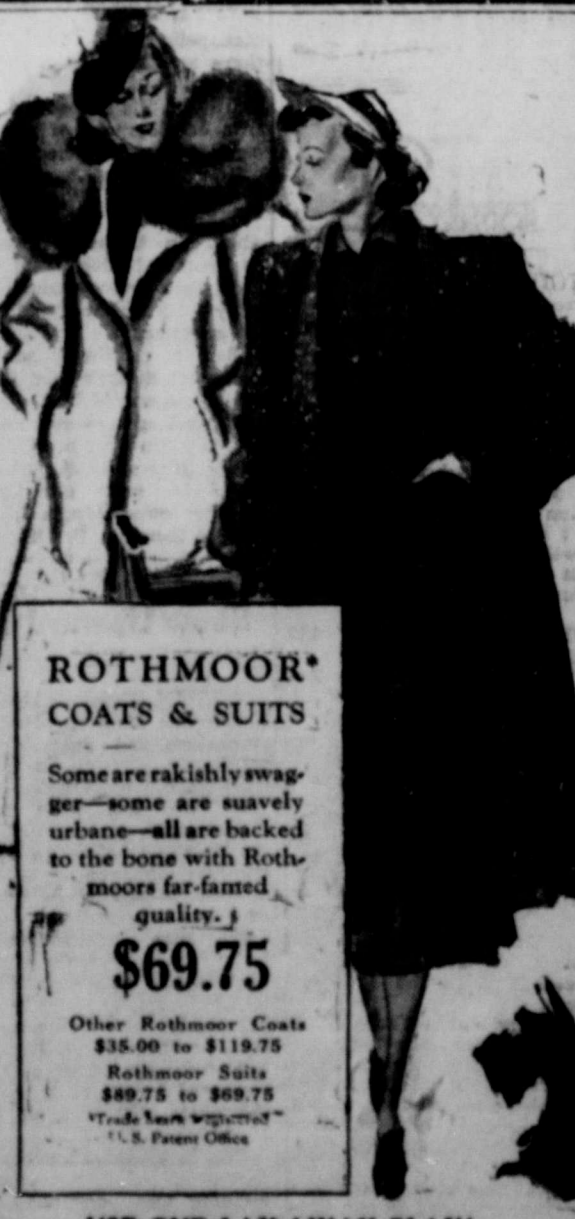

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. LaMance have as guests Rev. and Mrs. A. O. Grayson of Lubbock.

Southwest Season Sees Strong Teams Ready For Start

WACO, Texas.—They're on their marks and set, ready for the gun that will start them down the runway for the first light workouts of the 1937 practice season on Sept. 6. On that day Southwest gridsters hear the first words from their coaches, and the players will know what to expect during the next few weeks. Even now they know that it is a succession of days filled with hard work.

Up at Arkansas University, the Fayetteville lads believe that a jinx can always be broken. With practically the same club they offered for inspection last season, they are trying to retain the Southwest leadership. But Texas A. & M. College will have something to say about that. The Aggies and their followers believe that they have the best chance of conquering the field of any team that has represented the Farm-boys in many days. While those boys have worked with their veteran players all this off-season, Rice Institute Owls have watched their Jimmie Kitts scout the woods for more man power. More man power it is, too, and the Feathered Tribe should show more speed and brawn than they had during 1936.

Dana X. Bible, happy to be back in Texas with old friends and neighbors, will have a great deal of material at the Austin fortress but Mr. Bible will have a tough job to say about that. The Aggie departure. Bible will win football games and he might be a strong contender.

Then there's Southern Methodist University, Dallas. Not much has been said about S. M. U. chances, but Matty Bell enjoys surprising the other boys. T. C. U. is always a contender, regardless pre-season dope, but this year about all that Baylor University can expect is to be among the three upper when the final count is made. Coach Morley Jennings frankly admits he has plenty to PEABODY, Mass.—Crashing tender Gilbert E. Lame believes in advertising his employer's business.

When the Boston & Maine Railroad gave his shanty a new coat of paint, Lame took the opportunity to paint some signs of his own. The signs hung on his shack read: "Glad to see you on the go. Have a good time. Next time try my railroad. Cheaper, cooler than your automobile." "Crazy driver just passed. With those fellows on the road you are safe on my railroad."
