

THE WEATHER
W. Texas: Partly cloudy, probably local showers in central portion tonight and Wednesday.

If the musical change is from trumpeting swing to strumming Hawaiian, most of the country probably will B-string along.

WEST TEXANS ASK FOR 'EASIER' WPA RULES Annual County Fair Will Begin Thursday

NO TOWNS TO END PROGRAM FIRST NIGHT

Annual, Agricultural, Livestock Shows Are Among Event Attractions.

One of the oldest county fairs in this section, the eleventh annual event beginning Thursday for three days at Eastland, is destined to be the most successful in years.
According to members of the fair committee who Tuesday declared advance interest warrants that the fair will be a success.

Members of the fair committee have visited several communities in the county and have decided that the fair will be among the best of the year. The Great Yellowstone Shows, in an annual unit, Tuesday was understandably and ready for first crowds might even though the opening of an affair was in advance of the beginning.

The Yellowstone firm carries standards of six shows and about 25 thousand. The fair association will have a percentage of reduction in the fair.

Charles G. Cotten, manager of the fair, Tuesday announced that the fair will be a success.

Members of the fair committee will be in charge of the fair.

The fair will be a success.

Blind Flying In Murky Weather Is Blamed For Crash

By United Press
GRAPELAND, Texas, Sept. 14.— Unfamiliar with blind flying in murky weather was blamed today for the death of Cadet Guy Edgerton, Kelly Field student flier, whose body was found last night in the wreckage of his plane in the pine forest near here.

Edgerton was flying the 13th ship when he became separated from 12 other students during a violent electrical storm the night of Aug. 30.
Izaak Johnson, a negro farm hand, came upon the wreckage of the plane as he searched for stray cattle.
The wreckage was buried deeply in the ground and a party of Kelly Field fliers went to the scene to attempt to take the body from the shattered plane. His body was practically destroyed and buried with the motor. It is badly decomposed and partially burned by a fire started carelessly last night, which destroyed all inflammable parts of the plane.

Oil Production Shows a Decrease

TULSA, Okla., Sept. 14.—Oil production in the United States for the week ending Sept. 11, decreased 52,123 barrels daily, the Oil and Gas Journal reported today.
The Bureau of Mines' September estimate of consumer demand was 3,509,300 barrels daily, and total production exceeded that figure by 116,829 barrels.
During the week Texas produced 1,481,797 barrels, a slight reduction over the week before.

Rites Wednesday For W. K. Jackson

Funeral services for W. K.
Jackson, 60, who died Monday after several months of ill health, were tentatively set Tuesday for Wednesday at 2 p. m., at the family home, 1203 South Seaman St.
Rev. Charles W. Estes, pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Winters and formerly of Eastland, will likely officiate for the services. The body will be sent by train at 4:40 p. m., to Chicago, Ill., for burial.
Mr. Jackson had been a resident of Eastland about 20 years.
Formerly he was connected with the divisional office of the Prairie Oil and Gas Company at Eastland.
He was a map maker, draftsman, abstractor and experienced in allied work.
He was born in Chicago, Oct. 11, 1876. Survivors are his wife, a daughter, Mrs. Joseph Valiquet, and a son, P. Wayne Jackson, both of Chicago, and a sister, Mrs. Edna McLaughlin, Philadelphia, Pa.
Mrs. Grady Pipkin will be in charge of music at the service which will include numbers by a quartet composed of Mrs. Pipkin, Frank Pierce, W. C. Campbell, Robert Kinnaird, Mrs. Donald Kinnaird will play piano accompaniment.
Active pall bearers were named as follows: J. M. Mouser, Joseph M. Weaver, P. G. Russell, R. C.
Kinnaird and Earl Conner, Jr., all of Eastland.
Honorary pall bearers will include C. W. Hoffman, Joe Stephen, Allen D. Dabney, J. F. Little, James Horton, Dr. E. R. Townsend, Stewart M. Doss, Judge George L. Davenport, Art H. Johnson, L. A. Hightower, W. Harry Taylor, Judge O. C. Funderburk, Sam Butler, J. L. Cottingham, C.
A. Hertz, E. Hinrichs, George Brogdon and Walter Murray, all of Eastland except the latter, of Mineral Wells.
Hammer Undertaking Company is to be in charge.

Japan's Purchases of Cotton Show Increase

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—The commerce department reported today that Japan's cotton purchases in the United States in the first eight months of this year totalled $56,019,000, an increase of $17,659,000 over the corresponding 1936 period.

COTTON LOAN PLAN SCORED BY McDONALD

By United Press
AUSTIN, Sept. 14.—If the government cotton loan regulation had purposely been written to prevent farmers from taking advantage of the loan, the result could not have been worse than it is, J.
E. McDonald, commissioner of agriculture, said here today as he launched an effort to obtain revision of the rules.
McDonald said an agreement with the U. S. Department of Agriculture and Commodity Credit Corporation was that the plan would be as similar to the 1935 plan as possible. Instead, he said, both staple and grade regulations have been changed. The change in grade, McDonald estimated, would make a $4 a bale difference to the Texas growers and $7 difference would result from both the grade and staple changes.
McDonald conferred by telephone with U. S. Senator Tom Connally. Connally said he knew of the difference and had already appealed to President Roosevelt, but had not been successful.

HUGO L. BLACK CONTROVERSY STILL BOILING

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—
Representative Harold Knudson, (R), Minn., asked for a congressional investigation today of the reported membership of Associate Justice Hugo L. Black of the Supreme Court in the Ku Klux Klan.
The Minnesota congressman who had served 11 consecutive terms in the House, said that if such an investigation established without doubt that Black was a Klansman, then "congress should take action."
When advised that attorneys generally agreed that the only way to remove Black from the Supreme Court was to impeach him, Knudson said, "I am not so sure that the Senate will not find a way to act."
He did not amplify his remarks.

$2,000 Compromise Okehed by Tribunal

Ninety-first district court has approved a compromise agreement by which Mrs. Marguerite Welch will obtain $2,000 from the Texas Fire and Casualty Underwriters.
The case was an appeal from a ruling of the Industrial Accident Board of Texas June 24.
Ben Welch, husband of the defendant, died from an automobile injury early this year at Eastland. He was an employee of W.
J. Murray and others whose insurance carrier was the Texas Fire and Casualty Underwriters.
One-third of the $2,000 goes to her attorney.

Return From Funeral For Brother-In-Law

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Moore returned to their home in Ranger today after attending the funeral of Mrs. Moore's brother-in-law, Frank E. McPherson, 55, of Cor-vick.
The decedent who was a druggist, died Sunday and funeral services were conducted Monday.
He is survived by his widow and two sons.

Their "Murder" Was Exaggerated

The confession of Philip Krahl, 27, that he had murdered Helen Whelley, 6, and her brother, Frank, 5, in an attempted attack, proved to be a happy exaggeration when they were found near their home in Philadelphia. Above the father, Frank Whelley, clutches his children lovingly in happy conclusion to the tragedy.

BULLDOG PARTY TONIGHT EXPECTED TO DRAW LARGE CROWD OF GRIDIRON FANS

Plans have been completed for the big football party, to be staged free of charge tonight at Municipal field at 7:30.
W. T. Walton, superintendent of schools, will be in charge of the program and will introduce the two coaches and the band director. The band will play and the 1937 football squad, in new uniforms, will be introduced by Coaches Wright and Jennings.
No long speeches will be made, but the coaches will explain the part played by each player on the field, the work done on offense and defense by the different linemen and backs being pointed out and explained, with slow motion demonstrations of just what is done during the play.
New rules will be explained and an explanation and demonstration given of the different penalties, why they are called, how much the penalty is and all about it.
The explanations and demonstrations will be brief and the demonstrations will amplify the remarks so that they can be visualized by the fans, so they will know just what to look for in the football games this season.
The new Bulldog Stadium will be dedicated in the game with Strawn Friday afternoon, and the football party tonight will be the prelude to the 1937 season.
People are rapidly getting the "football fever" in Ranger and a big crowd is expected to be out for tonight's party, and indications are that a large turnout will be on hand for the Strawn game Friday afternoon.
Secret practice is being conducted daily now by the Bulldogs and the boys are really pointing toward the beginning of the 1937 season, and the first conference game, with Breckenridge, on Friday night, Sept. 24, at Breckenridge.

First Baptist BTU To Hear J. E. Meade Here on Wednesday

J. Earl Meade, director of religious education for the Cliff Temple Baptist church of Dallas, will meet in conference with the officers of the B. T. U. and Sunday school of the First Baptist church on Wednesday afternoon.
Bro. Meade has organized and developed the largest B. T. U. in the world. He is one of the most aggressive and gifted leaders in our work. He is the recognized leader in his field of activity and we feel fortunate to have him with us in this conference period.
He is a most forceful speaker and it is hoped that every one will avail themselves of this unusual opportunity to hear this man.
At 6:30 he will meet with the officers of the B. T. U. A luncheon will be served and Bro. Meade will hold an hour's conference—directing the thinking of the group and answering questions concerning the problems of the union.
The church will be privileged to hear him at the prayer meeting hour. The public is cordially invited to meet with us at 7:45 for 45 minutes of devotion and Bible study led by Bro. Meade.
Immediately following the prayer meeting the Sunday school officers and teachers will meet with Bro. Meade for a conference, at which time he will answer questions concerning your work.
All officers and teachers will enjoy this conference and we urge them to be present. Rev. Charles T. Tally, Jr., pastor of the church, said today.—Reporter.

POWERS AGREE ON A PIRATE SUB POLICY

By United Press
GENEVA, Switzerland, Sept.
14.—European powers, in agreement without precedent, ban-neth today to drive from the sea the pirate submarines that have preyed for weeks on merchant ships of many nations in the Mediterranean.
At a brief, formal meeting, chief delegates of nine nations, headed by Great Britain and France, signed an agreement, binding them to cooperate in an anti-piracy patrol.
It was effective at once and orders flashed out from the admiralties of nine nations that sent their warships from the Black Sea to the Straits of Gibraltar to sink any submarine that attacked merchantmen in violation of the 1930 and 1936 agreements for humanitarian submarine warfare.

LONDON, Sept. 14.—Reports that a crack British battleship had captured a pirate submarine in the Aegean sea reached London today as British and French fleets stiffened their protective patrol from end to end of the Mediterranean.
The British admiral refused to make a statement regarding the capture.

JAPAN'S GUNS POUR DEATH INTO CHINESE

By United Press
SHANGHAI, Sept. 14.—Japanese guns poured destructive fire into scores of thousands of Chinese troops retreating late today westward toward the Yangtze delta under a new defense line, fortified under direction of a corps of German experts.
Japanese airplanes operating despite frequent rain squalls, reported that the retreat was ordered despite the heavy fire.
A Japanese navy spokesman said "the indication now is that a major battle will be fought on the new line within 10 days." It was assumed from this statement and a previous one that the Japanese must await reinforcements from Japan.
The Chinese line now extends far east of the line to which the withdrawal order provides. It was expected that the movement of troops would be completed this week.

MOSCOW, Sept. 14.—Russia, in a surprising note, withdrew all recognition today from two Jap- anese consulates in the Soviet Union. Japan still has six consul- ates in the Soviet.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 14.—Nearly 5,000 Americans, comprising refugees, civilians and military forces, were placed in acute dan- ger along with thousands of other foreigners tonight when the bat- tle of Shanghai shifted again to the vicinity of the International Settlement.

Jury Men Selected For County Court

Names of prospective petit jurymen for the next six months in county court have been selected by a commission appointed by Judge W. S. Adams.
The commission, composed of J. L. King, M. Newman and R.
Holloway, drew 18 names for the following weeks:
Third week in September term beginning Sept. 27.
Sixth week in September term beginning Oct. 18.
Third week of November term beginning Nov. 22.
Sixth week of November term beginning Dec. 13.
Third week of January term beginning Jan. 24.
Sixth week of January term beginning Feb. 14.

Crop Reports For State Are Issued

By United Press
AUSTIN, Sept. 14.—Texas cattle will go into the winter in good condition except in a dry, south district, and crops remain either in an unchanged condition from a month ago, or show improvement, according to reports issued today from the local office of the U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics.
The September forecast on the principal crops is:
Cotton—4,622,000 bales.
Corn—76,551,000 bushels.
Rice—12,200,000 bushels.
Grain sorghum—52,758,000 bushels.
Peanuts—107,100,000 pounds.
Tame hay—148,000 tons.
Wild hay—215,000 tons.
Peasants—23,000,000 pounds.

C. OF C. PLANS ARE DISCUSSED AT MEETING

At the regular meeting of the directors of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce, held Monday night in the office of the secretary, several reports were heard and plans were discussed for a celebration in Ranger in October, commemorating the discovery of oil, 20 years ago.
J. E. Merooney, secretary, made a report on a trip to Dallas, which has been planned by a committee to work up interest in one of the organization's present projects.
O. L. McGahay, vocational teacher of Ranger, spoke briefly on a plan to have a merchants class for teaching merchants and business men how to properly fill out their social security tax forms.
The school will be offered with the cooperation of the federal government, through the high school, and only a nominal charge would be made. On motion of Ken Ambrose and a second by A. N. Larson it was voted that the Chamber of Commerce sponsor the school, which would last about 10 nights, provided enough interest was shown in it by the business men of the town.
The finance committee made a report and plans were discussed for obtaining more members for the organization for this fall and winter. The president, T. J. Anderson, and the secretary were named to work up details for an early-morning breakfast in the near future, with A. N. Larson named on the attendance committee to send out letters inviting participation in the meeting.
The oil jubilee plans were discussed, but no action was taken pending receipt of word from Boyce House, who has often suggested the celebration, to see what plans could be worked out. Suggestions included having the celebration on the date Eastland High school plays football in Ranger, which would be Oct. 15, and having the football game as part of the celebration. Other suggestions included proclaiming 7-UP day in Ranger as a welcome to one of Ranger's newest business enterprises.
Those present at the meeting were T. J. Anderson, S. P. Egan, A. J. Ratliff, O. L. McGahay, A.
N. Larson, Ken Ambrose, W. F.
Creeger, J. E. Merooney and F. D.
Hicks.

Farm Incomes of Year Show Growth

By United Press
WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.— Farmers' income for 1937 will reach $9,000,000,000, about $1-000,000,000 higher than in 1936, and the peak since 1929, the Department of Agriculture said today.
The preliminary estimate was made by the bureau of agricultural economics, which said that while the farmers' cash income is somewhat below pre-depression levels, his purchasing power is about on the same plane.

RULES UNDER PROGRAM HURT MANY, CLAIM

Speakers Describe at Eastland Increase of Unemployed Persons.

Resolution petitioning State Administrator H. P. Drought for return of more liberal regulations in the sponsorship of Works Progress Administration projects were approved Monday afternoon at an Eastland conference attended by 90 political subdivision officials from over West Texas.
Attending the conference were the sponsors of projects, city and county commissioners, school board members, other officials, district and state officers of the WPA and Congressman Clyde L.
Garrett.
Congressman Garrett, who arranged the meeting after describing to Administrator Drought the unemployment and apparent trend for increase because of stringent regulations recently promulgated which handicap political subdivisions in sponsoring jobs because of added financial responsibility and near-depleted treasuries.
Congressman Garrett, who presided at the session in 88th district courtroom, described the situation as alarming.
Testimony heard at the meeting, the state and district WPA officials stated, will be presented the state administrator for study.
"I feel like something will be accomplished," declared Major Karl Wallace, district 7 WPA director from Fort Worth.
Declaring that his statement was not official, Major Wallace asked if the public wasn't getting in a habit of looking too much toward Washington (for assistance). He admitted that the "shape" of Eastland county was undoubtedly the worst of all described as to the unemployment of workers.
Alton Bell of Crowell, personal representative of Drought, stated "rigid" regulations were undoubtedly brought about by a lower amount of money for the program and the necessity to curtail and apportion available funds.
Also speaking was R. W. Colglazier of San Antonio, assistant state director of the division of operation of the WPA.
Believed by many as the most concise talk in description of the condition of counties, schools and cities because of the newer WPA rules and other asserted difficulties was that of E. O. Francis of Taylor county judge.
The engineer asserted his county commissioners and officials believe in curtailing unnecessary expense and that roads already constructed through the WPA in his county have been of a high standard. He recited an instance in which Taylor county spent several thousand dollars on a project originally contracted to the WPA.
Criticized was that officials have arranged for out-of-county truck contraction on jobs in Taylor county.
"Why don't you let your field men exercise good judgment?" he demanded to what he described as the agency's demand for "unnecessary" technical data.
At the same time the WPA was praised for its many benefits.
Copy of the resolutions arranged by a committee headed by He-mer T. Bouldin, Shackelford county judge, is as follows:
"Honorable H. P. Drought, State Director, WPA,
San Antonio, Texas.
"We, County, City, and School Officials of WPA District No. 7, joined by Representatives in the 17th Congressional District of Texas and neighboring counties and cities of said Congressional District No. 17, assembled in session at Eastland, Texas, on the 13th day of September, 1937, do hereby respectfully request and partition the Works Progress Administration for regulations and the enactment of rules whereby it will be possible for political subdivisions of the State of Texas to operate its projects as it has heretofore done; We respectfully represent that under the present rules and regulations it is impossible to operate relief projects for the following reasons:

Modern Labor Puzzle for a New Solomon

Old King Solomon, who once settled a very tough lawsuit by drawing his sword and offering to slice a child in half, could do very well if he should come back to earth right now. A man of his ingenuity seems to be needed on the National Labor Relations Board.

The board and the law it is operating under are both brand-new ventures. The cases that are coming to it for decision involve brand-new problems. And some of the decisions that are being handed down seem to set brand-new precedents.

There is, for example, the case of National Electric Products Corporation, at Ambridge, Pa.

Here was a case in which Solomon himself might well have called for help.

Some 1800 men are employed by this corporation at Ambridge. Prior to the final upholding of the Wagner act's validity by the Supreme Court, these workers had been getting along (for better or for worse) under a "company union" type of labor organization. Last spring it became obvious that this organization must be replaced by a regular union.

The result was formation of a local of the International Brotherhood of Electric Workers, an A. F. of L. union. The corporation signed a closed shop contract with this union in May. But there existed in the plant a nucleus of C. I. O. unionists, who promptly protested that the closed shop contract with the A. F. of L. union stepped on their toes.

So the whole case was taken to the federal court—which, after due deliberation, ruled that the contract was valid and binding. And at that point, being signatory to a contract whose legality had just been upheld in court, the corporation might have been pardoned for supposing that its labor troubles were over.

But they weren't. The C. I. O. men went to the National Labor Relations Board and that body has now overruled the federal court, declared the existing contract invalid and ordered an election to decide whether the corporation is to sign with the A. F. of L. or the C. I. O.

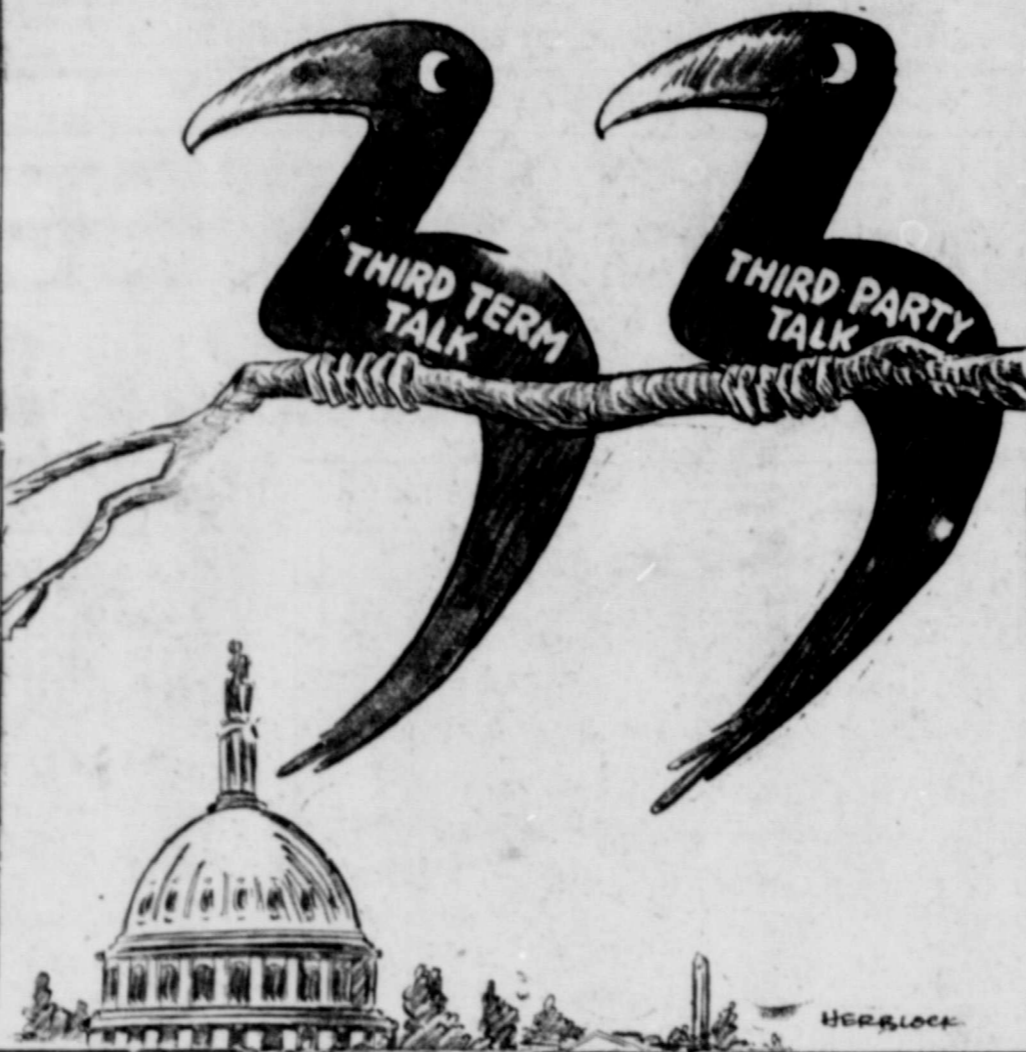

Consider, now, the implications of the whole case. Is the labor board to be a body superior to the federal courts? Is the legality of a labor contract in doubt—regardless of court rulings—until the board has passed on it? Is it up to the employer to find out, not only what his men want, but which group of union leaders they like better, before he deals with them? And is the closed shop an equitable and workable proposition in a plant where an active and militant minority happens to oppose it?

When one case raises such questions, we have gone a long way from the traditional wages-and-hours type of labor dispute. Solomon himself might well be stumped by this new complexity of modern labor relations.

"1. That under the present rules and regulations, the Works Progress Administration, it is impossible for the sponsors to continue the WPA projects or to begin new projects. In order for the sponsors to continue the WPA projects, we recommend that the following rules and regulations be invoked by the Works Progress Administration:

"2. And that no WPA employee be removed, and particularly those above 40 years of age, or physically handicapped be removed from WPA payrolls for those reasons unless it has been ascertained by the local investigator that said employee has some means of support.

"3. We further recommend that the obligation of the WPA in entering into a contract with the sponsor be carried out according to the original agreement without subsequent changes of rules and regulations which places a greater burden upon the sponsor than the agreement provided.

"4. We further recommend that the red tape of the WPA projects be eliminated by placing the responsibility of securing the proper projects and their execution, including the engineering work, be entrusted to the sponsor with the assistance of the project manager and the WPA area engineer and that they be allowed to select from local men and local trucks those most suitable for any particular project.

Wrong, Well, yes—and no. The arithmetic of your school days taught that "If Mary had five dollars and spent two..." three dollars remained.

But that is mathematics—not shopping! In managing a home... guarding a limited family income... we've simply got to do better than Mary did. We must sharpen our buying wits... ascertain where the dollars of extra value lurk... take five dollars to town and get much more for the money spent.

Fortunately, there are ever-willing guides right at hand—the advertisements in this newspaper. Advertised merchandise is often exceptional value merchandise. It makes dollars S-T-R-E-T-C-H.

Yesterday, Montgomery, rescued by Kay of a wreck, rushes her in a blind rage and is stopped by Grant's ready fist.

CHAPTER XVII
The warning note did not weaken the determination of the quartet aboard the "Mistral."

On the contrary, it galvanized them into renewed action, for now over Clarence's realization that if Kay Dearborn and Grant Harper were not county court very soon it would be a tragedy.

Mac read the note again, aloud: "There is no chance to be of assistance to your friends. And to save your own lives you must leave this place at once."

"Do you think that means I'm already too late?" Melita faltered.

"I can't be," Mac Forrest answered quickly. "Tom, this is no time to wait until morning. Let's get back to the island." He turned to Priscilla and Melita.

"This time you'd better stick with the ship," Priscilla told them shakily. "We're going, aren't we, Mel?"

Melita nodded. "All right..." Mac started for the door of the cabin.

Within a few seconds they were on the speedboat again, heading for shore. Now Mac made no attempt to throttle down the engine.

"Make plenty of noise," he advised. "Maybe we can draw this bird into the open."

The powerboat rolled roughly into the sand, and Mac leaped from the wheel. "Come on, Tom," he motioned toward the wood.

"You got lag back a little, and if I help like trouble you'd better break," the boat. The man who was that note won't be pleasant when he faces us."

"Where are you headed?" Tom asked.

By Mrs. Gaynor Maddox NEA Service Staff Writer

WHAT American beauty roses are to a woman, a hot chocolate pudding to a man. If your husband seems a little too interested in his business, or begins to read the newspaper at the table, try this restorer of attention.

Steamed Chocolate Pudding With Soft Cooked Custard
(10 servings)

Two squares chocolate (2 ounces), 1 egg, 1 cup sugar, 1 cup milk, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 2 cups cake flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1-4 teaspoon salt.

Melt chocolate over hot water. Beat egg, add sugar, vanilla and melted chocolate. Mix thoroughly.

Sift flour once, then measure. Add baking powder and salt, then sift together into the egg mixture. Combine thoroughly.

Generously butter a 1-1/2 quart mold and pour chocolate pudding into it. Cover and steam in steamer until a toothpick inserted into center of pudding comes out without any dough sticking to it.

If the mold is fairly shallow, steam about one hour; if deep, steam about 1-3/4 hours.

You can serve this with plain or whipped cream, but best of all, a soft cooked custard.

Soft Cooked Custard
(About 1 Quart)

Three cups milk, 4 eggs, 6 tablespoons sugar, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Scald milk in top of one of the new heat resistant double boilers. Use a one-quart size. In another dish, beat eggs and sugar together slightly. Return this mixture to double boiler and cook over hot water. Keep the water in bottom part of the double boiler at a simmering temperature, just below boiling. As you can see through the heat resistant glass, this watching is easy.

Stir the mixture occasionally until the mixture coats the spoon. This will take 7 minutes or longer.

Add salt and vanilla. Pour at once into serving dish to cool. This type of soft cooked custard is an ideal maker of desserts.

A slice of stale sponge cake moistened with a little sherry, then covered with half a canned peach just begun for a covering of custard. Crushed macaroons in a deep dish, a few dots of tart jelly and some custard—well, you can imagine. Served plain in tall glasses and garnished with candied fruit and whipped cream, it is a fine dessert, or served in dessert dishes mixed with coarsely broken nut meats, it is equally delicious. Master your soft cooked custard, and you have mastered many desserts.

WITHIN the next week or so your football heroes will gather from the mines and the farms and the steel mills and start preparing at our institutions of higher learning for the 1937 season.

At 11 of these major seats of culture the athletes will find new professors in charge of the physical education department.

The most important new face is the one that Dana X. Bible brings from Nebraska to Texas where he will coach the University for $15,000, which is twice what the president of the school makes and about half what the governor gets.

Of course, Dana has a tougher job than these two gentlemen. The president never has to register a victory and the governor has to win only once every two years.

Bible's switch causes two other changes. Maj. Lawrence (Biff) Jones, former West Point, Louisiana State, and Oklahoma coach, takes his place at Nebraska, while Biff's old post at Oklahoma has been turned over to Tom Stidham, his former line coach.

The most interesting of the various changes is the transfer of Irl Tubbs from Little Miami (Fla.) University to Iowa of the Big Ten. Tubbs, succeeding Ossie Solem, was never a regular in his days at William Jewell College and never coached a big-time team.

But in his time he developed the great Ernie Nevins while coaching at Superior (Wis.) High School, invented numerous gridiron gadgets, and concocted quite a puzzling offensive down at Miami.

The most experimental appointment is the selection of Paddy Driscoll, former Northwestern star and one of the early professional coaches, to coach Marquette. Paddy has never had any collegiate coaching experience.

His job is not an easy one, succeeding cagy Frank Murray who has made Marquette victory-conscious in his 16 years there.

MURRAY resigned to succeed Gus Tebell at the University of Virginia. This, undoubtedly, is the most daring transfer—daring on Murray's part.

But Mr. Murray, himself, never played football and he may feel right at home with those Virginia lads. They are game and strong and willing to learn even though they are, strange as it seems these days, legitimate students.

The most unusual selection has been the appointment of Bill Kern, former University of Pittsburgh star who quit as Jock Sutherland's assistant to go across the street to Carnegie. This is like Harvard picking a Yale man.

Other important shifts have Lieut. Harry Hardwick succeeding Tom Hamilton at Navy; Ossie Solem following Vic Hanson at Syracuse; Jim Yeager assuming the coaching duties at Iowa State, surrendered by George Veneker, now devoting all his time to being athletic director; William Newton of Davidson taking Hunk Anderson's West Carolina State job (Hunk's an assistant at Michigan); and Peckey Hubert, former Alabama great, following Phil Rafferty at Virginia Military Institute.

Grape Pie Goes Over Big With Men
(By Betty Crocker)
Luscious purple juice oozing up through the flaky pastry—it's mouth-watering to look at. And you'll find it easy to make with this tested recipe.

Grape Pie
4 cups Concord grapes
1 cup sugar
3 tsp. all-purpose flour 1 tsp. lemon juice
1/2 tsp. butter
Method: 1. Remove skins from grapes. Put pulp in saucepan without water, and bring to a boil. While hot put through a strainer to remove seeds. Combine the strained pulp with the skins.
2. Mix sugar and flour together, and stir into the grapes.
3. Add lemon juice.
4. Put into pastry-lined pan and dot with butter.
5. Cover with top crust and bake.
Time—Bake 40 minutes. Temperature—450 de. F., hot oven, for first 10 minutes, then reduce to 350 de. F., moderate oven, to finish baking.
Amount—Filling for one 8-inch pie.

Pastry for Two Crust Pie
1 1/2 cups all-purpose flour 1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 cup shortening
Ice water (about 5 tsp.) Method: 1. Sift flour once before measuring.
2. Sift flour and salt together.
3. Cut in shortening with 2 knives or a pastry blender leaving it in lumps about the size of large peas.
4. Add just enough ice water to make dough stay together.
5. Pat together and round up on cloth covered board, using flour rubbed into cloth to keep dough from sticking.
6. Divide dough in half, and roll out one-half (about 1-1/2 inch thick) in circular piece to fit pan. Place in pan very loosely to avoid stretching. Let a half inch of the dough extend beyond rim of pan. Let pan rest on table while cutting off any dough.
7. Fill crust with desired filling.
8. Wet edge of under crust.
9. Fold top crust in half, making several cuts through which steam may escape.
10. Lay folded crust gently on top of filling, unfold so that entire surface is covered. Press the two edges together and build up fluted edge.
11. Bake (time and temperature depend on filling).

PEEPING THRU THE KNOTHOLE

WITH BILL MAYES

YESTERDAY we promised to tell something of the morale of the Bulldogs, but first harken to this true football story, which was told yesterday afternoon about five o'clock as we sat on the north steps of the Strawn high school building. Maybe they weren't the north steps, but that doesn't matter.

The story was told by "Smookey" and concerned a former Strawn player. This player was a backfield man and played a blocking position. He seldom carried the ball and all season he had not made a touchdown. And all season his ambition had been to score at least once. He had mentioned it frequently and everyone knew of his desire.

Toward the last of the season he caught a pass on the enemy 20-yard line. For some unknown reason there was not a player within 20 yards of him and all he had to do was trot slowly over the goal line. He was elated. In fact, he was so elated he trotted down the sideline toward the end zone, and a big grin on his face. He looked toward the sidelines, and to express his extreme happiness he patted the ball affectionately. But he patted too hard and knocked the ball out from under his arm and, in his astonishment, he could not recover it before one of the opposing team had fallen on it.

THE RANGER coaches, Wright and Jennings, report that the spirit and morale of the Bulldogs is excellent. Not long ago they got the squad together and gave it a talk. They said the men must come out regularly for practice, if the team is to get into good enough shape for the coming season, when a hard schedule will be played.

The boys got together in a huddle and formed their own rules. They decided that if anyone missed practice without getting an excuse from one of the coaches, and without a good reason for missing, he would have to go through the belt line. One or two missed a day and everyone on the squad lined up, belt in hand, and made them run the gauntlet, each

Ranger Golf Course To Open On Oct. 1

After a meeting of the directors of the Ranger Country Club, held last night, it was announced that the course would be open for play on October 1, with all the grass-greens in good condition.

All but two of the greens are now in splendid shape, and the course is one which other towns have paid from $5,000 to $10,000 to secure, it was stated today.

The club now has 28 members, with one new member signed up today, it was reported.

A new policy on green fees has been established by the club. No resident of Ranger, who is not a member of the club, can play over the course for the green fees, although out of town players will be granted the privilege of playing for green fees. This rule was established in order that a high percentage of memberships could be maintained throughout the year.

The members and directors of the club are very proud of the new course, which is now one of the best and sportiest small courses in the state, and one on which it will be a real pleasure to play.

Three Attending a District BTU Meet
Rev. Charles T. Talley, Jr., pastor of the First Baptist church, accompanied by Mary Jane Todd and Mildred Fern Mitchell, are in Abilene to attend the two-day session of the B. T. U., of the Cisco district.

Association officers are to be elected at the meeting, which will end Wednesday.

squadman getting in as many hard ticks with the belt as possible as they passed.

Absentees dropped to nothing. The belt line rule is still in effect, but there have been no absentees for some time. At least there hadn't up to last week. We haven't checked since.

And the coaches added their own punishment. After missing a practice the offender was made to take 10 extra laps around the field as an additional conditioner.

Our No. 1 Football Fact Finder reports that Bob Palmer, Harold Briley and Bill Houghton went out on a three mile run the other night as a little extra training. How's that for morale, discipline, training and football spirit?

REPORTS at Strawn were that Ranger was offering 14 points and offering to bet even money. Maybe so, but we haven't heard of any of that kind of money. Some in Strawn were hoping it was so, because they wanted to get in on it. They thought it was a good thing, because they didn't believe the Bulldogs could make three more touchdowns than their Greyhounds. That's lots of points in almost any game.

YOU SHOULD attend the football school tonight at Municipal field. It's free and you will have an opportunity of seeing the 1937 squad, hear the kind of plays they are to use, see how different positions are played, and have penalties explained and demonstrated. It won't take more than 45 minutes or an hour at the most, and should be well worth while, because it will answer a lot of questions that are most commonly asked by football fans. The band will be out and a big time should be had by all. And there won't be any long speeches or pep talks. The whole thing has been designed for your information. The pep rally for the Strawn game will be conducted, as usual, downtown, Thursday night.

Dove Season Opens In County Sept. 15 For Two Months

AUSTIN, Sept. 14.—The Texas dove hunting season, already in full swing in the Panhandle, will open in the rest of the state Wednesday and Thursday of this week, with hunters confused at the irregularity of the seasons still wondering where, when and how they may pursue their favorite sport.

One thing was generally understood—the supply of mourning doves was plentiful, while the white wing chop in the Rio Grande Valley was considered the smallest in 25 years.

The irregular seasons resulted from failure of the legislature at its last session to harmonize state and federal regulations. Will J. Tucker, executive secretary of the game commission, has announced the forthcoming special session will be asked to provide two uniform seasons—Sept. 1 to Oct. 31 for the Panhandle region, and Sept. 15 to Nov. 15 for the remainder of the state.

Because of a special law limits of both mourning doves and white wings to Saturdays, Sundays, Tuesdays and Thursdays of each week in the Rio Grande Valley area south of the Texas-Mexican railway, the season in that section will not open this year until Thursday. Elsewhere shooting may begin Wednesday.

The white wing season—Sept. 15 to Oct. 31—is uniform except in the lower Rio Grande Valley, where the specific hunting days are provided.

The daily bag limit on each species is 15. The possession limit is 15 of each species, or 15 in the aggregate of both species.

Mourning doves and white wings may be shot from 7 a. m. until sunset of each day during the open season.

Both species of birds may be taken only with shotguns not larger than 10 gauge and capable of holding only three shells. Magazine guns will be allowed to hold only three shells at one time in the magazine and chamber combined. The magazine must be permanently plugged so that it will hold only two shells.

Tepee Keeps Lead In City Softball Shaughnessy Series

Tepee remained undefeated in the City Championship Series Monday night by defeating Killingsworth Cox by a score of 9 to 7.

Tepee got off to a bad start in the first inning, allowing Killingsworth Cox to score six runs on two hits, three walks and a couple of errors, but settled down and played consistent ball the remainder of the night, though they were troubled on several occasions.

Killingsworth Cox scored another run in the fifth, while Tepee was slowly but surely amassing runs that finally put them in the lead. They scored one run in the first, two in the second, were blanked in the third and fourth, scored one run each in the fifth and sixth and then made four in the seventh to take the game.

Tomorrow night the Elks play Killingsworth Cox in the fourth game of the series.

The Elks, Lone Star and Killingsworth Cox have each lost one game, Lone Star has won one and Tepee has remained undefeated in two straight games to retain the lead in the Shaughnessy playoff.

Montgomery Ward To Serve Biscuits At Store Saturday

Saturday afternoon from 1 until 4 the local Montgomery Ward store will serve hot biscuits and coffee to the public and all are invited to attend. The Ward store will demonstrate to the public one of the latest new gas ranges on the market, the stove being equipped with all the very latest conveniences and priced within range of all said J. L. Ambler, store manager today.

"We have just unpacked and set up the stove and desire that all come and see what can be accomplished with this new machine," Ambler said.

"Marie Lewis, one of the best colored cooks in the city will bake the biscuits and serve the coffee. The party will be held on the second floor. A. J. Ratliff, distributor of Gold Chain Flour and A. & P. Tea company with coffee are cooperating with Ward in serving the public with hot biscuits and coffee."
