

RANGER TIMES

TIMES PUBLISHING COMPANY, Publishers 211-213 Elm Street, Ranger, Texas. Telephone 224

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation which may appear in the columns of this paper will be gladly corrected upon being brought to the attention of the publisher.

Published every afternoon (except Saturday and Sunday) and every Sunday morning.

Obituaries, cards of thanks, notices of lodge meetings, etc., are charged for at regular advertising rates, which will be furnished upon application.

Entered at second-class matter at the postoffice at Ranger, Texas, under Act of March, 1879.

F. D. HICKS, Business Manager — W. H. MAYES, Jr., Editor

SUBSCRIPTION RATE

ONE YEAR BY MAIL (in Texas) $3.00

England Has a Lever to Pry With at Last

It may not be too apparent at first glance, but Germany's trust at Austria might turn out to be the brightest hope for world peace in many months.

Most important is the wedge such a move gave Great Britain into the Rome-Berlin (and Tokio, if you wish) combine. The opening must have been the answer to an English diplomatic prayer. For Germany's annexation, usurpation, or dominance, as you will, of Austria is a definite threat to Italy and to Mussolini's plans for a place among the world's leaders.

England gave up Anthony Eden as a sacrifice to the Italian pride, and the sudden Italo-British amity looks like the beginning of the end for the Rome-Berlin axis. What will happen if Hitler carries out his threat to take over Czechoslovakia is something else to consider, but it looks now like a safe bet that Mussolini won't be an ally, whether other course he may choose for Italy.

Mussolini wants primarily to become a Mediterranean power, right up there with England and France. He can never achieve that aim by clinging to Germany in the present Central European tangle. For Mediterranean equality he has shown signs of being willing to relinquish certain Spanish advantages which are merely potentialities, anyway. Of course, how long Mussolini would be willing to keep hands off Spain after his diplomatic and Mediterranean aims were realized is another problem, but at the least the Spanish war might be ended if Italian troops were withdrawn.

Germany, with Italy gone, would find herself with a few half-hearted Central European allies and Japan. Whether Hitler and the German people would want to put enough faith in Japan's friendship and dependability to cling to a Berlin-Tokio alliance seems dubious. For one thing, each nation feels it is a chosen people. Two chosen peoples wouldn't get along very well, and there is always the racial angle to consider.

So Germany might find herself forced into an agreement with England and France in spite of herself. Which would leave apan facing a united disapproval, or perhaps that's too idealistic.

All of which would leave the United States sitting over here amazed and a little confused, as we always seem to be at the machinations of intricate internationalism. We wouldn't have a finger in the pie anywhere, because we've been sitting back hating people—especially dictators. But it would be peace, and peace by any road looks good.

The New American Ambassador Arrives in England

THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON WITH RODNEY DUTCHER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER, NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Dramatic, rapid-fire developments in Europe have discomfited Roosevelt and Secretary Hull, while planning into the hands of those who want to confine this nation's role in international politics to North and South America.

The immediate results over here are: 1. A hard blow to prospects for "co-operation" by the "democratic countries" against the dictators. 2. Weakening of the opposition to American naval expansion. 3. Official accentuation of the Monroe Doctrine as the key program in American foreign policy.

But this time the American neck was not out as far as before. Strong popular and congressional objections to foreign entanglements had defeated administration desires to take a firmer position against German, Italian and Japanese aggressiveness. This both weakened the position of Sir Anthony Eden and strengthened that of Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain. Secretly, the administration would much rather have seen Eden win.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

By Mrs. Gaynor Maddox, NEA Service Staff Writer

YOU need more than beauty to win a man. You need a few pie recipes. If possible, make pies better than his mother's. And serve them at the right moment—at the end of an amiable meal.

Lattice Huckleberry Pie (5 to 6 servings)

Two and one-half cups canned huckleberries (No. 2 1-2 can), 3 tablespoons lemon juice (1 lemon), 2 1-2 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca, 3-4 cup sugar, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon butter. Combine all ingredients except butter and let stand while preparing the pastry. Line a 9-inch pie plate with pastry. Fill the unleaked shell with the berry mixture. Dot with butter. Wet edge of the pastry. Lay 1-2 inch strips of pastry over the surface of the pie plate to form a lattice top. Press down ends, trim off excess pastry, and flute edge. Bake for forty minutes in moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.) until crust is nicely browned.

Plain Pastry (1 pie crust for 5 or 6 servings)

One and one-half cups flour, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon baking powder, 1-2 cup shortening, 3 to 4 tablespoons cold water. Sift flour, salt, baking powder together. Cut in shortening. Add cold water gradually to make a stiff dough. Cut dough in two portions. Roll out the larger portion to fit a 9-inch pie plate. Roll out the smaller portion and cut 1-2 inch strips for a lattice top. In your campaign to win a

Eastland Entrant In Interscholastic Event Announced

Frances Lane will represent Eastland High school in the extemporaneous speaking contest during the County Interscholastic League meeting March 24, 25 and 26, at Eastland, Mrs. C. L. Miller, sponsor, announced Tuesday.

Miss Lane will represent Eastland in the speaking contest because of the agreement of three girls from Eastland who participated Saturday at a practice meeting at Abilene. The agreement was that the one who placed highest in the Abilene meet would represent Eastland High school in the county meeting.

Miss Lane was second in the meeting, Katrina Lovelace third, while Abilene won first. In the boys division of the Abilene meeting Lubbock won first and C. W. Dennis tied with a boy from Ranger for second.

Other schools participating included Waco, Breckenridge, Midland, Sweetwater, Baird, Cisco and Athens.

Group Names Two To School Board For Cross Roads

Two trustees of the Cross Roads school board were appointed Monday by members of the County Board of Education who met in the office of County Supt C. S. Eldridge.

Claude Rose was named to fill, until Saturday, April 9, when a person will be named by qualified voters of the school district to serve a full three-year term, a vacancy which had existed for some time. Earl Blackwell was chosen by the board to fill the vacancy created by the recent moving of L. A. Eudy from the district to Stephens county. Blackwell's term will not expire until 1929.

Members of the county board are W. P. Roach of Rising Star, J. Frank Dean of Gorman, Mrs. J. R. Burnett of Cisco, Tobe Morton of Merton Valley and Dr. P. M. Kuykendall of Ranger.

Roach, member of the board from precinct No. 3, and Dean, member of the board from precinct No. 2, are candidates for re-elected April 9. The county board school precincts correspond to county commissioner precincts.

It has been pointed out by officials that common school trustee election returns must be canvassed by the local boards within five days after the voting, the returns given to commissioners' court which will re-canvass, declare the result and advise Eldridge of the outcome.

PUPILS TO BE MEASURED

SAN FRANCISCO—Sixty thousand school children between the fourth and eighth grades are to be measured in California in an effort to establish average sizes for ready made clothes to spare mothers the necessity of alterations. The information will go to the Institute of Child Welfare at Washington.

Rites Tuesday In Abilene for Sister of Eastland Woman

Funeral services for Mrs. R. R. Bonine, 32, sister of Mrs. J. B. Wasson of Eastland, who died on Monday at Monahan, were conducted Tuesday afternoon in Abilene.

Rev. W. C. Ashford, pastor of the South Side Baptist church, officiated with burial in an Abilene cemetery. He was assisted by Rev. Clyde Campbell, Abilene Baptist minister.

Mrs. Bonine's death followed a three-week illness. She had been ill about three years. She was born Aug. 24, 1905, at Titus, spending her childhood in Alabama. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sterling of Hawley.

Besides her husband and parents, surviving are four sisters, Mrs. Wasson, Anna Pearl Sterling of Abilene, Doris and Betty Jean of Hawley; three brothers, Robert and Mack Wayne of Hawley and Roy Sterling of Merkel.

Mother and Two Sons Vie for Best Grades at College

By United Press

DALLAS, Texas—When semester grades were announced recently at Southern Methodist University it was found that Mrs. Dwight W. Dill is not quite as good a student as one of her sons, but that she is a better student than her other son.

For the first time since the university was founded, the student body includes a mother and her two sons.

"I left the University of Indiana to marry," Mrs. Dill explained. "I wanted to finish my education and get a degree, and when my younger son started to the university I got the chance."

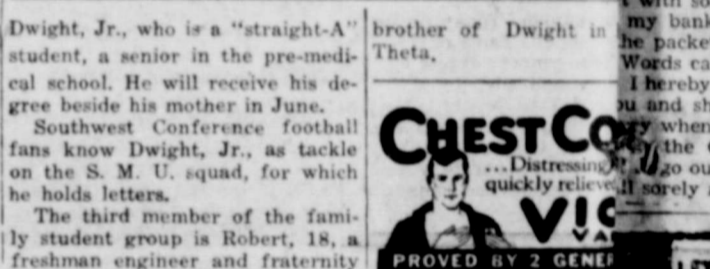

And the record shows that this family trio is making good at the combined business of becoming educated.

Mrs. Dill, known as "Mom" will receive her degree as a major in Spanish next June. Her extracurricular activities include membership in Delta Zeta social sorority, Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalism fraternity, and Pi Eta Sigma, women's Spanish fraternity.

Besides, she has had 46 of her poems published during the last year.

Scholastically, she yields first place to her 19-year old son,

FRECKLES and HIS FRIENDS—By Bill

Famous Painting

HORIZONTAL Answer to Previous Puzzle

- 1 Famous painting pictured here. 8 It hangs in the —, in Paris. 13 Grandparental. 14 Scandinavian. 16 Middy. 17 Roof point covering. 18 Killed. 19 Sick. 20 Flamed. 22 Toasting device. 24 Mesh of lace. 25 To wash lightly. 29 Wool fiber knots. 32 Three. 33 24 hours. 34 Tiny. 35 Assessment amount. 37 Drop of eye fluid. 38 Encountered. 40 Implants. 44 To collect together into a volume. 48 Afternoon meals. 49 Tidings. 51 Epochs. 52 Form of "be". 53 The pictured woman has a mysterious amount. 54 Japanese fish. 55 Lacrosse implement. 56, 57 It was painted by Leonardo. 58 Afternoon meals. 59 Concise. 60 Above. 61 Card game. 62 Strangers. 63 Bartered. 64 African tree. 65 Native metal. 66 Perla. 67 Secular. 68 In the middle of. 69 Unit of. 70 Tiny vegetable. 71 Diverts. 72 South American rabbit. 73 Concise. 74 Close. 75 Card game. 76 Total. 77 African tree. 78 Native metal. 79 Perla. 80 Secular. 81 In the middle of.

Rushed For Time in the Morning?

You Can Cook Breakfast Electrically Right at Your Elbow - Quickly and Cheaply!

Many women have learned how to save time in the morning by preparing breakfast at the table. There is no running back and forth to the kitchen, for everything needed for a hot breakfast is within arm's reach. They simply plug in the percolator, the toaster or the electric grill and turn out all the elements of a kitchen-cooked breakfast without moving from their chairs.

If you already have one or more of these table cookery appliances, plan to use them each morning for a week and see how much easier it is to have breakfast on time, and how much less work you have to do. If you don't have all of these appliances, visit our store or any other store which sells electrical household appliances and see these simple and inexpensive aids to quicker breakfasts.

TEXAS ELECTRIC SERVICE COMPANY

A. N. LARSON, Manager

-By Bl...
IS PROBLEM...
NOT ON...
ITLY I...
NE

For Love of Polly

By RACHEL MACK
Copyright, 1938, NEA Service, Inc.

CAST OF CHARACTERS
POLLY CHELSEY, heroine; French who sees her through.
JERRY WHITEFIELD, hero; the man who sees her through.
CABELL BARKS, privateer captain.
...
Thursday Jerry and Cabell make port and Jerry sails for England, taking a British ship the way.

CHAPTER XXX
ST Bow, Jerry Whitefield wondered, did the commander of an ocean privateer go about getting a visit home?
...
was now high summer and he had just returned from Connecticut. He had had difficulties. The ship he had used in combat had received a bullet from one of the May Queen's long guns that wrecked the rig. There had been barely time to get the crew of France as they were being taken to the coast of May Queen before she sank.

...
"I have comin' to see the house or you?" Trepid asked in irritation. "I never knew a man of a ship cared a continental whether he had window curtains or not."
"I want the Connecticut Chelseys to look as shipshape as the Massachusetts Whitefields," Polly answered. Yet they both knew it was to soothe her anxiety that she did these things, and to fill the days of restless waiting.

...
When the house stood shining and spotless and she could think of nothing more to do to it, Polly bought a length of calico print to make herself a new frock. She looked longingly at some India muslin displayed in Mr. Pell's store; but now that these were no longer being imported from England, they were too dear for ordinary people to buy. "The calico will do very well," she told the clerk. "Now show me some buttons to trim it in, and some white stuff for a baby's dress."
Mrs. Pell came sweeping through the store presently and paused at the counter. Because she wished to have further conversation with Polly she decided to forgive her for that outburst they both remembered so well. She inquired now: "Are you buying stuff to make little Richard a dress, Polly?"

...
"Yes," replied Polly. Then she added triumphantly, "For myself too! My husband's coming home. I look for him any day now."
Mrs. Pell looked attentive and chewed her under lip. "Is he in the navy, did you say?"

...
Q. Why did Texas suffer less during the Civil War than other Southern states?
A. Although general disregard of law, impossible to curb, caused much individual hardship, Texas was more prosperous than other states because it was well removed from the worst battles, and there was comparatively little destruction of its towns and fields. Its crops, cultivated mostly by slaves, were plentiful and sold for good prices on markets that were anxious to secure its products for feeding and clothing those in service, and their families. There was the usual mismanagement and speculation incident to business in times of war, but Texas prospered fairly well despite these.

...
Q. How did the Confederacy regard the surrender of the Federal troops and supplies at San Antonio?
A. It was considered a brilliant coup, and although it was effected before the formal withdrawal of Texas from the Union and was without bloodshed, it was proclaimed the "first victory of the Confederate States."

...
Q. At what place in South Carolina has Texas erected a marker, to honor parents of one of Texas' early leaders?
A. A granite memorial has been placed by Texas at Anderson, S. C., at the graves of John and Mary Rusk, parents of Thomas Jefferson Rusk, signer of the Texas declaration of independence, secretary of war in Burnet's cabinet, chief justice of the Republic and otherwise prominently identified with early Texas history. South Carolina citizens shared in the expense with Texas.

...
Q. What kind of money was used in Texas during the Civil War?
A. The constant introduction of Confederate money during the first years of the war drove out other currency and toward the end of the war the difficulty in transportation from the Confederate capitol made it scarce, forcing the use of certificates of indebtedness and the exchange of products in lieu of currency.

...
Q. Why did Texas suffer less during the Civil War than other Southern states?
A. Although general disregard of law, impossible to curb, caused much individual hardship, Texas was more prosperous than other states because it was well removed from the worst battles, and there was comparatively little destruction of its towns and fields. Its crops, cultivated mostly by slaves, were plentiful and sold for good prices on markets that were anxious to secure its products for feeding and clothing those in service, and their families. There was the usual mismanagement and speculation incident to business in times of war, but Texas prospered fairly well despite these.

...
Q. How did the Confederacy regard the surrender of the Federal troops and supplies at San Antonio?
A. It was considered a brilliant coup, and although it was effected before the formal withdrawal of Texas from the Union and was without bloodshed, it was proclaimed the "first victory of the Confederate States."

...
Q. At what place in South Carolina has Texas erected a marker, to honor parents of one of Texas' early leaders?
A. A granite memorial has been placed by Texas at Anderson, S. C., at the graves of John and Mary Rusk, parents of Thomas Jefferson Rusk, signer of the Texas declaration of independence, secretary of war in Burnet's cabinet, chief justice of the Republic and otherwise prominently identified with early Texas history. South Carolina citizens shared in the expense with Texas.

...
Q. What kind of money was used in Texas during the Civil War?
A. The constant introduction of Confederate money during the first years of the war drove out other currency and toward the end of the war the difficulty in transportation from the Confederate capitol made it scarce, forcing the use of certificates of indebtedness and the exchange of products in lieu of currency.

...
Q. Why did Texas suffer less during the Civil War than other Southern states?
A. Although general disregard of law, impossible to curb, caused much individual hardship, Texas was more prosperous than other states because it was well removed from the worst battles, and there was comparatively little destruction of its towns and fields. Its crops, cultivated mostly by slaves, were plentiful and sold for good prices on markets that were anxious to secure its products for feeding and clothing those in service, and their families. There was the usual mismanagement and speculation incident to business in times of war, but Texas prospered fairly well despite these.

...
Q. How did the Confederacy regard the surrender of the Federal troops and supplies at San Antonio?
A. It was considered a brilliant coup, and although it was effected before the formal withdrawal of Texas from the Union and was without bloodshed, it was proclaimed the "first victory of the Confederate States."

...
Q. At what place in South Carolina has Texas erected a marker, to honor parents of one of Texas' early leaders?
A. A granite memorial has been placed by Texas at Anderson, S. C., at the graves of John and Mary Rusk, parents of Thomas Jefferson Rusk, signer of the Texas declaration of independence, secretary of war in Burnet's cabinet, chief justice of the Republic and otherwise prominently identified with early Texas history. South Carolina citizens shared in the expense with Texas.

...
Q. What kind of money was used in Texas during the Civil War?
A. The constant introduction of Confederate money during the first years of the war drove out other currency and toward the end of the war the difficulty in transportation from the Confederate capitol made it scarce, forcing the use of certificates of indebtedness and the exchange of products in lieu of currency.

"OUT-OUR WAY" - - - - - By Williams - Sport Glances. By Grayson

MYRA NORTH, Special Nurse - - By Thompson and Coll

Baron Will Be No. 5 for Kay

When beautiful Kay Francis of the movies, top photo, announced in Hollywood that she would take Baron Raven, Erik Barnekow, young German nobleman, as her fifth husband, she said he is "tallish, blondish, youngish." You can see how well she described him from his picture above. Kay's other husbands were William Gaston, John Meehan, F. Dwight Francis and Kenneth MacKenna.

Judge Urges Greater Use of the Whip

LONDON, Ont.—A greater use of the lash in curbing lawbreakers in Canada is urged by County Magistrate C. W. Hawkshaw. The magistrate made the suggestion when he imposed a six to nine-month prison term and 12 strokes of the strap on a London youth on an assault charge. "I hope the legislators in their wisdom will some day see fit to shorten terms of imprisonment and impose more straps," he said. English hotel keeper bans blond waitresses because they run after men. Did the men complain?

BY JERRY BRONDFIELD NEA Service Sports Writer

PHILADELPHIA.—Maybe, some day, they'll strike a medal in honor of W. Austin Bishop, diminutive University of Pennsylvania wrestling coach, for his contribution to the arts. Assuming, of course, that the bone-bending business is an art. No longer do the college boys need to fear cauliflower ears and other marks of battle. Bishop's inventive frame of mind has produced a little bonnet intended to cure such badges of distinction. Nor is this new headgear the brain child of the commercial world. Bishop doesn't want to make any money out of it; he merely wishes "to remove the stigma of professional wrestling from the college version of the pastime." And there you have it. Bishop's bonnet is similar to an aviator's, but looks more like a bathing cap than anything else. Made of fabric it is reinforced at the sides with rubber sponge. The cap fits the skull close and is kept on by an adjustable strap under the chin. BEFORE Bishop turned up with his mat millinery, many college boys bound their heads with sandbags to save themselves from disfiguring marks which, mother, or the Saturday night date, might frown upon. In order to further preserve the collegiate aspect of the sport, and remove it from its association with the pro ranks, Bishop outlines a wrestling code for collegiate mat warfare. There is no hold for punishment alone, and no hold is permitted which might endanger life or limb. Some of the holds specifically regarded as too dangerous for the boys are strangle holds, twisting hammerlock, toe hold, bending fingers, and a few others. All of which at first prompts us to believe there's nothing much left for the boys to do except make fierce faces at each other. YET Bishop contends there are plenty of holds left in the collegiate repertoire of tricks. The aggressor still can use the leg-dive or pick-up to toss his foe. There are also the "rides," including the waist and wrist, along with the two-to-one. Not to forget the Nelson combinations and bar-arm grips for the coupe d' grace. On the defensive side, the mat warrior must resort to rolls, switches and double wrist locks to free himself. A hard right, planted wrist deep in the midsection, or a lusty left foot to the bridge-wood is strictly verboten with the collegians. "There has been very little new technique in wrestling down through the centuries," Bishop claims. "Why, in the famous tombs of the Nile, archeologists have discovered illustrations dating back as far as 3000 B. C., and they show all the holds we now have." However, Bishop adds, America today probably is the only country to use the sport as a means of education in schools and colleges. And in our colleges they're taking the "ruffling" out of wrestling by equipping the boys with some really fancy headpieces.

...
There is no hold for punishment alone, and no hold is permitted which might endanger life or limb. Some of the holds specifically regarded as too dangerous for the boys are strangle holds, twisting hammerlock, toe hold, bending fingers, and a few others. All of which at first prompts us to believe there's nothing much left for the boys to do except make fierce faces at each other. YET Bishop contends there are plenty of holds left in the collegiate repertoire of tricks. The aggressor still can use the leg-dive or pick-up to toss his foe. There are also the "rides," including the waist and wrist, along with the two-to-one. Not to forget the Nelson combinations and bar-arm grips for the coupe d' grace. On the defensive side, the mat warrior must resort to rolls, switches and double wrist locks to free himself. A hard right, planted wrist deep in the midsection, or a lusty left foot to the bridge-wood is strictly verboten with the collegians. "There has been very little new technique in wrestling down through the centuries," Bishop claims. "Why, in the famous tombs of the Nile, archeologists have discovered illustrations dating back as far as 3000 B. C., and they show all the holds we now have." However, Bishop adds, America today probably is the only country to use the sport as a means of education in schools and colleges. And in our colleges they're taking the "ruffling" out of wrestling by equipping the boys with some really fancy headpieces.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD By William Ferguson

"YOU BET WE'RE ENJOYIN' OUR 'MAKIN'S' SMOKES - NOW!"

"PRINCE ALBERT FOR MINE, THE FELLOW IN THE LEATHER JACKET SAYS: "We know what they mean. We're all gettin' the finest, roundest 'makin's' smokes a man ever twirled. That P. A. crimp cut sure lays right." "What a shame," puts in Chester Odell (he's on the left), "that I wasted my time before gettin' on to Prince Albert. But you bet I'm enjoyin' my 'makin's' smokes—NOW!"

LEY OOP - - - - - By Hamlin

Society

Seventh Chapter of Matthew Studied
The Women's Bible class of the Church of Christ met for a study conducted in the study room on Monday afternoon...

Party Celebrates Birthday
Friends gathered at the home of Mrs. J. D. Faircloth, 323 Stephens avenue, for a party celebrating the birthday of Mrs. Faircloth's grand-daughter, Mary Frances Loftis.

President Hears Reports
President of the Women's Missionary society of First Baptist church, Mrs. Walter Jackson, heard general reports from standing committees, circle chairmen, and secretary, Monday afternoon...

Political Announcements

This newspaper is authorized to publish the following announcements of candidates for public office, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries:
For Financial Representative, 17th Dist.: Eastland, California Counties. T. S. (TIP) BOSS (Re-election), WAYNE SELLERS, OMAR BURKETT.

Something New and Smart
Looking upward—which is usually a good habit to form, one sees at Hassen's something new along the line of unique displays. Atop the wall ledge, cut-out panels of clever design with smart lighting effect, displays to the fullest merchandise which you look at more than once.

C. of C. Directors Hear Reports of All Committees

Practically every committee of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce reported activities at the meeting of the board of directors, held Monday night in the office of the secretary.
F. P. Brashier, chairman of the trade extension committee, announced that he had named three members of the committee, and that eight or 10 more names would be added. He stated that plans for some kind of a trade day were being worked out.

"Penrod and His Twin Brother"

Penrod and His Twin Brother—One is Billy Mauch, one is Bobby Mauch, and your guess is as good as ours. The twins are co-starring in one of Booth Tarkington's immortal stories of boyhood, "Penrod and His Twin Brother," coming to the Arcadia Theatre Wednesday and Thursday.

MARKETS

Table of market prices for various commodities like oil, flour, and other goods.

ARCADI

LAST TIMES TODAY
A LAFF TONIC FOR JITTERY NEURALS
A PRESCRIPTION FOR ROMANCE
COMING TOMORROW
PENROD AND HIS TWIN BROTHER
THE MAUCH BILLY AND BOBBY

Legion Auxiliary To Have Birthday Party On March 15

Thousands of birthday parties, given by American Legion Auxiliary units for their Legion posts, will mark the nineteenth birthday of the American Legion, Mar. 15 to 17. The celebration will commemorate the caucus of American soldiers in Paris in March, 1919, at which time the Legion was formed.

NYA Farm Project For Boys Planned

AUSTIN.—Another NYA resident training project, on which 12 farm boys from Caldwell, Gonzales and Guadalupe counties will be given an opportunity to earn their expenses while they study agricultural methods at the Luling Foundation Farm, near Luling, will begin operation soon.

C. E. MAY Insurance advertisement featuring a four-leaf clover illustration and the slogan 'I won't have an accident... I found a four-leaf clover.'

A. H. POWELL GRO. & MK advertisement for 'For Better MEAT' featuring a cartoon character and the slogan 'Just PHONE 103 WE DELIVER'.

NOTE BOOK

Mr. and Mrs. Buster Mills are in Ranger for a visit with his parents before going to San Antonio.

666 COLDS AND FEVER
Liquid, Tablets
Salve, Nose Drops, Headache, 30 minutes
Try "Rub-My-Tum"—World's Best Lintiment

CLASSIFIED

1-LOST, STRAYED, STOLEN
REWARD for return or information for recovery of small Boston Terrier; female, dark brind. Call 25.—R. J. Reins.

7-SPECIAL NOTICES

P. R. SCOTT, painter and paper-hanger, lives near Mirror Lake; wants work to support family; will appreciate anything in my line.
BROWN'S TRANSFER & STORAGE CO., BONDED, 111 S. Marston St., Ranger.

Senior Play Will Be Presented On Monday, March 14

The senior class of the Ranger High school will present a three-act play "Tomboy" at the Recreation Building Monday evening, March 14, at 7:30, with a splendid cast. Those in the play have been rehearsing for some time and are said to be excellent in their parts, with some unusually good talent being unearthed among the seniors.

Oakley Rabbit Drive To Be Held Friday

There will be a rabbit drive, beginning Friday morning, Mar. 11, at the Oakley school. Shells will be available and at noon a lunch will be served by the ladies of the community.

Get at the Cause of Constipation!

You know that constipation often gives you that dopey, sunken, bogged-down feeling. Why not get at the cause and fix it?
If you eat what most people do—things like bread, meat and potatoes—the chances are all that's the matter with you is you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean what you may think. It's a kind of food that isn't entirely digested, but leaves a soft, bulky mass in the intestines that aids elimination.

TOWING

We Restore Wrecked Cars To Their Original Newness.
Clarke's Radiator & Body Works
Day Phone 511-Night 308-M

TRY OUR SPECIAL SUNDAY DINNERS
BEST OF FOODS
REASONABLE PRICES!
MRS. HIGDON'S CAFE

Chiropractic Service
By Aid of the New Radio-Clast Instrument!
We can easily find and measure perfectly your trouble; also what organs involved. No guess-work, but everything is scientifically measured.
E. R. GREEN
Chiropractor
209 MAIN STREET

H. H. VAUGHN SERVICE STATION
100% T-P Products
PINE AT AUSTIN
Washing—Greasing—Storage

ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES
Texas Electric Service Co.

SEE BROWN'S Transfer and Storage
FOR MOVING & STORAGE
Agents for T. & P. TRANSPORT

APARTMENTS FOR RENT
Furnished or Unfurnished.
JOSEPH'S
For Health's Sake Make It a Family Affair... Drink Cream-Kist Milk!

NAMES in the News

Names make headlines. Newspapers, today as always, are made up of what people say, think, propose, dissent from. Governments, institutions, businesses—and all their activities—are only the lengthened shadows of men!
What is true on the front pages is true, also, on advertising pages. Advertisements are simply signed statements of men, banded together to form a business who seek your patronage. They back their good name against the products they ask you to buy. They say, in cold black type, that theirs is a name you can trust.
People who get the most for their money in the market-places are people who know the value of familiar, trade-marked products. They buy with confidence. They buy by name—and save time, tiresome searching, and money! Are you doing likewise?

Vertical text on the far right edge, including 'West', 'er in a', 'night.', 'BO-UM', 'TIT AI', 'IARN', 'Whitney, for', 'New York', 'rough his', 'remains of', 'admiralty', 'supplies', 'Whitney's', 'I want to', 'as become', 'of actions', 'responsibility', 'I fully res', 'y actions h', 'in determine', 'senses in th', 'y that ther', 'Improvement', 'can give', 'to what', 'repair the', 'suffered.', 'I am, the', 'of the di', 'general o', 'ite is S', 'or Ann', 'Lives', 'Fairclot', 'ments fo', 'er Live', 'll be held', 'used today', 'ould be hel', 'ilding o n', 'rest, across', 'nan and Par', 'The building', 'today and', 'stock and j', 'tered in the', 'today, and', 'readness w', 'ought in for', 'A large num', 'ready been', 'expected t', 'e chamber o', 'Ranger Thu', 't day on wh', 'iced in the', 'A total of m', 'h totals is', 'tners of first', 'es in a num', 'l for first', 'h ribbons be', 'ond and thir', 'h award is', 'g Many of th', 'nger Livesto', 'en to Fort W', 're they will', 'thwestern E', 'ck Show.', 'bsentee', 'Period', 'bsentee voti', 'beer electio', 'l of 41 Tues', 'period closed', 'nty Clerk R.', 'J. Dean of I', 'ston of Old', 'bsentee vote', 'alloway's', 'falloway's o', 'alloway Satu', 'ive reports o', 'He has res', 'at in precin', 'as possible', 'd but not', 'ck.', 'ger Ove', 'Blamed', 'By Unite', 'PERSA, Kas', 'said today', 'sanger ov', 'of pay $25', 'support of', 'pne, apparent', 'to bid his fo', 'erly attempt', 'mists failed', 'was struck', 'Field S', 'Be D', 'By Unite', 'STEN, Marcel', 'and Commiss', 'al hearing to', 'h 21 to decid', 'in Jones co', 'area', 'Sales.