How to Be Happy

It's remarkable how frequently what appears at first glance to be an unfamiliar, quaint, or even revolutionary notion turns out on closer inspection to be merely the same old idea everybody had been accepting all along.

Probably no one rule for attaining happiness has bobbed up under a greater variety of fancy labels than: "Don't break your neck for nothing."

This will doubtless be considered a pretty ruthless condemnation, by adherents to the more complicated philosophies built on that basic idea, "Don't break your neck," but any condensation is ruthless. It does not follow that it is necessarily in error.

"Moderation in all things" bobbed up several centuries after Confucius said it another way. The Stoics emphasized the wisdom of remaining free from passion. Practitioners of Yogi might be said to have put similar notions to work in the gymnasium.

The only trouble with recommending the easy life to the average man these days is that it's a little like recommending rest and sunshine to a miner with 15 children.

Ramon Navarro, retired movie actor, has taken up Yogi, and says he believes he is now on the way to a state and mental and physical tranquility.

The ideas of Yogi, according to Navarro, "seems to boil down to the idea that we must take life as we find it; that we must not get angry, or excited."

Navarro, 33, has a full-sized swimming pool for a bath tub. It stands just outside his all-blue bedroom in his four-story home, just around the corner from his ultra-modern music room, done in cherry red and deep cream.

Now, remember, we must not get angry or excited. Perhaps a more generally acceptable rule for happiness these days would be: "We must take life as we find it, after having made it what we would like to find."

Lily Pons, the opera star, went through with a ship-board concert despite a furious Atlantic gale. She was probably under the impression that it was a storm of applause.

Amherst College is tightening up on its English requirements. What's that place trying to do, take all the color out of the language?

Trans-Atlantic passenger plane service will stare in July. Go ahead; you can get back in 24 hours.

WASHINGTON NEWS

FROM CONGRESSMAN CLYDE L. GARRETT

Business Outlook

Three successive months of relatively stable production at the present level leads the Government forecasters to believe that the bottom has been reached. Getting attention at present are two favorable factors. In the first place evidence that home building is showing a strong revival this spring under influence of the new Federal Housing Act credit terms.

Uncle Sam Buys Goods

Orders for thousands of different articles every year are placed by the U. S. Government. Most of these orders are for mass supplies at terms advantageous to the Government for all agencies rather than a single one. How the bids should be made and when, is determined by the Division of Procurement, and most of the business is done by contract which is usually awarded to the lowest bidder. Anyone interested in selling supplies to the Government may obtain a schedule of supplies the Government may need in the inquirer's line by writing to the Branch of Supply, Division of Procurement, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., or write to my office.

Poultry and Egg Situation

The price of eggs appears to have reached its seasonal low point in March. And though some small declines may occur during the spring, the trend of egg prices is expected to be upward unless consumer incomes fall more than is now believed likely. Supplies of eggs are not expected to be as great as in 1937. Storage stocks are not expected to accumulate to such a size as during the past year, and a substantial reduction from 1937 appears likely in the August 1 holdings of shell and frozen eggs. The effect of the probable smaller holdings in egg prices in the last half of 1938 will probably be to raise them above those of 1937. The price of chickens is declining relative to its 10-year average of corresponding months. By mid-year, with a larger hatch expected than in 1937, chicken prices are likely to go under those of 1937 and to remain below those of a year earlier throughout the fall and winter. The relative decline is believed to have been the result of falling consumer incomes. Supplies of poultry, both in storage and on farms are quite low.

Social Security

In the United States more than 1,800,000 employees will receive new return forms for filing under the Title VIII of the Social Security Act for the quarter ending March 31, 1938. These returns take the place of three separate returns and are for the purpose of giving less difficulty to the employer to properly fill out. Thirty-six million employees will be involved in the returns.

Aviation Students

Any interested person or company may obtain various reports made by the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, which was created by Congress in 1915 to direct the study of flight problems and conduct research and experiments in aeronautics. These reports deal with aerodynamics, airships, engines and accessories, fuels, helicopters, hydrodynamics, instruments and materials, meteorology, parachutes, propellers, seaplanes, stability and control, strength of construction and other subjects. Lists of the reports available may be had from the Government Printing Office, at Washington, D. C.

Merchant Marine Careers

A training program designed to help youths who can not get training in a state nautical school or in the naval or coast guard academies is given by the U. S. Maritime Commission. Applications are received from any young men, between 18 and 23 inclusive, for positions as "cadets" on Government-owned and subsidized vessels. Applicants address the U. S. Maritime Commission, Washington, D. C. Give details as to age, education and experience.

Leaf Worms Caused Village to Become Cooperative Center

DANEVANG, Texas - Leaf-worms caused Danevang to become a co-operative community in 1904, and its 425 citizens have prospered since. Miss Helgar Jensen, who teaches the community's children, says Danevang was established in 1894 by Danish immigrants from Denmark and northern parts of the United States. Danevang means "Danish Meadow." The immigrants settled on an area of 24,000 acres, or 28 square miles, to carve a living from Wharton county soil. With exception of a few Germans, six of various nationalities, the population of Danevang is Danish. For 10 years, the farmers were individualists. Then came the leaf-

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

By Mrs. Gaynor Maddox
It is a good old American custom to serve chicken for special guests. For very, very special guests try these two recipes which Joseph Boggia, Chef at the Plaza Hotel, New York City, has given us.

Tomorrow's Menu

BREAKFAST: Mexican cantaloupe, dry cereal, scrambled eggs with herbs, toast, coffee, milk.
LUNCHEON: Tomato juice, crisp bacon, baked bananas, water-cress sandwiches, tea, milk.
DINNER: (Special company) Crab flake cocktail, fried chicken Georgia, Maryland sauce, steamed rice, fresh asparagus, fresh pineapple ice cream, sponge cake, coffee, milk.

Chicken Patty a la Reine

(Serves 4 persons)
One-half pound mushrooms, 2 tablespoons truffles, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 tablespoon flour, 1-2 cup cream, 1-2 cup strong chicken broth, salt, pepper, 1 cup sliced white meat of cooked chicken 1 tablespoon of Hollandaise sauce.
Dice mushrooms and truffles cook them in butter until almost done. Sprinkle over them the flour, blend and cook for a few moments. Add gradually cream and strong chicken broth, stirring until smooth and creamy. Season to taste with salt and freshly ground white pepper. Add diced chicken. Heat thoroughly and just before serving add Hollandaise sauce.

Monthly Pow-Wows

Monday night at 7:00 o'clock, scouts of the central section, including those from Blanket, Brownwood, Rising Star, Cross Cut, Pioneer, Sipe Springs and Zephyr, met at Lake Brownwood. Each man brought food for his supper, which included 2 eggs, 2 potatoes, 1 small steak, 1 loaf onion, 4 slices of bacon, 4 slices of bread, and no cooking utensils. How each one prepared his supper without the aid of a skillet was both educational and amusing. It was a worthwhile get-together and was thoroughly enjoyed by those present.

Scouters of the south section, which includes San Saba, Richland Springs, Lampasas, Lometa and Goldthwaite, held their monthly powwow in the Scout park at Lampasas Tuesday evening. The meeting was well attended.

Father and Son Night by the scouts and scouts of Lampasas for a Father and Son night to be held Friday evening at the Scout Park, April 22.

First Aid

The first aid team of troop 6, Eastland, won fourth place and received a banner at Sweetwater, April 16, when all the winning teams from this section of councils met for the sectional contest of councils. Lubbock won first place in the meet.

Comanche

There is a very attractive scout display in a show window of Higginbotham's store in Comanche. These scout windows are worthwhile in many ways. If it is a varied display spectators will have an opportunity to see the different handicraft work done by the scouts, as well as the type of insignia used, what books and pamphlets are studied, varied nature lore studied, etc. Many towns are using this method to let the people of their community know more about scouting.

Camp Billy Gibbons

Camp dates this year are July 12 to 19, July 20 to 27. Plans are under way for the best and biggest Camp Billy Gibbons in the history of the Comanche Trail council. All scouts should start now to make plans for attending.

Residents preserve Old Country customs

The Tylveten, or "Twelve," is Danevang's reading club whose members are a sought-after honor. The club selects and orders books from Denmark yearly for circulation from one family to another until year-end when they are sold to buy more books. There are only three private enterprises within the 28 square miles—two grocery stores and a filling station. Danevangians make their living principally by raising cotton—6,808 bales in 1937. Guiding farming affairs are seven directors whose management in the last 16 years has reaped dividends totaling $115,000. The cotton gin, built in 1927 for $32,000, has paid for itself four fold. Residents preserve Old Country customs. They have festivals at the community house, sing Danish songs and attend square and folk dances. Children attend state schools in the winter and the community's Danish parochial school in the summer.

WASHINGTON LETTER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—The President and his adversaries have reached a new, feverish peak in their fight for power.

There is some reason to believe that the battle is taking place at the bottom of the present depression. But there is no certainty about that. And meanwhile the manifold uncertainties arising from general confusion in Washington, concerning which business leaders have complained long and angrily, have not been diminished by the bitterness of the struggle over the reorganization bill.

As always, the President is beset by two groups of advisers. One asks him to reassure business, to refrain from oratory of the type which disturbs business and to lay off reforms, at least until business can get on its feet again. The other group urges him to "go out and fight," to insist on mastery and a program of reform which he is told will rouse "the people" to his support.

SPORT GLANCES By Grayson

BY HARRY GRAYSON
Sports Editor, NEA Service

HOT SPRINGS, Ark.—Eddie Meade says that Henry Armstrong will earn $200,000 and win two more world championships within the next 12 weeks.

Meade is here with his feather foreman, who is preparing to fight Barney Ross 15 rounds for the welter wreath at Yankee Stadium May 26.

In the event that he repels Ross, Armstrong is signed to box Lou Ambers for the lightweight leadership, June 29. Meade hasn't managed fighters these many years for nothing. Armstrong can't lose. In case Ross scores to make the June 29 meeting a welter championship engagement, Ambers is signed to tackle Armstrong for the lightweight crown, Sept. 16.

If Armstrong is beaten by both Ross and Ambers, he still will be the feather ruler. In putting over this coup, Meade is reported to have clinched the return Joe Louis-Max Baer scrap of June 22 for New York in return, for their sanctioning this rich series of matches, Mike Jacobs is said to have promised the New York Boxing Commission that the million-dollar heavyweight extravaganza would stay in Manhattan, regardless of anti-Nazi activities and outside odds.

JACOBS believes that Ross and Armstrong will gross more than $350,000, and that the St. Louis Dust Storm would draw close to $500,000 with Ambers in the event that he relieved the Chicagoan of his diadem.

Armstrong, the most spectacular little man since Terrible Terry McGovern, collects 25 per cent of the net receipts in each start. Armstrong, one of the busiest back-busters in history, is a bit late right now as a result, so will take the baths, ride horses, golf, and fish here for three weeks. Meade—the "e" belongs there although boxing writers amputated it years ago—will just take the baths. After Hot Springs, Armstrong will repair to Dr. Joe Bier's famous camp at Pimpton Lakes, N. J.

WHILE the official contracts state that Ross and Armstrong are boxing at 147 pounds, they have private agreements calling for Ross to do 142 or less and Armstrong 136 or more, and each has posted a $5000 forfeit.

Meade had $176,000 in cash while managing Joe Lynch, the old banam boss, in 1921. Stout Edward had to hook a watch that Lynch had given him to get out of New York in 1927. He moved to Cleveland.

He left Cleveland in disgust two years ago and drove to Los Angeles, C. O. D.

But Meade is back in the big chips, and he is entitled to be there. It was his knowledge of fighters that put him back on his pins. He saw Armstrong in August, 1936, and borrowed the $10,000 he paid for homicide Henry from Al Jolson and George Raft.

Eddie Meade really struck gold—black gold—on the golden slope.

During the meeting of the Home Ec club last Wednesday the members visited the Ranger Floral company.

Spanish Club
The members of the club spent the club period in singing Spanish songs and playing Spanish games.

Safe Drivers Club
Thirty of the 36 members of the club met again today to have another reading lesson, but you missed it this time, we didn't go through a lot of "traffic" with that safe drivers stuff. On the contrary we went — of all places — on a dragon hunt. Just imagine the Safe Drivers club going on a dragon hunt.

Outside of getting powder burned, trapped face to face with dragon and wrestling with the dumb things, to riding side by side with old St. George. Now don't you folks think you missed something. But it must not have been very impressive, because all of the Safe Drivers went to sleep except me and James Musick, and he was reading to us about the Dragon Hunt.

There goes the bell to this Spanish class so goodbye 'till next Wednesday.

The report goes around that the Library Club was keeping a scrapbook so they have plenty to report this time.

This week's club program consisted of a poem, "The Psalm of Life," given by Anna Marie Hill and an article on Pamphlets read

Churchman Says He Killed Wife

Confessing that he beat his wife to death with a hammer on their 15th wedding anniversary, Marion Lerner, top church official and Dill City, Okla., councilman, claimed the reason was that they could not stop quarreling—and not because he was involved with a well-to-do widow. The latter difficulty was solved, Lerner said, when he, his wife, and the widow got down on their knees together and "prayed the whole thing out." Mrs. Lerner is shown in lower photo.

by Thelma Dean Basham and Clarabell Coffman.

Party
In spite of the snow and cold weather, several members of the Library Club, with their friends, met at the home of Mrs. Conway Thursday evening, April 7, at six o'clock. There ice cream and cake were served by Miss Ethel Murray, the club sponsor, assisted by Miss Marie Conway.

Following the refreshments, those present went to the Arcadia Theatre to attend the movie and style show. Everybody seem to enjoy the occasion.

Club
The Library Club met in regular session April 13th. Poems were given by Anna Marie Hill and Jack Watson. The remaining time was spent in working on the club scrapbook and looking through the Standard Catalogue for High School Libraries. In this the pupils observed the different classifications and the annotations for the books.

Several Agencies to Help Preserve the Health of Students

AUSTIN—Several agencies of the State government in Texas are intensely interested in protecting school children from conditions which are known to be injurious to certain aspects of health, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"The day of the school house built only as a cover for the children from the elements has passed. Today the importance of the actual physical arrangements in the progress of the child is adequately appreciated," he added.

"The Department of Education, a member of the May Day Committee, through its School Plant Division has assisted in more than 4000 school building projects since its inception in 1928. This division aids in securing proper ventilation and adequate heating devices for school buildings.

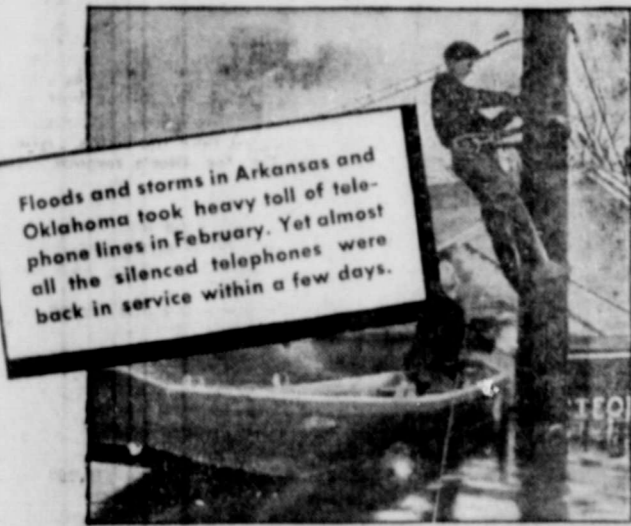

"The meaning of proper lighting to the preservation of sight is being realized; the eyes of the child need optimum conditions, for the eye may still be developing even after the child enters school. The Division of Industrial Hygiene of the State Department of Health has interested itself in securing light meters and meters for measuring air currents, and is willing to aid in this service.

"It has been realized that no matter what protection is provided at home, the school water supply, food supplies, and sewage disposal systems must be adequate to continue safeguarding the health and safety.

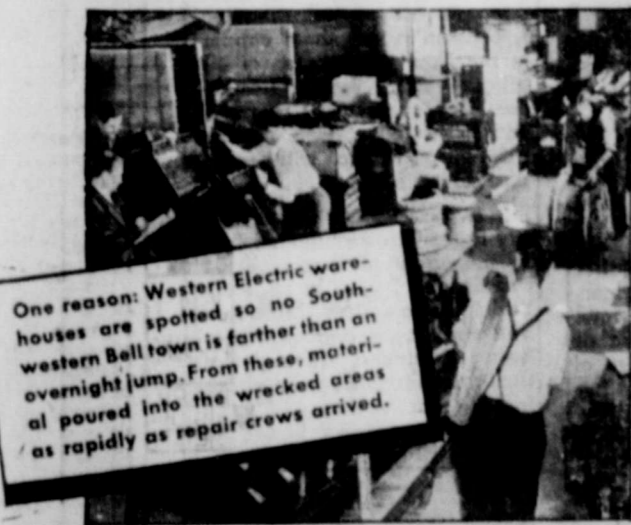

"The May Day Committee offers assistance in all these activities and points with pride to the new modern schools which are monuments to progressive thinking in the Education Department and to the realization that development of minds is best in surroundings conducive to clean upright physical growth," Doctor Cox said.

Neither flood nor storm can silence your telephone for long...

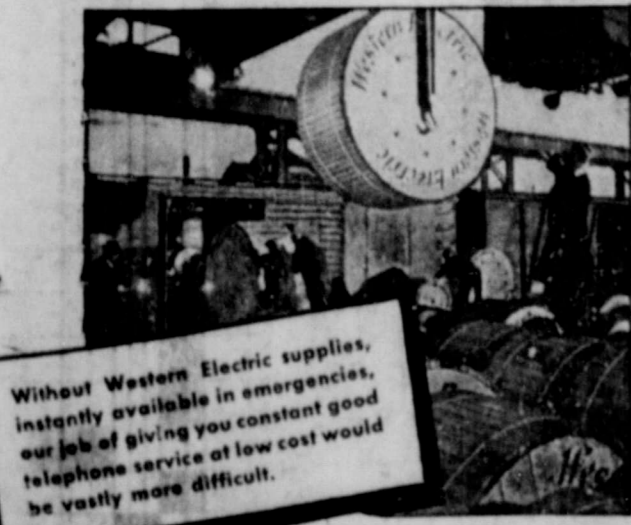

The telephone company depends upon Western Electric—Bell System supply unit—to pour material into wrecked areas AT ONCE!

Floods and storms in Arkansas and Oklahoma took heavy toll of telephone lines in February. Yet almost all the silenced telephones were back in service within a few days.

One reason: Western Electric warehouses are spotted so no Southwestern Bell town is farther than an overnight jump. From these, material poured into the wrecked areas as rapidly as repair crews arrived.

Without Western Electric supplies, instantly available in emergencies, our job of giving you constant good telephone service at low cost would be vastly more difficult.

One reason for this low cost: Western Electric prices are moderate. Over the last 20 years its earnings have averaged less than 7%... in recent years only about half the rate of a representative group of comparable manufacturers.

Garland Branton Makes Statement Upon Candidacy

To the Voters of Eastland County:
 In submitting my candidacy for the office of Treasurer of Eastland county, I wish to make the following statements with reference to my qualifications:
 I am thirty-five years of age, have a wife and three children,

Easter Cruise

 Copyright, 1938, NEA Service, Inc.

CAST OF CHARACTERS
 JOYCE MILNER, heroine; she took an Easter Cruise.
 DICK HAMILTON, hero; he bumped into the heroine.
 ISABEL, PORTIER, travelers she sought a mate.

Yesterday Dick and Isabel came aboard and Isabel announced their engagement! Joyce is stunned!

CHAPTER XIII
 NEITHER the Porters nor Dick were at the doctor's table for dinner that evening. Mrs. Porter had speedily arranged a very special dinner in one of the ship's private dining rooms. If there were any doubt about the engagement, if there were any dull apprehensions in her mind that its consummation in a Havana cafe might not be a legally formal, she was promptly correcting the situation. Joyce could imagine the thrill of triumph which would glorify the occasion.

She steeled herself to be exceptionally gay. She talked on, frivolously and lightly, about the price of perfumes in the Arcade, about the young man who had been ice-skating in Central Park only yesterday, about the flavor of the soup and the fragrance of the coffee. If anybody thought she cared about their engagement—well!

They talked at length of Haiti, and Joyce expressed her eagerness to visit this land so weirdly presented through the pages of mystery books and night thrillers. "Tell you what," Dr. Gray suggested as they ordered dessert. "I'll have the steward serve our coffee down in my cabin, and I'll ask the chief officer to join us. He can tell you some hair-raising stories."

So the three of them left the dining room together, and a few minutes later Mr. Jones, the chief officer, joined them in the doctor's cabin.

Mr. Jones told them many tall, tremendous stories of voodoo worship and magic, all of which he attested to be actual, personal experiences, and none of which his listeners believed. They were amusing tales, nevertheless, and Joyce enjoyed every breathless moment of suspense, for the chief officer was a natural story teller.

She was having a leisurely breakfast hours later when she heard the first voices of the mystic isle, outside her port-hole. She knelt upon the bed and looked out. There, beneath her very window, a dozen black boys were diving from their fragile crafts for coconuts thrown from the decks above. She watched them intently, marveling at their swift, ranging from eight to twelve years. I was born and reared in Eastland county. I have a common school education.

My friends in Eastland county and especially those at Rising Star, who have known me so intimately all my life, will vouch for the statement that I am honest, industrious, ambitious, capable and well behaved. I do not drink and have never accepted charity.

At the age of fourteen I suffered the misfortune of losing both of my arms just below the elbow; yet to a large extent I have overcome this handicap. I have had several years' experience as bookkeeper at my father's gin four miles north of Rising Star, Texas. I write a very legible hand, drive an automobile, etc. Notwithstanding, I am not making a sympathy campaign. I know that, with the assistance of my wife and perhaps one hired clerk at times, I am qualified to render to Eastland county the kind of service that is expected of its treasurer.

My means are very limited and I am having to make this campaign at a great sacrifice and it may be that I cannot see, in person, each voter in the county. However, I shall attempt to do so before the date of election.

I want to promise you, upon my honor, that if you see fit to favor me with this office, you shall never have cause to regret your having helped me. I am badly in need of employment. I promise you honest, efficient and courteous service if elected.

More than I can express by word, I appreciate the encouragement that I have thus far received and assure each and every voter that I shall very much appreciate your vote and influence.

Respectfully submitted,
 GARLAND BRANTON.

Fresh Vegetables And Fruit Better As Spring Tonic

FORT WORTH.—Fresh fruits and vegetables should replace sulphur and molasses, says a health director, and other "spring tonics" on the American diet. Dr. A. H. Flickwir, Fort Worth city health director, advises:

"Sulphur and molasses are a nasty diet, good for nothing," Dr. Flickwir said. "Sassafras tea is a pleasant drink, but there is no other reason for you to drink it. "What people do need is a diet of spring vegetables and fruits. Greens of almost any kind will prove a better tonic than medicine. Onions are good, too—fresh green ones."

Dr. Kjekow's "spring fever" antidote is (1) plenty of fruits and vegetables to prevent scurvy and pellagra, and (2) milk and sunshine to "tone up the system." The fruit, he reminded, must be ripe to maintain the necessary vitamins.

Complete Attention Goes To Our Neighbor City Eastland

All attention socially is focused on our neighbor city Eastland, since the Texas Federation of Women's clubs, fifth district convenes today at Connellee hotel. Prominent officers are present, delegates from all directions are registering, and all in all the program bids fair as long to be recalled the prominent spring meet for many years. Ranger's Federated clubs are represented one hundred per cent, and Mrs. J. W. Ducker, president of the 1929 club, urges every member of the club's personnel to be present for Thursday's session opening at 8:30 o'clock in the morning, hold Connellee. Mrs. M. H. Hagaman, not only a club woman of individual note in Ranger but over the entire state, invites members of the 1929 club to gather at the home of her sister, Mrs. O. F. Chastain for headquarters while in Eastland.

Vernon Walker Paid Honor

Honoring Vernon Walker, hosts Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Walker, and daughter, Mary Ruth, entertained at their home, 314 Mesquite street, last night, with a "42" party.

The gay occasion marking Mr. Walker's birthday carried a spring time floral theme. At the close of the games, gifts were presented and dainty refreshments passed with slices of birthday cake to guests: Mr. and Mrs. Bart Brasler and daughters, Lou and Pat, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Wagner and family, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Walker and son, Donald, Mrs. Freddie Grant and daughter, Deloris Darle, Mrs. Cora Walker, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Walker, Mary Ruth, and honor guest, Vernon Walker.

"Humane Training in the Home and School"

Worthwhile was the above lesson theme offered for young school Parent-Teacher association Tuesday afternoon under the leadership of Mrs. C. E. Maddocks, who introduced the school's principal, Mr. Thomas, who delivered a fine address.

The pupils of Mrs. W. W. Jarvis entertained with a clever skit, after which Mrs. W. K. McGahery gave a full report of the district conference held at Breckenridge April 5-6. Ranger was chosen as the meeting place for 1939.

Twenty members were present. Lovely Table Theme Features Silver Anniversary flanked either side of the mound of blossoms affording a handsome table arrangement for the silver anniversary banquet held at First Baptist church last evening and given as a compliment to members of the intermediate G. A. department.

Welcome address, given by the counsellor, Mrs. Lee Mitchell, followed prayer said by the pastor, Rev. Charles T. Tally, Jr. Miss Dorothy Gene Williams gave a reading, and a duet by Marguerite Adkinson and Melba Brimberry, "The World is Waiting for the Sunrise," introduced a program to be remembered as perhaps the most outstanding one of the season so far. Mrs. Tally, wife of the pastor, climaxed the program with a story of the "Belles of Kentucky," told in her usual charming way. The program sounded its final note with the beautiful hymn "It Pays to Serve Jesus." Mrs. Mitchell read the closing prayer.

Cohostesses for this delightful anniversary were Mrs. Della Ball, Mrs. W. M. Webber, Mrs. W. L. Jackson, and Mrs. Houston Cole, pianist.

Oracle of Chapter Asks Presence of Members:

Laura Todd, oracle of the Royal Neighbor chapter, asks the presence of members this evening at IOOF hall, at 7:30 o'clock, for a meeting to be made up of important business matters.

Y. W. A. Studies Africa:

The Y. W. A., a group of young girls forming this auxiliary, one of the active organizations of First Baptist church, gathered at the church Monday evening and heard a complete program carrying the tonic "Africa." High points of interest were perfectly stressed in the talks with a concluding rouser offered by the newly elected sponsor, Mrs. C. C. Cash, whose experience covers a wide field. Long has she been a wide field of such study and the outline promises to add further interest as the lessons are carried forward.

Geraldine Pirkle brought the devotional and Elizabeth Jay, Mary Jane Todd, Jimmie Beth Todd, and Mona Robinson, rounded out the program by giving separate parts.

Meetings at First Baptist Church this Evening:

At 7:15 o'clock this evening Sunday school instructors are to meet with the pastor, Rev. Charles T. Tally, Jr., First Baptist church for study of lessons, and general summary. Immediately following hour will be turned into that of the usual mid-week prayer and Bible study.

The attention of all is called to these gatherings.

The Bride Says No!

A mirth-packed marriage ritual set in the novel locale of the moving car causes the hilarious climax in which the bride rebels in "She's Got Everything." RKO Radio's co-starring comedy romance for Gene Raymond and Ann Sothern, in which Victor Moore, Helen Broderick, Parkyakarkus and Billy Gilbert have featured roles. The Arcadia gets the comedy today and tomorrow.

Unusual Program Is Presented at the Rotary Meeting

C. B. Pruet had the Rotary program today and presented it in two divisions. For the first part, Mrs. H. D. Smith and the Hodges Oak Park Orchestra delighted the club with musical selections for twenty minutes.

For the second part Dr. Bob Hodges was introduced and spoke to the Club on Karakul Sheep. He had a two week-old lamb with him to illustrate his address. In sketching the history of this breed of sheep, Dr. Hodges said that the word Karakul varies in its meaning with Oriental people. Some of them say it means Black Water, others that it means curly fleece.

The first of this breed were imported into the United States back in 1908, but in as much as they are considered sacred by many of the Orientals it has been difficult indeed to bring these sheep over here. Today 60 per cent of all the Karakuls of the United States are found in Texas, and New York and Colorado each grow a few.

There are from five to seven million dollars worth of their pelts imported into the United States each year. The raw pelts from the bands bring a minimum of $10.00 and furries in New York City are the only firms in this country that make a business of curing the hides. The growing of this type of sheep progresses slowly because of the high prices they bring. However they are increasing and bid fair to become one of the most profitable enterprises to which the rancher can give his attention.

The Nomination Committee composed of Dr. P. M. Kuykendall, S. P. Hoon, W. F. Crager, Edwin George and B. C. Johnson, made its report and the following officers were nominated for the new year, for President, F. P. Drashier, for Vice President C. B. Pruet, for Secretary B. C. Johnson, and for the vacancy on the Board of Directors Ed Eubanks.

ROOSTER HAS HORNS

time chat. members will be received. There will be an all-day dinner on the grounds affair on that occasion.

"We are also planning this week to buy the property of the Central Baptist church and move into that building Sunday, May 15, if plans can be carried out."

In addition to the services in Ranger each Sunday, Rev. Lovell conducts a daily religious broadcast at 8:15 each morning over KTAT and comes to Ranger each week-end, staying from Friday until Sunday night.

Diphtheria Rout Is Complete In Texas

AUSTIN, Texas.—"Few conquests of science have been so spectacular and complete as the rout of diphtheria. And this victory has most firmly established the value of serum treatment both in its preventive and curative phases. However, toxin-antitoxin or its successor, toxoid for immunization, and antitoxin for timely cure, are brilliant achievements of which the general public even yet are not fully aware," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"As indicated, toxoid is the immunizing or preventative agent now usually employed, however, three to four months are required for the body to develop immunity. At that time the Schick test is applied to determine the results of this preventive treatment. This harmless and painless procedure is performed by injecting into the upper layers of the skin a minute drop of the diphtheria toxin. Your doctor can tell from this whether or not your child is immune.

"However, when a case of diphtheria exists, antitoxin is the only treatment that will save life. Also, to be effective, it must be given early in large doses. Delay is usually caused by parents failing to realize that any sore throat may actually be diphtheria.

"The means are at hand to fight diphtheria to the death, but it cannot be done without a hundred per cent cooperation of parents. May Day, the Child's Health Day, will soon be here and one of the best ways to observe it would be for parents to have their children immunized against diphtheria."

Tri-State YMCA to Meet In Texas 23rd

KERRVILLE—Members of the Young Men's Christian Association from Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas, will meet for the fifth annual Young Men's conference on the banks of the Guadalupe River 15 miles north of here, April 23 and 24.

Leaders of the conference predicted that approximately 300 would attend. The delegates, whose ages will range from 20 to 25 years, will share ideas and hear outstanding speakers on new frontiers in business, government and marriage.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning!

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food cannot digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas blocks up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sick and the world looks punk.

A new bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes these good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Be stubbornly refuse anything else.
