WTCC FREIGHT RATE PLEA IS WELL RECEIVED

PLAINVIEW, Tex., Oct. 29.—Herbert S. Hilburn of Plainview, president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, reported today a "great popular response" to the WTCC survey recommendation that freight rates for the Southwest be amended.

The WTCC recommendation paralleled those of Hull Youngblood, chairman of the Texas Planning Board's industrial committee, Hilburn said.

"The planning board," said Hilburn, "points out alternative remedial courses, either through existing agencies or through serapizing the whole rate structure and building anew. The latter course has been espoused by the WTCC traffic committee on the basis of studies of alleged discriminatory rates."

Hilburn agreed with the planning board report that inequitable freight rates were "one of the greatest barriers to the industrial development of Texas."

Farmers Warned Not to Move to Western States

With income from crops for 1938 less than anticipated, many farm families are thinking of selling what goods they have and moving to the West Coast. The Farm Security Administration advises strongly against it, according to Geo. I. Lane, Eastland county supervisor, who headquarters at Eastland.

He said that a recent study of California conditions was made by W. J. Green, Assistant Regional Director for FSA in this region, and it offers no encouragement to the farm families of the Southwest unless they already have permanent employment.

"Frequently statements reach Texas (Oklahoma) that there is a shortage of laborers at certain points in the west," Mr. Green reported. These statements are probably correct, but the people making them often fail to add that the work will last for only a short time, that living conditions in the area are undesirable and that when the work is finished, the laborer may find himself stranded in a community far from other employment with no hope of assistance from local sources."

Green pointed out that agricultural labor in California is almost entirely seasonal and that the land is owned in large units and operated for the most part by machinery. Only at harvest time is there a demand for additional labor, and when the highly perishable fruit and vegetable crops are harvested, the worker must move on to other places to find employment. These people have become known as migratory laborers and rarely stay in one place as long as six months.

"Along the roadside of California, many people from the Southwest are camping out under conditions much worse than the ones they left behind them," Mr. Green reported. "Usually they live in tents which they carry along with them. In many cases their only supply of drinking water is an open irrigation ditch into which the waste from other camps has been thrown. No protection from disease is possible."

The Farm Security Administration has made some progress in improving the circumstances of migratory workers by establishing camps with the minimum essential of healthful living at a few of the more crowded points. If the stream of people to California from the Southwest shows up, conditions for those people who have already gone to the Coast states may be expected to improve in time. Nevertheless, as long as there is a surplus of laborers in that region as is found at the present time, California is not a refuge for financially distressed farmers of this state, it was pointed out.

Continuing with his cigar, Representative Martin Dies declares his intention to go on with the hearings of his committee on Un-American Activities. THOMAS SAYS L C R A WOULD SUPPLY POWER

Power from the Lower Colorado River Authority will probably be used by the Comanche and Eastland County Cooperative Association, A. C. Thomas, a coordinator for the Rural Electrification Administration stated Saturday in Eastland.

Thomas declared that indications point to 500 farmers in Eastland county signing for the power and the same number have signed in Comanche county.

The coordinator also stated the LCRA power will be supplied at the "wholesale" price of 2-5 of a cent for each kilowatt.

The Eastland county line will probably be 150 miles in length while that in Comanche will be 184 miles in length, commented Thomas.

He stated that after the signing is completed by farmers application will be made to Washington REA officials for an allotment. If granted the line, probable minimum charge will be $2.25 for each customer.

The official emphasized that those signing the application for power would not be held liable for more than the price of power they use. Thomas is headquarters for the present at Comanche.

AGREEMENT IS REACHED UPON GERMAN JEWS

BERLIN, Oct. 29.—Germany and Poland have agreed on suspension of the deportation of Jews from Germany into Poland, pending resumption of negotiations in Warsaw next week, it was announced officially tonight.

WARSAW, Oct. 29.—Approximately 4,500 Jews have been admitted to Polish territory this afternoon, it was said here. Some were allowed to go to their old home towns in Poland, after minute examination of their papers.

Poland probably must accept and absorb thousands more Jews from Germany, foreign office circles admitted.

It was estimated that 9,000 Jews are waiting at the border. Most of the refugees, according to information in Warsaw, are already in Polish territory or in so-called no-man's land between the stations on the German and Polish sides of the frontier.

The refugees, men, women and children, were huddled helplessly on station platforms or in standing trains, some still in German territory. They had few possessions and little food.

It was believed eventually Poland will be forced to take something like 7,000 and more later.

Valuable Horse Burned to Death In Olden Blaze

Fire of undetermined origin early Saturday morning destroyed a barn owned by Ferrell Boyett of Olden and in which a pig and a horse valued at over $100 were burned to death.

A quantity of feed also was burned, reports stated.

Boyett, it was reported, recently refused an offer of $117 for the horse.

Old Homes Prove Attractive to Many Prospective Buyers

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., (Sp.)—Homes built five to fifteen years ago and longer are proving attractive in many cases to the prospective home owner in Texas when he considers whether to buy or to build, according to a survey just completed by the Federal Home Loan Bank of Little Rock.

Loans totaling 4,396,000 have been made by the insured savings and loan associations in Texas to 2,083 borrowers since January 1, 1938 to assist them in the financing of homes not of new construction. The loans averaged about 2,000 each and are payable in small monthly installments similar to rent. In the same period the associations loaned $7,749,000 to 2,371 other borrowers on homes of entirely new construction, the figures being advanced to them as the construction work on the houses progressed.

"There has been so much publicity recently about the building of new homes," said B. H. Wooster, President of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Little Rock, "it is interesting to note from the figures we have prepared that the prospective home owner has not lost sight of the good values which prevail today in many dwellings which are not of new construction. Home buyers during the past year have found that dwellings could be bought on the present market at less than their reproduction cost and, when needed, could be modernized at reasonable expense. The savings are quite active in helping to finance such transactions which tend to increase property values generally. They have ample additional funds available for more of this type of loans and for all kinds of home financing."

According to the report the assets of the Texas associations continued to increase in September, they having received $4,450,000 in new funds from investors since the first of the year. Included in the compilation prepared by the bank are the figures of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association in Ranger, whose shares are insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance corporation.

Ruth Etting Says She And Alderman Were Not Married

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Oct. 29.—Ruth Etting, blond blues singer, former married Myrl Alderman, her former accompanist, she admitted today in the course of a deposition being taken in connection with a $150,000 alienation of affections suit brought by Mrs. Alma Alderman, second wife of the musician.

Alderman is recovering from a bullet wound in the abdomen, inflicted by Martin Snyder, former husband of the 42-year-old singer, who is facing charges of attempted murder, kidnaping and violation of the state gun laws.

Miss Etting, at the outset of the deposition, before attorney S. S. Hahn, said she had been intimately associated with Alderman, "at no time and at no place."

District P.-T. A. Head Outlines the Policies on Safety

Mrs. F. E. Jacobs, president First District, Texas Congress P.-T. A., has issued a statement concerning the present policy of the organization in regard to safety work, pointing out that the councils and locals of the Texas Congress have not endorsed any program other than the regular plan submitted by the State and National organizations, nor is it to lend assistance in financial drives or solicitations. Mrs. Jacobs' statement follows:

"Due to certain forces at work in First District Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers it is essential that a statement be made as to the present policy of the Texas Congress in regard to Safety Work."

"The Texas Congress is vitally interested in promoting Safety Education in this state. There is a most comprehensive program offered under the direction of the State Chairman, Miss Clara Jungler, Austin, Texas. Miss Jungler's plans of work are approved by the chairman of Safety for the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, Miss Marion Telford, New York City. Miss Telford is secretary of the National Safety Council."

"Local units function under the plans outlined by the State."

"The Councils and local of the Texas Congress have not endorsed any program of work other than the regular plan submitted by the State and National organizations. Neither are they lending assistance in financial drives, soliciting funds nor sponsoring the work of individuals in the interests of Safety."

"This statement is made in order that the public may have a definite understanding of the policy of the Parent Teacher Associations."

FOREIGN PLAN OF DALADIER IS APPROVED

The powerful radical-socialist party backed Premier Edouard Daladier's new foreign policy in a vote at Marseilles today.

Daladier, who read the communist out of the popular front in a speech to the congress, is free to turn his back on the League of Nations and negotiate directly with Germany and Italy, who are not members of the league, and foes of Soviet Russia.

At the same time Daladier has insisted that he will continue to work in closest cooperation with Great Britain.

Roumania joined the totalitarian states today by renouncing the last remnants of liberal institutions and turning to the one-party system and a cooperative organization. The move further strengthened the royal dictatorship which King Carol proclaimed last February.

The territorial disputes between Hungary and Czechoslovakia moved a step toward solution when the two powers agreed to have Italy and Germany arbitrate. The two powers undoubtedly will accept and when their reply is received the suspended negotiations between Hungary and Czechoslovakia will be resumed.

Germany and Poland still wrestled with the problem of the Polish Jews in Germany, whom Berlin is determined to expel, unless Poland rescinds its citizenship law or grants them the special passport assuring their retention of Polish citizenship.

Marseilles Fire Has 19 Known Killed

MARSEILLES, France, Oct. 29.—The official count of casualties in a fire which destroyed buildings in two city blocks, including three hotels and a department store, stood today at 19 dead and 58 missing.

Officials believed many dead may have been trapped in the store elevators when the current was cut, catching cars between floors.

The fire was put out only this morning after troops using cannons razed neighboring walls. Damage was estimated at more than $1,335,000.

Oil Production For Area Hiked

Daily average crude oil production in West Central Texas for the week ended Oct. 22 was 31,050 barrels, 950 more than for the previous week, the American Petroleum Institute reported Saturday.

For the four weeks ended Oct. 22 this year daily average production for the area was 29,700 barrels. In 1937 the average daily production for the district for the week ended Oct. 23 was 34,650 barrels.

FINANCIAL ACTIVITY OF THE SOUTHWEST HAS BEEN GROWING

DALLAS, Texas, Oct. 29.—Financial activity in the Southwest heightened during recent weeks, while the tones of trade, agriculture and the building industries modulated, the monthly Eleventh District Federal Reserve Bank Review said today.

The Review reflected a growing fluidity of money in this region, and indicated that healthy wholesale activities presaged retail upturns.

"In the four weeks ended Oct. 12, total loans and investments of weekly reporting member banks in this district increased $17,248,000 continuing the steady expansion in evidence since early June," the Review said.

"The increase in the past five and one-half months has amounted to about $45,000,000, bringing the total on Oct. 12 to $516,662,000, which is approximately $3,900,000 higher than on the corresponding date last year and only about $6,500,000 under the all-time high level established toward the end of 1936. These banks have been adding to their investments steadily since the end of April but the expansion in loans occurred mostly after the first of September.

"In the six weeks ended Oct. 12, total loans rose by about $14,000,000, the increase being due chiefly to the expansion in loans for commercial, industrial and agricultural purposes."

"Total deposits (excluding interbank deposits at reporting banks) showed a continuation of the upward trend in evidence since May, 1937, and the record total of $573,314,000 on Oct. 12 was $29,800,000 greater than a year ago."

The report indicated that industrial activity of the region, although seasonally lowered, on the whole was proceeding at a satisfactory rate.

"Building activity declined sharply in September from the relatively high level prevailing during the two preceding months. Nevertheless, the recession from August to September was largely seasonal and the total value of construction awards exceeded that of September, 1937, by 24 per cent. The decline from the preceding month was due largely to reduction in residential and non-residential building. . . . The ag-

FACT-FINDERS URGE NO WAGE CUTS FOR NATION'S RAILROADS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The Administration's emergency fact-finding board recommended today against any wage cut in the railroad industry, and President Roosevelt immediately took personal charge of efforts to adjust the carrier controversy and avert a strike.

The board's recommendations are not binding upon the operators who proposed a 15 per cent wage cut. Recommendations and findings of the board will be used as a basis for negotiations between railway labor and the operators through Mr. Roosevelt.

The President announced immediately after the report that he will confer, Monday, with President John R. Peiley of the Association of American Railroads and with President John M. Harrison of the Railway Labor Executives' Association.

Mr. Roosevelt will attempt to bring the two groups together for an agreement before expiration of the 30-day period which both must wait before taking any direct action in the wage dispute.

The railroads have announced the wage reduction, affecting 960,000 workers, will become effective Dec. 1. The railroad employees have voted to strike rather than to accept a cut.

The board listed five main reasons for recommending that the railroads withdraw and cancel the wage cut notices.

These were:

1. The wages of railway labor are not high, even as compared with wages in other comparable industries.
2. The horizontal reduction of wages on a national scale would not meet the financial emergency of the industry since the savings would not be distributed, merely to the needy roads.
3. A wage reduction in the railroad industry would run counter to the trend of wage rates in industry generally.
4. The financial distress of the carriers since October, 1937, when the last wage increases were granted, is as yet a short-term situation. As such it cannot be regarded as grounds for a wage reduction, especially in view of present indications of an improvement in the business of the carriers.
5. In the light of these findings the board concludes that the proposed wage reduction, affecting

Here Is An Opportunity for Straight Thinking

The world is governed more and more by emotion, and less and less by thought. That is the greatest danger of our day.

If any sanity and decency is to be kept in the world, people must think more. That means all people, not just the leaders.

That is harder than just to shout "Hooray!" or "Boo!" But it must be done.

Let's take a laboratory example, the latest Lindbergh affair. Chances are that one either considers Lindbergh a nasty Fascist spy who intrigued against the Soviet Union, or a wise observer who served peace and the world by telling the truth about the Russian air force, in quarters where that knowledge was badly needed.

Yet how far is one justified in drawing either conclusion? Let's re-survey the facts, and see whether opinion is conditioned by feelings toward Russia, the Soviets, Hitler, Chamberlain, or by known facts.

Lindbergh went to Russia. He was entertained by Russian airmen with the usual courtesies, and shown as much of Russian air strength as the Russians cared to show.

He returned to England. Several magazines there printed a rumor that Lindbergh had made certain comments uncomplimentary to the Russian air force at a social event and to persons of influence in the British government.

His Russian host-aviators immediately came out with a violent statement condemning Lindbergh as a paid liar and a Fascist spy. The world promptly took sides, Lindbergh himself remained silent.

Beyond the published rumor, how much actual proof has been shown that Lindbergh said the things attributed to him? Very little. The central fact of the whole affair remains unverified.

Assuming, however, that Lindbergh said the things attributed to him, were they true? Obviously the effectiveness of any air force before actual test in war is a matter of opinion. It is not a matter on which to use terms like "liar." There can be no proof.

Now the third accusation: that Lindbergh was a paid spy for Fascism, and made such a report on Russian aviation purely to influence Britain against opposing Hitler. That is a nasty accusation. It ought not to have been made without the strongest evidence. But is there any evidence? None at all. It is a plausible-sounding hypothesis, but of proof there is not an iota.

Three belief-hurdles have been quickly leaped by many people in this affair. They concluded: 1. Lindbergh said or did not say what he was reported to have said. 2. It was or was not true. 3. It was or was not said with the worst kind of ulterior motive. Yet all three conclusions rest on assumptions not proved.

All these things were reported in some detail by the newspapers, and properly so, because they were news. But if ever there was a case for suspended judgment on the part of the reader, this is it. The whole thing is a question of fact, and the fact is by no means established.

This is the kind of testing and searching which Americans must apply to all news, especially foreign news, these days if we are to choose a course that is wise and just, and not merely be blown on winds of passion and demagoguery.

SPORT GLANCES - - - - By Grayson

BY HARRY GRAYSON Sports Editor, NEA Service YOUNG BUSSEY, a real good halfback, blames his dismissal from the Louisiana State team upon his efforts to form a football players' union.

It seems that young Mr. Bussey is practically a John L. Lewis of the molehills. Starting at an early age, he led a pigskin strike at his Houston high school.

It is about time that intercollegiate football had a Mr. Bussey, and what in the world was wrong with his organizing the pigskin paraders of Louisiana State or those of any other school? If it is true that most of the noble athletes are being paid, as many of the better minds agree, then they certainly should be organized.

Pumpkin Planner Profits From Funny Faces

Nurseryman Czeszczewski casts pumpkins in the classic mold as well as the grotesque. This handsome fellow says stop, just a plain old pumpkin—but a 50-pound prize winner at three fairs.

MADISON, O.—There are some mighty queer looking pumpkins growing in the backyard of John Czeszczewski nurseryman and landscape gardener.

But they're pumpkins calculated to bring joy to the hearts of youngsters as Halloween, with its pranks and parties, approaches.

Each year, for four years, this northeastern Ohio town has looked forward eagerly about this time to the latest Czeszczewski "molded pumpkin" creations—pumpkins with features of notables in public life, of death's heads, of just ordinary people—all designed to give the traditional Halloween Jack O'Lantern a new lift.

"Alas, poor Yorick" might be appropriate lines for this scene, where Mr. Czeszczewski holds a death's head pumpkin. Lower, two views of the skull mask. Left, a front exterior, and right, an interior.

MAVERICKS DEFEATED BY CISCO LOBOES 18-6 IN GAME AT EASTLAND

Eastland 18, Cisco 6. First downs 6-6. Yards gained rushing 120-35. Yards lost rushing 4-4. Passes attempted 17-21. Passes completed 10-17. Passes intercepted 0-0. Blocked punts 1-0. Fumbles 2-2. Recovered 3-4. Penalties 10 for 95yd.

In the best game seen on the Eastland field this year, the Cisco Lobos Friday afternoon defeated the Eastland Mavericks 18 to 6 before a crowd of approximately 1,000 persons.

It marked the regaining of supremacy of the Lobos over the Mavericks for in the past several years Eastland has not been defeated by their long-time foes.

Eastland threw a scare into the invaders early in the first quarter. After Eastland got the ball on the Cisco 28-yard line, B. Furse passed to Perine for the Maverick's first and only counter. Furse's try for the extra point failed.

The visitors scored in the mid-part of the second quarter. It was on a pass, Coy Warren to M. Harrison, ending an 80-yard march. Warren also accounted for another score before the half ended.

Warren also made Cisco's final counter in the third quarter. Eastland was the Cisco five-

"The resumption of the five-day production week in Texas at the beginning of September resulted in a sharp decline in the production of petroleum in the eleventh district. The output during the month averaged 1,420,292 barrels daily, which was 10 per cent lower than the daily average in August and 16 per cent under that of September last year."

Weather influenced retail trade and agriculture greatly, the report said.

"Consumer demand at department stores was retarded by unseasonably high temperatures during September and the first half of October, but distribution of merchandise through wholesale channels increased more than seasonally from the low level prevailing in the preceding two months.

"Weather conditions prevailing since the early part of September have been favorable for the maturation and rapid harvesting of crops. On the other hand, the lack of moisture, together with the unusually high temperatures for this season, caused a deterioration in some crops."

It was pointed out that on Oct. 1 the Department of Agriculture had lowered its estimates of a month earlier on production of sweet potatoes, pecans, tame hay, and peanuts, but that the Texas cotton production forecast of 3,200,000 bales remained unchanged.

The Fords Tell Their Plans for 1939

IF WE KNEW anything better we could do for the country than make good motor cars, we would do it.

By every one doing his best in the job he thinks most useful, this country is going to regain its momentum. We have tried to do our best in our job.

When business was suddenly halted in its recovery more than a year ago, we determined that we should keep going anyway, if not at full-volume motor car production, then at getting ready for greater motor car values that would help future production.

EXPANDING FOR THE FUTURE

We began to build 34 million dollars' worth of new plants and equipment. We felt that if we could not employ all our men building motor cars, we would employ as many as we could building better production facilities.

We were told, of course, that this was no time for expansion, that a wiser business policy would be to "hold everything" —which means, stop everything. But no one ever got anywhere standing still.

Besides, we are not defeatists. We do not believe this country has seen its best days. We believe this country is yet in the infancy of its growth. We believe that every atom of faith invested in our Country and our People will be amply justified by the future. We believe America is just beginning. Never yet have our People seen real Prosperity. Never yet have we seen adequate Production. But we shall see it! That is the assurance in which we have built.

Business is not just coming back. It will have to be brought back. That is now becoming well understood in this country; for that reason 1939 will be a co-operative year. Manufacturers, sellers and buyers will co-operate to bring back the business that is waiting to be brought back.

This construction program is almost completed. It has increased activity and payrolls in a number of related industries. It has given us better facilities for building better cars and trucks, and eventually our new tractor which is being perfected.

THIS MEANS MORE VALUE

The current program has provided a new tire plant, which will turn out a part of our tire requirements . . . a new tool and die plant that will help us cut the cost of dies . . . and a steel-press plant that will enable us to make more of our own automobile bodies. These are in addition to the plants we already had for producing glass, iron, steel, plastics, and many other things.

We don't supply all our own needs, of course, and never expect to. The Ford engine is one thing that no one's hand touches but ours. Of nearly everything else we use we build some quantity ourselves, to find, if possible, better and more economical ways of doing it. The experience and knowledge we gain are freely shared with our suppliers, and with other industries.

We take no profit on anything we make for ourselves and sell to ourselves. Every operation, from the Ford ships which first bring iron ore to the Rouge, is figured at accurate cost. The only profit is on the finished result—the car or truck as it comes off the line. Some years, there is no profit for us.

Henry and Edsel Ford, on the occasion of the 35th anniversary of the founding of the Ford Motor Company, June 16, 1938

But we see to it that our customers always profit. A basic article of our business creed is that no sale is economically constructive unless it profits the buyer as much as or more than the seller.

Our new plants have helped us build more value into all our cars for 1939. That means more profit on the purchase to the purchaser.

We have not cut quality to reduce costs.

We simply will not build anything inferior.

NEW TESTING EQUIPMENT

While we were putting up new plants to produce cars, we constructed new equipment to test them. The first weather tunnel of its kind ever built for automobile research went into operation at our laboratories this year.

It makes any kind of weather to order. The weather it delivers every day would take months to find in Nature. Our cars are weather-tested to give you good service in any climate anywhere.

In other tests, every part of the car is punished unmercifully. Then our engineers tear it down to see if they can find abnormal wear or any sign of weakness.

The money we spend on tests saves you money on repairs. And your family car is safer and more dependable when we put it in your hands.

THE NEW CARS

We have two new Ford cars for 1939—better cars and better looking—but we also have an entirely new car.

It's called the Mercury 8. It fits into our line between the De Luxe Ford and the Lincoln-Zephyr. It is larger than the Ford, with 116-inch wheelbase, hydraulic brakes, and a new 95-horsepower V-type 8-cylinder engine.

We know that our 1939 cars are cars of good quality. We think they're fine values in their price classes.

With new cars, new plants, new equipment, the whole Ford organization is geared to go forward.
