

CAMPAIGNING IN DIMMITT—Democratic candidate for Agriculture Commissioner of Texas Jim Hightower (left) visits with Mrs. Jeff (Phyllis) Parrish of Dimmitt and her son, Justin, along with Castro County Democratic Chairman Bart Kaderly, at a reception Sept. 29 in the Dimmitt City Hall meeting room. About 30 persons attended.

Hightower:

'We need changes'

"I don't intend to stand back and watch farmers continue to go under. I plan to put government to work for the people. I want to change the Texas Agriculture Commission from a regulatory bureaucracy into an advocate for the needs and rights of farmers and ranchers," Democratic candidate for Texas agriculture commissioner Jim Hightower told a crowd of about 30 people at a reception for him in Dimmitt last Wednesday.

Accusing his Republican opponent, Dr. Fred Thornberry, of being "buried in bureaucracy and influenced by bureaucrats and statisticians," Hightower poked fun at a recent release issued by Thornberry that said farmers are not headed for "a great depression," as Hightower has claimed.

"Thornberry says no acreage is being left uncultivated because of bankrupt producers," Hightower said. "A 1% turnover might not seem like much to him, but it sure does if you're one of the ones being forced out of business."

"It makes me mad to see the small farmers and ranchers going bankrupt and no one stepping in to help," Hightower told the crowd. "It's the result of deliberate policy that the commission just lets the situation continue. If we lost these producers — 10,000 family farms and ranches are going bankrupt this year — I predict a total economic collapse. The Agriculture Commission field offices have the ability to help us if they will. If elected, I intend to DO something, not just stand there passively and let things wash over me."

Lake level worries city

The Dimmitt Board of Aldermen is worried over a potential high-water problem at the city's sewer drainage lake north of town.

After heavy summer rains, the lake nearly reached overflow capacity, although the tenant of the city's 90 acres of land surrounding the lake pumped water from it continually.

At Monday night's meeting of the board, representatives of Goodpasture, Inc. met with the board and discussed what alternatives they could possibly develop for the disposal of their waste water, which normally flows into the city system, supplying about 4% of its volume.

The effluent from Goodpasture, an agricultural chemical manufacturing plant southeast of Dimmitt, at the current ratio of mixture with the city sewer water is approved by the Texas Water Quality Control Board.

"We would have to get permission from the water board to make any changes whatsoever in the disposal of our waste water," said Pete Stewart, plant manager. He added that he would be more than willing to follow the city's suggestion to look into the possibility of putting some of its waste water at times of heavy usage into the wastewater lake used by Amstar.

Aldermen told the Goodpasture representatives that they were not unhappy with the city's present agreement with Goodpasture, nor were they trying to "punish" anyone, but they were just trying to look ahead to any difficulties that may arise in the future.

Part of the problem may be alleviated when the city works out a new lease agreement for the city land surrounding the lake.

Three options of dealing with the land and water are being let for bids. The options are water rights to the lake alone, lease of the land alone, or water and land together.

In cases dealing with water rights, the party winning the bid must agree to maintain the lake at an "acceptable level," through whatever means he is able, even by selling some of the water.

The board also discussed rumors that various truckers had been seen dumping chemicals in and around the city dump and the sewer lake.

"This practice is forbidden by city ordinance and is punishable by up to a $200 fine per day of violation," said City Manager Paul Catoe. "Warning signs will be posted at both sites."

Aldermen agreed to pay $482.33 for its portion of the cost of producing new brochures about Dimmitt in order to help possibly attract new businesses. The brochures will be in the form of a [Continued on Page 15]

Mrs. Strake:

'Let's get tough'

When Bill Clements became the first Republican governor of Texas since Reconstruction, his campaign manager was George Strake.

Now Strake, who served almost three years as secretary of state under Clements, is going after the lieutenant governor's post which Democrat Bill Hobby has held for the past decade.

Helping the Houston Republican in his quest is his wife, Annette, who campaigned in Dimmitt and Hart Monday.

Mrs. Strake spoke at a luncheon at K-Bob's Steak House, hosted by Fred Bruegel Jr., Strake's local campaign manager, and Darla Stewart.

She focused on two legislative areas where she said her husband is tough and Lt. Gov. Hobby is soft — crime and drunk driving.

"While Mr. Hobby boasts of raising over $60,000 for the American Civil Liberties Union, which has opposed stronger criminal laws, my husband supports stronger laws to curb the rising crime rate, the increasing drug traffic and the slaughter on our highways and streets caused by drunk drivers," Mrs. Strake said.

"Instead of working to water down anti-crime legislation, as Bill Hobby did last session, George Strake will work to see that the Texas Senate comes to grips with these problems," she said.

As the mother of six children ranging in age from 8 to 23, Mrs. Strake said, "While we have been fortunate to have children who have stayed out of trouble... from our children's first-hand reports we know how widespread the drug problem is which faces adolescents today."

She added, "As lieutenant governor, George Strake will be more concerned with the rights of Texans to be protected from those who exploit youth by trafficking in narcotics. George Strake will fight for stronger drug control laws and more adequate funding for law enforcement."

As to legislation to curb drunk driving, Mrs. Strake said, "With over one-half of all fatal auto accidents involving drunk driving, the legislature must act forcefully to insure that those who would drive drunk know that they will face strong and certain punishment. The weak half-measures which have been enacted during Mr. Hobby's 10-year tenure have not worked and are not working now."

Like Hobby, Strake is a native Houstonian and a member of a wealthy, philanthropic family. The Strake Company has oil holdings and other interests in Texas, Louisiana and New Mexico. Strake is a graduate of St. Thomas High School in Houston, the University of Notre Dame and the Harvard Graduate School of Business.

Strake has served many local and national civic and charitable organizations, including the Boy Scouts of America, Freedoms Foundation, MacArthur Memorial Foundation, Navy League, Rotary, Jaycees and Houston Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Strake said her husband also is "vitaly interested" in a statewide water plan, and that he feels the plan passed by the Texas Legislature but rejected by the state's voters was poorly drafted.

Strake has charged that Hobby supported the Clayton Water Bill in its passage through the Senate, but then campaigned against it before it was defeated as a constitutional amendment.

In a recent debate in Houston, Mrs. Strake said, "Hobby accused George of mud-slinging, which he hasn't been doing, which he doesn't do. That's not George's style. I don't know what Hobby was talking about."

She also charged that Hobby has been an "ivory tower" lieutenant governor.

"We've been working and traveling hard for more than a year, and it's strange — nobody has seen Bill Hobby in years, apparently," she said.

Strake has charged that Hobby supported the Clayton Water Bill in its passage through the Senate, but then campaigned against it before it was defeated as a constitutional amendment.

Sarpalius:

'Judge my record'

"I hope to be able to serve the people of this area again," said State Senator Bill Sarpalius Friday on a campaign stop in Dimmitt.

Sarpalius spoke to a group of citizens at Dimmitt's city hall auditorium Friday and said his camp is "going to run a positive campaign."

"I hope people will judge us by our record," he said.

The Hereford Democrat posted a 92% conservative voting record in his freshman term in the Texas Senate.

He has been a leader in the promotion of the Drunk Driving Bill, and as chairman of the Agriculture Committee was instrumental in getting 12 bills related to agriculture passed.

Sarpalius said one of the major projects in which he took part during his term was the creation of an interim study related to agriculture.

Corn harvest winding down

Local elevator operators are still finding room for storage, as this year's corn harvest winds down.

Several elevator operators reported that corn harvest in their area is almost complete, while the others are at least halfway finished.

Bill Clark of Dimmitt Agri Industries reported Tuesday that "yields are off slightly from last year," and "we're going to pretty well wind down this week."

He said corn farmers in his area were about 85% finished with the harvest.

Carl Collyer of Bruegel and Sons elevator reported "We're still taking in corn. Out west of here it looks like there is still 40 to 50% in the field."

Collyer said that the quality of the corn is better than last year's crop, but the yields are down.

At Flaggs Grain, J. R. Brown said "We're probably 90% finished (with corn)." He said the quality of the corn is very good, but on an average the yields are less than last season.

"We're probably 60% through," said Eddie Matthews of Easter Grain. He reported that the yields and quality of the corn are about equal to last year's crop.

"We're virtually finished with the corn here," said Lynn Ehly of Star Grain in Nazareth. "There's still a little coming in."

Ronnie Truelock of Farmers Grain in Hart said the corn harvest was almost complete. He reported good quality corn and yields comparable to last year.

"We're on the last 20% of the corn crop," said Don Gregory of Castro County Grain. "For all practical purposes [Continued on Page 15] we're through with corn," said Roy Byers of Sunnyside Grain. He reported good quality corn with yields close to average.

Two elevators are receiving milo in a steady stream now. Flaggs' Brown said "We're receiving milo at Dodd. There's quite a bit coming in and it's mature and ready to harvest."

Mrs. Ehly said "the milo is beginning to roll pretty good," at Star Grain.

Bruegel and Sons and Dimmitt Agri have received a few sample loads of milo but the full swing harvest is still several days off. Easter grain has received a few loads of milo, but Matthews said it was "still pretty wet."

Castro County Grain, Farmers Grain and Sunnyside Grain all have received a few loads of milo and reported some soybeans are beginning to come in.

Rewards offered for information

Rewards totaling $175 are being offered this week for information about the two Spotlight Crimes.

Crime Line is offering a $75 reward for information about the theft of 20 bales of alfalfa hay on the night of Sept. 22.

The hay was removed from a trailer parked on the south side of a barn belonging to Jim Killingsworth. The barn is located one and one-half miles west of Dimmitt on highway 86.

A $100 reward is being offered for information concerning the theft of a bicycle belonging to Brant Baca.

The bicycle, a Wilson "Hawk" three speed (red, with red tires), was taken from Baca's yard at 508 W. Belsher St. on Sept. 2.

Call Crime Line at 647-4111 if you have information concerning either of these crimes. When you call, the method of protecting your identity will be explained to you.

Crime Line donations may be mailed to Castro County Crime Line, Inc., P.O. Box 1111, Dimmitt.

Nazareth Homecoming festivities underway

Nazareth's Homecoming Week activities got underway Monday with students participating in "western day" at the school.

Tuesday was "sock and shoe" day, Wednesday, "hat and sunglasses" day and today (Thursday) is "blue and gold" day. Friday will be "dress up" day.

The Spirit King and Queen will be crowned at the Pep Rally at 7:30 p.m. today (Thursday) at the football field. Classes and teachers will present skits at the rally.

Starting at 6:30 p.m. today, the Nazareth Student Council will sponsor a taco supper at the school cafeteria. The supper will be served before and after the pep rally.

The Homecoming Queen will be crowned at 7:15 p.m. Friday before the Swifts and Valley tangle in a district 2 1-A North Zone game.

Following the game the student council will sponsor a dance at the community hall with the Roughriders band providing the entertainment.

Sarpalius said he feels some "giant strides can be made in agriculture."

"Over one-third of the agricultural production of the state is right here in the Panhandle," he said.

If re-elected, he said, he feels he can get an appointment to the Finance Committee.

"We need a voice on there from the Texas Panhandle and West Texas. It's a very, very important committee," he said.

Sarpalius said he also intends to work on legislation to improve the juvenile justice [Continued on Page 15]

Homecoming brings grads back

By MARY EDNA HENDRIX
The 1982 Dimmitt High School Homecoming started Thursday night with a big bonfire. There was a large crowd to enter into the festivities. The band played, the cheerleaders led several yells, the football boys marched up on the huge truck and the Flame Queen and King were presented. Senior Dina Heard was crowned Flame Queen and Senior Sid Sageser was crowned Flame King.

Some of the more recent graduates were home from college for the Homecoming Football game — Dimmitt with Boys Ranch. Brad Murdock and Kyle Yates from Levelland, were visiting Brad's parents, Bobby and Wanda Murdock. Jerri Ka Clark was home from WTSU in Canyon with her roommate Annette Wilk from Dalhart. They visited Jackie and Sandra Clark Friday and returned to Canyon for WT Homecoming.

There were reunions held after the ballgames, the Class of 1957 met at the United Methodist Church and the Class of 1962 met at the Country Club.

By Friday afternoon the ex-students were beginning to arrive in Dimmitt in time for the big pep rally at the high school. The homemaking classes sponsored the barbecue at the Richardson Elementary cafeteria where I saw several of the ex-students. Beth (Beecher) McLendon was here with her husband Bart and two sons Trent and Matt from Dallas visiting her parents, Edgar and Kate Beecher. Chuck Youts was here from Waco, Leta (Mundell) and Reuben Arvizu were here from Roswell, N.M. Butch Cates from Oklahoma and Rev. Mike Goodwin from Kansas City.

Tammy Sanford flew in from San Marcos where she is attending college. She spent the weekend with her parents Johnny and Janet Stanford and two brothers Mike and Chris. Tammy is majoring in music.

Beth Benton was here from San Angelo State and Kent Kirby and Jay Nelson were home from Alpine.

Quint Waggoner came in from Abilene Christian University to visit his parents, Judy and Winston Waggoner. Soon after Quint went to college he wrote a letter thanking his parents for the money they had sent, and they really hadn't sent any. (Maybe this is one way to ask for money!) Quint brought his roommate from Rule with him.

Wendy Bruegel from Tech was visiting her parents, Fred and Bobbi Bruegel. Julie Mann, Lana Lane, and Kristi Sheffy from WTSU, Jay Reeves from ACU in Abilene, Todd Hatla from San Marcos was visiting his parents, Diane and Glenn Hatla. Jean Bradford was here from WTSU and Jim Bradford from Tech.

Mildred Bradford and Lavonne Bates went to Canyon to see the "Pigskin Review" at WTSU. Jean Bradford was stage manager and Jo Beth Bates was a part of the chorus.

Hazel Bagwell entertained with a luncheon at K-Bob's last Friday honoring Mrs. Mearle Morgan from Bovina on her birthday. Others enjoying the meal and fellowship were: Mauzee Youts, Billye Wesson, Thelma Bryson, Ruth Hays and Geneva Dennis.

Mrs. Boyd (Lone) Davis has been visiting her sister, Jeanie Miller and sister-in-law, Edna Riley. Mrs. Davis lives in Oklahoma.

Mrs. Ben (Belinda) Goding of Dallas will be honored with a bridal shower Saturday from 3 to 4:30 p.m. in the home of Mary Lu Smithson. Ben and Belinda were married recently in Dallas. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Goding of Dimmitt.

Visiting Marie and Curtis Tate have been her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Kay of Yakima, Wash. Also visiting in the Tate home Sunday were daughter, Pat and Ken Truelove and son Jim and Judith Tate, all of Amarillo.

Beral Hance went to Panhandle and joined her daughter, Beth Hodges recently for a trip. They drove to Wichita Falls where they visited Sherilyn and Rick Bowersock and had dinner with them at the Wichita Club. Rick is an attorney and Sherilyn is with the First Wichita National Bank where she's just been promoted to regional banking officer. They visited the Walter Hodges and Bill Hodges at Nocona and Mrs. M. A. Gilmer and Clint and Mae Coventry of St. Jo. Mrs. Gilmer is recovering from surgery. She is 93 years old. They went on to Dallas where they visited Keri Hodges and Beral's niece, Avis, and her husband, Judge Ted Robertson. Keri is with the firm of Schneider, Bernet and Hickman. Keri took them out to eat at a nice Italian restaurant near North Park Mall. The Walter Hodges, the Coventrys and Mrs. Gilmer are former Dimmitt residents.

Brad Murdock is a member of the "Tumbleweed Flats Country Band" in Levelland and they will be representing the South Plains College at the State Fair in Dallas this weekend. There are five members of the band including one of the music instructors, Lynn Daniels. The band's first performance will be at 10 Saturday morning. We are really proud of Brad as this is quite an honor for him.

Edna Riley entertained her bridge club last week with a dessert of peppermint ice cream and German chocolate cake. Those enjoying the afternoon were Virginia Gilbreath who won high score for the members, Ann Carpenter, Anita Morris, Maxine Tidwell and guests Tina Rawlings, Carole Dyer and Nelda Lloyd who won high score for the guests.

Bobby and Wanda Murdock went to Memphis for the funeral of Mr. John Smith who was Bobby's uncle. Also Geneva and Virgil Justice, Loys Raymer and Joe Higgs and Geneva and Morgan Dennis attended.

Those enjoying the day were Retta Cluck, Trudy Dennis, Johny Davis, Beash Bradford, Irene Boswell, Grace Lust, Jennie Reitzer, Billie Meacham and Susie Bradford.

The Thursday Bridge Club met at the Senior Citizens Center with Cleo Forson as hostess. Susie Reeves won high score and Johnnie Vannoy was second high. Others playing were Bernice Hill, Elizabeth Huckabay, Betty Cartwright, Emily Clingsmith, Mary Alice DiCuffa, Oleda Schumacher, Jo Gregory, Rosalie Hawkins and Alice Collyers.

The Friday Bridge Club went to Amarillo and Betty Renfro was the hostess in her lovely new home. Betty served a delicious lunch to Retta Cluck who won high score, Cletha George who was second high, Gladiola Shipley, Betty Cartwright, Opha Burks, Dorothy Elder and Ruth Coleman.

Recently, Anita Morris entertained her bridge club with a luncheon at the Hereford Country Club. Those enjoying the day were Jeanie Miller, Maxine Tidwell, Virginia Gilbreath, Murna Miller, Dorothy Elder, Edna Riley, Sue Merritt and Ann Carpenter.

Mrs. M. L. (Polly) Simpson Jr. attended the Panhandle Judges and Commissioners fall meeting in Amarillo recently. Bill Sarpalus was the main speaker. After the meeting Carolyn and Ronnie Andrews, Kyle and Jim met Polly in Amarillo and they attended the Tri-State Fair. Polly attended the wedding of Lesa Higgins-Brian Spencer in Hart. Lesa is Polly's great niece. Last Sunday Polly and Carolyn and family and Patty Hill and family went to Canyon for lunch with Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Posey.

Beral Hance was in Lubbock Wednesday evening to have dinner with her granddaughters, Tracey and Paige Compton, at the Pancake House on Ave. Q. Tracey is a junior at Texas Tech and Paige is a freshman.

Nolan Froehner's adventures during the past month include a Mini-Revival, directing the music at the First United Methodist Church in Castell, with his brother, Dr.

Calvin Froehner of Austin doing the preaching in the church served years ago by their father, the late Rev. Walter L. Froehner. Castell is a picturesque spot on the banks of the Llano River in Llano County just east of the Mason County line.

Just two weeks later, Nolan went back to the town of Mason itself for the Annual German Hymn Fest at the First United Methodist Church there.

Last Sunday afternoon, Nolan accompanied by Frank Latimer, went to Boys Ranch to see the model and antique car show and to visit with several friends at the ranch and thoroughly enjoyed the drive there and back on the delightful Indian Summer day. Both men visited the Museum and the beautiful modern Boys Ranch Chapel where Nolan played the big Allen Organ while no other activities were going on in the Chapel.

Nolan is at the present time along with his private music

A friend in Need...

The Bible tells the story of the Good Samaritan, who gave aid to a traveler that had been beaten and robbed and left to die.

The churches have made it possible for us to have hospitals and care for those in need of medical help. It is also the church's desire to be a friend in time of spiritual need. "Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Nazareth board sets 18% increase

Nazareth School Board voted to raise its district property tax rate by 18.02% last Thursday. Six citizens were present at the meeting, but no opposition was voiced. The budget adopted by the school board called for an 18.02% increase in taxes and $35,000 put into the budget from certificates of deposit. The budget still fell short $7,936 of estimated expenses for the 1982-83 fiscal year. Superintendent Johnny Mason explained that the school "still has $7,000 or $8,000 left over from last year, and we hope that will make up the difference." The total estimated income for NISD, including the 18.02% increase and $35,000 input, is $730,695. The total expense estimated for the fiscal year is $738,631. The income figure is based on a 95% collection rate. The local maintenance rate is 92 cents and the debt service rate is 8 cents, making the set tax rate $1 per $100 valuation. Nazareth's effective tax rate is 84.73 cents per $100 valuation. Board member Vincent Gerber made the motion to set the rate at $1 per $100 valuation, and Allen Dohmeier seconded it. The motion carried unanimously. Mason explained the reasons for the increase to the citizens present. He cited the cattle and farm machinery exemptions and the homestead act as reasons for the district losing over $400,000 in eligible taxable properties. He also explained that the school loses a certain amount of state aid when it loses students. "We've been losing eight to 12 students a year, and this year we lost 22 and it hurt us worse," he said. The tax increase is the first in four years for the Nazareth district.

Local farmers digging beets

Sugar beet digging is underway in Castro County, and Holly Sugar Corp. representative Calvin Jones reports a "good quality crop" is being gathered in the county. "The sugar is exceeding 14 1/2% and the tonnage looks like from 22 to 24 tons per acre," said Jones, agriculture manager at the Holly plant. He reported that about 6% of the Castro County crop has been gathered.

Livestock Virus warning issued

A non-fatal virus disease affecting cattle, horses and swine has been reported in New Mexico and three other states, and Texas livestock producers should be on the alert for possible outbreaks, according to Dr. James Armstrong, veterinarian for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. The disease, Vesicular Stomatitis, have not yet been reported in Texas, but it could occur, Armstrong said. Symptoms include increased temperature and blisters in the mouth and soles of feet. Animals become dehydrated and lose weight, he said. "Human infection can occur in areas where the disease is prevalent," Armstrong said. "A veterinarian should be contacted immediately if the disease is suspected." A laboratory diagnosis is required to accurately identify the disease. The symptoms are similar to foot and mouth disease, Armstrong said. Vesicular Stomatitis was first reported to federal officials in June. The majority of infected animals are in Colorado, but Arizona and Utah have also reported the disease. "Reports from New Mexico indicate thousands of horses and hundreds of cattle have been affected," Armstrong said. "Canada has requested the U.S. Department of Agriculture not to certify cattle, horses, sheep, goats or pigs from states with the reported disease."

IT IS a melancholy truth that even great men have their poor relations. Dickens

By TEENY BOWDEN

Juan Eliseo Sauseda Jr.

Juan Eliseo Sauseda Jr., son of Eliseo and Petra Sauseda, has graduated from the University of Texas School of Law. He is not, however the only Sauseda to graduate from college. In May, his younger brother, Baldomero graduated from West Texas State University with a bachelor of business administration degree in computer science. He is currently employed as a computer analyst and programmer for Conoco Corp. in Ponca City, Okla.

Also last year, Arjelia Sauseda graduated from WTSU with a degree in secretarial studies and is now working for WTSU's legal counsel. Her husband of four months, Jesse Bermea, plans to work for his dad's company in Del Rio when he receives his marketing degree from WTSU this year.

Another sister, Isabel, completed three years of a four-year program leading to an accounting degree at WTSU. She is now a housewife in Friona and has a baby boy named Adam. Lillie Dobbs moves to Tennessee

By MRS. OWEN ANDREWS

Mrs. Lillie Dobbs moved the last of the week to Sparta, Tenn. She came from there with her husband Henry and their sons to live in this community in 1939, where they lived and farmed and raised their sons, James, Clark and Larry. They moved to Hereford, on Country Club Drive, in the '60s and ran a drive-in restaurant for awhile, then he worked in the sheriff's office for a while until his death in 1972. She had gone to work for Kings Manor in the food department, planning and serving and studying nutrition for the patients there. She did that until a couple of years ago, when she retired.

The Dobbs were always active in the Frio community and especially in Frio Baptist Church, where he was a deacon and she taught Sunday School. The children have been her "specialty" over the years. She has several sisters and brothers living in the area where she plans to make her home and looks forward to a new phase of a very busy life.

A large number of people from the area gathered in Dimmitt last Wednesday afternoon at the First United Methodist Church for the funeral of Mrs. Koma (Hyatt) Ratcliff. She died Sept. 26 in the Dimmitt hospital after a lengthy illness. Mrs. Ratcliff, 71, is remembered here from the days when as a young single woman, she taught school at Frio.

She came in 1931, taught primary grades, with Charles King as principal and teacher of Junior High-age children. He had married Miss Mattie Andrews that spring. The next year, her sister, Miss Ruby Hyatt (now Mrs. Cullen Butler) taught with "Miss Koma," as King moved on to another place. Then Miss Thelma Holly (later Mrs. Fred Axe) taught the upper grades. By then, attendance had dwindled and "Miss Koma" taught alone until moving on elsewhere about 1938. She was loved and remembered by many children who came her way, during the 38 years she taught in public school.

She was active in many phases of the community life, wherever she went, and particularly in the Dimmitt area, where she lived most of her life, and last year was honored as "Citizen Through the Years" there. She was a gentle, kind, unpretentious person who touched and lifted many lives.

Frio Homemakers Club met Tuesday for the first meeting of the new season, in the home of Mrs. Frank Robbins, the club's new president. The ladies brought food for a luncheon together and new yearbook schedules were passed out. Other officers of the club include vice president, Mrs. J. E. Warrick; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Jerry Richardson; reporter, Mrs. Owen Andrews; and consumer buyer, Mrs. E. F.

Vogler. Plans for the year's programs and visiting during the luncheon was the activity of the day. All officers were present and others attending included Mrs. Ted Caro and her mother, Mrs. Esther Ferrell, a visitor from Dallas, Mrs. Laura Jones, Mrs. T. L. Sparkman, Mrs. Clark Andrews, Mrs. Miles Caudle, Mrs. Eugene Baldwin, Mrs. Earl Harkins, Mrs. Billy Warrick and Miss Alma Andrews.

Bobcats post big 33-7 Homecoming win

IN the 1700's there were reports that the Northern Lights could be seen as far south as Peru.

When a team runs 15 fewer total plays than its opponents, it usually spells bad news. Last Friday night, though, Dimmitt used a big play offense and another strong defensive effort for a 33-7 Homecoming win over Boys Ranch at Bobcat Stadium. Dimmitt, now 3-2 on the season, struck for 27 first-half points, while holding the Roughriders, now 2-3 on the season, to a single touchdown after a Bobcat turnover deep in its own territory. The Bobcats averaged almost eight yards per play, as they picked up 325 yards, 214 of them in the first half. Five different Bobcats scored, and three Bobcats had 80 or more rushing yards. Dimmitt's only sustained drive came on the second possession of the night, as the Bobcats drove 40 yards on 7 plays. Tailback Mark Bruegel, seeing his first action since the first half of the Plains game, barreled over from a yard out with 5:06 left in the first quarter. Johnny Nino kicked his first of three extra points to put Dimmitt ahead, 7-0. Bruegel, seeing limited action, picked up 80 yards on 14 carries. After forcing the third Boys Ranch punt of the first quarter, an almost-blocked 14 yarder, the Bobcats struck again on the first play. Quarterback Richard Guzman hit tight end Jeff Watts over the middle at the 40. Watts turned and outraced two Roughriders to the end zone for a 46 yard touchdown. Nino's extra point made the score 14-0 with 3:18 left in the opening period. Dimmitt's only lost fumble of the night set up the only Boys Ranch score of the night, as connections were missed on a handoff at the Bobcat 14. The Bobcats held Boys Ranch to just a yard on three plays, but the Roughriders opted for a fourth down pass play. Jeff Poindexter slipped behind everyone in the end zone to catch Benji Adams' touchdown toss. Justin Waldrip hit the extra point to put Boys Ranch back within seven at 14-7 with 9:27 left in the first half. The Bobcats were beginning to move the ball down the field when Roughrider John McClain picked off a Guzman pass at the Boys Ranch 20; however, Dimmitt forced a turnover at the 15. Guzman, two plays later, faked the handoff and kept around right end for an 11 yard touchdown. Nino tacked on the extra to make it a 21-7 game with 6:58 left in the second stanza. Boys Ranch punted out of trouble with a 44 yard quick kick, but Dimmitt struck again just two plays later. Fullback Johnny Gonzales, who picked up 92 yards on just three carries, bolted up the middle and by everyone for a 35 yard touchdown scamper. The extra point kick veered off to the side, but Dimmitt had put it out of reach at 27-7 with 4:45 left till halftime. Boys Ranch had just 48 total yards at halftime, and had given the ball to Dimmitt on six of seven possessions, with four punts and two lost fumbles. The Roughriders more than tripled their total during the second half, as they ran off twice as many plays as the Bobcats (32-16), but couldn't get closer than the Dimmitt 20 yard line during the final two quarters. Dimmitt's final touchdown of the night came in the first two minutes of the third quarter, as Sid Sageser, the Bobcats leading rusher on the night with 116 yards on just 10 carries, barreled up the middle from the Boys Ranch 49. Nino's extra point kick was wide to the right. Dimmitt led 33-7, and let the defense do the talking. During the second half, the Roughriders ran off 32 plays, and kept the ball for 18 of 24 minutes. Most of the Boys Ranch yardage came through the air, as Adams hit on seven of nine passes. The longest gain, though, was 20 yards.

TOUCHDOWN!—Dimmitt quarterback Richard Guzman (in white helmet) races into the end zone midway through the second quarter for the Bobcats' third touchdown against the Boys Ranch Roughriders in the DHS Homecoming game Friday night. The Bobcats put on their best offensive show so far this year as they downed the Roughriders, 33-7.

In Cat-fight Friday

Bobs to face Wilds

Everybody in District 2-3A is 0-0 this week, as the football season begins for real this Friday night. Dimmitt will get its sternest test of the year to date Friday night, as the Bobcats travel to Littlefield for the conference opener at 7:30. Littlefield, 4-1 on the year, brings in a balanced running-passing attack. The Wildcats, defending quarterfinalists from this area in Class 3A, have been beset by injuries in the backfield all season long, with returning starter Larry Cantu, and highly touted freshman Ronnie Willard both going out early. Cantu played a key role last week, though, when the Wildcats ran roughshod over Floydada, 43-0, and should be close to 100 percent this week. Willard could be ready to go, too. Quarterback Bryan Gregory is back for his third year as Littlefield's offensive leader. Gregory has a record of 28-3 over the last three years, and was the all-district quarterback last year. One of his favorite targets, tight end Pat Demel, at 6-3, 205, returned for his fourth year. Demel really stands out on defense, though, where he has been all-district for two years in a row. Last year, he added all-South Plains plaudits to his list. Gregory was also all-conference at safety last year. Littlefield's only loss this year was a 31-6 defeat at the hands of the number one Post Antelopes, 21-6 two weeks ago. Littlefield just got by Slaton, 3-0, squeaked by Frenship, and blasted Lubbock Roosevelt.

They'll go into Friday's game with an advantage size-wise against the Bobcats, as the Wildcats average close to 200 pounds a man along the line. Tackles Scott Lewis and Adrian Solis will head up the line for Littlefield. For the Bobcats, they go into the contest with their best record after five games, at 3-2, since 1976. Dimmitt's defense, one of the top three in the region while giving up just over 140 yards per game, will get one of its stiffest tests of the year. Gregory has averaged throwing for over 90 yards per game in his two-plus years at quarterback, and Littlefield will have one of the speediest backfields the Bobcats have faced. Turnovers could again play a key role in the game, as Dimmitt has forced 14 turnovers, while giving up the ball seven times. Another key will be offensive continuity. The Bobcats have had problems with sustaining offensive drives this year, and time of possession could be another factor in the ball game. In other conference action this week, Friona is at home against Tulia, while Abernathy takes on Muleshoe in Muleshoe. Game time is 7:30, up 30 minutes, for the district openers.

When U.S. Astronaut Neil Armstrong made the first footprint on the moon, he and his partners Buzz Aldrin and Mike Collins fulfilled a centuries-old dream for all mankind. It was a triumph of a great network of partners that spanned generations, uniting the discoveries of the past with the skills, courage and imagination of thousands of scientists, engineers and others. Junior High teams win Dimmitt's 8th and 7th grade football teams both recorded wins last Thursday when hosting Boys Ranch. John Ewing scored the 8th grade's only touchdown in the first stanza on a five-yard run. Scott Hill ran in the extra points, to make it an 8-0 win. Jeremy Warren ran three touchdowns in leading the 7th grade team to a 24-6 win. He scored on runs of three, 13, and 14 yards. He also ran in one extra-point conversion and passed to Stacy Gonzales for the other two.

Rodney Schulte carried 18 times for 72 yards and a touchdown for Nazareth Friday night in a District 2-A North Zone game at Vega.

The Swifts gave up their first points and game of the season to the number 17 ranked Vega Longhorns as they were defeated 27-6.

The Swifts held the Longhorns scoreless the first quarter, but allowed them two touchdowns in the second quarter. All of Vega's scores came from four of their fourteen seniors on the team.

The first Vega touchdown came on a 2-yard plunge by Brian Taylor with 8:11 left in the second quarter. The kick by Joe Potter was good and made the score 7-0.

With 4:49 left in the half, Joe Potter broke loose for a 31-yard run to score Vega's second touchdown. Nazareth blocked the kick. The Longhorns went into the dressing room with a 13-0 lead.

Lane Mason scored the third Vega touchdown on a 16-yard run with 4:03 left in the third quarter. The kick by Potter was good.

The last Vega touchdown was made by John Robinson on a 21-yard run with 2:33 left to play in the third quarter. The kick by Potter was good and concluded Vega's scoring for the night with a 27-0 lead.

Nazareth's only touchdown came from one of only two seniors on the team, Rodney Schulte, on a 1-yard run in the fourth quarter. The kick by Schulte failed; leaving the score 27-6.

The Swifts had 11 first downs, but still had to punt 8 times for an average of 37 yards. The Swifts amassed 187 yards — 79 on the ground and 108 in the air.

Coach Ken Cole of Nazareth said, "We gave up 2 big plays in the middle of the first half and that put us in a position where we had to open our offense and we couldn't. We were extremely satisfied with the effort of the guys. They showed the most effort they ever have, but we need to correct some mental mistakes to reach the playoffs.

"We feel like we played as well as we could in the fourth quarter," commented Coach Cole, "Johnny and Marvin Schmucker, George Hochstein, Rodney Schulte, Francis Kern and Eric Wilhelm played better than anyone else."

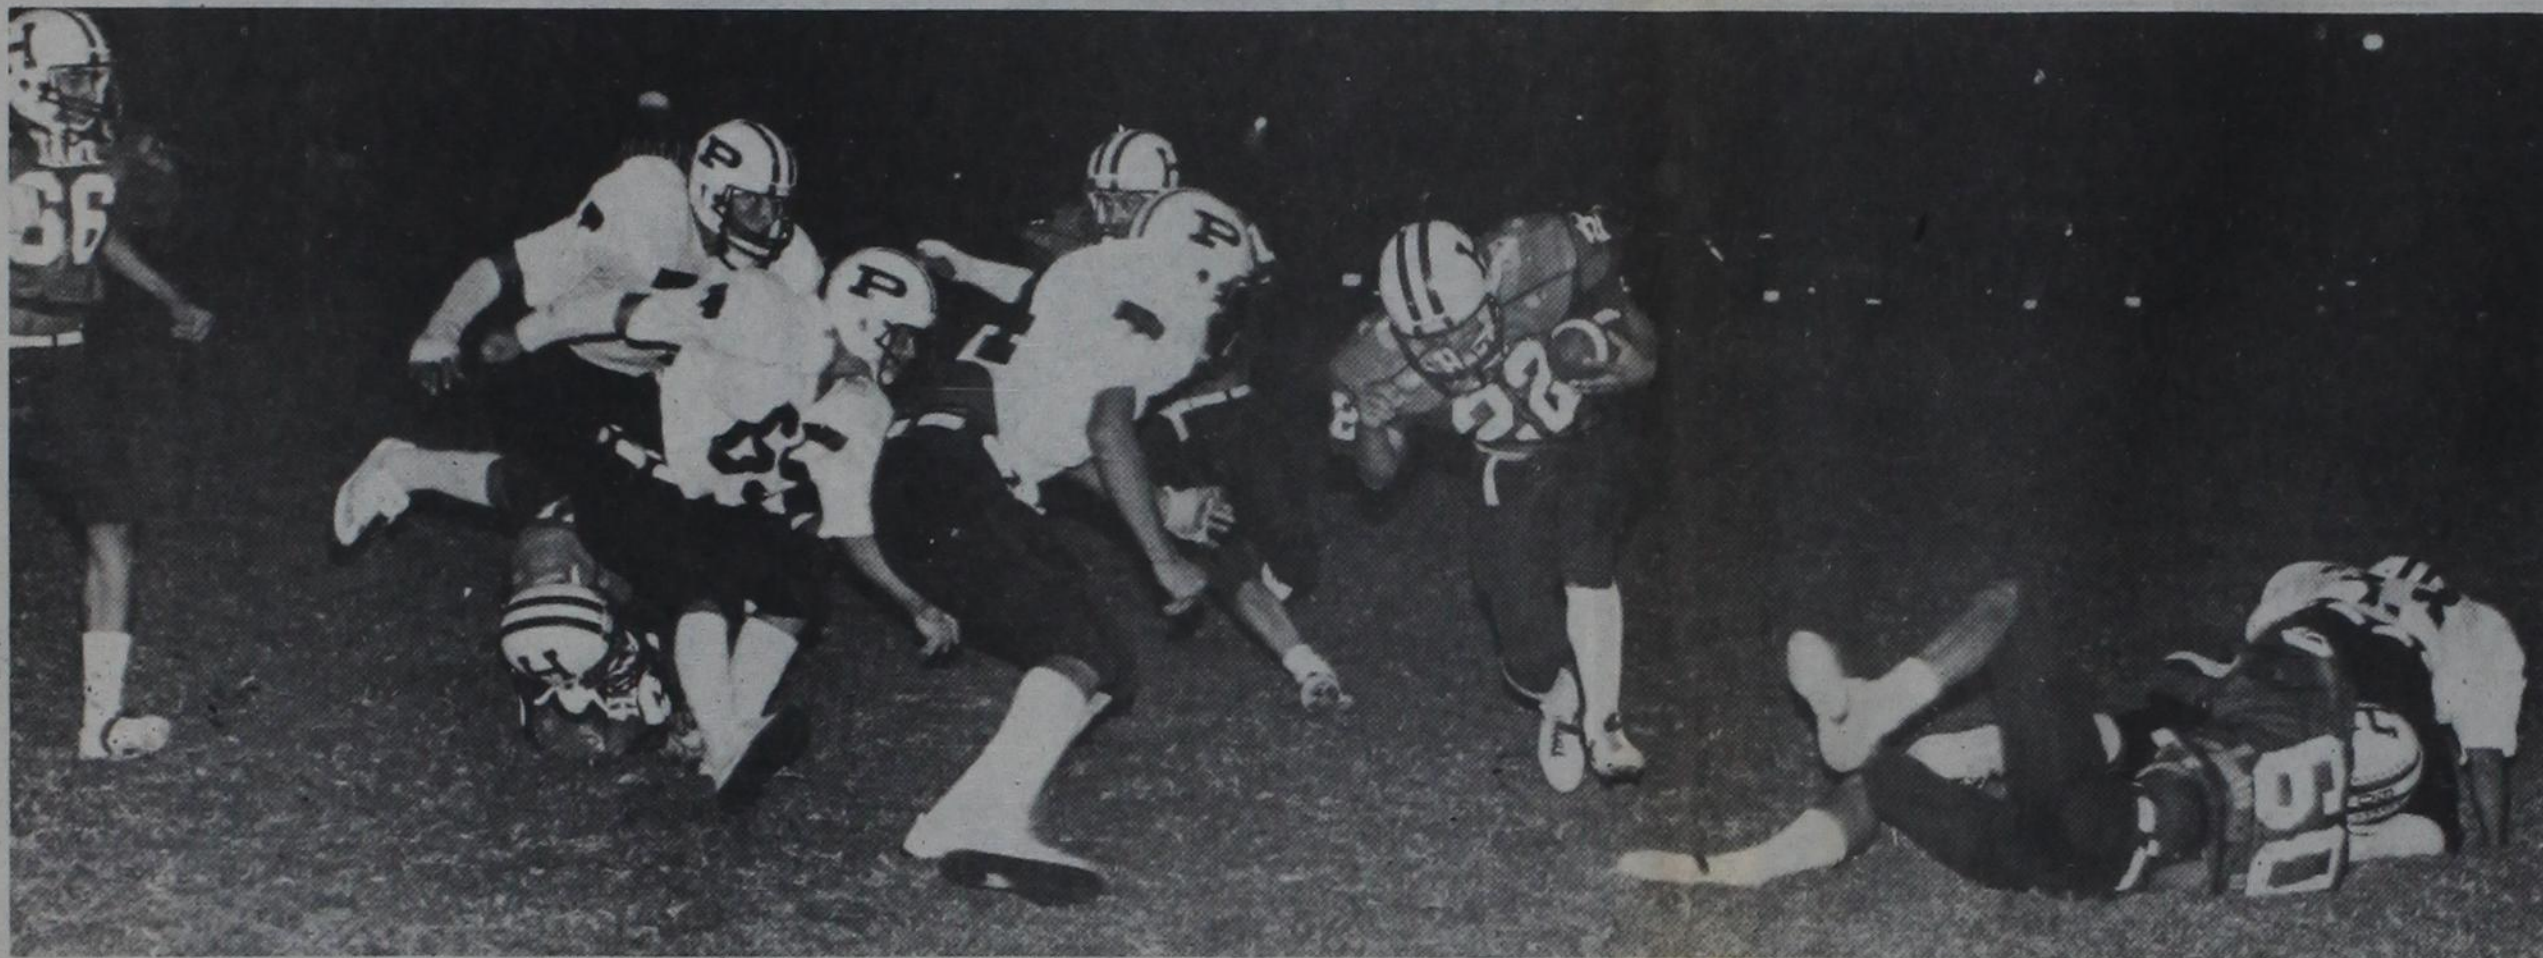

Nazareth will host the Valley Patriots this week in their homecoming game. Coach Cole said, "This is our big homecoming game and we have a good opportunity to win." Game time is 7:30.

COLLISION COURSE—Hart halfback Alex Carrasco [22] ducks his head and prepares for a collision with three Petersburg

Petersburg player, and at left, Arnie Garza [66] races in to help. The visiting Buffaloes won the hard-fought game, 12-0.

Big Buffaloes stampede Hart Homecoming, 12-0

Friday night was Homecoming at Hart High School, as the Longhorns entertained the always tough Petersburg Buffaloes. The Buffaloes scratched out a hard-fought 12-0 victory.

It did not take the Buffaloes long to get untracked. On the second play from scrimmage tailback Trent Clark found a seam right up the middle and raced 74 yards for the game's first score. The try for the point after was mishandled, leaving the score at 6-0 with 11:08 still remaining in the first quarter.

Neither team mustered much offense until late in the second period. Petersburg put together a good 60-yard drive, ending it with a 26-yard scoring toss from quarterback Ted Matthews to tight end David McDonough with 2:03 left in the half. The run for two points failed, giving the Buffaloes a 12-0 lead.

Hart's defense played a solid first half except for two big plays by Petersburg. Hart punter, Robert Martinez booted punts of 44 and 60 yards in the first half. However, the inability of the Longhorn offense to sustain any kind of drive resulted in a 12-0 Buffalo halftime lead.

The third quarter was a real defensive battle as neither team was able to put together any type of offensive threat.

In the final stanza, however, the Longhorns mounted one final surge. Facing a second and nine at the Buffaloes' 39 yard line, Hart quarterback Coy Myrick threw to Freddy Washington who was interfered with at the four-yard line. Hart now had first and goal from the Petersburg four, but the Buffaloes' defense stiffened and held the Longhorns on downs. The Longhorns did not give up, thus forcing Petersburg to punt the ball away. Two plays after the punt, Hart fullback Chris Reyna ripped off a 25-yard gain down to the Buffaloes' 25-yard line. However, a last ditch pass was intercepted giving Petersburg a tough 12-0 victory. Petersburg's record now stands at 2-2-1, while Hart falls to 2-3 on the year.

Hart Longhorn coach Ken Hoskins commented, "Our defense did a really good job, especially if you take away those two big plays. Petersburg has a real physical ballclub and they were very well coached. If we could have gotten into the end zone late in the game, the outcome just might have been different, but we didn't. Our youngsters have really improved this year, but we must continue to improve if we are going to be a factor in the district race."

Hart travels to Kress for both teams' district opener Friday. Kress is the defending district champion. Game time is set for 7:30 p.m.

Caribbean wedding trip follows formal ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Craig Mitchner Vandiver are at home in Midland following a honeymoon cruise to the Caribbean. They were wed Aug. 21 at 2 p.m. in a formal, double-ring ceremony at the First Baptist Church in Pampa.

Rev. Claude Cone, pastor, officiated for the reading of the vows before an altar flanked with white columns topped with a profusion of multi-colored silk flowers. The music rails were strung with boxweed and baby's breath that complemented the white satin kneeling bench. The pews along the bridal path were marked with antique satin ribbons that clasped clusters of Phalaenopsis silk orchids.

The bride is the former Leanna Kay Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Howard of Darrouzett, and the groom's parents are Dr. and Mrs. Charles M. Vandiver of Dimmitt.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a gown of candlelight angel chiffon, veiled over antique peau de soie. A frosting of Venice lace appliques enhanced the slightly raised bib bodice that featured a scoop neckline. The elbow-length sleeves were trimmed with matching lace and fell to a cape back. The A-line skirt flowed to a matinee-length with a slight train. Matching elbow-length gauntlets were of ivory net with Venice lace appliques dotted with seed pearls.

She carried a cascade of Stephanotis, English ivy, white daisies and baby's breath, with matching ribbons that highlighted the detachable cymbidium orchid corsage. Her attire was completed with a halo headpiece of ivory net encrusted with wild roses and buds, which were intertwined with narrow loops of ribbons and bows that gave a veil effect and hung to the waist. The ribbons were caught up at intervals with lily-of-the-valley blooms.

Following tradition, the bride wore a strand of pearls, belonging to the groom's aunt, for something old and something borrowed, her dress for something new and a garter for something blue. In her shoe she carried a sixpence that was a gift from Mrs. L. C. Hewitt of Hereford.

Mrs. Janet Giles, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. Kendra Kennedy of Pampa and Jeanette Kelley of Plainview served as bridesmaids. They all wore identical gowns designed by Joseph of New York. The blue printed chiffon gowns featured a blossom bodice with spaghetti straps, and were fitted at the waistline. The skirts fell in two layers of handkerchief hemline points to matinee length and were completed with a chiffon cape which fell to matching points. They carried traditional nosegays in matching colors, and wore sprays of baby's breath and miniature blue silk roses in their hair.

Loren Vandiver, brother of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Andrew P. Kemp of Fort Worth and Lance Davis of Houston.

Mrs. Randy Howard, sister-in-law of the bride, registered the guests. Traditional wedding music was provided by organist Mrs. Doris Goad. Dr. Charles Vandiver, father of the groom, sang "The Wedding Song - There is Love," "The Twelfth of Never," and "The Wedding Prayer" by Dunlap.

Following the ceremony, the reception was held in the church parlor. The bride's table was covered with a flowing white organdy cloth topped with draped valances. Silver appointments and blue tapers complemented the heart-shaped, three-tiered wedding cake. Bouquets of fresh daisies adorned each tier, and each layer was festooned with delicate blue forget-me-nots and ivory and blue daisies. A profusion of baby's breath circled the cake.

Mrs. Sara Salinas presided at the groom's table, which was draped with a navy blue, floor-length cloth circled with a quilted valance. Brass appointments complemented the chocolate cake festooned with assorted fruits and grapes. A brass oil derrick was centered with a fountain arrangement atop gold carnations, spirea and maidenhair.

For her wedding trip the bride chose a navy blue linen suit with multi-colored, checked silk jacket. Her accessories were toast colored.

The bride is a 1982 graduate of Wayland Baptist University with a degree in business administration.

The groom is a 1981 graduate of Texas Tech University with a degree in geology. He is employed as a field geologist with Permian Logging Co. of Midland.

Daniel Paul Proffitt was born at 2:20 p.m. Monday at Plains Memorial Hospital in Dimmitt. He is the son of Wayne and Paula Proffitt. He weighed 7 pounds, 8 ounces and was 19½ inches long.

Newlyweds are at home in Dimmitt

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Wait are at home in Dimmitt following their honeymoon trip to New Mexico after their Sept. 25 wedding in Dimmitt.

The bride is the former Connie Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Price of Friona. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wait of Dimmitt.

The ceremony was held in the First Christian Church of Dimmitt, with Roy E. Baringer, minister, officiating.

Paula Allen, of Friona, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. Best man was John Wait Sr. of Dimmitt, the father of the groom.

Mike Smothermon and Victor Valdez, both of Dimmitt, served as ushers, and candlelighters were John Wait Jr., brother of the groom, and Dannelte Wait, sister of the groom.

Organ selections of "O Promise Me" and the traditional wedding march were played by Mrs. Bedford Smith.

The front of the church was decorated with two seven-candle candelabras and a brass archway, all covered with greenery. Behind the archway was centered a unity candle, which was jointly lit by the bride and groom and their parents. Blue satin ribbons marked the aisles.

Given in marriage by Buck Bush, the bride was attired in a formal-length gown of ecru satin, featuring a Chantilly lace overlay. The bodice was decorated with pearl buttons, as were the Victorian-styled sleeves.

Her finger-tip veil of Chantilly lace was adorned with a crown of pearls, and her bouquet was comprised of blue and white carnations and white daisies, accented by blue and white ribbons.

The maid of honor wore a floor-length blue satin dress and carried a long-stemmed blue and white carnation.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the fellowship hall. The bride's cake was three tiered and decorated with a pair of lovebirds surrounded by blue flowers. The groom's heart-shaped cake also featured two lovebirds holding gold wedding bands.

Mrs. Katy Cole served cake, and Gayla Stowers and Tammy Bush served punch and coffee. Belinda Eddins sat at the registry table.

The bride attended Melrose High School and plans to be a homemaker. The groom attended Dimmitt High School and is a member of the Army National Guard.

Parker talks at Rotary

Ronnie Parker, an agent for Bankers Life Insurance, gave a classification of insurance talk Friday to Rotary Club members.

He talked about buying life insurance and a revolution in life insurance called "Universal Life."

Parker said traditionally there have been two kinds of insurance, term insurance (for a period of time) and permanent policies which let you invest and receive dividends.

He said Universal Life will be a third type of insurance which will let you buy term insurance and invest the difference. "This lets your money accumulate and at present it is tax sheltered," he said.

Parker said that when a person retires he may take out the money and must pay taxes as he takes it out.

"Universal Life is here, it is safe and it is a vehicle one can use for protection and investment," Parker said. There were 17 members present at the meeting.

Re-elect Bill Hobby Lieutenant Governor

P.O. Box 567 Austin, Texas 78767 512-473-8781

Dear Citizens of CASTRO COUNTY:

CASTRO COUNTY, and Texas as a whole, are facing some difficult times. Recent layoffs in our oilfields and other major industries and the problems confronting our farmers, ranchers and older Texans must be addressed without delay.

These major problems, combined with federal budget cuts and the demands of our growing population, are affecting state spending and will require careful decision making on the part of your government leaders. In these times, you need leaders who have the strength and experience to make the difficult decisions and the compassion to guard your interests.

There are no instant solutions to the national recession, but I will help insure that we strengthen job opportunities by maintaining a healthy economic climate that encourages business development. This can be accomplished only by continued prudent state spending and keeping our tax burdens low.

Our educational system has advanced significantly in the past nine years, but there is still room for improvement. My efforts to improve the quality of public education for your children and grandchildren will begin in the classroom -- by improving teacher salaries and benefits and by giving more control to local school districts.

Our past approach to crime has won us many battles but now is the time for a new approach. For this reason, I will ask the 1983 Legislature to approve a comprehensive strategy that attacks crime on all fronts - police, courts and corrections.

It has been a privilege and an honor to have served you as Lieutenant Governor for the past nine years. I am asking for your support on November 2 so that I can use my experience and leadership to help face the important challenges confronting you and all other Texans.

Sincerely,

Bill Hobby

Mrs. Kleman tours Canada

By VIRGIE GERBER
Clara Kleman recently returned from a sightseeing tour of the Canadian Maritime Provinces. A group of 36 people, mostly from the Amarillo and Panhandle area, flew to Toronto, Ontario, then on to St. John's, Newfoundland. There they were met by their tour guide, a charming young lady, who stayed with them the entire trip. They left St. John's by bus following the Trans-Canada Highway across the Province of Newfoundland. A six hour ferry ride took them to Cape Breton Island and the mainland of Nova Scotia. They toured northeastern part of Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island and the eastern and northern coastline of New Brunswick to Quebec, then along the Gulf and River of St. Lawrence to Quebec City. After two nights and a day, the group returned home by plane.

Gables' and the Woodleigh Replicas on Prince Edward Island. A boat trip around Perce Rock, a huge block of granite with a large hole through it, off the east coast of Quebec, was very interesting. Another highlight was a lobster dinner. Each guest was served a whole lobster, after having eaten raw oysters on the half shell, various kinds of clams, mussels and other fish delicacies. At another time the group tried fried codfish tongues and a dish called "fish and bruise." It is the cheek of the codfish boiled and mixed with bread and a white sauce. Clara says it is good, but she will leave the fried cod tongues where they are! She also said it is lucky they tried all of this before they went through a fish processing plant. All of the group agreed Prince Edward Island was the prettiest place they visited and that Toronto is a beautiful and very clean city. Paul, Lillian and Joe Venhaus enjoyed the weekend at Hobbs, N.M. with the Harold Venhaus family. Their grandson, Kevin Gerber, formerly of Carlsbad, lives with the Harold Venhaus family. They also visited with Neal and Susie Dobmeier and their children. Charley, Bev, Todd and Traci Hill enjoyed the weekend at Red River. They reported the scenery was beautiful this time of year. Liz Hoelting, Juanita, Dean and Darryl Schacher and Charlene Venhaus drove to Taos, N.M. this weekend to see the scenery. They said it was really beautiful, especially between Taos and Red River. A belated 87th birthday dinner and family reunion was held in the Nazareth Legion Hall on Sunday for Mrs. Frank Huseman. Those attending were the families of Louis, Denis, Al, Willa Faye Huseman and A.B. Huseman, Urban and Coleen Huseman of Calif., Sister Genesore of Fort Smith, Ark., Kenneth Murrel, Donald Annen and Sophie Braddock of Amarillo, Mrs. Rose Annen of Hereford, Father Waldow, Rudy and Mary Litsch. There were 70 in attendance. Hubert Backus and Jim Hoelting returned Saturday from Osage Beach, Mo., where they attended a week of management training.

Hightower said he would implement include formation of a task force to develop a comprehensive plan for dealing with what he termed "discriminatory intrastate freight rates"; the re-establishment of farmers' markets, where producers bring their produce into town to sell directly to consumers; aid for development of new crops that would open up new marketing opportunities; expansion and upgrading of the functions of the international marketing staff; and the possible establishment of a committee whose sole function would be to monitor federal regulations and policies. In a recent speech here, Thornberry tabbed Hightower as having "no experience, no qualifications and no training in agriculture." Hightower responded that he grew up on a farm, currently owns 1,500 acres and has done some farming himself. "But the purpose of the Agriculture Commission is not to teach farmers how to farm," Hightower said. "It should be to help them with problems and to influence whoever needs to be influenced to develop fair policies so that the farmer can make a profit. The commissioner will need to be able to deal with marketing, policy making, etc. My opponent's doctoral thesis was on chicken physiology - not the kind of thing to qualify a person for doing battle in political circles." Hightower noted that in the past he has been an aide to the US Senate Agricultural Appropriations Committee and has worked closely with the Texas Legislature. In answer to charges by Thornberry that Hightower is against the Extension Service, Hightower said that he thinks the Extension Service is doing a good job. "In 1977, I wrote a book analyzing the use of federal research money, and found that too much of the money was not being used for the purposes it was set aside for. Even the Extension Service agreed with my findings in a self-study report they released. My opponent has tried to construe from out-of-context excerpts from my book that I'm out to do away with the Extension Service. That is simply not true," Hightower said. In his dealings with the commission staff, Hightower said, he does not intend to tamper with the regulatory aspects, unless necessary. He added that he will not "go in with an axe and start chopping." "Of course, some of the people will have to give because they won't be able to agree with my philosophy of running the commission, but that should only involve about 60 out of 600 employees," Hightower said. "The commission has the resources available, and I intend to make the best use out of them to help the producers," he said.

system, for education on alcohol abuse, to upgrade ambulance regulations, and for agricultural research. Sarpalius plans to try for improvements in the Federal Crop Insurance Program. "Right now it's not much use," he said, adding that if the necessary changes were made in the program he would work on legislation which would allow premium payments to be shared by the federal government, the state and the individual farmer, at one-third each. Sarpalius said he would be looking at setting up a foreign office in Mexico to market products directly with Mexico, and he will be looking at a form of deregulation for the transportation of perishable agriculture commodities during the harvest season. He will be striving to improve agriculture research and to increase the number of technicians in the soil and water conservation program, he said. Sarpalius' Republican opponent is Republican John Kirchoff.

Counseling available for Vietnam veterans

Amarillo Veterans Administration Medical Center has recently awarded contracts to two local agencies for counseling troubled Vietnam veterans.

According to Medical Center director, Paul Grogan, the contracts were awarded to the Amarillo Guidance and Counseling Center, 900 South Lincoln Street, and to Northwest Texas Hospital Pavilion, 7201 Evans, in the Medical Center.

Readjustment counseling for the Vietnam era veteran is available for those veterans experiencing a variety of adjustment problems including marital stress, difficulty holding jobs, depression, sudden rage or memory impairment. These and other kinds of problems could be related to delayed stress which has been experienced by numbers of Vietnam era veterans.

Vietnam era veterans desiring readjustment counseling should contact Carole Babb or Jim Murphy in the Social Service Department at the Amarillo VAMC, 355-9703, extension 286 or 297.

They will be available to discuss the outreach counseling program with you and assist you with a referral to either Amarillo Guidance and Counseling or Northwest Texas Hospital.

Both of these organizations have Vietnam era veterans and other qualified staff who will offer readjustment counseling.

teaching also making a survey of all persons that would be interested in getting our very own Community Concert Series performed annually in Dimmitt instead of our Castro Countians going to Plainview, Hereford, Lubbock or wherever towns reciprocate memberships. This would bring in people from these neighboring towns to Dimmitt along with still leaving the out-of-town series available to membership holders.

Forty individual memberships were subscribed for the Plainview series this 1982-83 Season with probably an equal or larger number subscribed to the Hereford Series. That's some 80 to 100 people going out-of-town/county usually eating out there as well as buying gas.

The Texas Association of County Treasurers held their conference in El Paso Sept. 21, 22 and 23. There were 921 treasurers registered, including Castro County Treasurer Oleta Raper.

NATIONAL 4-H WEEK

4-H'ers stay busy along 'Pathways to the Future'

Encouraging 4-H members to become responsible, productive citizens is the purpose of "Pathways to the Future," the theme of National 4-H Week, Oct. 3-9.

"During National 4-H Week, nearly five million 4-H Members across the nation will rededicate their heads to clearer thinking, their hearts to greater loyalty, their hands to larger service and their health to better living," said Dr. John Pelham, state 4-H and youth leader with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Members of America's largest out-of-state youth educational organization and 568,000 volunteer leaders will celebrate with activities aimed at promoting individual growth and accomplishment, creativity, social responsibility and family involvement, he said.

Texas boasts about 140,000 members and has a support force of some 19,000 junior, teen and adult volunteer leaders.

Reviewing 4-H projects in Texas, Pelham pointed out that the top five projects the past year were food-nutrition, electric, safety, clothing and horse.

"4-H members learn far more than specific skills with projects such as food-nutrition, animal science, forestry or gardening," Pelham said. "They also learn to keep accurate records, make oral presentations and develop lifelong management, consumer and communications skills."

Clubs have the option of voting on a theme or long-range project each year. In addition, individual members can carry out his or her own personal projects.

Some projects can be carried out best by the team or group method, such as method demonstrations (twos) or team judging (usually four to a team). Some project areas have so many participants that special-interest clubs are formed, such as the horse club and the trap shooting club.

Castro County has five community clubs — Bethel, Dimmitt, Easter, Flagg and Nazareth — as well as special project clubs.

Here's what the county's five community clubs have been doing during the year:

Dimmitt

The Dimmitt 4-H Club meets the second Wednesday of each month in the basement of the courthouse.

Meeting time is at 4 p.m. The leaders this year are Yvonne Huffines, Susan Hanners and Charlene Hunter. Officers of the club are president, Anessa Scott; vice president, Charlyn Hunter; Secretary-Treasurer, Trisha Huffines and reporter, Mat Bradley.

The next meeting is next Wednesday. Members will leave the courthouse by 4 p.m. to go to Hereford to tour Arrowhead Mills. Anyone wanting to go should be at the courthouse by 3:45 p.m. or as soon after school as possible.

Some other things Dimmitt 4-H'ers will be doing this year are touring the county jail, a program on auctioneering, stock grooming, leathercraft and hearing from the foreign exchange student.

The members learn about many things in 4-H. They have food and nutrition projects, clothing, raising stock, horse club, record books and how to be better citizens in the community.

The county banquet will be Saturday and Dimmitt 4-H members plan to have a great time getting to know 4-H'ers from the entire county.

In the summertime, there are several camps that 4-H'ers can attend. There is a three-day camp at Brownwood that runs for about six weeks throughout the summer. There is a team leader lab camp and an electric camp also. Check with the Extension office for more details.

Flagg

The Flagg 4-H Club had a busy year last year and is looking forward to many activities for the 1982-83 year.

The club will present a program on 'Bread Making in a Bag' this year. Members will tour Arrowhead Mills.

They also plan a Christmas party.

Scott Nelson will present a program on his trip to Europe.

A drug presentation will be made, programs on leathercrafts, parliamentary procedure and lifesaving will be presented.

Members will make a museum tour and will enjoy a Family Barbecue during the coming year.

Easter

The Easter 4-H club is planning many activities in the upcoming year.

The group will tour the radio station. They will tour a tortilla factory and work on a related food project.

Energas will present a demonstration for club members, and a foreign exchange student will speak to the group.

At Christmas, members plan to go caroling and deliver Christmas baskets.

They will attend stock shows, and see a demonstration on Entomology.

Club members also will participate in spring cleaning for the community.

Bethel

The Bethel 4-H Club has two tours planned for this year.

The Cowgirl Hall of Fame at Hereford and Ranch Heritage Center at Lubbock will be enjoyed by our 21 members.

At our installation banquet Kelly Howell and Coby Moke were chosen outstanding boys for the Bethel 4-H Club for 1982. The club is going to do some nice things for the patients at South Hills Manor this year as one project.

Other projects included stock show animals, baking, arts and crafts, and safety. Leaders for this year are George and Pat Bagley and Don and Carolyn Moke.

Nazareth

The Nazareth 4-H Club has been very active this past year. The members have participated in a wide variety of projects.

Lea Ann Huseman and Mark Huseman served as council delegates for the county.

Last fall 16 girls enjoyed the food and nutrition classes taught by leaders Mildred Birkenfeld and Joan Durbin.

After competing in the County Food Show, several of the girls advanced to the District Show at Lubbock. Patsy Birkenfeld, Loreale Acker, Jenny Brockman, Janet Huseman and Mary Jean Huseman represented the county at the district show. Mary Jean Huseman was alternate to the state show in the main dish division.

Forty-one members carried projects in livestock. After much work all fall and winter, several were winners in both the Nazareth and County shows. Mark Huseman showed the Grand Champion steer in both the Nazareth and County shows. Breed Champion Yorkshire barrow in the county show was shown by Scott Huseman and Nicki Schulte had the Reserve Breed Chester White Barrow.

Several members attended the Houston Livestock Show. While Roger Huseman and Mark Kleman were showing the dairy heifers they had won at the 1981 Houston rodeo, three younger members, John Kleman, Bruce Huseman and Frankie Huseman were busy catching their calves in the dairy division of the calf scramble.

Six boys traveled to Texas A&M to participate in 4-H State Round-Up during June. Bart and Mike Huseman presented a method demonstration on reloading shells, after having won the district contest. Mark and John Kleman and Lonny and Roger Huseman earned their trip by winning the dairy judging contest on the district level. While the boys were busy with these various contests,

More than 300,000 youth and adults, including many from this area, have participated in citizenship and leadership programs at the National 4-H Center in Chevy Chase, Md. (suburban Washington, D.C.), since this residential educational facility opened in 1959.

During National 4-H Week, Oct. 3-9, nearly five million 4-H members will rededicate their heads to clearer thinking, their hearts to greater loyalty, their hands to larger service and their health to better living.

the girls were learning to sew with leaders Catherine Hochstein, Mildred Birkenfeld and Judy Acker. Eight girls modeled in the County Dress Revue and Melissa Brockman and Bobbie Hochstein advanced to district, where they received blue ribbons.

Wade Durbin, Leroy Schulte, Bart and Mike Huseman enjoyed the weekly trap shooting meets during the summer. After attending several contests around the panhandle, Bart placed on the county team that represented Castro County at the state meet at San Antonio.

Six members participated in and completed the entomology project taught by entomologist Allen Knutson.

Curtis and Phillip Durbin, Russell Acker and Leroy Schulte attended Teen Leader Lab in Levelland this summer. Enjoying while learning at Electric Camp in Cloudcroft, N.M., were Dorothy Durbin, Patsy Birkenfeld, Kevin Hoelting and Bruce and Frankie Huseman.

The summer months were highlighted with a skating party during June and a swimming party during July.

At the local 4-H Awards Banquet this month, Patsy Birkenfeld and Bart Huseman were recognized as the outstanding girl and boy. Carlos Calvert was the guest speaker.

Challenged with the task of leading the club through another successful year are Janet Huseman, president; Bart Huseman, vice-president; Dorothy Durbin, secretary; Patsy Birkenfeld, treasurer; Mike Huseman, parliamentarian; Lonny Huseman, reporter; Mary Jean Huseman and Mark Kleman, council delegates.

GOLD STAR 4-H GIRL AND BOY for 1981-82 are Mary Jean Huseman of the Nazareth 4-H Club and Scott Simpson of the Dimmitt 4-H Club. Miss Huseman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Huseman, has served as her club's president, has been a 4-H junior leader in food and nutrition, and has carried projects in food and nutrition, clothing, mechanical and hand skills, gardening and child care. Simpson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Simpson, has served as club president and chairman of the County 4-H Council. He was on the livestock judging team and has carried projects in beef, swine, shooting sports and dairy categories. Their successors as the outstanding 4-H boy and girl in the county will be announced at the annual 4-H Awards Banquet Saturday night in the County Expo Building.

4-H is aimed at education

4-H, the youth development program of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, is aimed at educating young people.

"4-H can help youth between the ages of 9 and 19 develop intelligent behavior by providing them information or knowledge, a positive self-concept and an awareness of their social setting," points out Charles Gardner of Overton, 4-H and youth specialist with the Extension Service.

Without information or knowledge, a young person has no basis on which to act. But just learning a list of rules and facts will not satisfy personal or social needs. Instead, an effective youth program focuses on relevant knowledge and the development of a knowledge-getting process.

"When a 4-H'er identifies what 4-H project he wants to do and how he wants to do it, he is learning how to learn," says Gardner.

Along with information and a knowledge-getting process, a young person must feel that he or she is capable of solving a problem. When he does feel able or capable, he has developed a positive self-concept. In contrast, when a youth has a negative self-concept, or feels inadequate, he will not act even if he has the necessary knowledge to solve the problem confronting him.

"In any youth program, the interaction of a young person with an adult leader and other youth allows opportunities for praise, encouragement and rewards. And this kind of feedback can strongly influence the way a youth thinks about himself," believes Gardner.

Living in a social setting also leads to the development of intelligent behavior. A youth's behavior is motivated by his needs. For a newborn, physical needs such as food and comfort are a main concern. But the older a youth is, the more behavior will be motivated by acceptance from his peers.

Through individual projects, group activities and adult volunteer leadership, the 4-H program attempts to help boys and girls acquire skills that will lead to self-directed and lifelong learning.

Youth interested in more information about the 4-H program should contact their local county Extension office.

Banquet scheduled Saturday

The Castro County 4-H Awards Banquet will be held at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at the County Expo Building.

Reta Welch will present a program for the 4-H'ers present.

Scott Simpson will be master of ceremonies.

Charlynn Hunter and Mary Ann Hernandez will present 4-H leader pins. Lisa Nelson and Kyla Boozer will present the 4-H year pins, and Scott Nelson will present the awards.

'I DARE YOU' AWARD WINNERS for the county in 1981-82 are Mark Standlee of the Easter 4-H Club and Janet Huseman of the Nazareth 4-H Club. The award is given annually in recognition of outstanding effort and as an encouragement for further achievements. The "I Dare You" Award winners for 1982-83 will be announced Saturday night at the annual County 4-H Awards Banquet.

Head, Heart, Hands, Health—Working For a Better World

Young folks who appreciate the gifts the good earth offers, who use those gifts to make things better for themselves... their families... their neighborhoods... and the nation. It's time to congratulate them: the country kids with their livestock and produce... the city kids planting parks, cleaning rivers—all of them learning and using the skills that make life a richer experience and the world a better place. We'd like you to know, 4-H'ers, that we appreciate your work and applaud your success. We're standing behind you proudly as you proceed with your projects. Thanks for creative concern.

4-H program faces challenge

By JOHN T. PELHAM
State 4-H and Youth Leader

The 1970's found Texas' 4-H program in a state of transition. New methods were tried and new audiences were reached. The program took on an air of freshness which found its way into every facet of 4-H. Change was much in evidence. Expansion was phenomenal. Yet, throughout the decade the focus of 4-H never changed. Meeting the needs of young people remained our paramount objective.

As I think about the future of 4-H in Texas and try to mentally project the program to the 1990's, it becomes clear that uncertainties will abound as never before. The sweeping changes of the 1970's may seem a slow evolution by comparison. The changes which affect our everyday lives in the 1980's will most certainly dictate changes in the 4-H program.

Though no one can predict with any degree of certainty, there are indications that we face major changes in the areas of economics, energy, food, education, government, population, balance of world power and personal values. The 4-H program must respond to each of these changes as they occur and must, in many instances, anticipate change in order to remain relevant. It will be the timing, methods and magnitude of our response which determines the effectiveness or even the existence of 4-H in the future.

A 4-H program which is dynamic and changing is more in demand today than ever before. As the rate of change rapidly increases, young people must cope with forces and deal with problems undreamed of only a few short years ago. Young people must be privy to the latest information available and must develop skills of finding and using information to deal with the decisions of tomorrow's world. A real and respected role must be provided whereby young people may have a part in shaping their own destiny. The challenge facing 4-H is to provide positive opportunities for young people to function in and to cope with their changing world. Tomorrow is not without hope for a bright future, and 4-H must provide a means for youth to explore, to learn and to find their place in that world. Are the 4-H programs which we offer providing these kinds of opportunities?

Memo: From your child

1. Don't be afraid to be firm with me, I prefer it. It makes me feel more secure.
 2. Don't let me form bad habits. I have to rely on you to detect them in early stages.
 3. Don't make me feel smaller than I am. It only makes me behave stupidly "big."
 4. Don't correct me in front of people if you can help it. I'll take much more notice if you talk quietly with me in private.
 5. Don't make me feel that my mistakes are sins. It upsets my sense of value.
 6. Don't protect me from consequences. I need to learn the painful way sometimes.
 7. Don't be too upset when I say, "I hate you." It isn't you I hate, but your power to thwart me.
 8. Don't take too much notice of my small ailments. Sometimes they get me the attention I need.
 9. Don't nag. If you do, I shall have to protect myself by appearing deaf.
 10. Don't forget that I cannot explain myself as well as I should like. That is why I am not always very accurate.
 11. Don't make rash promises. Remember that I feel badly let down when promises are broken.
 12. Don't tax my honesty too much. I am easily frightened into telling lies.
 13. Don't be inconsistent. That completely confuses me and makes me lose faith in you.
 14. Don't put me off when I ask questions. If you do, you will find that I stop asking and seek my information elsewhere.
 15. Don't tell me my fears are silly. They are terribly real, and you can do much to reassure me if you try to understand.
 16. Don't ever suggest that you are perfect or infallible. It gives me too great a shock when I discover that you are neither.

There's a lot of "scare" talk about America's youth these days. Every paper you read. Every time you twist a dial. You worry. Then, you start thinking about a great bunch of kids who make up 4-H. The kids who make up America. They've dedicated their growing-up years to learning and helping. Developed skills and put them to work — at home, in their communities. They're "hip" on strong bodies and strong character. They care about the world. Suddenly, the "scare" talk turns into "care" talk. And you relax. It's bright and hopeful again. Thanks, all you 4-H'ers. America's future belongs to you. You are America's future!

4-H trap shooters have winning year

4-H trap shooting is now in its fourth year in Castro County, and has already produced some state and national winners.

Lynn West is the coach and project supervisor of the 4-H trap shooting teams. Three other local men are now taking the instructor's course in order to help coach during the coming year. They are Dee Wright, Perry Gruhlkey and Ron Wheelless.

4-H trap shooting is open to any 4-H boy or girl from 9 to 19 years of age. Competition teams are divided into three age groups: sub-junior (9-12), junior (13-14) and senior (15-18).

Twenty-six youngsters — all boys — participated in 4-H trap shooting this year. Twenty of them competed in the district shoot at Lubbock July 7.

A five-man senior team composed of Kelly Ballard, Mike Stanford, Danny Heard, Jerry Rickert and Bruce Bryant placed second in the district shoot.

A team composed of Bart Huseman, Wade Durbin, Allan Armstrong, Scott Hays and Hal Gilbreath placed third. Huseman and Hays joined Ballard, Rickert and Heard to form a five-man team that placed fifth in the State 4-H Trap & Skeet Shoot in San Antonio in August.

Also qualifying for the state trap shoot was the junior team of Bill Patton, Dirk Wright, Mike Huseman, Kerry Lewis and Todd West, who captured the district championship. West, who was entered in the junior division although he was of sub-junior age, was the highest scoring individual in the junior division at district.

West entered the individual competition in the sub-junior division at the state meet and came away with the state individual shooting championship, hitting a perfect 50 of 50.

Patton and Wright entered the state meet in San Antonio as a two-man junior team and placed seventh in state.

A Castro County sub-junior team placed third in the state in five-man competition. Team members were Mark West, Kevin Wheelless, Jay Gruhlkey, Jon Bruegel and Todd West.

Hal Gilbreath and Nathan Malone placed 12th at the state shoot in senior two-man team competition.

Lewis entered the junior division individual competition at the state meet and broke 43 of 50 clay pigeons — an excellent score, but not among the top six at state.

The Castro County shooters also competed in an invitational 4-H shoot at Hereford in July. The senior team of Ballard, Heard, Rickert, Stanford and Durbin finished second, and a two-man team

4-H starting beef program

The Independent Cattle-men's Association of Texas has established a new 4-H beef production and recognition program with the Texas 4-H Foundation in behalf of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the parent organization of 4-H.

The new 4-H Beef Producer Awards Program will emphasize production. To qualify, a 4-H member must keep records on 10 or more head of beef cattle. The 1982-83 winner will receive a special plaque and a $6,000 scholarship, said a 4-H and youth specialist with the Extension Service.

of Hays and Gilbreath placed third.

The sub-junior team of Wheelless, Todd and Mark West, Jon Bruegel and Britt Boozier captured the team championship at the Hereford shoot.

In the junior division, Patton and Lewis placed fourth in two-man team competition at Hereford.

Other boys who participated in 4-H trap shooting this year were Todd Bradley, Matt Bradley, Reagan Frye and Leroy Schulte.

Next event for the 4-H trap shooters will be a turkey shoot Oct. 24, which they will sponsor to help raise traveling expenses for the coming year.

The turkey shoot will be open to all ages.

West said the 4-H trap shooters will start practicing next March or April for the 1983 season. Any boy or girl interested in trap shooting may contact him at the West Barber Shop or the county Extension agent's office.

'4-H gives me a chance to be anything I want'

By MARY PETERS
Moore County

A 10-year-old girl from our county gave a "Promote 4-H" demonstration. People who don't know about 4-H would be surprised. She showed a dress she had made, two pillows she had quilted, and some ceramics she had made. She demonstrated the Heimlick maneuver and said if I ever have to save something I love, I would be grateful to 4-H for teaching me how. These are just a few examples, and this little girl has been a 4-H member for one year. I have been a 4-H member for eight years, and to me 4-H really is a lifetime potential. I know the four food groups, and know more about nutrition. I've learned to sew, how to be well groomed, and how to stand up straight and be proud.

I have given several demonstrations and learned new subject matter as well as new confidence. This year my demonstration was on a social problem, runaways. I learned that social problems are "ours" not "theirs." Through 4-H I know parliamentary procedure, which won't change much before my adult life. I know the pride in being an American citizen and am really looking forward to going on the National 4-H Citizenship and Heritage Tour this summer, which I consider the chance of a lifetime! 4-H has taught me many "learn by doing" skills but, best of all, it has taught me that mediocrity may be okay for others. Our society and my God expects the best from me, and to that end, my efforts are aimed. With that as my goal, my future looks bright. 4-H has helped give me the potential to be anything I want to be. WHAT-EVER THAT IS, I WANT TO DO MY VERY BEST!

The 4-H emblem is a green four-leaf clover with a white "H" on each leaf. The four H's stand for Head, Heart, Hands and Health.

Interest in the 4-H idea in other countries was stimulated by club members in Connecticut, Michigan, Nebraska and Vermont who attended the World's Poultry Congress in Ottawa, Canada in 1927. Today, there are 82 countries around the world with programs similar to 4-H.

People you meet at a 4-H show (and some you wish you hadn't!)

WORKING TOGETHER

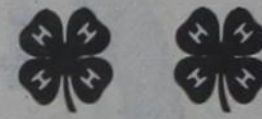

MAKES IT HAPPEN!

All kinds of people come to fairs and shows. One of the philosophical defenses that a beleaguered person assumes after awhile is that it takes all kinds of people to make a world, but you do sort of wonder why there are so many of certain kinds. Just in case some of the below seem a bit familiar and you think that you have met them at your county fair or show just remember that their impact is increased in a geometrical progression of numbers, the amount of hassling they have already received from driving, traffic, admission and parking, multiplied by the fatigue factor and the drive to get into the grandstand in time to get a good seat.

samples?" "Why don't all these judges get together and decide what it is they want in these projects?" "But all I want to do is go through the clothing and see what little Melissa got on her entry. It will only take a minute. No, of course, I don't know what class it's in." "Why don't you hire more people so we can find out the judging team results as soon as the contest is over. Everyone knew right away at our county show." "Would you go through the foods cards and see what my granddaughter got on her sponge cake? We are going home in a few minutes and can't wait until the judging is completed." "But I thought you would know where we could find Joe Standback. He said he would be here, and I was sure you had seen him by now." "Is this the building where we get the free (yardsticks, silly putty, litter bags, gate passes, balloons, political insignia, samples et al.)" "Why can't I just take my daughter's exhibits and leave quietly. My agent told me it would be all right." (for the benefit of any readers, it has been a long standing policy to stop listening when anyone suggests that an agent told them that it would be all right to bend the rules a bit). "What do you mean, Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock? I happen to know for a fact that the show has always ended on Saturday. When did you change it?" "Where are all the cattle? Why don't you put everything in one building so we don't have to traipse all over to see what we like." "Just where do you get your judges anyway? That was a purple ribbon exhibit in our county show, and this judge put a red ribbon on it. I think I am entitled to a personal explanation." from - Kansas 4-H News
