ARCHITECT'S CONCEPT OF DOUBLE-SIZE COURTHOUSE, VIEWED FROM SOUTHEAST CORNER OF ANNEX
... Door at right would lead to new library; drive in ramp would be for sheriff's vehicles

Courthouse Annex Studied

Castro County's commissioners are studying a plan that would more than double the size of the courthouse.

BUT THEY intend to give it a long look and take a firm feel of the public pulse before they decide, according to Judge Raymond Wilson.

The expansion idea grew from a year-long, county sanctioned investigation of the courthouse by Laverne H. Kirby, Lubbock architect and engineer.

Kirby has reported that while the courthouse "is in a very good state of preservation," it has "a deficiency of working space in all of the major offices."

IN ITS proposed form, the three-floor annex would extend from the south side of the county building and would enlarge the courthouse from its present 10,831 sq. ft. of floor space to 22,474 sq. ft.

Kirby's plan would double the size of most facilities; provide extra office rooms for county, district, state and federal services; create separate jails for women and juveniles under present State Minimum Code requirements; triple the size of the county library; turn the southeast and southwest lawns into parking areas; and provide for 15 to 20 years of anticipated floor space and storage needs.

The courthouse was built in 1939. JUDGE WILSON said the expansion could be done without an increase in county taxes, and perhaps even without a bond issue.

"We have a favorable tax rate here," he said. "It hasn't been raised since the equalization program in 1959. Our county's natural growth in assessed valuation during the last three years has increased the county's income, and would pay for the annex without a tax raise, I think. And it probably could be built without a bond issue being necessary."

Judge Wilson emphasized that the plan is only in the study stage. THE COMMISSIONERS' court isn't trying to push this project or railroad it," he said. "It's just trying to call the public's attention to the problem. We're in pretty bad shape for space in most of our offices."

He said the space cramp is felt most in the county clerk's office, which no longer can house all current county records, and in the county building's jail facilities, which don't meet present state minimums.

Kirby's planned annex is detailed in completed form, including remodeling of the present building. Extra blueprints are available for study in Judge Wilson's office.

ON THE basement floor, the expansion plan calls for a library three times present size with its own sidewalk entrance; a three-room suite for county agents' offices plus a demonstration room and kitchen; and additional storage facilities.

On the first floor, the county clerk's office would be more than doubled in size, with a separate room for required abstract machines. The southeast corner of the first floor would house separate jails for women and juveniles, plus a "drunk tank" near a larger sheriff's office. The law enforcement offices would be expanded from three rooms to six, including separate rooms for interrogation, radio and booking. The county judge's office would be moved, but would remain about the same size. A new county courtroom would be added, as well as a treasurer's office and assessor's office.

THE SECOND floor would be revamped to include office space for the district judge and district attorney near the courtroom, large jury rooms with separate facilities, law library, jail kitchen, separate jail for felons, separate padded cell, regular men's cell blocks, extra jail room for the future, and additional small county offices.

The present third floor — now used entirely as a jail — would probably be converted to house lesser used offices and extra storage facilities, Judge Wilson said. Kirby's version of the expanded courthouse would also have an elevator in a central shaft.

In two meetings today and tonight, city officials will launch their public campaign for a municipal light and power company. BUT THE opposition has already fired its first shot and is reloading for a battle that could get red-hot before the Oct. 25 city bond election.

The city commission has scheduled a joint meeting of the Lions, Rotary and Jaycee clubs for noon today (Thursday) in the Colonial Inn Restaurant to make its first public appeal for the city power plant proposal.

After a brief presentation, the meeting will be thrown open for questions and answers.

THE BIG meeting, though, will be a public gathering tonight at 8 o'clock in Dimmitt High School auditorium. That's when the general public will hear the city's case and be given a question-answer period with no time deadline on it.

"Anyone interested in the city's welfare, should attend tonight's meeting," City Manager E. B. Noble said. "We're ready to answer any questions — we've already asked them all ourselves, and we have the answers ready."

Southwestern Public Service Co. is launching its campaign against the proposed $2.5 million city utility in an advertisement in this issue of the News.

OTHER OPPONENTS of the plan are firing their first shot in today's News also. An ad that grew from an organized protest meeting Monday night, asks voters in today's issue why they should buy "a pig in a poke."

Twelve days remain before resident property owners of Dimmitt decide the issue at the ballot box. Both camps have called in outside spokesmen, and today's meetings may take on the aspects of a professional debate.

HELPING THE city make its presentation will be City Engineer Mac Morris; Tom Anderlich of San Antonio and Claude Shelton of Tulsa, officials of Texas Securities Corp., a bonding company; City Manager Noble. Mayor George Bradford and City Commissioner Elmer Youts and Troy Kirby.

Noble Answers Queries On Proposed New Plant

BY DON NELSON
Managing Editor

The city commission has scheduled its first two public meetings for today and tonight on the election.

BUT THE NEWS felt more time was needed to thoroughly report and discuss the issue, since only 12 days (and two editions) remain before the Oct. 25 city bond election, and since the results of today's initial hearings can't be reported until next Thursday's issue.

So the News submitted 13 basic questions to City Manager E. B. Noble to serve as a springboard for the issue. Here are his answers to eight of those questions. The other five will be printed next week, along with a report on points brought out at today's meetings.

1. Where does the city's plan call for the new power plant to be located?

"We plan tentatively to place it in the east part of Dimmitt because that is an industrial area and this will be an industrial installation. It will have some noise to it, so the industrial area of East Dimmitt seems to be the most logical place."

2. The power plant would reportedly use a gas-operated turbine generating system. Do plans call for precipitation of the exhaust from this generator, or would the exhaust be emitted into the atmosphere? Do you consider air pollution in the immediate vicinity of the plant to be a problem?

"The exhaust would be utilized for heat to generate steam, so air pollution would be no problem. These pollutants would be filtered out in the steam-generating process."

3. Are city and state rate regulations such that the city and Southwestern Public Service Co. would be compelled to charge the same rates? If not, how would the rate structures compare?

"The city establishes rates by ordinance. Usually the rates are the same for both public and private utility companies. For example, Lubbock, which owns its own municipal power and light company, recently lowered its rates. The next day, the private power company lowered its rates to match."

4. Would revenue from the proposed plant bring city taxes down? Or would this revenue keep the tax rate from going up in the future?

"The experience of other cities has been that some of the revenues from electricity are used to pay the cost of services for their citizens, which services would otherwise have to be paid by taxes or some other income sources. The services we're furnishing right now are going up in cost all the time, and the city in the future will be called upon to provide more and more services for a growing population."

5. Could revenue from the power plant be used for any purpose of the city commission's choosing, or would it have to be used only for certain specified types of projects?

"The income could be used for any legal purpose. This includes most of the services the city now performs, and most of the services now financed mainly by city property taxes. These services fall under the category of the 'health, welfare and safety' of the citizens of Dimmitt."

6. Would the city power company have the authority to sell electricity to customers outside the city limits?

"Yes."

7. If the municipal power plant is built, it would compete with Southwestern Public Service Co. for customers. Would this eliminate the 2 percent gross revenue tax that Public Service is now required to pay to the city? "No. Southwestern Public Service Co. pays 2 percent of gross revenue for rental of public right-of-way — mainly alleys — on which to locate its poles. This fee would continue."

8. What in your opinion, would be the main advantages to the city establishing its own light and power company?

"First, remember that this bond would hold a lein ONLY on the electric system itself, and the holder of this bond can never call on the payment of the bond from tax sources. In other words the loan company which is going to be putting its $2.4 million into this project with only the net revenues from the electric system and the physical electric property itself as security for its money, is going to study the possibilities of the operation of the system being successful or not before it puts its money into the bonds.

"The light and power company is expected to provide some $100,000 per year surplus available to the general fund for improved services in police, parks, streets, water rights, dog control, insect control, and other needed improvements and added services. The city, as all cities, is being pressed for these improved and added services, increasing labor and material costs which must be offset by either an increase in taxes, reduced services, or from other revenue sources such as electrical revenue.

"As for electrical rates, one company would control the other in a competitive situation. The customer would have the advantage of choosing which electrical company he would have to service him."

Mistrial Ruled In Murder Case

A District Court jury of 11 men and one woman deliberated until 2 a.m. Friday before reporting it couldn't reach a verdict in the Ben Derrick murder case.

DISTRICT Judge James Joy declared a mistrial.

Derrick is charged with murder without malice in the October 1965 gun death of Jim Tuttle. He pleaded innocent to the charge, and has been free under $5,000 bond.

If weather is unfavorable, the shoot will be postponed until Oct. 23 at the same hour.

Man, 47, Dies Of Bullet Wound; Charge Is Filed

A 57-year-old Dimmitt man, Claude Chavers, was charged with murder Wednesday morning after the Tuesday gunshot death of Louie Bossett, 47, in an East Dimmitt cafe.

ACCORDING TO City Marshal W. W. Jones, the shooting occurred at 4 p.m. Bossett died at 7:31 p.m. in Plains Memorial Hospital, the victim of a large-caliber gunshot wound in the head.

Jones said he confiscated two pistols from persons at the scene of the shooting, and that he placed Chavers under arrest at Plains Memorial Hospital later in the day. Chavers was treated for a scalp laceration, Jones said.

Farmers Union Members to Hear Dee Miller at Banquet Saturday

Dee Miller of Amarillo, Democratic congressional nominee, will make his first public appearance in Castro County Saturday when the county Farmers Union holds its annual convention and banquet at Nazareth.

MILLER is expected to speak on future farm policies he feels are needed, with special emphasis on West Texas water.

The banquet will start at 8 p.m. in Nazareth Community Building.

Also on the agenda will be election of officers and adoption of county resolutions for 1967. The nominating committee has proposed Eddie Drerup for president, Theron Morrison for vice-president and David Acker for secretary. Other nominations can be made from the floor before Saturday night's balloting.

Present officers are Shirley L. Garrison, president; Don Carpenter, vice-president; and Jerry Wilhelm, secretary.

THE SEVEN resolutions to be considered include policy statements on grain sorghum, cotton, wheat, sugar beet, diverted acreage, tax credit and water programs. These resolutions are now being studied in letter form by FU members. Those on the resolutions committee are Carl King, chairman, James Ball, Ray Joe Riley, Shirley Garrison, Don Carpenter and Melvin Barton.

"Your attendance is urgently needed at this convention," Garrison told FU members in a letter this week. "Farmers Union decisions made at this and other county conventions may well affect future farm policies."

NOW GOING UP in West Dimmitt is this eight-home development which stemmed from a Community Action Committee survey of the local housing situation. All the homes but one are two-bedroom brick, each will cost about $6,700, and all are financed by the Farmers Home Administration. After the Community Action survey earlier this year, the project was started in mid-May when eight families applied and qualified for FHA home loans. Construction started three weeks ago with Troy Carter Construction Co. of Plainview as the contractor, and the homes are expected to be finished by Dec. 1.

FROM DREAM TO REALITY is the story of the eight families taking part in the West Dimmitt housing project. It's the first time the Farmers Home Administration has had eight homes going up in one block, according to Don Jennings, county FHA supervisor. The eight families applied for home loans almost at the same time after the Community Action survey, so Jennings grouped the applications and sought land where all the homes could be built together on moderately priced property. The families bought their own lots, then the FHA advanced their loans through its rural housing program.

A BIG BITE is scooped from the earth by this backhoe operated by Delton Foley at the new West Dimmitt housing project. This is the ditch for the sewer main that will serve the eight homes in the development. Other utilities are being installed through the development block as the vacant land is converted into an eight-home neighborhood.

Bible Thoughts

"THE FUGITIVE"
By Ronnie Parker

Some months ago Mr. David Janssen, star of the TV series, "THE FUGITIVE," was asked why he thought this program had such overwhelming appeal to the viewing audience. He said, "I suppose it is because every person, at one time or another, is a fugitive from something."

How very true this is. There are many who live a life of running. Running from something as serious as injustice however, is not as serious and tragic as running from something in the spiritual realm. Too many people in our world are fugitives from reality — the reality of sin. We had rather explain sin away or discount its seriousness than meet it face to face. In running from the reality of sin, one is in a true sense running from God.

The Bible is clear in its teaching that: All have sinned (Rom. 3:23). Sin separates from God (Isa. 59:1-2). Sin brings death (Rom. 6:23). No sin can enter heaven (Rev. 21:27). God has provided salvation for the world by giving His Son to die (John 3:16). Only believers can be saved from sin through Christ, the remedy (John 8:24).

Sin is a terrible reality. Are you a fugitive from reality? "Almost every man at one time or another is a fugitive from something." Are you running from God? Would you not alter your course, change your direction and come to the Lord?

Preparing for FLIGHT

The beautiful breezy skies turn our eyes upward to watch the flight of the kite and the soaring of the airplane. The pilot must prepare for his flight in order to remain aloft, to reach supersonic speeds, to soar to highest blue sky. In our lives, to prepare for the speed of our times, and to pave the way for soaring to the highest success in living, we need God's word as it is preached in His Church. Isaiah 41:31 reads, "But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

It has bloomed for the last two years, but so far the fruit has fallen off before ripening. Mrs. Chance points to one of the green figs now on the tree, and hopes that maybe next year...

West Texas State Ex-Students Called To Homecoming Saturday

Accent of the 1966 homecoming at West Texas State University Saturday will be on visiting and renewing acquaintances among returning former students. THIS WRECKED TRAILER is mute evidence of a broadside crash that occurred last Thursday at this crossroad 10 miles northeast of Dimmitt in the Jumbo community. The wreck hospitalized O. T. "Slim" Vardell and killed a horse owned by G. L. Willis. Note high Johnson grass along road.

THE SAME CROSSROAD, another view, shows that the intersection where last Thursday's wreck occurred is obstructed at several points by tall Johnson grass and weeds. Note top of pickup cab near utility pole, almost obstructed from view.

Photo was taken from auto windshield height. When last Thursday's wreck occurred, Vardell was entering the crossroad from the north and a pickup driven by David Cole was coming from the west, towing the horse trailer.

ANOTHER BLIND CORNER on a county road is this one, just a mile north and a mile west of last Thursday's wreck scene. Unseen behind the Johnson grass and weeds at the curve is a white Plymouth, parked on the right side of the road leading into the intersection. If you were approaching this turn at 25 mph, would you see the other car in time? Mowing of the weeds and grass at all the county's blind crossroads would be a big chore for the county — but it should be done.

NROTC Posts Are Now Open

Applications for the Navy's 21st annual Regular NROTC qualification test are now available at the guidance office of Dimmitt High School, according to William Shadrick, counselor. The nationwide examination for potential Naval officers will be given Dec. 10, and all eligible male high school seniors and graduates may apply.

SHADRICK explained that on the basis of this test, plus personal interviews, medical examinations and other factors, over 1,700 young men will enter the Regular NROTC program as midshipmen in 52 colleges and universities throughout the nation. Male citizens of the US who will be at least 17 but not yet 21 by next June 30 and who are now high school seniors or grads, may be eligible to apply for the test. Those who make qualifying scores will be interviewed and given medical examinations next January or February. A successful candidate receives financial aid for four years of college, including tuition and educational fees, books, uniforms and $50 per month subsistence allowance.

AFTER completing requirements for a bachelor's degree and naval training graduates are commissioned as officers in the Navy or Marine Corps.

October Spotlight Beams on Co-Ops

The spotlight during October is placed on the cooperatives of the nation which serve agriculture.

IT IS THE time, says Charles K. Baker, Extension economist in farm organization, when the progress of agricultural cooperatives is noted and their importance and contributions to America's great basic industry are recognized.

Cooperatives are numerous in Texas, the Texas A&M University economist said. They number some 775 firms with offices in 166 counties and serve most of the state's 196,000 farm units.

Operating statistics, collected annually by the US Dept. of Agriculture's Farmer Cooperative Service covering marketing, farm supply and service cooperatives, show that Texas ranks fourth in number and fifth in total dollar volume of business among all the states. Involved are 528 farm business firms with 183,000 membership and a total dollar volume of business estimated at $918 million. Baker said credit, electric and telephone cooperatives add considerably to the membership totals and to the dollar volume of business.

HE EXPLAINED that agricultural cooperatives are private business enterprises — organized, owned and controlled by the farmers and ranchers who use them to provide needed services and supplies. Members view their cooperatives as vital parts of their farm businesses, he adds. Cooperatives provide supplies and services to members at cost. Savings or net margins above operating expenses are returned to patrons in proportion to their use of the cooperative. These patronage refunds often make up a major part of the farmer's net income for the year, Baker said. Cooperative benefits also extend to many non-members. Cooperatives hire employees to work in their plants and businesses, and the taxes they pay are important support for schools and other community services. The patronage refunds are a valuable addition to a community's economy, he noted.

BAKER SAID a recent publication of the Farmer Cooperative Service illustrates the importance of cooperatives to an area. The publication said, "Cotton cooperatives with headquarters in or near Lubbock have made an impressive record. During 1954-63 they improved the income of cotton farmers in Northwest Texas and Southwest Oklahoma by an estimated $75.8 million. Benefits to farmers on the Plains have far exceeded the amount of their patronage refunds because of their additional services rendered and their help in stabilizing and raising the general price level of cotton and cottonseed."

The three large regionals in Lubbock and referred to in the publication had a payroll of $3.7 million for the 1963-64 season, Baker adds.

Other commodities handled by Texas cooperatives in significant volume include milk, wheat, feed grains and rice. The major farm and ranch supply items handled are feed, fertilizer, petroleum products, insecticides and planting seed.

Thursday Mr. Hottel and I were in Pampa at an agents' meeting. We discussed the PEP (Panhandle Economic Program) and what areas we'll work on this year. It is a study done on a 26 county panhandle area about our economic resources. The areas of emphasis in 1967 will be Water Conservation, Community Improvement, and Consumer Economics. You'll all be hearing more about these in the future.

Tuesday I'm going to Hereford to work on our county plan of work for 1967. We'll plan programs in the area of Housing and Consumer Economics.

HERE ARE some tips about the use of credit. It may be well to clip them and have them in your purse to use when you're thinking of using credit.

Some of the largest credit pitfalls are:

1. The add on clause. The seller keeps the title to an entire list of items bought on credit. A single delinquent payment on the last item to be paid off could permit the seller to repossess the entire list of items.
2. The balloon contract. The final payment may be many times larger than the preceding month. If the borrower isn't aware of this and isn't prepared to meet the payment, his purchase may be repossessed. Balloon contracts are illegal in some states.
3. The acceleration clause. Default in a single payment makes all other payments due and payable at once.
4. The wage assignment. This may allow the seller to collect part of your paycheck if you are delinquent on a payment.
5. Extra credit charges. These might include life insurance, or processing fees. Borrowers should recognize that these may add substantially to the total cost of borrowing. Borrowers should demand that these charges be listed so that they may determine whether or not they are excessive.

Work Plans on Watershed Project Ready for Congress, Wright Says

Work plans on the ambitious $2 million Running Water Draw Watershed Project will probably go before Congress for fund approval sometime this quarter, according to Soil Conservation Service Technician Pete Wright.

Reporting at the recent Running Water Soil Conservation District tour and business meeting, Wright said the two-phase project — upper and lower — will include seven or eight water retention dams along the draw, starting north of Clovis and going to the City of Plainview.

"IT IS DOWN to the point of submitting the work plans to Congress for funds for construction," Wright told 30 farmers making the tour. "Sometime in January or February we'll have it ready for public hearing, after Congress takes action on it."

Work toward the project was first started by the RWSC District in 1959, and the Castro County Commissioner's Court came in as a co-sponsor in 1962.

Wright estimated costs on the water retention project as $800,000 for structures on the lower draw and $1.2 million in local costs for property easements and right of way.

He added, "This project would save a tremendous amount of water that is now lost along the Running Water Draw watershed, and this same type project could possibly be carried out on the Frio Draw and other draws in the county."

WRIGHT'S remarks were backed up by Frank Rayner, engineer for the High Plains Underground Water District who gave statistics to show the importance of conserving ground-level water here.

"This conservation project is important, and I'm glad to see it reach its present stage," Rayner said.

But just as important as watershed projects, he said, is conservation of the county's lake water and tailwater.

"There are 1,000 lakes in Castro County," Rayner noted. "Assuming 50 acre-feet per lake per year, 50,000 acre-feet are caught in these lakes annually. That represents about 10 percent of the amount of water drawn from underground."

HE SAID surface water conservation will have to be the next step in the county's water development, because no underground water source is available to replace the Ogallala if it plays out, and because water importation is still 20 years or more away.

"I can tell you without any qualification that the water in the Santa Rosa formation will not approach that of the prolific Ogallala, and will not supplant the depletion of the Ogallala," he said.

"The six or eight importation projects that have been conceived are all grand schemes and we have to think of them," he continued. "But we have to point out that the Running Water Draw conservation program has been thought of since 1959, and they're still not getting any earth turned on it. So even if we started today, it would be 20 years before we could get any of these importation concepts underway."

RAYNER also said tailwater waste is still a major problem here. He said as much as 22 1/2 percent of an irrigation system's output could be saved if farmers would return their tailwater runoff to their systems.

"A 10 percent savings in waste water would result in one million acre-feet of water conserved in the Ogallala formation," he said.

"Why should we be concerned? Everyone knows Castro County has a tremendous supply of fresh water in the Ogallala formation — maybe 13 million feet. But our records show it's also being depleted."

The biggest need is your help and support," Rayner told his audience. "Conservation of rain water and runoff must start on the land in which these resources are first available."

HE WARNED that if water conservation isn't carried out locally, government at different levels may have to step in.

"The power on water conservation and control is sort of getting out of our hands, out of the control of our local area," he said.

Tommy Martin Is A Busy Junior With Hogs, Cotton, Hay Grazer

This week's FFA projects belong to Tommy Martin, a Vo-Ag III student. Tommy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Martin and is a junior in Dimmitt High School.

TOMMY is trying to get a registered Hampshire herd started. He has a Hampshire boar that is a real prospect. Tommy had two Hampshire sows in his herd, but purchased four Hampshire gilt. The pigs Tommy has now are going to be shown at fat stock shows in the neighborhood of Castro County. Tommy also has some Poland Chinas, but plans to sell all of them.

He has three crop projects started this year. His five acres of grain sorghum is already harvested. Tommy said that it was a good crop. He has five acres of cotton, and said his cotton was looking great. Last he has a couple acres of hay grazer, on which he grazes his hogs.

Tommy is the president of the Dimmitt FFA chapter and chairman of the Plainview FFA District. He is also vice-president of the Student Senate at DHS and last year Tommy was reporter of the FFA.

Tech's Arid Land Symposium Books Smithsonian Man

S. Dillon Ripley, secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, has been announced as one of the distinguished participants in a Symposium on Arid and Semi-Arid Lands to be held at Texas Tech Oct. 31.

Other symposium speakers include Dr. William T. Pecora, director of the US Geological Survey.

Dr. Carey Cronis, Chancellor of Rice University, will present the principal address at the colorful inaugural ceremonies in Lubbock Municipal Coliseum. The symposium is scheduled for the Lubbock Municipal Auditorium.

Dr. Ripley, eighth secretary of the 120-year-old Smithsonian and a well-known biologist, ecologist and authority on the birds of the Far East, will speak on "The Challenge of Adapting Human Societies to Arid Environments."

HE WAS named to head the Smithsonian in 1964 after serving four years as Director of Yale's Science, and 18 years on the Yale faculty. He also has served on the staffs of the Academy of Natural History in New York and Harvard University.

Upward Market Seen for Cattle

Texas cattle prices will remain favorable for the remainder of 1966 and into 1967, especially for the efficient producer, a Texas economist predicted this week.

John G. McHaney, Extension economist, said continued strength in the general economy would insure an increasing price trend for beef cattle, beginning very late in 1966. All of 1967, he added, should be favorable if our economy continues to grow and range conditions remain good.

McHANEY SAID feed lot operators at present were more reluctant than usual to bid up feeder cattle prices. Their feed costs are rising and will be higher in the months ahead than in the first half of 1966 and fed cattle prices, have declined to narrow their margins, he said. But, taking all factors into consideration, feeder prices are expected to remain near current levels, which are much better than for the same period a year ago.

As for fed cattle prices, he said they should hold during the October-December period to average near the year-ago levels. Marketings of fed cattle are expected to continue large but the increase over a year ago probably will be less than that which took place in the summer of 1966.

Downward price pressure can develop if range conditions over the nation deteriorate; forcing large movements of grass cattle to slaughter at a time when fed cattle marketings are already heavy. Too, feeding to heavier weights could put continued pressure on fed cattle prices during the rest of the year.

ANOTHER factor influencing fed beef prices will be the increase in the pork supply for the remainder of the year. Pork production later in the year will be well above a year ago and poultry supplies are expected to continue above year-earlier levels, the economist said. Increased supplies of these two meat sources will tend to keep pressure on fed beef prices.

MODERN AGRICULTURE

Five-Stage Wheat Irrigation Produces Top Yield At Halfway

Wheat irrigated at germination, joint, boot, head, and soft dough stages produced optimum yields and returns in the 1965-1966 wheat irrigation and fertilizer research tests at the High Plains Research Foundation, according to Dr. Earl Collister, executive vice-president.

Foundation tests showed that the last, or soft dough, stage irrigation can be eliminated if adequate rainfall occurs in the latter half of May. For the second consecutive year, the winter irrigation applied in February to non-grazed wheat was not profitable. The optimum and economic yields of Tascosa wheat, used in the test, were produced with 130 pounds of nitrogen plus 30 pounds of sulfur and/or 60 pounds of phosphorus.

Twelve fertilizer levels were applied preplant in randomized complete block design and replicated four times within each of the three irrigation methods. One hundred pounds of Tascosa wheat seed per acre was planted Oct. 25, 1965 and was harvested June 25, 1966. Under the conditions of the wheat test, sulfur produced high yields and returns. The addition of 60 to 90 pounds of phosphorus produced a significant increase in yield over nitrogen alone at the 80 pound nitrogen rate under all three irrigation methods. The addition of phosphate increased yields sufficiently over nitrogen alone in most treatments to pay for the phosphate cost.

Complete details on the wheat irrigation-fertilizer test can be found in the research report recently sent to all supporting members of the foundation.

THE MEMBERS also discussed the SPIRIT WEEK which is scheduled for Oct. 10-14. A Flame King and Queen will be elected as in previous years. New this year will be the election of a spirit coming queen. A representative will be chosen from each class to represent them in these contests.

ON SEPT. 26, the Library Club met to elect their officers for the year 1966-67. The officers are as follows: president, Johnnie Presley; vice president, Joanie Beavers; secretary-treasurer, Carolyn Young; historian, Vickie Powell; and reporter, Linda Dempsey. The club decided to call itself the Dimmitt High Teenage Library Club.

THE DRAMA CLUB met at 8:30 Oct. 4, in the speech room. Letters were read and fourteen new members were accepted. Anyone who wishes to join the Drama Club should turn his letter in by Oct. 11. The club dues were set at one dollar a semester. The three-act play was discussed. Each member of the Drama Club gave a short skit which served as the program.

THE F.T.A. met Oct. 5. Election of Mr. and Miss F.T.A. to be chosen Oct. 27 was discussed. Allan Webb will run for a district office in F.T.A. The chairman are to make a program of work for their committee to be turned in to the president.

THE PEP CLUB meets every Thursday and Friday during the first activity period to discuss business such as pep rallies and games. The Pep Club has been responsible for the signs in the halls and much of the "noise" at the pep rallies and games. The Bobettes and cheerleaders would like to thank the band, and everyone else who has so faithfully supported our Bobcats. They have truly been a great help. Our school spirit in DHS is growing. Let's keep it that way.

THE SPANISH CLUB met Oct. 6, to finish electing officers. They are as follows: Gloria Gonzales, secretary; Judy Arnold, treasurer; Flip Taylor, reporter; and Hilda Perez and Esther Guardiola, parliamentarians. A committee was appointed to decide on a name for the club.

THE LYRE CLUB also met Oct. 6 to reassemble the new band uniforms. The band members do look nifty in their new uniforms.

THE FHA BARBECUE meal tickets may be bought from any member of the FHA. The barbecue will be Friday, Oct. 14, in the South Grade Cafeteria from 5 till 7. The adult tickets will be sold at $1.25 and children's tickets will be 75 cents. A limited number will be sold at the door, so get your tickets now!

Magic Lantern Would Be Nice, But Wisdom By Work Is Better

The story of Aladdin and his magic lamp remains one of the most popular tales in "The Arabian Nights."

In recent years, the tale of the lamp with its "I can do anything you ask for genie," has been repeated with variations. However the plot remains the same, complete with master, magic lamp, and genie. The master rubs the lamp, out pops the genie, usually amid smoke, and asks for the wish to be fulfilled. Presto! The wish becomes fact.

USUALLY, THE wishes are limited to three. Equally as usual,

Remember When?

Thinking back is a lot of fun. It is especially so when things have been changed, whether it be for better or for worse.

So, we ask you to think back to the past and — REMEMBER WHEN — We could play around during activity period and do what we pleased?

Keith Ann Howard had brown hair? We had band first period and didn't have to worry about a class assignment?

Debra Summers wasn't called "Motor Mouth"? Boys didn't have to worry about being drafted if they weren't making their grades?

We had to trample through the snow and rain to get to the band hall? There were about 100 less students and we could walk down the hall?

Deanna Morgan wasn't so naive? The boys agreed with the girls at class meetings?

Tommy Stafford was a short little runt, and most of the girls were taller than he? Girls and boys had to be three feet apart while walking down the hall?

Mr Moore was an "Aggie"? Girls wore skirts that hit the knee?

It only "snowed" on Christmas? Seniors didn't cry at graduation?

Ray Bradley played "Peter Rabbit" in an Easter play? "Smith" was skinny?

We used to have Western Day? AND OF COURSE you can't forget — When Miss Littlepage was nicknamed "Doddle Bug" because she was so tiny?

the master asks for money or power or glory. For with these, one can have everything else.

That is — everything else but one: learning.

Oddly, not a single master of the lamp, among the many based on this fairy tale, asks for knowledge and understanding.

Perhaps that is why the story of Aladdin and his lamp remains a fairy tale. Perhaps that is why modern-day writers keep the plot within the realm of make believe.

BUT COULD such a lamp really exist and its power be limited to granting one wish, what would you request?

Think carefully before wishing. REMEMBER that all material things fade and vanish. Even Caesar and Napoleon are pale beside Plato and Einstein.

Remember only one thing can remain with you as long as you live. That is education — the accumulated wisdom of all the people who have ever lived.

That is the power and the glory and the riches.

ONLY EDUCATION can teach one how to make two apples grow where only one grew before; how to address an enemy to make him a friend; how to make a sick child smile; how to create cheap power from the rays of the sun; how to establish and maintain peace between nations; how to do, to be, to act, to live a useful life.

But since the magic lamp is but a bit of a fairy tale, you alone can make your wish come true. And you alone have the opportunity, for you are your own magic lamp — the symbol of knowledge.

AS LAST week's survey proves; more people really want material things than knowledge. But for those few who did vote for an end to all war, (and knowledge ends war), I congratulate you. You have chosen the greatest wish of all. Truly, your magic lamp is ready for use.

Martha Finds Twins Active

Mary and John have someone to keep busy this year besides their parents. It's no wonder Martha will have lots of fun while staying with such an active pair as the Hays twins.

"GOMER" is the name we find Mary being called many times during the day. She received this name from Ronnie Hutton and J. F. Latimer for being so clumsy.

While in high school, the twins manage to keep very busy all the time. John is one of our mighty Bobcats. He also thinks band is fun. The student senate and science club manage to take up some of John's time. He was nominated his freshman year for Flame King candidate.

MARY is "one of our girls out front," as "Smith" would say, in the band, and she is also a fighting Bobby. She is member of WHA FTA, Science Club and Lyre Club. She was a candidate for basketball and annual queen last year. This energetic pair are very active in the First Baptist Church.

John and Mary's hobbies differ quite a bit. John likes to play golf, baseball, basketball and football, while Mary loves to play basketball and to snow ski.

MARY AND JOHN both agree that being twins is all right. Both plan to attend college and Mary wants to join the Peace Corp after she graduates.

Speaking Out! Live Up To Your Heritage

The opinions expressed in this article are those of the author and not necessarily those of any other person.

HEADLINES READ: "Americans vanish!" "No American found on earth!"

If you should pick up your paper tomorrow and read this statement, you would be astounded and disagree. "I am an American," you would declare. But, stop, are you a real American?

Does your blood run cold when you see our flag flying high? When our National Anthem is being played, do you get a lump in your throat and do your eyes become misty? During formal ceremonies as you repeat the Pledge of Allegiance, do you mean every word you say? Think about it.

MANY YEARS AGO, our forefathers fought England for the liberty we have today. They were few in number, but great in spirit. Instilled in them was a deep love for America. They were willing to fight and die for what they believed was right. In every war since that time, young Americans have fought and died on the battlefields of the world to keep us free so we might enjoy the wonderful blessings this country offers to its citizens. These men and women had a right to life as much as we do. Their sacrifice must not be wasted!

Today, many feel what the Communists are doing in Vietnam is wrong, but they aren't willing to fight to correct it. It has nothing to do with me, you say. How wrong you are!

If the Communist people gain control of every European and Asian country, we'll be next!

LET'S CORRECT the headlines and show the world we are AMERICANS!

Senior Boy of Week: Mike Bruegel

The senior boy of the week is the ever popular Mike Bruegel. He plays tackle on the varsity team for DHS and participates in other sports.

Mike is parliamentarian for both the "D" Club and the Science Club.

HIS HOBBIES are watching all sports events and playing in those in DHS.

Mike's friends have nicknamed him "Kraut." Could this be because of his visits to relatives in Germany?

Mike plans to finish high school and go to college. A FELLOW student had this to say about Mike. "He's a leader on the football team. He can take jokes without getting angry."

Bobcat of the Week: Don Moore

Did you know that the state of California was admitted to the Union on Sept. 9, 1850? Nearly a hundred years after this historic date, Don Moore, our "Bobcat of the Week" joined the Union.

This neatly dressed senior with the big, friendly smile has attended DHS since 1959.

THIS FIGHTING Bobcat plays end on the Dimmitt Varsity, as well as serving as captain. On yes, he is also one of our sharp-shooting basketball champs. In the class room, Don shoots just as high on his studies. He was chosen student council vice president in his junior year, and he filled this office very capably, at least Paraly thought so!

He enjoys good, old-fashioned catnapping, visiting at a certain home on Jones Street, and going to the drive-in after the movie.

After graduation, Don wants to go to college, but the problem is where? When he does find a suitable one, he plans to major in agriculture.

When one of his fellow classmates was asked about Don, this was said. "Don Moore is one of the most cooperative persons in high school. He is a very likeable boy who understands people and knows how to get along with them. Because of this, I think he will be very successful in life."

DON HAS brought much honor to our team and our school, and he has truly earned the title of "Bobcat of the Week."

Classes Discuss School Projects

Monday, Oct. 3, the classes of Dimmitt High School were very busy as they met and discussed various subjects on the school and activities that will be taking place throughout the year.

THE SENIORS were very excited as they decided on costumes for the senior pictures. The girls decided to wear black feather drapes, while the boys finally decided on dark coats and continental ties. The seniors also discussed gathering of wood for the bon fire.

The juniors discussed class dues and decided on five dollars a year. They also decided on the collection of wood and when they will collect it. The juniors will be having some fund raising projects this year, but are not quite decided what these will be.

THE SOPHOMORES also talked about wood for the bon fire. Class parents were elected and class dues that will be required were discussed. The class also met Wednesday, Oct. 5, when Mr. Shadrick talked about class drop-outs.

The freshman class talked about school spirit and about yelling at the ball games. They also discussed Spirit Week and who would get pickups to haul wood in.

to our team and our school, and he has truly earned the title of "Bobcat of the Week."

MEMPHIS WINS, 7-0

Goal Line Eludes Bobcats

BY JIMMIE CHAPMAN

Friday night turned out to be another heartbreaker for the Dimmitt Bobcats as they again won the battle of statistics but lost another game, this time to the Memphis Cyclones by 7-0.

DIMMITT threatened in every quarter but could not find the offensive spark to put the ball over the double stripe. They penetrated into the Cyclones' territory early in the game, only to have a fake field goal try stopped on the Memphis 21-yard line.

Memphis scored its only touchdown early in the third quarter on two pass plays that moved the ball 37 yards, the last one being a 17-yard pass play from quarterback Tony Pounds to end Clyde Wilson for the touchdown. Kay Miller kicked the point for the Cyclones, and that was all the scoring for the night.

The Bobcats more than doubled the Cyclones on yardage gained on the ground, and let Memphis have the ball on offense only five times in the first period, and 17 times in the first half, to completely dominate the contest offensively.

THE CATS took the opening kickoff on their own 19-yard line and moved the ball to the Memphis 44, mostly on line smashes by sophomore David Land, before they fumbled the ball and Dwayne Jones recovered for the Cyclones. But Dimmitt got the ball back two plays later when Tommy Stafford recovered a fumble by Pounds on the Memphis 48.

From here, Stafford, Land, Beelee Goodwin and Ronnie Hutton moved the ball to the 11. They lost five yards on a third down play and from there the Bobcats tried their fake field goal. Goodwin held the ball for Kenmore and as Goodwin tried to pass, he was smothered on the 21 for another five-yard loss.

The second quarter was a trade-about affair with first Memphis going into Dimmitt territory and then the Bobcats coming back into Cyclone territory. Memphis drove to the Dimmitt 4-yard line late in the second period. Kenneth Cornish tried to ram the line but was stopped cold. Pounds tried a pass on fourth that fell incomplete and the Bobcats took over to halt the Cyclones' only serious drive of the entire game except for the pass-scoring play in the third period.

THE FIRST half ended scoreless with Dimmitt in possession of the ball on the Memphis 46-yard line.

In the first half Memphis had the ball for 17 plays while the ball-control Bobcats had it for 35 plays. The Cats could move the ball in the middle of the field, but come scoring time, up would come the Cyclones to stop them.

Coach Smith was downhearted by the Bobcats second loss in district play, but was proud of the way his team carried the fight to the Cyclones, who have won four games this year while dropping only one. Memphis plays Abernathy this week in the game that could mean the district championship to the winner. Only Friona remains undefeated in conference play besides these two.

STANLEY played an outstanding game for the Bobcats on both offensive and defense. Tommy Stafford, Rodney Hutto and David Land also stood out on offense while Beelee Goodwin, Mike Brucgel and Ronald Johnson played their usual good defensive game.

DIMMITT MOVED the ball to the 4-yard line in the fourth period, but was stopped on a fourth down play. With 2:15 remaining in the game, the Cats pushed the ball again to the 2-yard line, but again were forced to give up the ball on the 3-yard after failing to punch it over.

Memphis made one first down with the clock running out, and on the last play of the game, Pounds gained 26 yards to move the ball to the 50 yard line. This was the biggest gainer of the night for the Cyclones on the ground against the tough Dimmitt defense.

THE RUN'S ALMOST OVER for Bobcat quarterback John Hays (11) as he keeps on a fake pichout around left end in Friday night's Dimmitt-Memphis game. Hays gained two yards on this third down attempt, and the Bobcats punted on the next play. Leading interference is halfback Ronnie Hutton (44), while halfback Tommy Stafford trails the play as the option man. For the Bobcats, Friday night's conference bout was the same sad story — they won in statistics but lost in points. For the highly ranked Cyclones, the 7-0 win was their narrowest victory so far. (Photo by Keith McMahon.)

'Horns Smother Kress 'B,' 33-8

BY LARRY BATES

The Hart Longhorns rallied to overcome the Kress "B" Kangaroos, 33-8, last Thursday night.

THE BOUT was a last-minute schedule filler for Hart, after Miami cancelled its scheduled Friday night game against the Longhorns.

The Kangaroos just couldn't get anything started against the youthful Longhorns. The 'Horns had the score up to 18-0 before the end of the first quarter, then pushed it to 33-0 by halftime.

The eventual game pitted one young, inexperienced team against another, since Coach Don Ewing played his substitutes most of the game.

The Longhorns wasted no time in starting their way to victory. Hart kicked off to the Kangaroos, but the tough Longhorn defense allowed only two yards on three consecutive tries.

On the attempted punt, the Longhorn line poured in and Quincy Hawkins tackled the punter to give the Longhorns possession on the Kangaroos' 20. From here W. A. Hawkins directed the Longhorns to a score in just three plays. Hawkins pitched the ball to George Ed Bennett, who scooted around the end to score. The try for extra points failed as Tommy Gonzales kicked.

KRESS FAILED a second time to get a rally started, and also failed on its punt. Hart took possession on the Kangaroos' 22, and the same sad story once again ensued the Kangaroos. Bob Crick ran for five, then Tommy Gonzales added eight. From the 10 Gonzales once again carried, and this time bulled his way through a fighting Kangaroo team to score. Again the try for extra points failed, and Hart was ahead 12-0.

The third score of the first quarter came as Bob Crick took the ball on the Kangaroo 2 and scored. The try for extra points failed again.

The second quarter saw the Longhorns still in a dominating mood. A pass from Bob Crick to Larry Parker tallied up another score for the aroused Longhorns. This time Tommy Gonzales made the kick for extra points good, and the Longhorns led 25-0.

They'll travel the long, long trail to Texline for a bout scheduled for 7:30 Friday.

Each team plays five conference games. Hart has had five non-conference games while Nazareth has played four and had one open date. THE SWIFTS will try again Friday to get back into the winner's circle. They're 1-3 so far after losing to Alamo Catholic of Amarillo Friday night, 6-0.

HART'S LAST score came late in the second quarter. Quincy Hawkins, directing the second team, scored on a run from four yards out. The try for extra points was good as Danny Rice carried the pigskin over for two points. The half ended with the Longhorns leading 33-0.

The third quarter saw Coach Ewings second team pitted against the Kangaroos. Behind the rushing of Kress' Searcy, Terrill, Morgan, Brown and Stanley, the Kangaroos were able to put their lone tally on the scoreboard. Edward Stanley finally scored from the 2-yard line, and the try for extra points was good as Lowell Searcy ran for the two points. The game ended with the Longhorns on top, 33-8.

Praising his successful Longhorns, Coach Ewing stated, "I'm very proud of the way my first and second string boys looked, both on offense and defense."

Cats Given Better-Than-Lately Chance Against Lockney Friday

For Dimmitt's embattled Bobcats, it's a different song this week. They draw a slight favorite's role as they return to their home field to take on Lockney Friday night.

AFTER DROPPING two heartbreakers by a combined eight points to the highly regarded Hale Center Owls and Memphis Cyclones, the Bobcats could get back on the victory path this week if they keep up their tough brand of ball control. For two weeks they've played their hearts out and lost, and Coach Brown L. Smith is hoping Lady Luck won't stay fickle forever.

Lockney's Longhorns have a record almost identical to the Bobcats'. They're 2-3 so far this year, while the Cats are sporting a 1-3-1 record and spoiling to improve it.

The two teams' only common opponent has been Memphis. The Longhorns lost to the Cyclones 26-14 two weeks ago, while the Bobcats dropped a 7-0 contest to the Cyclones Friday night — after letting Memphis know it had been in a real scrap.

THE BOBCATS' favorite role is based on comparative scores and the pre-season district rankings (which are proving so far to be fairly accurate, with the notable exception of the unheralded Cyclones of Memphis). Dimmitt was ranked fifth in District 3-AA and Lockney seventh in the pre-season balloting. The winner of Friday night's bout could still place third or better in the rugged conference, so it's an important game.

Coach Don Mize's Longhorns kicked off the year with a 19-9 victory over Crosbyton, then lost by 20-6 to Post. Their last victory was over Ralls three weeks ago, 30-6. Since then they've dropped a 26-14 decision to Memphis and a 13-12 squeaker to Friona.

In five games this year, the Longhorns have racked up 81 points to their opponents' 74 while winning two, and the Bobcats have scored 40 points to their opponents' 63 while winning one and tying one. So neither team has taken a drubbing from anybody, and neither will likely drub the other Friday night.

ALTHOUGH Coach Mize has 10 lettermen back from last season, he has only one player who was a regular last year. And although he has two outstanding backs in Melvin Sissney and David Workman, he's been fighting depth trouble in the backfield.

THE Longhorns have scored at least two touchdowns against every opponent but Post, but that won't mean anything when they run up against the rock-ribbed Bobcat defense.

The Bobcats have toe-to-toe'd it with teams that were apparently stronger than Lockney, but they've also lost to an opponent that is apparently weaker.

So all in all, Friday night's game could be a thriller, with the Bobcats given a better-than-lately chance on their home field. Kickoff time is 7:30 p.m.

Coming Up Next: Report Cards

Here I am again this week with — surprise — more news about parties and more parties. — After the Hale Center ballgame, a large number of students went down to the Baptist Church for a hootenanny. The crowd was composed entirely of high school students this time and I believe it was as large of larger than the last one.

THE THEME for the hootenanny was "Hawaiian Luau," as each guest entered the door, Linda Bruton presented him with a lei and a kiss — a Hershey kiss! Entertainment was provided by a senior trio composed of Peggy Godfrey, Carolyn Simpson and Carolyn Dunn. They also led the songs. The "Surfers" returned to the scene as did the cheerleaders. The cheerleaders did another darling skit. This one was about a cute little worm they met while in Clasco this summer at cheerleading school.

The highlight of the entertainment was a special guest from Hardin-Simmons University. Ty Morris entertained the group with a monologue and several songs. Dee Gibson, also from Hardin-Simmons sang a song for the group. Other guests from Hardin-Simmons included Ken Barnes, Mary Barnes, and Susan Hopson. This provided a very good and entertaining program.

AFTER THE hootenanny, several slumber parties were hosted. To start at the top — because seniors ARE the top — Carolyn Dunn was hostess at a slumber party for the senior girls. Would you believe the senior boys came, too? I thought so! The seniors ate chicken and sandwiches and then had a little bit of creative fun. Ask Joe Bill Butler about the new name given to the Volkswagen he was driving. The seniors take quite a bit of pride in their masterpieces, and they would certainly appreciate underclassmen to be a little more original and find some other place to have their fun. I hear by the grapevine that a few freshmen are having to do a neat clean-up job. As the boys left rather early — in the morning — the girls sat around and talked. Martha Nitsa entertained with interesting facts she has learned since she came to Dimmitt. After all the chatter and clatter, the girls retired about 4:30 a.m.

A PARTY for the sophomore girls was hosted by Dericell Oldham. This was given in honor of Reba Hall, who is moving soon. Reba received quite a few nice gifts. I hear these girls had quite a time riding around in Karen Birdwell's Volkswagen. As usual at a slumber party, the girls gossiped and then hit the sack about 3:30 a.m.

THE FRESHMAN girls had a slumber party at Linda Bennett's home. As did the other girls, she had some invaders. It was a surprise birthday party for Kay Willis and Delores Wilke. They enjoyed birthday cake — two of them in fact — and dips and chips, too. All reported a very enjoyable evening and morning.

As you can well see, our party line this week has really been buzzing! What happened to the juniors? Get busy, kids. You're one behind. Let's keep the line buzzing — okay?

IN THE FASHION limelight this week are the tall sweaters. These are the sweaters that go down over the hip line. Many of these sweaters are rib knits and come in all colors. Another style for tall sweaters is ringed with stripes and pulled down over shirts that show the collars and cuffs. These are very popular worn with skirts, too. Many times, they are belted in at the waist when worn with skirts. For example, Vickie Powell wore a pretty plum and blue rib knit tall sweater, belted in at the waist, with a plum skirt. This made a beautiful ensemble.

Some of our better dressed DHS'ers this week are: Katherine Taack, who wore a bright yellow linen shift with a white collar, Rochelle Johnston, who wore a turquoise bonded knit A-line dress with black rick-rack trimming, Sheila Hamilton, who wore an avacado and orange printed cotton shift, and Allan Webb, who wore black slacks and a pink top, trimmed in black fringe and embroidery. These are just a few of our well dressed students. If you haven't yet been noticed as one of our best dressers, keep dressing nicely and we will notice you.

WELL, HERE I am again this week, but I find the students have a different perspective on this week and last week. As most of you know, six weeks exams were finished this past week and for this, everyone is sighing a breath of relief.

ON THE OTHER HAND, the worst (or best in some cases; is yet to come. This is the week for report cards to go out to the parents for signing. It really does seem impossible that six weeks of school has already gone by. It went so quickly. Just think fellow students, we only have five more of them to go. It's wonderful.

For the upperclassmen, it is only another step in high school, but for the seniors, it is a step in life. Perhaps the biggest one to be made by each senior. Anyway, back to the grade reports, keep studying, students — you don't want to be the first student to spend eight years in high school when you could be spending four of them in college.

A NOTE ON THE Bobcats, Let's keep backing our 'Cats to the fullest extent. Backing is what is needed, or in other words, SPIRIT. If you have noticed in the halls, our fine football players of each team are recognized by an emblem placed on their locker. I think these are very encouraging to the boys, as well as to the student body. They serve as a constant reminder that our boys are fighting for the name of DHS. I believe the Pep Club is responsible for these emblems each week and it is doing a fine job. Also, if you have noticed, the pretty and effective posters that the Pep Club has up in the hall. These also contribute to good school spirit. Remember:

BACK THE BOBCATS!

A REMINDER TO THE SENIORS: If you haven't already gone by to check with Mr. Shadrick, don't forget to do so. He has all the material needed in preparing for the ACT and the SAT. This is very important, if you plan to enter college next fall.

Instead of having all fashion in clothes, I would like to tell you girls what the new look in eye make-up this fall is to be. The eyeliner has gone completely soft — for that matter the whole eye has a soft appearance. The eye make-up is strictly brown. The look is the wide, round eye. This can be accomplished by the following steps:

1. Start with a basic eyebrow pencil. Use soft feather strokes and make the shape of the eyebrow rounded. Not rounded to extremes, but rounded softly.
2. Next get some brown eye shadow. Light grey is a good substitute if brown is not available. Round this as you did the eyebrow. Remember — softly.
3. The next step is eyeliner. Use it sparingly and do not extend it past the corner of your eye. If you have to, stop it just short of the corner. Round it near the center of the eye and on the same basic curve that you used on the brow and shadow.
4. Finally comes the mascara. You may use any dark color that is available. Accent the center of the lash rather than the outer edge which has been accented in the past.

IF YOU DO ALL OF THESE things, you should have the new look for a fall beauty — the soft, wide-eyed, innocent look. For a few more general hints: (1) Use a blue pencil on the edge of your lower lid. This makes the white of your eye appear to be whiter. (2) Try to stay away from lining your lower lid with a dark color if you line it at all. This makes your eyes look harsh and cold. Your eyes generally reflect your personality and emotions, so choose carefully the type of make-up styling you want to use to suit your own personality.

Well, I guess that is about all for now. If you have any special fashion or beauty note that you would like to make or inquire about, drop by the Journalism Department. If we don't know the answer, we can surely do a little research and find out for you. Watch out for me! See Ya!

P.S. THE CTA had a meeting or, in a better sense of the word, a party. At 7:30 on Thursday, Oct. 6, the teachers met and enjoyed a covered dish supper. Entertainment was given by Mrs. Kountz. Those who were present have reported a good time.

Round the Campus

By peeking around corners and hiding behind trees, many things come into light.

For example is it true one of the cheerleaders forgot her tights last Friday night? That's too bad, isn't it Kita? Oh by the way, Kita found them in her boots!!

At a recent Drama Club meeting, skits were done by various members of the club. Among these were skits about a girl who was a bookworm and her Little Town Flirt sister, a thoroughly confused mother.

STRANGE THINGS happened in drama class Monday. Miss Griffing was sick and Mrs. Ike Moore was our substitute teacher. As some of the members of the class were absent, it was decided that Garland Jarvis, Wendell Moore, and Charles Kuntz would give their pantomime on "Leader of the Laundrymat," by the way, Garland, how's your laundry?

Friday afternoon the "Little Yellow Hounds" left for Memphis and everyone had to take quite a big lunch since Silverton's accommodations were rather limited.

THE MIDNIGHT oil was kept burning while DHS students were cramming for their six weeks exams. Anyway, everyone will soon know how much good has

Senior Girl of Week:
Pam Buchanan

Our senior girl of the week is Pam Buchanan. She is a very active young person who belongs to the Drama Club, FHA, and Science Club. Pam is head cheerleader for DHS, and does an excellent job in all the activities.

PAM ENJOYS playing tennis, swimming, and horseback riding.

When Pam graduates from high school, she plans to go either to nursing school or beauty school. Like every other girl, her dreams for the future include marriage and a home of her own.

A HIGH SCHOOL teacher of Pam's had this comment. "I think Pam is a very energetic girl. She is vitally interested in promoting school spirit."

A PIG IN A POKE

THIS ADVERTISEMENT IS BEING SPONSORED AND PAID FOR BY A GROUP OF US WHO ARE CITIZENS AND TAXPAYERS OF DIMMITT. WE'RE DOING IT ON OUR OWN — NOT BECAUSE OF, OR FOR, PUBLIC OR PRIVATE POWER — BUT BECAUSE WE'D LIKE TO KNOW WHAT'S GOING ON.

There are a number of questions we'd like answered before we agree to assume a debt of at least $4,632,000, for a city-owned electric power plant.

First of all, what's the hurry? How come our City only wants to give us roughly 19 days to decide whether Dimmitt should spend $4,632,000 for electric power which it's already getting?

Secondly, city officials haven't presented all the reasons in detail for such haste.

For this kind of money, don't we have a right to know far in advance what's going on?

Let's not go off half cocked. Has anybody explained the indebtedness of each family in Dimmitt will rise 500 percent if the electric power bond issue is passed on October 25?

Has anybody explained the total amount of money we're going to have to pay? What kind of interest will these bonds bear? Isn't the interest going to be 6 percent, and doesn't that add up to a total of at least $4,632,000, rather than $2,400,000 over a 30-year period?

Is it true there is a "definite trend" toward city ownership of power generating facilities? Our research shows that since 1942, 445 cities like us in the U. S. have sold their publicly owned power plants to private companies. This is a drop to 392 from 837 in 1942. In the last 10 years, Terrell, Purkburnett and Spur in Texas have unloaded their public facilities because they couldn't compete with private power.

Last of all, why specifically does Dimmitt need its own power plant? Aren't we getting enough power? Isn't it priced low enough? Isn't the service good enough?

We can't answer any of these questions ourselves, but as taxpayers we'd like the answers before we go out on a limb for $2,400,000!

"EASTER YOUTH," a Castro County Apaloosa gelding, doesn't know it yet, but he's destined to be "roped and rode" on TV soon by his new owner, James Drury, "The Virginian." Here, Easter Youth gets his first public ride by Drury at the New Mexico State Fair in Albuquerque, where the horse was presented to the Virginian by Carl Easterwood of Dimmitt. Drury reports that Easter Youth will be included in future Virginian episodes — he'll be caught as a wild horse by Drury, broken to saddle and presented to co-star Sara Lane, who portrays Charles Bickford's granddaughter in the series. Drury also reported to Easterwood that the two top Virginian episodes coming up, in his opinion, are entitled "Linda" and "Feet of Clay." And that's straight from the horse's mouth.

WHY?

Why increase Dimmitt's bonded indebtedness by more than 500% when the city already has all the electric power it needs to keep on growing? The present indebtedness is less than $500,000, and this one power plant program alone calls for more than 5 times that much money,

Why wonder where the approximately $200,000 a year will come from for 30 years to pay off the bonds? You can stay debt-free and have the best possible electric service plus another taxpaying business.

Why risk indebtedness for a service that is already in good supply? There are school, water, hospital, recreation and airport needs to be met to keep Dimmitt going forward. Don't take on an unnecessary burden. You have electric power to spare.

Why risk inflation and rising fuel prices for a power plant that isn't needed? There is no firm price for fuel on the proposed plant after 1975, but the bonds and interest will go on for years and years after 1975.

Why go backward? Less than half the cities that generated their own electric power 25 years ago are still running their own plants. Profit from their experience. They know isolated plants are inefficient and expensive.

Why substitute one plant for ten? You already have the power from ten plants available to you — ten of the most modern electric generating stations in the Southwest. Don't put your power eggs in just one basket and be in the dark when it breaks down.

Why clutter up the streets and alleys with another set of poles? That's wasteful and dangerous.

Why drive industry away? Industry has found isolated power plants are not reliable and they seek cities which have power supplies like Dimmitt has now. There's plenty of power here to serve the proposed grain processing plants — and ten more if they wanted to come. And we'll help you find new industry.

DIMMITT HAS THE POWER FOR PROGRESS. VOTE TO KEEP IT. VOTE "AGAINST" THE ELECTRIC REVENUE BOND ISSUE ON OCT. 25

The Soil Conservation District is composed of the local farmers and governed by a board of supervisors consisting of five qualified men from the local area, who are elected by the land owners involved.

The tour in question was sponsored, as always, by the Soil Conservation Districts and the speaker was invited by the Soil Conservation District supervisors. I agree that it is inconceivable that a politician wouldn't have an ulterior motive when making speeches during election year, but I would never class Mr. Price's speech as political.

I am an innocent bystander, however:

(1) I feel the board was completely in the limits of propriety in asking Mr. Price to speak.

(2) You failed to distinguish between the Soil Conservation Service and the Soil Conservation District and added to the confusion in the readers' mind.

(3) I think you are off on the wrong base and both the Soil Conservation Service and the Soil Conservation District deserve an apology in your paper for the impugning nature of your comments.

Respectfully, Courtney Brooke Box 775 Dimmitt, Texas

EDITOR'S NOTE — Thanks for your letter Mr. Brooke, and I will take your advise and apologize for any impugning that might have occurred in the column that you refer to. It wasn't my intention to offend of damage anyone, but it is my responsibility, as a columnist, to call attention to any complaints made to this newspaper and as I stated in the previous column there were numerous complaints made because of the appearance of a candidate on the soil conservation tour program.

I am not a lawyer, and do not claim to know all of the provisions of the Hatch Act, but I do know that most federal financed agencies make every effort to steer clear of political involvement.
