DISAPPOINT

"How Do I Profit by the Ford Way of Doing Business?"

Henry Ford says:

"Good and lasting business must produce profit to the buyer as well as to the seller.

And of the two, the buyer's profit must be, comparatively, the larger one. It pays us to sell the Ford V-8 because it pays you to buy it."

HAT advertisement we ran recently, ealled "The Ford Way of Doing Business," was well received and widely discussed.* It told how Ford pioneered in high wages, a shorter working day and week, better industrial conditions, and the Ford policy of lower prices and lower profit.

But the advertisement was not complete. It did not answer the question which may be in your mind! . . . "How does the Ford way benefit me?"

It is a natural question to ask how high wages, short hours and splendid shop conditions affect the price you pay for a car. Of course, you can see that the car may be better, but why should it cost less?

he answer lies in the vast number of cars made. In efficient methods. In improved machinery which increases both the productivity and value of man's work. Compare the Ford

V-8 of 1940 with even the highest priced car of 10 years ago and you can see how that principle works. Every year you get more automobile for your money. Every year, as the average wage to automobile workers has increased, the over-all cost to you of owning and running a ear has grown less. The major influence in keeping quality up and keeping prices down today is the Ford policy in these matters.

It is now generally conceded that the Ford high-wage policy (the minimum wage in Ford plants is $6 per day and skilled workers receive much more) has been of immense benefit to all industry. Other manufacturers in many lines now pay better wages, too, and the result has been to create buying power, provide volume markets and greatly increase the value which a dollar will buy.

Then there is the question of profit. Can it be shown that Ford profit per car is lower - and that the buyer gets the benefit? On this let us refer you to the Federal Trade Commission's recent report on the entire Automobile Industry by direction of the United States Congress.

Analyzing the government figures compiled in this report, a leading financial publication says:

"In the four years from 1934 to 1937, inclusive, a fairly prosperous period for the automobile industry, the Ford Motor Company extracted a profit averaging less than $6 per car." The news story then compares this figure with the $48 and $46 profit averages on other leading low-price cars.

These are direct benefits to you of the Ford way of doing business. This explains why your Ford car can have more cylinders, more equipment, bigger brakes, more costly design and construction in chassis and body-and still cost you no more than other cars in the same price field.
