

SWEEPSTAKES WINNERS — The Dimmitt High School Band, directed by Michael Johnson (right foreground) received the school's first Sweepstakes Award since 1983 during the recent concert and sight-reading regional contest at Panhandle. The band received Division I ratings in both categories to go with the Division I it received in marching in October. Meanwhile, the Nazareth High School Band earned a Division III rating in concert and a Division II in sight-reading to go with its Division I rating in marching, and the Hart High School Band received Division II ratings in both sight-reading and concert. Judges rank bands from I to V in all phases of competition; a band must have all I's for a Sweepstakes Award.

Forum attracts small audience

Candidates spoke mainly to the public voters' forum drew only a small turnout. As Dimmitt Alderman Richard Stahl commented, "Without all the candidates, we wouldn't have many people here to listen."

The forum featured candidates for the Hospital Board, Dimmitt School Board and Dimmitt Board of Aldermen. It was sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce Public Affairs Committee and the County Extension Homemakers.

Mistress of Ceremonies Carole Dyer set the tone of the forum by commenting, "These candidates are all volunteers. To these people who seek to serve, we are grateful."

It took almost 90 minutes for all the candidates to make a brief statement each, then the meeting broke into informal groups around the coffee and cookie tables to allow individual voters to visit with candidates on a one-to-one basis.

Candidates appearing at the forum were:

Hospital Board: James Welch, Garland Coleman.

Board of Aldermen: Mayor Wayne Collins, Robert Jones, Miguel Velasquez, Sam Burke, Richard Stahl.

School Board: Charlie Summers, Kenneth Heard, Sara Hill.

The News will publish highlights of their remarks before the May 6 elections.

Smith ordered to cut back

County Judge Polly Simpson and the Commissioners' Court transferred funds Monday to patch up Precinct 1's overdrawn accounts, but not until Precinct 1 Commissioner Harold Smith agreed to lay off all his part-time employees and quit sending road crews onto private land.

Treasurer Oleta Raper reported that the Precinct 1 budget for part-time employees' salaries was overdrawn, and Auditor Shirley Brockman said the precinct's budget for materials and supplies also was in the red.

After extracting promises from Smith to cut back on his expenditures and conservation work, the commissioners adopted a Smith motion to transfer money from his gross pay and gas-oil accounts to pay back wages to three part-time employees plus one more 40-hour work week for each of the three men.

The court authorized line-item transfers totaling $3,100 from two other Precinct 1 accounts to Smith's part-time pay account. Within the past month, the commissioners also have juggled Precinct 1 funds with transfers totaling $5,944 to get the precinct within its budget on part-time help, compensatory time and road and bridge improvement.

Layoff of the three part-time employees will leave Precinct 1 with four fulltime and no part-time workers. In his first four months in office, Smith has had as many as nine precinct employees, while the other three precincts have had three to four fulltime employees each, plus an occasional part-timer.

Raper reported that Precinct 1 had paid out $8,480 for part-time help from Jan. 1 through April 14 and that $1,078 was still owed. She added that one Precinct 1 employee had quit because he had two weeks' pay coming and she could only write a check for one week's pay without overdrawing the account.

Judge Simpson admonished the new commissioner, "You should keep up with this and know where your budget stands at all times. . . . You're going to have to be more careful with every bit of your budget."

Judge Simpson also pulled out the statute book, reading the law that authorizes charges to be filed and a fine and jail time assessed against any county official violating the terms of the county budget.

Raper notified Smith that if he runs out of money in his budget, then by law, "everything in Precinct 1 will have to stop until Oct. 1," the end of the budget year.

Each commissioner administers his precinct's own road and bridge programs, but such items as special projects, equipment purchases, fund transfers, construction, etc., require the approval of the entire commissioners' court, as do all expenditures from the general fund.

Smith's work of building terrace borders on private farmland to prevent silt from draining into county-road bar ditches also came under fire.

Asked for a legal opinion, County Attorney Jimmy Davis said such projects "need to be approved by the entire commissioners' court in advance instead of one individual making the decision."

Davis also cited the law that makes it illegal for a landowner to waste water, and said that silt draining into a bar-ditch would come under that provision. He said appropriate action in such a situation would probably be for the county to warn the land owner as a first step, then contact the soil conservation district to work for a solution to the problem.

Judge Simpson told Smith, "If you're going to do something like that (building terrace dikes on private land), you'll have to get the permission of the commissioners' court in advance and bring in a written permission from the property owner."

She added, "I've had a complaint, too, from a man who said, 'I can't even get him out here on my road; he's over there doing private work.'"

Smith promised, "I won't do any more on private land to keep silt out of the bar ditch until I come to the commissioners' court with it for approval."

In other action Monday, the commissioners:

—Heard a requested review of the Unemployment Compensation Act as it pertains to governmental units, presented by Cliff Williams of the Texas Employment Commission office in Hereford.

—Set the contract rates for backhoe, grader or loader work done by county equipment at $75 per hour.

—Approved a request by the C. R. Anthony Co. to set up a tent on the street-side parking area on the east side of the courthouse for a tent sale on City-Wide Garage Sale day in June.

—Approved and signed a contract with the First State Bank of Dimmitt to serve as the county depository.

—Rejected two bids of $9,500 and $8,050 to purchase the county-owned house in Hart, and agreed to re-advertise for new bids and perhaps have the house reappraised. The house was appraised at $24,000.

—Signed a letter to State Sen. Teel Bivins and State Rep. Pete Laney objecting to a provision in the Criminal Justice Reform Package that would authorize the state to refuse to accept convicted felons if state prison facilities were full.

Top chili cooks will simmer here Saturday

Their pickups, vans and camping trailers will start arriving Friday evening. They'll set up at the rodeo grounds in East Dimmitt Saturday morning, and by noon the air will be filled with the aroma of three dozen or more pots of simmering chili, crafted from scratch.

The Castro County Peace Officers Association's second annual Chili Cookoff will continue through the day with tasting sorties by judges and the visiting public, entertainment skits by the cooking teams, a concession stand and door prizes.

The first annual cookoff last year "was awfully successful, and we're hoping it will be even better this year," POA President Joe Hoard said.

"I'm hoping for as many as 40 teams," said Marshall Langford, registration chairman. "We will draw probably 25 to 30 from the Amarillo area, several teams from around here, and others from around the region."

The cooks will be competing for points in the annual statewide chili standings. Points earned in regional cookoffs help teams to qualify for state and world events.

The cooks will "fire up" about 11 a.m. and the judging will begin at 2:30, Langford said. While the chili is simmering, the teams will start giving their skits and shows—a standard feature of sanctioned chili cookoffs—about 12 noon. Entertainment last year included juggling, skirmishes, shootouts, a trained dog act and musical performances.

Winners will be announced around 3:30 or 4 p.m., Langford said.

The cooks will give out free samples for tasting "as soon as we turn in our chili samples to the judges," he said.

The Child Protective Services Board will operate a concession stand throughout the day and "we'll have a pot of chili ready to eat starting at noon," Langford said. Also, door prizes will be awarded during the judging time to those attending.

Entry fee is $35 per team. All proceeds will go to the Peace Officers Association's projects for local children and youth, such as the Special Olympics, scout troops and special events.

Hospital revises paperwork policy

Plains Memorial Hospital announced this week that it is cutting down on insurance paperwork to hold down costs.

"In order to maintain the level of care that Plains Memorial has prided itself in providing in the past, we must make efforts to cut costs in areas that will not affect the patient's healing process," Business Manager Dianna Sigert said.

Two new policies are now in effect on insurance procedures, Sigert said:

1. Any outpatient service with charges totaling less than $200 that is not Medicare, Medicaid, Campus or Workmen's Compensation, will NOT be filed by hospital business office personnel. Instead, the patient will be responsible for these charges and will be provided an itemized bill to be used to file his or her own insurance claim.

2. On hospitalization claims, the business office will file with a patient's primary insurance company and on one supplementary policy at no charge. But each additional supplementary claim will be filed at a cost of $15.

For example, Sigert said, Plains Memorial files at no charge any primary insurance, such as Medicare, and one supplement insurance, such as AARP. Any supplement filed after the first supplement will be done at a charge of $15 each.

The new policies, she said, will hold down postage, payroll and processing costs.

"These policies are new to our patients, and we expect to have several questions to answer," Sigert said. "Please feel free to call the business office at 647-2191 with your questions between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. any weekday."

Dimmitt Dollars kickoff planned

GROWING

The new $5 Dimmitt Dollars will be worth $6 at many Dimmitt stores next Thursday. And most of the participating stores will stretch the bargains further by staying open until 8 p.m.

To help promote circulation of the new "Dimmitt money," the stores will offer discounts all day that will be good only if the purchase is made with Dimmitt Dollars.

For instance, if an item costs $36, you can buy it with six of the Dimmitt Dollars (which cost you $30) and save $6 on the purchase.

You can buy Dimmitt Dollars for $5 each at the Chamber of Commerce office from 9 to 5 any weekday. They will be accepted the same as regular money at any business in town. Businesses may spend them, or redeem them for face value at the Chamber of Commerce.

Stores that will stay open until 8 p.m. next Thursday, with Dimmitt Dollars 6-for-5 values all day, are Maria's Mexican Food Restaurant, Hungry Farmer Restaurant, Seale's Florist, Thriftway Supermarket, IGA Foodliner, Sheffy's Western and Casual Wear, Flowers to Go, Tots and Teens, Perry's, Harman's and Kittrell Electronics.

Other businesses that will offer 6-for-5 values, but which will not stay open late, are Bryant's Sales & Service, Hi-Plains Oil Co., C&S Battery & Electric and Coleman Pharmacy.

"The 'bonus bucks' offer may exclude some items at the retailer's discretion, such as sale merchandise or big-ticket items," Chamber of Commerce Executive Director Delores Heller said.

After the "bonus day" next Thursday, Dimmitt Dollars will continue to be accepted at face value by all local businesses, she said.

On the Go with Mary Edna Hendrix, 647-3343

Deanne Clark and Ann Ethington flew to Dallas recently for a visit with three of Ann's cousins. Ruth Stollenwerck and daughter, Ann Campbell, both of Dallas, and Jane Jarrett from Fort Worth, met at the Summit Hotel where they all had lunch together and a nice visit in their room later. Lots of talk and pictures were passed around and catching up on family events. Going back to the airport the driver of their shuttle bus was Jay Lassiter who is the grandson of the Lester McDermits of Dimmitt, and the nephew of Audrey Shottenkirk who has moved to Amarillo. Jay is training to be in the 1992 Olympics. He will enter the bicycle competition and has worked up to riding 40 miles a day. At the airport they met Deanne's daughter and son-in-law, Tanya and Kirk Brewer, and her two grandchildren, Adam and Adrienne. Tanya and Kirk flew on to San Francisco, and the two children came to Lubbock with Ann and Deanne for a week's visit with the Clark grandparents.

On Thursday and Thursday night, guests of Dan and Oma Dee Heard were Dan's sister and her husband, Doris and Charles Cullum of Longmont, Colo. They were on their way home after being gone four and a half weeks. Charles is recovering from a serious illness, so they've been doing some traveling. Lunch guests were the Cullums, Kenneth and Nona Heard, Danny, Tammy, Alicia and Nicole, Jennifer White and Leslie Heard. Pam White and James came by on lunch break from school. That night Walter White, James, Jennifer and J'Nae and Ashley Heard along with the others had supper together. Pam went to Hereford with the kindergarten teachers to eat out.

Friday night E.D. and Grace Morgan hosted a barbecue and ice cream and cake supper for Grace's sister, Pauley Jones. They had a cake made in the shape of Texas with a "Yellow Rose of Texas" on it. Pauley and her husband Arthur Jones have been visiting for a week. They are from Brandywine, Md. Other guests were James, Glenda and Matt Sims, and Dan and Oma Dee Heard. One special gift for Pauley was a beautiful framed picture painted for her by Matt. Danny Heard came by to visit. E.D. had a pair of spurs made for Danny by a friend while they were gone on one of their mission trips and he gave these to Danny—just in time for Danny to wear them in the Exes' rodeo and roping at Clarendon Junior College, where Danny graduated. He and Roy Schilling participated.

E.D. and Grace Morgan have been working with the Texas Baptist Men Retirees Building for the Glory of God, and had a part in building three church buildings this year.

Grace gives this report: Our first job in January was in Industry. There were 42 RV's on the job site, and when the church was "in the dry," we held a three-day revival. The Lord blessed. There were 9 people who gave their lives to Jesus.

In February, we moved on to Needville. There were 32 RV's on the site. After three days of visitation in the community by the women, we held a three-day revival. There were many decisions for Jesus.

March took us to Eddy. The job there was a blessing to us. The young pastor, Mike Paschall, was excited about the work being done and about the Lord's work in the community. The women visited every home before the four-day revival began. It is impossible to put into words how the Lord brought revival to that church.

The Morgans had a part in only three of the nine buildings built this year. There are three groups working all the time. Each church is responsible for giving us a place to park and one meal a day. The church furnishes the building materials, and the labor is volunteer.

Morgan and Geneva Dennis entertained relatives, Kester and Sylvia Duran, from Wapta, Wash. last week.

Gene and Connie Ivey enjoyed a visit from Connie's brother, Joe Dunn of Sonora, Calif. They always go out to Canterbury Villa to sing and play for the residents there.

Kim Riley was in Dimmitt on his spring break visiting his mother, Edna Riley. They spent one day with his brother, Ray Joe and his family. They went to Plainview to attend a show on one day.

Ruth Coleman celebrated her birthday on several occasions. Besides the formal reception at the Methodist church on Sunday, members of her family, Shirley Wise, Susan Coleman and Linda Welch took her to Lubbock on her birthday to hear Sandi Patti.

Zonelle Maples, Betty Vaughan, and Oma Stokes went to Paducah for an Eastern Star meeting and took Ruth Coleman along to visit a friend, Verdi Lee Hinds. Mrs. Hinds had invited several friends from the Sunday School Class and the Study Club and other friends of Ruth's, and they all enjoyed a get-together.

The Eastern Star meeting was a tea and reception for Thelma Joyce Hall, who is Dist. Deputy Grand Matron. Thelma is a former Dimmitt resident and her father, Granville Martin was Sheriff of Castro County.

Ferne Dickey was hostess to the Thursday Bridge Club that met at the Senior Citizens Center for lunch and a day of bridge. Dude McLauren won high score and Susie Reeves won second high score. Others playing were Cleo Forson, Elizabeth Huckabay, Alice Collyer, Louise Mears, Emily Clinging-smith, Opha Burks, Edith Graef, Helen Braafladt, Johnnie Vannoy and Neva Hickey.

Avie Lewis and parents, Virgil and Geneva Justice, drove to College Station to visit Avie's kids, Ronna and Kerry Lewis, who are attending A&M. They had fun driving down and back because Avie takes the country roads part of the time and they get to see the beautiful parts of Texas. The wild flowers were pretty.

Virgil Justice and his twin brother, Jason Justice from Lubbock, have returned from a fun trip. They went to Houston, where they toured the Space Center, San Jacinto, and other places of interest. Then, they went on to New Orleans, where they had planned to take a boat ride up the Mississippi, but it was just going on weekends. So they left and drove to Lakeland, Fla. to visit their brother Rev. I.W. Justice, who had been a pastor in 10 churches in the Lakeland area for 30 years. His church was sponsoring a "This Is Your Life" for Rev. Justice, and he thought he was to preach, so he was shocked and thrilled when they started bringing in many of his relatives.

While Virgil and Jason were in Florida, they visited Disney World, Bush Gardens, and saw the largest flea market in the world, near lake-land. Before returning home, they toured Georgia, Tennessee, Kentucky, Pennsylvania, and then stopped in Missouri, where they visited another brother. They reported seeing beautiful country—some needed rain and some had too much rain.

Geneva Justice flew to Paris, Texas to be with her son, Ken Justice and family, while Virgil was on his trip. She later came home with them.

Bill Sava very quietly celebrated his 50th birthday with family Sunday, April 16, and thought that was it. But his big day came Tuesday when he and Jacque went to Senior Citizens for the monthly covered dish supper and game night as guests of his mother, Barbara. He was greeted with the birthday song and presented a membership card by Andy Schumacher, president. The membership was a gift from his mom.

After dinner, bridge, skip-bo and dominoes were enjoyed, a very juvenile birthday cake decorated with ducks and containing foil-wrapped coins was served to those sharing the night of fun and games.

"It was worth waiting for," said Bill. "I'd forgotten all about the coin-filled cakes mom used to make for us. We'd tear them apart looking for coins, and it's still fun."

"My opinion of Senior Citizens has changed now that I'm one. I think they should be 'keen-agers.' It was a fun evening. I'm happy I've made it this far. Jacque enjoyed it, too, but she's not a member—yet."

The Hereford Community Concert Association is conducting its membership drive through Saturday. Campaign headquarters for the drive is at the Hereford Chamber of Commerce office, which will be open from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. weekdays, and from 9 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Saturday. Visiting artists for the 1989-90 season will include "A Broadway Celebration," a staged musical review of the best of Broadway, featuring four performers; the Dallas Brass, a brass quintet with percussion, playing selections from classical to pop; pianist Lincoln Mayorga, combining classical and popular music; and Carrol McLaughlin, harpist, and Bill Marx, pianist, composer and son of Harpo.

All seniors and former basketball players, girls and boys, from Nazareth and Dimmitt are reminded of the games May 6 at Dimmitt Middle School. Come dressed ready to play. There will be a place for you.

Girls game will be at 6:30 p.m., and the boys at 8 p.m., with Little Dribblers between. Admission to the "Bouncing for Breath" games and proceeds from concession sales will benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

There will be door prizes given through the courtesy of many Dimmitt merchants, and the winner of the weekend in Dallas will be announced. This trip includes two round-trip tickets from Lubbock to Dallas, and are furnished courtesy of American Airlines. Also included in the package is a one-night stay at the Fairmont, a downtown luxury hotel. You do not have to be present to win. Tickets can be obtained at the First State Bank, the ASCS office, and from various individuals, or by calling 647-3247.

4-H horse program is learning experience

There is more to the 4-H horse program than just competition. 4-H members in this program become involved in a broad range of projects and activities, said Lance Caviness, county 4-H program coordinator with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Members learn everything from tips on buying a horse to trail and endurance riding. They also learn horse anatomy and safe riding habits as well as how to train a horse for shows. More than 255,000 4-H'ers are enrolled in the national horse program, including some 10,000 4-H members in Texas.

These young people learn more than horsemanship. For instance, showing horses helps youngsters stay poised in a pressure situation, to show sportsmanship to others, and to do a good job. Judging horses can help individuals organize their thoughts.

4-H horse program members also put their skills to work by helping others in community projects, Caviness said. Some have organized country drill teams and conducted shows for community groups and nursing homes. Others have provided low-income youth with their first opportunity to ride a horse.

All across the country, 4-H'ers also are working in special horseback riding programs involving disabled youth. 4-H members who excel in the horse program can qualify for numerous awards provided by the American Quarterhorse Association including expense-paid trips to the National 4-H Congress each December in Chicago, Ill., and several scholarships.

To find out more about the 4-H horse program, contact the county Extension Office at 647-4115.

Hart 'Watch' group will meet tonight

The new Hart Neighborhood Watch Program has called a second meeting for tonight (Thursday) at 8 in the Golden Group Building. The meeting is open to all farm residents in the Hart area.

"I've talked with a number of farmers west of Hart and south of Highway 194 who were left out of the original watch area," organizer Clint McFarland said. "They have expressed interest in coming into the program. If their areas are favorably represented at the meeting, we'll be glad to help them get started."

He said the new areas could be included in the original Neighborhood Watch Program or divided into separate, concentrated watch areas.

The original watch program in the Hart vicinity covers a 31-section area east of the city. Deputy Sheriff Joe Hoard, the county's crime prevention officer, will present a slide program entitled "On the Lookout."

Tonight's meeting will be open to all interested persons. However, no babysitter will be provided, and parents will be responsible for their own children's discipline during the meeting, McFarland said.

Double-ring vows unite Lezli White and Daniel Acker

Lezli Shena White and Daniel Melvin Acker exchanged wedding vows Friday at the First Baptist Church Chapel in Tulia. Rev. Charles Davenport, pastor, officiated at the double-ring ceremony, assisted by Deacon Jerome Brockman of Nazareth.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis White of Tulia, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Luke Acker of Nazareth.

Vows were exchanged before brass candelabrams in a half circle with greenery and satin bows of pink, yellow and blue. Pyramid brass candelabrams flanked the altar, and satin bows of pink, yellow and blue marked the pews.

Music was provided by Sue George, pianist. Selections included The Rose, Endless Love, Open Arms, Friends and Lovers, Wind Beneath My Wings, Take My Breath Away, and Up Where We Belong.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a formal gown of white regal satin and sparkling organza with a sweetheart neckline. The bodice, fitted and molded in braided embroidered medallions, featured a low and open back with a keyhole design. The skirt was full and flowing crystal organza with designer bow. The cathedral-length train featured a cascade of ruffles in a water-fall effect from the waistline. To compliment the gown the bride chose a designer full-brimmed hat of satin and French lace.

She carried a bouquet of cascading bridal pink roses, white spider poms, yellow and blue pixie carnations entwined in English ivy and baby's breath. The bouquet was affixed on a lace covered New Testament, which her mother had carried at her wedding.

Rae Nita White of Tulia, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of pink organza with an old south off-the-shoulder neckline. The full bella skirt featured a designer bow in back with soft ruffles and bustle.

buquerque, N.M., and Alison Roberts of Lubbock wore gowns of yellow and blue identical to that of the matron of honor. They all carried parasols matching their dresses. Their headpieces were of silk roses and babies breath. They had wristlets of fresh mixed flowers.

The bride carried out the tradition of something old, something new, borrowed, and blue. She had pennies in her shoe dated the years of her birth and the groom's.

Alan Acker of Amarillo served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Doug Acker of Lakewood, Calif., brother of the groom, and Tim J. Wilhelm of Amarillo. Ushers were Sherlann White of Tulia, brother of the bride, and Damian Wilhelm of Amarillo.

The bride's table was covered with a white lace cloth over a yellow undercloth, and white satin bows highlighted the front of the table. The centerpiece was a silver candelabra with the bride's bouquet flowing from it. The three-tiered wedding cake, punch and coffee were served to guests by Michele Schulte of Lubbock and Donna Corp of Alpine, sisters of the groom, and Chrissy Acker of Amarillo, sister-in-law of the groom.

Sabrina Acker of Nazareth, sister of the groom, registered the guests. The parents of the groom hosted the rehearsal supper Thursday night at the Willie Room.

The bride is a graduate of Tulia High School, and attended Frank Phillips College in Borger. She was employed by the American Quarter Horse Association in Amarillo.

A graduate of Nazareth High School, the groom attended Amarillo College, and is employed by Elgin Veterinary Inc. of Elgin.

The couple will make their home in Elgin.

Nazareth

By Uirgie Gerber, 945-2669

A good crowd really enjoyed the Musical Bible Story "God with a Capital G," presented by the Faithful Friends Children's Choir Sunday afternoon at the school cafeteria. The main characters were Elijah, played by Nathan Hoelting; King Ahab, played by Shawn Pohlmeier; and Obadiah, played by Nicholas Gerber. Others in the cast were the Fire and Rain Dancers, the Servants of God, the Subjects of Ahab, the Prophets of Baal, and the Stage Managers. Directors were Bernita Hoelting and Vicky Kleman. Marcia Hoelting was on key-borad, and Casey Hoelting on bass. All are to be commended on a fine, entertaining performance.

Cecil and Norita Hoelting recently went to Dallas to attend their son, Kevin's graduation from the National Education Center. They also helped Kevin celebrate his 21st birthday at a Dallas Maverick game. Later, they visited their son, Dale, and Cecil's sister, Dianne Norris and family. In Greenville, they visited another son, Mark, and his family, and enjoyed the tour of the Audie Murphy Library with them.

Howard Sharp was recently honored with a surprise party on his 85th birthday by relatives, friends, and neighbors, including Artie Huseman, Leonard and Julia Birkenfeld, Theresa and Ross Birkenfeld, Leonard and Rosemary Wilhelm, Frank and Josie Sharp, Babe Smith, and Jane and Bob Lowry, Trey and Kathy. Bill Sharp and Mary Howard's family all celebrated with him on the weekend.

Clyde and Bea Hoelting, Cheryl Hoelting and Jeff Presnall attended a bridal shower Saturday afternoon for Cheryl. It was held at the home of a family friend, Mrs. Elvis Blake in Goree.

Leonard and Rosemary Wilhelm recently visited with Msgr. Stanley Crocchiola in Canadian. He was looking forward to flying to New Jersey and California to spend some time visiting with his family this summer.

Toney and Mary Gerber enjoyed driving to Woodward, Okla. to spend a few days with the Norbert and Helen Gerber family.

The Nazareth Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom were both enjoyed this past Saturday evening. The community hall was beautifully decorated for it.

REST

A day of play has tired this little one, but now sleep will bring about the needed rest. This is the time for restoring energies, and breaks the day's pace. The Lord set aside a day for rest and worship. This day allows us to be in the Lord's house and renews our energies for the week to come.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

DHS runners break three records

Dimmitt High School runners set new school records in three events Friday at a qualifiers' meet at Clovis.

Kelly Howell set a new DHS record in the 110-meter high hurdles while winning the event in 14.79 seconds. The old record was 14.85, set by David Barton.

Michael Ethridge finished third in the high hurdles with a time of 15.11.

Ethridge broke his own school record in the 300-meter intermediate hurdles, winning the event in 39.97 seconds. His old record was 40.17.

Filiberto Alafa placed fourth in the intermediate hurdles with a time of 40.87 seconds.

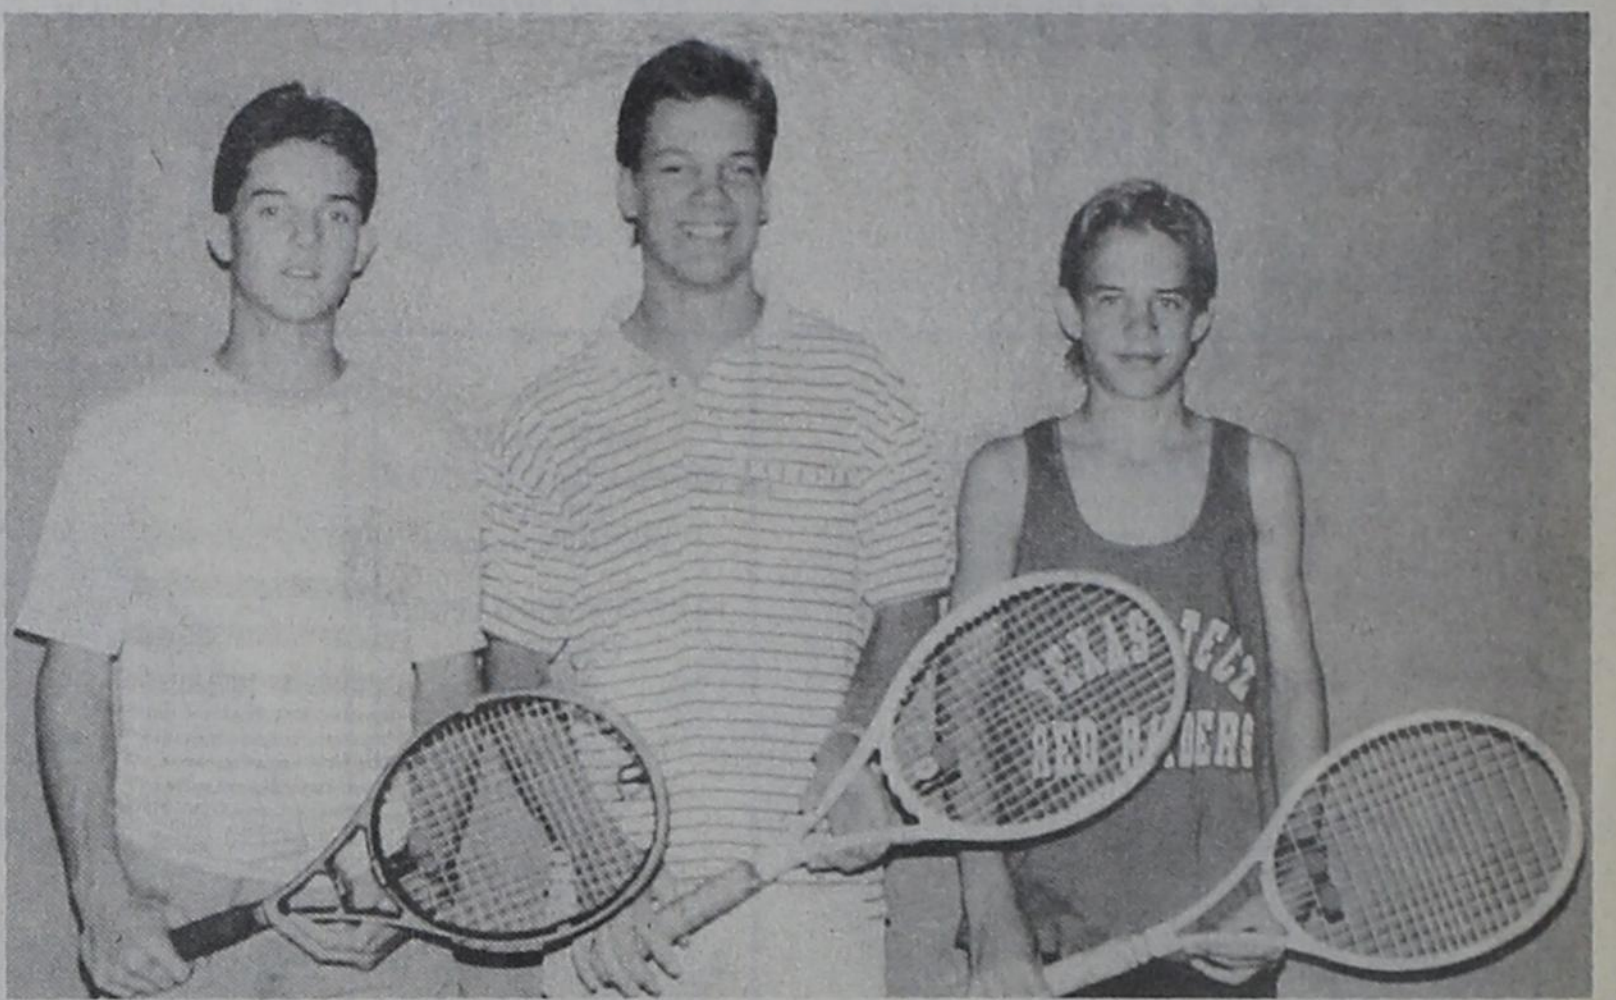

In the final event, Ethridge and Alafa teamed with Chad Davis and Coby Moke to set a new school record of 3:26.64 in the 1,600-meter relay. The same quartet held the old record of 3:27.88 in the metric mile relay.

Davis also placed second in the 100-meter dash, sprinting the distance in 10.70 seconds.

Texas athletes at the Clovis meet were all regional qualifiers, while the New Mexico athletes were all state qualifiers, DHS Coach George Rasor said.

Fourteen schools—11 from New Mexico and three from Texas—were represented at the meet. They were Dimmitt, Dalhart, Farwell, Clovis, Albuquerque La Cueva, Melrose, Albuquerque Highlands, Hobbs, Carlsbad, Tucumcari, Ft. Sumner, Elida and Dora.

Cotton Talks

The inability to insure yields at acceptable levels and other major complaints of High Plains Farmers against the federal crop insurance program could be partially corrected for the 1990 crop year, according to Myrl D. Mitchell, chairman of the Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

Mitchell is the cotton spokesman on the Federal Crop Insurance Commission, created last year by Congress to recommend changes needed to increase producer participation in the multi-peril crop insurance program offered by the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation (FCIC).

The 21-member commission, after four meetings and numerous field hearings, recently submitted its interim report to Congress, including 26 suggested actions FCIC has authority to take before the start of the 1990 crop insurance sign-up next July 1.

Two of the changes recommended by the commission directly addressed a lack of adequate yield coverage and ineffective unit division stressed by PCG in testimony before the commission hearing in Lubbock March 7.

The commission's suggestions, if implemented by FCIC, would give producers the option to apply for insurance coverage based on established farm payment yields or permit modified coverage based on the actual production history system FCIC now employs. ASCS yields would be permitted on program crops. Modified coverage would apply to non-program crops and soybeans.

On unit division, under which PCG's position asks that each production unit or field stand on its own for loss adjustment purposes, the Commission recommended establishing regional unit definitions for program crops and cotton units by share where a share-tenant and landlord relationship exists.

Related to what producers see as an unattractive premium-coverage ratio, the commission also suggested allowing farmers to exclude high-risk land from their insured coverage.

The commission is made up of ten producers, ten insurance industry representatives and FCIC General Manager John Marshall. Producers include three representing general farm organizations, three representing general crops and one producer each speaking for corn, wheat, soybean and cotton producers.

The final report of the commission, due by July 1, 1990, is expected to cover recommendations that for one reason or another couldn't be implemented before the 1991 crop year, including some that would require legislation.

Program encourages leadership

4-H youth enrolled in the achievement program are taking a major step in developing leadership skills, said Lance Caviness, county 4-H program coordinator with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

By participating in the program, youth can attain a broad knowledge of 4-H projects and activities and their contribution to improving family and community living. They can become skilled, productive and self-directing individuals, adopt and apply the latest practices and research findings to everyday living, and apply all 4-H training and experience in choosing and preparing for a vocation.

Those 4-H'ers who excel in the program can qualify for awards provided by the Ford Motor Company Fund. Awards include a trip to National 4-H Congress for each state winner and nine scholarships at the national level.

For more information about the 4-H achievement program, contact the county Extension office.

Sunnyside

By Teeny Bowden, 647-5703

Mrs. Norma Gulley, mother of Becky Ott, died Monday morning, April 17, in St. Edward Hospital in Fort Smith, Ark. She and her husband, Elton, had moved from Muleshoe to the Van Buren area last year for health reasons. Becky, her father and other relatives in the funeral cortege arrived at the funeral home in Muleshoe last Wednesday night; James and Joan Norrell were there to meet them. The Norrells and Teeny Bowden attended the funeral service in the Progress Baptist Church, where Mr. and Mrs. Gulley were members, and burial in Bailey County Memorial Park Friday afternoon. Todd Embry and Marty Ott, along with other grandsons, served as pallbearers.

Rev. David Fletcher went to Fort Worth Wednesday afternoon with Dr. Manning, one of his Wayland professors, and other classmates for a tour of Southwestern Theological Seminary as a class assignment. They toured the seminary Thursday and Friday, and got back Friday night.

Don and Mike Fry and Tyson Cowley put new shingles on the south side of the church building last week. It took most of last Wednesday to get the old shingles off.

April 12 (last Wednesday) marked the 29th anniversary of the tornado that destroyed the original church building. A Wes Izzard column years ago gave several old-timer stories about tornadoes. One was as follows: "On the 18th of May, 1916, a man near Scotland, S.D., had just put the finishing touches on a garage in preparation for a new Ford that he intended purchasing when one of the typical Midwest cyclones appeared on the horizon. After the passage of the storm he emerged from his cyclone cellar and was surprised to find in his garage a brand new Buick bearing a Kansas license tag."

Juanita McGill and Teeny Bowden both received long letters last week from Toots Holbrooks in Indiana. She is doing fine and says to tell everyone "hello" for her. She will stay until after her grandson Jody's graduation May 17, then Freda Henderson will come get her to visit with their family in Colorado until mid-June, when she is supposed to keep a doctor's appointment in Lubbock.

Ronnie Blanton started the three-week rehabilitation stage of his illness Wednesday.

Gary Lilley went back to work Wednesday, but is still very weak. Shorty and Johnny B. Lilley had heard from Josephine Lilley, a former resident, and she is working on getting a cookbook published. She will be 87 in May.

Penetha Armstrong is now in the Webster Nursing Center in Webster, near Houston, where her nephew is taking care of her. He is also a former resident of the community. Kenneth reports that she seems improved and is in therapy, but she still cannot talk. He encourages her friends to send cards since she seems to know what they are and recognizes the names of those they are from. The therapist told him they were very good medicine for her. Cards may be sent to Webster Nursing Center, 750 West Texas Ave., Webster, TX, 77598.

Rev. Norris and Tooter Fulfer of California visited Teeny Bowden briefly Friday morning on their way to Morris to visit with Sis and Si McCloy. They also stopped by for a brief visit with Beck Bridges in Canterbury Villa. Norris has retired from the pastorate after many years. They said to say "hello" to all their friends here. They have to be back in Martinez, Calif., the 29th for a wedding, but plan to retire to the Los Angeles area to be closer to their children.

Alton and Betty Louder, Dwayne and Doug Louder, and Lance and Jake Louder spent Monday through Wednesday at Stamford Lake fishing with Lowell and Genevieve Westmoreland, Lowell's sister Thelma, and Ricky Yantis and his father. Jake caught two fish—his first.

A trace of rain was received Saturday afternoon in a brief thungo with them, but met with friends from Albany there this weekend. James went with Patricia Powell instead of the grandchildren, and Tex and Norma Conard also were present.

Several from Hart also attended the unveiling of the mammoth exhibit in Plainview April 14. The unveiling coincided with the first annual Texas Archeology Awareness Week, April 9-15. Gov. Clements signed a proclamation making the official declaration, and concurrent resolutions in support of Archeology Awareness Week were read before both houses of the Texas Legislature. The Texas Historical Commission co-sponsored the special week with the Texas Archeological Society, Council of Texas Archeologists and the Texas Historical Foundation. Each organization realized the need for heightening public awareness of the fact that each archeological and historic site represents a unique and irreplaceable part of Texas history.

Eddie Guffee, curator of The Museum of the Llano Estacado, reported this week that there had been a steady flow of school children through the museum all this week. To date, 6,000 people have viewed the mammoth exhibit.

Visitors in the Wednesday night church services were Rev. Greg Kinch, pastor of the Rocky Ford Baptist Church, and his wife Charlotte, Mike Fry and Tyson Cowley. Rev. Kinch filled in for Bro. David Fletcher. Visitors in the Sunday morning services were Becky and Kathy Norrell, who spent the weekend with James and Joan; Phyllis Mooney, who played the piano; Vanna Elkins, who attended Sunday School as well as church; and Elizabeth Worthington.

Clara Vick and Teeny Bowden were in Lubbock Thursday afternoon to do the final blue-line proofreading of "Legacy of Peace."

Larry and Sharon Sadler and family came in from Lake Hubbard Wednesday night, and Ezell and Verba on Thursday after making preparations for the Louder reunion next weekend. Randy did not VICTIM OF THE WIND—This Peterbilt cattle truck was a victim of the "wind wall" that hit between 4 and 5 p.m. Friday. The empty truck, owned by Tommy Brown Trucking Co. of Paducah and driven by Ken Byrnes of Paducah, was eastbound on Highway 86 a few miles west of Dimmitt when the severe wind hit it and blew it off the road, where it overturned in the bar ditch. Byrnes escaped without injury, the Dept. of Public Safety reported.

Police Calls

James Kreig Gallagher of Summerfield reported to the Sheriff's Dept. Monday that an estimated $576 worth of tools and shop items had been stolen from his barn Sunday night.

Gallagher said all the stolen tools are engraved with his Texas driver's license number, 09117482.

Taken in the burglary were a full set of S-K tools, five Craftsman wrenches, two cases of antifreeze, a case of freon, a full set of Proto socket tools, half a box of high-quality welding rods and a new engine stand in a box.

The Sheriff's Dept. is investigating.

Christopher B. Burrous, 19, of Hereford, was charged last week with having stolen 22 head of cattle in early March from Kenneth Christie's feedyard two miles south of Summerfield.

Sheriff's officers said an investigator for the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association brought the charges.

A warrant has been issued for another person in connection with the same incident, but that suspect hasn't been arrested yet, the Sheriff's Dept. said.

Burrous is free under $15,000 bond.

Chad Hill of Hill Feed Yard at Hart reported to the Sheriff's Dept. last Wednesday that someone had stolen a radio/cassette player from his Peterbilt truck while it was parked on the feed yard's truck lot. Hill described the radio/tape unit as a Pyramid Phase III, Model 640DGL, with AM/FM radio, multiplex cassette player, and valued it at approximately $125.

Nicolas Garza, 21, of Dimmitt was turned over to Brazos County authorities Saturday after being arrested by local sheriff's officers last week on a probation-violation warrant from Brazos County. Garza was on probation after being convicted of failure to stop and render aid, the Sheriff's Dept. said.

The Dimmitt Police Dept. charged Ascension Vargas of Dimmitt Tuesday with filing a false report.

Mammograms to be offered

A mobile breast cancer detection unit will be in Dimmitt Wednesday, May 3, at Plains Memorial Hospital.

Appointments may be made by calling 647-2191.

The mobile breast cancer detection unit from Odessa, sponsored by Transamerican Diagnostic, has been certified by the American College of Radiology's mammography accreditation program.

The American Cancer Society recommends that women do monthly breast self-exams and have regular physical breast exams by a doctor. It further recommends mammograms be run on the following schedule: a baseline mammogram (for reference) between ages 35 and 39; a mammogram every one or two years between age 40 and 49; and an annual mammogram after age 50.

Vargas had reported his 1977 Oldsmobile stolen April 17. The car was found later by a Dept. of Public Safety trooper along FM 2392 west of Dimmitt, where it had been wrecked and abandoned.

After spending 1-1/2 days investigating the incident, the Police Dept. obtained a signed statement from one of Vargas' sons that he was the one who had rolled the car, Police Chief Gary Thurman said. Thurman added that the youth was excluded from Vargas' insurance policy.

Filing a false report with a law enforcement agency is a Class B misdemeanor which carries a maximum penalty of 180 days in jail and/or a $1,000 fine.

A Dimmitt teenage girl complained that an Amarillo youth had hit her car with a long chain Saturday evening, damaging the left front quarter panel, the windshield and chrome trim of her car. The incident occurred at the intersection of Front and Grant when her car, which was being driven by a friend, stopped at the intersection behind the Amarillo youth's vehicle. She told police she didn't know the reason for the attack.

Ricky Hunter, 400 W. Bedford, reported to police Saturday that someone had taken his 1988 Nissan pickup from his driveway and had entered his wife's van, leaving the doors ajar.

The pickup was found later that day, parked in the 400 block of Northwest Third Street. Hunter said nothing appeared to have been taken from the vehicle, and the keys were replaced where he had left them the night before.

Two traffic accidents, both involving towed trailers, occurred on city streets within 30 minutes Friday afternoon.

Jimmy Wright was driving north in the 700 block of Front Street, towing a water tank trailer with his Chevrolet pickup, when he crossed the intersection of Front and FM 3215, into the path of an oncoming 1984 Pontiac driven by Joyce King, who was eastbound on FM 3215, officers said.

Mrs. King's car skidded more than 78 feet before it collided with the tank unit, police reported.

Mrs. King was taken by ambulance to Plains Memorial Hospital, where she was treated for bruises and abrasions. The front of her car sustained heavy damage and was towed away by Stanford Body Works, police reported.

Wright's pickup received moderate damage as a result of the collision, but neither he nor his 5-year-old son, Cliff, who was riding with him, were injured, police said.

The accident occurred about 3:30 p.m.

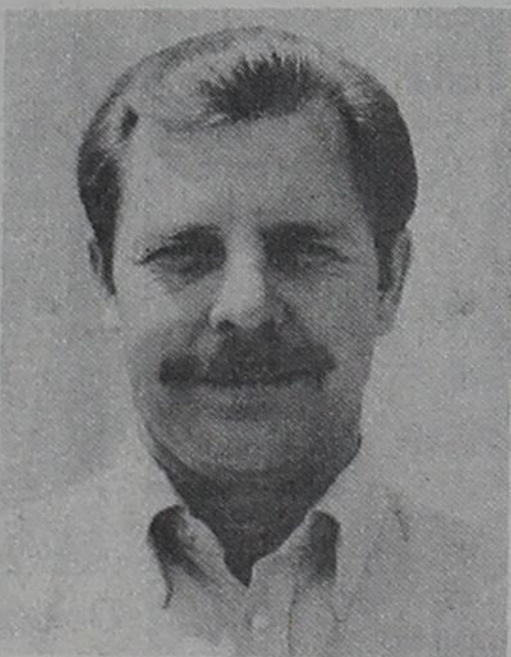

At 4 p.m., a car making a right turn at the Bedford-Broadway intersection ran into the cattle trailer of a tractor-trailer rig in the next lane while both were turning right from South Broadway onto East Bedford.

The car, a 1982 Buick, was driven by Juanita Wales. Tommy Keller was driving the tractor-trailer cattle rig.

Police said Mrs. Wales made an illegal right turn, passing Keller's truck on the right while it was making a signaled right turn, when the collision occurred.

The accident caused moderate damage to the left front of Mrs. Wales' car and light damage to the cattle trailer, police reported. No one was injured.
