

Ranger Times

UNITED PRESS SERVICE BRINGS LATE NEWS OF THE WORLD TO TIMES READERS

RANGER, TEXAS, FRIDAY EVENING, JANUARY 31, 1941

PRICE 3c DAILY (5c ON SUNDAY)

NO. 179

Buy It In Ranger And Help Business!

MANY TEXANS DEPEND ON OIL FOR A LIVING

BECKENRIDGE, Texas, Jan. 31.—Nearly 30,000 residents of West Central Texas depend for their entire living upon petroleum, W. J. Rhodes, vice-president for the West Central Texas district of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas industry for the livelihood.

"Figures gathered from individual operators and companies in the 25 counties comprising the West Central Texas district show that 29,636 persons in this area depend upon the oil and gas industry for the livelihood," Mr. Rhodes said. "This is based upon the employment of 7,409 West Central Texas workers in this industry, and using an average of four persons to a family."

"The wage-earners of this group receive the huge sum of $9,173,750 a year in wages and salaries. West Central Texas farmers and ranchers receive over two-thirds as much in lease and royalty payments which totals $6,330,691 additional. Together, West Central Texas workers and farmers receive the huge sum of $15,504,441 a year, virtually all of which is spent and respent with the retail merchants, professional men, bankers and others of our section."

"In addition, the West Central Texas petroleum industry pays $1,571,117 a year in State and local taxes, NOT counting the sales taxes paid by the individual motorists. Thus petroleum now pays a fourth as much State and local taxes in our section as it does to our farmers and ranchers. Counting Federal taxes and the reinvestment of the industry in field developments and plant expansions, the petroleum industry spends in West Central Texas the tremendous sum of $28,000,000 a year. That's over $2,000,000 a month for every month in the year."

A survey of the tax rolls of all counties in West Central Texas shows a total assessed value for property of $227,976,752, of which oil properties alone represent $43,021,637, or nearly one-fifth, Mr. Rhodes reported. A check of land under lease in West Central Texas reveals that 5,449,132 acres have been leased for oil and gas development, and that 10,780 acres already have been proved productive.

Ingenuity Reveals a Body In a River

PHOENIXVILLE, Pa.—Burrus Thomas of Phoenixville remembered some Tom Sawyer ingenuity and recovered the body of Benjamin Pogozelski from the Choptank River after police efforts failed.

Thomas dropped a loaf of bread covered with lard into the water and said, "When that bread stops bobbing around, that's where the body is."

Sure enough, when the bread bobbed around several times police discovered Pogozelski's body.

THE RANGER TIMES Has Guest Tickets For

Mr. and Mrs. Odell Cole

to see Paul Muni in "HUDSON'S BAY" AT THE ARCADIA SAT., FEB. 1st

Call at Times Office for Tickets that transferable. Good only date shown

Shot Put the Mortgage Lifter

When her small stable was about to be sold under the auctioneer's hammer at Washington Park last summer, Mrs. Marie Evans of Chicago asked that Shot Put be given one more chance. Shot Put, shown with Trainer Dan McEachern, proved the long-distance champion of the year . . . won the $50,000 New York Handicap of two-and-a-quarter miles at Belmont . . . earned $72,945. Mrs. Evans hopes to take the Hialeah Park features, the McLennan Memorial, Feb. 12, and the $50,000 Widener, March 1, with the 5-year-old Chance Shot gelding.

U. S. Army Has Become the Nation's Greatest Purchaser and Trainer of Fine Horses; Cavalry Takes the Finest

By BICKNELL EUBANKS
United Press Staff Correspondent
FORT BLISS, Tex.—The U. S. Army has become the country's largest purchaser and trainer of fine horses.

To fill out the demands caused by the rapid enlargement of the United States fighting forces, the Remount Service of the War Department is beating the bushes in all sections to find suitable steeds for the cavalry and good horses for the artillery service. On Jan. 1, the army had almost 40,000 in all branches of the service.

Mounts for the cavalry, of course, take up the finest horses, but animals of good quality are required in artillery, engineering and even infantry.

All army horses receive unusual care, far superior to the attention given by the average horse owner to his animals. Cavalry mounts, which are the most intelligent animals, are given care equalling that tendered the most valuable race horse.

The army's breeding system plan is turning out a large number of unusually fine horses for service every year. More than 700 stallions of high quality have been loaned to breeders throughout the country, and the army takes the choice of the foals.

These high standards of flesh, health and suitability of horses needed for army service have not been relaxed under the pressure of current needs. The only compromise with the rapidity of this country's rearmament program has been an acceleration in training the mounts.

Suitable cavalry horses, of which the First Cavalry Division has on hand at this southwest post more than 5,500 and is receiving 200 every 10 days, are a major worry to the remount services. A cavalry horse must be far more intelligent than the average draft animal, because oftentimes, "veteran officers" explained, the rider's life may depend upon the confidence and ability of the horse to work under fire. Because of the rapidity of warfare nowadays and the conversion of cavalry into a sort of "mounted infantry" which advances to the battle site then dismounts and fights, the horse must also be strong and able to withstand long marches.

The system of training a cavalry mount is one of education, rather than breaking. All horses upon their receipt at one of the three remount depots—Fort Robinson, Neb., Fort Reno, Okla., and Front Royal, Va.—are given a series of "gentling" exercises intended to instill the horse with confidence in his new surroundings and the people who are handling them.

"Calmness and gentleness in the new horses are the first objective in our system of training," Lieut. Col. John H. Irving, instructor in the 8th Cavalry, Fort Bliss, said. "No methods are tolerated which are in violation of this principle."

"The work is unhurried and a new step is never taken up until the remount has learned the preceding one."

When the young horse, quieted, becomes tractable and accepts are riding, the next step in the army's system of training is started.

"This is known as the conditioning period," Colonel Irving said.

"During this phase of the young horse's training, he is methodically and progressively exercised to the end that his physical condition will be developed. His natural balance is established and he is confirmed in the simple movements. This work is done very carefully and progressively and it requires the best judgment, in its technique, of any part of the work."

Col. Irving explained that upon the proper accomplishment of this phase "depends the future usefulness of the animal."

"Horses can be rendered unsteady and their tempers spoiled if too much is asked of them at this time," he warned. "The exact degree of feed and work, during the conditioning period, is based on the age, previous experience, strength and confirmation of the individual when the work starts. It varies with each individual horse and is more of an art than a science."

The third phase, in educating the remount is that of "schooling."

"During this period, the young horse is schooled in the effects of the leg and rein aids, jumping, crossing obstacles that are met in cross-country riding and in the discipline that must be part of every good cavalry horse," Col. Irving said.

"This period is a seasoning period and it gives the young horse the final lessons which fit him for service in the ranks of his troop. He is taught many things and this period might extend for a year or two before the training of the remount is finished."

"Of course, that does not mean that the remount is not turned to duty before this work is finished, what is meant is that the training is extended over a considerable period of time before the average horse could be expected to be a thoroughly trained cavalry mount."

All newly-purchased horses are run through a strict quarantine and carefully observed by expert veterinarians before they are released to whatever part of the service they are assigned to. This period of quarantine usually extends three or four months, although it may vary for one case or another and animals may be issued in periods of emergency, within 60 days. Under no condition, however, are the horses released from quarantine until their health and flesh conditions are satisfactory.

Maybe He Doesn't Like U. of T. Colors

AUSTIN, Texas.—Erection of New Orange and White Street markers had just been completed when Mayor Tom Miller got a postcard.

It read: "It is my opinion that the new street signs are disputable economical, dubiously legible and unequivocally hideous. Cordially, Joseph Jones."

PRELUDE FOR INVASION IS FORESEEN

German super cannon dropped high explosive shells 12 miles back of Dover's coastline today, as Nazi raiders dropped bombs on the London area during a daylight raid.

The new range of the German guns on the French coast might enable the Nazis to lay down a "box" barrage to cut off a strip of the British coast in connection with an invasion attempt if the Germans have enough cannon of that type.

The new daylight attack on London was heavier than usual and British air experts thought the Germans might be taking advantage of the heavy cloud formation to train new crews in the blind bombing technique.

French military experts believed the German invasion attempt might come in February, when a lull in the bad weather is usually felt. They have no direct evidence the Germans plan an invasion at that time but the weather conditions were expected to be more favorable at that time.

At Saigon an armistice was signed between Thailand and French Indo-China, with the terms being reached under the auspices of the Japanese.

The bombardment of the Dover coast lent added significance to Hitler's speech promising "blue wonders" in military surprises in connection with the spring offensive against Great Britain.

Two British columns advanced on Benghazi, the sole remaining Italian base in Eastern Libya. The Greeks reported success in beating off the Italian attacks, timed to take advantage of any confusion that might have resulted from the death of Premier Metaxas of Greece.

First-Time Workers Urged To Retain Security Numbers

Parents whose children were employed for the first time during the recent holiday season were requested by W. O. King, manager of the Abilene Social Security Board field office, to see that each child so employed keeps the social security account number which was issued to him at the time he entered employment.

"It is possible and very probable in many cases," King said, "that many of these same individuals will be employed during the school vacation season in the summer months, and each individual will need that same social security account number when he returns to employment."

Mr. King explained that every person who works in commerce or industry, such as stores, shops, factories, offices, garages, cafes, hotels, beauty shops, or other such places, should always have his social security account number card with him when he starts on a new job, and should see that the employer makes a record of the number and name exactly as they are written on the card.

Mr. King cited three things to remember in connection with social security account numbers:

1. You should have a social security account number—one number.
2. When you give your employer your name and account number, you should see that he gets them exactly right.
3. Your employer should see that your name, number, and wages are correct in his reports to the Government.

Woman and Three of Her Children Hurt In Auto Accident

Mrs. Chaater Jackson of Ranger, her two small daughters and a son were all injured, slightly in an automobile accident between Eastland and Cisco Thursday evening. Though it was thought none was injured seriously one of the girls was to be x-rayed in order to determine the extent of her injuries.

According to reports of the accident Mrs. Jackson stopped the car alongside the highway, off the pavement on the road shoulder, to turn around, and had waited for two cars to pass. While still off the road a cattle truck crashed into the back of the car, injuring the four occupants.

Baylor To Dedicate Building

Baylor University students, alumni and friends Saturday will dedicate $300,000 Catherine Alexander Hall (upper) dormitory for freshmen girls, and honor Mrs. Alexander (lower), a principal donor, when they celebrate the Baptist educational institution's 96th birthday. Mrs. E. D. Head of Houston will make the dedicatory address. Honor also will be paid a score of leaders of former years for whom rooms have been named in new Pat Neff hall.

PROCEEDINGS 11TH COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS

The following proceedings were had in the Court of Civil Appeals, Eleventh Supreme Judicial District:

Affirmed: Thos. C. Hall vs. Noble H. Price, Dawson. City of Ranger, et al. vs. A. K. Wier, Eastland.

Reversed and Remanded: Earl E. Stafford vs. H. C. Powell, Dawson. John L. Greene vs. Ruby Lake Smith, Scurry.

Dismissed: Jack Ammon vs. Frank DeMayo, Gregg.

Motions Submitted: Longhorn Drilling Corporation vs. Angelita Padilla, appellants' motion to return mandate without payment of costs. Henry L. DeBusk, et al vs. The Jacksonville Bldg. & Loan Ass'n., appellants' motion for rehearing.

Motions Granted: Standard Paving Co. vs. Millard McClintock, appellants' motion to re-tax costs. Florence Payton, et al. vs. City of Big Spring, et al., appellants' motion to extend time for filing record.

Motions Overruled: Nettie Hudson vs. J. C. Norwood, plaintiff-in-error's motion for rehearing. A. D. Crews vs. Texas & Pacific Railway Co., appellants' motion to strike appellee's brief.

Case Submitted Jan. 31, 1941: Jack W. L. Willison vs. O. I. Griffin, Mitchell.

Cases to be Submitted Feb. 7, 1941: Phillips Petroleum Co. vs. Daniel Motor Co., Stephens R. B. Masterson, Jr., et al. vs. T. T. Bouldin, et al. Knox. Hartford Accident & Indemnity Co. vs. D. E. Ethridge, Taylor. Haskell National Bank of Haskell, Texas, vs. Joe Lee Ferguson, et al. Farmers & Merchants State Bank of Haskell vs. Joe Lee Ferguson, et al. National Surety Corporation vs. Joe A. Jones, et al.

U. S. Not To Urge Negotiated Peace

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The United States will not accept the suggestions of a "negotiated peace" in the present war, and will carry on the fight for objectives of world law and order and sanctity of treaties.

Paper Hears Report Of Big Navy "Deal"

DETROIT, Jan. 31.—The Detroit Free Press reported today from "highly reliable diplomatic circles" that the United States is contemplating trading 20 American destroyers for the British Battleship King George V, which is now in Canadian waters after King Lord and Lady Halifax to America.

LAND-LOCKED FUEHRER FACES THE THREAT OF DEFEAT WITHIN EUROPE

By J. W. T. MASON
United Press War Expert
On the eighth anniversary of Adolf Hitler's seizure of power in Germany, the Fuehrer is facing his first experience of actual confinement and threatened defeat.

He has at his command the greatest military machine in the history of the world, with perhaps 5,000,000 men under arms; but they are locked and immobilized within the continent of Europe.

All avenues of offensive land operations are closed to the Fuehrer's ambition for world supremacy. At sea, the British fleet is in control, despite depredations by German submarines which are gradually becoming overcome. In the air, Hitler's numerical superiority of planes has failed to give him any decisive advantage.

However insistent are the Fuehrer's assurances to the German people of victory this year, the present outlook promises no such termination of the conflict. Hitler has command of words but not of action.

Hitler's vocal utterances can have no optimistic effect on those Germans who analyze the war situation realistically. The gave uncertainties facing Germany are too plain for any real satisfaction within the Reich.

Italy is engaged in a hopeless battle in North Africa, while German troops cannot cross the Mediterranean to give help. Not even have German planes arrived in Libya to challenge the British advance. The Fuehrer can find no satisfactory explanation to offer the German people for this immobilization of Nazi strength while Mussolini's empire is crumbling.

There have been many assurances that the Fuehrer had control of southeastern Europe. But the eighth anniversary of his dictatorship sees serious commotions in Rumania, Germany's Balkan base, with no certainty that civil war will not be renewed there.

The Balkan situation is so uncertain that Hitler has no desire to test its explosive possibilities by going to Italy's aid against Greece. Russia continues to check Germany's desire for a free hand in Bulgaria and Yugoslavia.

German plans for marching through Turkey to attack Suez from the east have been upset and no such movement is now in sight. At the other end of Europe, General Franco continues to refuse consent to use of Spanish soil for a German advance on Gibraltar.

Even defeated France cannot be controlled as the Nazis desire. Berlin reports today say Germany is dissatisfied with the attitude of the Vichy government, which holds fast to both the French fleet and the French empire in Africa, Marshal Petain makes hollow concessions to the Fuehrer but he gives nothing substantial, apparently having visions of Germany's eventual defeat.

New devastating attacks on Great Britain are now promised by Hitler which he says will win the war. But Germany is in no position now for such an offensive than she was last summer.

Your Federal Income Tax

Normal Tax, Surtax, and Defense Tax Rates

Income taxes for 1940 are paid on net incomes and on surtax net incomes. A study of the instructions that accompany the income tax forms will show how to compute the tax on such incomes. This brief statement should serve to help to that end.

The Internal Revenue Code provides for only one normal tax rate, and that is 4 percent of the net income less the allowable personal exemptions and credits for dependents, and an earned income credit of 10 percent of the amount of the earned net income but not in excess of 10 percent. For instance, if the net income is $3,000, no more than $300 earned net income credit would be deductible from the net income. If the net income is $4,000 or less, there is paid only the normal tax rate of 4 percent.

The personal exemption and credit for dependents are also allowable as credits against the net income for the purpose of the surtax, the resulting net income being designated "surtax net income."

The surtax is imposed on surtax net incomes in excess of $4,000. The rates increase as the amount of the surtax net income increases.

On a surtax net income of $4,000 or less there is no surtax. On a surtax net income in excess of $4,000 and not in excess of $6,000, the rate is 4 percent of such excess. The surtax upon a surtax net income of $6,000 is $80, and upon a surtax net income in excess of $6,000 and not in excess of $8,000 the rate is 6 percent of such excess in addition to the $80, or a surtax of $200 upon a surtax net income of $8,000.

The defense tax, which the present tax law imposes, is a tax of 10 percent of the combined normal tax and surtax.

The following example will show how to compute the tax on a net income of $3,500, all of which represents earned net income, the taxpayer being single and without dependents:

|   |            |
|---|------------|
| Net income  | $3,500.00 |
| Less personal exemption   | 500.00     |
| Balance (surtax net income)   | 3,000.00   |
| Normal tax credit   | 120.00     |
| Net income subject to normal tax  | 2,880.00   |
| Surtax at 4 per cent of amount of surtax net income in excess of $4,000 but not over $6,000, 4 percent on $1,700 | 122.00     |
| Total surtax  | 120.00     |
| Normal tax, 4 per cent on $2,880   | 82.00      |
| Total normal tax and surtax   | 202.00     |
| Defense tax, 10 per cent of $202   | 40.40      |
| Total normal tax, surtax and defense tax  | 242.40     |

The maximum surtax rate is 75 percent. On a surtax net income of $5,000,000, the surtax is $3,597,780. When the surtax net income exceeds $5,000,000, the 75 percent rate is applicable to such excess, in addition to the surtax of $3,597,780.

Taxpayers are urged to read carefully and understandingly all the instructions accompanying the income tax forms before preparing their returns. If they need help, they can get it without cost by consulting the nearest collector of internal revenue, deputy collector, or internal revenue agent.

Electric Output In State Is Stable

AUSTIN, Tex.—While December consumption of electric power in Texas gained 5.8 per cent over December a year ago, the total consumption for 1940 was practically the same as in 1939, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports.

Industrial use of electricity last year dropped 7.1 per cent below 1939, while other types of consumption — commercial, residential and miscellaneous — showed gains ranging from 1.5 per cent to 8.2 per cent, the Bureau revealed.

VISITS DALLAS

H. J. Tanner, secretary of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce, is in Dallas attending a meeting of the Texas Association of Fairs before which he will be one of the principal speakers.

THE WEATHER

WEST TEXAS.—Cloudy with scattered rain tonight and Saturday. Little change in temperature.

23 Dominates In Patrolman's Day

ALTON, Ill.—Charles Stahl, Alton motorcycle patrolman, has a penchant for the figure "23."

His cycle license number is 23, his draft number is 2323, and he asked for state license 232323 for his car. The state sent him license 232322.

RANGER TIMES

TIMES PUBLISHING COMPANY, Publishers

212-214 Elm Street, Ranger, Texas Telephone 224

Published every afternoon (except Thursday, Saturday and Sunday) and every Sunday morning.

Entered as second class matter at the postoffice at Ranger, Texas, under Act of March 3, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

Ranger Times (One Year by Mail in Texas) $3.00

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Any erroneous reflections upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation which may appear in the columns of this paper will be gladly corrected upon being brought to the attention of the publisher.

Opportunity—If We Grasp It

The recent Supreme Court decision confirming control by Congress alone of the 5,000,000 aliens in our midst is more than a mere legal decision. It is an immensely suggestive direction-marker.

Pennsylvania had passed a law which, in addition to compelling aliens to register, required them to carry at all times a card of identification, with a jail penalty for being caught without it. The Supreme Court did not rule on the constitutionality of this particular act, but simply found that the already-established federal regulation of aliens took precedence. States and communities may, therefore, conclude that it is not their job to regulate aliens, but that of the federal government.

This great mass of aliens, to which others will probably be added, is at once a problem and an opportunity. All the wisdom and understanding we can bring to bear will be needed. Most of these aliens will probably seek soon to become citizens. Every facility should be extended to help them to do this. The foreign-born, says Louis Adamic, writer who has devoted his recent years to hard work and study of their problems, "are or want to be wholeheartedly American in the best sense of the term; the loyalty to the U. S. of most of the foreign-born is almost beyond adequate statement."

Any effort to bring high-pressure methods to bear to try to force Albanians, Slovaks and Lithuanians into a mold of imitation Anglo-Saxon Americanism will not only fail—it will drive many newcomers into the ranks of Fifth Columnists. These have the sense to realize that people yearn to "belong." If new Americans are not allowed to feel that they "belong" in American circles, they will go where they can have that feeling.

What we need is not to "tolerate" but to "accept" people whose ways may not necessarily be in every respect our ways. Because a man prefers spaghetti or shish kebabs to a New England boiled dinner does not make him any the less a good American.

Adamic has rendered a service in again pointing out that the American people and the United States are still evolving. We have not created a mold into which newcomers must be forced. We are still creating a civilization, a country, a culture, to which all contribute.

That is why the aliens who now seek citizenship, the foreign-born who live among us, the second-generation people still ill-at-ease in a land that is theirs and yet not theirs, are an opportunity, not a handicap.

Freckles and His Friends—By Blosser

DOUBLE

The Efficiency of Your GROCERY BUDGET!

PRICE alone is not sufficient reason to determine the place you buy your groceries. Neither can QUALITY alone, if the price is prohibitive, be the sole determining factor in your shopping. But—you can double the value of your grocery dollar if you buy where both PRICE and QUALITY are taken into consideration. The answer is—your neighborhood Clover Farm Store.

|                                  |   |     |    |
|----------------------------------|---|-----|----|
| Clover Farm White Naphtha        | LAUNDRY SOAP 5 Gt. Bars                       | 16c | 5c |
|                                  | COFFEE Red Cup—Ground Fresh As You Buy 2 Lbs. | 25c |    |
| Jackson's Extra Large 46-Oz. Can | TOMATO JUICE 46-Oz. Can                       | 15c |    |
| Clover Farm—Guaranteed to Please | FLOUR 6 Sack 24 Lb.                           | 24c |    |
|                                  | FLOUR 6 Sack 24 Lb.                           | 79c |    |
|                                  | TOMATOES No. 2 Can                            |     |    |
|                                  | HOMINY No. 2 Can                              |     |    |
|                                  | GREEN BEANS No. 2 Can                         |     |    |
|                                  | PORK & BEANS Tall Can                         |     |    |
|                                  | GRAPEFRUIT JUICE 12 1/2 Oz. Can               |     |    |
|                                  | MATCHES 2 Full Boxes                          |     |    |

LOU'S QUALITY MEATS

CHUCK ROAST Per Pound 19c

SWIFT PREMIUM BACON Per Pound 29c

TENDERIZED PICNIC HAMS Per Pound 20c

BACON Market Sliced Lb. 21c

PURE PORK SAUSAGE Per Pound 15c

SWISS STEAK Per Pound 25c

HENS...FRYERS STEAKS Round, Loin T-Bone Lb. 32c

PORK ROAST Per Pound 20c

Sunshine BUTTER COOKIES Lb. 15c

Gerber's—Strained or Junior BABY FOOD 3 Cans 23c

Clover Farm CORN FLAKES 2 Lge. 19c

Clover Farm—Jell Powder—or JELLO-O 3 Pkgs. 13c

Clover Farm—Full Quart APPLE BUTTER 19c

Aunt Jimima PANCAKE FLOUR Pkg. 12c

W-F Breakfast—Maple Blend SYRUP Pint 14c

Clover Farm SALAD DRESSING Qt. 29c

Glendale TOILET TISSUE 3 Rolls 13c

Clover Farm 200 Count FACIAL TISSUE Box 9c

Texas Sweet, Juicy, Thin-Skinned GRAPEFRUIT Large 64 Size 2 For 5c

Thin-Skinned Valencia—Heavy With Juice ORANGES Large 150 Size Doz. 25c

Sunkist—Deep Yellow in Color, Rich in Juice LEMONS Size 432 Doz. 17c

Meaty, Firm, Ripe, Yellow California CALAVOS Large 24 Size Each 10c

Red and Firm—Fine for Slicing or Salads FLORIDA TOMATOES Lb. 10c

BANANAS, doz. 10c

Good Both For Eating and Baking WINESAP APPLES Fancy 163 Size 2 Doz. For 25c

Colorado Rurals—Wonderful Cookers POTATOES 10 lbs. 15c

|  |     |                              |                          |     |
|--|-----|------------------------------|--------------------------|-----|
| OVALTINE Small Size                    | 29c | Boiled Beans                 | Ole Fashun 2 24 Oz. Cans | 19c |
| Fruit Cocktail No. 1 Tall              | 9c  | Clover Farm                  | COFFEE Lb.               | 23c |
| Glendale Quality CATSUP 14-Oz. Bottle  | 10c | Tom. Juice 3 12 1/2 Oz. Cans | KRAUT 2 No. 2 1/2 Cans   | 15c |
| Prepared Tomato Sauce Spaghetti 2 Cans | 17c |                              |                          |     |
| Fresh Blackeye PEAS 2 Med. Cans        | 17c |                              |                          |     |
| Tuna Fish No. 1 Flat                   | 14c |                              |                          |     |
| Glendale Quality CORN 2 No. 2 Cans     | 19c |                              |                          |     |
| Glendale Quality PEACHES 3 No. 1 Tall  | 25c |                              |                          |     |
| Pineapple JUICE 3 12 1/2 Oz. Cans      | 25c |                              |                          |     |
| SPINACH 2 No. 2 Cans                   | 15c |                              |                          |     |
| Rolled Oats Lge.                       | 19c |                              |                          |     |
| Pink Salmon No. 1 Tall                 | 15c |                              |                          |     |

PHONE 60 Crossley's WE DELIVER CLOVER FARM STORES

OATS
Sunset Gold
20 Oz. Pkg. 5c

SOAP
P. & G.
2 Giant Bars Limit 4 Bars 5c

TEX
Shortening
3 Lb. Can 35c
Limit 1 Can

★ LOWER PRICES EVERYDAY★

HELP YOURSELF TO A LOWER PRICE

WITHOUT A QUALITY SACRIFICE!

NATIONALLY KNOWN BRANDS
Your Seal of Protection

We Reserve the Right to Limit Quantities

You will never find product substitution at Piggly Wiggly. We feature national brands, garden-fresh fruits and vegetables, and highest quality meats. Our prices are low, but you never suffer in any loss of quality—which happens so many times when inferior brands, inferior fruits and vegetables, and inferior meats are sold as loss leaders. Shop here at Piggly Wiggly and save the safe and sane way.

DEER BRAND—NOT WINDFALL

GRAPEFRUIT JUICE 46 Oz. Can 12 1/2c

SPINACH Staff-o-Life No. 2 Cans 3 for 19c

CORN FLAKES Large Pkgs. 2 for 15c

FLUFFO
MADE BY MAKERS OF CRISCO
3 Lb. Cart. 27c

OXYDOL
NEW HIGH TEST
Large Pkg. 15c
Limit Two Packages

COFFEE
MAXWELL HOUSE OR FOLGERS
Per Pound 24c

P'NUT BUTTER
JANE GOODE
2 Lb. Jar 19c

BAKING PWDR.
CLABBER GIRL
25 Oz. Can 19c

CHERRIES
RED SOUR PITTED
Per Can 10c

TOMATO JUICE
CAMPBELL'S
3 14 Oz. Cans 19c

Save at PIGGLY WIGGLY - Highest Quality MEATS

Steak Quality Beef Loin Cuts . . . LB. 29c

VEAL CUTLETS Per Lb. . . . 39c

CALF BRAINS Per Lb. . . . 15c

SAUSAGE Pure Pork Made to Be Eaten . . . Lb. 18c

CHEESE Full Cream Long Horn . . . Lb. 19c

SLICED BACON Sugar Cured, Lb. 22c

OLEO SKINLESS Per Lb. . . . 10c

WEINERS Per Lb. . . . 20c

OYSTERS—HOT BARBECUE

LAND-O-GOLD

FLOUR Large Package 25c

"Star" Pure

LARD 4 Lb. Carton 31c

PIPKIN'S BEST

FLOUR Bulk Pitted 24 Lb. Bag 75c

BRAN Large Package 14c

DATES Lb. . . . 15c

Sour or Dill Whole

PICKLES Quart Jar 12c

PLYMOUTH COFFEE Per Lb. 12 1/2c

PINTO BEANS 5 Lbs. . . . 19c

Blackburn's Country Sorghum or Pure Ribbon Cane

SYRUP 1/2 Gal. 30c No. 10 Gal. Can 50c

Seedless

RAISINS 2 Lb. Package 15c

Comet

MACARONI 3 Boxes 13c

Happy Vale

PEAS No. 303 Can 10c

Morrill's

SNACK Can 23c

Life Buoy

SOAP Bar 5 1/2c

Evaporated

PRUNES 3 Pounds 19c

SALAD DRESSING
CHALLENGE
Quart Jar 15c

EVAPORATED APPLES
2 Lbs. 25c

Save at PIGGLY WIGGLY - Garden Fresh PRODUCE

TENDER CRISP

CARROTS 2 Bchs. 5c

JUICY SWEET

ORANGES TEXAS VALENCIAS 2 Doz. 25c

TEXAS SEEDLESS

GRAPEFRUIT Large 70 Size—Ea. . . 3c

TURNIPS & TOPS 3 Bchs. 10c

POTATOES Washed Idaho 19 Lbs. 25c

WINESAP APPLES Per Dozen 19c

SUNKIST LEMONS Per Dozen 18c

YELLOW ONIONS 3 Lbs. 10c

GRAPEFRUIT JUICE 6 5 1/2 Oz. Cans 19c

LIBBY'S 9 OZ. CANS

PINEAPPLE Tidbit or Crushed . . . 2 for 15c

PEACHES Rosedale Tall Cans . . . 2 for 19c

TOILET TISSUE 3 Rolls Fortress . . . 10c

CANDY BARS CHEWING GUM 3 5c Size 10c

CLEANSER 2 Cans 9c

Hy-Pro Pt. 9c

SPEND YOUR FOOD STAMPS HERE

YOU SAVE MORE EVERY DAY AT PIGGLY WIGGLY

High School and NYA Split Rough Cage Contests

The Boys' NYA basketball team and Ranger High School team divided a thrilling double-header last night, the High School taking the first game 29-27, and the NYA the second by a score of 22-10. The games should have

To relieve MISERY of 666
Liquid Tablets, Salve, Nose Drops, Cough Drops

Listen, Mister!

There is a difference in hair cuts. A good one is a cut that suits the shape of your head and helps the hair lie neatly in place. Get your next one here and note the difference.

GHOLSON BARBER SHOP

Paramount Taxi

PHONE 1
Ride a Taxi and Save Parking Worries!
We meet all busses and Trains!

been played on a gridiron, as they resembled football more so than basketball.

Ranger High School took the lead in the first game early in the first quarter. The score was knotted 9-9 at the end of the first quarter, but the High School again took the lead, and led 18-13 at the half-time period. They were never headed. Brilliant shooting by Townsend, of the High School, and Boldt of the NYA featured the game.

Boldt, of NYA led the scoring with 12 points, while Townsend collected 11 points for the winners.

Numerous fouls were called, the NYA facing Pennell, Dunlap and Wings, and the High School facing White and Lee by that route.

The second game, won by the NYA, with a score of 22-10, was even wilder and rougher than the first. The High School took the lead, led at the end of the first quarter by a score of 5-2, and at the half-time period by 7-6. However, the NYA quickly took the lead in the third quarter on field goals by Norris and Wings, led 17-8 at the end of that quarter, and continued on to win 22-10.

High School, 11 on the NYA, and the NYA losing three men from the floor. The NYA had only four men on the floor when the game ended.

Norris of NYA led the scoring with eight points, while Gordon led the losers with four.

First Game

|              |       |    |    |    |
|--------------|-------|----|----|----|
| N. Y. A.     | Fouls | fg | ft | tp |
| Norris       | 1     | 0  | 2  | 4  |
| Ferrin       | 3     | 1  | 2  | 4  |
| Boldt        | 2     | 4  | 4  | 12 |
| Pennell      | 4     | 0  | 1  | 1  |
| Dunlap       | 4     | 0  | 1  | 1  |
| Chadler      | 3     | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| Tate         | 0     | 1  | 1  | 3  |
| Jimmie       | 0     | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Wings        | 4     | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| High School  | Fouls | fg | ft | tp |
| Townsend     | 2     | 5  | 1  | 11 |
| White        | 4     | 2  | 3  | 7  |
| Stevens      | 2     | 1  | 0  | 3  |
| Lee          | 4     | 1  | 1  | 3  |
| Elder        | 3     | 1  | 1  | 3  |
| Arterburn    | 2     | 0  | 1  | 1  |
| Townsend, T. | 1     | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Boney        | 0     | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| Brugg        | 1     | 0  | 0  | 0  |

Second Game

|             |       |    |    |    |
|-------------|-------|----|----|----|
| N. Y. A.    | Fouls | fg | ft | tp |
| Evans       | 1     | 1  | 2  | 4  |
| Norris      | 2     | 2  | 4  | 8  |
| Williams    | 4     | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Sharp       | 2     | 0  | 1  | 1  |
| Rhodes      | 4     | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Wings       | 1     | 3  | 1  | 7  |
| Guthrie     | 0     | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| High School | Fouls | fg | ft | tp |
| T. Townsend | 1     | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Brown       | 1     | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Boney       | 1     | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Arterburn   | 3     | 0  | 2  | 2  |
| Gordon      | 0     | 2  | 0  | 1  |
| Gardn       | 2     | 0  | 1  | 1  |
| Gray        | 0     | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Owenby      | 0     | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Dabbs       | 0     | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| Getts       | 0     | 0  | 0  | 0  |

Admission was 10c and 15c, the proceeds going to the infantile paralysis fund. $11.95 was collected.

Six In Navy Make Up a Brother Act

BREMERTON, Wash. — The sons of Floyd Patten of Ridgefield, Wash., are the biggest "brother act" in the navy. All are on the U.S.S. Nevada.

Cilbert, 29, is a water tender, second class; Allen, 24, fireman, first class; Marvin, 25, water tender, second class; Clarence, 26, water tender, second class; Myrme, 23, fireman, first class; Ray, fireman, second class. And they expect a seventh brother, Bruce, 17, to join the navy soon. An eighth brother, Wayne, 16, is too young, but he hopes to be a naval pilot some day. The Patten enlisted in Iowa, their former home.

Fry Our Want Ads!

RED RYDER

By Harman

FOR SALE
TWO HOUSES AND LOTS
AT 307 SUE STREET.
INQUIRE
D. JOSEPH

H. H. VAUGHN SERVICE STATION
100% T-P. Product
Distilled Water for Sale
Washing—Greasing—Stor

THE WORLD'S FINEST MOTOR OIL GOOD PENN

GOOD PENN is carefully refined from 100% Pennsylvania Crude, the world's finest oil, and conforms to the rigid specifications set for a first quality Pennsylvania Motor Oil.

57c Gal., 2 Gal $1.10, 5 Gal., $2.75
(In Your Own Container)
Or drive in and let us drain your crankcase and fill with 5 quarts of GOOD PENN—
For Only 80c
Wearwell Motor Oil at 40c gal. — 2 Gals., $1.00

THE WESTERN AUTO STORE
S. O. MONTGOMERY
Phone 300 - Ranger

SPECIAL NOTICE

If you have a good gentle milk cow that you want to trade in on a good used car come by and see what we can do. I also have new Brunswick Tires as good a tire as you can buy and will give a big allowance for your old tires. Also used tires and tubes most any size—

50c up

Bill's Used Tire & Tube Exchange

115 Commerce St. Ranger, Texas

UNDER ONE ROOF
Everything For Your Table

FRESH COUNTRY
Eggs doz. 19c

IVORY SNOW 2 MEDIUM SOAP ALL FOR 23c

|   |  |  |
|---|--|--|
| MARSHALLHOMINY 2 1/2 Can 3 For 25c                                  | LIBERTY BELLCRACKERS 2 LB. BOX 17c                         | TOYONPEACHES 2 1/2 Can 15c         |
| MONARCHMINCE MEAT 2 Pkgs. 19c                                       | ROSEDALEAPRICOTS 2 1/2 Can 18c                             | JAPSALMON Tall Can 15c             |
| PORK & BEANS 2 1/2 Can 2 For 15c  | Mission SlicedCrushed PINEAPPLE No. 2 Can 17c              | YACHT CLUBTUNA Can 17c             |
| LARGELAVA SOAP 2 for 19c (WITH GLASS TRAY)                          | CAMPBELL'S TOMATOJUICE 20 Oz. Can 9c                       | PEARLS No. 2 Can 15c                   |
| StampedBeef LOIN STEAK LB. 29c                                      | HOGLIVER Pound 12c   | SWIFTSSAUSAGE Pound 12c            |
| SPARERIBS Pound 16c   | COUNTRYPEPPERED HAMS Half or Whole While They Last Lb. 19c | SWIFT PREMIUM CHUCKROAST Pound 18c |
| LEAN BREAKFASTBACON Pound 23c                                       | SWIFT PREMIUMCLUB STEAK Pound 25c                          | SLICEDCURED HAM Pound 25c          |
| Swift PremiumBoneless VEAL STEAK Extra Nice to Chicken Fry, lb. 23c | Potatoes 10 lbs. 12c   | TENDERIZEDROUND STEAK Lb. 25c      |
| TEXASSEEDLESS GRAPEFRUIT Per Dozen 19c                              | TEXASORANGES 2 doz. 25c                                    | PURPLE TOPTURNIPS 5 lbs. 10c       |

O. K. GROCERY & MARKET
GOVERNMENT INSPECTED MEATS ONLY
PHONE 214 501 W. MAIN RANGER

A&P FOOD STORES

8 O'CLOCK 3 LB. BAG
COFFEE 37c

GRAPEFRUIT JUICE . . . 5c No. 2 Can
POPULAR BRANDS CIGARETTES 2 Pkgs. 31c

|   |   |
|---|---|
| WhitePOTATOES . . 15c 10 Lbs.           | Large TexasORANGES . . 19c Dozen        |
| TexasGRAPEFRUIT . 15c 5 For             | TexasCARROTS . . 10c 3 For              |
| FreshSPINACH . . 6c Lb.                 | LargeLETTUCE . . 6c Head                |
| Golden RipeBANANAS . . 5c Lb.           | WhiteCAULIFLOWER 15c Head               |
| Green Beans & New Potatoes 15c 2 No. 2 Cans | N.B.C. ShreddedWHEAT . . . 10c Box      |
| PintoBEANS . . . 39c 10 Lbs.            | IonaFLOUR . . . 65c 24 Lb. Bag          |
| Texas FieldCORN . . . 25c 4 No. 2 Cans  | SedeCRACKERS . 25c 2 2-Lb Boxes         |
| Sour or DillPICKLES . . 10c Qt. Jar     | Armour's PEANUTBUTTER . . . 19c Qt. Jar |
| CountryBUTTER . . . 33c Lb.             | TALCO FEEDS                                 |
| Fresh CountryEGGS . . . 17c Dozen       | STARTING MASH 100 Lbs. $2.29               |
| White HouseMILK . . . 19c 3 Tall Cans   | GROWING MASH 100 Lbs. $2.19                |
|   | EGG MASH 100 Lbs. $1.99                    |
|   | 18% DAIRY FEEDS 100 Lbs. $1.85             |
|   | EGG MASH 25 Lbs. 55c                        |
|   | STARTING MASH 25 Lbs. 59c                   |

Senators Debate On Drink Vendor For Upper House

AUSTIN, Texas.—Senate galleries recently were treated to some heavy debate. Topic: Shall the senate authorize a coin vending beverage machine in the hall?

The machine already was there and in use but Sen. Olin Van Zandt of Tioga offered a resolution to make it official. He proposed that the Lieut. Governor be authorized to have it installed.

"Leave me out of this," cautioned Lieut. Gov. Coke Stevenson. Stevenson shortly before had delivered a plea for adherence to the state constitution in his inaugural address. "I doubt if we have authority to license a private business on state property," he said.

Van Zandt mentioned that there is a private stand selling beverages in the state office building.

"Now we have to give the pages two cents a bottle deposit to have drinks sent in," Van Zandt argued. "We seldom get the two cents back. The automatic vendor is more convenient, most hygienic and will save money."

Sen. Weaver Moore of Houston suggested that a rental vendor so conveniently located might break up the practice of senators drinking from pop bottles in the senate chamber. He suggested a rule to that effect.

Senate debate is not always on trifles. It became loud, earnest and insistent when treatment of applicants for old age assistance was brought up by Senator Hill.

There were complaints that the law of the last legislature directing the old age assistance investigators to ignore assistance of relatives to help applicants is being flagrantly disregarded.

Galleries were filled at the time when Senator Hill moved a study of the situation by the whole senate. About that time the gallery visitors, school children from San Antonio, left. Hill later withdrew his motion.

Galleries are empty, anywhere. Lieut. Gov. Stevenson remarked from the chair.

Hill said sharply that the gallery had nothing to do with his proposal. The way other senators carried on the discussion with the galleries empty indicated a stiff quizzing of the welfare board members when their appointments by Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel come before the senate for confirmation.

Birthday Ball Not To Be Paid For Out Of Tag Day Sales

C. J. Moore, chairman of the local infantile paralysis drive, stated today that while the dance in Ranger showed a deficit of $27 the money collected from the tag day sale and from other sources would not go to pay this expense, as was first indicated.

The three dances, Moore explained, at Cisco, Eastland and Ranger, were run as separate methods of raising money and since both Eastland and Cisco had access to good dance floors large crowds had come to the dance at Cisco last night and an even larger crowd was expected at Eastland tonight, judging from the advance ticket sales. The money taken in at these two dances will be lumped with the money taken in locally, Moore stated, and the expenses of all three paid from this fund.

Half of Fires Are Of Unknown Origin

AUSTIN, Tex.—Fifty per cent of the insured fire loss in Texas over a 10-year period, 1930-39, was of unknown origin, Marvin Hill, state fire insurance commissioner, reported today.

The report released by Commissioner Hill revealed that insured losses for the 10-year period totaled $107,412,711.00. However, insured losses for 1939 amounted to only $10,018,029.00 as compared with $17,225,417.00 for 1930. The lowest insured loss was $6,008,363.00 in 1935.

Exposure, where a building is destroyed by a fire originating in an adjoining structure, led all causes for a 10-year total of $7,730,399.00. A marked reduction in the amount of loss from exposures was noted during this period, the 1939 loss of $612,925.00 being almost one-third of the 1930 figure.

Incediendarium, while on the decline, was the second leading cause. Losses from incendiendarium amounted to $6,834,437.00 during the 10 years.

Forty-three per cent of the annual fire loss is determined by the following causes: exposure, incendiendarium, matches and smoking, gasoline and kerosene, spontaneous combustion, electricity, and defective wiring, stoves and furnaces, chimneys and flues, gas, and lightning.

The world is full of neighbors who will borrow everything but the baby.

SERIAL STORY

CONSCRIPT'S WIFE

BY BETTY WALLACE

COPYRIGHT 1941 NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY, Martha resigned her job, sends for Dutch and the car. Living with Helen has no advantage, she can see Bill each week. She leaves from another Army wife that Bill is getting to be a "gun-house lawyer," argumentative, uncooperative. Later when Bill asks if he has seen Paul, Martha tells her that he has been visiting his jealousy. She realizes that resigning her job was futile. How can she drive this jealousy out of Bill's mind?

MARTHA MAKES A DECISION

CHAPTER XXIII
MARTHA MARSHALL drove to camp the following Sunday with the same heavy weight of dread pressing on her that had been with her all week. Bill's unceasing jealousy must stop. In some way, she must end it.

But how? Hadn't she done everything a woman could do? She blamed herself bitterly for not having stuck to her resolve to stop seeing Paul. Yet, was it her fault he had insisted on coming to Bayville that Friday night? Was it her fault that Paul's being hurt had so upset Suzanne she lost her head and made a scene?

Driving into the now familiar cantonment, she did not see her husband among the olive drab ranks of waiting men who eyed the incoming cars. "He's sulking!"

A tall man waved to her. Then he was coming closer. She slowed down. She recognized him now. "Have you seen Bill?" It was Top Sergeant Moore, the one Bill called "the top kick"—Aggie Moore's husband.

"The fact is, Mrs. Marshall," he said slowly. "Bill's in the guardhouse."

"In the guardhouse?" All her vague fears crystallized into quick, leaping fear. "But why? What has he done? Is it serious?"

"Just a little disagreement over discipline," the sergeant said. "We try to go easy on the men. But well—look! He's been begging for it. I'm sorry."

She wondered, stabbingly, if Aggie Moore had repeated any of that conversation in the NCO club-room. "May I see him?"

"Yes," he hopped up on the running board. "Turn to your left here. I'll fix it."

"The guardhouse was not especially a center from the outside. A soldier patrolled leisurely before it. Almost, she expected him to say, "Stop, and give the counter-scarf." He didn't.

Inside, there was a small bare room, not very different from the other rooms she had seen on the post. Another soldier on duty nodded when Sergeant Moore explained, and a moment later she was sitting with Bill on a bench and asking, "What happened, darling?"

Bill was sulky. "The Army's idea of a cute stunt! Bread and water stuff, as if I were a child!"

"Don't you want to tell me about it?" she asked after a while. Outside the soldier on duty was rattling a newspaper. She wondered, in disjointed little flashes, whether there were other prisoners in the guardhouse; whether they were all like Bill, sullen and surly; whether some other girl would come into this bare room, soon, to sit on a bench and try to be tactful. "And I thought maybe today I could talk him out of his jealousy—maybe today we could clear up this thing that has been tearing us apart."

"There's nothing to tell," Bill said curtly. "All I can say is that it's a fine mess, all right. The government sticks me out here in a damn Army camp, to play at dumb war games, while you—"

Her spine stiffened. "While I what?"

She should not have said it. She knew she shouldn't. But there was only so much she could bear. Bill wasn't thinking of her side of this. He wasn't remembering that she had come here to be with him, to have this one day of happiness in an otherwise empty week.

The trouble was, she saw clearly, Bill had never looked at this from her point of view at all. Since the day his number was called, he had not stopped to think what it meant to her. Duty. That morning the induction order came, she had seen it as the government exacting a duty of her as well as of Bill.

Yet Bill himself had never seen it like that. To him, it was something he bore while she went on as before. While she—his voice was saying it now, taking up her question, flinging it back at her flatly, "While you run around with Paul!"

"I told you I haven't seen him, Bill! I've told you until I'm dizzy with it. I haven't, I haven't."

"It would be nice, if I could believe it."

SHE stared at him. Stared as if she had never seen him before. And she never had. Not this man. Not this angry man with the curled lip, the skeptical, chilly eyes.

Something snapped in her mind then. Something that had been growing these last difficult weeks until now it sprang forth, quivering and alive, but strong and full nurtured. A decision. A decision she had not ever known she was making.

"Bill Marshall, if you don't trust me—if nothing I can say has any effect on the things you're thinking about me—then there's no use in my telling you anything. If we have no trust, no understanding between us any more, it's time to stop."

She was on her feet. Her cheeks were hot, a pulse beat in her throat, but her slim body was very steady. And her voice was steady, as if it came from somewhere outside her.

"I stayed with my sister, resigned my job, gave up the money I needed for clothes and for freedom and for my own self-respect, just to please you. You asked me to do it only so that you could be sure I wasn't seeing Paul. I understood that, Bill. I didn't argue about it, did I? I gave up my job. I stayed with Helen and Eugene. Stayed in a house where I don't belong, doing work for which I'm not fitted, caring for children who aren't my own."

Her voice shook just a little, and then was low and controlled once more. "What have I had, staying there? Only days that live through. One day exactly like the one before and the one after. Housework and dishes, scarcely enough money for a movie. On Sundays, every Sunday, I came here. It was all I had to look forward to."

"But was there any joy in seeing you? How could there be, when you choose to quarrel with me? You've hugged this insane jealousy, nursed it, fed it on Heaven only knows what scraps of flimsy suspicion! Because Suzanne Decker lost her head and said a lot of wild things she was sorry for half a minute later."

Bill lifted his eyes, his mouth opened to speak. But she rushed on, the tide of her feeling swelling.

"It's too late now, Bill. I've had all I can bear. I've waited and hoped and tried to convince you. For weeks, I've hoped, worked, come here and listened to you—and now, I'm through."

"You have a job to do! You should be doing it with all your heart. It's important, or the nation would never have asked you to do it. But you prefer to act like a child. You prefer to squabble over petty details—to quarrel and snarl until they have to put you here in the guardhouse."

"You've spoiled the sacrifice I made, Bill. It simply isn't worth it for me to continue at Helen's. I need the money I've always earned, and I need the peace of mind I'll only find back at my desk. I'm going, Bill. I'm going back to the office."

"Sure," Bill Marshall exploded bitterly. "Sure. Stand there and make a speech. You're going back all right. Back to Paul!"

(To Be Continued)

effect on the things you're thinking about me—then there's no use in my telling you anything. If we have no trust, no understanding between us any more, it's time to stop."

She was on her feet. Her cheeks were hot, a pulse beat in her throat, but her slim body was very steady. And her voice was steady, as if it came from somewhere outside her.

"I stayed with my sister, resigned my job, gave up the money I needed for clothes and for freedom and for my own self-respect, just to please you. You asked me to do it only so that you could be sure I wasn't seeing Paul. I understood that, Bill. I didn't argue about it, did I? I gave up my job. I stayed with Helen and Eugene. Stayed in a house where I don't belong, doing work for which I'm not fitted, caring for children who aren't my own."

Her voice shook just a little, and then was low and controlled once more. "What have I had, staying there? Only days that live through. One day exactly like the one before and the one after. Housework and dishes, scarcely enough money for a movie. On Sundays, every Sunday, I came here. It was all I had to look forward to."

"But was there any joy in seeing you? How could there be, when you choose to quarrel with me? You've hugged this insane jealousy, nursed it, fed it on Heaven only knows what scraps of flimsy suspicion! Because Suzanne Decker lost her head and said a lot of wild things she was sorry for half a minute later."

Bill lifted his eyes, his mouth opened to speak. But she rushed on, the tide of her feeling swelling.

"It's too late now, Bill. I've had all I can bear. I've waited and hoped and tried to convince you. For weeks, I've hoped, worked, come here and listened to you—and now, I'm through."

"You have a job to do! You should be doing it with all your heart. It's important, or the nation would never have asked you to do it. But you prefer to act like a child. You prefer to squabble over petty details—to quarrel and snarl until they have to put you here in the guardhouse."

"You've spoiled the sacrifice I made, Bill. It simply isn't worth it for me to continue at Helen's. I need the money I've always earned, and I need the peace of mind I'll only find back at my desk. I'm going, Bill. I'm going back to the office."

"Sure," Bill Marshall exploded bitterly. "Sure. Stand there and make a speech. You're going back all right. Back to Paul!"

(To Be Continued)

effect on the things you're thinking about me—then there's no use in my telling you anything. If we have no trust, no understanding between us any more, it's time to stop."

She was on her feet. Her cheeks were hot, a pulse beat in her throat, but her slim body was very steady. And her voice was steady, as if it came from somewhere outside her.

"I stayed with my sister, resigned my job, gave up the money I needed for clothes and for freedom and for my own self-respect, just to please you. You asked me to do it only so that you could be sure I wasn't seeing Paul. I understood that, Bill. I didn't argue about it, did I? I gave up my job. I stayed with Helen and Eugene. Stayed in a house where I don't belong, doing work for which I'm not fitted, caring for children who aren't my own."

Her voice shook just a little, and then was low and controlled once more. "What have I had, staying there? Only days that live through. One day exactly like the one before and the one after. Housework and dishes, scarcely enough money for a movie. On Sundays, every Sunday, I came here. It was all I had to look forward to."

"But was there any joy in seeing you? How could there be, when you choose to quarrel with me? You've hugged this insane jealousy, nursed it, fed it on Heaven only knows what scraps of flimsy suspicion! Because Suzanne Decker lost her head and said a lot of wild things she was sorry for half a minute later."

Bill lifted his eyes, his mouth opened to speak. But she rushed on, the tide of her feeling swelling.

"It's too late now, Bill. I've had all I can bear. I've waited and hoped and tried to convince you. For weeks, I've hoped, worked, come here and listened to you—and now, I'm through."

"You have a job to do! You should be doing it with all your heart. It's important, or the nation would never have asked you to do it. But you prefer to act like a child. You prefer to squabble over petty details—to quarrel and snarl until they have to put you here in the guardhouse."

"You've spoiled the sacrifice I made, Bill. It simply isn't worth it for me to continue at Helen's. I need the money I've always earned, and I need the peace of mind I'll only find back at my desk. I'm going, Bill. I'm going back to the office."

"Sure," Bill Marshall exploded bitterly. "Sure. Stand there and make a speech. You're going back all right. Back to Paul!"

(To Be Continued)

effect on the things you're thinking about me—then there's no use in my telling you anything. If we have no trust, no understanding between us any more, it's time to stop."

She was on her feet. Her cheeks were hot, a pulse beat in her throat, but her slim body was very steady. And her voice was steady, as if it came from somewhere outside her.

"I stayed with my sister, resigned my job, gave up the money I needed for clothes and for freedom and for my own self-respect, just to please you. You asked me to do it only so that you could be sure I wasn't seeing Paul. I understood that, Bill. I didn't argue about it, did I? I gave up my job. I stayed with Helen and Eugene. Stayed in a house where I don't belong, doing work for which I'm not fitted, caring for children who aren't my own."

Her voice shook just a little, and then was low and controlled once more. "What have I had, staying there? Only days that live through. One day exactly like the one before and the one after. Housework and dishes, scarcely enough money for a movie. On Sundays, every Sunday, I came here. It was all I had to look forward to."

"But was there any joy in seeing you? How could there be, when you choose to quarrel with me? You've hugged this insane jealousy, nursed it, fed it on Heaven only knows what scraps of flimsy suspicion! Because Suzanne Decker lost her head and said a lot of wild things she was sorry for half a minute later."

Bill lifted his eyes, his mouth opened to speak. But she rushed on, the tide of her feeling swelling.

"It's too late now, Bill. I've had all I can bear. I've waited and hoped and tried to convince you. For weeks, I've hoped, worked, come here and listened to you—and now, I'm through."

"You have a job to do! You should be doing it with all your heart. It's important, or the nation would never have asked you to do it. But you prefer to act like a child. You prefer to squabble over petty details—to quarrel and snarl until they have to put you here in the guardhouse."

"You've spoiled the sacrifice I made, Bill. It simply isn't worth it for me to continue at Helen's. I need the money I've always earned, and I need the peace of mind I'll only find back at my desk. I'm going, Bill. I'm going back to the office."

"Sure," Bill Marshall exploded bitterly. "Sure. Stand there and make a speech. You're going back all right. Back to Paul!"

(To Be Continued)

effect on the things you're thinking about me—then there's no use in my telling you anything. If we have no trust, no understanding between us any more, it's time to stop."

She was on her feet. Her cheeks were hot, a pulse beat in her throat, but her slim body was very steady. And her voice was steady, as if it came from somewhere outside her.

"I stayed with my sister, resigned my job, gave up the money I needed for clothes and for freedom and for my own self-respect, just to please you. You asked me to do it only so that you could be sure I wasn't seeing Paul. I understood that, Bill. I didn't argue about it, did I? I gave up my job. I stayed with Helen and Eugene. Stayed in a house where I don't belong, doing work for which I'm not fitted, caring for children who aren't my own."

Her voice shook just a little, and then was low and controlled once more. "What have I had, staying there? Only days that live through. One day exactly like the one before and the one after. Housework and dishes, scarcely enough money for a movie. On Sundays, every Sunday, I came here. It was all I had to look forward to."

"But was there any joy in seeing you? How could there be, when you choose to quarrel with me? You've hugged this insane jealousy, nursed it, fed it on Heaven only knows what scraps of flimsy suspicion! Because Suzanne Decker lost her head and said a lot of wild things she was sorry for half a minute later."

Bill lifted his eyes, his mouth opened to speak. But she rushed on, the tide of her feeling swelling.

"It's too late now, Bill. I've had all I can bear. I've waited and hoped and tried to convince you. For weeks, I've hoped, worked, come here and listened to you—and now, I'm through."

"You have a job to do! You should be doing it with all your heart. It's important, or the nation would never have asked you to do it. But you prefer to act like a child. You prefer to squabble over petty details—to quarrel and snarl until they have to put you here in the guardhouse."

"You've spoiled the sacrifice I made, Bill. It simply isn't worth it for me to continue at Helen's. I need the money I've always earned, and I need the peace of mind I'll only find back at my desk. I'm going, Bill. I'm going back to the office."

"Sure," Bill Marshall exploded bitterly. "Sure. Stand there and make a speech. You're going back all right. Back to Paul!"

(To Be Continued)

effect on the things you're thinking about me—then there's no use in my telling you anything. If we have no trust, no understanding between us any more, it's time to stop."

She was on her feet. Her cheeks were hot, a pulse beat in her throat, but her slim body was very steady. And her voice was steady, as if it came from somewhere outside her.

"I stayed with my sister, resigned my job, gave up the money I needed for clothes and for freedom and for my own self-respect, just to please you. You asked me to do it only so that you could be sure I wasn't seeing Paul. I understood that, Bill. I didn't argue about it, did I? I gave up my job. I stayed with Helen and Eugene. Stayed in a house where I don't belong, doing work for which I'm not fitted, caring for children who aren't my own."

Her voice shook just a little, and then was low and controlled once more. "What have I had, staying there? Only days that live through. One day exactly like the one before and the one after. Housework and dishes, scarcely enough money for a movie. On Sundays, every Sunday, I came here. It was all I had to look forward to."

"But was there any joy in seeing you? How could there be, when you choose to quarrel with me? You've hugged this insane jealousy, nursed it, fed it on Heaven only knows what scraps of flimsy suspicion! Because Suzanne Decker lost her head and said a lot of wild things she was sorry for half a minute later."

Bill lifted his eyes, his mouth opened to speak. But she rushed on, the tide of her feeling swelling.

"It's too late now, Bill. I've had all I can bear. I've waited and hoped and tried to convince you. For weeks, I've hoped, worked, come here and listened to you—and now, I'm through."

"You have a job to do! You should be doing it with all your heart. It's important, or the nation would never have asked you to do it. But you prefer to act like a child. You prefer to squabble over petty details—to quarrel and snarl until they have to put you here in the guardhouse."

"You've spoiled the sacrifice I made, Bill. It simply isn't worth it for me to continue at Helen's. I need the money I've always earned, and I need the peace of mind I'll only find back at my desk. I'm going, Bill. I'm going back to the office."

"Sure," Bill Marshall exploded bitterly. "Sure. Stand there and make a speech. You're going back all right. Back to Paul!"

(To Be Continued)

effect on the things you're thinking about me—then there's no use in my telling you anything. If we have no trust, no understanding between us any more, it's time to stop."

She was on her feet. Her cheeks were hot, a pulse beat in her throat, but her slim body was very steady. And her voice was steady, as if it came from somewhere outside her.

"I stayed with my sister, resigned my job, gave up the money I needed for clothes and for freedom and for my own self-respect, just to please you. You asked me to do it only so that you could be sure I wasn't seeing Paul. I understood that, Bill. I didn't argue about it, did I? I gave up my job. I stayed with Helen and Eugene. Stayed in a house where I don't belong, doing work for which I'm not fitted, caring for children who aren't my own."

Her voice shook just a little, and then was low and controlled once more. "What have I had, staying there? Only days that live through. One day exactly like the one before and the one after. Housework and dishes, scarcely enough money for a movie. On Sundays, every Sunday, I came here. It was all I had to look forward to."

"But was there any joy in seeing you? How could there be, when you choose to quarrel with me? You've hugged this insane jealousy, nursed it, fed it on Heaven only knows what scraps of flimsy suspicion! Because Suzanne Decker lost her head and said a lot of wild things she was sorry for half a minute later."

Bill lifted his eyes, his mouth opened to speak. But she rushed on, the tide of her feeling swelling.

"It's too late now, Bill. I've had all I can bear. I've waited and hoped and tried to convince you. For weeks, I've hoped, worked, come here and listened to you—and now, I'm through."

"You have a job to do! You should be doing it with all your heart. It's important, or the nation would never have asked you to do it. But you prefer to act like a child. You prefer to squabble over petty details—to quarrel and snarl until they have to put you here in the guardhouse."

"You've spoiled the sacrifice I made, Bill. It simply isn't worth it for me to continue at Helen's. I need the money I've always earned, and I need the peace of mind I'll only find back at my desk. I'm going, Bill. I'm going back to the office."

"Sure," Bill Marshall exploded bitterly. "Sure. Stand there and make a speech. You're going back all right. Back to Paul!"

(To Be Continued)

effect on the things you're thinking about me—then there's no use in my telling you anything. If we have no trust, no understanding between us any more, it's time to stop."

She was on her feet. Her cheeks were hot, a pulse beat in her throat, but her slim body was very steady. And her voice was steady, as if it came from somewhere outside her.

"I stayed with my sister, resigned my job, gave up the money I needed for clothes and for freedom and for my own self-respect, just to please you. You asked me to do it only so that you could be sure I wasn't seeing Paul. I understood that, Bill. I didn't argue about it, did I? I gave up my job. I stayed with Helen and Eugene. Stayed in a house where I don't belong, doing work for which I'm not fitted, caring for children who aren't my own."

Her voice shook just a little, and then was low and controlled once more. "What have I had, staying there? Only days that live through. One day exactly like the one before and the one after. Housework and dishes, scarcely enough money for a movie. On Sundays, every Sunday, I came here. It was all I had to look forward to."

"But was there any joy in seeing you? How could there be, when you choose to quarrel with me? You've hugged this insane jealousy, nursed it, fed it on Heaven only knows what scraps of flimsy suspicion! Because Suzanne Decker lost her head and said a lot of wild things she was sorry for half a minute later."

Bill lifted his eyes, his mouth opened to speak. But she rushed on, the tide of her feeling swelling.

"It's too late now, Bill. I've had all I can bear. I've waited and hoped and tried to convince you. For weeks, I've hoped, worked, come here and listened to you—and now, I'm through."

"You have a job to do! You should be doing it with all your heart. It's important, or the nation would never have asked you to do it. But you prefer to act like a child. You prefer to squabble over petty details—to quarrel and snarl until they have to put you here in the guardhouse."

"You've spoiled the sacrifice I made, Bill. It simply isn't worth it for me to continue at Helen's. I need the money I've always earned, and I need the peace of mind I'll only find back at my desk. I'm going, Bill. I'm going back to the office."

"Sure," Bill Marshall exploded bitterly. "Sure. Stand there and make a speech. You're going back all right. Back to Paul!"

(To Be Continued)

effect on the things you're thinking about me—then there's no use in my telling you anything. If we have no trust, no understanding between us any more, it's time to stop."

She was on her feet. Her cheeks were hot, a pulse beat in her throat, but her slim body was very steady. And her voice was steady, as if it came from somewhere outside her.

"I stayed with my sister, resigned my job, gave up the money I needed for clothes and for freedom and for my own self-respect, just to please you. You asked me to do it only so that you could be sure I wasn't seeing Paul. I understood that, Bill. I didn't argue about it, did I? I gave up my job. I stayed with Helen and Eugene. Stayed in a house where I don't belong, doing work for which I'm not fitted, caring for children who aren't my own."

Her voice shook just a little, and then was low and controlled once more. "What have I had, staying there? Only days that live through. One day exactly like the one before and the one after. Housework and dishes, scarcely enough money for a movie. On Sundays, every Sunday, I came here. It was all I had to look forward to."

"But was there any joy in seeing you? How could there be, when you choose to quarrel with me? You've hugged this insane jealousy, nursed it, fed it on Heaven only knows what scraps of flimsy suspicion! Because Suzanne Decker lost her head and said a lot of wild things she was sorry for half a minute later."

Bill lifted his eyes, his mouth opened to speak. But she rushed on, the tide of her feeling swelling.

"It's too late now, Bill. I've had all I can bear. I've waited and hoped and tried to convince you. For weeks, I've hoped, worked, come here and listened to you—and now, I'm through."

"You have a job to do! You should be doing it with all your heart. It's important, or the nation would never have asked you to do it. But you prefer to act like a child. You prefer to squabble over petty details—to quarrel and snarl until they have to put you here in the guardhouse."

"You've spoiled the sacrifice I made, Bill. It simply isn't worth it for me to continue at Helen's. I need the money I've always earned, and I need the peace of mind I'll only find back at my desk. I'm going, Bill. I'm going back to the office."

"Sure," Bill Marshall exploded bitterly. "Sure. Stand there and make a speech. You're going back all right. Back to Paul!"

(To Be Continued)

Phone Poles Guarded From Idle Whittlers

By Colton Press
MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Traveling salesmen coming in from rural towns in Arkansas, Mississippi, and Tennessee report that town-shi authorities have found means to thwart telephone pole whittling by loafers.

They say that the poles are being wrapped with wire from the bottom to a point higher than men can reach.

One town reported that three telephone poles had been cut down by men who carried pocket knives to whittle in their spare time.

CLASSIFIED

1—LOST, STRAYED, STOLEN

LOST—Saturday evening near Joseph's, souvenir Kodak pictures in leather case. Please call 639-J.

8—ROOMS FOR RENT

FOR RENT: Southeast room with bath.—MRS. NANNIE WALKER.

7—SPECIAL NOTICES

C. Y. D. O. Brown-Moffett ELECTRICIANS Phone 41 or 46

✓ LOANS ON AUTOS.—C. E. Maddocks and Co.

11—APARTMENTS FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Furnished apartment, 405 First St.

19—FOR SALE

LOOK!! LOOK!! At these cars and ask the price. 1934 Chevrolet Truck, good condition, excellent rubber. 1939 Studebaker Pickup, 28,000 miles. Extra good condition—Plenty cheap. PRICE CRAWLEY.

ATTENTION INVESTORS: Improved Business Property—225 Main corner Austin. Four Story Brick 40 x 140 feet. Real Bargain for cash. Sell-off 715 Praetorian Bldg. Dallas 2-5341.

BICYCLE FOR SALE: Boy's bicycle in good condition, brand new tires and tubes; first $10 gets it. Can be seen at 906 Cypress St., any time.—Roberts.

SEE BROWN'S Transfer and Storage — For — MOVING CONTRACT OPERATOR T. & P. TRANSPORT Phone 635

IT'S TIME TO PLANT Sweet Peas Onion Slips

WE HAVE NEW SPRING SEEDS PHONE 109

A. J. RATLIFF

Chiropractic At this time of year the body like the automobile needs a special up-keep. This you may do through the Science of Chiropractic. By the use of Colon Therapy, you may keep the body clean from within. Also special attention is given through X-Ray service. Yours for service through chiropractic.

E. R. Green, D.C. 209 Main St. - Ranger

BUS SCHEDULE Chisholm Trail Coaches, Inc. The Direct Short Route Save Hours - Save Miles Leave Ranger ..... 9:20 A.M. Ar. Breckenridge ..... 10:10 A.M. Ar. Vernon ..... 1:15 P.M. Ar. Amarillo ..... 8:45 P.M. Ar. Lubbock ..... 5:15 P.M. Ar. Altus ..... 8:00 P.M. Ar. Lawton ..... 9:00 P.M. Ar. Wichita Falls ..... 12:45 P.M. Ride Chisholm Trail Coaches, Inc. Dependable - Reliable Courteous Service

RAY GRIMES, Owner and Operator For information Phone 1 PARAMOUNT HOTEL.

TRADERS' GROCERY & MARKET

SPECIALS FOR JAN. 31st and Feb. 1st
We Deliver Orders of $2.00 or More on these Specials
We Reserve the Right to Limit Quantities!
CORNER OF MAIN and RUSK STREETS
PHONE 191

|                                      |   |                               |
|--------------------------------------|---|-------------------------------|
| Fed Beef Round or Loin Steak Lb. 28c | Swift's Allawest Oleo Lb. 18c           | Small Lean Pork Chops Lb. 22c |
| Fresh Ground HAMBURGER MEAT Lb. 15c  | Rath's Sugar Cured Sliced Bacon Lb. 19c | No. 1 Dry Salt Bacon Lb. 13c  |
| Fancy Fed Beef Chuck Roast Lb. 18c   | Pure Pork Sausage Lb. 15c               | Pork Roast Picnic Cut Lb. 18c |

|  |                               |
|--|-------------------------------|
| CRISCO 3 Lb. Can 45c                       | PEANUT BUTTER Quart 23c       |
| Swift's Jewel Shortening, 4 Lb. Cart. 37c  | Salted CRACKERS, 2 Lbs. 15c   |
| Blue Concentrated Super Soda, lge. box 15c | JELLO All Flavors, 2 Pkgs. 9c |
| IVORY SOAP 2 Large Bars 15c                | CATSUP 14 Oz. Bot. 10c        |
| P. & G. SOAP 5 Giant Bars 16c              | MUSTARD Quart 10c             |

|                                       |   |  |
|---------------------------------------|---|--|
| Pure Cane Sugar 10 Lb. Cloth Bags 49c | Bulk Brown or Powdered Sugar 2 lbs. 13c | SPAGHETTI or MACARONI 2 Boxes 5c         |
| Fresh Country Eggs 2 Doz. 35c         | Kellogg's Corn Flakes 2 Large Boxes 19c | Supreme Corn Meal 5 Lbs. 15c 10 Lbs. 28c |

|                                     |   |
|-------------------------------------|---|
| TOMATOES No. 2 Can 6c               | Fresh Bulk COCOANUT, Lb. 19c              |
| Cut Green Beans 2 No. 2 Cans 15c    | Vienna SAUSAGE, 3 Cans 20c                |
| Texas Famous CORN, 3 No. 2 Cans 25c | POTTED MEAT 5 Cans 15c                    |
| PORK & BEANS 1 Lb. Can 5c           | PINTO BEANS, 3 Lbs. 13c                   |
| Folger's COFFEE, 1 Lb. Can 25c      | Betty Cut Sour or Dill PICKLES, Quart 10c |

|                                      |                             |                      |
|--------------------------------------|-----------------------------|----------------------|
| Kiln Dried Sweet Potatoes 5 lbs. 16c | Fresh Carrots 3 Bunches 10c | Potatoes 10 lbs. 15c |
|--------------------------------------|-----------------------------|----------------------|

Admiration COFFEE 1-Lb. Can 25c

EVA HAMILL Teacher of Expression & Public Speaking. Monday and Thursday evenings from 7 to 9 o'clock. Graduate of an accredited school and ten years experience teaching.

213 MESQUITE RANGER, TEXAS

MATTRESSES REBUILT, NEW TICKING, 2 FOR $5.00 Innerspring Mattresses rebuilt or made to order. Also furniture upholstery, repairing. PHONE 318

Ranger Mattress Factory W. E. Herwick, Prop.

Society Notes

"Tantalizing Tiltle" To Be Presented Wednesday
On next Wednesday evening at 8 p. m. a three-act comedy with chorus numbers will be staged at the Ranger high school auditorium.

ASK YOUR GROCER!
A. J. RATLIFF
Wholesale Distributor
Phone 108 Ranger

FOR SALE

4-room furnished house, 2 acres of land, fruit trees and berries, cellar; bargain and immediate possession.

C. E. MAY
Your Insurance Man

IT'S TRUE YOU CAN BUILD...

The Home of your Dreams Can Now Be Yours!
• No Down Payment
• Low Rate Interest
Burton-Lingo Co

HAVE YOU TRIED OUR—

Bar-B-Q—it's as typically American as the western range! Delicious pork or beef with that inimitable Porkey Pig Bar-B-Q sauce. Try it with a cup of coffee.

PORKEY PIG
Norman & Dwayne

Blacklock Feed Store
PHONE 112

VULCANIZE YOUR HOUSE AGAINST THE COMING COLD!
Window Glass, Weather Stripping and Caulking Compound keep the wind and water out of your home!

SEE US NOW
For your paint and wall paper needs.
Sherwin-Williams and Cook Paint and Varnish Products.
Your Paint Headquarters!

Higginbotham-Bartlett Co.
Phone 140
Ranger, Texas

lum, "Tillie" is under the auspices of the American Legion Auxiliary and directed by Miss Celeste Vaue of the Wayne Sewell Co. of Atlanta, Ga.

The action takes place in the modern salon of Mrs. Henry Smythe, who before she went to New York and got big ideas, was Mrs. Hiram Smith of Greendale. Mrs. Smythe is played by Mrs. George Robinson Jack Robinson plays the part of Mr. Smythe, a typical husband.

"Dorlene McGregor, as 'Tillie' portrays a very fine role of a young show girl, who, stranded in the small town of Greendale with her troupe wins the favor of all the men and eventually, that of Mrs. Smythe.

Carroll Boone, Glenn Rex and Francis McHenry play the local boys; Melba Morrison, May Thompson and Caroline Robinson are the local girls.

Mrs. Lorette Johnson acts as maid; V. A. Norris as constable, Milton George as Jake, the bus driver, Mrs. Pearl Hazard as Mrs. Constable.

Dorothy Jean Williams and Billie Maize Davanport are two of the show girls on Tillie's troupe. Herschel Eby takes the role of Bradley, the man of a duo personality, who tries to take the small town of Greendale for a ride.

Amanda, dumb, rich, country woman, whom Mrs. Smythe is trying to marry off, is played by Mrs. Preston Burks, and Speedy, the hired man is played by Jerry DeVore.

Just a Bit Personal...

Mrs. A. N. Harkrider of Kilgore, formerly of Ranger, visited friends here, Thursday, while en route to California for a visit.

HOW TO PREVENT MANY COLDS From Developing

Quick—Put a Few Drops of Vicks Va-tro-nol up your nose at the first sniffles, or sign of catching cold and its stimulating action and Nature's defenses against the cold.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

PAUL MUNI HAS NEW TYPE OF ROLE IN "HUDSON'S BAY"

Rogue, renegade and scoundrel is Paul Muni in "Hudson's Bay," 20th Century-Fox's sweeping drama of the wilds of Canada which comes to the Arcadia theatre for two days beginning today. As Pierre Radisson, a fabulous figure who saved half a continent for the ruler who had ordered him hanged, Paul Muni is said to have one of the finest roles of his career. Others in the cast are Gene Tierney, Laird Cregar, John Sutton, Virginia Field, Vincent Price and Nigel Bruce.

with her son.

Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson and daughter, Caroline, left today for a visit in Waco.

Mrs. Saunders Gregg left today for a visit with her son, Louis Gregg, in New York.

Mrs. L. H. Newellen, Stanley McAnnelly, Arthur Allison, Ross Hodges and J. E. Matthews were in Rising Star Thursday night to attend a dinner party given by

Captains Pride In Jail Is Blasted

By United Press
SWEETWATER, Tex. — Police Captain Homer Bradford took pardonable pride in his jail.

Thus it came as a great shock when one of his prisoners declared that "I'd rather spend three years in the army than 10 days in here.

Mrs. Homer Haety.

L. N. Thompson left today for a visit in Pharr.

Bradford sent for Recruiting Sergeant Troy Gist, who signed the lad for a three-year hitch at Fort Bliss. Then Bradford ordered the jail polished and scrubbed.

Final Payment Is Made On A Suit

CHURBUSCO, Ind.— Fifty-two years after he had bought a suit of clothes from a store here, John Franks, of Lowell, Mich., finished paying for it.

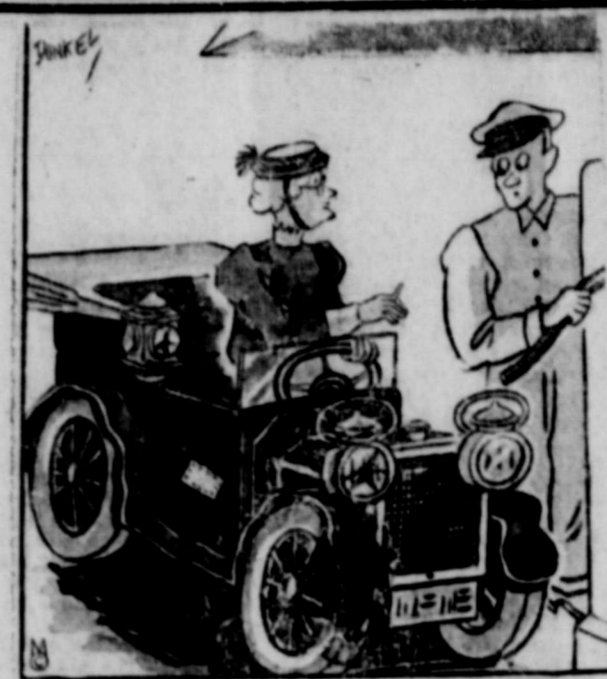

Franks made a personal appearance at the store, introduced himself to the son of the late owner, and insisted he accept $20 in payment for the balance of the bill, after the original bill could not be found.

Enrollment In The Junior College Is Now Encouraging

Enrollment figures for Ranger Junior College look very encouraging, it was stated today by H. L. Baskin, dean of the college, in announcing that the 100-mark had been passed the first three days of registration for the new term.

Registration will continue for adults or students who plan to take one or more courses, Baskin announced, and those who have been contemplating taking courses have been urged to register as soon as possible in order that they may not miss any of the classes.

"Do You Install TAP Electric Cigarette Lighters?"

The nice old lady with the ancient car has the right idea. We give up-to-date service. Wise motorists drive in here for quick, dependable, friendly attention. Day and night, our men equip your car for smoother, safer, economical driving... for modern motoring satisfaction.

T.-P. PRODUCTS — G&J TIRES
We guarantee service on tires and give liberal trade in allowance for your old tire.

BATTERY & TIRE SERVICE
WASHING... GREASING

STIDHAM SERVICE STATION
Phone 80 We Guarantee To Please You!

Dr. Hammer, Red Cross Chairman, Aided By Hoyt's

Dr. F. W. Hammer, Ph. D., L.L.D., of 2104 Ong St., Amarillo,

Texas, states "I had a terrible case of indigestion. After each meal I had a sour taste in my mouth, pains in my shoulder, gas pressure around my heart. It felt as though there was a big, solid lump in my stomach. My breath was bad. I was constipated, and because of kidney distress, my sleep was broken each night. I had spent large sums for relief, had bought almost every kind of medicine.

"Hoyt's Compound made me feel like a new man. There's no more indigestion, sour taste, bad breath, or constipation. The pains in my shoulder and around my heart are gone. Hoyt's has also relieved Mrs. Hammer of sour stomach. You can be safe in giving it a trial. It is honest medicine."

Hoyt's Compound is sold by the Texas Drug Store, and by all other druggists in this entire area.

FOOD SPECIALISTS

You've missed a treat if you haven't tasted our homemade pies... But we don't specialize in one dish... we specialize on 'em all... and serve them at very modest prices.

THE HOTTEST COFFEE IN TOWN!
Mrs. Higdon's

ARCADIA

FRIDAY and SATURDAY

"YOU ARE MY FRIEND! BUT IF I CAN STOP THIS MASSACRE BY ORDERING YOU SHOT, I'LL DO IT!"

WHO WAS THIS MAN... this renegade, traitor, rogue who never broke a promise? To two lovers he gave the priceless gift of each other... and saved a new world for the man who had ordered him hanged!

PAUL MUNI

HUDSON'S BAY

Pierre Radisson, the first Canadian!

with GENE TIERNEY
LAIRD CREGAR • JOHN SUTTON
VIRGINIA FIELD • VINCENT PRICE
NIGEL BRUCE

Directed by Irving Pichel
Associate Producer Kenneth Macgowan
Original Screen Play by Lamar Trull
A 20th Century-Fox Picture

— ADDED ATTRACTION —
"GOOFY'S GLIDER"

A CARTOON

MARCH of the MARINES

With Dennis Morgan
LATEST NEWS

Here's Good News

FOR HOUSEWIVES OF RANGER and VICINITY

SPECIAL --

INTRODUCTORY

OFFER

ON!

Gold Chain FLOUR

Free

10-Lb. Bag Corn Meal FREE... with the purchase of each 48-Lb. Sack of GOLD CHAIN FLOUR.

5-Lb. Bag Corn Meal FREE... with the purchase of each 24-Lb. Sack of GOLD CHAIN FLOUR.

2-Lb. Bag Corn Meal FREE... with the purchase of 12-Lb. Sack of GOLD CHAIN FLOUR.

This Offer Good Only Friday and Saturday... Jan. 31st and Feb. 1st AT THE FOLLOWING STORES—

- |                       |                      |                   |
|-----------------------|----------------------|-------------------|
| Black & White Grocery | Mills Grocery        | Traders Grocery   |
| Clover Farm Store     | O. K. Grocery        | Witt Grocery      |
| Eastland Hill Grocery | A. H. Powell Grocery | Woods Grocery     |
| Faulk Grocery         | Robinson Grocery     | Lem Grocery—Olden |
| Junos Grocery         | Sig's Nu-Way Store   | Nex Grocery—Olden |

In addition to this unusual offer of FREE merchandise and the superb baking qualities of GOLD CHAIN FLOUR... you'll find a valuable premium coupon in each bag, good for a substantial saving on a high grade piece of kitchen cutlery. BE SURE TO ASK FOR "GOLD CHAIN FLOUR"... "You'll appreciate the difference!"

DISTRIBUTED BY

A. J. Ratliff

PHONE 108 RANGER, TEXAS

