REDS BREACH NAZI LINES IN CENTRAL AREA

VOLUME XXIII

KUIBYSHEV, Russia, April 22. -Russian guards, supported by tanks and heavy artillery, have breached the German lines on the Central Front, and have captured 40 occupied places, the newspaper Pravda reported officially today. The break into the German line was made by a division of guards after several days of fighting, the report said, in reporting that the advance was continuing. The guards were reported to be under the command of General Siyzov. The Russian technique for fight ing tanks, the Moscow newspape attempt to maneuver them in such Nazis now are covering tank advaries with artillery barrages and attempt to meneuver them in such a way as to try to escape the Russian technique, without success.

"They are now on duty in Ice-land, Newfoundland, Puerto Rico, Trinidad, Curacao, Ber-muda, Can J Zone, Ireland, Hawaii, Alaska, and several other spots which, for the time being, must remain geographically in-cognito," the article says.

The writer-Miss Lora Kelly, a veteran Red Cross worker who was decorated twice during World War I—described these "task units" as follows: "a field supervisor, a field director, an assistant field director, and a recreation director to serve the abledied troops."

"Women are assigned to the station hospital, the minimum personnel being an assistant field di rictor who is a medical-social worker and a recreation worker who supervises medically approv ed entertainment. Secretaries complete the unit which is expanded or decreased according to needs

Goodby to Passivity

THERE is no general agreement with the new name, War Bonds, which has been given to the government's promises to repay billions of dollars borrowed to finance the defense of Democracy. Some preferred the World War I title, Liberty Bonds, Others argued for reviving Victory Bond as a cognomen,

But the bitterest enders are glad that at last we have discarded the misnomer, Defense Bonds, a termitic fifth columnist which was doing more damage than a dozen Fritz Kuhns, Technically, perhaps, and very fundamentally, we really are fighting a defensive war. That is, we aren't an aggressor nation. We aren't trying to seize by force another people's territory or trade. We aren't attempting to force our ideology, our form of government, our system of economics upon the rest of the world. We are merely refusfing to permit Germany, Italy, and Japan to Nazify the world, including us, by force.

WE are defending democracy, but we know now that we can not preserve human rights be Having been forced to fight for what we treasure, we intend to take the offensive and to pursue it to the complete destruction of axis aggression.

It was high time that we got rid of the stultifying passivity suggested by "defense." It expresses too well the spirit of letting the other fellow set the pace, pick his spots, name the game and make the rules. Wars are not won in that way,

Late, but not too late, the pacific American people have begun to adopt a belligerent attitude toward this war. The new name for the government's bonds is a concrete expression of that new spirit. War Bonds. That means Fight.

E are not yet in position to make Germany, Japan and Italy suffer at home what our allies in Europe and NEW ORLEANS, La.—Affable His first military boat was the language of the longshoreman. WE are not yet in position to make Germany, Japan and Asia have been forced to endure. A penny saved is a penny earned toward a defense s amp. Your dependable Gas Range will be a helpful ally in your campaign against waste if you follow these simple rules.

DO plan complete oven and broiler meals, so that gas is not used for just one food such as cake or chops.

DON'T let vegetables boil violently under high flame. This not only destroys vitamins but wastes

DON'T preheat oven or broiler too long. Remember gas is fast. Cold start is possible if you prefer. DON'T heat any more water in the kettle than is necessary. The speedy gas flame will heat it quickly next time you need it.
