REDS AIM DRIVE FOR SALS

JEFFERS PREDICTS ONLY ONE YEAR OF TROUBLE FOR CAR OWNERS IF THEY COOPERATE

Situation Already Easing Some, He Says, And the Manufacture of Synthetic Rubber Soon Will Do the Rest

A promise that if car owners will co-operate there is only one year of trouble for American motorists was made today (Tuesday) by William F. Jeffers, Rubber Director of the War Production Board, in a signed article in a current Magazine in which he analyzes the tire situation in detail.

"Already we are giving retreats to civilians," he writes, "for essential driving. As production of synthetic rubber increases in 1943 and the fruits of our rubber savings mature, we will be able to increase retreading. If all goes well, in 1944, there will be new tires and retreads for almost everybody, and our passenger cars and trucks will be so well shod and the production of synthetic will be so great that tire rationing will exist only to the extent necessary to prevent waste."

Charging that if "selfish interests and misinformed persons" who opposed rationing had had their way, the country's transportation system would have broken down in six months, Mr. Jeffers stated that the Nazis understood the situation and "spread propaganda far and wide in an effort to convince Americans that rationing wasn't necessary."

Regarding the synthetic rubber situation, Mr. Jeffers reports: "In two or three weeks the first butadiene plant, at Institute, W. Va., will be opened. It will produce at the rate of 20,000 tons a year from grain alcohol and will be the first unit of an 80,000 ton plant."

At about the same time a butadiene plant will be opened in Baton Rouge, La., calculated to produce at the rate of 15,000 tons a year, from petroleum.

Before July 4 there will be other butadiene plants in operation in Los Angeles, Charleston, W. Va., Bayton, Texas; Pittsburgh, Pa.; Toledo, Ohio, and Louisville, Ky. Plants will be building in Houston, Texas and Lake Charles, La.

All told, these plants, when they are going at full capacity, will produce at the rate of 800,000 tons of synthetic rubber a year. They'll all be in operation—and other new plants will be building by November 1.

"We are in an uncomfortable spot but if we have the complete co-operation of American car owners, there's only one year of real trouble ahead. If Americans drive slowly, use only the amount of mileage that is necessary in their work, share their rides, take care of their tires, we'll come out of this era of rubber rationing on the bounce."

Gov. Willie Stallworth, a long way from his Pensacola, Fla., home, boggles some hot notes to wake the boys up at an Alcatraz camp.

HOUSEWIVES ARE ASKED TO SAVE STEEL

Eastland County housewives can save enough steel for 2,784 machine guns simply by replacing one can of fruits or vegetables a week during the next year with fresh or home-packed produce, a leading food distributor estimated today.

"This substitution, urged by the War Production Board, will not only save steel but also conserve food by using extra supplies of fresh produce made available by increased production, canning restrictions and reduced storage facilities," according to Earl R. French, marketing director of A & P's produce buying affiliate, the Atlantic Commission Company.

A number two "tin" can averages 2.25 pounds of steel plus a small amount of tin, and a single family can save 12.2 pounds of steel in a year by the can-a-week reduction, French said. Thus Eastland County's 7,985 families can save 97,417 pounds of steel, enough to make 2,738 thirty-caliber machine guns, each requiring 35 pounds of steel for manufacture, he pointed out.

"Reduced buying of canned produce doesn't mean reducing food consumption. Housewives can balance their family diets by serving more fresh produce, and our records show that many families are already doing this. American farmers last year moved 142,372 carlots of fresh fruits and vegetables to consumers through the Atlantic Commission Company, 10 per cent more than in 1940 and an all-time high record, and present indications are that they will move as much or more this year," French said.

The program would save 20,594,954 pounds of steel if carried out by all of Texas' 1,688,111 families, it was brought out. On a national basis, America's 31,000,000 families could save enough steel to make 5,000 medium tanks or 38 Liberty freight ships, and enough tin for 360,000 75mm. howitzers.

Says 'Bright' Students Less Apt To Succeed

PHILADELPHIA (UP) The intelligent student with high I. Q. ratings is less apt to succeed in college and business later than the duller student according to Dr. James D. Page, director of Temple University's psychology clinic.

"The more intelligent student generally is a greater academic problem than his less brainy classmate," said Dr. Page. "At Temple, there is a male student whose I. Q. places him among the ten 'brightest' students in the country yet he consistently obtains no better than passing grades."

The average student according to Dr. Page often becomes a better leader than his more gifted classmate for the reason that he is better able to organize his daily study routine and fights just a little harder to gain a fair amount of knowledge which the bright students endeavor to take in stride.

"Disorganized study habits," said Dr. Page, "the failure to establish a goal for themselves after the freshmen year, and home environment cause the better students to fail to obtain the distinguished grades of which they are capable."

D. Page, who has been making an exhaustive study of "bright students" for several years, received a cash grant from the university's research committee to enlarge the scope of his study.

"Intelligent and determined individuals need to be developed," he said, "in order to cope with the problems of the post-war period, and on the highly intelligent students this burden will rest—because from this group will come

Prisoners Of Japs In Islands Will Survive, Aide Says

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (UP) —United States prisoners of the Japanese in the Philippines have been put to work, a letter written to an Albuquerque woman from Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters in Australia revealed.

The letter in reply to a request by Mrs. M. L. Bradley of Albuquerque for information about her son, said prisoners have been divided into small groups and are working on the islands.

Mrs. Bradley's son, Lt. Jack W. Bradley, is one of many New Mexico men who was in the Philippines with the 200th anti-aircraft when the islands fell.

Lt. Col. Charles H. Morehouse, aide to General MacArthur who wrote the letter, said, "It is my personal belief that all young and healthy men will survive their imprisonment."

He added that "one of General MacArthur's greatest ambitions is to retake the Philippine Islands and release our troops. The men on Bataan and Corregidor will never be forgotten."

The persons who will have to help settle a war-torn world."

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

The holds of hundreds of transport ships, traveling the seven seas in convoys, are loaded with provisions for our fighting men. It costs Uncle Sam approximately $412.53 to keep the average soldier in fighting trim for a year (in continental United States). It costs more overseas.

Your purchase of War Bonds, at least ten percent of your income every payday, will help provide the millions of dollars necessary to provide the essentials... food, clothing and barracks... for our soldiers, sailors and marines. At the same time you save money to yourself and your family.

Food Value of Your Share of Meat

Any change in the meat share would reduce or increase the above percentages proportionately.

Variety meats (liver, heart, kidney, etc.) are not restricted. Each serving of these meats added to your 2 1/2-lb. weekly share of restricted meats will increase the above percentages about as follows: Calories 7%, protein 3%, phosphorus 2 1/2%, iron 8%, vitamin A 14%, thiamine 2 1/2%, riboflavin 8%, niacin 7%, vitamin C 1 1/2%.

American fighter planes are giving us air superiority on the fighting fronts. For the job it has to do, the Curtiss P-40 is unsurpassed.

These planes cost about $51,000 each. We need more and more of them as we take the offensive against the Axis.

SERIAL STORY 'I AM A MURDERER'

BY MORRIS MARKEY

THIS STORY: This is the story of the "perfect crime" murder of Col. Wesley Hope Merriwether in the library of his Long Island estate...

He would hear the secretary of the Hunt and the master of foxhounds explain the situation—listening most gravely—and then, after some moments of consideration...

She had addressed her son upon the subject within a month of Henry Prentiss' arrival. "By the way, Frederick—" (fluttering of the newspaper and sudden interest in some obscure item).

REVERIES AND FOLLY

CHAPTER III

THE only report that came to Mrs. Porter West of her son's proposal to Cynthia Merriwether was in a chance remark that Fred delivered as he drank coffee with her after dinner one night.

There was only one curious note. The guests at Stone House were, without exception, the people of Gull Point (and their own week-end or summer guests).

Her son had just scored beautifully from a wide angle, and the scoreboard told that his Whirlwinds were leading the Clovers, 5 to 3.

On the whole, this was not too disturbing to Mrs. Porter West. She had learned, with men and with horses, the instinctive art of patience—and persistence she did not have to learn because it was born with her.

WHEN Cynthia grew of an age to undertake the duties of hostess (no Mrs. Merriwether had ever been seen or even mentioned) the entertainments within those broad and enviable rooms, upon the terrace, at the pool and the tennis court, became more lavish.

"I never saw him fumble the check at 21 or the Stork Club or the St. Regis. He doesn't gossip and never boasts. He's good company, and personally I like him. But wait a minute! His necktie! I knew something was wrong with the guy. He wears lousy, noisy, viciously expensive neckties. Guess I'll have to drop him after all."

Which seemed fertile advice except for one element which grew steadily into the situation. That element was Henry Prentiss.

There was only one curious note. The guests at Stone House were, without exception, the people of Gull Point (and their own week-end or summer guests).

Her son had just scored beautifully from a wide angle, and the scoreboard told that his Whirlwinds were leading the Clovers, 5 to 3.

Now it should be said at once that Col. Wesley Hope Merriwether and his daughter Cynthia were not old school. They were not even, in the strict sense, Long Island. Six or seven years ago they had appeared at Gull Point, and the colonel had bought, for certain holy quantities of cash money, the old and altogether magnificent Stone estate.

It would not be a precise statement to say that Mrs. Porter West enjoyed the hospitality of Stone House. Naturally, she was on the guest list prepared and kept carefully to date by Mitchell Graeb, the Colonel's secretary. She even forewent her native antipathy to invitations-by-telephone, and invariably accepted them. But the verb "to enjoy" has connotations peculiar to itself.

Her son had just scored beautifully from a wide angle, and the scoreboard told that his Whirlwinds were leading the Clovers, 5 to 3.

When he came? Well, no advice was offered from Stone House, and the times had changed to affect, permanently no doubt, the asking of direct questions upon such a matter. The essential fact was, alas, that Colonel Merriwether was a very rich man. At least he behaved like one.

And she found out, early indeed, enough to convince her that here, despite certain unsatisfactory details, was the Main Chance—for her Frederick, and not incidentally by any means, for herself.

Then the insufferable Henry Prentiss appeared. Four years ago, wasn't it? Yes, about four years. He, too, seemed to come out of nowhere. Oh, one or two of the boys remembered playing polo with him on the coast at Midwick and the Uplifters. But what was that? Hollywood! And before Hollywood? Who could

Did the Hunt (a trifle embarrassed for funds) wish the hounds walked for a month? Colonel Merriwether would undertake the burden: daily food for the 25 dogs and keep for their handlers. Not too readily. Not too eagerly.
