Fortresses Demonstrate Accuracy Against Brenner Pass Line

ACCURACY OF THE U. S. FLYING FORTRESSES in their daylight raids on objectives in Nazi Europe is shown clearly by these photos of an attack on the railroad yards at Bolzano, Italy, on Nov. 10. The city, 40 miles south of the Brenner Pass, is the northernmost important railroad junction through which the Nazis can move troops

Texas Precious Gems Collection Added To Museum

AUSTIN, Tex. (UP)—A Garland Adair, curator of the Texas Memorial Museum has announced that a display of Texas precious stones has been made part of the museum's display.

"Texas has a long list of gems that are found within its boundaries but few have been produced commercially," Adair said. "The precious stones include agate, amethyst, amethyst, beryl, carnelian, chalcedony, garnet, jasper, opal, spinel, topaz and turquoise. Fine agate specimens have been shipped for several years from the Big Bend near Terlingua. Fine specimens are also found near Balmorhea in Reeves and Jeff Davis counties," he continued. "Amazon stone, a delicate apple green feldspar, has been found near Streeter and Katemey in Mason county, and on the Haywood ranch in Llano county. Amethyst, as well as most of the other quartz minerals named such as carnelian, chalcedony, jasper and opal occur more frequently in the Trans-Pecos than in any other area."

Adair said that garnets are found in Llano and Mason counties but are rarely of gem quality while topaz is found near Streeter and Katemey in Mason county.

"Turquoise was once mined near Van Horn in Culberson County," he said. "Occasional crystals of beryl have been reported found near Sharp Mountain in Llano County, but they are rare."

INVASION OF ISLAND COMES ON HEELS OF HEAVY RAID

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS Southwest Pacific, Dec. 16.—Light opposition from Japanese ground and air forces met American troops when they landed at Arawe, near the mouth of New Britain, the Allies announced today.

The invasion of New Britain followed closely on the heels of air raids on Arawe and points on the island, only 75 miles from which was heavily bombed the Allies on Sunday, as it serves as a protection base which is only 200 miles from the Japanese base.

The troops were landed from landing craft Sunday after a naval bombardment that blasted the way for ground forces.

The landings climaxed a week-long bombing attack by the Allies which dumped 35,000 bombs on Arawe in a raid Tuesday.

For nearly two months planes have carried a spread bombing attack on supply and barge points from one end of the island to the other.

The invasion is by far the largest of the campaign against the Japanese, for all the islands in the Solomon and elsewhere by the Allies are small islands.

It is aimed primarily at the Japanese base at Rabaul, the main base for Japanese troops and supplies in New Britain.

As the Japanese blockade operations against the Allies and the Netherlands East Indies it is only 300 miles from Japanese bases in the area and is a key point for the Allies.

Allied air forces, based on the island of Guadalcanal, have been attacking Rabaul with more than 100 bombers. They have followed a definite pattern in attacking Japanese bases.

Rabaul itself was the target of heavy bombing Sunday. The drive turned to the west of the long, narrow island, two weeks after Allied planes hit Cape Gloucester, New Guinea and other points in the area.

Finally, Arawe was the target for the greatest bombing raid in the area. More than 100 bombers with a screen of fighters, dropped the record bomb load on the coastal base.

The Japanese offered no interception, and their planes were seen only in the climactic attack.

Arawe is about 75 miles from the mouth of New Britain where there is a large Japanese base. Arawe was the southern heavy aerial base, and should it fall into Allied hands, it would command a bay which is 200 miles away.

2 Recipes you need:

THIS 4-LAYER JELLY CAKE hails from frontier days! From an old Mormon cook book. A typical Betty Crocker "Kitchen-tested" recipe, for use with Gold Medal "Kitchen-tested" Flour. No comparable recipes match the Betty Crocker recipes in popularity! Try this one!

THIS BASIC SWEET DOUGH HAS LITERALLY DOZENS OF USES

You can make many types of rolls from this recipe. Perfect results assured only with Gold Medal "Kitchen-tested" Flour.

2 cakes compressed yeast... 2 cups milk (scalded, cooled to 80°)... 1/2 cup sugar... 2 tsp. salt... 2 eggs (well beaten)... 7 to 7 1/2 cups sifted GOLD MEDAL "Kitchen-tested" Flour... 1/4 to 1/2 cup shortening (depending on richness desired)

CRUMBLE yeast. Add the lukewarm milk. Stir in sugar, salt until dissolved. Stir in well beaten eggs. Add 1/2 the flour, beating in till very elastic. Beat in melted-and-cooled shortening. Add most of remaining flour, work in by hand (possibly using maximum amount) till dough can be easily handled. Mix well. Let stand 10 min. covered on lightly floured board. Knead till smooth, elastic. Round up. Set to rise in greased bowl (covered with damp cloth). Keep at 80° to 85° out of drafts till double in bulk (about 2 hrs.). Punch down. Let rise again (covered) till not quite double in bulk (about 45 min.). Punch down.

PARTY ROLLS. Use slightly less than 1/2 of above dough. Cut off tiny bits, form into balls size of small marbles; place close together in greased 9" round cake pan. Cover with damp cloth; let rise till double in bulk (about 1 1/2 hr.). Bake about 15 min. in quick moderate oven (375°).

CINNAMON ROLLS. Use a trifle over 1/2 of the dough. Roll out 1/8" thick into oblong about 8" x 14". Spread with 2 tsp. butter or margarine; sprinkle with 1/4 cup sugar, 1 tsp.

cinnamon mixed. Roll tightly lengthwise into long roll. Seal edges, cut into slices 1" wide, place cut-side down in well-greased 8" x 12" oblong pan. Cover with damp cloth. Let rise till double in bulk (about 40 min.). Bake 25 to 30 min. in quick, moderate oven (375°). 1 dozen rolls.

SWEDISH TEA RING (for 12 in. diam.). Use a little over 1/2 of the dough. Roll into oblong, 5" x 18". Spread with 2 tsp. softened butter or margarine. Sprinkle with mixture of 1/4 cup sugar and 1 tsp. cinnamon. Roll tightly and seal. Transfer (sealed edge down) to lightly greased heavy baking pan. Join ends to form ring. With scissors, make cuts 1/4 way through ring an inch apart. Now turn each section into its side.

Cover, let rise till double in bulk (about 35 min.). Bake about 25 min. in quick moderate oven (375°). Spread top of ring (while warm) with icing made from 1 1/2 tsp. milk and 1/4 cup confectioners' sugar. (Decorate with almonds and candied cherries, if desired.)

TRY THIS OLD-FASHIONED JELLY LAYER CAKE!

Perfect results assured only with Gold Medal "Kitchen-tested" Flour

1/2 cup shortening (part butter for flavor)... 1 cup sugar... 2 eggs... 1 1/2 cups sifted Gold Medal "Kitchen-tested" Flour... 2 tsp. baking powder... 1/4 tsp. salt... 1/2 cup milk... 1/2 tsp. vanilla... 1 cup jelly (e.g., currant, grape or apple)... (confectioners' sugar if desired)

CREAM shortening, add sugar gradually. Cream until fluffy. Blend in well beaten eggs. Sift flour, baking powder, salt together. Add to creamed mixture alternately with milk. Blend in vanilla. Divide batter equally among 4 well-greased-and-floured 8" round layer cake pans—spreading evenly in pan. (Butter should be only 1/4" deep in each pan.)

Bake 12 to 14 minutes in moderately hot oven (400°), until a delicate brown. Cakes won't brown as much as usual butter cake; they'll be baked through though not a rich golden brown. DON'T OVER-BAKE!

When cool, spread jelly (beaten with fork) between layers and on top. Let stand 1/2 hour at least before serving. Sprinkle confectioners' sugar over jelly on top when ready to serve, if desired.

If you do not have four 8" layer pans... butter for 2 layers may be kept in cool place while first 2 layers are baking.

A Flaw in the Title—

. . . has been costly to many honest and sincere purchasers. Unlike the precious stone, the title with a flaw, in most cases, may be cured by means of the abstract and the attorney's opinion. A flaw in your right of ownership not only impairs the value of your investment but sooner or later is almost certain to cause you loss of time and money. In buying real estate, always demand an abstract.
