Walker; Rising Star, J. Frank Robertson; Carbon Frank Stubblefield.

Farmer Refused Tax Reduction

EDINBURG, Tex. (UP)—A disappointed Mercedes Texas farmer who paid his Hidalgo County taxes this week—all of them.

When he arrived at the court house with his story of having killed scores of coyotes on his farm during the past several months, he followed up the information with a plea for a tax reduction.

Describing to county commissioners how he had spent over 100 nights in a row setting traps and shooting coyotes, the farmer said he figured he should be given some allowance on his taxes. Commissioners didn't cut his taxes.

WHY GOOD MEN REFRAIN FROM OFFERING FOR PUBLIC OFFICE

(Editorial)

The character of campaign being conducted by Mr. Omar Burkett for Representative in the 107th District is the principal reason why many good men decline to offer for public office. It follows that many offices of public trust are filled by pure politicians.

This newspaper is convinced that Mr. W. B. Starr and Mr. L. R. Pearson in the First Primary conducted clean campaigns, but so much cannot be said for Mr. Burkett.

During the night of June 27 a large number of photostatic copies of a certificate showing the past political affiliations of Mr. Starr were clandestinely mailed in Ranger. Both Mr. Starr and Mr. Pearson have disclaimed in writing any connection, directly or indirectly, with this matter. Mr. Burkett has remained strangely silent on this point. The clandestine mailing of these certificates was a dual strike at both Mr. Starr and Mr. Pearson—with the design that the Ranger postmark would injure Mr. Starr, and the contents of the letter would injure Mr. Starr, who is a thoroughly honorable man, and need have no regrets about his past political record.

Again, less than 48 hours before the opening of the polls in the First Primary Mr. Burkett and one "Nig" Taylor of Cisco caused to be printed and distributed over the District a circular designed to arouse prejudice against Mr. Pearson in that it charges that he is a "wealthy man who does not need the office." It goes so far as to list Mr. Pearson's property, including his oil production from a few stripper wells, and even includes the 1/8 royalty and makes no deductions for pumpers' salaries, supply bills, and numerous other expenses incidental to the production of oil. Thus, the circular does not give the full truth, and a half truth, is worse than a falsehood. If Mr. Pearson by hard work, industry and good judgment has accumulated the property mentioned in this circular he should be commended rather than condemned. The office of Representative is primarily, and rightfully should be, an office of honor and trust. The design of this political circular was to arouse prejudice against Mr. Pearson because he has made a fair success of his business. Any candidate who will mail blind letters, eleventh hour circulars, and anonymous communications to arouse class prejudice against his opponents is certainly a demagogue and a designing politician, as distinguished from a statesman, and is not worthy of the vote or confidence of the people.

In this campaign Mr. Burkett has issued at least seven circulars—five for himself, and one each against Mr. Starr and Mr. Pearson.

We quote from one of Mr. Burkett's circulars as follows:

"I have sponsored and was co-author of the following: * * * Reduction of our State Tax Rate 30 cents on the $100 valuation."

Why this deception? The Legislature has nothing whatever to do with raising or lowering the state tax rate. This function is performed exclusively by the State Automatic Tax Board composed of the Governor, Treasurer, and Comptroller. This circular is both misleading and untrue. Also, in the same circular Mr. Burkett says he was "co-author" of a long list of bills, naming them. The "House Journal" is the official record of the House of Representatives and shows the authors of all bills introduced in the House. A copy of the Journal is available in the County Judge's office, and the Journal does not show that Mr. Burkett was "co-author" of any of the bills mentioned in his circular. Again we ask, "Why this deception?"

Mr. Burkett has already served three terms—six years—in the Legislature, and is not the sole author of a single piece of constructive legislation. In the last session of the Legislature he introduced seven bills and not one of the seven was enacted into law.

Also, Mr. Burkett's position on House Bill 9 is of interest to the people of the District. H. B. 9 is generally referred to as the bill which sets a "ceiling" on old age assistance, limiting the amount that can be expended for pensions. Mr. Burkett signed H. B. 9 and voted for it twice. However, on final passage Mr. Burkett absented himself without excuse and did not vote on the bill. Only five Representatives voted against H. B. 9 on final passage and Mr. Burkett is not listed among the five. Mr. Burkett is now going over the District telling the old people that he did not vote for the "ceiling" on pensions contained in H. B. 9. The facts are Mr. Burkett supported H. B. 9 up until the final roll call and then went A. W. O. L. (House Journal, page 2745) Any Representative who would attempt to mislead his constituents—especially the aged and uninformed—is not worthy of re-election.

Also, in his circulars Mr. Burkett claims he sponsored legislation aiding the teaching profession and public schools, yet he voted against House Bill 176 entitled "An Act Providing For a More Efficient Public School System in Texas," and further providing for an increased base pay for teachers. (House Journal, page 2840-41). Again we ask, "Why this deception?"

This character of campaign is the main reason many good business men will not offer for public office.

In the First Primary Mr. Starr was eliminated, leaving the run-off between Mr. Pearson and Mr. Burkett. Mr. Pearson is not a politician and has never before offered himself for public office, while Mr. Burkett has been on the State payroll for approximately twenty years.

Mr. Pearson's published platform is sound and constructive. (Continued on page three)

SGT. GONZALES IS KILLED IN WAR IN FRANCE

Mrs. Rosa R. Martinez has been notified by the War Department that her son Sgt. Fred R. Gonzales has been killed while serving in the armed forces in defense of his country in the war in France. Details were not given but the message stated that a letter of information followed.

Sgt. Gonzales had been in service since May 5, 1942 and had received training at Camp Walters, Camp Claiborne, La., Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio and at Camp McCoy, Wisconsin from where he was sent to the port of embarkation for foreign service.

The young soldier who had celebrated his thirty-second birthday on the battle front in France, July 2, was born and reared at Thurber. One brother, Pfc. Joe R. Martinez, is serving with the armed forces in Italy, and two others, Cpl. Charlie R. Martinez and Pfc. Martinez are with the armed forces, the former at Panama City, Florida and the latter who has just left for service is somewhere at an induction center.

Military Rites For Soldier At Carbon Tuesday

Funeral services were held at the Baptist church in Carbon Tuesday afternoon for Rex Mangum, 25, of the United States Army Air Corps, who was killed at Salina, Kansas, Saturday, July 23, in line of duty. Rev. Usery, Clemente and Martin officiated. Hanner's of Eastland and Carbon was in charge. Interment was in the Carbon cemetery. A full military funeral was conducted by soldiers from Camp Berkeley, Abilene.

Survivors include the wife, the former Charley Faye Harlow of Eastland, and a 5-months old son and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mangum of Carbon.

Rear Admiral Predicts Naval Activities Will Continue

HOUSTON, Tex. (UP)—A continuation of Naval activities in Houston for many months was predicted by Rear Adm. Percy W. Foote.

He said the diversified nature of industries in this area are furnishing the Navy with vital supplies.

Foote is inspector of Naval Material for the Houston area.

PFC. HENSON WOUNDED IN WAR IN FRANCE

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Henson received word from the War Department Saturday morning that their son, Pfc. Samuel E. Henson, has been missing in action in France since July 16, while he was serving there with the infantry of the 75th Division.

Pfc. Henson entered the service of the United States Army on February 5, 1942 and had been sent to England in May of this year. He received his military training at Camp Wolters, Camp Butler, N. C., Camp Stribby in Tennessee and in camps in Pennsylvania and New York.

He was born in Ranger June 19, 1921 and was educated in the Ranger schools. He was a student at the time he enlisted in the service.

Two other families received official notice Saturday morning that members of their families were wounded in action. Mrs. E. J. Noth was notified that her husband, Pfc. E. J. Noth had been wounded in action on June 17 in France. She previously had been notified of this fact through a letter from a friend of her husband.

Mrs. Carl T. Casid also received the official notification of the fact that her husband had been seriously wounded in action in France. She, too, had word from other sources notifying her of her husband's wounds.

Five From Ranger Awarded Combat Infantry Badges

WITH THE FIFTH ARMY in Italy—First Sergeant Aaron T. Peanba, son of Mr. William G. Peanba, who lives at 709 McClellan Avenue, Ranger, Texas; Technical Sergeant Clarence J. Simpson, son of Mrs. Annie Paul, who lives on Route 2, Ranger, Texas; Staff Sergeant Ray I. Adkins, son of Mrs. Laura Adkins, who lives in Ranger, Texas; Staff Sergeant Leroy Jacob, son of Mrs. Margaret Jacob, who lives in Ranger, Texas, and Sergeant Robert C. Carpenter, son of Mrs. Bertie A. Carpenter, who lives in Ranger, Texas, have been cited by their regiment of the 36th "Texas" Infantry Division and awarded the Combat Infantryman's Badge for actual participation in contact with the enemy while serving on the Fifth Army Front in Italy.

Standards for the badge are high. The decoration, which was recently authorized by the War Department, is awarded to the infantry soldier who has proved his fighting ability in combat. The handsome badge consists of a silver rifle set against a background of infantry blue enclosed in a silver wreath.

Troops Speed To Scene Of Transit Company Strike

PHILADELPHIA, (UP)—Fourteen jeeps and three army trucks, loaded with troops in full battle dress, sped into Philadelphia this afternoon and headed for mid-city as the city's rapid transit strikers continued their defiance of the army to return to work.

Meanwhile, in Washington, Attorney General Frances Biddle ordered a grand jury investigation to see if there had been violations of any Federal statute.

47 Killed, 37 Injured In Crash

VALDOSTA, Georgia (UP)—At least 47 persons were killed and 37 injured in a train wreck on the Atlantic Coast Line today near Stockton, Ga. Most of the casualties were Negro members of a work gang riding in a section which was derailed and thrown against a freight.

Clyde Garrett Answers Charges Of CIO Support

EASTLAND, Tex., Aug. 6.—Armed by charges that he is a candidate of the CIO and that the CIO Political Action Committee sponsored a series of billboard advertisements of his candidacy in the first primary and is sending "large sums" of money into the district to support him, Clyde Garrett, seeking election to Congress from the Seventeenth District, this week branded such charges as politically inspired falsehoods. He bluntly declared he had never received any such contributions, never solicited them and would not accept them if offered.

He stated that the facts about the "CIO" billboard advertisements would be placed before the people of the district through the newspapers within the coming week.

"I had hoped," said Garrett, "that the campaign would be conducted upon a plane of dignity consistent with the importance of the office. But since it has been directly reported to me that my opponent, in a speech at Stephenville and at other times and places over the district, charged that billboard advertising in my behalf had been paid for by the CIO Political Action Committee and that 'large sums' of money were being sent into the district to elect me, I cannot, in justice to my friends and neighbors who are supporting me, and to myself, refrain from stating this falsehood and showing up such tactics for what they are. It shows clearly that we must be on guard against unscrupulous 'politicians' which will resort to vilification and misrepresentation. I am compelled to believe that my opponent is afraid of his record."

The facts as we shall present them are clear and irrefutable. Those who are responsible for these charges will have to do some explaining to the people of this district. We have nothing to hide. I do not need to slip through any side doors to go outside the district for support. My friends who contributed to my campaign with out any solicitation on my part, feel that these charges are not only an attack on me but a personal affront to themselves who, as American citizens and legitimate voters are only exercising their right to support a man of their choice.

"The facts will appear in the papers of the district during the next week. Watch for them!"

Breckenridge Farm Loan Ass'n Meets Saturday

The annual stockholders meeting of the Breckenridge National Farm Loan Association was held in Breckenridge Saturday beginning at 10 o'clock Saturday morning at the Y.M.C.A.

All directors of the association were re-elected and are as follows: W. R. Usery, George D. Dickie, T. C. Hefner, Jess W. Reynolds and Leslie H. Hagaman. Dickie was elected president to replace Usery and Reynolds was chosen vice-president, replacing Dickie. Claude Strickland was elected secretary - treasurer and Miss Melba Wood was named assistant to the secretary.

The meeting was attended by about sixty men and their wives from Eastland, Stephens, Shackelford and south Threefork counties. Sterling C. Adams, president of the Federal Land Bank at Houston spoke on the history, aims and policies of the bank. Mr. Jones with the soil conservation office at Albany spoke on the work being done by that organization.

In the report of the secretary it was revealed that loans are being paid at a much greater rate than they are being made and the financial report was regarded as an excellent revelation of the trend of the times.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hagaman were both present for the meeting and for the complimentary luncheon which was served at noon.

Home-To-Work Drivers To Get No B, C Coupons

War Price and Rationing Boards have been instructed, after August 1 to refuse all gasoline rations to holders of B and C cards who use their cars for home-to-work driving and cannot show that they belong to a car pool and are regularly carrying a full car load.

The only exception to this rule are those persons who use their car during the day for business purposes, such as a physician, or those who can show they have made every effort to secure riders.

Growing concern over the breakdown of motor transportation as well as the scarcity of gasoline is the reason for the stringent action, the chairman reported. "Today, we have less than 23,000,000 cars on the road, and about 4,000 of these leave the roads every day. When we get down to 20,000,000, a serious breakdown in essential transportation is inevitable. Enforced car sharing is the only answer."

"After August 1, if a car owner doesn't belong to a car pool, he will get only enough gasoline rations for thirty days of home-to-work driving, instead of the usual three month's rations he has been receiving. And he won't get his supplemental rations until he can prove to the board that he has obtained sufficient passengers to fill his car. In view of the critical situation with regard to cars, parts, gasoline and tires, there are just too many cars going back and forth to work daily, half filled."

WE'RE IN THE ARMY NOW!

Yes, pharmacy has gone to war! With a stroke of his pen, President Roosevelt created the PHARMACY CORPS as a permanent part of the Army... a corps on equal par with the Medical Corps... a corps which shall fight vigorously, unstintingly and unselfishly as the co-partner of the Medical Corps. We have had years of experience in this partnership on the homefront. We are proud of this new recognition and shall continue to hold high the integrity of our profession... here and abroad!
