SIXTH BOND DRIVE OPENS MONDAY; SHOW COMING DEC. 3

The Sixth War Loan Drive opens over the nation Monday morning November 20 and in preparation for the drive county chairmen were called to Eastland Friday for a meeting with Cyrus B. Frost, county war finance chairman. W. F. Crager, Ranger chairman, represented Ranger at the meeting.

At the meeting plans for the drive were made and it was stated that town quotas will be announced the first of the week, through it is known that they will be in proportion to those of the last drive.

The state quota is $414,000,000 and Eastland county's quota is $645,000 as compared with $725,000 in the Fifth War Loan drive.

Quotas for the towns will be assessed in proportion to the total with a slight decrease as indicated by the drop in the county quota.

Plans for the drive in Ranger all for a GI Bond Jamboree to be held in Ranger at the Arcadia theater, Sunday, December 3 at 2 p. m. The show will be made up of Army talent and will be headed by a military band from the Abilene Army Air Field. Harley Sader and Jimmy Allard will be the liveliest speakers on the program and three World War II veterans will appear on the program.

Following is the outline of the program:
Cpl. George Davis, Songs and master of ceremonies; Pfc. Len Hanley, Piano selections; Pfc. Ben Alex, violin selections; Cpl. Angelo Pasquarrelli, accordion selections; Waco Pvt. Betty Angelle, featured soloist; Comedy featuring T-Sgt. Leo Shores, Pfc. Elmer James, Sgt. Everett Dallas, and Cpl. George Davis.

Personnel of the band and the instruments they play are as follows:
Sgt. Curtis W. Martin of Coer D'lene, Ida., sax and clarinet; Cpl. Don Pasquarrelli of Greenrich Conn., sax and clarinet; Cpl. Richard N. Giger, of Seattle, Wash., sax and clarinet; Pfc. Joe Baker, of Detroit, Mich., sax, and clarinet; Cpl. Angelo Pasquarrelli, of Greenrich, Conn., accordion; S-Sgt. (Footie) James of Coer D'lene, Ida., trumpet; Pfc. Elmer James, of Coer D'lene, trumpet; Sgt. Sam Morton, of Spokane, Wash., trumpet; Sgt. Joe Weaver, of Spokane, Wash., trombone; Sgt. Harley Reckord of Spokane, Wash., drums; Sgt. Everette Dallas, of Spokane, Wash., bass violin; Leonard Stanley of Detroit, Mich., piano; Pfc. Jim Baker, of Detroit, Mich., arranger and conductor; Cpl. Robert Ball of Spokane, Wash., trombone.

Of the music-makers the public relations officer at the Air Field has the following to say:
The sets of brothers keep the 90th AAF Band clock groggy when it comes to rosters. And to add to the general confusion, the lakers (Jim and Joe) are identical twins. Jim's "sister" was a single at one time and now sticks to her "arranging" and his numbers will be featured on the program, although he doesn't play with them band regularly. Violinist Pfc. Ben Alex is one of the most respected members of the military aggregation. Ben doubles on the sax. Emcee George Davis plays a sax when he isn't doubling as master of ceremonies. George's first band appearance was "way back then."

LT. DAVENPORT TELLS OF LIFE IN PHILIPPINES

First Lt. Norman Davenport who was in the invasion of the Philippines and who is now stationed on one of the islands, presumably Leyte, has written his mother, Mrs. Lottie Davenport, some interesting letters about his activities, and one is published here because of the interest it holds.

Lt. Davenport is serving with the First Cavalry and since being sent to the Pacific has been stationed in Australia and the Admiralty Islands and participated in the battle for Los Negros Islands. Before going overseas he received training at Ft. Knox, Ky., Ft. Sill, Oklahoma, and Fort Bliss Texas.

Following is his letter:
Philippines Islands
28 October, 44

Dear Mom,
Hope you haven't worried too much about my not writing sooner. I couldn't as you can well realize. No lights here at night, because there's always that Betty waiting to lay an egg.

All during the day I always have more to do than I can do from road building to vehicle rebuilding and observing. I have been lucky so far. No difference up front or back of lines. Here the bombs keep us awake and on the lines, infiltration does the job. It's six of one and half dozen of the other.

I'm not busy this afternoon, so I'm going to try to get a nice sleep in. P-38's keep them from coming in during the day now. I watched the Navy Hell Cats have a field day not long ago. They were knocking "Zekes, Nates, Battys and Sallies down like flies. That's what I like. These Japs are peculiar, you shoot them down in flames and unless the pilot is killed he'll crash into anything that he can damage.

The natives are a pain in the neck. This is a very thickly populated island and they are always around in the way waiting for something. Feed one today and tomorrow he returns with his family and all of his relatives. They have been given plenty by the C. A. so they should leave us alone.

Am enclosing a five peso in-voiced Japanese note. Mom, sweet, no need to tell you not to worry, but not too much. For I am going to be ok. Keep your chin up.

Going to hit the sack. Bye now. I Love you,
Norman.

Lloyd M. Bailey Expected Home By First of Year

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bailey have received word that their son, Lloyd M. Bailey, chief motor mechanic mate with the United States Navy, will arrive in the States in time to be in Ranger by the New Year.

Chief Bailey entered the service of the Navy in March 1942 and received training at San Diego before being assigned to a ship in August of 1942. He took part in the invasion of North Africa in October 1943, and was then transferred to the Pacific where he has served since. He received his present rating in June 1944.

While in Australia Chief Bailey met and married an Australian girl who will come to the States just as soon as her passage can be arranged. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey have received several letters from her and she expresses her eagerness to come to this country.

Another son of Mr. and Mrs. Bailey, Pvt. Norman W. Bailey, is now serving with the 79th Division in France.

Window Display Emphasizes Sixth War Loan Drive

If a mill's, Incorporated, Saturday caught the spirit of the Sixth War Loan drive which is to open Monday morning and both display windows at the store are devoted to the War Loan theme.

Red Cross nurses holding War Bonds, waving flags and pictures of servicemen carry out the emphasis of the drive. Sixth War Loan posters line the background walls of the window.
The attractive display will remain during the Sixth drive and Mrs. Fred Yonker, manager of the store, has asked that more pictures of servicemen be brought to the store for display in the windows. She explained that it was impossible to contact all families of service men but that they want more pictures and all pictures will be returned to families after the display is closed.

Gifts Drive For War Veterans Gets Underway

The "Christmas Gifts for Yanks Who Gave" campaign got underway the latter part of the week and Max Star and Mrs. Con Hazard, chairman of the campaign which is being sponsored by the American Legion and Legion Auxiliary announced that Jim Davis and Dewey Cox both have already given packages for the veterans of World War II who are in hospitals in Texas.

There is a wide range of gifts from which to select and such items as books, toilet articles, various articles of clothing, games and dozens of others have been suggested as possible selections.

Anyone who wishes information on the subject can contact Mrs. Con Hazard at 249-J. People are urged to act on this matter at once as the time for collection of the gifts is so limited. They must be collected early in order to be delivered to the veterans by Christmas.

The campaign is designed to see that every World War II veteran in hospitals in Texas receives a gift from this campaign and the American Legion of Texas is sponsoring the drive through local chapters.

This is a custom which has been adopted by the Ministerial Alliance and is a courtesy which is extended to incoming ministers of all churches.

RANGER LOSES GAME FRIDAY BY 6-0 SCORE

In one of the toughest games of the season the Ranger Bulldogs took a beating from the Stephenville Yellow Jackets in a game played at Stephenville, Friday night.

The Bulldogs went into the game badly crippled and the fact that the game was played on a rain soaked field didn't improve the situation any. The few remaining uninjured Bulldogs who went into the game came out with injuries, though Coach Don Martin stated Saturday that he expects his men to be in better shape for the Weatherford game than they were for the Stephenville game.

In speaking of the game Coach Martin stated that he was really proud of the fight the boys put up Friday night. "Those boys fought hard all through the game in spite of their injuries and they outplayed the Jackets in the second half," stated Coach Martin.
As it now stands Ranger, Weatherford and Stephenville are tied for third place in the district. If Stephenville is defeated in their game this week and Ranger defeats Weatherford then Ranger will come out third in the district.

Dallas Man Hurt In Accident Near Ranger Saturday

A. L. Hines of Dallas is in the West Texas Hospital suffering with a broken pelvis bone received in an accident about 4 a. m. Saturday morning.

NAZI RESISTANCE NEAR AACHEN SHOWS SIGNS OF CRACKING; DIVE BOMBERS ATTACK FRONT, REAR

Remnants of Trapped Japanese Regiment Facing Annihilation of Leyte as American 24th Division Closes Trap

PARIS (UP)—American Third Army forces crashed into Metz proper today while two United States armies slugged toward the Rhine on a broad front near Aachen where German resistance showed signs of cracking under the heaviest sustained artillery bombardment of the war.

German communications centers and numerous small towns in the Hurtgen forest area were in ruins as a result of an all night pounding by our big guns, including eight-inchers and two-forties.
Today was a comparatively clear day, and with the first light, Allied dive bombers attacked the German positions, front and rear, to start a sky parade still going hours later.

Hearings On All American Bus Lines To Be Held

The Railroad Commission will hold local hearings on an application to render additional bus service, these hearings to start on November 21 at Gainesville, and in succession at that point, Breckenridge, Eastland, Abilene, Midland, Pecos, El Paso and Fort Worth respectively.

These hearings are on an application of the All American Bus Lines, which have filed application for interstate rights over their route in the State of Texas.
This line started operating in September, 1935, and they operate from New York City to San Francisco and pass through the state of Texas over highway 77 and highway 80, entering the state at the Oklahoma state line north of Gainesville, and leaving Texas at the state line at Anthony, New Mexico.

The application not only includes the present route they are using, but also includes the new highway 80 from west of Weatherford through Ranger, Eastland, and Cisco into Abilene.

The All American Bus Lines, which started with one schedule a day with small buses, now operate the latest type of equipment and at the present time are operating a minimum of four cars each way daily and they will operate more cars if the local permit is granted. This line has already obtained the rights to carry local business in the states of Missouri and Oklahoma.

The application not only includes the present route they are using, but also includes the new highway 80 from west of Weatherford through Ranger, Eastland, and Cisco into Abilene.

The All American Bus Lines in the last few years have become one of the larger operators of buses, and is the only independent bus line which operates from coast to coast, and in fact, the only bus line the only bus line which operates from coast to coast through the State of Texas and do a large business, not only from points along their line, such as Dallas, Ft. Worth, Breckenridge, Abilene, Sweetwater, Big Spring, Midland, Odessa, Monahans, Pecos, Van Horn, and El Paso, but also with other lines operating to outlying points, such as Wichita Falls, San Antonio, and Houston. They have just recently purchased property at Dallas and El Paso where they have erected up to date terminals with all facilities for the traveling public, and if successful in obtaining local rights, will no doubt establish stations of their own at all large points.

After operating for over nine years over the highways of Texas and paying taxes as are assessed on other lines who are able to do local business, they feel they are just as much entitled to take care of the travelling public who desire to travel between points in Texas where they operate as any other carrier; and they claim to be in a position to afford people who are now experiencing trouble in obtaining accommodations, transportation that is badly needed.

TO GIVE MASTER'S DEGREE

It was announced Saturday that a Master's Degree will be given at the Masonic Lodge Monday evening at 8 o'clock. All Masons are urged to attend.

J. Frank Dobie In Limelight Of Investigation

AUSTIN, Tex. (UP)—J. Frank Dobie, author professor combination of the University of Texas, was holding the limelight today in the state senate inquiry into University affairs.

Returning from a year of lecturing at Cambridge University in England, Dobie came out with a demand that Gov. Coke B. Stevenson fire the regents who had fired University Pres. Homer P. Rainey.

Regent Orville Ballington of Wichita Falls characterized Dobie as a "drugstore cowboy," adding that the professor was a "story teller" and lived in a different world.

Regent D. E. Strickland of Mission told the committee that $17,500 a year was too much to pay Rainey to be a "traveling man." Strickland implied that Rainey was removed by the regents because they had "reached the end of the rope."

LONDON (UP)—About 400 American fighter planes swarmed across southwestern Germany today, shooting up 4 concentrations of railway oil tank cars around Munich, Ulm and Hannau.

Hungary in preparation for the main assault on Budapest. The Russians were within striking distance of the communications points of Hatvan, Gyongyos, Eger and Miskolc.

The British Eighth Army in Italy drove against stiff German opposition to within four miles of Faenza on the Rimini-Bologna highway. Another column captured Monte Fortino, six miles west of Forli.

Remnants of a trapped Japanese regiment once estimated at 3,000 men faced imminent annihilation on northwest Leyte as the American 24th division drove a deep wedge into the pocket at Lison.

The Japs were repulsed "bloodily" in three attempts to force road blocks and get supplies to the trapped force.

American forces on Bras in the Mapia islands mopped up the southern half of the island.
Gen. MacArthur's bombers and fighters were active through the Philippines.

Liberator bombers of the 14th Air Force in China sank two freighters and probably sank another in raids off the China coast.

Says Glue Can Be Used To Clean Woolen Garments

It isn't generally known, but glue can be used for cleaning soiled woolen garments. You can use any good glue.

Before applying the glue, be sure to take out any grease spots with a cleaning fluid. Then follow these directions. They come from Lema Faye Hearn, Assistant County Home Demonstration Agent.

Place the garment on a piece of wrapping paper and trace around it. That way you'll know how to shape it as it dries. Next make a glue and water solution sufficient to cover the garment.

CAT OUTLIVES 9 LIVES

FORT WORTH, Tex. (UP)—According to the veterinarians, Old Tom, the patriarch of Fort Worth cats, should have died about 18 years ago.

Production in units now will level off at approximately 7,500 a month, with increased weight of aircraft produced, the only true yard stick, due to the emphasis on heavy bombers and new and still secret craft in the offing.

Another criterion shows General Arnold's figures are not out of line, the magazine says. "The 1944 monthly production rate, despite the fact unit output is not up to schedules of several months ago, will give a 1944 total approaching 100,000."

DISCOVERY OF OIL BY RIO GRANDE NADE LAREDO ONE OF TEXAS' OIL CENTERS

Editor's Note—Another in the Texas oil romance series linked with the 25th anniversary of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association.

O. W. Killam, "the grand old man of South Texas oil," is as famed for his highly individual style of humor as he is for the fact that he discovered oil down by the Rio Grande and followed that discovery with a flock of fields, with the result that Laredo is one of the oil centers of Texas.

When Killam began his quest for petroleum, the nearest production was 50 miles away and he knew that he drilled "against all geological advice and without rhyme or reason." But oil, like gold, is where you find it and O. W. Killam found it.

A dwindling supply of coal had a decisive part in his history-making discovery—but let's not get ahead of our story.

When Killam was a lad, his mother used to tell him that America was a land of such wonderful opportunity that a man could accomplish anything that he set his heart on doing.

And so the youth made up his mind that he would make a million dollars. He was a little vague as to just how he would achieve this goal, but at about that time, the newspapers and magazines were publishing pictures and articles about the first crop of millionaires from oil, so he decided he would make a fortune out of the ground.

Born in Lincoln County, Missouri, on a farm in 1874, Killam was graduated from the University of Missouri School of Law in 1898. He became active in the mining business in his native state acquiring small zinc and lead mines near Joplin. Then he ran a lumberyard and mercantile business in Oklahoma (at that time a territory) and he laid out the town of Locust Grove, when a railroad was building through.

Oklahoma was admitted to statehood and Killam entered politics, serving in the House of Representatives from 1910 to 1914 and in the Oklahoma Senate the next four years, with Elmer Thomas, now United States Senator. Killam also came to know 'Alfalfa Bill' Murray, later governor, for whose knowledge of governments, ancient and modern, Killam has great admiration. He also met and became a good friend of Will Rogers.

And this brings us down to the winter of 1909—and that million-dollars still seemed a long way off. That winter, former Governor Renfro of territory days and Killam visited Laredo. Killam liked the city and section in general, so he decided to move there. Natural gas had been found near Laredo some years before and a ranchman, in drilling for water, had struck a show of oil. And so the newcomer decided to try to discover an oil field.

It would be difficult to find a more picturesque city for a base of operations than Laredo, "the gateway to Mexico." Oddly enough the writer of these lines visited that city almost exactly the same time that Killam first went there and this chronicler vividly recalls that, on alighting from the L. & G. N. train, he thought he had found what happened to most of the backs over the United States that had been displaced by taxis, for a line of frayed-carriages, drawn by sad nags, and with at least 25 shouting Latin-American drivers greeted the traveler.

Streets were not paved but there were stepping stones at these intersections and drivers of carriages and flivvers would stop and permit the pedestrian to cross first, thus escaping a spattering of mud and water.

There were more signs in Spanish than in English and you heard Spanish on all sides, even from the policemen and the motorman. (Incidentally the first electric street cars west of the Mississippi were in Laredo. A soda dispenser, after filling your order (which you had given in English, of course) would thank you and then resume his conversation with friends in Spanish.

Broad-leaved banana plants, exotic blooms and orange trees adorned the yards and one saw almost insuperable senoritas with dark eyes, crimson lips and deep-black hair.

Nearby, rolled the Rio Grande—that capricious stream, sometimes a shallow trickle and sometimes a raging flood—and on the other side was Nuevo Laredo, Mexico.

Yes, Laredo was picturesque back in the closing days of 1909 when O. W. Killam decided to there were stepping stones at these intersections and drivers of car-

INVEST IN THE NEXT RAID ON JAPAN!

IT TAKES PLENTY OF WAR BONDS TO BUILD B-29s

THE WAR in the Pacific is the most costly war America has ever engaged in. It's simple arithmetic. A mountain of special, costly equipment is needed. A B-29 Superfortress used in the bombing of Japan costs $600,000 in War Bonds. And this is just one of the many extra costly implements of war needed to achieve final victory in the Pacific. That's why the 6th War Loan Drive is so important. That's why you must back it as generously as you have every other war loan drive. Invest in the next raid on Japan...

They started it!

LET'S FINISH IT!

BACK THE 6TH WAR LOAN ... AND HELP DEFEAT JAPAN!

REMEMBER the gaping holds of ships sunk without warning at Pearl Harbor? Remember, too, the men killed during the infamous sneak attack? This is the fight that Japan started ... the fight that we're out to finish!

Don't fool yourself, the Japs are tough. It will take long, bitter, costly fighting to blast them out. It will take new and specialized equipment. B-29 Superfortresses ... amphibious tanks ... airplane carriers ... P-47 Thunderbolts and new secret weapons. And a veritable Niagara of oil and gasoline!

Your War Bonds helped train and feed and equip the American armies that smashed through at St. Lo ... Nancy ... Sedan. Yes ... your War Bonds are helping to win the Battle of Europe. But now how about the Battle of Japan?

The job is big—you've got to dig!
It costs billions of dollars a month to fight the Battle of Japan. The money must come from every patriotic American. It's an investment in America—your future. That's why you are asked once again—in this great battle for final Victory—to buy your extra $100 bond today.

And here are 6 more reasons for buying at least an extra $100 WAR BOND in the 6th!

1. War Bonds are the best, the safest investment in the world!
2. War Bonds return you $4 for every $3 at maturity.
3. War Bonds are as convenient as cash—and increase in value to boot!
4. War Bonds mean education for your children, security for you.
5. War Bonds help keep down the cost-of-living.
6. War Bonds will help win the Peace by increasing postwar purchasing power.

Buy War Bonds

Last week I nearly went A.W.O.L.

LAST PAYDAY I planned to be Absent Without Official Leave—from the place where I usually buy my War Bonds. I was going to blow myself to some swell new clothes.

While I was checking to see if my nose was shiny, my mirror barked at me like a top sergeant. "Hey you! Don't you know a soldier can be shot for going A.W.O.L.?"

"Now look," I said to me, "I'm not a soldier, and besides, a gal can't go around naked, can she? Anyway, I'm entitled to some fun, war or no war."

My mirror came right back at me. "You know darn well," it said, "that we're all soldiers—and 'till the fighting stops, and men are no longer getting killed, don't you stop buying War Bonds! As for fun, sure you're entitled to some—if you earn it."

"That means extra sacrifices—going without things, and I don't mean War Bonds!" "OK, Sarge," I said, "you win. I can just make it to that War Bond place. I'll get those clothes later."

The way my mirror made me look, you'd think I was wearing a mink coat!

Bible Reading Proclamation

Whereas fresh evidence comes daily of the strength, courage, and comfort found in the Scriptures by the men and women of our armed forces; and

Whereas reading the Bible will not only bring faith, hope, and courage to millions of people now disturbed by doubt, uncertainty, and fear, but such a widespread, thoughtful reading of the Scriptures will effectively repair the moral character and spiritual ideals which form the necessary foundation for an enduring Democracy; and

Whereas it behooves us at home to keep faith with those on the fighting fronts by a steadily increasing devotion to the sacred truths and principles upon which this Nation was founded:

Therefore, be it Resolved by the Mayor of the City of Ranger, Texas, that the period from November 23 to Christmas, 1944, be especially designated for Community-Wide Bible Reading, in order that "In God We Trust" as an expression of our national life may hold new and vital meaning for all our citizens.

J. J. KELLY, Mayor, City of Ranger

Mayor, Ministers Endorse Bible Reading Program

By Mildred I. Baker, Educational Director, First Baptist Church

The American Bible Society together with sponsoring committees, which include the presiding officers of thirty-two dominions, is sponsoring a "Nationwide Bible Reading" program from November 23 to Christmas. The Ministerial Alliance of Ranger heartily endorsed the plan, and the Mayor of the city has made a Bible Reading Proclamation in keeping with this program.

This is a plan for every American to read the Bible daily at this season—November 23 to Christmas. Those on the battle fronts and their families and friends at home will be reading the same passage each day. Thus a spiritual bond will be established which knows no limit of distance. The message of the Bible is to all peoples at all times, but it is especially vital in these times. The passages which have been selected as most helpful in times like Christmas, Dec. 25 Luke 2.

these have been chosen by a canvass of more than 100,000 pastors and 6,000 chaplains. Articles about Bible reading written by several of the pastors will appear in the Ranger Times between now and November 23.

We urge all the residents of the city of Ranger to read the following passages of scripture on the days designated:

Thursday, Nov. 23, Psalm 103; Friday, John 4; Saturday Psalm 23; Sunday, November 26, Psalm 1; Monday, Matthew 5; Tuesday, Romans 8; Wednesday, I Corinthians 13; Thursday, Psalm 91; Friday, Matthew 6.

Saturday, John 3; Sunday, December 3, Isaiah 40; Monday, Psalm 46; Tuesday, Romans 12; Wednesday, Hebrews 11; Thursday, Matthew 7; Friday, John 15; Saturday Psalm 27; Sunday, December 10, Isaiah 55; Monday, Psalm 121; Tuesday, Philippians 4; Wednesday, Revelation 21; Thursday, Luke 15; Friday, Ephesians 6; Saturday, John 17; Sunday, December 17, Isaiah 53.

Monday, I Corinthians 15; Tuesday John 10; Wednesday Psalm 51; Thursday Psalm 37; Friday John 1; Saturday Revelation 22; Sunday, December 24, Psalm 90; Christmas, Dec. 25 Luke 2.

Montgomery Ward

Welcome him when he knocks at your door

THE 6th WAR LOAN STARTS NEXT WEEK

Within the next few weeks in every city, town and hamlet, men and women will be knocking on the doors of American homes. They come in the name of your fighting men, giving their time to take your subscriptions for extra War Bonds.

Welcome them as though they were actual soldiers from the foxholes of the Pacific. Your boys know what cooperation means during a battle—with them, it's a matter of life or death, victory or defeat. Think of this when a volunteer worker knocks on your door. Double your Bond buying during this drive. Buy at least one extra $100 Bond. Then buy another and another. It's going to take a lot of Bonds to meet the goal of $14,000,000,000.

Remember that the Japs are firmly united against us. They have 73 million people at home plus many of the 400 million enslaved people in conquered territories working to prolong this war. Japanese industry is strong and modern, and they have the supplies to carry on a long war unless we stop them.

And remember, when you buy a Bond during this drive, you're backing the boys fighting into the heart of the Nipponese strongholds. Buy Bonds with a grateful heart out of an open pocketbook.

TAKE YOUR CHOICE!

The "basket" of securities to be sold under the direction of the State War Finance Committee is especially designed to fit individual investment needs. It consists of eight issues:

- Series E, F and G Savings Bonds.
- Series C Savings Notes.
- 2½% Bonds of 1966-71.
- 2% Bonds of 1952-54.
- 1¼% Notes of 1947.
- 7½% Certificates of Indebtedness.

Brothers in Army Have Same Work

BONHAM, Tex., (UP)—It isn't unusual for brothers to be in the same line of work back in the home town, but when they join the Army and end up with the same "vocations," that's different. Cpt. Ernest Young and Pfc. Jessie Young of Bonham are members of the top post office unit of the American Air Forces in the European War Theater. Both have the same type of duties—to get the mail to the service men promptly and see that it gets to the folk at home the same way.
