FORMER POW NOW LISTED AS KILLED

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Craig of Eastland have been notified by the war department that their son Cpl. Kermit E. Craig, who had been a prisoner of the Japs since the fall of Corregidor, has been killed and is now listed as a casualty.

The message stated that it had been determined that he was killed in the sinking of a prison ship on October 24, 1944.

When war was declared he was on his way home from Shanghai, China, but was sent to Corregidor and fought in that campaign until the fall of the island in May 1942. The parents received only two cards from Cpl. Craig while he was a prisoner.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig have three other sons in the service. Staff Sgt. Barbee Craig who is serving with the 24th Division in the Philippines, Talmadge Craig, electrician mate third class, who is serving aboard a destroyer in the Pacific and the youngest son, Pvt. Quillman Craig who is at a replacement depot in California.

Cpl. Craig is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. D. D. Franklin and Miss Darphurn Craig both of Eastland.

Sgt. Franklin Back In States From Pacific War

Mrs. Ruth Franklin of Ranger received word Monday that her husband, Sgt. Maurice Franklin has landed in the United States from Pacific service and is expected in Ranger shortly.

Sgt. Franklin who recently was taken from Army service and put aboard ship as a radio operator for the Navy landed in Seattle, Washington, Monday after 27 months of service in the Pacific. His most recent station in the Pacific was at Manila.

A brother, Staff Sgt. Eugene Franklin who was with the 36th Division in the European theatre of operations has just recently returned to the States and has received his honorable discharge under the point system. He holds the Purple Heart for wounds received on September 9, 1943 in the invasion of Italy.

They are the sons of Mrs. Ed Lee of Route 1, Ranger.

EXPANSION OF AIRPORT NOW IN PROGRESS

Ranger's Airport is undergoing a face lifting and expansion program and work is now well underway.

C. C. McKeever, in charge of the port, stated today that the size of the hangar is being doubled and the frame work for the extension is already partially completed.

In addition to the ten planes now at the airport, McKeever stated that either today or tomorrow he will bring in a twin motored Cessna to be reconditioned for sale.

McKeever also stated that the expansion program was necessitated by the increase in business at the port. In fact, the business has been so increased that sufficient help has not been available and McKeever now plans to take in and train women that can handle parts of the work.

Kenneth R. Cole

Pacific Veteran Of 18 Months Has 3 Bronze Stars

Kenneth R. Cole, Mo. M. M. third class of the United States Navy, here for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cole has spent the past 18 months in the Pacific where he was serving on a seaplane tender.

Holder of three Bronze Stars for the campaigns for Guam, Palau and the Philippines Islands, he says that he has covered a large part of the Pacific during his period of combat duty. For a short while he was shore based in Northern Luzon where he was with the Naval Air Facility, a unit whose duties were to keep the Naval planes flying. He enlisted in the service on December 8, 1943 and in January 1944 was sent to the Pacific where he was first based at Guadalcanal.

Aside from the other medals, his unit holds the presidential citation.

While at Guadalcanal he had a visit with his brother, Major William R. Cole who is now in the Philippines. Another brother, Sgt. Houston Cole is with the Air Corps stationed on Tinian in the Marianas and another brother, R. V. Cole, was recently honorably discharged from the Navy, having previously served in the Marine Corps and during which time he was wounded in action.

Jap's Last Grip On Borneo's Oil Is Threatened

MANILA (UP) — Japan's last grip on Borneo's vital oil was threatened today as Gen. MacArthur announced Dutch Amphibious Forces had made two new landings on the north shore of Balikpapan Bay while Australian troops were wiping out trapped defenders of the great Pandanari refineries.

The Dutch fighters landed on Telokbang and Kariango peninsulas to complete encirclement of the lower bay. They were opposed by Jap small arms fire from the shore and from the decks of enemy river craft.

6 Months Service Men To Be Given Foreign Duty

WASHINGTON (UP) — All qualified Army personnel in this country who have not served at least six months overseas will be replaced by next May 1 so they may be given foreign assignments.

Secretary of War Stimson said today replacements will be made by returning veterans. The change will affect about 400,000 men under 35 now in this country.

Pedestrian deaths continue to head the list of motor vehicle fatalities throughout the country, according to the Chicago Motor Club.

Estimated Navy procurement requirements for canned fruits rose from 75 million pounds in 1942 to 275 million pounds in 1944.

GREAT FLEET Baffles Japs; Army, Navy Planes Loose

PEARL HARBOR (UP) — Admiral William F. (Bull) Halsey stood with his third fleet 200 miles outside the gates of Tokyo today and dared the Japanese to come out and fight.

More than 1,100 American Army and Navy planes, backed up by the greatest Naval Armada afloat, were still smashing at Tokyo and a broad stretch of the Jap coast late today after eight hours of sustained bombardment that literally smothered the enemy defenses.

The Jap admirals must have realized that the scores of carrier cruisers, battleships, escorting Vice-Admiral John S. McCain's Task Force 38 presented the mightiest Naval striking force in history because not one of Nippon's ships came out to fight.

Being into battle under forced draft the carriers sent their planes toward Tokyo a few minutes at 5 A. M. Jap time today and the baffled Japs offered little or no opposition aloft or on the ground.

The targets included over 70 airbases ranging across 2,400 miles of Japan as well as gutted Tokyo itself.

Scrambling Jap broadcasts said the fliers were ranging up and down the east coast of Honshu on all sides of Tokyo.

Another 100 Army Mustangs and several Superforts joined in the Navy's strike at noon to attack shipping and shore installations in the Osaka-Kobe area.

Vice-Admiral McCain with cool disdain gave a running account of the strike over his ship's radio and identified 24 of his warships and their top officers.

But still the Jap navy refused to fight.

Admiral Nimitz called the attack a complete surprise.

It was the first major assault for Halsey's famous Third Fleet since the Old Seadog led his ships back into the Pacific last May 27.

Anderson Moves To Stamp Out Black Market

WASHINGTON (UP) — The new secretary of agriculture, Clinton Anderson, is moving up with OPA to plug up leaks that give rise to the black market. He said today Anderson intends to do something about supply shortages and the black market.

In his first step to reduce the meat shortage, Anderson has lifted slaughter quotas on small packing houses. The packers to get unlimited slaughter quotas must give assurance meat will move in legitimate channels at ceiling prices and meet sanitary standards.

Senators Agree No Reservations Should Be Made

WASHINGTON (UP) — Democrats and Republicans on the Senate foreign relations committee agreed today that any U. S. reservation giving congress the final decision in each case as to use of U. S. forces to help preserve peace would violate the spirit of the United Nations charter.

However, a Republican senator not a member of the committee—Harlan J. Bushfield, S. D.—said he will propose such a reservation when the charter reaches the Senate for debate. He said Congress could not constitutionally delegate to the United Nations Security Council or to the U. S. representative on the council power to "take our boys into war."

RANGER MAN; BUDDY TAKE 29 GERMANS

With The Fifth Army, Italy — A day before the Fifth Army's campaign in Italy ended, 29 Germans surrendered to Privates First Class Olen D. Barker of Ranger, Texas, and George Bouchard of Barrington, Rhode Island.

Reflected in the 35th "Spearhead" Regiment, 88th "Blue Devil" Division, Barker and Bouchard dashed into an enemy hold house and surprised the Nazis. The two Yanks were part of a tanking infantry "task force" assigned to clear the Jerries from a town.

As the leading tank reached the town's outskirts, enemy snipers opened fire. Barker and Bouchard jumped from the tank and ran for cover of a nearby house. Barker spotted a Kraut running from a house about 25 yards away. He killed the German with a rifle grenade.

Then the two Americans ran into the house where they found the Nazis, who threw their rifles to the floor in surrender.

The two Yanks escorted their captives to the rear.

Barker wears the European Theatre Ribbon with three battle stars, Combat Infantryman Badge, Good Conduct Medal, and the Purple Heart.

Bouchard wears the European Theatre Ribbon with three battle stars, Combat Infantryman Badge, Good Conduct Medal, and the Purple Heart. His mother, Mrs. Mary Bouchard, lives at 57 Orchard Avenue, Barrington, A. B. and C.

In the Pacific for almost a year, Sgt. Ratliff has been serving as a turret gunner on a B 24 Bomber and has participated in missions over enemy territory and is at home by virtue of the fact that he has completed the required number of missions.

He recently was awarded the Air Medal for courageous service with the Air Forces in the Pacific theatre.

Sgt. Ratliff has been in the service since October 1942 and in the Pacific theatre since September 1944.

Five German POW Hanged At Fort Leavenworth

FORT LEAVENWORTH, Kansas (UP) — Five German prisoners of war who Nazi zeal led them to murder a fellow soldier in an Oklahoma internment camp were hanged at the disciplinary barracks early today in an historic application of U. S. Military Justice.

It was the first time that an executed war prisoner had been executed in the United States. Not a single, Heil Hitler, came from any of the doomed men to the gallows in an old warehouse building.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

WASHINGTON, D. C.—After four days of persistent, straight inside runners that he was going to resign or be fired from the Cabinet, Secretary of the Interior, the Honorable Harold Ickes called a press conference. Ickes slouched in a big chair at the head of the 35-foot-long table and the reporters got down to business. With a few assistants to speed up the action and dialogue, the fun went something like this:

REPORTER—Is there any way you'd like to be asked about your tenure in office?
ICKES (pleasantly and calmly)—I don't believe there is any new way. This has been going on since 1933. The papers used to have this story set up in type and kept standing. Then whenever they came to make out (he should have said, "make up") if they had a little space with nothing to put in it, they cheerfully dropped in the story that I was going to resign.

NEW YORK—One of the best jobs of baseball scouting was the deal which brought Joe DiMaggio to the Yankees at bargain basement prices. This one was swung by Bill Esick, who patrols the West Coast for the New York club. Bill Esick was not the only scout who had an eye on the Clipper. There were so many of them that they trampled each other's feet as they entered and left the San Francisco ball park. But when Joe wrenched his knee while stepping from a taxi, most of the other scouts acquired cold feet. Esick didn't discourage them. "Well, that is the finish of a great prospect," said Bill, and he walked from the scene. Reaching his hotel, Esick immediately wired his bosses that now they could get DiMaggio at a damaged price for a third of the asking price. The Yankees promptly offered $200,000 for a few players, and found themselves with a great outfielder on their hands. So thoroughly do Yankee scouts dig for players that even a tip on a prep star in pajamas with enthusiasm in San Francisco Joe Devine signed a couple of baseless prospects for the Yankees, and other scouts, perhaps jealous that Joe had gotten there first, began to remark that he was a prodigy—someone, that he would approach a lady wheeling a baby

FREDERICKSBURG, Tex. (UP)—Sgt. Harry Schmidt wore seven bronze stars and numerous campaign ribbons for 40 months service in the army with out even a scratch when he came home under the point discharge system. Shortly after he got home, he had to go to the hospital. A neighbor's dog inflicted several lacerations on an arm and a leg.

No Cheesecake On Youth Detroit Warns Tattooer

Detroit (UP) — Too many juveniles have been appearing with pretty girls in too few clothes tattooed upon their arms so the city had one youth's tattoo re-decorated into a 19th century century bathing queen and took action against the artist. The tattoo trouble developed when a 15-year-old boy was rejected from the Boys Vocational School at Lansing because of a nude tattoo. The artist was found and placed on six months probation with a warning from the judge to refrain from putting any more "cheesecake on the juveniles."
