EASTLAND CO. GOES OVER 7TH WAR LOAN BY 90.99% WITH RANGER LEADING ALL COUNTY

Series E Quota Oversubscribed by 36.1 Per Cent; County Ninth In 59 Counties Of Ft. Worth District

According to a final report on the 7th War Loan Drive just issued by Cyrus B. Frost, county war finance chairman, Eastland county oversubscribed the over-all quota for the county 90.99% and the series E quota by 36.1%. Ranger led the county with a total of $243,526.50 subscribed.

Following is the report issued by Frost:

Eastland County's over-all quota for the 7th War Loan was $602,000.00. We actually sold $1,298,787.50 over-all. Our series E quota was $405,000.00, and we actually sold $551,362.50.

Over-all sales broken down by towns are as follows: Ranger, $243,526.50; Eastland, $240,871.78; Rising Star, $225,972.74; Cisco, $216,875.50; Gorman, $111,291.37; Carbon, $11,990.75; Olden, $6,257.50; Desdemona, $777.00, and allocations to Eastland County as a whole, $241,224.36.

The $551,362.50 Series E sales were purchased as follows: Eastland, $125,446.75; Cisco, $125,327.50; Ranger, $111,528.00; Rising Star, $75,574.25; Gorman, $71,055.25; Carbon, $10,990.75; Olden, $6,257.50; Desdemona, $177.00, and over-all allocations to Eastland County, $21,375.50.

It will thus be seen that Eastland County oversubscribed its Series E quota by 36.1% and oversubscribed its over-all quota by 90.99%. Of the 59 counties constituting the Ft. Worth District, Eastland County stood 9th from the top down in the over-all subscriptions and 11th from the top down in the Series E subscriptions. Taking the 254 counties of the state as a whole, Eastland county was 40th from the top in the Series E subscriptions. While the data is not available on the over-all for all the counties of the state, I feel sure that we are right at the top of the list on the over-all subscriptions.

The State of Texas oversubscribed its over-all subscription by a handsome amount but only oversubscribed the Series E quota by 1.5%. The nation oversubscribed the over-all quota nearly 100 per cent but failed to subscribe the Series E quota for four billion dollars by twenty-four million dollars. It will thus be seen that Eastland County stands almost at the top of the list not only throughout the state but throughout the nation in both her subscriptions as to the Series E and over all quotas.

Never before in the history of the nation, the state, and Eastland County has such a great financial drive been made. The figures are almost staggering as applied to each unit. The only way that such outstanding sales could have been obtained is the fact that our citizenship as a whole are fully aware of their duties and responsibilities.

Follows His WAC Spouse Until She Gets Her Release

CLEVELAND, O. (UP)—The Dzauros are back home in Cleveland, back in civilian life. They are planning to stay there two and fulfill their army life dreams. When Sgt. Martin Dzauros was sent overseas early in 1943, Mrs. Joyce Dzauros joined the WAC. They had only been married eight days when Dzauros was inducted. They didn't have a chance to build the home they had planned.

Now, with army life behind them, they are preparing to pick up where they left off.

Dzauros was discharged with a total of 95 points and his wife, a corporal, took advantage of the government's offer to discharge WAC wives of discharged servicemen.

When Martin returned from overseas duty unexpectedly he found his wife home on furlough. Then, when she returned to duty, he followed her. He said he felt he had a right to follow his WAC wife if army wives could follow their soldier husbands. So he pursued her until she was discharged. Then they both came home.

Rainey Regrets Part He had In U. T. Situation

AUSTIN (UP)—The deposed president of the University of Texas, Dr. Homer P. Rainey, today admitted his "large and significant responsibility" for the situation which led to the placing of the school on a probationary basis. "I regard the preservation of educational freedom as a cornerstone of free government, but neither education nor government can be truly free so long as either is dominated and controlled by paid lobbyists and other representatives of special interest groups. Unfortunately, that is the condition that prevails in Texas today."

NAMED GAME WARDEN

Bob Burkett, 217 South College, Eastland, is Game Warden for an area composed of the counties of Stephens, Shackelford, Runnels, Coleman, Brown, Eastland and Callahan, having been appointed May 1 to succeed Lucian Ferguson of Brownwood. Burkett is a World War II veteran and was discharged in September 1944.

Oranges are grown in 16 Callahan counties lying north of San Francisco.

To Train Youths In Trapping Of Marsh Hares

BATON ROUGE, La. (UP)—Increased production of muskrats—"marsh hare"—to restaurants and eaters—may be brought about through a project being prepared by the Extension Service of Louisiana State University.

Purpose of the project will be the training of 4-H Club youngsters in better management of fur trapping areas.

Youths living in the 1,000,000 acres of Louisiana marsh lands have been "out in the cold" insofar as the usual 4-H Club projects are concerned because these usually involve gardening and production of livestock—the domestic variety.

Put now the extension service specialists are working out details for 4-H Club work to train youngsters to do a better job in the business of their area, muskrat trapping, than has been done in the past. Already the fur-trapping industry of Louisiana brings about $5,000,000 annually, and just for the raw furs. The possibility of broadening this is envisioned by the LSU workers and by some state legislators. The idea is to begin teaching people of the area, perhaps through their children, some of the techniques of dyeing and tanning which might add another $5,000,000 to present income.

The recent attention directed to the use of "marsh hare" as a table delicacy has opened one new possibility for expanding income from this source. The popularity of the meat is such already that inquiries were received last season for carload lot shipments as far as San Francisco and New York. Beyond this, there is a possibility that the chief industry of one-eighth of the state's area will derive additional income from use of the musk as a perfume base. There is a growing demand from perfume manufacturers for the little musk glands which can be easily separated from the carcass.

Men On Leaves In Paris Look To Red Cross

PARIS, (UP)—More than 98,000 American soldiers on leave in Paris were put to bed by the American Red Cross during May, and served more than 690,000 meals, tabulations at the Central Registration Bureau showed today.

The Bureau, which prides itself on assigning men, including validating their passes, at the rate of 1,000 in 40 minutes, is the central billing bureau for Paris which has become the number one spot for soldiers on leave in the ETO.

Figures for May nearly double those of previous months. The total billed for June is expected to be at least 125,000. One day last week the total was 4,200 billed. A mobile unit of trucks meets railway schedules and transports the men to the Bureau. It also takes them out to clubs in outlying districts.

The largest Paris club is the Pavilion with 18 annexes. Its dining room keeps no man waiting more than 15 minutes for a meal and serves an average of 5,000 meals a day. Other clubs scattered throughout the city do business on a similar staggering scale.

LETTER TO POLE RETURNED UNOPENED

DES MOINES, Ia. (UP)—A letter mailed Aug. 25, 1939, by Sam Bassman, Des Moines tailor, has been returned to him unopened.

The letter, containing a money order, was addressed to a rabbi in Wilno, Poland who had been caring for some relatives of Bassman since the death of their mother. It was marked "Held during the German occupation and now released by French authorities."

POLICE SEEK IDENTITY OF WOMAN BELIEVED AMNESIA VICTIM

Chief George Murphy was attempting today to learn the identity of a young woman who was picked up here last night and who apparently is suffering from amnesia.

The woman, who appears to be about twenty-two or twenty-three years old, was turned over to the police about 6:00 o'clock last night when she fainted in a drug store. She had just stepped into the store and asked for a glass of water. Having no identification of any kind on her, attendants called the police.

Chief Murphy took her from one place to another trying to stir some memory but nothing seemed familiar to her. She remembers the name "Dave" and can recall the current song favorite Sentimental Journey.

When all effort to stir some recollection failed, Chief Murphy gave her a supper then placed her in the West Texas Hospital where, this morning, she still could not recall her identity, where she came from or where she was going.

She is five feet three inches tall, weighs about 125 pounds and was wearing a size 34 dress. She has blue-gray eyes, light brown hair, a rather tanned complexion and has a scar at the left side corner of her mouth.

She is wearing a yellow gold wedding band with three stones and a companion ring with one stone. On her right hand she wears four old fashioned gold wedding bands and a finger size key ring holding four keys. Her dress is a black and white jersey trimmed with red and green and she had no luggage at all.

Her appearance is that of a very respectable person and the clothes she was wearing were well kept and attractive. There were no indications that she had met with foul play.

New Schedule For Navy Leaves Is Ordered By Navy

DALLAS, Tex. —Commanding officers of ships and stations outside the continental limits of the United States are now permitted to grant leave of 30 days in the United States to officers and men of the Navy who have not been in the United States for 24 months, as a result of instructions just issued by the Secretary of the Navy.

Whether or not leaves are granted will depend upon the personal needs of the individual ship or station. Granting of leaves is solely within the discretion of commanding officers. The degree to which this policy may be carried out will depend upon whether or not eligible personnel may be spared from their duties.

The instructions stipulate that the number of personnel absent on leave from any ship or station at any one time shall not exceed five per cent of total personnel, and that replacements for men on leave will not be furnished.

Travel time will be allowed in addition to the thirty days of leave. It is estimated that between 8,000 and 12,000 officers and men may receive leaves monthly as the result of this policy.

Reynaud Flays Petain During Treason Trial

PARIS (UP)—Former Premier Reynaud accused Marshal Henri Philippe Petain today of being in league with the Nazis as long as 1934, soon after Adolf Hitler rose to power.

Reynaud, testifying for the second day as the states first witness in the treason trial, launched a bitter personal attack on Petain. The aged and nervous chief of state in the Vichy regime eyed his accuser closely and winced occasionally.

Dipping deep into the history of Petain, the "Hero of Verdun" in the first World War, Reynaud thundered dramatically—"The myth of the Victor of Verdun is sheer piffle."

He recalled that Marshal Ferdinand Joffre had accused Petain of having no confidence in the defense of Verdun, and said Petain was preparing to withdraw his right flank but was prevented by orders from his superiors.

The dapper Reynaud was on the stand three and one-half hours. He accused Petain of heading a "plot" to get France's separate armistice with Germany signed in 1940. Ever before the armistice, he said Petain had schemed under an aura of false prestige to seize power for himself.

Petain, he charged, opposed an extension of the Maginot Line along the Franco-Belgian frontier. It was in that section, at Sedan, that the Nazi hordes sliced through in 1940 to overrun France.

"I do not believe France could live if led by a man inspired by a spirit like that of Petain and his accomplices," said Reynaud, the Premier in the dark days of France's collapse.

Swinging into his attack on Petain, Reynaud said—"It would appear that ever since February 6, 1934 when he was summoned by Premier Doumergue, Petain was enter by a desire for power."

"As war minister he had only insignificant work done on the northern frontier, and opposed 2 years of military service."

In February, 1940, he said, Petain told a delegation of workers that "in five months you will have defeat and dictatorship." On March of that year, he said that within the last half of May, "they will need me." The Germans broke through at Sedan on May 13.

Petain's chief of defense, Fernand Payen, sat immobile and dispassionate behind him. But as soon as Reynaud finished testifying, Payen jumped up and objected to all his testimony, charging that it was "based on calumnies against Petain."

TO AWAIT RESULTS OF BRITAIN'S ELECTION; DEFEAT OF PRIME MINISTER MIGHT CHANGE PLANS

Churchill To Leave Potsdam Wednesday To Return To London For The Big Election

POTSDAM (UP)—The Big Three conference will recess tomorrow to learn the out-come of Britain's elections, to be announced Thursday, but President Truman and Premier Stalin will continue their talks next week regardless of who wins the British race, it was learned today that Churchill was going to London for the Thursday election results, but added the "Berlin conference" would not end.

Churchill plans to leave Wednesday for London and if he wins the election he is expected to return by Friday when the Big Three will resume its meetings. British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and Labor Leader Clement Attlee will return with Churchill.

There was a wide belief in British circles that if Churchill is licked, Eden will return to Potsdam as foreign secretary, but Attlee will remain in London dealing with his new duties as Prime Minister.

While Churchill is in London, Mr. Truman and Stalin probably will confer informally, but this has not been confirmed. While all indications pointed toward the conference continuing into next week, it was conceivable that a Churchill defeat would cause a drastic shortening of the meetings.

He was sent to foreign service last December after having received training at Ft. Lewis, Washington and Ft. Bragg, North Carolina.

He attended school at Colony and Ranger Junior College and just prior to going into service was employed as an airplane mechanic at Brownsville.

Pfc. Lain is the grandson of Mrs. Minnie High of Ranger and his wife the former Miss Inogene Stuard, and their daughter have been making their home in Breckenridge with Mrs. Lain's parents while Pfc. Lain has been overseas.

Students Call Upon Regents To Erase Disgrace

AUSTIN, Tex. (UP)—Representatives of the 4,000 summer students on the University of Texas campus today called on its regents to do something to get the oil-rich college off Southern Association probation. They held regents "responsible for the disgrace."

Only campus demonstration was a placard reading—thanks, regents.

A student convocation will be held as soon as a requested report from the Southern Association of Colleges is received, student president Clayton E. Blakeway, San Angelo, said.

Says Disease Is Robbing America Of Livestock

CHICAGO (UP)—Americans are losing out on millions of pounds of potential steaks and chops—and not because of the war.

Most losses in the black market are minute in comparison with losses through unnecessary mortality among our farm animals.

Dr. J. G. Hardenbergh, executive secretary of the American Veterinary Medical Association citing these wasted dinners, says a drive to prevent livestock losses through disease could save millions of pounds of meat.

One third of the nation's pigs die before they reach market age; 20 per cent of all dairy calves die before reaching productive age, and one fourth of all laying house pullets die prematurely, Dr. Hardenbergh says.

In one year more than four million hogs were lost to the market through tuberculosis and ten million pounds of beef was lost be-

WASHINGTON COLUMN

By Peter Edson, NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The 1700-odd employees of the Department of Labor said goodbye to retiring Secretary Frances Perkins in the Green Rooms of the Departmental Auditorium the other afternoon, and though nobody cried, emotion wasn't absent.

on a black sailor number with broad white ruching. Just to show you what an event it was, Madam Perkins did not wear a tricorn hat. Instead she had on the brim. She looked real nice and as one of her associates said, she was more relaxed than she had been at any time since she took the job, 12 years, three months, and 20-some days before.

Only a few of the 1700 employees who filed by to shake Miss Perkins's hand and hear her say goodbye and thank you had been in the Department that long, but they all threw her this farewell party. They took up a collection and got $375, or nearly two bits per employe, with which to buy her a going-away present. But what should they buy?

The committee finally decided to have the question put up to Madam Perkins herself. The delicate mission was entrusted to Miss J., which is all anybody ever calls the Secretary's administrative assistant, red-headed Frances Jurkowitz. At first Miss Perkins said she didn't want anything, but when Miss J. told her the money was all collected and the committee was waiting, she said what she would really like was an air conditioning unit for her apartment.

Well, the committee went to work on that and though they moved heaven and earth they couldn't move WPB—the old meanies—to give with a priority on an air conditioner for Miss Perkins's going-away present.

Then Miss Perkins came up with the idea that she hadn't had any new luggage since she came to Washington 12 years ago, or she might be needing a new typewriter because the government wouldn't be furnishing her with a free typewriter after June 30. She probably never thought she would get both, but that's how much the employe of the Department of Labor think of their Miss Perkins. They got her not only one handbag, which is par in going-away presents, they got her three, big, little and medium-sized.

It took a good bit of wire-pulling to get the priority for even the new typewriter, but the Department of Labor employe never give up on any project, once they start, except maybe the first time. So there was a typewriter on exhibit at Miss Perkins's going-away party, along with the three-piece matched luggage set and—this is the best part yet—a $50 war bond which the committee had enough money left over to buy. Lucky Miss Perkins got that too.

Miss Perkins will pack her new matched bags and an Irving Berlin record will go to Maine for the first vacation she has had in 12 years. She will then sit down at her new typewriter and make an announcement of what she will do next. The bond she intends to

SPORTS

(Harry Grayson, NEA Sports Editor, is away on special assignment) By Ned Brown, NEA Staff Correspondent

FREDDIE RED COCHRANE, current welterweight champion of the world, after gallivanting about the South flattening divers and sundry second-hand and third-rate flat aspirants, has decided he is about ready for a New York appearance. However, he is not ready to place his title in what Harry Balogh would term "jeopardy."

Hence, come Friday night, June 29, Cochrane will battle Rocky Graziano, New York welterweight, 10 rounds at Madison Square Garden. The champion is picking no soft touch in the rugged Rocky, whose specialty seems to be rocking opponents to sleep with devastating wallops.

FREDDIE COCHRANE is the first titleholder to resume flat action after a few years in the service. He was also the first champion to don a uniform in this war, enlisting in the Navy Aug. 7, 1941, shortly after he won the championship from Fritz Zivic in Newark July 29 that year. In a return bout six weeks later Zivic turned the tables on Boatman's Mate Cochrane in a 10-round non-title bout at Madison Square Garden.

After that Cochrane was out of ring action till June 1 when he knocked out Ed Lello in two rounds at Jacksonville. Four other

K. O.'s for Red followed in quick succession. Cochrane and Graziano are evenly matched physically, both being welterweights, 147 pounds, and practically the same height, 5 feet 7 inches.

ROCKY has the advantage in age, however. He is 23, whereas the champion is 30. The New Yorker is by far the harder hitter, having more than 27 knockouts to his credit in three years of fighting, against Cochrane's 25 over 12 years of campaigning.

Red outscored Graziano in the dubious honor of having lost more than 31 fights against the Rock's six.

Ringworms are interested in seeing whether Cochrane has regained the fighting form which enabled him to win the welterweight crown. Red says he has. But Rocky Graziano tells you that form won't be enough when they meet.

Miss Barker Becomes Bride of Sgt. Harris In A Ceremony Saturday

Miss Hazel Barker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Barker, was united in marriage with Staff Sgt. Truitt Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harris of Kilgore, in a double ring ceremony performed Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock in the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Landers.

Rev. G. W. Thomas of Breckenridge, formerly of Ranger read the marriage service before an improvised altar in the living room of the home. A large floor basket filled with pink gladioluses, with the handle entwined with fern and tied with a pink and blue net bow formed the background of the altar. On each side of the basket were floor candelabra holding white tapers which lighted the scene. Baskets of pink roses completed the wedding decorations.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely gown of white brocaded spun-glass designed with a high round neckline and yoke of marquisette, cap sleeves, long bodice and full gathered skirt. Her shoulder length veil of illusion fell from a halo of seed pearls. She wore long white lace gloves and carried a white prayer-book topped with an orchid with a shower of white satin ribbon and orange blossoms.

Miss Helen Boren of Dallas attended the bride as maid of honor. She chose a gown of blue marquisette and her corsage was of pink gladioluses. The bridesmaid was Miss Emma Lee Treder of Dallas who wore a blue organdy dress fashioned along princess lines and her shoulder corsage was of pink gladioluses.

Lt. Bruce Harris, recently returned from Germany, attended his brother as best man.

Mrs. Landers lighted the altar candles and Miss Jacqueline Edwards, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. F. P. Brashier, sang, O, Promise Me. Mrs. Brashier also played the traditional wedding marches from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn and during the ceremony she played Clair de Lune.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held. The bride's table was covered with a white ruffled net cloth, scalloped with rows of blue and pink ribbon, caught at intervals with bows of the ribbon. The centerpiece was a lovely arrangement of pink carnations atop a mirror reflector. White candles in crystal candelabra lighted the table. Mrs. Ross

Terrier Pup Can Frisk Around On Metal Leg

CLEVELAND (UP)—"Tiny," a six month old Boston Terrier pup, is frisking about these days on a new artificial hind leg.

James S. Campbell, who walks on two artificial limbs himself, made Tiny's leg. He said artificial limbs, especially hind legs, were quite rare for dogs, and he "hadn't wanted to make this one, but the lady was so nice and the puppy so cute I couldn't refuse."

The leg is made of stainless steel and water proofed celluloid. The foot is a piece of synthetic rubber cleverly designed to give a closer approximation of the dog's foot and toes.

The pup wears the new limb in all kinds of weather and at all times, even while being given a bath.

Mrs. Jacqueline Bogan of Conneaut, O., a cook for railroad work crews while her son and husband are in the armed forces, is the dog's owner.

Your Electric Refrigerator IS A Priceless POSSESSION ...GIVE IT GOOD CARE

Your electric refrigerator is built to give long service. Like all equipment, it serves you best if you give it proper care. To help your refrigerator operate better and last longer, here are some timely suggestions:

- Defrost your electric refrigerator regularly—at least once a week in the summer, or when the layer of frost becomes about as thick as a lead pencil.
- Avoid using a knife, ice pick or other sharp instrument to loosen ice trays. You might puncture the freezing coil.
- Your refrigerator needs breathing space. Be sure there is air space in back of the refrigerator, and over the top.
- If your refrigerator has an open type mechanism, it should be oiled according to the manufacturer's instructions.

Should your refrigerator need adjustment or repair, call the dealer from whom it was purchased, or some other reliable service man who is experienced with your make of refrigerator.
