Fleet Leaves Inland Sea Mass of Wreckage

BUSY OFFICER FINDS WAY TO CUT CORNERS

ABOARD AN AIRCRAFT CARRIER OFF OKINAWA (UP) — Lt. (jg) Ed Kebulsek figured he spent too much time and energy just addressing letters to his wife —time he could spend writing another letter or working on his correspondence course from the University of Washington, where he was a football hero. So he cut a stencil and mimeographed a pile of plain envelopes with his wife's address and his return address on them.

His wife lives at 303 N. Peninsula, Daytona Beach, Fla.

Then he figured out that it was quicker to put stamps on the entire stack at one operation than it was to open a drawer and fish out stamps every day when it came time to write another letter. So he put stamps on all the envelopes.

"I've got to think these things out," he said. "I don't have any time to kill like lots of these guys aboard ship."

When Lt. Kebulsek is not working at his job, he is deeply involved in some project which he considers worthwhile. His job is Landing Signal Officer. He sends carrier pilots off the carrier runway and directs their landing maneuvers when they come back to the floating airfield at the completion of their mission.

"When I'm not working, I've got to be getting in some ticks somewhere," he said. "I always can work on the political science course I'm taking from the University of Washington or I can be mailing out applications for a postwar job."

"This job business has me worried. I'd really prefer to have a position, but I'd deliver it to be able to be home with my wife and baby every night."

"So long, see you later. Just got an idea where I might apply for a job as football coach."

Boyd Lequay In States Expected Here Sun. or Mon.

Mrs. Desma Lequay has received word that her husband, First Class Petty Officer Boyd Lequay, has arrived in the States from the Pacific and is expected to arrive in Ranger either Sunday or Monday.

Lequay has been in the Pacific theatre of operations for the past two years and seven months and for the last few months has been stationed at Guam.

Sgt. Russell Back From ETO At Okla. Field

Oklahoma City Air Technical Service Command, Tinker Field, Oklahoma — Now stationed at Tinker Field is S-Sgt. Charlie F. Russell formerly of Ranger, Tex. He is assigned to an AAF Base Unit at this model establishment of the Air Technical Service Command for the maintenance and repair of aircraft and the training of air depot groups.

Sergeant Russell is the son of Mrs. Lola De. Russell, formerly of 1125 Sinclair Ave., Ranger, Texas.

He is a graduate of Ranger high school and attended Ranger Junior College. Prior to military induction in July 1942, he was employed by the Burton Lingo Lumber Co., Ranger.

He spent seven months with the 445th B. Grp., in Ireland, and England and participated in the Air offensive against Normandy and Northern France. He has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf clusters and three battle stars.

Before transfer to this field, he was stationed at Altus, Okla.

Oil Workers Group To Have Open House On Monday

According to an announcement made Saturday by Charles Hummel, the Oil Workers International Union will hold an open house Monday night at 8:00 o'clock at the American Legion Hall and the public, as well as members and their families are invited to attend.

E. C. Conarty of Ft. Worth will be the guest speaker and other entertaining features have been planned for the program. At the close of the meeting refreshments will be served.

According to Hummel this is a fast growing organization, looking to the postwar period and its activities.

CUSTOMERS GET BONUS ON ELECTRIC BILLS

Bellefontaine, O., (UP) — This small Ohio city, which pronounces its name "bell fountain," picked a novel way to give municipal electric plant customers bonuses.

When consumers looked at their monthly bills, they found all had been stamped "paid."

IMPIOUS PICKPOCKET
EOSTON (UP) — While the Rev. George Gray was attending a holy hour service at Fenway Park, a pickpocket lifted his wallet, containing $40.

Yanks Search German Occupation Zone

In one of the largest mass raids of its type in history, half million Yanks searched every dwelling in the U. S. Occupation Zone, arresting about 80,000 Germans, capturing contraband weapons, radio transmitters, GI clothing, etc. Here Yanks examine papers of Bremen civilians during the house-to-house search. (Army Radio telephoto from NEA Telephoto.)

Light Splitter Helps Our Pilots To Spot Japanese

CAMDEN, N. J., (UP) — The same principle that makes you see bright spots of color in oil floating on water spells death for Japanese pilots when our 40-mm. anti aircraft gunners draw a bead on them.

The process was applied to the new U. S. Army M-10 range finder by the RCA Victor Division of the Radio Corporation of America. RCA developed a rectangular glass plate about two by four inches in size, which is nicknamed the "light splitter."

When the element "splits" light striking it, transmitting a band with one color predominating and reflecting a band with the complementary color predominating, the visibility of the target to the gunner is doubled.

The light splitter is known technically as a color-selective reflector. It is one-quarter of an inch thick and has a microscopic thin chemical coating.

Have in the optical phenomenon that gives the g-servers a deadly band on enemy planes; when viewed obliquely the reflector appears to be of one color; when viewed by looking straight at it, it appears to have a completely different color. It's the difference between light reflected by it and light passing through it.

The gunner manipulates controls of the finder to superimpose the two images until a sharp natural colored image appears.

The operation of the light splitter, RCA explained, depends on the change imposed in the speed of a light ray when it encounters a different material. When a ray of light encounters a material through which it must pass at a different speed, some part is reflected at the interface of the two media.

PROFESSOR URGES ACCENT ON PRESENT

CHICAGO (UP) Grade school children know more about aviation than do their teachers, according to E. F. McSwain, Northwestern University professor.

Curricula must be revised and teachers trained so that the children meet contemporary problems, he said, adding that too much time is spent on past instead of current issues.

"Children cannot learn democracy by just reading about it," McSwain said. "They must be put in classrooms where these principles are applied."

More emphasis on newspapers, radio, and movies is needed, and less on textbooks, he said.

"Children must learn not to accept everything they read in textbooks," he added.

YOUNG WOMAN IDENTIFIED BY RELATIVES

Ranger's young woman amnesia victim was positively identified Saturday at noon as being Mrs. Jack L. Dennis of Houston, who disappeared from her home there a week ago Friday.

The identification was made by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lawson of Houston, Mrs. Lawson being a sister of Mrs. Dennis. The Lawsons explained that after Mrs. Dennis had returned from her work at a Houston business office Friday, July 20, she left her home to go down the street to buy some grapefruit, taking with her a 50 cent piece which was the only article she carried.

That was the last the Lawsons heard of her until they read in the state press the numbers of the postoffice key which she carried when found here. The Houston postoffice was contacted and the numbers proved to be those of the key issued to Mrs. Dennis. Already listed with the bureau of missing persons in Houston, the Lawsons called to give them the information that they had and it was then that they learned that the bureau had been contacted by Dr. P. M. Kuykendall.

Though the Lawsons had been expected since last Thursday night, they did not arrive here until noon Saturday and explained they were delayed in getting here through the fact that they had difficulty in securing gasoline to make the trip.

Mrs. Dennis had not regained her memory when she left with her relatives, nor did she recognize them when they went into see her.

The Lawsons stated that Mrs. Dennis' husband is still with the armed forces in Europe. They have a four year old son who made his home with his mother in Houston and for whose care the mother employed a woman.

Attendants at the West Texas Hospital where Mrs. Dennis had been since last Monday evening, stated that she deeply regretted leaving Ranger and stated that she was coming back when she regained her memory. She stated that she had never come in contact with Lovell people and that their kindness to her would never be forgotten. It was said that she tearfully took her leave when she left with her relatives.

There is a thriving raw silk industry at Mineral Wells, Texas as harvesting the largest crop in the nation.

Pfc. Ball, Back From Europe Goes Ft. Sam Houston

Pfc. C. H. (Elbert) Ball who has been here for a visit with Mrs. Ball and their son, Claiborne, and his mother, Mrs. Johnnie Ball, has reported to Ft. Sam Houston where he expects to be assigned to Camp Gruber, Oklahoma.

Pfc. Ball has just returned from service in the European theatre of operations where he had been serving with the 10th Division in Germany. He had gone into foreign service in February 1945 and returned to the States in June. He expects to be sent to the Pacific.

Here for a visit with Pfc. Ball were R. P. Ball, MA 2-c and his wife from Oakland, California, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Martin and daughter of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith and three children of Odessa and Mrs. Allie Hammons of Colorado City.

B. W. Dempsey In Pacific Theatre Gets Promotion

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Dempsey, Route 3, Ranger, have received word that their son, B. W. Dempsey, who is stationed with the Navy in the Philippines, has been promoted to seaman first class.

Seaman Dempsey who has been in the service since December 23, 1941 was sent to the Pacific theatre of operations on May 5, 1945. He received his training in the States at the Great Lakes Naval Training school at Great Lakes, Ill., and at Shumaker, California before going overseas.

He is a 1939 graduate of Ranger high school and attended Ranger Junior College. Just prior to going into service he was engaged in farming.

Attlee, Bevin Join Big Three Conference Table

POTSDAM, (UP) — Prime Minister Clement R. Attlee and Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin arrived from London late today for the resumption of the Big Three conference.

A night session of the Big Three was scheduled, with the principals eager to wind up their business and return to their respective capitals.

KWELIN RETAKEN

CHUNGKING (UP) — The Chinese communiques tonight report that Kwelin, the former great American airbase city in Kwangsi Province, has been recaptured by Chinese forces.

B-25 CRASHES THRU EMPIRE STATE BUILDING

NEW YORK (UP) — A B-25 Bomber crashed and exploded in the 78th floor of the Empire State building today and the upper part of the tallest building in the world instantly became a blazing inferno for hundreds of office workers peered 1,000 feet above the street.

The plane was lost in a fog when it struck. It broke into a giant, spectacular burst of flame. The explosion rocked midtown Manhattan.

Two hours after police reported at least 50 dead.

Planes raved out of control in six floors of the building for 40 minutes. These elevators crashed from the 80th floor to the ground. Glass and debris rained into the street.

The plane struck the north side of the building, penetrated a wing of the floor, destroyed everything in its path and went out the south wing of the building. Part of it landed on the roof of the 12-story Waldorf building on 33rd Street.

Six of the dead were reported to be soldiers, some of them presumably members of the plane's crew of five.

Only the fact that it was Saturday morning, when many of offices are closed, prevented a far greater disaster.

The 78th floor was unoccupied. Nine bodies were reported found on the 79th floor. Three bodies were taken from two of the fallen elevators. The third was empty.

An enormous crowd gathered in the street. The largest amount of fire fighting apparatus ever assembled in New York City was jumbled in four fire alarms. Glass and debris continued to shower down for almost an hour.

Mayor F. H. LaGuardia, quickly at the scene, inspected the 78th floor and said:

"It was just an oven."

He said the plane was "flying too low." City regulations forbid flying fever than 5,000 feet over the city, he said.

The Army said the bomber left Bedford, Mass., on "contact flying regulations." A control tower operator at the field said that the ceiling was 1,100 feet over Manhattan at the time of the crash. The Empire State building is 1,250 feet tall and on foggy days its peak usually is obscured.

GENERAL DOYEN LABELS PETAIN NO. 1 ENEMY

PARIS (UP) — Gen. Paul Andre Doyen, former head of the French Armistice Commission, denounced Marshal Henri Philippe Petain today as France's No. 1 collaborator and the man who of his own free will sold his country to the Nazis.

Doyen was the most direct charge of complete collaboration yet made against the old marshal in his treason trial. He placed responsibility for the collaborationist policy squarely on Petain's shoulders, charging that he continued it even after the temporary banishment of Pierre Laval from the Vichy Regime in 1940.

Preceding Doyen on the witness stand, Michel Clemenceau, son of France's first world war "Tiger", accused Petain of handing over Paul Reynaud and Georges Mandel to the Nazis.

The state case moved rapidly today. Four witnesses testified. The last two were Pierre Casau, former president of the Riom Supreme Court which conducted the incompleted war guilt trial, and Albert Lamotte, attaché of the French Embassy at Madrid in 1939.

W. H. Limbocker With The Braniff Airways In Dallas

Word has been received that William H. Limbocker, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Limbocker of Route 1, Ranger, has accepted a position with the Braniff Airways in Dallas as an apprentice mechanic.

Limbocker, a veteran of the European war, returned to the States in November 1944 and was hospitalized at Ft. Sam Houston for treatment following wounds received in action over Germany on August 21, 1944. He spent 14 months overseas where he served as flight engineer on a B-24 Bomber on 50 missions. He had more than 260 hours of operational combat flying and holds the Air Medal with clusters and two campaign ribbons.

Agent Says Now Is The Time To Treat Fruit Tree

TYLER, TEXAS (UP) — M. H. Hill, county agricultural agent, says that many steps can be taken during the summer to prepare fruit trees and vines for better production in the following seasons.

For example, Hill suggested that now is the time to treat heavily loaded peach and plum trees with quickly available nitrogenous fertilizer, and to transplant non-bearing fruit orchards to summer soil building crops.

A tip to berry growers was to pick the berries, cut the old growth back to the ground with a hoe, and leave three to four of this season's shoots on each plant for next year's crop. Top these shoots three to four feet in height on blackberries to encourage side branching. Such practice will make picking and cultivation easier.

First Lt. Eyley Gets Air Medal Award on July 12

Mrs. Bill Eyley has received word that her husband, First Lt. Bill Eyley, has been awarded the Air Medal.

The award was made in France on July 12 for successfully completing missions over France and Germany and was presented the flier by General Woods. Aside from the Air Medal, Lt. Eyley holds five battle stars.

CARRIER BASED PLANES LEAVE DEATH TRAIL, DESTRUCTION

PEARL HARBOR (UP) — Two thousand carrier-based planes left Japan's Inland Sea littered with wrecked and blazing ships today as Adm. Halsey's Third Fleet returned to pound the Kure naval base.

In history's greatest carrier strike, American and British fighters roared at dawn through flak and fighters to blaze a new trail of death and destruction across waters already marred by the hulks of 300 enemy ships smashed in the first Allied onslaught last Tuesday and Wednesday.

Three bomber pilots reported spotting the 30,000-ton battleship Hyuga lying on the bottom of a bay.

Admiral Nimitz in announcing the new attacks, on which he gave no details, issued an extensively revised tabulation of the "punishing damage" done the enemy in the same vicinity Tuesday and Wednesday, raising the list of damaged enemy warships to at least 25, including three battleships, six air-craft carriers and four cruisers.

Damage and destruction also was extended to wide land areas, particularly railroads, rolling stock, radio stations and buildings.

Japanese aerial opposition was scanty, although present. 18 enemy planes being shot down on Tuesday and 21 on Wednesday, besides 40 destroyed and 50 damaged on the ground.

As the Third Fleet and British carrier planes, all under the command of Admiral Halsey, swept in again at dawn today for the third time in five days, there was no word of the weather — which had been so foul that Wednesday attacks finally had to be broken off — or on the number of planes participating.

The combined British and American forces in the area can put into the air a maximum of about 1,500 planes, but it is unlikely that so many were being used in the initial assaults.

THE WEATHER

WEST TEXAS — Considerable cloudiness with a few scattered thunderstorms in the east and south portions this afternoon and in northeast portion tonight. Sunday partly cloudy with widely scattered afternoon thunder showers south portion. Moderate to occasionally fresh southerly winds on the coast.

DELATED WOUND

WICHITA FALLS, TEX. (UP) — Corp. J. R. Tucker of Wichita Falls went through five major battles in Europe without a scratch.

Then a "dud" American anti-aircraft shell exploded within 15 feet of him.

He got the Purple Heart.

Vets Attend West Point

As the first West Point plebe class in history to have a majority of members as overseas vets, Cadet John L. Carr, Jersey City, N. J. hurdles a barbed wire entanglement. Some of the vets find their training tougher than service in the field. (NEA Telephoto.)

Today's Review Telemap

The U. S. air bombing and the warship bombardment of Japan and Tokyo's open agitation for peace highlight the Pacific war of the past week. In China the Kwelin battle continues and the Japs have begun an offensive to widen the neck of the corridor in the Luyang area. (NEA Telemap.)

Railroad Veteran Glad Old Iron Horse Is Gone

PEORIA, Ill. (UP)—The old black mare isn't what she used to be, according to R. A. Kring, who recently celebrated his 50th year as a railroader. At 75 he now holds the position of chief clerk of rates and division for the Toledo, Peoria and Western railroad, which has headquarters here.

Addressing a party fellow workers gave him on his 50th anniversary as a railroad man, Kring said, "The thunder and blood of the Iron Horse is in all of us," and added that although railroad engines have changed, it has been for the better.

Kring said that in his grandfather's day an "iron horse" was like a skeleton, exposing its "innards" to the terror of women and children, but that in his own time the locomotive has become a well protected piece of machinery, her "skin made gay with paint and brass."

Texas Students Taking Course In Russian Language

AUSTIN, Tex. (UP) — Students from scattered parts of the South are enrolled in the University of Texas this summer to take Russian according to Dr. Eduard Micek, associate professor of Slavonic languages.

The university, the only one in this part of the country to teach Russian, has built up a reputation in this 3 year old addition to its curriculum.
 As far as Dr. Micek knows, the institution is also the only one in the South to offer Czech, and many students have studied these languages in preparation for commercial, journalistic, and diplomatic careers.

Since most diplomatic posts requiring a knowledge of Russian were filled by students from Northern and Eastern universities, the professor explained, the University of Texas also offered it to students, and already more than a half dozen students who received their training in Russian at UT are employed in the state department.

GRANDPARENTS SORRY BABY ISN'T THEIRS

POLK, Neb. (UP) — The Polk Progress, a weekly newspaper, carried this item:
 "A baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wilshuen."

 The Wilshuens, who already had reared a family and were in the grandparent class, were besieged with congratulatory calls, messages, and baby gifts.
 The next week the Progress corrected the announcement to read that a boy had been born to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wilson.

The Progress also carried a card of thanks for messages and gifts, signed by Mr. and Mrs. Wilshuen, which ended with, "Sorry, we can't oblige."
