Following an enthusiastic meeting at the Community Clubhouse held in Eastland Monday night, officers and committeemen of the Eastland County Community Concert Association today launched the membership campaign. Headquarters for the campaign in Ranger are located in the lobby of the Gholson Hotel with Mrs. J. R. McLaughlin in charge. Ranger's goal in the campaign is 200 memberships, all of which must be sold before Saturday noon, and an effort is being made to reach the goal by Wednesday afternoon. The memberships are $5.00 each plus $1.00 federal tax and the membership admits the purchaser to three concerts which will be given at the Eastland high school auditorium during the concert season. The association was organized by representatives from the towns of Cisco, Eastland and Ranger and the three towns are cooperating in the effort. Though committees did not get to work in Ranger until about 10:00 o'clock this morning, Mrs. McLaughlin reported at noon today that one worker had already sold 16 memberships and others had turned in from one to five each. Mrs. McLaughlin stated today that though persons are not approached by workers, the membership cards are on sale at the Gholson hotel the entire week and anyone wishing to secure a ticket may do so by calling at the hotel. John Turner of Eastland, president, presided at the meeting in Eastland and introduced officers and committeemen. After a brief welcome, Turner introduced Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins who gave an outline of the aims and ambitions of the association. Mayor J. J. Kelly, vice-president from Ranger, R. L. Ponsler, vice-president from Cisco and Fred Brown, vice-president from Eastland, all introduced and spoke briefly, pledging their support to the movement. Miss Lucille Thompson of Cisco...

WAR CHEST KICK OFF TO BE FRIDAY

Morris Kight, Ranger chairman for the United War Chest Drive announced today that the "kick-off" meet for the drive will be held Friday morning at 10:00 o'clock at the Arcadia Theatre and every Ranger citizen is urged and invited to attend the meeting. Plans for the opening of a campaign on Tuesday morning, November 6 will be outlined at the meeting and captains to direct the work will be named. In speaking of the importance of the United War Chest, Kight stated this morning, "Authentic reports from Europe indicate that only American aid can save the countries of Europe from complete collapse. A sharp warning has been issued by British Foreign Secretary that the chaos resulting from failure of American aid can cause damage worse than an atomic bomb. Labor government representatives in Britain have reported that the present conditions prevailing in Europe are developing Hitler's policy to leave Europe in a state of complete anarchy, and added Kight, "It is a well known fact that war in Europe means war all over the world."

REV. JOHNSON RETIRES FROM THE MINISTRY

Rev. H. B. Johnson, for the past 23 years pastor of the First Christian church in Ranger and president of the Ministerial Alliance of Ranger, is retiring from the ministry effective immediately. Rev. Johnson who resigned from the pastorate of the church at services Sunday night, stated today that he took the action because he "felt the need of a little rest" and added that he thought his congregation needed a rest too. He and Mrs. Johnson will continue to make their home in Ranger. He was recently re-elected to the pastorate of the church for the 24th consecutive year and had accepted. For over 50 years he has been active in the ministry, part of which time he was serving as minister and at the same time attending school.

HOUSE PASSES FINAL DRAFT OF TAX BILL

WASHINGTON (UP)—The House today approved the final version of the $5,920,000,000 tax reduction bill after hearing preliminary talk of further cuts next year. The Senate expects to consider the measure Thursday. The bill would reduce individual income taxes $2,644,000,000 next year, reduce 1946 corporate tax liabilities by $3,156,000,000 and repeal the $5 automobile use tax at a cost of $140,000,000 in revenue. Existing excise taxes would remain in force. The action taken by the House was approved, by 297 to 33, of a Senate-House conference report on the bill. This adjusted differences in the bills previously passed by both houses. Chairman Clarence Cannon, D. Mo., of the House appropriations committee was the only speaker against the bill. He told the House that "you can't balance the budget if you reduce national revenues."

BOOSTERS' CLUB PLANS ARE BEGUN

Plans for a boosters' club in Ranger got underway Monday night at a meeting held at the Chamber of Commerce and plans are expected to be completed at a meeting to be held at the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night, November 6. Hall Walker presided at the meeting at which various needs for the welfare of Ranger were discussed. Among other matters taken up, was the necessity of greater support for an athletic program in Ranger, and greater support for the Ranger high school buildings. A committee composed of Joe Dennis, Chief George Murphy and E. F. Arterburn was named to further the plans for the meeting next Tuesday night and every man present at the meeting Monday night was pledged to be at the coming meeting and bring with him another business or professional man.

TO OFFER PROPOSAL IN ADDRESS AT 9:00 TONIGHT

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Truman is expected to recommend some increase in basic wage rates but to emphasize the "hold the line" on prices in his wage-price speech to the nation tonight.

The President speaks at 9:00 CST over the four major networks. His address will run about 30 minutes. Mr. Truman was expected to appeal to both labor and industry to make the fullest use of collective bargaining to settle problems that have disrupted reconversion with strikes and strife. Informed sources predicted that the President would recommend basic wage raises to compensate workers for all or part of their loss in wartime take-home pay—a loss which the administration estimates at 23 per cent. Labor is generally asking for 30 per cent raises.

At the same time, however, the President was expected to oppose any general increases in price levels. Mr. Truman, it was said, lowered taxes and operating costs and recommended that price increases be allowed only where producers are "squeezed" by pay boosts.

BOND SALES REPORTED GOOD, BAD

Hall Walker stated today that the sales of bonds in the Victory Loan drive got off to a satisfactory start Monday at the Commercial State Bank and it is his belief that the quota will be met promptly. B. E. Garner, manager of the Arcadia Theatre, where bonds are also being sold reported that sales were definitely lagging, with only one bond sold at the theatre Monday. A. E. Crawley, post master, reported that his experience was about the same as found at the theatre and the sales at the post-office were slower than could be called encouraging. Walker's goal is less than it has ever been in any of the war bond drives and the people are urged to give more serious thought and action to the completion of this drive which is the last of the bond drives.

Walker, former commanding general of the 36th Texas Division from whose ranks their battalion was formed, by Congressmen Ed Gossett of Wichita Falls and John Lyle of Corpus Christi, and others.

Know a Dealer? Got The Money? New Car's Yours

WASHINGTON (UP)—The only things standing between you and a new car are money and time. You don't have to worry about a priority. The OPA and WPB announced yesterday that new autos will not be rationed. They will go on a first-come, first-served basis, which is especially good news if you know a dealer. "Naturally," said Price Chief Bowles, "some individuals will be inconvenienced by their inability to buy new cars immediately. We ask, however, that dealers everywhere give special consideration to unusual hardship cases."

UNRRA May Get More Money

WASHINGTON (UP)—The House appropriations committee recommended today that Congress grant an additional $550,000,000 to the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration, but demanded new safeguards to assure more efficient UNRRA operations. An appropriations subcommittee reported that the "dire need" of war-ravaged nations made quick action by Congress imperative.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

BY PETER EDSON

NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, D. C.—When President Truman stood up as best man at Bennett Clark's wedding to actress Violet Heming, it wasn't just a gesture of friendship between two ex-Senators from the same state. It also was the culmination of a friendship begun in the first World War when the two men served as officers in the 35th Division of Missouri and Kansas National Guard.

Edson

Eight years after Truman became President, another of their ex-buddies came to Washington and cornered Clark at the Mayflower hotel. "Look!" he said. "I want you to go see Harry Truman and tell him I want a commission. I don't want one of these Pentagon commissions, and I don't want to go to the Pacific, either. But I can do 'em a lot of good in France, and I want Truman to get me made a brigadier general." Clark was himself an ex-Senator out of a job at that time, so this large order floored him. When he recovered, he came back with this:

"Listen," he said. "When this war started Harry Truman and I both held reserve commissions as colonels. We both went out to see General Marshall and told him we wanted to resign our seats in the Senate and be called to active service. Marshall turned us both down. So how in the world do you expect Harry Truman to get you made a brigadier general when he couldn't even get himself made a colonel?"

DR. VANNEVAR BUSH, who is head of the Office of Scientific Research and Development and likes to be thought of as an engineer, has invented a new doodling game to help him while away dull care at banquets or conferences where the speakers get particularly boring. Most people in this predicament either go to sleep or pull out a pencil and draw crazy designs on the white linen tablecloths. Bush's mind is too alert for the former and not destructive enough for the latter. So he takes a piece of paper, tears it up into 100 or more little half-inch squares, and spends the evening arranging them in engineering designs. All the while he hears every word and never misses a trick.

THE new, life-size oil painting of former Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins, hung in the Labor building third floor elevator lobby along with portraits of other gone and forgotten secretaries, shows Madam Perkins with hat on. This, in spite of the fact that she never took her hat off in all the 12 years she was in office and her tricorn got to be more of a trade mark than George Washington's.

ERNE STEWART was the goat of Albert B. Chandler's ineptitude in baseball. And now the league presidents are telling the commissioner what to do. It wouldn't surprise anybody close to the situation if the umpires organized for their own protection. And with an unsatisfactory ruling in a key case, the next step easily could be another brotherhood for the players. As baseball commissioner, Happy Chandler had better put his foot down and make it stick.

It started during the summer when Commissioner Chandler dropped into the umpires' dressing room and asked the boys in blue how they were getting along. "We are getting along fine, commissioner," replied Ernie Stewart, "but I don't think we get enough money."

Chandler told Stewart to sound out the other umpires and report to him. This Stewart did, in return for which he was fired by Will Harridge, president of the American League, for disloyalty. In other words, Stewart was dismissed and his career ruined early because he followed the baseball czar's instructions.

CHANDLER called the league presidents, managers and umpires together to discuss ground rules just before the World Series. That settled, the managers were told to run along, and smack dab in front of their big bosses, Chandler suggested that the umpires' pay in the World Series be hoisted from $2500 to $4000.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

By Boyce House
 ("What Makes a Texan Tick"
 If one would understand why a Texan is like he is, it must be remembered that Texas has a history all its own. For Texas has been under six flags: the banners of Spain, France, Mexico, the Republic of Texas, the Confederacy and the United States. Texas was freed from Mexico more than a hundred years ago by bold, adventurous men from other States—some of whom had "left their country for their country's good." The expression "Gone to Texas" (sometimes expressed "G.T.T.") once was in vogue in other states as the explanation for some man's sudden departure.

It is related that a newcomer to Texas became involved in a difficulty and was advised by a lawyer to leave. He said, in amazement, "But I'm already in Texas, ain't I?" At the outbreak of the Texas War for Independence, a Tennessean was galloping along and a friend asked, "Where you going?" He replied, "To Texas—to fight for my rights."

The most sacred spot in Texas is the Alamo where one hundred and eighty-two men, including Travis, Crockett, Bowie and Bannan refused to escape or surrender but fought to the last man against the hordes of the dictator, Santa Anna. "Thermopylae" had her messenger of defeat; the Alamo had none. At Goliad, a Texas force under Fannin, faced artillery and overwhelming numbers, surrendered and then was massacred. At San Jacinto, the furious Texans, under Sam Houston, shouted, "Remember the Alamo! Remember Goliad!" and in 20 minutes, Santa Anna's army was shattered; the tyrant himself was captured next day, and the freedom of Texas had been won.

For 10 years, Texas was a republic, maintaining a navy, sending and receiving "ambassadors," then voluntarily entered the Union by a treaty under which the right was reserved for Texas to divide itself into five States if it desired. To these traditions, Texans in World War II have added new and glorious history at Salerno, in France, in the islands of the Pacific, above the clouds and on the sea; wherever a story of American heroism has been written in blood and flame, there you will always find Texans.

Texas has its own legends and myths, Pecos Bill, the greatest of cowboys; Gib Morgan, the Paul Bunyan of the oil fields; Strap Buckner who wrestled with the devil, Texas has its ballads, its tall tales and jokes; its official State song, "Texas, Our Texas"; and almost its own national anthem, "The Eyes of Texas," and its own banner, the Lone Star flag.

Worth - El Paso. Total cost of new passenger cars purchased to date for the modern EAGLE trains amounts to $4,122,000.

Orders have also been placed during the past several days with the Electro - Motive Division, General Motors Corporation, for three additional 4,000 H. P. Says China Must Rid Country Of Jap Teachings

KUNMING (UP) — Postwar education in China must stamp out the teachings of the past eight years in occupied zones and the students who were educated in puppet and Japanese - controlled schools must be re-educated, Sao Tang Pao said in an editorial. Chinese racial retrogression which culminated in the invasion by Japan eight years ago, was in part due to neglect of the country's education. From now on, the editorial said, education must go hand in hand with rehabilitation and industrialization. Students in universities which moved from the war zones should be allocated to different reoccupied areas as a basis for education in these areas, the editorial added.

 A Golden Era

CINCINNATI (UP)—A golden era of prosperity is coming to America, it was predicted here by former Ohio Gov. Myers Y. Cooper. "America," he said, "is faced with an era of prosperity unequalled in its history. "Hard times will have to be manufactured if we do have them—and it is not beyond the realm of possibility that such an unfortunate situation might arise," he said.

Cooper said that business and labor "have both come of age and both should be responsible for their acts in the public interest."

Warm Springs Expects Influx Of Pilgrims

WARM SPRINGS, Ga. (UP)—The Little White House here, where the late President Roosevelt died, may become a national shrine—taking its place with Mount Vernon and Thomas Jefferson's Monticello.

Mayor Frank W. Allcorn of Warm Springs, who has given no official information about such plans, said recently that the town and its famed infantile paralysis foundation has plans for changing the physical aspect of the entire city area. This, he said, will be in keeping with the fact that even now the Little White House has become a visiting place for pilgrims.

It has been reported that when President Truman makes his scheduled trip through the South in November, he will accept the so-called second home of the former President as government property.

Thus far plans concerning such action have included an architectural study of the house, its grounds and the surrounding land. Expensive landscaping for Warm Springs has been authorized.

Mayor Allcorn said that in 1940 a total of 249,000 people registered as visitors at the Little White House. Now, he added, it is expected that many more than that will come here each year.

"The Little White House," said Allcorn, "will forever be enshrined in man's memory. The death of President Roosevelt immortalized Warm Springs and we here are appreciative of the fact that once travel begins to open up, thousands of people from all over the world will come here to pay their respects to the memory of President Roosevelt."

Tells Horror Story Of Jap Mistreatment

HOUSTON, Tex. (UP)—More evidence of Jap cruelty to American prisoners is the cutting they did on the legs of Yeoman Darwin F. Kidd of Houston with no use of anesthesia or any disinfectants.

Captured on Corregidor, Kidd was suffering from beriberi, which caused the nerves in his legs to pain him intensely. A Japanese doctor, infamously known as the "Mad Butcher" by the prisoners, had the sailor dragged to the operating room against the protest of a British doctor, also a prisoner.

Kidd was lashed to the operating table and the "Mad Butcher" went to work.

"The pain was so intense that I broke my bonds, but I was beaten into insensibility, trussed up again and the horror continued," he said.

"I was conscious during most of the three hour long ordeal. When the torture became to great the Japs slugged me about the head and face until I again lost consciousness for a few minutes," he added.

Infection set in after the operation. While his legs were healing,

"Hospitalization" consisted of laying on an almost-bare, vermin-infested floor.

Able to walk slowly, Kidd will be operated on again soon.

Navy doctors will attempt to undo the savage work of the Jap doctor.

NEWSPAPER PRAISES SINO-SOVIET TREATY

KUNMING (UP)—The Sino-Soviet Treaty may be considered the most brilliant diplomatic achievement since the equality treaties with the United States and Britain, Sago Tang Pao said in an editorial recently. For while the latter treaties absolved China from its shame, the Sino-Soviet Treaty laid the foundation for permanent friendship and collaboration between the two great powers of continental Asia, the paper said.
