VOLUME XXVIII RANGER, TEXAS, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1946 PRICE FIVE CENTS No. 68

Well...
I Dunno,
But...

August did a little better than July as to rain, but it occurs to us that the two months stretch is one of the driest in recent years. We don't have a record of the years past, but only 1.55 inches of rain fell in the two months and at the same time the temperatures were better than 100 degrees for 25 of the 62 days with 22 of the remaining 37 days with maximum temperatures 95 or better.

Marie Green, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Green, has decided to follow in the footsteps of her father and has gone to San Antonio to enter the Texas Chiropractic College.

She is a graduate of Ranger High School and Ranger Junior College and has had one and a half years in Abilene Christian College. While at ACC she majored in science and was a member of the Pre-Med Club and Dramatic Club. She was accompanied to San Antonio by her father.

Heard of some out-of-town people marveling at the way Rangers put over the recent rodeo and that they wished their hometown could cooperate that way.

A will to do and cooperation can put over most anything and those behind the two events mentioned had both. We still hear people saying that Ranger's rodeo was the best they've ever seen and that the rodeo plant is something of which we can justly be proud.

And don't ever think that those Jaycees are trying to let their plant stand idle. James King is busy now trying to get up some matched rodeo events and is lining up some of the most outstanding performers for the shows.

He is not ready to make definite announcements yet, but the shows are in the making and further announcements will be forthcoming.

We can't be positive of who has stirred up who in Europe and at the Peace Conference, but we do wish they'd stop the meddling around and make some definite agreements.

We still don't think Russia wants a fight but a good spanking might make them realize that they're not going to force their ways of life on the rest of the world.

Heard someone saying yesterday that indications are that Ranger Junior College will have something of a record enrollment this year, what with all of the veterans taking advantage of their educational opportunities.

It's sure a safe bet that never before in the history of this country has college and university enrollments been as high as they are now. And it's good to see the veterans taking advantage of the opportunity offered them by Uncle Sam.

Too, most college and universities are reporting that veterans generally are getting the most out of their courses and are putting other students to shame as to grades.

Mary Ann Metcalf, who is directing the Ranger school band this year, reports that interest in the band is high and that a number of senior students have enrolled in the organization.

We're sure glad the band is back because there's nothing that adds more to the spirit of a football game than a good pep band.

There're many other occasions when a band is essential for the success of events and a good example of the latter was the rodeo parade last month when bands had to be imported for the occasion.

And Mary Ann is just the gal to whip up a good band and in record time.

Good luck, Mam!

Two Killed In Race Crash

The race cars of George Robson, of Los Angeles, Cal., winner of the 50-mile Indianapolis Speedway race, and George Barringer, of San Antonio, Texas, lie on an Atlanta, Georgia race track after an eight car crash which cost the lives of these two veteran racers. Barringer was driving No. 7 in the foreground and Robson's overtuned car can be seen in the rear. (NEA Telephoto).

Indemnity Would Close Plane Case

CRAWLEY TO HANDLE GM RELATIONS

General Motors, Detroit, Michigan, announced today that Trice Crawley local Pontiac dealer in Ranger has been appointed to serve for the coming year as GM Community Relations Chairman for Ranger and the vicinity. He succeeds T. J. Anderson, Chevrolet dealer, who held the Chairmanship during the past year.

The Chairmanship carries a Community service responsibility under auspices of GM's Department of Public Relations, which makes available to the public a variety of interesting and educational materials in the form of motion pictures, booklets and presentations.

General Motors also is the sponsor of the National 4-H Club Farm Safety Contest and Crawley will be glad to cooperate with the local 4-H Clubs which have members participating in that contest.

As GM's Community Relations Chairman, Crawley who is well known locally for his active participation in the Junior Chamber of Commerce also will be in a position to cooperate with Club groups, the schools, or any other local organizations which may find the General Motors material of interest for use in the development of programs.

Last Rites For Mr. S. C. Mahoney Held Wednesday

Funeral services for S. C. Mahoney were conducted at the Morris Funeral Chapel Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Rev. Jasper C. Masserese and Rev. David C. Ham in charge of the services. Interment was in the Longview cemetery.

Mr. Mahoney died about noon Tuesday of injuries received when pipe he was helping to unload at the J. E. Matthews Pipe yard rolled off the truck, striking the deceased. He had resided in Ranger for the past 19 years and was a member of the Baptist church. He was born March 27, 1866.

Survivors are his wife of Ranger, three sons, Carl Mahoney of Ft. Worth, Royce Mahoney of Detroit, R. C. Mahoney of Nacogdoches; three daughters, M. E. Grace Short of Dublin, Mrs. Frank Fox of Monroe, La., and Mrs. C. H. McGinnis of Plainview; a son of the following brothers and sisters, Gary Mahoney, Mrs. Ben Strosche of Ft. Worth, Mrs. Gale Greenleaf of Austin, Mrs. S. T. Manning of Waco and Mrs. Irene Stokseton of Kermitt.

Palbearers were Bessie Williamson, Edward Williamson, Bruce Harris, Bill Brittain, Monroe Blackwell and Dick Blackwell.

Representatives To State 4-H Round-Up Return

George McIles of Carbon and W. T. Eaton of Ranger, the two boys who represented the boys 4-H Clubs of Eastland County in the State 4-H Round-Up at Texas A&M College, returned home Friday evening, reporting a very interesting, enjoyable and educational trip, states N. R. Watkins, Asst. County Agricultural Agent.

While at A&M these boys had fun, fellowship and educational tours and discussions, for three days, with boys and girls from all other counties in Texas. All the boys and girls who attended the Round-Up are outstanding club members in 4-H Club work in their respective counties.

George McIles has done outstanding work with dairy cattle, hog gardens and corn. W. T. Eaton has done likewise with dairy cattle, hogs and small grain.

J. M. Cooper, County Agric. Agent and N. R. Watkins, Asst. County Agric. Agent, accompanied the 4-H Club boys on this trip and while at A&M attended a state conference for County Agric. Agents.

DAMAGE COSTS BILL WILL BE PRESENTED IN NEAR FUTURE

WASHINGTON (UP)—Acting Secretary of State William Clayton said today the case closed if Yugoslavia pays compensation for the property damaged and five lives lost when Yugoslav fighters shot down two U. S. Army transports.

By United Press
Moscow Radio today linked the Canadian visit of Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery with Canadian military moves in the Arctic and preparations "for the next war."

In his first press conference acting secretary Clayton said the indemnity bill would be presented to Yugoslavia in the near future. He expressed hope that it could be settled amicably and that it would not be necessary to call in any third party to settle it.

Clayton said the 3,000 word note given Yugoslavia last night closed the incident except for the indemnity question.

WASHINGTON (UP)—Secretary of State James F. Byrnes telephoned President Truman from Paris again today, keeping him abreast of developments at the Peace Conference.

He noted that Marshal Tito had expressed regret over the shooting down of the American planes on Aug. 9 and Aug. 19, and had unequivocally committed his government not to fire on any other foreign planes even if they pass over Yugoslavia without prior clearance.

He said it would be necessary to confer with the Army before the bill is submitted. He did not know how it would be worked out.

Says Veterans Get Most of New Homes Built Now

WASHINGTON (UP)—Housing expeditor Wilson W. Wyatt reported today that former service men actually are getting between 85 and 95 per cent of veterans' homes built so far, but warned that the housing shortage will get worse instead of better this winter.

There have been reports recently that discharged servicemen were not getting all the housing supposedly being built for veterans.

But Wyatt told a news conference that a recent check showed the veterans were not being favored out of homes. What is more, he added, they are getting good homes. A preliminary survey by the federal housing administration showed that only a small fraction of GI homes are jerry-built.

Government Moves To Avert Strike

WASHINGTON (UP)—The government, faced with threat of a nationwide shipping strike within 24 hours, sped a decision today on union demands for reversal of the wage decision which provoked the scheduled walkout.

4-H Judging team Preparing For Contests at Waco

The Eastland County 4-H Club dairy judging team composed of W. T. Eaton, Frank and George Robinson of Ranger with Puddy Cravens of Eastland as alternate is practicing in preparation for entering the State Junior Dairy Judging contests to be held in Waco, Texas, on September 6, 1946, reports N. R. Watkins, Asst. County Agric. Agent.

In these contests, the team will judge six classes of Jersey cattle and will give both oral and written reasons for some of their placings. Also, they will be competing with teams from all over Texas.

Talkies Once Flop In Their Birthplace

SCHENECTADY, N.Y. (UP)—People in Schenectady like to go to the movies as well as anybody—now that the idea has caught on.

But when they had their first chance at talking pictures 19 years ago, they didn't hold much with the new-fangled idea of having pictures talk and move at the same time.

Twenty years ago this month Charles A. Hoxie of this city recorded a sound track on motion picture film.

A year later, when the first sound film was shown at a newspaper preview here, it excited so little enthusiasm that the whole matter was dropped for several months.

American-Style Housing Gets Japs Off Floor

WASHINGTON (UP)—Japanese contractors who work on an army dependent settlement near Yokohama have predicted the Japanese will abandon their present type house in favor of the American style, the war department civil affairs division reports.

The contractors predicted the Japanese would adopt American style pre-fabricated houses. The Japanese of the future will want modern bathrooms, hardwood floors instead of tatami mat, and chairs, and will abandon the traditional custom of squatting on the floor, the contractors predicted.

Says Limburger Cheese Rests In Cornerstone

DENVER, Col. (UP)—There is a pound of limburger cheese in the redstone heart of Denver's old city cornerstone.

That's the contention of some Denverites, who plan to prove it when the aged building is razed shortly.

Mrs. Matilda Smith, descendant of one of the city fathers, says her grandfather was chosen to write the official documents which were put inside the cheese when the building was dedicated in 1881.

Besides the cheese and her grandfather's handwriting, M. R. Smith says some gold or silver coins, the Police Gazette and a copy of a local paper were placed in the cornerstone.

Parties Name Dewey, Mead For Governor's Race

NEW YORK (UP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, titular head of the Republican party, and Sen. James M. Mead, ardent new dealer, were chosen by acclamation at state conventions today to head their party tickets in the November election for governor of New York state.

Predicts More Sugar By March

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Commerce Department said today there was a good chance that Americans will get a more generous helping of sugar after next March.

The Cuban sugarcrop becomes available then, and it is expected to be 525,000 tons greater than the past years crop.

ATTORNEYS ANGERED

TOKYO (UP)—American attorneys for 27 leading Japanese war criminals suspects were angered today at the war department for revealing to the prosecution their plans for defending the Pearl Harbor attack.

N. Y. FOOD DWINDLES

NEW YORK (UP)—Food supplies in the metropolitan area dwindled rapidly today despite Mayor William O'Dwyer's assurances to the public that the four day old trucking strike would not cause a famine.

Registration For Two Student Groups Thursday

It was announced today that registration for the elementary schools of Ranger will take place Thursday with registration beginning at 9:00 a. m.

It was also announced that registration of veterans who desire to enroll in Ranger Junior College may do so Thursday, September 5 at the college building.

Charges Fields In Contempt Of Committee

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UP)—Rep. Rager C. Slaughter, D. Mo., chairman of the House Surplus Property Committee, said today that he had asked that Benjamin F. Fields be cited for contempt of the committee because of his testimony concerning the division of profits on a screen wire deal.

SEAMEN QUITTING

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Maritime Commission and shipping owners today reported that members of AFL Seamen's Union are already refusing to man vessels on all coasts in preparation for tomorrow's strike deadline.

Shields should be kept over revolving power take-off shafts on farm machinery. Many accidents occur when machines are left unprotected.

COSMIC RAY DATA SOUGHT ON HIGH ALASKAN PEAK

JUNEAU, Alaska (UP)—Mount St. Elias, third highest peak in the North American continent, has been challenged by eight seekers of cosmic ray information, sponsored by the Harvard Mountaineering Club and the American Alpine Club.

Leader of the group is Maynard M. Miller, Seattle, who has made two previous trips to Alaska, and who climbed with Bradford Washburn in the Fairweather Range in 1940.

The expedition is conducting confidential studies for the Army Air Forces and the Quartermaster Corps in conjunction with the Harvard Fatigue Laboratory, the U. S. Geological Survey and the American Geographic Society.

Planes of the army's Tenth Rescue Squadron, co-operating in the climbing research, have dropped advance supplies at 10 successive base camps to the head of the Tyndal Glacier.

The foot party carries much scientific equipment, using skis and sleds, which do not accompany the party beyond 4,000 feet. This level is the actual base of the mountain, and is about 25 miles inland.

Only woman of the group is Mrs. A. J. Kauffman, Washington, D. C. Other include Mr. Kauffman, William Latady, Cambridge, Mass.; William Putnam, president of the Harvard Club, Springfield, Mass. D. and K. Molenaar, I. O. S. Angeles and an army observer-merit officer, Lt. Ben Ferris.

The Molenaars are both former Mount Rainier, Wash., guides and with Miller recently made a conditioning ascent of Rainier, the first since the war.

Films and cosmic ray observations are for the Bartol Research Foundation of Philadelphia.

Ranger Man Enters Air Corps For Three Years

Army Recruiter Staff Sgt. Montgomery of the local recruiting office today announced the acceptance of George E. Whitehead, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Whitehead of 710 5th Street, Ranger, for a three year enlistment in the Army Air Corps.

Whitehead has been engaged in radar maintenance work for the Army at Kelly Field, Texas and plans on continuing this type of work in the Air Force.

Investigation Of Election Is Asked

WASHINGTON (UP)—Chairman J. Percy Priest, D., Tenn., revealed today that the House campaign expenditures committee has been asked to investigate the Missouri Democratic primary campaign in which Rep. Roger C. Slaughter was defeated with the personal opposition of President Truman.

Long Way Fom Home

Minden, La., police are investigating why this little boy who says his name is Gregg Gene Giddens, 5, was found in Minden in the company of two Negro women and four Negro men. Their story, according to police, is that the child's mother in Los Angeles is paying one of the women $200 a month to care for the child. (NEA Photo).

Sportsman Club To Have Meeting Thursday Night

It was announced today that a meeting of the Sportsman Club will be held at the Chamber of Commerce office Thursday night at 8:00 o'clock.

H. C. Henderson, president, has urged that every member be present as important matters will be brought before the group.

PLEASE THE AUDIENCE

Up to now the Paris peace conference has been neither very hopeful nor very edifying. There are rebukes and charges of insult among the big powers.

We read a lit about what this one or that one, victor and vanquished alike, will or won't do.

These delegates have an audience to please. They may be representatives of a political party hopeful of retaining power, or of a government which has a precarious popular backing.

This technique resembles that of union or company officers who, in negotiating a new contract, start out with impossible demands or implausible objections.

The real work of the Paris representatives, as of the collective bargainers and, in many instances, of the members of Congress, will be done behind closed doors.

If it were really known how a nation's representative sometimes arrives at a settlement of his country's demands, there might be serious political repercussions back home.

This is not to say that the Paris conference doesn't have many critical decisions to make and many fateful crises to avoid.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

BY PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent

Edson

WASHINGTON, D. C.—(NEA)—Department of Agriculture predictions of bumper wheat and corn crops, with another bad crop of cotton, again focus interest on the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation program.

Winter wheat wasn't included because Congress didn't pass the necessary laws before planting time.

Officials of the FCIC say people shouldn't take too dim a view of this situation. When crop insurance was first authorized in 1938, it was admitted that 8 1/2 years might be required to find a formula.

NOBODY expects government crop insurance to show a profit. But if this thing worked right, it should pile up reserves in two bumper years to offset losses in years of great drought, hail, wind, flood, freeze, or insect hordes.

It doesn't work right. Nobody has found the right formula. When the government went into the business in 1938, it was decided to insure on the bushel-yield per acre basis.

SAY the crop is cotton and the farmer's yield is 1000 pounds below his average. If he has one-half coverage, the farmer collects a certificate for 500 pounds of cotton as his indemnity.

Federal crop insurance was dropped after 1943. But it was reinstated in 1945 on wheat, cotton, and flax, with authority for the experimental coverage of corn and tobacco.

For the 1947 crop year, with winter wheat in the program, about 500,000 farmers have taken out crop insurance. Considering that the U. S. has six million farms, this isn't many.

SPORTS

BY HARRY GRAYSON NEA Sports Editor

SOMEONE asked Joe Cronin what change there was in Ted Williams. "Who wants to change him?" roared the manager of the Red Sox.

Williams is not so certain he is benefited by a short right field wall, however, for Fenway Park is the toughest for him and he has manufactured most of his 31 home runs there.

Williams is writing pieces appearing on the first page of a daily in baseball-nuts Boston, a sure sign that he has attained the eminence to which his faultless swing and electrifying power are so richly entitled.

At home or in a hotel room, Williams is reminded of the playing professional golfer everlastingly simulating swinging a club or putting. While we talked with him he took his matchless stance and cuts with a tightly wrapped newspaper as a bat.

While the Soxos as a group don't particularly care about the Brooklyn front office and management, and would prefer to tackle the Cardinals or Cubs in the World Series, Williams would happily settle for the Dodgers.

Timber, which is the Kid's newest of many nicknames, points out that there would be no day out in a repetition of the series of 30 years ago. There would be the short hop between baggiegrounds, etc. He has never seen Ebbets Field, but "it must be a lovely place," the latter, of course, laughs the matured, mellowed Williams, who says he will be 28 this month, although the records show he was born Oct. 30, 1918.

He recalls his wanting to be a fireman in 1940, when he was the finest young hitter in baseball. Another change in Williams is that he has picked up 14 pounds, transforming him from a larruping light-heavyweight to a pounding heavyweight with 192 solid pounds spread over his towering six-foot three-inch frame.

The amiable gentleman with the Mexican sombrero is none other than Jack Haley, currently starring with Helen Walker, Rudy Vallee, Ozzie Nelson and Philip Reed in Paramount's Pine Thomas musical comedy, "People Are Funny," now entertaining fans at the Tower Theatre.

He said he was heavy with "bandit money," and boasted how he had "taken" a series of outlying taverns. A customer slipped into a phone booth and called police.

"Oh, I mean one-armed bandits," White told the officers blandly. "I've been playing slot machines, and hit nickel, dime and quarter jackpots."

Learns To Talk After 19 Years

Alice Henley, 19, of Beaumont, Texas, greets her sweetheart, Roman Bruce, of China, Texas, at the Parker Foundation for Speech Correction and Re-education in Dallas, Texas where Alice recently learned to talk for the first time in her life. To regain the use of her vocal chords which had been impaired by an operation after Alice had contracted diphtheria while still a baby, two major operations and several minor ones were performed by Dr. Claude C. Cody of Houston, Texas. Expenses for the operations and the training at Parker Foundation were paid by John B. Goodhue, Beaumont oil man, who had observed Miss Henley working at his son's laundry there. (NEA Photo).

In the first experiment of its kind anywhere in the world, the Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph Co. has employed both the waves and direct telephone wires to link eight distant ranch homes into a phone switchboard. And it isn't very different from the set-up "Uncle Ab" used to have on his farm—anyone can listen in by picking up the receiver.

The families' radio-telephone circuit—a Bell System device to extend telephone service to families living in remote, sparsely settled areas—was directed into Cheyenne Wells' regular phone exchange. From 10 to 20 miles from telephone and power lines, the families, nonetheless, may telephone east to New York, west to San Francisco or any place else in the world. Here's how it works: power to operate the radio-telephone is obtained from their home electric plants.

Wind power with a gasoline engine standby is used by three of the ranches to keep their batteries charged, and a fourth ranch uses gasoline power altogether for this purpose. To make a call, the subscriber moves a switch-key, causing a shortwave radio impulse to reach the operator. From that point on, the service continues in the usual manner. Rates charged the radio-telephone users are identical with those charged subscribers to the Bell System's usual service. Four of the ranches were connected by direct radio to Cheyenne Wells, the other four by stringing wire lines (less than 3 miles in length) from one of the nearby ranches having radio-telephone equipment. By means of this hook-up, the telephones were formed into an eight-station "party line." Equipment at each of the four ranches includes a receiver, a transmitter, a telephone and two antennas. The transmitters, of ten watts voltage each, and the receivers are enclosed in steel cabinets out of sight. The antennas were mounted on poles at each of the ranch buildings.

In explaining the selection of Cheyenne Wells for its radio-telephone experiment, the M. S. T. & T. said the topography—typical flat ranch country—was especially suited for the tests. However, they pointed out, service is not necessarily limited to this area. Results of the experiment will determine what redesigning is necessary in the Bell System equipment, and how soon the radio-telephone may be extended to every "village, hamlet and farm."

Chicken Trouble in Hood

It Pays To Be On The Safe Side--

... by having your title abstracted at regular intervals. All those title and birth titles now that title neglect is the landowner's first enemy. Like keeping physically fit, or making regular visits to the dentist, the title, too, needs constant attention. By having the title regularly abstracted, the abstractor in most cases can add a strong and perfect chain. Don't wait until you are ready to sell or get a loan, but be on the safe side—have your title abstracted somewhat in advance of an anticipated need.

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

Watch for a surprise in our popular comic strip. Things go smoothly for a while at Shady Side High — then "comes the revolution." With Freckles, Lord and all the gang back at their studies it's readin' and writin and riotous times in FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS EVERY DAY IN Ranger Daily Times

The post now comprises 106,000 acres, and has earned its rank of "third largest city" by virtue of its complete facilities.

It boasts of three hospitals with a capacity of nearly 2,000 various housing besides barracks—1,000 family units, housing projects built on the post, four g u e s t houses, and two dormitories for single women employees; 17 chapels a main post exchange, 27 sub-P-X's and a private school for children of post personnel.

On the recreational side, it has nine movies, four service clubs, 5 swimming pools, a baseball field with covered stands for 5,000, a field house, several bowling alleys and an 18-hole golf course.

Usually, the fame of Fort Knox is attributed to the gold depository, which was brought to the post in 1937, when a $7000,000 reservoir was built to house it. Eighty per cent of the world's gold supply was kept in the building, and in addition it contained the

More money was allotted for improving the camp in 1919, but in 1921 hard times hit and the army was reduced. In 1931, the post was investigated again to determine its suitability for the training of a mechanized cavalry brigade. In January, 1932, t h e name of the post was changed from camp to fort, and the base named for Gen. Henry Knox, chief of artillery under George Washington and the first U. S. Secretary of war, took its place with

Wed On Armistice Day, Fight Was On

CHICAGO (UP) — Armistice Day, 1944, was no day of peace for Mrs. Eleanor Pridie, 25, she testi-

PORTLAND CALLS FOR PIED PIPER AS RATS INVADE CITY

PORTLAND, Me. (UP) — The largest city in Maine is becoming a modern Hanoi as it wages a losing war against an army of vermin rats which has swept in from Portland's waterfront. The six outnumber the city's population by about 25 per cent, according to health department officials. In an interview, Portland's chief restaurant inspector, Wm. Bunting, estimated there were more than 100,000 rats in this city of 6,000 persons and that the horde was increasing at a "terrifying" rate.

Bunting said he had fought the advance of the rats for five years. "I'm losing the fight," he added.

Ranger Couple's Son Wed In Strawn

In an informal ceremony Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Strawn Methodist church in Strawn, the wedding of the Ranger couple's son, Lee King, to Miss Marie King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Galley of Strawn, took place. The bride and groom were accompanied by Mr. J. B. Waddington, Jr. of Abilene, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Waddington and nephew of Mrs. Lotie Davenport all of Ranger.

The Rev. Glen Purvis, pastor, read the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with fern, greenery and madonna lilies. Music was given by Mrs. J. D. Christian, pianist, who played Because I Love You Truly and the wedding march from Lehengtin.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore a grey suit with halo hat and matching accessories. She wore an orchid shoulder corsage. She was attended by Mrs. W. A. Howard of Dallas, her cousin, who wore a black suit with pink accessories and shoulder corsage of pink carnations.

The groom was attended by Mr. Pat Hinkson as best man and ushers were Bubby Jones, cousin of the bride, and Jack Bob Waddington, brother of the groom.

Both the bride and groom attended Strawn High School and the groom was attending the University of Texas when he enlisted in the Air Corps. He became a pilot in October 1942 and was placed on inactive status in January 1946 with the rank of captain after spending four years overseas and in the States. He is now associated with Waddington's Apparel Shop in Abilene where the couple will make their home.

Among the out of town guests for the wedding were Messers, and Mrs. M. J. Swindon, R. H. Stewart, Fredrick Short, all of Fort Worth; Fred N. Thomas, of Abilene; Joe N. Dennis and Jo Ann of Merkel; Louie Thomas and Leslie of DeWitt; Mrs. A. W. Howard of Dallas; Mr. Watson Francis of Mineral Wells; Mrs. I. D. Carlisle of Kennett; Mrs. F. H. Stewart of Mingo; Mr. A. Eddie Bob Miller of Dallas; Miss Eddie Hill of Mineral Wells; Mrs. J. D. Christian of Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Clem, all of Ranger.

Records Show Indians Bought Land from Whites

WATERFORD, N. Y. (UP)—Many lines have been written about the sale of land by the Indians, including the $24 bargain for Manhattan Island.

Just recently, however, the first known incident where land was purchased from white settlers by Indians was uncovered by the Rev. Thomas Glassman of Fonda, N.Y.

Father Glassman returning from a trip to historical archives of London, Rome and Belgium, reported that a sale of land was made to the Schaghticoke tribe in 1861 near Waterford.

The purchase was made, records show, to secure a shelf of shale which jotted out of the Hudson River, offering a natural bridge for crossing. The Schaghticoke bought the bridge to shorten their trip to New England.

have returned from a week end visit in Waco. They were accompanied home by their son, Buddy Eubank, who had been visiting relatives there.
