9 Dunno, But .

Deer season in Texas opens day after tomorrow and the hunters are all but ready to jump in their cars and take off.

Inez Harrell has been busy for weeks trying to find the proper togs for her first deer hunting trip. She is to leave the last of the week for her uncle's ranch, ten , and a half miles southwest of Kerrville, where she will join a big party from Houston and Corpus Christi that will be guests at the ranch with the uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Vaughn, as

She will fly from Ft. Worth to Kerrville where she will be met and taken to the ranch.

Now, there at least, is one prospect for a venison roast. That is if Nezzie doesn't get the deer

Another party that's ready to take out for the chase is to be made up of M. L. King, Ray Neely, A. H. Powell, H. H. Vaughn, Dr. C. L. Jackson, James P. Mouris, Lewis Godwin and F. P. Kribbs.

The largest statue manufacturer in those days was Fumio Asakura, the acknowledged No. 1 sculptor. He claimed to be running a "school" but his place was more like a factory than an educational institution.

He had many "scholars" who worked more efficiently on a mass production principle than the employees of the munitions factories, according to pre-war visitors to his establishment.

Many of his bronze statues were far from artistic but were popular with the public because they bore the "Asakura" brand.

Some of Asakura's "works" were torn down during the Pacific War when Japan had to gather metal railings of bridges, mail

Judge Offers School, Not Fines To Cure Traffic Law Breakers

icipal Judge Edward C. Fisher, a believer in traffic education stead of "fine and forget," has ioneered an unusual method of dealing with violators.

When youngsters break traffic laws the magistrate gives them a choice of two punishments. One is the customary fine. The other is a juvenile traffic school held twice monthly on Saturday mornings. The teen-ages (18 and under) view a safety moving picture, hear a lecture by a city official and write a 4,000 word essay on "Why I won't do it again.

Two-thrids of the youths elect the second means of paying their debt, with a little prompting from parents, who also must attend the Saturday sessions. Fisher also gives each adult violator, except drunken and reckless drivers, the alternative of paying a fine or penance through voluntary license forfeiture, lecture attendance and essay writing.

Fisher is well known in safety circles. He recently completed a book, "People's Court," to be published next spring.

The judge believes too many traffic courts are a "joke," regarded by the public "as a course of amusement or a racket to get their money.' First offenders are a myth to

Fisher, "as drivers have broken the rules many times before being caught." To those who plead gnorance of traffic laws he says, "If that's an excuse, then ev-eryone should abstain carefully from learning them."

"I never lose sight of the fact that most traffic violations are the result of thoughtlessness, evil design," he said. "A firm friendly attitude works better than harsh denunciatio

- There is a world-wide shortage of animal fats and of vegetable oils. This shortage affects all of us. For instance, this year soapmakers have been able to obtain only one fifth of the imported oils they used in 1941-far less domestic
- unable to get the amount of fats and oils they need to make not only soaps, but also paints, textiles, tires, leather goods, floor coverings, electrical appliances, etc.
- In the face of these conditions, American soap manufacturers have done their utmost. They have turned all the fats and oils they have been able to obtain into soap just as quickly as possible.
- But for the help of American housewives, the shortage of soap would have been far more serious. Last year, more han one out of every nine packages of soap sold was made every organized business, large or small, there is a mass of preparation, work, skill, experience and expense before any thought can be given to profits from the finished product. For example, the cost of typing a 100-page abstract is a trifle compared to that of assembling, classifying and posting the records day after day in preparation for your next order. The abstract, therefore, can't be cheap like dirt, but always there is the element of safety and a saving in including it in every real estate transaction.
