PRICE FIVE CENTS No. 125

Party Pledged To British Foreign Policy

Well...
I Dunno,
But...

The United States Chamber of Commerce, after a careful investigation and research, has issued a booklet entitled The Infiltration of Communism.

That infiltration refers to this country and figures and facts quoted are astounding. References are cited to prove the facts and figures and the booklet leaves very little doubt as to the truthfulness of the statements.

It points out that the Comintern which Russia agreed sometime ago to disband, is in actuality still at work, all over the world, the United States included. The subtle methods used by the Communists in getting a foothold in any country or organization are carefully outlined and when considered carefully are alarming.

Many people, it is pointed out, are unaware that they are aiding the spread of Communism in this country when they allow their names to be used as patrons of various moves. It has been definitely established that many in fact most of these so called "moves", turn out to be affiliates of Communism.

It especially appeals to the business men of the country to make themselves alert to the infiltration of Communism into the economic and labor situation in this country and be prepared to avert that infiltration wherever it is encountered.

The pamphlet was sent us through the courtesy of the Cisco Chamber of Commerce, but the bulletin is available by requesting it from the United States Chamber of Commerce headquarters in Washington, D.C.

It goes far in detail in explaining the threat that Communism is to the American standards of economic, social and religious life, centralizing the economic system under despotic control, lowering the social standards of living and in most cases openly scorning, even persecuting and banning religion among its followers.

Free enterprise, religion and high standards of social life are the very foundations of this country and any weakening of anyone or all of them offers a challenge to the American people.

Most of us are not aware of adverse influences, we just don't do anything about it. Revolutionary ideas are necessary for progress, but we'd better beware of the source of such ideas and the nature of them. Any idea that would tend to uproot the tried and tested fundamentals of this country are more than revolutionary. They are dangerous.

Revolutionary ideas often find the most fertile resting places in the minds of young people. Young people who are sincerely searching for a satisfactory explanation of all about them. And it is pointed out in the bulletin mentioned, that Communism is subtly working its way into the minds of the students of this country.

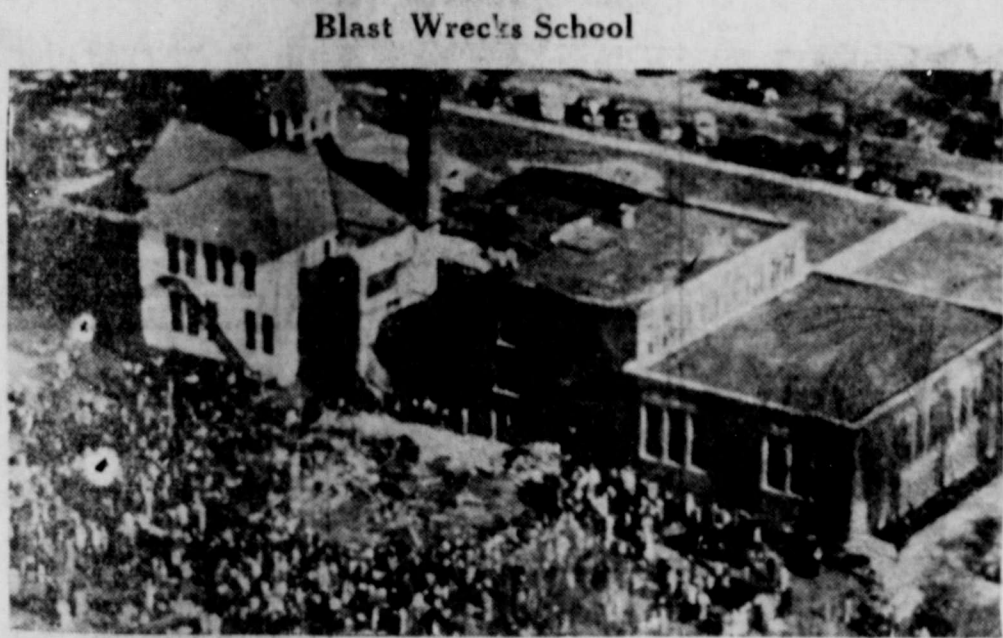

So doesn't it seem that our petty difficulties, imagined wrongs, strivings for selfish gains and all of the other pettinesses that tear apart rather than unite, are beside the point, when we consider the greater threats!

It looks like this is one year that we won't have a fight over when Thanksgiving Day shall be. Governor Stevenson has proclaimed November 28 as the day to give thanks in Texas and Ranger will observe that day.

The American people apparently have never been too sympathetic with such a change, indicating the tendency to hold on to traditions and that's one tradition with which they didn't want any tampering. The situation, after the first change, became paradoxical, turning a day of thanksgiving into one of disension and uncertainty.

So one thing that we can be thankful for this year, is that we're all agreed upon when Thanksgiving can be observed, and when to be thankful.

Incidentally, wonder what Communism would do to our holidays that are so closely associated with the history of this country and its (Continued on page eight)

Woman Heir To $50,000 Estate Being Hunted

CHICAGO, Ill. Nov. 14—The former Velda Fisher, 46, who is reported to have married a man named W. C. Stevens, when she was 19 or 20 years old, is being hunted throughout Texas to claim a $50,000 estate.

This was revealed here today when Walter C. Cox, probate generalist, 208, S. LaSalle St. Chicago Ill., took charge of the search. Mr. Cox specializes in tracing missing relatives to settle estates.

"The Velds Fisher for whom we are looking," Mr. Cox said, "was reportedly born in about 1900 and married Stevens in Texas shortly after the first World War.

"If Velda is dead, then we want to contact her husband or any children that may survive her. There is no clue as to where in Texas she was married to Stevens, or where in the state the couple settled, or may be now living."

Committee On Planting Program To Meet Friday

A meeting of members of the committee on the Ranger planting program which opens Friday and runs through December 11, will be held Friday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock at the home of the chairman, Mrs. J. Floyd Killingsworth.

SAYS DEMANDS ON 50TH LEGISLATURE BE GREAT

By virtue of the fact that the financial demands upon the 50th Legislature which convenes in January, will be the greatest in the history of the state, this legislature may become the most expensive in state history, L. E. Pearson of Ranger, present representative and representative-elect of the 107th District composed of Eastland and Callahan counties, told members of the Eastland Lions Club in a talk before that organization Tuesday at noon.

The legislature is about as unpredictable as Texas weather, but with the numerous measures that it now appears will be presented for consideration, the most of which will call for large appropriations, it appears that the 50th will be a spender, Pearson said.

Pearson listed as among those measures that possibly will come up for passage, or at least for consideration, and which will call for big appropriations, it passed: Aid for school teachers, increased aid for old folks, State buildings, farm-to-market roads, health program, pensions for state appointed employees (which was authorized by the constitutional amendment just voted) and a proposed constitutional amendment for a bond issue to provide $250,000,000 to $300,000,000 for World

NEW MEMORIAL TREES SITES ARE LOCATED

It was announced today that another set of locations for pecan trees at Memorial park has been made and those who have not selected their sites are urged to do so at once and have the holes dug for the planting December 11.

A number of those who have selected their sites have already had the holes dug and those are getting the seasoning before planting time. The holes are to be two feet wide and three feet deep.

It was stated today by Mrs. A. H. Powell, in-charge of the Gold Star mothers planting program, that a number of letters have been received from parents of men listed among Ranger war casualties, asking that arrangements be made for a tree to be planted in memory of their sons.

Among those making such arrangements are Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Montgomery now of Ft. Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Bow of McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Graham of Arkansas and Mr. and Mrs. McKinley of Kollen.

Mrs. Powell stated that this program for the Gold Star mothers has received more interest and enthusiasm than any other and that the cooperation has been splendid.

Other plans in connection with the program are progressing and will be announced at a later date.

It was also pointed out today that no tree except the pecan tree will be planted in the memorial program but that other trees and shrubs will be added to the park later.

War II veterans. Pearson also pointed out that the wards of the state are costing the state two and a half times more than they did two years ago, due to the boost in the cost of living items.

Where to get the money with which to pay these appropriations, should the Legislature vote them, is a problem, Pearson said. Industry cannot stand any additional taxes and in fact there seems to be nothing not already taxed unless it might be the air industry. This is a new industry, however, and those engaged in it claim that because it is new and to some extent experimental, it can not bear being taxed at this time, Pearson said.

Pearson also called attention to the question of the establishment of a law and medical university for colored folks, and of the need for additional housing for the various state schools. The state is paying, at this time, some $50,000,000 per year for rented quarters in Austin in which to house state departments, he said.

Representative Pearson was introduced by Lion H. J. Tanner who had charge of the program for the day.

Dr. Boswell Speaks At Club Meet Wednesday

Dr. G. C. Boswell was speaker at the Rotary Club Wednesday when the regular meeting of that group was held at noon in the Elue Room of the Gholson Hotel.

Dr. Boswell spoke on education emphasizing the current needs of the schools of the state. The classification talk was in keeping with National Education week which is being observed this week.

Rev. Dick O'Bryan of Big Spring was a visitor at the luncheon and gave a brief talk. Morris Knight of Albuquerque, formerly of Ranger was also a visitor at the meeting.

At the next meeting Stanley McAnelly will be in charge of the program.

OPA Expresses Willingness To Discuss Rents

WASHINGTON — For the first time in four and a half years, OPA expressed willingness today to consider an across-the-board increase in rent ceilings.

OPA promised full consideration of a request by its rent industry advisory committee for a general 15 per cent boost in rents throughout the country. It refused, however, to say whether or when it might accept the proposal.

President Truman said last Saturday that further rent adjustments may be necessary but whether they will be general or individual remains to be seen.

Expect July 1 Date For Set Back Taxes

WASHINGTON — Republican tax experts believed today the new GOP-controlled Congress would set July 1 for sharp reductions in the stiff wartime excise taxes on such things as jewelry, telephone service, luggage, liquor and travel fare.

Present plans don't call for outright elimination of excise levies but for a cutback to prewar levels. In some cases, that would mean a 75 per cent reduction from present rates.

County Court Jury Acquits Burkett In Assault Case

A jury in Judge P. L. Crossley's County court Wednesday acquitted Omar Burkett, charged with assault. The case grew out of a fight between Burkett's son, Robert and Quincy Lee, on Election night, August 24. The jury was out only a few minutes before bringing in the verdict of "not guilty."

WARNS ABOUT UN CONTROLS OVER TRADE

CHICAGO — Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., chairman of the board of General Motors, says that a business "recession" to adjust prices and prices apparently cannot be avoided.

Sloan told the American Petroleum Institute's annual meeting last night that "costs and hence selling prices in many lines of production have advanced to a point where they are moving out of reach of important sectors of their potential markets."

In another speech before the institute J. Howard Paw, Philadelphia, president of the Sun Oil Company, charged today that proposals offered under the auspices of the United Nations organization "may become a straitjacket of government control" for both domestic and international trade.

OTTERVILLE, Ill. (UP) — Oscar Dabbs, Otterville, and Bert Dabbs, Granton, can't decide whether they are first cousins, second cousins, stepbrothers or all three.

Their mothers were sisters, making Oscar and Bert first cousins.

Their fathers were first cousins. That should make the two Dabbses second cousins.

After Oscar's father and Bert's mother died, Bert's father married Oscar's mother. That, they believe, makes them stepbrothers.

Just to increase the confusion, Oscar points out that his stepfather is his uncle and Bert's stepmother is Bert's aunt.

English Youths Seek Pen Pals In United States

PLYMOUTH, Ind. (UP) — Probably in a move to reverse the current trend of British girls writing to ex-GI's, a group of "shipwright apprentices" in Plymouth, England, have asked for girl pen pals here.

In a letter addressed to "The Lord Mayor," Mayor J. Abner Bromm was asked by G. G. Swain, writing for the apprentices, for help in getting girls "about 18" to correspond with them.

"We are all shipwright apprentices in the Plymouth Dockyard, and there are approximately 30 of us wishing to correspond," the letter read.

Astronomer Cited In Contempt Case

WASHINGTON (UP) — Rep. John E. Rankin, D. Miss., announced today that Dr. Harlow Shapley, noted Harvard astronomer, had been cited for contempt after a stormy closed session of the House committee on un-American activities.

National Guard, CIO Difficulties Are Aired Today

AUSTIN, Tex. — A breach between Texas CIO groups and the State National Guard had been fanned into the open today by charges and counter-charges by heads of both organizations.

Morris Akin, executive secretary of the State Council of CIO, denied allegations last night that a "CIO organizer named McGee" had attempted to block formation of a guard unit at Texas City.

Lt. Gen. Fred L. Walker, state commander of the Texas National Guard, had charged that a paid CIO worker at Texas City had threatened to picket merchants if the city council and civic organizations persisted in efforts to organize a Texas Guard unit.

Veterans' Group Balks On Any More Parades

CHICAGO (UP) — A veterans' organization composed of ex-servicemen who are tired "of dressing up in uniform and marching in parades," has been formed in the suburb of Oak Park.

The 100 founders of the group said they do not want to be associated with any present national veteran group. They will concern themselves solely with local problems.

They have pledged themselves not to indulge in any military rituals or wear any uniforms.

FIGHT AGAINST BIG POWER USE OF VETO BEGUN

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y. — Australia kicked off the Little Nation fight to curb Big Power use of the veto today with an angry charge that the Big Five members of the United Nations Security Council had failed "to discharge trust which has been confined in them."

"What the exercise of the veto means is that great power unanimity has broken down," Australian delegate Paul Hasluck told the general assembly's political and security committee.

Hasluck claimed that his attack was directed against all the great powers, but he singled out Russia for most of his attack and detailed 10 instances where the veto had been used by the Soviet Union.

Youth Marriages Blamed on School Segregation

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UP) — Dr. Emma Layman, Atlanta, Ga., psychologist, thinks the high rate of teenage marriages in this city may be attributed in part to segregation of high school students.

Dr. Layman, here to conduct youth forums for the Y.W.C.A., said high school girls were poorly adjusted in their relations with boys because of the segregation of sexes. This is one of the few cities in the country which has segregation.

FORD LOSS $51,600,000

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (UP) — The Ford Motor Company lost $51,600,000 in the first nine months of 1946, Ernest R. Breech executive vice president and director of that giant automobile manufacturing corporation revealed today.

SITUATIONS IN STRIKES STILL ARE UNSETTLED

Two new acts of violence against non-strikers in the Hollywood motion picture strike were reported today, while at Washington the government clamped a mysterious secrecy on its moves to avert a threatened strike by California miners.

Meanwhile, negotiations continued at a fever pitch in an attempt to hasten final settlement of the 44-day west coast shipping tie-up. In a fourth important labor dispute, a top government mediator threatened to withdraw from attempts to settle the prolonged pilots' strike against Transcontinental & Western Air, Inc.

ARMY BEGINS TASK OF CUTTING DOWN PERSONNEL

WASHINGTON — The War Department today started its economy drive with a $8,000 cut in the strength of its domestic ground forces and began the task of whittling 78,200 from its civilian payroll.

The reductions were necessitated by President Truman's recent order cutting $1,000,000,000 from Army funds.

The Army will skeletonize the second armored division stationed at Camp Hood, Texas.

The total Army strength now is less than 1,500,000. It will be trimmed to 1,070,000 by next July 1.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, D. C.—(NEA)—Louis H. Bean is a quiet, bespectacled economist with a fine head of gray hair and matter who works in the Bureau of the Budget.

In 1938 he guessed that the Democratic majority in the House of Representatives would drop from 79 per cent to about 60 or 65 per cent. It turned out to be 63. In 1940 he said it looked like a 54 per cent Democratic House, and it turned out 55.

He didn't try a prediction in 1942, because he was working for the Board of Economic Warfare then and didn't have time. But in 1944 he guessed a 53 per cent Democratic majority for the House, and it turned out to be 53.8.

This should establish Mr. Bean as something of an authority. He goes about this business as a statistician would. He has studied election results since 1854, and he has come up with a couple of general observations:

- 1. The voters have never thrown out the party in power unless there was sizable unemployment and depression.
2. The smaller the total vote cast, the greater the Republican prospect for winning control of the House.

THIS year these two general rules are in conflict. There is no mass unemployment nor depression. The total vote cast will be small. Normally, the total vote in off-year elections is only about 20 per cent below the vote cast in years when a President is being elected.

The vote in 1944 was 45 million—six million short of the 51 million it might have been under normal conditions. The indicated vote for 1946 is from 34 to 37 million. If the vote were 20 per cent below the 51 million figure, it would be nearly 41 million.

"Normally," says Mr. Bean, "for this kind of a drop in vote, the Democratic percentage of the total vote cast falls off three points. For every point dropped, the Republicans pick up 10 seats in the House."

This rule won't apply for extreme changes, says Bean—only when the vote is close, divided around the 50-50 mark.

WHEN it comes to applying these principles to the 1946 election, the only figures on which to base a guess are from the last Gallup national poll. They show sentiment in the country divided only 43 per cent Democratic to 57 per cent Republican.

This indicated drop in Democratic sentiment from 53 per cent in 1944 to 43 per cent in 1946 is an 10-point change. If the rule of "10 seats for every percentage-point change" held good, this 10-point shift might mean a GOP gain of 100 seats. It doesn't mean that, Bean hedges to add.

But, basing an estimate on the Gallup percentages and an indicated total vote of only 35 million, Bean says it would mean a gain of about 50 seats for the Republicans, or nearly twice the 26 additional seats they need to win control of the House.

SPORTS

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Prime Carnera would like to fasten a toe-hold on at least one edition of the world heavyweight wrestling championship "just for fun." Everything the Ambling Alp has done since his circus days has been "just for fun."

But they laughed at the good-natured Carnera, and he would like to have one last laugh at their expense. He fully appreciates that it wouldn't hurt his bucks-office draw to become the first to gain the boxing and wrestling titles.

The most pronounced difficulty is putting the finger on one wrestling champion. The clowning crown is variously claimed by Frank Sexton, Babe Sharkey, Dave Lavin, Joe Savoldi, Dean Detton, Jim London, and Ali Baba, the little Kurd with the big mustache, among numerous others.

CARNERA, cutting a wide swath and pulling prohibition gates, is the shot in the arm that is bringing back to the antiques dodge the popularity it enjoyed when Jack Curley was the head mahout of the mastodons.

"I've got all my marbles," says Da Preem, meaning his intellect was not marred by his weird ring experiences. "I have just turned 40, which is an age when a skilled wrestler can well be in his prime. I did a little wrestling in my kid days and like it, always preferred it to boxing, as a matter of fact. Naturally, it's easier than boxing. You're on your own in boxing," he added, naively.

What Carnera means is that in his case he was on his own at least once or twice too frequently, but the Vast Venetian was a vastly better boxer than a lot of people imagine.

Carnera takes a philosophical view of his hectic ring fling and the Great American Sucker Tours which took place while he was being maneuvered into the championship. "I wish I knew then what I know now," he sighs, voicing the age-old longing of mankind. "Things woulda been a lot different. But I was only a big sap kid in a strange land."

Carnera, however, has no regrets. "I am making a lot of money," beams Ol' Satch. "$2000 a week—and I can keep it. Wrestling is a lot of fun, good clean sport and entertainment, and nobody gets hurt much."

THAT Carnera has better than a fair chance to garner the rascal's championship, or at least one version of it, is cautiously admitted by tub-thumper Al Mayer, one of the master strategists of the informal board of control which books exhibitions in all directions and sees that the trade is turned out into the night properly thrilled and awed by bulging biceps and whatnot.

"Carnera has all the attributes of a champion," asserts Mayer, and he proceeds to name them in the order of importance, starting with a tremendous following. "It wouldn't be difficult for Primo to earn $100,000 a year. As far as wrestling itself is concerned, Primo is big, strong, agile, knows the holds, possesses ring presence, and—er—has a fine sense of the dramatic."

"They claim Carnera put the boxing business on the blink. Now he has a chance to redeem wrestling. If he earns it, he will be given a shot at the title."

Lying, Fighting Liquor Taboo On This Island

SEATTLE (UP)—Edwin Butters, Coldwater, Mich., dealer in wild meats, returned from Nunivak Island, approximately 200 miles southwest of Nome, Alaska, to report that the natives there are among the most straightlaced people on earth. Butters was here awaiting arrival of the freighter Square Knot carrying 1,023 reindeer carcasses butchered the past summer by arrangement with the Department of Interior. The reindeer meat was to be shipped east to fill orders placed when the government authorized the summer kill some months ago.

Butters said the Nunivak Islanders do not lie or steal and they don't fight. It is a matter of honor not to quarrel. Tobacco and liquor are not permitted on the island. The residents attend the Protestant Church and the native children attend a school taught by a white couple.

Hubby Preferred Dog, So She Gets Divorce

DES MOINES, Ia. (UP)—Mrs. Irene Nova Smythe, 29, told District Judge C. Edwin Moore she wanted a divorce because her husband, Nate, slept with the dog and she ended up on the davenport.

"I don't mind the dog sleeping in the house, but I don't like having him sleep in my clean bed," she complained. "My husband prefers the dog to me, so I prefer not to live with him."

She said she wanted no alimony, just "my personal belongings, not including the dog." Mrs. Smythe got the divorce.

Back-Stage Behind the Curtains
 ... in every organized business, large or small, there is a mass of preparation, work, skill, experience and expense before any thought can be given to profits from the finished product. For example, the cost of typing a 100-page abstract is a trifle compared to that of assembling, classifying and posting the records, day after day in preparation for your next order. The abstract, therefore, can't be cheap like dirt, but always there is the element of safety and a saving in including it in every real estate transaction.

fine traditions. They wouldn't fit with Communist programs so would likely be banned and, we have proof that that's one thing the American people wouldn't like. So it just looks like Communism and the American way of life wouldn't mix very well.

DDT Helps Italians Wipe Out Malaria

ROME (UP)—Using UNRRA supplied D D T, insecticide, the Italian government has waged a winning campaign against malaria in the war-damaged coastal areas south of Rome.

Mosquitos, flies and other disease-bearing insects virtually have been eliminated in areas flooded by the retreating Germans barely two years after Italy began draining the land.

The campaign in this area was an experiment. Its success has caused Italian officials to organize anti-malaria controls all over the nation and to predict that malaria will be wiped out from the country within five years.

Before the war, the average American woman with a family spent about five hours a day in the kitchen.

SOIL CONVERSATION BY NEW METHODS HELD VITAL

ST. LOUIS (UP)—Engineering methods, including dams, are not the final answer to flood control and soil conservation, in the opinion of August F. Beilmann, manager of the Missouri Botanical Garden arboretum at nearby Gray Summit, Mo.

Experiments show, he said, that a biological method involving terracing and seeding is the solution. The problem is vital to national welfare, he added because "an appreciable drop in soil fertility will kill off a nation as surely as an atomic bomb."

Progress in physics and engineering "will stop within a generation" should the top soil be destroyed, Beilmann asserted.

Seeking a workable answer to the problem, Beilmann engaged in experiments in the Brush Creek watershed at Gray Summit. He worked with dams as well as natural conservation methods.

"Small headwater dams are doomed to failure" and an all-purpose dam is an impossibility, he reported in the Botanical Garden Bulletin. A flood-control dam must have a low water level, elimininating its usefulness for recreational purposes, in addition to which "sedimentation usually destroys the reservoir," he wrote.

Sedimentation destroyed two dams at Brush Creek, Beilmann reported, but "astonishing results" were produced by terracing, re-seeding and variations in crop routine, indicating that "conservation is in itself a successful flood-control method."

To School In Style

LINCOLN, R.I. (UP)—Eight junior high school students started school in style. Because there's no junior high school in Lincoln, officials of the nearby town of Limerock hired a taxicab to transport them to classes there.
