Dunno,

The broadcast of the Christmas cantata at the First Baptist Church was interrupted Sunday night in what at first appeared to be a mysterious interference.

Each time the system was turned on it produced, not music, but a loud voice speaking. It was finally determined that the system was picking up the short wave broadcast of James Smith. Never able to tune out the short wave broadcast, the church had to dispense with the broadcast of the Christmas music.

Though possibly esaily under-stood by radio intellectuals, it's still a mystery to the layman.

Two former Ranger families now living other places always get the Ranger Daily Times as a Christmas gift from Mr. and Mrs. A. J . Ratliff. They are Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Warren of Electra and and Mrs. I. N. Griffin of

It seems this year, too, that the Christmas card artists were particularly inspired because we've never seen a lovelier lot.

And there're so many from former Ranger residents, now living in other places.

. . . is good, sound advise well worth taking especially in those cases where heavy risks are involved. One of these risks is buying real estate without an abstract. Most buyers in these modern days don't take risks-they get an abstract. And if the seller is about to convince you that his title is good and you don't need an abstract, better play safe. The abstract, among other things, reveals the condition of the title and is always worth far more than it costs.

Resistance Of Buyers Hits Retailers

NEW YORK (UP) - Benjamin H .Namm, president of the National Retail Dry Goods Association, predicted today that "frantic indiscriminate" consumer buying probably will lend in 1947 a n c warned that inferior goods wil meet increasing resistance by the

He urged retailers to renew their cautious buying practices discarded during the war if they are to avoid "a glut of unsalable merchandise and serious inventory losses for both retailers and manfacturers , such as precipitated the 1921 crash."

While a retailer who restores his buying and selling policies to "sound, common sense basis" in 1947 "may well sacrifice some of his potential sales and profits," such action "will be a small price to pay for insurance against disastrous inventory losses and a damaging setback to the country' business," according to Namm, chairman of the Namm Store, Brooklyn, N.Y.

"If retailers as a whole follow sound buying policies during the coming year,' 'he continued, 'their influence will be felt throughout our entire economy. They can play a major role in preventing a repitition of a boom and bust such as followed the last war."
