City Announces Long Range Airport Plans

Worst Blizzard in Years For England

German prisoners of war working in bitter cold at Dunford Bridge, Yorkshire, England, clear the railroad tracks of snow after blizzards isolated this and other villages in the worst winter England has had for years. (NEA Telephoto).

Well . . . I Dunno, But . . .

It does look to us like Europe could get together just like Texas and the rest of the 48 states did and form some kind of union in which they could fight out their own battles just like the 48 United States do.

Of course, the countries would have to give up some of their privileges, but then so did we. They perhaps aren't as closely kin as the people of the states, but after all we have just about every nationality in the world represented in our country and some of 'em occasionally try to stir up something. But then that's when they get squelched. We may get mad at our next door neighbor state or one somewhere else in the country but when you start picking on America as a whole, you've got the 48 states mad at you.

Now, while we never recall having heard of it happening, those European countries could band together for the good of all and fight together rather than against each other.

Then all of the countries could agree within themselves; they could all use the Danube, just like we use the Mississippi and they could dare any other country to pick on one of their union.

Oh, well, it doesn't do any harm to dream.

We receive with much enthusiasm the announcement from the city that a great improvement plan for the airport has been adopted. For years now that has been one of our pet wishes and dreams. After all when families begin to fly around in planes, just like they do in automobiles now, we'd sure want the kidfinks to get a good impression of our town when they breeze in at the airport.

Seriously speaking, we think the plan sounds grand. It has been thoughtfully and competently worked out and looks to the future in that it is a seven year plan. With-in those seven years many developments could take place and the extended plan allows for adjustments to be made as the need arises. Improvements necessary to the immediate use of the field by such planes as are flown by feeder lines, will be made at once and others will come along gradually.

Georgia's constitution sure must be mixed up. First they get three men claiming that they are legally governors, according to the constitution and now two judges of superior courts rule for first one and then the other.

One says that Talmadge is legal governor according to the constitution and another one rules that he is illegal in his contention for the office.

Looks like they'll have to rewrite the constitution before they can really know who is governor.

However, some more judges will get a shot at the decision, as it is expected that the case will be appealed to the supreme court of the state. We will await with interest that decision.

In the meantime, who is governor?

Legion Meeting Thursday Nite At 7:30 O'clock

M. M. Dutton, commander, announced today that the regular meeting of the Carl Barnes Post of the American Legion will be held at the Legion hall Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock.

He also stated that he and the adjutant, Bob Hansford, will have another surprise for those attending and urged that all members attend and bring with them a veteran.

He further stated that membership drive is still on and all veterans are invited to become members.

At the meeting Thursday night delegates to the coming district convention at Stephenville will be instructed.

GALA OPENING PLANNED FOR MAJESTIC THEATRE

One of the most anticipated events ever held in Eastland county and one that will be marked with a fanfare will be the opening in Eastland Thursday night, February 13 of the new and magnificent Majestic Theatre, a property of Interstate Circuit, Inc., of Dallas.

Opening feature will be the screen version of Margie in technicolor and on the stage The Humdingers, Marty, Kay, Pat and Jo, featured singers with the Frankie Masters Orchestra. The show will start promptly at 7:30 o'clock and tickets are now on sale at the Lyric theatre. Tickets will be sold to the seating capacity of the theatre only and a second show will follow immediately after the end of the first one.

Said to be one of the finest theatres in Texas, the new house is located on the site of the old Connellee theatre. It is modern in design with the lower exterior of porcelain enamel in sand color and deep red and brightly lighted by neon tubing and a big sign, also in porcelain enamel.

The box office is done in mirrored flexglass in gold and a spacious, beautifully decorated foyer is the patrons' introduction to the interior of the building. Heavily padded carpets line the sides of the main auditorium where the walls are done in western murals with very effective indirect lighting. Ultra-comfortable seats in widely spaced tiers are in dusty rose and red. The old floor level was removed and a new one laid to give a better tilt for the perspective of the audience.

Besides the main floor there are two balconies that are the last word in comfort and ten rest (Continued on Page Two)

$417.00 Given To March Of Dimes In Ranger

H. R. Hicks announced today that a total of $417.00 was contributed to the March of Dimes in Ranger and that amount is being turned over to the county chairman, E. M. Howard of Rising Star.

Hicks stated that contributions are still acceptable and if there are those who still wish to make donations, they may do so by contacting him or mailing the gifts to him.

PIONEER FLIGHT EXTENSIONS TO BEGIN ON FEBRUARY 19

DALLAS, Texas, Feb. 12—An east-bound flight out of Midland-Odessa will begin operations of route extensions for Pioneer Air Lines, Robert J. Smith, president, announced here today. Service on the route extensions will be inaugurated on Wednesday, Feb. 19, and the first flight will leave out of Midland-Odessa at 8:45 a.m. The 24-passenger Douglas plane will arrive in Dallas at 11:35 a.m., traveling the 323 air miles in two hours and 50 minutes. En route it will stop briefly at Big Spring, Sweetwater, Abilene, Mineral Wells and Fort Worth to take on and discharge passengers, mail and cargo.

With inauguration of service on the route extensions, Pioneer's system divides into three segments or "legs": 1. Between Houston and Amarillo, which is the line's original route and including the intermediate cities of Austin, San Angelo, Abilene and Lubbock, plus Midland-Odessa and Lamesa as additions acquired with the route extensions; 2. Between Houston and Dallas, including Bryan, Temple and Waco; and, 3. Between Dallas and Midland-Odessa, via Ft. Worth, Mineral Wells, Abilene, Sweetwater and Big Spring.

Scheduled flights will operate within these individual segments, but will connect with other legs of the system at Houston, Dallas, Abilene and Midland-Odessa.

Smith announced complete schedules of flights. Two flights in each direction are provided daily; therefore, every city in Pioneer's system, with exception of Lamesa, will have at least four flights per day. Lamesa will have only one flight in each direction per day; this is because the schedules between Houston and Amarillo are divided, with one north-bound flight diverging at San Angelo to go by way of Abilene and the other diverging at San Angelo to go by way of Midland-Odessa and Lamesa, and a south-bound flight diverging at Lubbock, one going by way of Abilene and the other by way of Midland-Odessa.

Following is the complete schedule for the system, effective Feb. 19:

HOUSTON-AMARILLO
Flight No. 14 (Northbound)—Leave Houston 4 p.m.; arrive Austin 5:02, leave Austin 5:07; arrive San Angelo 6:20, leave San Angelo 6:30; arrive Abilene 7:07, leave Abilene 7:13; arrive Lubbock 8:15, leave Lubbock 8:20; arrive Amarillo 9:06.

Improvements Will Extend Over Period Of Seven Years

Mayor J. J. Kelly announced today that at the meeting of the city commission Tuesday night a long range improvement program for the Ranger airport was adopted and federal aid of $10,000 has been tentatively approved.

The program as outlined will be a seven year program with the city and federal government working on a fifty-fifty basis. Work will be started right away on improvements on a north-south runway, including hard surfacing of the runway and all runways will be lighted. Lights will also be placed on all obstructions at the field.

Agreement has been reached between the city and J. M. Robinson, owner of property south of the airport, for additional land for the port just as soon as a survey can determine how much more land is needed. The specific amount to be purchased will depend on the survey.

A contract has been signed with Edwin S. Martin, Jr., of Littlefield, consulting engineer, to draw up a master plan for improvements at the port to be carried out over the seven years and the improvements will be made as the city is able to match the federal funds. Martin will also make a detailed application for submission for final approval on the federal aid. It is planned that the port will be so improved that it will be rated as a class three or four airport and suitable for use by feeder lines. Martin is expected to begin his work the latter part of this week or the first of next.

C. C. McKeever of the Ranger Airport stated today that a radio has been ordered for furnishing CAA weather reports every 15 minutes at the local field.

Mayor Kelly stated today that the work on the plans has had the full support of the Chamber of Commerce with R. V. Galloway, manager, M. L. King, aviation chairman and now president and McKeever, director, cooperating in every way.

JUDGE RULES IN FAVOR OF TALMADGE

The decision was expected to be appealed within a few days to the State Supreme Court.

The decision came four weeks from the day the General Assembly elected Talmadge in an all-night session, swore him in and sent a committee to escort him to the governor's office.

There is a dramatic face to face exchange, former Gov. Ellis Arnall refused to yield the executive department. In succeeding days, however, Talmadge squeezed Arnall out of the capital, Arnall later resigned, willing the battle against Talmadge to U. Gov. M. E. Thompson, whose suit for a declaration judgment was the basis of Hendrix ruling today.

The jurist reached his decision by sustaining Talmadge's motion for a demurrer to throw out the entire suit to get him out of office.

The legal action had first been filed by Arnall who turned it over to Thompson when Arnall resigned.

The white-haired jurist explained—no there would be no doubt—that his actions served to uphold the legal right of the state legislature to elect a governor. Talmadge was elected on the strength of 675 write-in votes that he had obtained from last November's general election in which his late father, Eugene Talmadge, had been elected.

WIER, MURPHY, MRS. MORRIS HEAD CLEAN-UP

M. L. King, president of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce, announced today that Dr. A. K. Wier, city health officer, has been made director general for the coming clean-up campaign. Chief George Murphy has been named chairman of the men's division and Mrs. James P. Morris, chairman of the Ranger Civic League clean-up committee, chairman of the women's division.

It was stated that other committees and members of committees will be appointed at a general meeting to be held in the near future. Letters are to be mailed to all organizations in Ranger requesting their cooperation and asking that each have a representative at the meeting which will be held at the Chamber of Commerce on a date to be announced later.

At the meeting the plan for the campaign will be presented and if it is adopted, work will likely get under way early in March.

Gala Opening—

The lighting is the last word in illumination. It is all indirect and of cold cathode neon tubing. Particular attention was paid to the acoustics of the building and tests revealed that the sound effects were the best. Acoustic plaster was used in the interior.

A fine air-conditioning system assures a proper temperature and humidity in the building at all times and during all seasons. Outside air is filtered to eliminate all dust, etc., before being turned into the building.

The theatre seats nearly 900 and Interstate officials stated that some seats were sacrificed to make more room between rows for the convenience and comfort of the patrons.

No detail has been overlooked by the designers and engineers to add to the beauty and comfort of the new show house.

J. E. Scott of Dallas was the engineer in charge of construction of the building.

At the show Thursday night Conrad Brady of Dallas will be master of ceremonies and officials of the Interstate Circuit, Inc., will be introduced to the audience. The Ranger High School band will stage a short parade before the opening of the show and will give a 30 minute concert in front of the theatre before opening time.

One of the officials that will be introduced is Kendall Way, engineer for Interstate who had a part in the interior decoration of the house and who purchased all of the furnishings and drapes.

Plans are being made by the city of Eastland to rope off the block in front of the theatre on the night of the opening and to decorate the downtown district with flags.

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (UP)—This Alaskan city is wondering whether the war-inflated boom is about to burst.

Housing-short, the city has seen prosperity through higher rents, subject only to G.P.A. controls, and other prices have been kited to levels undreamed of in the states. Haircuts are $1.50 and taxis charge a dollar for even a block ride.

CLAIMS CUTS DAMAGING TO ARMED FORCES

WASHINGTON — Chairman Chan Gurney of the Senate armed services committee said today that any cut of more than $500,000,000 in military expenditures would make the Navy "practically impotent" and leave the Army and Air Forces wholly inadequate.

The South Dakota Republican prepared to make a no-surrender fight against a $1,750,000,000 cut in military expenditures which he said is contemplated in the GOP plan to trim President Truman's budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1 by $6,000,000,000. Mr. Truman's spending estimate was $27,500,000,000.

Meanwhile a Democrat, Sen. Theodore Francis Green, D., R.I., charged that the proposed $6,000,000,000 budget slash would make Secretary of State George C. Marshall's mission to Moscow "almost impossible" of accomplishment.

Gurney said the military cuts would leave both our occupational forces and the state department "out on a limb." He said a strong national defense is absolutely necessary until all the peace treaties have been signed and all members of the United Nations achieve genuine cooperation in international affairs.

France Lines Up With U. S. On Disarmament

Bevin Admits Failure Of Palestine Deal

LONDON — Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin today admitted the failure of the London conference to settle the Palestine problem and said that Britain probably would have to submit the whole issue to the United Nations.

Bevin made the statement at a meeting with delegates of the Arab states at which he told them that they seemed to be as far from a solution of the Palestine problem as ever.

On both sides of his family he has his grandparents, great-grandparents and great-great-grandparents.

Miss Robinson Honored At Tea

As a compliment to Miss Caroline Robinson, bride-elect of Mr. Lawrence Maedgen of Troy, Mrs. L. L. Bruce and Mrs. V. V. Cooper, Jr., entertained at a seated tea Tuesday afternoon from 3:00 to 6:00 o'clock in the home of the former.

In the center of the reflector was a tall crystal stand from which hung crystal baskets filled with gold and blue pansies. At one end of the table was the bride-elect's cake, designed in the form of an open book with the names of the betrothed couple on opposite pages. LUBBOCK, Tex., (UP)—Research experiments are being conducted at Texas Technological College to reduce the time for testing cream from 15 minutes to two or three.

Prof. K. M. Renner and Prof. F. G. Harbrough report the new method does away with the use of hot water. Expected to be a boon to farmers, the method is so simple that a high school boy could handle it, Renner said.

Vitamin C helps to hasten the healing of wounds and builds resistance to infection.
