RANGER DAILY TIMES

29th YEAR

RANGER, TEXAS, FRIDAY, JUNE 13, 1947

PRICE FIVE CENTS No. 12

The Ranger Daily Times is the oldest daily newspaper in Eastland County, the first edition appearing on June 1, 1919.

Well...
I Dunno,
But...

The merchants of Ranger have spoken. In a meeting this morning they voted down the plan to establish a trades day event similar to the one conducted here a few years back.

Their main argument was that the plan is promotional and not sound. And they have something in that argument. Now, if they will follow this alternative suggested at the meeting this morning, of giving the people of the trade territory what they want at bargain prices, they've got something.

Any time the people see something that they want, priced to suit their pocket books, you can bet on it, they'll trade where they can get it that way.

Then, there's some thing that the merchants can furnish that won't cost 'em anything and will sure bring returns, and that's friendliness and courteous service. That'll produce more dividends than all the well laid schemes that can be thought up. We imagine that we're about normal in reactions and any time that we go into a place of business and have to ask for service, we aren't inclined to do business there anymore.

However, the meeting this morning was a good one, because the people really said what they were thinking and out of that can come some good. And the committee headed by T. C. Wylie, that's thinking and working on improving trade conditions in Ranger is certainly to be commended. They are members of the Chamber of Commerce and the Retail Merchants Association are working for the best interests of all of Ranger. Keep the good work up, gentlemen.

Jack Brady, known to readers of the Eastland Telegram as "the ringer" waxed philosophical in his column today and it's worth quoting and here it is.

"Confidence, understanding and success are the fruits of FAIR Play—open and above-board tactics pay dividends—'curves' inevitably boomerang. No movement will go very far in the direction of progress, where the condition of opposing cliques exist.

In unity there's strength—For when the one Great Score comes.

To write against your name, He writes not that you won or lost But how you played the game."

The softball game tonight should be one of the best since the beginning of league play since two winning teams will be matched.

Premier which won its first game of league play last week will play the First Baptist team which also won its game last week.

And the scramble for the championship begins to look a tussle, since the two of the teams that lost their games last week have won this week's games. Ranger III won their game last week but lost this week to Strawn and the Ranger Transfer and Storage team that lost their game last week, won last night from the Goodrich team.

That leaves Goodrich in the cellar with two games lost.

Oh, yes, the weather! Well it's doing all right, providing a nice little drop of 35 degrees overnight. You can't beat it, this Texas weather. Yesterday we admitted being a little bored and sure enough along comes a baby north in the middle of June to inject a little pep into the dragging population. Like we've said before, less, it to the weather to stir up something to talk about.

Yes sir, today is Friday the 13th, and the superstitious have taken a rocking chair in the corner to avoid all ladders, black cats and such.

One of the oddest Friday the 13th stories that we've ever heard is of Billye Jeanne Crawley. Billye Jeanne was born December the 13th, (we'll not mention the year, though she's not old enough to start hiding it) and her 13th birthday fell on Friday the 13th. That should be proof that there's nothing to the superstitions about Friday the 13th, 'cause there's definitely no jinx following that attractive young lady.

Singer And Scientist Get Awards

Kate Smith, right of radio fame, and Dr. Florence Rena Sabin, Denver, Colo., noted woman medical scientist, are shown here as they received the 1947 American Brotherhood Arts and Sciences Citation from the National Conference of Christians and Jews. Thomas E. Braniff, Dallas, Tex., airline president, made the presentations. The awards were in recognition of the contributions made by the two women to better human relations and welfare.

PLAN NAVAL WAR TO END SMUGGLING IN CHINA WATERS

By Victor Kendrick
United Press Staff Correspondent
HONGKONG (UP)—The Chinese Maritime Customs is preparing a minor naval war against smugglers whose illicit trade has increased substantially in recent months.

The customs service has an order from Sweden some high-speed Oerlikon 20 mm. guns, which will be mounted on launches to combat the increasingly audacious smugglers who infest the South China coast.

The smugglers, on the other hand, have acquired at least six American PT boats from Manila. The latter craft, which can outrun anything in South China waters, reportedly will be used to protect the smugglers' convoys and draw off government launches in event of attack. They will be armored.

The amount of smuggling—or to be more exact, "unrecorded shipments" going on its variously estimated at anywhere between 25 and 50 per cent of Hongkong's legitimate trade, which in the first three months of 1947 amounted to approximately $127,000,000.

The crown colony is, however, by no means the only port involved. The smugglers trade between Hongkong, Canton, Macao, Amoy and Swatow, ranging as far inland as Hankow.

Their large, three-masted motor junks are no match for the speedy government cutters, but are usually heavily armed and armored with all manner of guns, including muzzle-loading pre-Spanish-American war cannon which can fire a deadly spray of old horse-shoes, rusty nails and iron scrap.

The smugglers in reality are "common carriers." They will transport anything for a price, usually 10 to 15 per cent of the cargo's value. Cargo consists mainly of scarce or prohibited commodities such as cigarettes, medicines, cosmetics, cotton goods, woolfarn, rice and silver.

Spring Fever Victim Yawns Spell Off

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (UP)—A trolley car operator was alarmed when he reached the end of his line and discovered a girl slumped in her seat.

The operator feared the worst and called a police ambulance to take her to the morgue.

However, police found her very much alive.

"Spring fever," the girl yawned as she walked away.

Heligolanders Asks To Be Sent Back To Island

LONDON (UP)—The former inhabitants of Heligoland are clamoring to return to their island home.

Evacuated by British occupation authorities and forbidden to return after the war, the Heligolanders, numbering some 25,000, have been living in camps at Pinneberg, near Hamburg.

They believed it was the British intention to obliterate the island, but now they have learned that only the fortifications were demolished, they have asked the British authorities for permission to return and rebuild as a holiday resort.

Officers of the British control commission said the Heligolanders had been offered alternative accommodation on the island of Sylt and that the future disposition of Heligoland has yet to be decided.

Heligolanders, however, told the British officials of their deep "sentimental attachment" to the island. They said the demolition explosion on April 18 had "broken Germany's heart" but now they realized the island had only been demilitarized. They said there was no reason why they should be allowed to settle again in their "little paradise."

1946 Advertising Bill Estimated $3,000,000,000

CHICAGO (UP)—Nearly $3,000,000,000 was spent for advertising in the United States last year, the Encyclopedia Britannica 1947 Book of the Year says.

Daniel Starch, business research consultant, the author of the article, calculated that newspaper advertising accounted for $964,000,000 and radio advertising for $489,000,000. Magazines, direct mail, trade and business publications other means accounted for the remainder.

Business spent more than $100,000,000 of its advertising budget to publicize safety, world trade, inter-group and inter-faith cooperation, and proper use of atomic energy, Starch says.

PRESIDENT BACK IN U. S. TODAY

By United Press
BUFFALO, N. Y.—President Truman returned to American soil today, pausing here to confer with Paul E. Fitzpatrick, Democratic state chairman of New York.

Enroute to Washington after a three-day state visit to Ottawa, the Canadian capital, he President broke his train trip twice during the day. This morning, he visited Niagara Falls and drove for 20 minutes along the edge of one of the world's most famous natural wonders.

Mr. Truman, as the train crossed the border at Niagara Falls, said he was happy to be home after what he felt was a "grand visit" to the northern neighbor of the United States.

Mr. Truman seemed to stand the heavy schedule of his visit in good shape, although his voice showed a continuing bronchial condition. However, he told reporters he felt fine.

Postal Receipts Increase In Month of April

AUSTIN, Texas—Texas postal receipts in April more than doubled the pre-war years' average as the seasonally-adjusted index prepared by the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research soared to 209.6. (Base: 1935-39 100).

April receipts totaled $2,670,060 for a 1 per cent increase over March receipts and a 6 per cent gain over receipts in April of last year. Since a monthly decline is normally registered in April, the index when adjusted for seasonal variation shows a 4 per cent March-to-April hike.

Ten Texas cities recorded slumps in receipts for the month with all others reporting gains as high as the 37 per cent jump in Del Rio.

Compared with receipts in April of last year 17 cities fell dips, but on the other hand impressive gain were registered. Texas City saw receipts soar 47 per cent, and Lubbock, Edinburg and Harlingen led the 32 other cities showing increases.

TRANSFER TEAM WINS 12 TO 3 FROM GOODRICH

Another of last week's losers in the softball league came forward with a victory Thursday night when the Ranger Transfer and Storage team defeated the Goodrich Store team by a score of 12 to 3.

Nothing to nothing was the record until the third inning when the Transfer boys started hitting and marked up six runs. In the fourth they scored two, in the fifth three and in the sixth one. They did not bat in the seventh.

Ku Klux Klan Dissolved By Court Order

ATLANTA, Ga.—The hooded order of the Ku Klux Klan, born during turbulent reconstruction days and revived on a high tide of anti-negro feeling after World War Two, was dissolved by court order today.

Superior Court Judge B. O. N. Alford granted without fanfare a surprise Klan request that its charter be dissolved. The move came as the state of Georgia moved into the courts with a suit instigated by former Gov. Ellis Arnall to wipe out the order.

Educator Suggests Retirement Plan

CLEVELAND (UP)—Dr. William E. Wickenden, president of Case Institute of Technology, here, posed the question of what to do with a surplus of college-trained men in the future.

"What are we going to do with all our college-trained youth?" he said. "We can use only a minor fraction, probably 125,000 out of the 600,000 now entering college, in our recognized professions."

He said that the average life expectancy has increased 25 years while time spent in education is now only five years more than before.

It was announced today that Bill H. Hinton of San Marcos has been elected assistant football coach at Ranger High School.

Coach Hinton is a graduate of Howard Payne College at Brownwood and during his years there was one of the star football players. In 1942 he was named on the Little All-American team.

At the conclusion of three and one half years service with the Navy he became coach at San Marcos Baptist Academy at San Marcos.

He is expected to arrive about August 1 to take up his duties in Ranger. He will be accompanied here by Mrs. Hinton and their one child.

Nicholai, suffered cuts and a broken leg, and had covered himself with grass while 100 searchers combed the area for him.

VOTES LINED UP TO UPHOLD TAX CUT VETO

WASHINGTON—An informal poll showed today that Senate Democrats have lined up more than enough votes to sustain a veto of the Republican-sponsored income tax reduction bill.

Democrats on Capitol Hill generally expect President Truman to veto the bill to cut personal income taxes by from 16.5 to 30 per cent starting July 1. He has until midnight Monday to act. Otherwise, it will become law without his signature.

Democrats counted at least 40 senators as being against overriding a veto. If all 95 senators were present on the showdown, 32 votes would be sufficient to sustain a veto comprised of 37 Democrats and three Republicans.

Thirty-two Democrats and two Republicans voted against it the bill when the Senate version was up for final passage. In addition, three Democrats and one Republican were paired against it.

Says Veto Would Abolish All Rent Controls

WASHINGTON—Chairman Charles W. Tobey, R., N.H., of the Senate banking committee said today there would be no rent control at all after June 30 if President Truman vetoes pending rent legislation.

"I don't think there would be a chance of getting new rent legislation through Congress," he said. Nonetheless, Tobey took a glum view of the rent bill being ready for final congressional action by House-Senate conferees. He said that regardless of whether President Truman signs or vetoes the measure, "rent control is dead."

U. S. Protestants Laws

WASHINGTON (UP)—The United States has vigorously protested to the Romanian government against two recently enacted laws which American officials say may result in nationalization of American property there without compensation.

PREDICTS ERA OF 'HELL' IF LAW PASSES

WASHINGTON—The United Mine Workers Journal, which generally reflects the views of its chief, John L. Lewis, today predicted "a decade of industrial, political and economic hell" if the Taft-Hartley labor bill becomes law and is upheld by the courts.

The Journal complained that the UMW was the chief target of the bill, which is now on President Truman's desk awaiting approval or veto. Mr. Truman has until midnight June 20 to act. Otherwise the bill becomes law without his signature.

The UMW blast at the measure came as Chairman Robert A. Taft, R., O., of the Senate labor committee prepared a new analysis of the measure to answer recent criticism.

Taft expressed doubt that there would be many strike threats justifying the use of the government injunction which the bill authorizes in case of national emergencies.

News Of Deadly New Weapon Has Leaked Out

AUCKLAND, New Zealand—The British empire and the United States are withholding from all countries all details of a new weapon said to equal the atom bomb in deadliness, it was understood today.

Work by a team of New Zealand, British and American scientists on the weapon was said to be continuing. Existence of the weapon was reported yesterday with the announcement that Prof. T. D. J. Leach of Auckland, described as the leading figure in the project, had been decorated by King George.

Recommends Restoration Of Department Fund

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Senate appropriations committee today recommended restoration of $54,116,840 to the House-allocated interior department appropriations bill for fiscal 1948.

Chairman Kenneth Wherry, R., Neb., of the Senate subcommittee said the bulk of the increase went to reclamation construction.

Report Shows Commodities Still At Peak

WASHINGTON—Labor department figures showed today that average wholesale prices for some 90 basic commodities are still up near the post-war peak.

These prices on June 7 were only one per cent below the post-war high established last March 29, the department said.

Both farm products and food prices, reacting chiefly to low shipments and strong demands, took another jump last week.

The Tollivers

By MATEEL HOWE FARNHAM
Illustrated by WEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: I was off in boarding school when the Tollivers first came to Otego. Father wrote that in a short time Mrs. Tolliver and her three daughters had already provided plenty of food for gossip. They had rented the big Otego house next to ours, although everyone knew their finances were limited. The two youngest girls, Annabelle and Annabelle, were beauties and openly making a play for the two well-to-do and middle-aged bachelors: Sam and Nelson Forbes. A few weeks after I came home for vacation, Flora eloped with young Bob Finneran. Everyone was surprised but Flora's family was really shocked. Annabelle said that Bob, making $2 a week, could never support an extravagant wife like Flora.

"You poor children," she sniffed, "whatever in the world is to become of you? Of course you will live here. This is your home. Bob knows that I will always share my last crust with you both. My only regret is that I have nothing but a wretched pittance to share. If only Bob's father had increased his life insurance as I begged him to, almost on my knees..."

She went on until Flora was ready to howl. Bob said, "There, there," patted his mother's shoulder, and soon whisked Flora off upstairs to his own room.

ON the breakfast table next morning was a pink-meated melon, ample for three, but cut in two pieces and placed before Flora and Bob. Mrs. Finneran claimed that she did not want any and ostentatiously ate a wizened little green apple. There were poached eggs and buttered toast for the bride and groom, while Mrs. Finneran ate toast with very little butter. She apologized because there was no bacon, but since bacon was now so high, she never thought of buying any for herself alone, just as she seldom ate eggs now that they had gone to 30 cents a dozen. Not that it mattered about her; she only ate enough to keep a bird alive, but young appetites were something else again. Dear Flora belle need not worry. Mrs. Finneran would see to it that there was always plenty for Bob and Bob's wife. And wouldn't Flora like a third egg or more toast? Flora hastily declined.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, D. C.—(NEA)—In well-fed America it is hard to get excited about food shortages in other parts of the world. Yet anyone with a nickel's worth of sense must realize that there can be no peace or stability until more people have enough to eat. Hunger is the world's public enemy number one.

The report which Sec.-Gen. D. A. FitzGerald has just made to the International Emergency Food Council meeting here in Washington points up some of the horrible truths of this situation.

World War II was seven times as destructive as World War I—$132 billion as against a mere $186 billion damage. Obviously, recovery cannot be as quick and easy as in 1920-21.

The world acreage under plow is no greater than it was 10 years ago, but the population has increased by from 5 to 10 per cent. In southeast Asia alone it is estimated there are 100 million more people to be fed than there were in 1939.

Living standards are rising all over the world. People want more to eat. People who used to be content with corn or rice now want more wheat and meat.

In the face of these conditions which tend to aggravate wartime food shortages, many old world countries are finding it necessary to continue food rationing. In some countries the ration may be cut, even though new crops will soon be harvested.

SPORTS

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—It may be much too early to pop the question, but the people are asking it just the same: "What's wrong with the Cardinals and Red Sox?"

There's nothing wrong with the Red Birds that a few base hits won't cure.

The Sox are without their early foot despite the fact that Joe Cronin's men seem to be following a familiar pattern, with York, Williams and Dwyer among the leaders in runs-batted-in and the Injun and The Kid looking perfectly natural as home-run manufacturers.

In any event the slow start of the St. Louis Nationals and Boston Americans is a great thing for baseball, for both are fairly certain to be running at and over the leaders in no time at all. Meanwhile, there will be something in the nature of a race, and that's always good business.

The Red Sox got off to such a cyclonic start a year ago that the remainder of the field practically had chuckled it by June 1.

The fact that all members of the Cardinals and Red Sox are physically sound leaves little or no cause for apprehension.

The Cardinals missed the steady influence of Terry Moore when Doc Johnson of the Cubs stepped in and sprained the veteran center fielder's wrist as he slid into second base. Home Run Dusk has suffered from a charley horse.

The loss of these right-hand smackers left the club vulnerable to left-hand pitching, which is about all it has seen.

The Cardinals' pitching has been good enough. There is no arm trouble.

Nowie Poller's difficulty is that he is experimenting with a new screwball which he has been unable to get over the plate at all times. This is something new for the polished left-hander, who has been a control pitcher.

The Cardinals' morale remains high, they still consider the Cubs and Dodgers as the ones to beat, with the Braves trouble-makers all the way along the route.

When they tumbled into the basement, the Cardinals only remarked that there was nothing like starting from the bottom.

They knew they did not rate being there any more than Stan Musial belonged out of batting's big six.

Musial, the batting champion, has been off in his timing. So have the Cardinals.

They'll come with Stan Musial, and the Dodgers and Cubs will need the early handicap the blokes in the red blazers have so unexpectedly spotted them.

Albany Fandangle Buy Ancient Blacksmith Shop

One of the oldest frame buildings in Albany, a 60 or more old Blacksmith Shop, grimy and smoked by the years, with ancient cattle brands burned into the walls, old-time square nails rusting and worn, has been acquired for the Fort Griffin Fandangle and is one of the prized settings of Director Robert E. Nail. The building was bought from Taylor-Miller Post of the American Legion, which recently secured it in an expansion program of Legion property. The shop is being set up on the High School Stadium for the show that will be in Albany on evenings June 25th and 26th.

"Fandangle" is a special, privately owned, locally coined word, derived partly from Spanish "Fandango", a home-town word that describes the fast-moving show of singing, dancing and acting, whipped into a historical background by Robert E. Nail, local playwright and author. A few miles North of Albany are the ruins of the colorful frontier settlement, Fort Griffin, a round which the show evolves and recalls and commemorates the days of their Grandparents on the Frontier of Western Texas, with a time of gaiety and showing off yet with a bow and courtesy to the Pioneers of old Fort Griffin days.

 an abstract may, or may not, be used and appreciated as much as some other possessions we have. But it never becomes obsolete, and its value increases as time goes on. SOCIETY

Miss Langley Complimented At Shower Thurs.

Miss Montrella Langley, bride-elect of Mr. Barney Ruffner of Monahan, was complimented Thursday afternoon when Mrs. W. A. Canafax and Mrs. W. O. Calloway entertained with a gift tea in the Blue Room of the Gholson Hotel.

An array of spring flowers decorated the room. The table, which was laid with a lace cloth, was centered with an arrangement of white gladioluses between crystal candelabra. At one end of the table was the crystal punch bowl, at which Mrs. Boyd Taylor presided.

Receiving the guests were Mrs. Canafax, Miss Langley, and her mother, Mrs. A. G. Langley. For the occasion, Miss Langley wore a Hollywood creation of printed silk with a heart-shaped corsage of pink roses.

An arrangement of sweetpeas decorated the table at which Miss Dorothy George presided at the bride's book of white satin and lace.

During the calling hours, music was furnished by Mrs. Calloway at the piano.

Other members of the house party who assisted in entertaining were Meses. G. C. Love, Edwin George, Jr., E. R. Green and Frank Penn.

During the afternoon, many friends called and presented Miss Langley with a shower of lovely gifts.
