We'll have to take it back. The spewriter hadn't cooled from writ ing the above, when one of 'em called.

.They're right proud of the fast growing list of distinguished peo-ple who'll be out for the rodeo and wanted us to know about it.

A delegation of Jaycees from Cleburne are coming, one from Abilene and both the past a n d present presidents of the state Jaycees, John Mangum of Dallas and Frank Butler of Temple, will be here. Boyce House thinks may-be he's coming and there're some more pending.

Appearing in today's paper for the first time is a column by the Rev. James W. McClain. It will be a regular Sunday feature and we hope you like it.

It appears under the title "I have a gentleman in the pew, Doc-Saycees stated today that prices for admission and reserved seats for the rodeo will be the same as last year. General admission tickets will be 60c for children under twelve and $1.20 for adults. Reserved seats will be $1.80 and Box seats will be $2.40.

It was explained that all childrep not in arms are required to have tickets. That is if the child is big enough to require an individ-ual sext, then it has to be paid for.

They asked us to remind you again that they are now taking re-servations for out-of-town people and anyone wishing to get tickets for outof-town friends, may make the reservations now and get the tickets later.

'I Have A Gentleman In The Pew, Doctor"

By Father Jim Well, I been wondering

three years how it would be like when I finally got out of school and began my work as a priest. It's even better than my fondest dreams had imagined. You know, there's something about Texas folks that reaches right down and wabs a fellow's heart. I reckon found that out fifteen years ago when I married that Texas gal; and it's certainly been my experience right along that Texas people have a peculiar God-given votion for real friendliness. Like lierb Tanner said the other day, "Father Jim, I figure if folks aren't interested enough to friendly, then they're just not friendly enough to be interesting" And I reckon that's what I like about Texas folks. They're interested enough to be friendly.

Right off the bat let's us get ing straight. Sure, I'm interested in you-in every reader of this paper-just like any real Texan (I'm an adopted one) would be. But this interest is a nal interest, not an impersonal one. In other words, I'm interested in you as a person, not as a potential bill-payer for the Church. I'm here as a priest and pastor, not as a promoter. And I'm not interto sell you the Book of Common al gifts. Prayer. If you're satisfied with your brand of religion you won't tion.
