C. E. May Jr. called us this morning to tell us that Ranger isn't the only place still talking about the golf tournament here last week-end.

In the Dallas Morning News was a long article about Gene Towry who won the tournament here and who is now being polished up for the P. A. tourney in El Paso. Gene is being coached by a Cedar Crest pro who's really giving him the works

In connection with the article Church. about Gene, a brief rehash of the Ranger tournament was givas saying that the Ranger tournament was the "toughest links"

Golf is still the paramount topic of conversation among the men about town, and they'll not let anybody forget that famous tournament any time soon.

But it's as interesting to us as to them and we're already getting our pencils sharpened up for one next year, which the golfers are already anticipating as even bigger and better.

It's bee a long time since w played golf, a game that we always liked. But having been away played golf, a game that we alfrom it a long time, our interest had lagged.

Now then, the golfers are doing to us about golf what the Jaycees did to us about the rodeo, making an enthusiast out of us. We haven't attempted a wild bull ride yet and of course ladies aren't eligible to the Ranger Country Club's annual invitation golf tournament, but if the enthusiasts about town keep work- Episcopal Service ing up our interest in both fields, we might try to work out something for getting in on both of Ranger business people with buildings should take warning from the disastrous fire at Rising Star yesterday.

One man at Rising Star told us that they felt that origin of the fire was probably spontaneous combustion in the storage building of Higginbotham Brothers day and interment was in the General Store.

Dr. Reavis Guest Speaker At Club Meet Wednesday

Dr. L. B. Reavis, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Paris, Texas, was the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Rotary Club held Wednesday at noon at the Gholson Hotel.

Dr. Reavis spake on what's in a name and illustrated the importance of a name by calling to the attention of the club names which meant both good and bad when spoken. He pointed out that it is up to the individual to det-

We'll Get That Window, Aging Coach Cries

RICHMOND, VA (UP)-Each afternoon this baseball season the neighbors have watched an elderly gray-haired man pitch to seven-year-old boy on the 4360 block, Old Brook Rd.

They predict that another Babe Ruth is in the making. But they feel sure, too, that practice on the lawn is nearing an end

From dribbling grounders to pop flys to healthy whacks, the neighbors have watcher the boy's batting eye improve.

One afternoon the youngster leaned into a fast one and poled a long fly that thudded against an opposite apartment building a scant two inches beneath a win-

The neighbors with alarm over heard the elderly gentleman remark as the retrived the ball: "We'll get that doggone win-dow yet."
