Arabs Refuse To Accept Jewish State

Well... I Dunno, But...

Like we predicted, they're still talking about the Ranger Country Club's annual invitation golf tournament. Come this week-end, it will be two weeks since the event, but Dub King of the Fort Worth Star Telegram who covered the tournament, is still telling the world about it.

We quote from his column in the Tuesday morning edition of the Star-Telegram.

"Most sensational golf of the 1948 West Texas amateur season was played at Ranger in the 25-hole thriller between tiny Gene Towry and Earl Stewart."

And this—

"One of the better known West Texas golfers competing in Cico's invitation starting Friday will be 'Chief' Williams of Ranger. The 81-year-old Williams won the fifth flight consolation in the recent Ranger meet, played two matches in one day when the temperature was over 100 and was out galliering the championship match in similar heat when some of the younger players were back in the shade. 'Chief,' who is seldom 10 yards from the middle of the fairway, makes his own putting. Williams plans to keep playing golf until he is 85."

Rip Galloway, manager of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce, today expressed his appreciation to the people of Ranger for the splendid response to the request for rooms and apartments for new comers. He stated that more rooms than apartments have been listed with his office but all will likely be filled.

We'd like to put in our good word for the recital which is being sponsored by the St. Paul Baptist Church at the Recreation building tonight.

Proceeds from the recital will go toward the work of the church which has a small but hard working congregation of colored people and two of these appearing on the program are products of Ranger and the Ranger schools.

While we missed hearing Geneva Ervin on her last appearance here, those who heard her were loud in their praise of her ability. It's a worth while cause that deserves your support.

Boy, we've been using all of the magic that we had at hand today, to try to squeeze out a little rain from those clouds hanging around. We took out the rabbit's foot and gave it a thorough rub down and polished up the two good luck pennies.

In between times, we said a few prayers and kept up a steady vigilance looking for hopeful signs.

Now if you don't get it, don't blame our weather bureau!

But we do hope that we'll have an opportunity to report a full and running over "rain barrel" in tomorrow's edition of the Times.

We had to wait until a certain young man got out of town before we reported this little item.

We've heard of kids being threatened with all kinds of things if they didn't improve in their college and university grades. But never before did we hear of a father that had to coax his son to stop studying so hard. And guess what the young man got so coax his nose out of his books? A brand new automobile.

And it all goes back to his dad's college days, when the dad found that the automobile belonging to a college mate also a resident of Ranger, provided one of the most diverting recreations and refreshing intervals between studies.

A tree with a hollow "heart" can live because transportation of food materials takes place in the inner bark and the sapwood just beneath the outer bark.

Hogs 800. Active, fully 50 higher than Tuesday's average. Top 2550 for good and choice 180-270 lbs.

You Can't Sleep? Medical Expert Proffers Advice On How To Do It

By GAYLORD F. GODWIN
United Press Staff Correspondent
OMAHA, Neb. (UP)—Worry over trivial problems causes more sleeplessness than concern over the possibility of another war, according to Dr. Herman J. Jahr of the University of Nebraska's medical college.

Jahr divided into two classes the persons who long in vain for peaceful slumber—healthy people with "false ideas," and those who suffer organic ailments which tend to prevent sleep. But the healthy non-sleeper accounts for most cases of insomnia, he said.

"He is usually a tense, zippy, somewhat, stubborn individual," Jahr said. "His greatest worry is 'why can't I go to sleep?'"
Jahr makes fun of the alleged "sleep-inspiring" qualities of beds, mattresses, springs, and other equipment. With the proper attitude, he said, anyone can lie down on a two short sofa, the floor, or anywhere else and sleep like a baby.

"You need only a belief in being able to sleep; tired, relaxed muscles; a healthy body, and a calm atmosphere," Jahr said.

According to Jahr's research, college students require eight to 23 minutes to go to sleep. Middle-aged men take about 25 minutes, and middle-aged women, 10 to 15 minutes.

"This may suggest the ladies haven't as many problems as they think they have," he said.

College students turn an average of 38 times a night, middle-aged men 53 times and middle-aged women 26 times. Tossing does not mean loss of sleep, Jahr said.

"If you 'slept like a log,' you're likely to be stiff as a board in the morning," he said.

Jahr advises again counting sheep to woo slumber. "You'll get more interested in an accurate count than in relaxing."

Fresh-air friends and closed-window fans may follow their natural bent, "but don't overdo and bake or freeze yourself," he said.

He urged common sense in the matter of bed time snacks. "If a sandwich or coffee keeps you awake, by all means avoid them."

Jahr believes much adult insomnia is the result of bedtime being used as a threat or punishment during childhood.

"Forcing bedtime on a child creates an antagonism which may make him a worrier with insomnia in later years," the doctor said.

Love Me and My Gopher Is Prisoner's Lament

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (UP)—City and county jailers had a problem on their hands with John Clayton, who brought a gopher with him when he was arrested for non-support.

The gopher slipped out of Clayton's pocket and the other prisoners protested until the jailers put the pet in a pail.

When Clayton was refused to the county jail he refused to go until his gopher went along.

At the county jail Deputy Gilbert Hutchison refused to admit the gopher.

The animal finally went to the sheriff's daughter.

GOP PRE-CONVENTION PROPAGANDA FLYING

PHILADELPHIA, June 16. — (UP)—Pre-convention talk of GOP delegate deals was going full blast today in an atmosphere shadowed by a cloud no longer than Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan.

With the Republican national convention opening next week and the first ballot still more than a week away, the political speculators hotel lobbies tried to see a pattern for the future in—

1. Reports that the Senate president plans to keep the "Draft Vandenberg" movement alive, at least for a while. His design—to check any Republican drift back to isolationism.

2. Published but unconfirmed reports of a deal-making between Sen. Robert A. Taft, R. O., and Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota.

3. Disclosure that Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, New York, and Gov. Earl Warren of California, a trailer so far in the nomination stakes held a midnight meeting last night at New Castle, N. H., where the national governor's conference is going on.

Vandenberg's influence on the convention picture, according to his friends, is intended to be a sort of corrective. If he could be sure that the Republicans would pick a candidate friendly to his idea of foreign policy, he'd have no hesitation in taking himself all the way out of the convention scene right now.

Stolen Car Is Returned To Its Owner At Ranger

Sheriff Williams of Eastland has returned to the owner a 1948 Studebaker sedan which was recently reported stolen from Ranger. The owner of the car was S. L. Kim of Ranger.

According to the Sheriff's office here, the car was stolen last Tuesday, June 8, and wrecked between Gorman and DeLeon.

The officials started working on the case Tuesday when Constable Rich Spivak of DeLeon reported the car.

Federal Grand Jury Indicts Men And Groups

WASHINGTON, June 16 (UP)—The Justice Department announced today the indictment of two state agricultural commissioners, two farm organizations and two other persons on charges of violating the Federal lobbying law.

Indicted were J. E. McDonald, Texas Commissioner of Agriculture, Tom Linder, Georgia Commissioner of Agriculture, Robert M. Harris, senior partner of the New York Cotton brokerage firm of Harris and Vose, and Ralph W. Moore, a commodity trader of Granger, Tex. and Washington.

The two organizations indicted are the National Farm Committee a Texas corporation of which Linder and Moore are president and secretary respectively, and the Farm Commissioners Council of Washington, of which Linder and McDonald are the principal officers.

The indictment was returned by a Federal grand jury here.

Last Rites For Mrs. Raulston Of Mingo Held

Last rites for Mrs. Areta Faye Raulston of Mingo were conducted Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the home of her father, C. C. Cole of Gordon. Rev. David C. Ham, Pastor of the First Baptist church in Ranger, was in charge of the services and arrangements were by Morris Funeral Home in Ranger. Interment was in the Gordon cemetery.

Born in Gordon, April 10, 1914, Mrs. Raulston had made her home in that vicinity all of her life. She died at the West Texas Hospital in Ranger, Tuesday, June 15, 1948. She was a member of the Baptist church.

Survivors are one daughter, Mrs. Betty Morris of Ranger; two sisters, Mrs. Levada Baker of Straw, Mrs. C. E. Southward of Big Spring; one brother, C. C. Cole, Jr., of Sheridan, Texas and her father, C. C. Cole, Sr., of Gordon.

Pallbearers were Harlan Phillips of Ranger, Claud Southward of Big Spring, and John Be. Hark, Allen Ganya, all of Gordon, Boyd Hart and W. C. Baker of Straw.

Water Survey Report To Be Given Tonight

A report on the recent water resources survey for Ranger will be given at a public hearing Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock at the city hall.

D. A. Bantee, general manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and members of his staff will attend the hearing as will L. A. Wilke, service manager of the WTCC, and John Hume of Fort Worth, the Texas Electric Service Company's engineer who made the survey.

All interested persons are welcome to attend.

Pioneer Youth Drowns In Baird Lake Tuesday P. M.

Ray Allen Graves, 12, of Pioneer, drowned in Baird Lake Tuesday afternoon about 8 o'clock when attempts by two fellow swimmers to rescue him from water 20 feet deep failed. Graves' companions, two unidentified boys about the same age, ran a mile to town to report the drowning to Sheriff S. S. Nichols of Baird. Two hours later the body was recovered by Baird and Abilene firemen. He was the son of Charles W. Graves of Odessa and Mrs. Ora B. Graves of Pioneer.

TRUMAN HITS AT RADIO AND NEWSPAPERS

Aboard Truman Train, June 16. (UP)—President Truman, traveling through Kansas, said today it was "almost impossible" to put definite "facts" before the public because of "certain people" in the newspaper and radio business.

En route to Kansas City, Mo., for an overnight stop before continuing on to Washington, the President told a station crowd at Dodge City, Kan., that he had seen about 2,500,000 people in his current trip to "fix the issues" facing the country.

"I merely wanted to say before you the facts as they are," he said after telling the crowd they must decide whether the country is to be controlled by the people or "the special privilege boys."

Mr. Truman said it was almost impossible "to get definitely the facts before the people, for the simple reason that there are certain people in the newspaper business and certain people in the radio business who have a distorted view of what the people ought to know and ought to think."

Soviets May Arrest Austrian Power Minister

VIENNA, June 16, (UP)—Soviet authorities have informed the Austrian government they plan to take action, including possible arrest, against Austrian Power Supply Minister Alfred Migsch because of his Anti-Soviet attitude, government sources said today.

Government quarters said the only interpretation they could make of the note was that Migsch was about to be arrested by Soviet authorities.

This would be the first time since the occupation that any government official was so openly threatened by any one of the four occupation powers.

Child Of Tragedy

Miss Betty Austin, a nurse at a Pueblo, Colo., hospital, holds the 10-day-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Clingen who appears none the worse for his experience in which his mother and father and 18-month-old sister died in a flash flood near Pueblo. Caught by a wall of water when they tried to cross a dry arroyo in a cloudburst they apparently had only time to toss the baby to the bank before they perished. The tragedy was not discovered until cowboys found the whimpering baby after it had survived without food in rain, hail, a cold night, and eight hours of hot sun.

Senate Restores Part Of ERP Cut Made By House

WASHINGTON, June 16, (UP)—House Economy Chief John Taber said today the House did what was "honest" in cutting $2,160,000,000 (B) from the foreign spending program, and served notice he will fight the senate decision to restore $1,175,000,000.

The New York Republican insisted that the $5,980,710,228 (B) voted by the House was "sufficient" for a judicious administration of the foreign aid program. The amount was for 15 months.

Taber is chairman of the House Appropriations Committee. As such he will be one of the leading figures in the Senate-House conference to iron differences.

The Senate early today voted $6,125,710,228 for 12 months—a net of $1,175,000,000 more than the House approved.

Driver Charged After Car Goes Into Bar Ditch

Reckless driving charges were filed first of the week in Justice of the Peace Tom Greer's court at Gorman against Cecil L. Self of Gorman by Oscar Avera Highway Patrolman for the State Department of Public Safety.

According to Avera, Self, in attempting to make a turn on the Carbon-Eastland Highway at a too high rate of speed, skidded on the wet pavement and the car went into a ditch.

Bill Carleton of Carbon, a passenger in Self's car, sustained an injured hand which was treated at the Eastland Hospital.

ARABS WILL TALK ABOUT ALL BUT PARTITION

CAIRO, June 16, (UP)—The Arab states have served notice on Count Folke Bernadotte that they will reject any Palestine solution calling for partition or setting up a Jewish state, the Secretary General of the Arab League said today.

Abdel Rahman Azzam Pasha, the League Secretary, said the Arabs told the United Nations Mediator that they were willing to discuss any solution which did not involve partition of Palestine.

Bernadotte and two assistants conferred for more than two hours with Azzam, Premier Mahmoud Nokrashy Pasha of Egypt, and the premiers of Lebanon and Trans-Jordan.

Nokrashy said the talk was "exploratory," and Bernadotte did not put forth any definite proposal for a Palestine settlement.

Egypt charged that Israeli troops seized 11 villages in south Palestine after the truce deadline last Friday.

SHERTOK COMPLAINS
TEL AVIV, June 16 (UP)—Israeli Foreign Minister Moshe Shertok complained today to UN Mediator Count Folke Bernadotte that there was insufficient contact between Bernadotte's representatives and the Israeli foreign office.

Shertok asked that precise rules of conduct and procedure be laid down for observers to avoid confusion "in the absence of authoritative decision."

Eight additional United Nations military observers arrived in Tel Aviv by plane from Cairo last night, including five Americans.

Traces Found Of Dawn Man In Cal.

LITTLE LAKE, Cal. (UP)—Camp site remains of California's Dawn Man have been discovered two miles north of Little Lake in Inyo County. The human bones and arrowheads found at this "closest approach to a city" may date as far back as 15,000 years.

This uncovering of prime historical importance has excited archaeologists of an expedition from the Southwest Museum. Their director, Curator Mark R. Harrington, says that for the first time "Pinto Culture" relics have been found in a positive, original location, undisturbed by the elements for more than 3,000 years.

The camp is on the lava-walled banks of a long vanished river that once ran south from glacier-fed Owens Lake. A waterfall was then nearby, and a commodious lava cave was used for shelter, centuries before later-age Pinto Indians came along and etched their own drawings on the dark cavern walls.

"They must have had a good life," Harrington said, "for when the glacier began melting, during either of the pluvial eras, this was lush, green, wooded country."

Area OIL News

EASTLAND COUNTY — Gorman

Following is the report of activities in the Gorman field for Tuesday, June 15:
Mellard and Clemens No. 1 Pete Mauney drilling in hard sand at 2185.

A. E. Edwards et al, made location 990 feet North and West of NE 1-4 section 21 Deaf and dumb Asylum lands on No. 1 J. C. Cook. They are digging pits. This location is on the approximately 1400 acres which this company has under lease in this section and it will extend the working area to about 4 miles Southwest of the town of Gorman, and carries the interest at least 1 or 2 miles further than even the Thompson Gas Well which Mellard and Clemens are offsetting at present on the Pete Mauney location. Practically all lands in this area and to the South and West are already under lease, most of them with active short term drilling contracts. For this reason we are all watching with varying degrees of interest the activity in this extension of our field.

No. 2 Bishop on the Magnolia Lease drilling at 2989.

Plow 60 Wheat Acres In Only Five Hours

MANTER, Kan. (UP)—The spirit of neighborliness was exhibited in a big way for the Farmers Millsap farming family on the prairie wheatlands of western Kansas and eastern Colorado.

Garret Millsap took his father, Carl to a hospital in Wichita and while there had to undergo an emergency operation himself. An uncle and brother of the men, John Millsap, worried about the problem of plowing the 640 acres of land straddling the Kansas-Colorado line.

Neighbors fixed it. Forty-seven men and 16 women of wheat farm families arrived. With them were 28 big tractors and one-way plows. With the women furnishing the food the men climbed aboard their equipment and turned under the wheat stubble for summer fallow.

for 5,000 feet with rotary, the location is 660 feet from the east and 1,250 from the north line of section 11 block 3 SP survey.

Real Tarzan Pops Up In England

LONDON (UP)—Sydney Shaw's hero is Tarzan.

Police found out in court how 17-year-old Shaw's hero worship paid off.

Shaw, arrested for breaking a traffic law, got tired of waiting for his jail lunch. He tore off and broke in to cast iron feeding hatch of his cell.

"I get impatient. I get hold of things like that or this," he said, grabbing the edge of the witness box.

"Stop that," said the magistrate's clerk. "We don't want you pulling the dock to pieces."

Shaw's mother said: "He can eat a two-pound loaf" made into four sandwiches at a sitting. If he fails to eat three plates of potatoes, we wonder what is wrong.

"When he was 10, he saw Johnny Wiesmuller as Tarzan and since then he has not missed a Tarzan film. After the first film he climbed a big tree in our back garden and built himself a wooden hideout.

"Within a few weeks he was swinging from the branches, uttering cries.

"He never knocks on the door when he comes home. He opens the letter box and sends through a special Tarzan scream.

"Since he was about 14 he has been using a hundredweight bar to develop his muscles and he throws it up and catches it with out any effort."

Sydney said: "I climb trees because I like it

George Peddy Is Enthusiastic Fox Hunter

George Peddy (center), candidate for the U. S. Senate, is a favorite with East Texas fox hunters. Here he is shown with Dallas Fezell (left) and C. H. (Lum) Martin, both of Nacogdoches, and Mr. Fezell's pack of hound dogs. The trio have hunted foxes in East Texas for a total of 150 years. Martin, who is 84, has been hunting for 68 years; Fezell has engaged in the sport for 45 years, while Peddy has been an enthusiast for more than 35 years. Peddy is a longtime member of the Texas Wolf and Fox Hunters Association.

and it seems to do me good. I think it's natural. As for girl friends, Tarzan's Jane is my ideal."

Tarzan was freed after he paid a small fine and the cost of the cast iron gate he broke in two.

Combine Broken Up

KEENE, N. H. (UP)—When two burglars broke into a Keene garage they found another man inside already looting the garage. After a brief argument, the three men joined forces. All three later were captured by police.

Poured in the Same Mold

In Hollywood for screen parts, blonde models Joy Lansing, left, and Pat Vaniver discovered (or somebody with keen eyes discovered) that they have the same measurements. They're both 5 feet 6 inches tall, weigh 115 pounds, and have a 36-inch bust, 32-inch hips and 23-inch waist.

Miss Bundy, Mr. Jackson Married

Miss Francine Bundy, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. D. T. Bundy of Tyler, and Walter L. Jackson, Jr., son of Mrs. W. L. Jackson and the late Dr. W. L. Jackson of Ranger were married Saturday night in a ceremony performed at 8 o'clock at the Pleasant Retreat Methodist Church in Tyler.

The Rev. John W. Hardt performed the double-ring ceremony before a background of English ivy. Basket of white gladioli were placed in front of the altar and candelabra were placed in the background. Garlands of ivy and lighted tapers decorated the chancel rail.

Miss Rita Lynne Kennedy, organist, played "Indian Love Call" and accompanied Miss Irma Breedlove, who sang "One Alone" and "Because." Miss Kennedy played the traditional wedding marches and softly played "Clair de Lune" during the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Farland Bundy, chose an ice blue Bischini crepe dress with navy blue accessories. She wore a bandeau of white carnations to which a chapel veil was attached. She carried a white Bible topped with gardenias surrounded by white carnations.

Mrs. Raymond Payne was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Melvin Sigman and Miss Bonnie Shamburger. They wore navy blue dresses and carried bouquets of pink Columbia roses.

The candles were lighted by Miss Ann McFarland and Miss Bettie Beard, who wore identical dresses of white organdy tied with pale blue sashes. Both wore bandeaus of pink and blue daisies.

Albert Jackson, brother of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Andy Jackson, Albert Bradford, Melvin Sigman, and Raymond Payne.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents immediately after the wedding. Arrangements of roses were used throughout the house. The bride's table was laid with an ecru hand-embroidered and cut-work linen cloth which the groom brought from China. The centerpiece was of white roses and gladioli. At one end of the table was the three-tiered wedding cake and at the opposite end was the crystal punch service. Mrs. R. V. McFarland, Mrs. F. C. Woodward and Miss Bettie McFarland were in the reception house party.

The bride received her B. A. degree from Baylor University recently. She served as secretary of the Burleson Harrington Club and as secretary of the East Texas Club at the university.

The groom will receive his B. A. degree from Baylor in August. He is a member of Delta Sigma Pi, honorary business fraternity, and the Esquire Club.

Out-of-town guests were, Miss Bettie McFarland and Mr. J. L. Morris of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Woodward of Baytown; Miss Christine Pack and Farland Bundy of Austin; Miss Rita Lynne Kennedy of Texarkana, and Mrs. W. L. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jackson, Albert Bradford, Andy Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Arterburn and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Arterburn of Ranger.

Swimming Pool Built for $4.20

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UP)—Hollywood wouldn't believe it, but three GI students at the state university here took the stone foundation of an abandoned building, three bags of cement and two weeks' spare time, and turned it into a swimming pool. It cost them $4.20.

The pool is 11x24 feet and only 40 inches deep. But it's good for a shallow dive and a cooling dip any time.

Ralph Fielding and Ernest Oaks, Pensacola and Don Milburn, Jacksonville, did the job.

Manufacture of glass products started in Oklahoma in 1905. Attracted by the abundance of natural gas, manufacturers had established six plants by 1913.
