Russia Refuses To Answer UN Questions

WILL IGNORE INTERROGATION ON BERLIN CRISIS IN COUNCIL

BY R. H. SHACKFORD
United Press Staff Correspondent

PARIS, Oct. 15, (UP)—Russia defied the United Nations Security Council today, serving notice that it would not answer questions on the Berlin crisis.

Andre Vishinsky broke his sit-down strike in the Security Council to announce the Soviet intention of ignoring any council interrogation on Berlin.

The chief Russian delegate, who had announced he would have no part on the council debate of the Berlin case, asked for the floor after the renewal of the hearing on western charges that Russia threatened the peace in Berlin.

Then he defiantly rejected a council request to answer two questions about the Berlin crisis. The council was seeking more information about the gravest issue yet to come before the UN.

Vishinsky denounced as a trick a plan to ask each of the big four powers for more information. Disdainfully he announced:

"It is useless to think that the Soviet delegation will bite on this bait, get stuck in this glue."

That he even spoke at all in the first council meeting on Berlin after a nine-day absence was one of the big surprises of the UN session. He had taken the attitude that he would attend the meetings on Berlin, but would say nothing.

Vishinsky spoke after little members of the council had appealed to the big four to settle the Berlin crisis among themselves. They professed fear that if such a solution was not reached "very soon," war would break out "sooner or later."

The council formally requested the big powers to submit detailed information on the breakdown of their negotiations in the Berlin crisis. It showed no inclination to hurry a judgment, as the western big three desired.

Chairman Juan A. Bramuglia of Argentina, whose conciliation effort failed, reopened the door for a further delay in the hearing by posing two specific questions for each of the big four.

"Firstly," he said, "we request the representatives of the United States, the United Kingdom, France, and the U.S.S.R. to explain the initial imposition of restrictions upon communications, transport of commerce between western Germany and the Soviet zones, the details of the present status of the restrictions."

"Secondly, we request them to kindly explain the agreement involved in the instructions given to the military governors of the four powers in Berlin, and to give the detailed reasons that prevented their implementation."

Bramuglia urged the big four to answer those questions, "out loud, here."

In turn Philip Jessup of the United States, Alexander Cadogan of Great Britain and Alexandre Parodi of France solemnly promised to prepare careful answers to the questions, and regretted that they could not reply immediately.

Then it was Vishinsky's turn. Asking for the floor, he began reviewing the earlier Soviet argument that it was illegal for the council to handle the Berlin crisis. It was the first time he had spoken since the council voted over his protest to put the case on its program.

Oda (Pinky) Alabrook of Dallas, who was an All-State fallback when he was a member of the Cisco Lobos, has completed a producer in the Kleiner pool, in the northwestern part of Eastland County.

The well, known as the Alabrook & Kemp No. 1 L. H. McCrea et al is an extension of the pool. It ranged 92 barrels of 14.7 gravity oil with 42 per cent water in 24 hours on the pump from 3,973-85, H. & T. C. survey.

This producer was drilled on an eight-acre lease owned by Postmaster McCrea of Cisco and others.

Production is coming from the Mississippi lime, a formation which was first uncovered by the Lone Star Producing Company in the area a few months ago when 350 feet of the lime was encountered. The extraordinary thickness of the saturated section of the discovery and later wells has caused considerable activity.

Alabrook is rigging up on the Charles Kleiner, a 40-acre lease, about 2,500 feet southwest of his producer. This test is 1,200 feet west of present production.

The Texas Petroleum Trading Company No. 1 F. W. Wright estate, an extension try to the north of Alabrook's McCrea well, is reported drilling around 3,200 feet. Lone Star's Kleiner A-5 is coring at 3,963 in the Mississippi, which was entered at 3,711.

Alabrook, after his football days at Cisco High ended, was a star backfield man at Texas A. & M.

U. S. REJECTS RUSSIA'S DISARMAMENT PROPOSAL

PARIS, Oct. 15 (UP)—The United States flatly rejected Russia's disarmament proposal today, declaring it was "totally unacceptable" until the Soviet Union opens and raises its iron curtain and withdraws its fifth columns "all over the world."

United States Delegate Frederick Osborn told a subcommittee of the UN political committee that the Russian plan to cut armaments of the big five nations by one third was an "absurdity" and "deliberately framed to confuse the public."

Following an earlier British challenge to Russia to disband Communist fifth columns, Osborn asked Russia directly: "Will you signify cessation of your expansion by withdrawal of your fifth columns all over the world?"

"Will you open up your country so all other nations know what is going on there and relieve them of the fear which requires other nations to arm?"

Rejection of Russia's disarmament proposal was made known as the Western Powers prepared to renew their attack on Russia's Berlin blockade in the Security Council. All indications were that the bitter Berlin debate would continue for a full week.

Earlier, the political committee heard Dr. Ralph Bunche, acting Palestine mediator, call on the United Nations to demand a firm peace in the Holy Land because "there is a desire for peace on both sides."

He warned that the precarious truce in Palestine cannot be maintained permanently and appealed for an early formal peace settlement or armistice.

Although the Palestine debate highlighted morning sessions of the UN, the Western Powers were prepared to return to the attack on Russia in the Security Council this afternoon with all indications that bitter debate on the Berlin crisis would continue for a full week.

DEATH PENALTY INVOKED FOR FOOD SPECULATORS

PARIS, Oct. 15, (UP)—The French government, battling strikes, high prices and political threats to its existence, decided today to invoke the death penalty against major food speculators.

Premier Henri Queuille headed an inner cabinet meeting last night at which it was decided to apply the so-called Forges law of October, 1946, in the battle against the black market.

The law, which takes its name from former food minister, Yves Farge, provides the death penalty for speculators in basic food products such as meat, wine, milk and grains.

The premier said the government did not intend to crack down on little butchers and grocers. But the butchers of Melun and Fontainebleau did not take his word. They decided to close their shops until the government halted the "battle of the beefsteak."

Observers said they probably would have a long wait.

Minister of Justice Andre Marie said after the cabinet meeting that the government intended to sap the strength of the strike movement by making workers pay stretch further.

Some 350,000 coal miners still were idle in the 12-day strike that has hampered French heavy industry on the eve of winter.

Episcopal Diocese Meets In Weatherford

A district meeting of the Episcopal church Diocese of Dallas was held at Harlow Hall in Weatherford Wednesday night and was attended by members from Breckenridge, Ranger, Eastland, Strawn, Comanche, Graham and Mineral Wells.

The meeting was presided over by Bishop Mason of Dallas, attended by Canons Terrell, Abbey and Ferguson.

Bishop Mazza reported to the Diocese on his observation of the Lambeth conference held at Lambeth Castle in Canterbury, England and presided over by the Arch Bishop, head of the Episcopal church. The conference was attended by 329 bishops.

Among those from Eastland attending the Weatherford meeting were: Mrs. J. E. Lewis, Jack Lewis, Jr., Mrs. Bob Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor and daughter, Harriet Mrs. Gilkey Mrs. Bob Vaughn and son, Bob and Mrs. James McClain and daughter, Hlene, and from Ranger, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nauslee, Miss Adele Bourke, and Mr. and Mrs. John Decker.

Rites Today For Longview Editor

LONGVIEW, Tex., Oct. 15, (UP)—Funeral services were scheduled today for Louis F. Hart, well-known Texas newspaperman who died yesterday following an illness of more than a month.

Hart's death was attributed to complications following a heart attack in September. He was 51.

At the time of his death, Hart was publisher of the Hallsville Review and had served as editor of the Longview Daily News and Longview Daily Morning Journal for nearly 15 years.

During his newspaper career, he was associated with the Fort Worth Star - Telegram, Waco News - Tribune, Corpus Christi Caller-Times, The Houston Chronicle, the Houston Post, the Tampico (Mex.) Tribune and the Monterey Times.

He also saw service with the Associated Press.

Hart came to Texas three years after his birth at Warrenburg, Mo., in 1897. He attended Rice Institute and later married Miss Margaret Moore of Lampasas in 1927.

He is survived by his wife and a daughter, Miss Margaret Hart, both of Longview; two brothers, Richard Hart of New Orleans, and Harry Hart of Houston; and a sister, Mrs. Mary Haas of Houston.

Not His Lucky Day

KENOSHA, Wis., (UP)—Bad luck rode Abtaham Luskin. His unluckiest day began when he found an overtime parking ticket on his car. While he paid a $1 fine, another car rolled into his left fender and hub cap. To make the day complete, another car hit Luskin's machine broadside, damaging it to the extent of $200.

Well...
I Dunno,
But...

Well at long last we've found one thing that bubble gum is good for and who'd have thought it!

Mrs. Hubert Wilson, fishing at Phantom Lake, hadn't caught a thing all day, and had practically exhausted her bait supply.

Then in desperation, she stuck a piece of bubble gum on the end of the hook. She hauled in a 10-pound buffalo catfish.

A brand new baby girl is the center of much grandmotherly attention but being so young, she can hardly be aware of her importance.

The baby is Sheryl Ruth Taylor, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Boyd Taylor of Iowa Park and is the fifth generation on the feminine side of her family.

Her great great grandmother, Mrs. Nancy Crawford lives in Ranger, her great grandmother, Mrs. J. H. Halford lives in Lubbock and her grandmother, Mrs. Reid Campbell lives in Ranger.

Her mother is the former Miss Geneva Campbell of Ranger.

Jack Townzen whose service on the Ranger Junior College football team has been brought to an end because of an injured knee, will receive the football which the Rangers won Thursday night when they defeated Clifton.

The ball, covered with autographs of the team and squad will be presented to Jack by the team.

The ball won at the Cisco game was given to Ben Rutch.

Incidentally, those Rangers were sure clicking Thursday night. First we'd think one player, then the other, was gonna be the star of the game and sure enough it was the team itself that starred.

Yes sir, that was a good game.

Seniors from hourabouts took advantage of the invitation to be guests of Ranger Junior College at the football game here Thursday night. There were 273 present.

There were 35 from Eastland, 22 from Strawn, 19 from Carbon, 59 from Ranger, 14 from Morton Valley and a few from other schools.

Sorry but we got the name of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wilson in the paper Thursday as Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Moore. Mr. Wilson is to be associated with the Fuller Motor Company.

Mrs. Charles Surbrook and Dannie who have just returned from a trip to Kansas tell us that while they were gone they visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Singleton, Wichita, Kansas, and that it is a model of designing and interior decoration. Mrs. Singleton is the former Eva Hamill of Ranger.

The husband is an interior decorator and designed and executed their home.

Mrs. Surbrook was entertained at the Innes tea room which was also decorated by Mr. Singleton.

Enroute home the Surbrooks were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ross at their country estate. Mr. Ross drew the plans and supervised the remodeling of the Leonard Brothers store in Fort Worth recently.

Apparently Mrs. H. E. Snyder belongs to the exclusive few that have "green fingers" and seeing is believing evidence to this ability.

This morning she gathered and sent to the Times office some of the most beautiful dahlias that we've ever seen. Actually, one measured eight inches across and the colors are varied, yellow, bronze, pink and white.

The flowers were a gift to Mrs. Joe Dennis, who has the reputation herself of having a touch of the green in her fingers.

Ponca City, Okla., is observing the 20th anniversary of the location of the first white settlement in what is now Oklahoma. It was established 200 years ago by French fur traders.

Bulldogs Off For Rough Game With Dublin

Still fired with the prospect of a tough game against Dublin tonight, the Ranger Bulldogs left Ranger this afternoon about 4:30 for Dublin.

Coach Onis Warden who weighs both sides of the game calmly, expressed some concern over the game, admitting that it will be one of the toughest that the Bulldogs have yet faced. He stated that it will be a harder game than with Cisco but that his players are in good shape and should turn in a good performance. The Dublin team is made up of lettersmen, several of whom were all district players last year. Starters for Ranger tonight will be about the same as in the Cisco game.

Bloodhounds Can't Take It

KEENE, N. H. (JP)—Sheriff Arthur N. Jennison wants to find a home for his dogs in the south for nine months each year because they just can't take New England winters. In a letter to Gov. Gregg Cherry of North Carolina, Jennison asked if Cherry could use the bloodhounds during the fall and winter because they get sniffling in the sniffers up here.

RANGERS USE SCORING BREAKS TO GLIDE OVER CLIFTON, 28-0

BY MARVIN GROSS

An alert bunch of Ranger opportunists gobbled up three early Clifton mistakes and then turned on the steam to run up a 28-0 victory over Clifton Junior College last night at Bulldog Stadium. Shoved back before they could get a drive into high gear Ranger was forced to lie in wait for the breaks. And they came. A recovered fumble, a poor Clifton punt and a blocked kick all resulted directly in Ranger six pointers.

The Clifton offense ran the gamut — from a single wing to a double wing to a T. But only in the waning moments of the fourth quarter did the Cowboys pierce the Gibraltar-like Ranger forward wall. Driving down to the 13, the Cowboys saw a last down plunge fall two yards short of a first down and lost the ball.

For the Rangers Bailey Woods and Frankie Ford spearheaded the ground game and slingshot Junior Arterburn, not quite up to par, took care of the aerial threat. With less than a minute gone in the first period Jimmy Crowley took a hand-off and raced 40 yards down the sidelines to the Clifton 25. Woods powered to the 17 but the Cowboys dug in their spurs and it was no dice.

A little sheepish after a scoreless quarter, end Ernie Cunningham pounced on Dave Oliver's fumble on the Clifton 20 and the Rangers were off to happy hunting grounds. Crowley picked up through the middle setting the stage for Arterburn to hit 11 Frazier on the five with a lovely heave. Bailey Woods, the fireball fullback, found room at right tackle and lunged over for the opening touchdown. Johnny McClendon rapidly developing into an automaton was true as a die with his conversion.

The Cowboys made another faux pass when Oliver punted badly to his own 38. Junior Jones on the 25 and Dale Waltzed to the seven yard line. Bob Townzen and Bob Herrington paved the way for Jimmy Crowley and it was more noise from the Ranger cheering section. McClendon swung a small arc with his right toe and the score board read 14-0. The Cowboys dashed out with fire in the second stanza but unfortunately they were the ones to burn. Reserve tackle Bill Goodwin burst through the Clifton line to smear Oliver's last down punt. The ball bounced backward to the two where Oliver fell on it. But the Rangers took over on downs and it took one shot with Frankie Ford hitting over guard. Pivot man Johnny hit the mark again leaving Clifton with a big zero and Ranger with 28.

The final local tally came on a 55-yard sustained drive with an Arterburn pitch and runs by Ford and Bill Spivey setting the scenery for the picture run of the night. Bailey Woods headed off right tackle, was spun around by a line backer, knocked silly by the safety man but kept an upright position through it all to score. That tipped the count to 28 after another conversion.

With Ranger reserves in operation the Cowboys started their belated scoring thrust from midfield. Jim Jermstad and Pete Matlage moved to the Ranger 23. Morris Reed was good to 15 but here the linemen said hold it fellows. And the drive fizzled out on the 14.

Houston Lamar Still Undefeated

BY UNITED PRESS

Houston Lamar retained its undefeated status last night to highlight a four-game opening card of a big week end of schoolboy football play marked by a score or more of conference clashes.

Lamar, once tied, trimmed Houston San Jacinto 28-7 to open its bid for the Houston district crown.

Houston S. F. Austin was held to a scoreless tie by Houston St. Thomas in a non-title game. In the Fort Worth district, Paschal was pressed for the first two periods, but turned on the steam to defeat Fort Worth Tech 28-12 in the opening conference game in that district.

Dallas Forest defeated Dallas Jesuit 7-0 in another non-conference melee.

Several critical games are scheduled for intra-district play tonight and tomorrow night with the feature games pitting Corpus Christi against Kerrville, Marshall against Gladewater and Abilene against Odessa.

Townsend Plays With Frosh Tonite

WACO, Tex., Oct. 15. —Bryon Townsend, the two-time all-star from Odessa, makes his collegiate football debut tonight as a member of the Texas freshmen team which meets the powerful Baylor frosh at municipal stadium.

One of the largest crowds ever to see a freshman game in Waco was expected to be attracted to the game. The Baylor Cubs, 24-6 victors over Texas Christian freshmen in their opening game, will feature the passing of Robert Reid of Houston against Jerry Robertson, former Highland Park star, for the Shorthorns.

Townsend and Carl Myers, from Pampa, will furnish the running power for the Texas attack, while Baylor's rushing will be built around Jack Schluening, San Antonio and Jackie Bearrow, Olney.

Barkley Blasts GOP Unity Talk

ENID, Okla., Oct. 15 (UP)—Sen. Alben Barkley, Democratic candidate for vice president, moved into the home state of his running mate today ridiculing the "unity" campaign of his opponents.

Barkley wound up his campaign through Oklahoma last night with a major address at Enid. The speech was broadcast over a nationwide network (CBS).

He said it isn't necessary to have a Republican government to have a unity.

"The Devil Sea has unity," he said. "The unity of stagnation." Speaking before an audience of about 1,000 persons, many of them farmers, Barkley lashed out at the GOP farm program.

He charged that the Republicans did not give the farmers a good price support program, and attacked Gov. Thomas E. Dewey for his campaign speeches on farm policies.

The Republican nominee, I am afraid, has been subsidized by big business," he said. "He did not take the American farmer fully into his confidence."

Barkley said the support program passed at the special session of the 80th Congress this summer will support farm prices only until after election day, at which time the automatic supports will begin to drop.

He said farm income went from $31,000,000,000 (B) in 1933 to $2,000,000,000 (B) in 1947, and attributed the increase to soil conservation, rural electrification, and the commodity credit corporation measures advocated by the Democratic administration.

Seven Nazis Die For Murder Of American Fliers

LANDSBERG, Germany, Oct. 15 (UP)—Ten German war criminals were hanged here today, seven for the murder of American fliers who were shot down over Germany during the war and three for atrocities at the Flossenbürg Concentration camp.

The executions were carried out in the Landsberg prison courtyard where Adolf Hitler wrote Mein Kampf after the Munich push.

All were convicted in United States army trials at Dachau. Their appeals for clemency were denied.

Officials of the Army's judge advocate general's office said an investigation into alleged irregularities in the Dachau trials had been completed in these 10 cases before final appeals were refused.

The executions took an hour and 40 minutes, with all the Nazis protesting their innocence. They brought to 52 the number of lesser Nazis executed here.

The prisoners were led to the gallows, where U. S. Army personnel carried out the executions. One Nazi, a former Gestapo chief, screamed "you murderers" to the Americans.

An ironic note was added when American Jet Propelled planes from nearby American bases screamed overhead as the men went to their deaths for killing American fliers.

BY UNITED PRESS
 AUSTIN, Tex., Oct. 15, (UP)—Estimated production of cotton, corn, grain sorghums, sweet potatoes and peanuts in Texas has dropped from the forecast of a month ago, the United States Department of Agriculture reported today.

However, the forecast for the pecan production was hiked. Cotton, as of Oct. 1, dropped 50,000 bales to 3,250,000. Grain sorghums, previously pegged at $2,478,000 bushels, was revised to 77,764,000.
