Britain Strengthening Garrison At Aqab

Well... I Dunno, But...

Like we've said before, we feel that there are two things that we still want to have the last say about — what doctor we call and what church we attend.

And personally we feel that if the government ever takes over one, the other won't be far behind in the regimentation. Economists are fine in their place, but we don't think the nation's illnesses and the people's souls are in the realm of their diagnosis.

We have a great sympathy with the following article which we received in the mail recently and it came from one who should know, being the wife of a doctor. It was published recently in a magazine.

"In times of distress, almost everyone turns to his doctor. But when things are going smoothly, some people are apt to take him pretty much for granted. However, if you consider your doctor's service to you and to the country — if you consider the skills he must have, the hardships he must undergo, then it isn't very easy to take him for granted. It's an old story about how many patients a doctor has to see every day, how much of his time he devotes to charity, how many calls he has to make in the middle of the night. But did you ever think of this way:

"When you leave your office or job, the chances are that you're free from business duties for another day. You can do whatever you feel like — you can dig in your garden, visit friends, have a quite evening at home with your family, drop in at a movie, or go for a drive. But your doctor's work is never finished. He is always — every waking and sleeping moment — responsible for the patients under his care.

Yes, it takes a lot of things to be a good doctor. It takes physical and nervous stamina. It takes patience. It takes tact. It takes an understanding of people. It takes sound judgment. It takes unusual scientific and scholastic aptitude. Above all it takes a spirit of humanitarianism and a sense of service.

Tall order isn't it? America should never cease to be proud of them — Our Doctors."

B-36 BOMBER SETS NEW LONG DISTANCE RECORD

FORT WORTH, Tex., March 12 (UP)—A B-36 bomber, carrying a "sizeable bomb load," which it dropped in the Gulf of Mexico after 5,000 miles of flight, landed at Carswell Air Force Base today after setting a new B-36 long distance flight record of approximately 9,100 miles.

Col. Charles D. Farr, commanding the 7th Bomb Group at Carswell, said the big four-engine bomber eclipsed the former B-36 mark of 8,400 miles set Pearl Harbor day last year with a round-trip flight to Hawaii from Carswell.

The latest exploit of the famed long-range bombers started at 12:15 P. M. CST Thursday and ended at 8 A. M. Today after 44 hours of non-stop flying.

The plane still had enough gasoline for two more hours of flying, plus its usual reserve supply, Colonel Farr said.

Search Goes On For Lord Slayer

CLEBURNE, Tex., March 12 (UP)—Police searched the highways between El Paso and Los Angeles today for a 19-year-old youth charged with the murder of his aged foster father, the dean of Texas Christian University's graduate school.

Sheriff Houston Walling filed a murder with malice charge against Arthur C. Hester accusing him of beating Dean John W. Lord, 70, to death last Tuesday.

Hester was last seen by a Dallas motorist. The motorist said the youth told him he was hitchhiking to California. Hester was wearing a sailor's uniform when the motorist dropped him in Dallas.

A garage owner at Cohoma, Tex., reported yesterday that a youth answering Hester's description had left a car at his garage for clutch repairs Tuesday night, saying his father, a T. C. U. professor would call for it. The garageman read newspaper accounts of the murder and notified police who identified the car as Lord's.

Lord's body was found Thursday in a lonely cabin five miles south of Burleson, Tex. Lord and his adopted son rented the cabin a month ago.

Lord had been struck on the head at least eight times. A trail of blood led from a room in the front of the cabin to another bedroom in the rear.

The body was found by two students who volunteered to investigate Lord's absence from a class in government that he taught. He was last seen Tuesday evening by a Burleson cafe owner.

Dickson Hints Candidacy For Att'y General

AUSTIN, Tex., March 12 (UP)—Fagan Dickson, first assistant attorney general of Texas, today announced his resignation.

A statement from Dickson's office indicated that he was a likely candidate for the attorney generalship in 1950.

"It has been an unusual privilege", he said, "to serve the people of Texas under Attorney General Gerald C. Mann, Grover Sellers and Price Daniel."

He added that "many of my friends have suggested that these seven years of varied experience deserve promotion and that I should run for attorney general."

"For the next few months I hope to visit many parts of Texas and get better acquainted with the people and their problems."

"I agree . . ." he said, "that if I am to be a candidate, this visiting should not be done on state time."

The flight, which was described as "routine," took the huge plane over Minneapolis, Great Falls, Mont., Omaha, Memphis, Tenn., Appalachicola and Key West, Fla., Galveston, Fort Worth, Denver, Great Falls again, Spokane and Casper, Wyo., before it ended this morning.

The difference between the B-36 and B-50 flights was that the B-50, Lucky Lady II, was refueled four times in flight.

Body of Giraud Lies In State

DIJON, France, March 12.—(UP)—The body of Gen. Henri Honoré Giraud, 70, hero in two world wars, lay in state today in the Pavilion of the Military Hospital here.

An honor guard of officers and civilian of national societies stood at attention by his bier while long lines of mourners filed by the little chapel erected in the Pavilion.

Giraud died last night of cancer. His last will had not been read, and the defense ministry said it was waiting to see if it gained any directions for his burial. If not, he will be given a state funeral, a spokesman said.

Giraud neaped clear the way for the Allied conquest of North Africa in 1942. In both world wars he escaped from German military prisons to return and lead troops.

After the assassination of Admiral Jean Darlan in 1943, Giraud became civil governor and military commander-in-chief of the Free French forces in the Mediterranean. He and General Charles De Gaulle came into competition for the French leadership, and De Gaulle triumphed.

"Case dismissed," the judge said.

MOVE FOLLOWS RENEWAL OF HOSTILITIES

LONDON, March 12 (UP)—Great Britain is reinforcing her garrison at Aqaba, across the Trans-Jordan border from the southern strip of Palestine occupied by Israeli forces this week, the war office announced today.

In announcing the decision to strengthen the British detachment at Aqaba, a war office spokesman declined to make public either the present strength of the garrison or the extent of reinforcement.

The move was disclosed a day after the government of Israel reported that its forces had moved through the Negev and occupied the Elath coastal strip fronting on the Gulf of Aqaba between Trans-Jordan and Israel. Britain originally sent troops to Aqaba at the turn of the year when Israeli and Egyptian troops were fighting along the border. The British garrisoned Aqaba under a treaty with Trans-Jordan calling for mutual aid if either should be attacked.

The British acted after a week of uncertainty and tension which produced at least one clash between Israeli and Trans-Jordan forces. Tel Aviv acknowledged the clash yesterday in disclosing that Israeli troops had moved into the southern tip of Palestine.

The announcement today did not say whether Trans-Jordan had made a further request for help or whether the reinforcements were being sent on British initiative.

The Aqaba garrison was understood to consist of the First Battalion of the Royal Lincolnshire regiment plus Ancillary troops.

Cairo dispatches quoted informed British sources as saying Israel had concentrated 1,600 tank-supported troops in the southeastern Negev across the frontier from Aqaba.

Israeli spokesmen insisted that their forces had not crossed the frontier and did not intend to do so. But they claimed all of the disputed Negev, including the newly occupied coastal strip of five miles along the gulf of Aqaba.

Trans-Jordan officials charged that in their drive to the gulf, Israeli forces crossed the frontier and clashed with the Arab legion.

Britain has made it plain through spokesmen and state department in parliament that she will support her ally, Trans-Jordan.

Italian Premier Calls Session Of Parliament

ROME, March 12 (UP)—Premier Alcide De Gasperi today called an unusual Sunday session of Parliament in an attempt to thwart Communist efforts to ferment participation in the Atlantic Pact.

De Gasperi's maneuver was calculated to speed up debate and hurry Parliament to a final vote. It came within a few hours of a Communist call for flash strikes today and demonstrations tomorrow to protest against the government's war policy.

The second Sunday session of Parliament since the war was scheduled for a morning start and was expected to last the rest of the day.

It was expected to keep Palmiro Togliatti and other high Communist leaders from attending mass demonstrations. Scattered flash strikes and slow downs were reported today as the Communist campaign against the alliance gained momentum.

Seeking to offset Communist propaganda, De Gasperi's Christian Democratic Party plastered posters through the big cities showing Premier Josef Stalin and Nazi Foreign Minister Joachim Von Ribbentrop signing the Soviet-German pact in 1939.

WOULD TAKE AWAY EXECUTIVE POWER OF NINE COMMISSIONS

WASHINGTON, March 12.—(UP)—The nine federal commissions which regulate transportation, labor, credit, banking, securities, communications and power should be shorn of their executive functions, the Hoover Commission recommended today.

In the 12th of 18 contemplated reports to Congress on ways to increase efficiency and decrease expense in the executive branch, the commission found no fault with the regulatory duties of these commissions. But it said that the executive functions belong in regular government departments.

The Hoover Commission's report was based on exhaustive surveys made by its "task force" on regulatory commissions" into the Interstate Commerce Commission, Federal Power Commission, Federal Trade Commission, Maritime Commission, Securities and Exchange Commission, Federal Communications Commission, Civil Aeronautics Board, Federal Reserve Board, and the National Labor Relations Board.

(Former President Herbert Hoover, who is chairman of the commission on organization of the executive branch of the government.—The Hoover Commission—said he believed that the U. S. Tariff Commission and the tax court of the United States should be included among the regulatory agencies, but his stand was not supported by the 11 other members.)

Acknowledging that the "independent regulatory commissions have a proper place in the machinery of our government," the Hoover Commission nevertheless concluded that "the role of these commissions as originally established has not been adequately fulfilled."

According to District Attorney Everett Grisham about 20 witnesses were heard. The Grand Jury, he said returned the no bill despite the fact that Green had requested to be billed.

Sublett was stabbed to death early Monday morning after a lengthy argument with Green. Witnesses corroborated the fact that Sublett had provoked the argument and had attacked Green, who voluntarily gave himself up to Cisco police.

The Grand Jury returned 12 indictments at yesterday's hearings — four for burglary, four for theft and four for automobile theft.

They will reconvene Tuesday, March 29. Six criminal cases will be tried during the week of March 21.

The pay was encountered between 28-15 and 2825 I couldn't get the exact figure but that is close enough for us to see something of the picture. This is in the middle section of the Marble Falls formation—the upper having almost no show at all. It looks like these boys may do it again—that is find a well which somebody else might want pretty bad.

With live oil being bailed out as they are drilling through the formation, they may have something pretty good. Here's luck to our local boys who are not too well padded with the fifty lure such as it takes to venture into the oil producing business. It takes a great deal of courage and the Parker boys and Dick Jay have had just that. We are happy for them.

Operation On King Successful

LONDON, March 12, (UP)—King George VI, 53-year-old monarch of the British Empire, underwent an operation to restore the circulation of his right leg today.

A bulletin issued by nine attending physicians said the operation was completed successfully and the King's condition was "entirely satisfactory."

The operation was performed before noon in a bedroom of Buckingham Palace which had been converted into an operation theater.

The operation was performed by Prof. James R. Learmouth of Edinburgh, American-trained surgeon and senior palace physician, and Prof. J. Patterson Ross, a director of surgery at St. Bart's hospital in London.

"The operation of lumbar sympathectomy was performed on the King at 10 A. M.," said an official bulletin signed by the nine doctors.

"His Majesty's condition is entirely satisfactory."
It was understood the operation required a two-inch incision and took less than a half hour. The object was to cut a nerve controlling circulation in the blood to the King's right foot.

the that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy" (1 Timothy 6:17).
The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Paul and John had a clear apprehension that, as mortal man achieves no worldly honors except by sacrifice, so he must gain heavenly riches by forsaking all worldliness" (page 459).

★ WEEKLY BIBLE COMMENT

World Needs the Ministry of Jesus

BY WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.
"THE Son of Man," said Jesus, referring to Himself, "came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give His life a ransom for many" (Matthew 20:28).

What does it mean to minister? The dictionary says that it means to supply as something needed. The great outstanding fact concerning humanity is human need. Young and old, rich and poor, sick and well, of every time, race, and color, the one common denominator of the human family is need. There are needs that the greatest wealth cannot supply, and needs that the most fortunate still in want. Man needs food, warmth and rest. He needs health and peace of mind. Besides innumerable other needs of which he is aware, he needs a great deal of which he is not conscious. It is a part of man's progress to become aware of new and expanding needs.

JESUS came to supply man's need, or to teach men the way to God's supply. He fed men's bodies, but He brought to them the bread of life. He healed men's diseases, but He was the physician to sin-sick souls. He offered men rest. He ministered to man's need of faith, hope and vision. There was no need of man to which Jesus did not minister. And we ought to write that in the present tense, for there is no need of man to which Jesus does not minister today. Even the basic physical needs of man for food, health, housing and welfare can be met in our modern complex world only as men learn to be mutually helpful, and minister to one another, in the spirit of Jesus. It is ministry that the world most needs.

But the supreme ministry of Jesus was the ministry of salvation, the ministry in which He did indeed give His life a ransom for many. As a boy I was impressed by a picture in a boys' paper that came to our house. It was a shipwreck at sea, a vessel returning from the California gold fields, with miners laden down with their treasure, but casting their bags of gold across the deck with the cry, "Take it, who will; we are all going down." The man who has spent his life getting and grabbing, and even being very successful at it, is like those miners, little as he realizes it. "My God shall supply all your need," says the Apostle. And first in man's need is "the kingdom of God, and His righteousness."

Rangers Close Second Week Of Spring Practice

The Ranger Junior College football team finished the second week of spring football Thursday afternoon under the watchful eye of Coach Boone Yarbrough.

Twenty three boys took part in the second week's drill. The workouts this week were devoted mostly to working with the backs and ends.

Coach Yarbrough sent the squad through lengthy sessions of passing and pass protection in hopes of producing another smooth aerial game as the one he had last year. Jacky Wright did the throwing and Dale Jones, Jimmy Crawley, Bobby Williams, Jack McWhorter, Keith Munnerly, Frankie Ford, and Jimmy Lee were his favorite receivers.

Jimmy Brook, the pint sized half back, received the first injury of the season when he turned an ankle. The ankle may prevent him from further participation during the spring practice. Guard Bill Townsen also missed Thursday's workout with a badly infected foot.

Several of the boys have reported aches and bruises but nothing serious has developed.

Coach Yarbrough is looking forward to a good rough week next week. He expects to have several new boys trying out as well as the local boys. The general public is invited out to watch the Rangers work out the two remaining weeks. The workouts are held from 3:30 to 5:30 daily.

John Tarleton To Get New Buildings

STEPHENSVILLE, March 12 (UP.—The four-school Texas A. & M. College system today began to reap the divisions of the huge college building amendment vote by the Texas electorate in 1947.

The system's board of directors announced first steps of an enlargement program expected to total $5,000,000 by authorizing expenditures of $880,300 for new buildings and improvements on existing facilities at the main colleges station plant, at John Tarleton College here, at Prairie View A. & M. and at the Bluebonnet farm at McGregor.

Largest project was a 640,000 science building on the college station campus, for which bids will be asked for consideration at the board's May meeting.

Truman Silent On Plan Setbacks

KEY WEST, Fla. (UP)—President Truman had no comment today on the administration's anti-filibuster setback or on threats of an ew coal strike.

Charles G. Ross, press secretary, said the president is keeping abreast of such matters but has nothing to say at this time.

Ross said there was nothing particularly new planned for the seventh day of the President's Florida vacation.

Mr. Truman was up at 6:30 A. M. and had a 20-minute walk before breakfast on an orange juice, soft boiled eggs, toast, coffee and milk.

Some staff members arranged a fishing trip for this afternoon but Ross doubted that the President would go.

Ross said the President got news of the anti-filibuster setback and the threatened mine shutdown against his appointment of James Boyd as Bureau of Mines director, by direct White House phone.

Americana Prints: Indian Designs Decorate Togs

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Latest Americana vein to be tapped by textile designers in search of something new for spring and summer prints is the rich Indian folklore of the Southwest.

As a result, the subtle blending of colors and sand and rock paintings and original designs found on native Indian pottery have been adapted to a series of rayon dresses.

Despite the variety of colorings blended into one print or of the brilliance of design used to enhance fabric interest, the finished dress marches into summer as receptive to sun and a hot iron as a pure white handkerchief.

Typical adaptations of the Southwest's Indian lore to prints that wash are seen in the two dresses shown.

On the classically styled dress (left) with a simple bodice and a skirt made full by unpressed pleats, the unusual motif is a ceremonial Indian dance printed in copper and brown on a background of white. This design was lifted from a bowl of native pottery which dates back to the year 800.

The full-skirted, sun-back dress (right), accompanied by a scarf that ties on fichu-fashion, owes its distinction to a color-on-color print and to a "conversation piece" design. This is a ring of white circling a "cat demon's eye" which peers out from background shades of yellow and gray. These muted tone-on-tone background shades suggest the rocky cliffs of the Southwest.

THE egg production season is in full swing. Supplies are increasing and prices moving down. Right now, eggs offer about the best of the protein food values and they should be used freely in our diets. So let's consider a few secrets of success in cooking eggs.

Eggs separate best when they are just removed from the refrigerator. Yolks for mayonnaise dressing should also be cold to make a smooth emulsion with oil. On the other hand, egg whites whip up more quickly and to a greater volume when they are at room temperature.

When planning to cook eggs in hot water, it is advisable to have them at room temperature, rather than cold, to prevent the shells from breaking.

Eggs, like all other ingredients, used in cake making, should be at room temperature—about 70 degrees F. to combine well.

Hard-cooked eggs separate most easily from the shell and into whites and yolks when cold. As soon as they are cooked, they should be cooled, preferably in running water. Rapid cooling has the added advantage of helping to prevent the familiar dark layer from forming around the yolk.

Cook eggs slowly. They are like most people—rush them and they get tough.

Budget menus are important in meal homes. Here are a few tested examples:

Dinner: Tomato juice, lamb shepherd's pie, lettuce salad, bread, butter or fortified margarine, cup cakes with peanut butter frosting, coffee, milk.

Dinner: Cream of potato soup, salmon and egg salad and toast points, apricot gelatin, coffee, milk.

Dinner: Broiled mackerel with lemon wedges, scalloped tomatoes, parsley potato balls, shredded cabbage and carrot slaw, bread, butter or fortified margarine, gingerbread with vanilla icing, coffee, milk.

Dinner: Corned beef patties (using canned corned beef hash), creamed onions, boiled parsnips, escarots and radish salad, bread, butter or fortified margarine, broiled grapefruit halves, coffee, milk.
