German Trucks Bypass Banned Highway Into Berlin

BEGIN ROLLING INTO CITY AGAIN AFTER BEING HALTED BY RUSSIANS

BY UNITED PRESS
Western German trucks began rolling into Berlin again today. Barred by the Russians from the Helmstedt-Berlin super-highway, the trucks crossed the British-Russian zonal border north and south of Helmstedt and drove on to Berlin without interference. The Soviet military government in Berlin explained that it halted all trucks trying to use the super-highway at Helmstedt yesterday and would continue to do so because it did not want them cluttering up that arterial road. The autobahn, or super highway, is for Allied use only, Soviet Military Governor, Gen. V. I. Chuikov said in a statement broadcast by Berlin radio. He denied that Russia was reimposing any part of the Berlin blockade that it lifted a week ago. Chuikov said the autobahn had been barred to German trucks before the blockade was imposed a year ago. However, he said German trucks had been permitted to use it for six days after the lifting of the blockade "as a matter of convenience."

Rotarians Hear Safe Driving Talk, See Film

John Winder was in charge of the program at the Rotary Club meeting Wednesday at noon at the Gholson Hotel and introduced Glynn Covington who gave a talk on safe driving and showed a film to illustrate points in his talk. The film depicted the discourtesies, carelessness, ignorance and stubborn determination that are causes back of many of the highway accidents that we have. Covington, who is safety engineer for the Lone Star Producing Company and Lone Star Gas Company, stated that Eastland County stands well up in the list of traffic deaths and serious injuries in the state of Texas. He pointed out the fact that Ranger High School is one of 150 schools in Texas offering a safety driving course. Until recently there were only 100 offering the course. Guests at the meeting were Dr. J. H. Cason, Jim Murphy and Jack Frost all from the Eastland Rotary Club and Rotarian Cameron of Tennessee. Preceding the program Bill Boinny who is student at Ranger Junior College under a Rotary scholarship, spoke to the club and thanked them for the opportunity that the club is giving him. Bill is a member of Phi Theta Kappa, honorary scholastic society for Junior colleges. James Smith was introduced as a new member of the club.

Convict Escapes Goldthwaite Jail

GOLDTHWAITE, Tex., May 19 (UP)—A Miami, Fla., prisoner tunneled through a rock wall and escaped the Mills County Jail here last night. Sheriff Wiley Mahan said the prisoner, Boris G. Petroff, 31, apparently stole a truck belonging to the Abernathy Construction Company to make his getaway. It was found abandoned early today in Brownwood. Petroff had been sentenced to two years imprisonment Monday on a plea of guilty to forgery charges and was being held in the jail pending transfer to the Huntsville State Prison. Mahan said Petroff probably had worked two nights, using a stove leg, a broom handle and fragments of iron for a "shovel" to make the hole in the stone and mortar cell wall. He let himself down from the second floor cell on a rope fashioned from blankets and other bedding.

M. yesterday. By 7 A. M. today the Trinity was down to 43.1 feet, and falling steadily.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ashcraft have received word that their son-in-law, Warren R. Cozby, has been promoted from the rank of second lieutenant to first lieutenant with the United States Air Force.

Well... I Dunno, But...

An appeal has been made to the Eastland County chapter of the American Red Cross for additional funds to assist with the work among stern and flood victims in Texas. At the present rate of storms and floods in Texas funds of the Red Cross will be greatly depleted and since Eastland County did not meet its last quota for the Red Cross, it occurs to us that an additional contribution is justified.

If we are to back up our bragging about Texas, then we should help to take care of those in our own state that have been hit by disaster and not leave it up to outsiders.

Also in connection with the disasters a drive for clothes for Fort Worth flood victims is being made. This, too, merits the support of the people of Ranger. Those in charge of the drive have been assured that the clothing can be used and anything that is wearable should be pulled out of the back corners of closets and contributed to the drive.

Many of the victims of that flood will not be fortunate enough to be able to buy such items for themselves and the proposed help is timely and commendable.

We've been hearing a lot about "bumper" crops this year and glad to hear the good news. But Ranger already has a bumper crop — of weeds. The heavy rains of the last few weeks have brought this evil along with the good. Of course weeds grow without rain which is something that crops don't do very well, but they were never thicker than they are right now and an early start will make the weed cutting a lot easier.

Besides being unsightly, weeds harbor mosquitoes which also did fair to raise a "bumper" crop this year—and an early one, too. Witness the best people are already gettin'.

Social Security Advice Given

"Judging from inquiries received daily by our office, many workers don't know what they are buying with their social security taxes," Ralph T. Fisher, manager of the Abilene Social Security Administration office, said today.

age and survivors insurance with old-age assistance," Fisher continued. "Others confuse old-age and survivors insurance with unemployment compensation."

"All workers covered by social security should realize that the penny taken out of each dollar of wages pays the premiums for old age and survivors insurance; which is, in effect, a combined life insurance and retirement annuity policy. The plan provides monthly retirement payments to workers and their families. It also provides monthly benefits to families of workers who have died. Eligibility and the amount of benefits hinges on wages the worker has earned in jobs covered by social security."

"Old-age assistance, on the other hand, is paid to old people who are in need. The payments vary with the need of each applicant. Unemployment compensation provides workers with some income when they are out of a job."

paired her presence to a minimum; only three days a week, and she must be gone by six, not sleep under their roof. They spoke guardedly in front of her, or not at all.

They were going to be very discreet, they were going to be very prudent this time.

The first week or two, every time Bonnie came or went from the house in daylight, she held her parasol tipped low as she stepped to or from the carriage, so that it shielded her face. And he, without that advantage of concealment, kept his head down all he could.

So that, almost, he always seemed to be looking for something along the ground each time he entered or left.

And when a neighbor came to offer a courtesy call, as the custom was, laden with homemade jellies and the like, Bonnie held her fast at the door, and made voluble explanations that they were not settled yet and the house was not in order, as an excuse for not asking her in.

The woman went away, with affronted mien and taking her gifts back with her unrepresented, and when next they sighted her on the walk, she made no salutation and looked the other way.

"You should not have done that," he cautioned, stepping out from where he had listened, as the frustrated visitor departed.

"There was no other way," she said. "If I had once admitted her, then others would have come, and I would have been expected to return their calls, and there would have been no end to it."

After that once, no others came. "They probably think we live together," she told him, once, jeeringly. "I always leave my left glove off, now, every time I go out, and hold my hand up high, in the parasol-stick, so that they cannot fail to see the wedding band." And punctuated it: "The filthy sow!"

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers had come to Pensacola. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers had taken a house in Pensacola. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers — from nowhere. On the way to — no one knew.

FRANCO CLAIMS ALLIES SOUGHT BLOW AT GERMANY THRU SPAIN

BY RALPH FORTE
United Press Staff Correspondent
MADRID, Spain, May 19 (UP) — Generalissimo Francisco Franco told the Spanish Cortes (Parliament) last night that the United States and Britain considered opening the second front against Germany through Spain in 1944. He presented a series of communications which he implied fell into his hands through foreign intelligence agents who worked in Spain during the war.

One of the communications, which he said was dated Moscow, Feb. 7, 1944, carried a rejection of the invasion idea by the Soviet Politburo. The telegram insisted that the Allies invade the continent through Germany's Atlantic defenses, Franco said.

Francisco, speaking for 90 minutes, vigorously protested refusal of the United Nations General Assembly in New York to lift the boycott of his regime, whereby ambassadors are kept out of Madrid.

He suggested the action was unfair because of Spanish friendship and cooperation with the Western Allies and Spain's help to the U. S. and Britain during the war.

The Generalissimo said that Winston Churchill, Britain's wartime prime minister, offered concessions to Spain at the expense of Italy and France if German troops were kept off Spanish soil.

Then, amid cheers, he said: "It is known by the history of our relations in recent years with Britain."

Francisco said that the Spanish foreign ministry had received from the Duke of Alba its London ambassador, a telegram containing Churchill's promises to Spain. Dated Oct. 2, 1941, it reported:

1. If Britain won the war, Britain would be able to make France satisfy just Spanish claims in the Mediterranean.

2. Italy and France would be reduced in size and Spain would become the leading Mediterranean power.

ANOTHER hotel room, in another place. And yet the same. The hotel had a different name, that was all. The scene its windows looked out upon had a different name, that was all.

But they were the same two, in the same hotel room. The same two people, the same two run-aways.

This, he realized, watching her broodingly, was what their life was going to be like from now on. Another hotel room, and then another, and still another. But always the same. Another town, and then another, and still another. Onward, and onward, and onward — to nowhere. Until some day they would come to their last hotel room, in their last town. And then —

A short life and an exciting one, she had toasted one night back in Mobile. She had it wrong. A short life and a dull one, she should have said. By patterns of security one ever so wearisomely repetitive as the pattern of the refugee without a refuge. No monotony of law-abidance can ever compare to the monotony of crime. He had found that out by now.

They came to a halt in Pensacola, at last, for a little while, to catch their breaths. They had now followed the great, slow, curve the Gulf Coast makes as far as they could go along it, heading eastward, always eastward. By fits and starts, by frightened spurts and equally frightened stops, some long, some short, they followed their destiny blindly. New Orleans, then Biloxi, then Mobile, then Pensacola. With many a little hidden-away place in between.

Now Pensacola. They couldn't go any farther than that, along their self-appointed trajectory, without leaving the littoral behind, and for some reason or other, probably fear of the unknown, they clung to the familiar coastline. From there the curve dropped sharply away, past the huddle of tin-roofed shacks that was Tampa, on down to the strange, other-language foreignness of Havana. And that would have meant cutting themselves off completely, exile irrevocable beyond power to return. (Returning ships were inspected, and they had no documents.) Nor did they want to cut inland and make for Atlanta, the next obvious step. She was afraid, for reasons of her own, of the North, and though that was not the North, it was a step toward it.

SO, Pensacola. They took a house in Pensacola. It was not for grandeur, not for style, not to feel "really" married, but for the sake of simple, elementary safety.

"They spot you much easier in a hotel," she whispered, in their rain-beaten, one-night hotel. "They nose into your business quicker. People come and go more, all around you, carrying tales away with them and spreading them all around."

He nodded, bending to peer from under the lowered window shade, then starting back as a flash of lightning lit the intolerably bright.

They took the most remote, hidden, inconspicuous house they could find, on a drowsing, tree-lined street well out from the center of town. Other houses not too near, neighbors not too many; they put heavy lace curtains in the windows, to be safer still from prying eyes. They engaged a wainscot of sheer compulsion, but many a

PRESIDENT OF BRAZIL SAYS HIS NATION WORKING FOR PEACE

By Merriman Smith
United Press White House
Reporter

WASHINGTON, May 19 (UP)—President Eurico Gaspar Dutra of Brazil told Congress today that his nation is working hand in hand with the United States in an effort "to ensure world peace."

In a speech before a joint session of the Senate and House, the Brazilian Chief of State expressed faith that friendship between the two nations will continue "ever stronger."

Together, he said, the United States and Brazil can exert strong influences for world peace and harmony through both the United Nations and the Regional Organization of American States.

Dutra was accompanied to Capitol Hill by President Truman during the second day of the Brazilian president's three-day visit here. The trip reciprocates a journey M. Truman made to Rio De Janeiro in 1947.

On both world and continental levels, Dutra said, the United States and Brazil are working for peace.

"On the continental plane we have not withheld our efforts on behalf of the ever growing vigor of the inter-American system, which safeguards the security of the continent and fosters the well being of the peoples on this hemisphere," Dutra said.

"On the world plane, we collaborate with frankness and loyalty for the prestige of the United Nations, and with our participation in its specialized agencies we seek to put into execution the purposes of that institution which aims at the establishment of a better understanding among nations as the only means to ensure world peace."

Dutra said the United States

Accused Seminary To Make Report To Southern Baptist Convention

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 19 (UP)—The Southern Baptist Convention was to hear a report today from its oldest theological seminary, which yesterday was charged with teaching subjects not in line with fundamental Baptist beliefs.

The convention yesterday heard a surprise motion from Rev. Oscar Gibson, Louisville, Ky., to investigate the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville. Gibson asked the convention president to appoint a seven-man committee to look into "modernism" at the school.

Rev. John C. Hurt, retired Atlanta, Ga., pastor promptly opposed the investigation and moved that the matter be left to the seminary's board of trustees.

A voice vote of the convention carried Hurt's motion by a large majority.

Gibson said he was informed of conditions from seminary students in his Louisville 18th Street Church. Asked if the convention's action meant he would not be allowed to present his evidence, he was told he could—to the board of trustees.

Last night some 7,900 Baptists heard an address by Rev. Robert G. Lee, president of the SBC. The Memphis, Tenn., pastor asked the convention for the same unity and coordinated action as is found in the human body. He described the convention as a "beautifully proportioned body with strength—an all-southern, all-American, all-world athlete capable of daring exploits for Christ."

The convention gave almost unanimous approval to a report by Rev. J. M. Dawson, secretary of SBC public relations, Washington, D. C. Dawson strongly denounced the Roman Catholic Church's program to obtain funds for parochial schools.

He charged the Catholic hierarchy in this country denies the constitution provides for separation of church and state. However, Dawson said he was not asking for a "crusade against the Catholic theological faith."

Witness Says Hattman Sent Doctor Threat

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia. May 19 (UP)—A private detective testified today that the man Dr. Robert C. Rutledge is accused of slaying showed him a knife and advised him to "tell that — he better not cause me any trouble."

The detective, John Wilkerson, 41, St. Louis, testifying for the defense in Rutledge's murder trial, said that Byron C. Hattman offered to leave St. Louis and go to California if the doctor and his wife would make up his loss in wages.

Wilkerson was one of two "surprise" defense witnesses, both private detectives. It was testified yesterday that Rutledge hired them to persuade Hattman to stay away from his wife, Sydney, 23, after the 29-year old engineer allegedly seduced her.

Wilkerson testified yesterday that he talked to Hattman one day in October and asked him to leave Mrs. Rutledge alone. Today he described a second early-morning meeting, "four or five weeks later," held in a St. Louis parking lot like the first.

The detective said Hattman drew a knife from his pocket when Wilkerson told him he and Rutledge might take the matter up with Hattman's employers at the Emerson Electric Co.

"Tell that — he better not cause me any trouble out at my work," Wilkerson quoted Hattman as saying.

Drowning Victim's Body Recovered

DALLAS, May 19 (UP)—The body of James R. Forman, 19, was recovered today from Mountain Creek Lake.

He drowned Monday after abandoning a rowboat and setting out to swim a half-mile ashore with two fishing companions. His companions made it to shore safely. They said the boat was abandoned when a strong wind made it impossible to row ashore.

Student Bowling Tourney Planned

The first annual students tournament, limited to members of student leagues, will be conducted May 25 & 29 at the Ranger Bowl. The tournament will be conducted similarly to the County Tournament just concluded. Champions will be crowned in the team, doubles, singles and all events divisions, and will hold such titles until 1950. Officials from the senior leagues will handle all the details.

The first prize for the winner in the all events division will be a special measured bowling ball. This is a very nice prize and any bowler would be glad to have a private ball of his own. Pins and plaques will be awarded winners in the other divisions.

Four team entries have already been received and it is hoped that the full complement of 14 teams will be able to compete. More details can be obtained at the Ranger Bowl.

Varsity, Exes To Play Today

The Ranger Junior College Exes of last year's basketball team will play the varsity's next year team this afternoon in an exhibition basketball game to officially close the spring training. The game is slated to start at 2:30 P. M.

Coch Yarbrough was well pleased with the squads work during spring practice. He said he thought that he would have a faster team next year than the last moving five that he had this year. With a little more height the team for next season would just about be set.

Representing the exes this afternoon will be Candy Walker, Junior Arterburn, Ray Blackwell, Don Ford, and several others. The varsity will be composed of Jimmy Crawley, Jerry Cook, Chic Neal, Norman Hubbard, Ernie Cunningham, Wayne Brown, Dale Jones, J. W. Harper, Keith Munnerlyn, Meredith Sides, and R. C. Smith.

New Mascot For Rice Is Popular

HOUSTON, Tex, May 19 (UP)—Sammy II, brand new mascot at Rice Institute, drew praises from all corners of the campus today.

Although slightly weather-beaten and ruffed up after an attack from two bluejays, the pint-sized horned owl gave new zest to the Rice mascotship, which for years has been held by an ordinary stuffed owl, pieced together with linoleum.

Sammy II went to the Rice campus today as a gift from the University of Houston, where he was found yesterday fighting off the bluejays.

Dean H. S. Cameron at Rice accepted Sammy "with gratitude and a full understanding of the spirit behind the gesture."

Rice cheer leader Teddy Montz was more lucid about Sammy's future.

"Sammy II is indeed welcome, and has before him the full and regal life befitting his station as mascot of Rice Institute."

Judge Warns He May Rush Trial Of Communists

NEW YORK, May 19 (UP)—The conspiracy trial of 11 top Communists continued today with a stern warning from Federal Judge Harold Medina that he might take steps to "expedite the trial."

Judge Medina issued his speeding warning to defense attorneys who objected to questions put to the government's seventh "surprise" witness, an FBI agent, who has been a member of the Communist party since November, 1946.

Balmes Hidalgo, Jr., the FBI man and an employee of the Colonial Trust Company, New York, testified yesterday that "a girl named Betty" told a group of Communists that "replacement of the bourgeoisie by the proletarian state was impossible without violent revolution." At this point defense attorney Harry Sacher made another in a series of objections.

Judge Medina answered that defense attorneys were delaying the trial, and he should "not be surprised" if he took steps to "expedite the trial."

Eugene Dennis, a Communist party secretary who is acting as his own defense, immediately protested the judge's warning as an "attempt to intimidate the defense."

"You don't look as if you could be intimidated," Judge Medina reported.

Portland Flood Threat Grows

PORTLAND, Ore, May 19—(UP)—The Columbia River surged toward an expected flood crest of 22.9 feet today and authorities said they were preparing disaster relief in case levees broke.

Dikes protecting the city's north eastern edges were reported seeping in four places. Sheriff's deputies and Army engineers maintained a constant patrol to watch for signs of a break.

Sightseers were barred from the threatened area.

Red Cross and Salvation Army officers said they had prepared to furnish disaster relief.

The number of dead from the current high water in the Pacific northwest reached seven today after a small boat capsized, dumping a man into the Willamette River near Portland.

Ticket Scalping May Close Show

NEW YORK, May 19 (UP)—The hit Broadway musical "South Pacific," starring Mary Martin and Ezio Pinza may be forced to close today because of a city inquiry into ticket scalping.

Investigations Commissioner John Murtagh said he will seek to revoke the license of the Majestic Theater where the musical is playing because the boxoffice treasurer, Jack Pearl, has refused to cooperate with the inquiry.

Lee Shubert, president of the Mogoro Corporation which owns the theater, announced that Pearl had been suspended from his job.

Judge Medina issued his speeding warning to defense attorneys who objected to questions put to the government's seventh "surprise" witness, an FBI agent, who has been a member of the Communist party since November, 1946.

Balmes Hidalgo, Jr., the FBI man and an employee of the Colonial Trust Company, New York, testified yesterday that "a girl named Betty" told a group of Communists that "replacement of the bourgeoisie by the proletarian state was impossible without violent revolution." Eugene Dennis, a Communist party secretary who is acting as his own defense, immediately protested the judge's warning as an "attempt to intimidate the defense."

"You don't look as if you could be intimidated," Judge Medina reported.

Appeal Bond For Bank Bandit Set

DALLAS, May 19 (UP)—Federal Judge T. Whitfield Davidson today set a $15,000 appeal bond for Ollie Otto Price pending his appeal from conviction of robbing the First State Bank of Rice, Tex., last August.

Price has been held in the Dallas County Jail since the conviction.

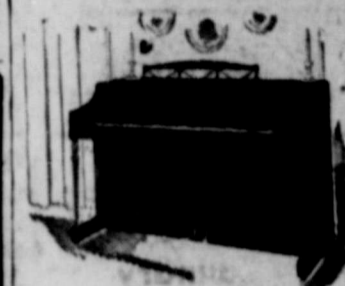

READ THE CLASSIFIEDS

Pearl was called yesterday to Murtagh's office to answer charges that prices up to $60 were being paid for tickets to the show. But he refused to answer any questions except to give his name and address.

FORT WORTH WATER SERVICE TO BE ALMOST NORMAL BY FRIDAY

FORT WORTH, Tex., May 19 (UP)—City officials believed today that the Fort Worth water supply would be 80 per cent of normal by tomorrow.

A gigantic electric pump, being rushed from Fort Wayne, Ind., was due to arrive by late afternoon and it should be installed and working by morning. It can deliver 15,000,000 gallons of water daily.

An ancient steam-operated pump, put into emergency operation yesterday, broke down intermittently, but water department mechanics believed they could nurse it along until the regular, electric pumps, overrun in Monday's flood, were cleaned, dried and restored to service.

The two emergency pumps and other supplies being made available from artesian wells and out-of-town trucks will deliver as much as 25,000,000 gallons of the city's 32,000,000 requirement, the officials hope.

The death toll in the flood continues to rise. An Air Force patrol plane spotted the body of a negro man, identified as Quilla Robinson 41, in the northeast section of the city this morning. He was the eighth body recovered. A seventh body, recovered last night, was identified as that of Mrs. Eula Lyies, about eighty.

The indicated death toll was 15 or more. At least seven persons have been missing since Monday night.

A two-alarm fire broke out in a downtown laundry this morning and spread to a neighboring store before firemen extinguished it. They used pumper trucks to force river water through fire lines, spliced out to 2,700 foot length.

It was the first major blaze since the water system was knocked out by the flood. Damage was $25,000.

As the water receded, National Guard troops were called out to keep down looting in the ravaged sections.

Faced with a critical shortage of water for drinking and cooking, the City Council asked for all stores, theaters and other establishments to call a "business holiday" unless they had private water supplies.

The Trinity River was returning steadily to its banks but some authorities estimated that the sudden flood that began Tuesday had caused $25,000,000 damage.

Thousands of Fort Worth's 330,000 residents lined up at public schools to get water rationed from supplies brought in by 34 tank trucks. Others joined queues at 14 centers to receive anti-typhoid inoculations.

Seven bodies had been fished from the muddy waters and it was feared the total dead would rise to 11.

Authorities called out 200 National Guardsmen after looting was reported among the damaged homes and stores where the river was falling.

Between 6,000 and 7,000 persons were still homeless. At the height of the flood, 13,000 persons were driven out of their lowlying homes.

City Manager W. O. Jones estimated that the flood had done at least $6,000,000 damage. But businessmen said the flood cost them at least $20,000,000. Insurance experts and engineers reported $5,000,000 damage to 1,000 homes, the municipal water system and the river system.

Army engineers promised Chamber of Commerce and city officials they would begin temporary repair work on the levees this week.

Local authorities also voted to ask Texas Congressmen to seek an immediately $500,000 federal appropriation to start construction to a permanent floodway project through Fort Worth.

Gorman Oil News

By Buena Van Winkle

R. H. Patterson No. 1 James drilling like a house afire with that cable tools outfit, for they are now at 3,385 and going on down, in spite of the water and mud.

However, according to Mr. Patterson, he cannot even get into the same country with his other two rigs — one on the McClung No. 1 Miller Estate in Northern Erath County, and the other on the McClung No. 1 Rube Christian in the Southern part of Erath County, out from the Clareite community. Both operations are closed in because of the weather.

Grader Oil Co. No. 1 Shelton out from Sipe Springs have apparently missed the Marble Falls and are drilling ahead at 2,680, on what will, in all probability be an Ellenburger test. When they complete this operation the Skeeter and Curry outfit intend to move to the East 80 of the J. C. Burns tract south of the Kirk field and about 5 miles Southeast of Gorman. That is if the weather will ever permit the moving of that heavy equipment. The J. C. Burns east 80 is held by Herberg out of Dallas. That test will be a Marble Falls as are almost all of the tests sent down in the Kirk field so far.

Belt Dison No. 1 W. G. Pinson still trying to grapple that bit, but with the mud and slush and all the going is rough.

The Jay and Parker Company No. 2 T. N. Watt are still closed in account of the weather, as are the operations on the Sanders for Commercial Production and also the M. E. Daniels for Burk Royalty.

Thinks Nothing Wrong With Being Father At 82

BATESVILLE, Miss., May 19 (UP)—An 82-year-old grandfather who was too old to work said today he couldn't see anything unusual about his 41-year-old wife's presenting him with hefty twin sons.

The proud father, W. T. Thompson, pointed out that he and his wife have three other children, haven't they? The oldest is 24. The youngest is two. The one in the middle is five.

Neighbors apparently didn't see anything unusual about the birth of the new twins either, because they were born at the Thompson home 15 miles from here last Saturday. The news just reached Batesville yesterday.

The boys were not even weighed in at birth, but today they tipped the scales at 10 pounds 8 ounces each.

A midwife delivered the first child at the rural home, and Thompson thought it was all over. But Mrs. Thompson announced that something was wrong.

So they sent for Dr. John Martin, who soon found out what the "trouble" was. It was another justy son.

Texan In Dark On Announcement

AUSTIN, Tex., May 19 (UP)—Rep. Jack Wisener of Wells, Tex., said today he was awaiting additional information concerning an announcement that he would be subpoenaed as a witness in the treason trial of "Tokyo Rose."

Wisener, a former Japanese prisoner of war, said he knew of no specific reason why he would be called by the defense as a witness.

The Pole sarcastically suggested that he might call for a special session of the assembly on the case of the bespectacled Communist agent, who stowed away on a Polish liner battery only to be seized by British authorities in Southampton for possible extradition to the United States.

Finally Evatt put the matter to a vote, disregarding Soviet bloc requests to speak on a point of order.

Czechoslovakia demanded a roll call. Eastern European delegates protested they did not know what they were voting on and either abstained or refused to vote.

GLOVERSVILLE, N. Y. (UP) Robert Silvers was brought before Justice of the Peace Edward Wurz, who fined him for speeding. Twenty minutes later Silvers was back in Wurz's court. He paid a second fine for driving too fast.

The port of Southampton, England, last year handled 557,000 passengers, of whom 377,897 crossed the English Channel, a gain of 1.1 per cent over the previous year, reports British Railways.

UN Ends General Assembly Session

FLUSHING, N. Y., May 19 (UP)—The United Nations General Assembly ended its spring session last night after squelching a Polish attempt to bring up the Gerhart Eisler case for debate.

As the diplomats gratefully began closing their briefcases following the decision to postpone the whole colonies question until fall, Polish Delegate Julius Katz-Suchy burst forth with his demand for full debate of the Eisler case.

Assembly President Herbert Evatt told the Polish delegate it was a physical impossibility to open the Eisler case at this late date.

Joint Meeting Of P.-T. A. Held

A joint meeting of the Young School and Hodges Oak Park School Parents-Teachers Associations was held Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Young School auditorium with Mrs. F. R. King, president of Young School Association, presiding.

The meeting was opened with the singing of "America" after which reports of standing committees were heard. Mrs. Joe Young and Frances Worden gave delegate reports of the recent First District convention in Weatherford.

Two-year pins were awarded Mrs. King and Mrs. G. E. Harper, the latter president of Hodges Oak Association and a gift was presented Mrs. Arthur Deffebach president of the City Council.

During the meeting the following officers for Young School P.-T.A. were installed; president, Mrs. Young; vice-president, Mrs. Theo Ferguson; treasurer, Mrs. Hershel Angus and secretary, Mrs. M. P. McCollum.

Guy Hancock, principal of the schools, spoke to the group and expressed his appreciation for the cooperation from the parents during the year.

The two associations will sponsor a trip to Cisco and picnic there Friday for members of the sixth grades of the schools.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served to about 40 members.

Hurry fresh vegetables into the refrigerator to keep them colorful and prevent the loss of vitamins. As soon as they come from the market or garden, wash and trim vegetables and allow them to drain. Then store them in handy glass-on-steel enameled refrigerator pans. Designed in a variety of sizes, from large vegetable pans to small ones for storing leftovers, these enameled containers are square or rectangular to save space and have flat covers for convenient stacking.

one of the firms, Fantasy, said he considered the new fabric the most important thing to hit the lingerie business since multi-filament rayon took the place of cheap silk some 11 years ago.

Full development of nylon fabric has been held up for years by the inability to produce the twist in the yarn which is necessary for all types of dull-surface weaves. Woven nylon on the market to date has been of a plain or taffeta weave. Customers have admired its launderability and wearing quality but have frequently complained of its shiny look and slippery "clammy" feel.

A hosiery manufacturer recently announced that he had put a successful twist into nylon stocking yarn. That development producing a less shiny stocking and possibly a better wearing one, is, however, of less significance to the stocking industry than the introduction of the crepe in the woven fabric field.

A spokesman for the Hess Gold-Smith Company said the twisted yarn will lead the way to a new field of heavy crepes and "surfaced" materials which previously we

Mental Patients Roam After Fire Guts Dormitory

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., May 19 (UP) — Eleven of the 152 mental patients who ran screaming from their blazing dormitory here last night were still roaming the county today, authorities said, after a search of the ruins disclosed no burned bodies.

A nose count of patients from the fire-gutted Eastern State Mental Hospital's farm dormitory today showed 11 of the male inmates missing, Supervisor L. O. Campbell said.

"They must be wandering around in the vicinity," Campbell said. "After searching the ruins we feel positively sure that none of the inmates died in the fire."

Dr. E. F. Peterson, administrator of state hospitals who led the search, said that "we found no dead."

Hospital officials emphasized that while the escaped inmates may be panic-stricken they are not considered dangerous.

Police and firemen had rounded up all the other white and blue-overalled inmates by midnight last night, but early today they reported no trace of the 11 missing men.

Flames burst out in the central section of the U-shaped combination office building and dormitory here late last night, throwing the 152 mental patients into panic and confusion.

But attendants were able to release the inmates from the dormitory wings of the building before the flames reached those portions of the structure.

Testimony Due In Saucier Trial

WICHITA FALLS, May 19 (UP)—Testimony began today in the murder trial of T. C. Saucier, former Wichita Falls state hospital attendant.

Saucier and David Beck, 40, were indicted last March after they were charged with slaying Thomas Houston Gibbons, 37, a Sulphur Springs truck farmer "by stopping, beating and kicking him to death."

The final juror in Saucier's trial was selected last night after 23 men were questioned from a special venire of 250.

Gibbons was pronounced dead less than 20 minutes after he was admitted to the mental hospital as a patient.

Judge Frank Lkard of 10th District Court agreed to separate trials for the attendants, but refused a defense request for Beck to face the court first.

District Attorney Clyde Fillmore said he would summon Beck as a state witness and permit him to be cross-examined, or dismiss the indictment against him so that he might testify for Saucier.

Saucier and Beck have been held in Wichita County Jail since March 7, when they were charged.

Nylon Crepe Due On Market Soon

By Barbara Bundschu United Press Fashion Writer NEW YORK, May 19 (UP)—They've finally put a twist in nylon.

It took 10 years. And today's successful production of a nylon crepe—the yarn must be twisted to make any crepe—is widely considered the most important step forward for the synthetic yarn since it made its first appearance in the "wonder stockings" of 1939.

The new fabric, developed by Hess Goldsmith and Co., Inc., after years of experimentation, will be on the market in a limited quantity of slips and nightgowns sometime next month.

"Crepe-lyon," the firm's registered trade name, has a feel very much like that of silk crepe de chine. Its lightly pebbled surface is soft and pliable, only slightly "cooler" in feel than silk of the same weave.

Two lingerie firms have received the entire first output, and their products, in medium and expensive price ranges, will be in the stores about mid June.
