Graduation Exercises For Schools Begin Sunday

Well...
I Dunno,
But...

Might be a lesson in the following taken from "Life in These United States" in the June edition of THE READER'S DIGEST. My father was sitting on the porch of our little village store when two strangers drove up. "Hey, there," one of them called out, "how long has this town been dead?"

Father looked at them over the rims of his spectacles. "Well, not long, I guess. You're the first buzzards I've seen."

We had an odd incident happen in our house recently and Saturday culminated in a letter from a cousin that hadn't been heard from in years.

We were going through some souvenirs and family clippings when in one box we came across a book that had been in the husband's family. In looking through the book, the husband came across two postcards, one of which was addressed to a Pat Cooper at Sonora and unsigned.

When the session started, the state had an estimated $100,000,000 (M) in anticipated additional income—over the next biennium as compared with the last two fiscal years. That money is virtually gone. Spent, or long ago earmarked to be.

No longer did even the most optimistic observer believe that the lawmakers would trim their spending to fit the state's income.

Earlier, the governor had suggested this might be done.

But the governor himself had helped underline the need for additional money with his warning to the legislature. Either, he said the lawmakers would approve the $21,000,000 eleemosynary building program, or else he would call the legislature back into special session to insist that the job be done.

The major question now appeared to be how much money needed to be raised, and where the blood would fall.

Speaking of the souvenirs that we've kept all of these years and that are still waiting for the scrapbook stage, we found all kinds of things from our high school days and particularly the senior year and graduation.

Boy, some of the graduates this year would really get a bang out of some of those things. We ain't sayin' how long ago that was but it was long enough that things were done considerably different from the present and things don't look the same either.

And when it gets to the point that your own laughter laughs at your pictures of days gone by, it's time to start checkin' up on the years.

Called to our attention today was something that we hadn't thought of. It was pointed out that between 400 and 500 people are dependent on businesses on Highway 80 running through Ranger.

That seems like a payroll worth fighting for. If one single industry in Ranger employed that many people and was threatened with loss of business that will face the highway people if traffic is curtailed on that highway, the town would rise in arms in its defense. And we understand that Ranger is doing just that for the highway people's cause.

High School Honor Graduates

As valedictorian and salutatorian, Dortha Hightower Blitch and Tony Lewis will have parts on the high school graduation program at the high school auditorium on Friday evening, May 27. Mrs. Blitch, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Hightower was valedictorian with an average of 93.09 and Tony was salutatorian with an average of 92.39.

JESTER REPORTED RECONCILED TO NEED FOR MORE MONEY

By O. B. Lloyd, Jr. United Press Staff Correspondent AUSTIN, Tex., May 21 (UP)—Gov. Beauford Jester has reconciled himself, his associates agreed today, to the unpleasant probability that the 51st Legislature will have to dig up more money.

When the session started, the state had an estimated $100,000,000 (M) in anticipated additional income—over the next biennium as compared with the last two fiscal years. That money is virtually gone. Spent, or long ago earmarked to be.

BACCALAUREATE SERMON AT 8 P. M. SUNDAY TO OPEN WEEK'S PROGRAM

The long road to graduation begins to come to an end this week for approximately 200 graduates from Ranger schools.

Closing events of the school year get underway Sunday night at 8 o'clock when the baccalaureate service for the high school seniors is held at the high school auditorium.

The Rev. Earl Bissex, minister of the First Christian Church, will deliver the address.

The professional for the class will be played by Lilla Jean Brown, head of the fine arts department of Ranger Junior College, and the invocation will be offered by the Rev. Cecil Ellis.

A trio will give vocal numbers. The trio is composed of Jean Watson, Berle Blackwell, Patsy Taylor with Miss Brown as accompanist. Betty Reuter will be presented in a piano solo, Prelude in G Minor by Rachmaninoff. Following announcements by Dr. G. C. Boswell and the sermon by the Reverend Bissex, the congregation will join in singing "O'ward Christian Soldiers" and the benediction will be offered by the Rev. David C. Ham.

Commencement exercises for the high school graduates will be held Friday evening, May 27 at 8 o'clock at the high school. This is a student program and highlights of the evening will be the valedictory delivered by Dortha Hightower Blitch and the salutatory address by William Anthony Lewis, III. Processional and recessional music will be furnished by Miss Brown and Douglas Jacoby will sing "Ole Man River." The invocation will be by Floyd J. Spivy, minister of the Church of Christ, and the class gift will be presented to the school by Marvin Wilson, John A. Winder, principal of the high school will present the class and Coke H. Martin, president of the board of trustees will award the diplomas.

Officers of the senior class are, president, Marvin Wilson; vice-president, Keith Munnerlyn; secretary, Wanda McKinney; treasurer, Meredith Sides and sergeant-at-arms, June Ann Morton.

Honor students besides the two mentioned above are Betty Reuter, Wanda McKinney, Marvin Wilson, Joan Kenney, Gloria Graham and Ralph Cooper.

What's Needed In Fort Worth

Mrs. John M. Gholson and Mrs. T. O. Rawls were in Fort Worth Friday and while there consulted with authorities as to needs of Mexican and negro families and others who were victims of the flood in Fort Worth this week.

Through Mrs. Ben Rawls who is a worker in the various settlement houses in Fort Worth, it was ascertained that children's underwear is needed for the school age children. Large size dresses for older women are needed as are boys' trousers, boys' coats and men's clothing.

It was particularly stressed that clothes are needed for the school children so that they can finish out the term just about to close.

Clothes for the flood victims are being accepted at the Second Baptist Church which the lead in getting the clothes drive sponsored by all of the churches in Ranger.

R. O. King, general chairman, stated Saturday that the response is splendid and that the drive will close Monday and the clothes delivered to Fort Worth Tuesday.

Social Security Representative To Be Here Wed.

E. Glen McNatt, field representative of the Abilene office of the Social Security Administration, will be at the Retail Merchants Association Office in Ranger at 3:30 P. M., on Wednesday, May 25. Persons wishing assistance with retirement claims or death claims under the Social Security Act should call at that time for necessary help and information.

The Abilene social security office points out that while employers usually report all cash payments to their employees, they do not always include the money value of other pay which is made in some medium other than cash.

This has come to the attention of the office during the handling of claims for benefit payments in the 16 counties in this area.

McNatt explained that the word "wages" used in the Social Security Act includes pay of various types. It includes cash, payments in kind such as meals, lodging, rent, or goods, and of course, salaries, bonuses, back pay, as well as pay by the hour, day, or week.

Workers who receive part or all of their pay in the form of meals or lodging, rent, or goods of any sort, and have reason to believe their wage accounts are incorrect, should contact the Abilene social security office, located at room 308, Post Office building. Ask for a postcard form which makes it so easy to obtain a statement of wages credited to the employee's account.

All persons covered by Federal old-age and survivors insurance should keep in mind that benefit payments to them or their survivors are based on wages from jobs covered by the Social Security Act.

By United Press
EDINBURG, May 21 (UP)—Delbert Woodruff, 26, charged with slaying a University of Texas football player, was back in the Hidalgo County jail today.

Woodruff was arrested yesterday in George West when his bondsmen asked to be released as sureties on his $5,000 bond.

He is scheduled to go on trial June 6 in 92nd District Court for the murder of Frank Evin, University student, in an Edinburg Hotel fight two years ago. Evin's brother, Jesse, was also killed in the fight.

AUSTIN, May 21 (UP)—Texas polio deaths went down 46 cases last week compared to the same period last year.

Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer said yesterday that only 14 cases were reported, in contrast to some 60 cases the year prior.

The total for the year to date was 192, he said. There were 195 cases at this time last year.

AUSTIN, May 21 (UP)—Deaths of babies under one year of age averaged about 46 to 1,000 live births in Texas last year, Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer, reported yesterday.

Dr. Cox said that 9,110 babies died in the state last year. Premature birth claimed 2,698 of the total, while diarrhea and enteritis numbered 1,435 and pneumonia, 1,078.

WICHITA FALLS, May 21 (UP)—The story of another pioneer in Texas Oil History was at an end today.

C. H. Clark, an independent operator who founded the Shamrock Oil Co. and later started the Red River Oil Co., died yesterday. He was 80. Red River Oil eventually became part of the Magnolia Oil Co.

Clark settled in Iowa Park, Tex. after leaving Tennessee in 1890. Before settling in Wichita Falls, he lived for a short time in Electra.

WASHINGTON, May 21 (UP)—Certain employes of Texas Food Dries, Inc., Lufkin, Texas, will vote on the issue of a collective bargaining agent soon.

The election was ordered yesterday by the National Labor Relations Board on petition of the International Molders and Foundry Workers' Union of North America (AFL).

To Be Asked In Hospital Slaying

WICHITA FALLS, May 21 (UP)—District Attorney Clyde Fillmore will ask the death penalty today for T. C. Saucier, a Wichita Falls state hospital attendant accused of kicking a patient to death.

The defense suddenly rested its case last night after David Beck, another attendant who had been indicted on the same charge of murdered with malle, refused to testify.

The indictment had been dismissed against Beck last Monday to permit him to take the stand.

Saucier, 33, was brought to trial for the slaying of Thomas Gibbons, a Sulphur Springs man who died less than 20 minutes after he was admitted to the hospital.

The state rested its case earlier last night after Dr. J. L. Goforth, the Dallas pathologist who performed the autopsy on Gibbons, testified the patient's death could have been caused by stomping, kicking, beating and choking.

WICHITA FALLS, May 21 (UP)—Johnnie Dunagan was happy today over harvesting the nation's first new wheat.

And M. L. Hartmangruder probably was somewhat disappointed.

Hartmangruder, whose farm is 12 miles of Wichita Falls, received combines on his place at 1:30 P. M., and it appeared he was the first wheat farmer in the U. S. to get under the wire.

But Dunagan put combines to work in his field near Throckmorton earlier than that.

Alfred Evans, United Press Correspondent at Olney, reported that the first load of grain from Dunagan's farm arrived at market at 1:55 P. M.

Dunagan's feat was a product of family pride. Johnny owned the land, and Brother Bert operated the combine. The Olney Gin Co. in pany, which temporarily stored the golden harvest, is owned by Brother Joe.

Hartmangruder's first load was consigned to the General Mills Elevator at Wichita Falls.

Evans said wheat generally was not ready in North Texas, but some fields in Throckmorton title with Sam Houston State today.

Austin lost undisputed possession of the championship when Hardin College pated the 'Jacks, 12-1, here yesterday.

 and Young Counties were ripe several days ago. He added that combines couldn't start harvesting because of bogs left by cloudbursts.

(UP)—Mexico's offshore patrols were enlarged today with the addition of a flotilla of coast Guard cutters and a squadron of planes.

The planes will be based at Tampico for patrol duty along the north Mexican coast to enforce fishing and naval regulations. The planes will make regular flights from Tampico to the Rio Grande north.

Five Killed In Kansas Crash

ESBON, Kan., May 21 (UP)—The bodies of five Hiawatha, Kansas, persons, killed in an airplane crash near Burr Oaks, Kan., yesterday, were in a morgue here today awaiting shipment to their home.

Jack Morris, sheriff of Jewell County, identified the group fatally injured as Forrest Gore, manager of the Hiawatha Airport and pilot of the plane; William Clement, president of the Hiawatha Chamber of Commerce; Mark E. Scarborough, city editor of the local paper; Dr. Paul Conrad, Brown County coroner, and C. C. Jarvis, a local automobile dealer.

The five had taken off yesterday to attend a meeting of the U. S. Highway No. 36 Association at St. Francis, Kan., to attempt to get some road work done on Highway 36.

STRIKING NON-COMMUNIST RAIL WORKERS BATTLE COMMUNISTS

By John B. McDermott
United Press Staff Correspondent

BERLIN, May 21 (UP)—Russia called on the western powers today to help quell bloody strike rioting that halted virtually all Soviet-run Berlin trains and injured at least 500 persons.

Striking non-Communist railway workers battled Communist strike breakers with iron bars, clubs and even some guns at stations throughout Berlin. Pickets at one station sicked vicious police dogs on the Communists.

Soviet Maj. Gen. P. A. Kvashnin, boss of Berlin's transport under a Big Four agreement demanded a four-power meeting that the United States, Britain and France take steps to restore order in their sectors. Only a short time earlier, strikers had jeered and spit at Hiawatha citizens had been clamoring for improvements on the highway for months. The Chamber of Commerce sponsored the trip.

Sheriff Morris said two farmers reported hearing a plane in "trouble" a few moments before they heard a crash. The accident occurred five miles northwest of Burr Oak. The plane was destroyed.

All the bodies were burned and Morris said dental work and other means of identification were used to properly identify each of the fatally injured.

Burr Oak is in north central Kansas, about 10 miles south of the Nebraska line.

The sheriff said Gore had got the plane at Sabetha, Kan., and flew to Falls City, Neb., to pick up the other four passengers. The Hiawatha Airport is under construction and was not available for service.

Kvashnin and several other Soviet officers on an inspection tour. Kvashnin said the rioting was endangering Soviet communications.

Gen. George P. Hays, Deputy American Military Governor, told newsmen, however, that he would not use American troops "unless it is clearly shown that German police can't handle the situation."

An unconfirmed report carried by the American-licensed Dena News Agency said Russian troops were moving into Berlin from the Soviet zone. German Administration said the Soviets were considering sending troops into the western sectors to maintain railroad communications linking Berlin and the Soviet Zone of Germany.

Hays said Russian troops and police might go on railway property in the western sectors because they are responsible for the railways. But, he said, if they go beyond such property, "we will take appropriate action."

Every elevated railway train in western Berlin was halted. Virtually all rail traffic in and out of Berlin also ceased despite desperate Soviet attempts to keep it rolling.

Altogether 15,000 railway workers from the three western sectors were on strike. They demanded that the Soviet administration, which controls the railways, pay them in western marks instead of eastern marks, which are worth only a quarter as much.

The Soviet Administration called on 12,000 railway workers from the eastern sector to keep the trains running, but the loyal workers appeared to be fighting a losing battle. Strike headquarters claimed a complete victory.

Scores of slugging matches broke out. Sometimes several were raging at a single station. Passengers found themselves in the middle and many were injured.

German police struggled in vain to restore order. As soon as they would quell one disturbance, two or three would break out elsewhere. With sirens shrieking, their riot squads rushed from station to station.

A special German police guard was given several Russian officers when they visited the scene of a severe street fight near Tempelhof Airfield in the American sector.

Strikers and sympathizers cursed and spit at the Soviet officers, who included Maj. Gen. P. A. Kvashnin, the Soviet Transport chief. At one time, more than 400 fighting men were milling about the spot.

American military police finally dispersed the rioters.

British authorities and German police broke up another big fight at the Charlottenburg elevated station in the British sector.

BATTLING LEAD OF DALLAS EAGLES BEING NARROWED

DALLAS, Tex., May 21 (UP) — The batting edge the league-leading Dallas Eagles have held over the rest of the Texas League gradually is narrowing down. The Eagles fell below the .300 mark during the past week for the first time.

The peace-setting Dallasites, in the midst of a batting slump, were hitting at a .296 pace through games of Wednesday night, officials averages showed today, giving them all 11 point margin over the up-and-coming Oklahoma City Indians.

The Eagles led the league in runs (237, hits (557), doubles (79), home runs (32) and RBI's 225, Oklahoma City in triples (14) and Fort Worth in stolen bases (40).

In the individual hitting race, Lewis Davis of Shreveport topped the list with a .373 average, two points ahead of Fletcher Robbe of Tulsa. Rounding out the top five were John Cusick of Houston at .362 and Herb Conyer of Oklahoma City and Walt Wrons of Tulsa at .355 each.

Bill Serena of Dallas, who hasn't hit one out of the park since May 2, held to the home run, lead with 10. He was one behind teammate Jerry Witte in RBI's with 36. Witte had 37. Witte was the runnerup in home the league, the leader of which as of July 1 would be eligible for the state meet.

Elton Jordan and Bill Kaiser, both of Fredericksburg, have been named president and secretary, respectively, while J. Morris Goforth of Comfort was named treasurer.

runs with eight.

Johnny Lane of Tulsa and Tommy Upton of Beaumont shared the lead in triples with four each, while Conyers paced the loop in doubles with 14, two more than teammate Ray Murray and Dallas' Buck Firoson, Al Mazur of Shreveport had stolen the most bases, eight, trailed by Upton and Preston Ward of Fort Worth with seven each.

Vern Kennedy of Dallas, with six victories, had won the most games in the pitching department, but had dropped two games. Warren Hacker of Shreveport was the only unbeaten hurler with as many as three victories. Dave Jolly of Tulsa had worked the most innings, 66, and the most complete games, 7; Clarence Iott of Dallas had the most strikeouts, 47, Kent Sterling of Beaumont has issued the most walks, 38.

Rose Bowl Game To Stay In Family

CHICAGO, May 21 (UP) — A big nine football team will play in the Rose Bowl for the next two years, no matter how good any other team may be.

Faculty representatives of the conference Thursday night voted to send big nine teams to the bowl for two more years to meet the Pacific Coast conference champions.

The five-year agreement began three years ago. For the first three years big nine teams were obliged to play. In the final two years, the big nine was to be able to select any eastern team it pleased for the Rose Bowl. But the conference fathers have decided to keep the game in the family.

Ford Accuses CIO Of Prolonging Current Strike

DETROIT, May 21 (UP)—The Ford Motor Company accused the United Auto Workers (CIO) today of "using every possible device" to prolong the Ford strike which has idled 106,000 workers.

In a strongly worded letter to UAW Chief Walter Reuther, John S. Bugas, Ford Industrial Relations Director, urged that negotiations for a new contract between the company and the union be "opened in an atmosphere of peace and not of war."

Bugas referred to the UAW request to open negotiations until the current dispute is settled. Bugas said it would be impossible to begin contract talks until June 1.

Reuther countered with a threat to stymie all moves to end the present walkout if the company holds to its decision. He said he would break off peace talks Monday and file unfair labor practice charges against the company with the National Relations Board.

In his letter, Bugas replied: "If you put your ultimatum in effect and thereby prolong this strike by arbitrarily breaking negotiations, you must be held personally accountable for the added distress which will have to be endured by our employees." Previously, Reuther said any break in negotiations in the present strike would "rest squarely on the shoulders of the company." The present contract expires July 15. Renewal talks, according to its terms, could begin any time after May 15.

out from Rucker drilling at 1640 feet, in shale. They have just passed through a shallow sand with no show, of either gas or oil.

The two McClung operations in Erath are still closed in because of muddy roads.

Jimmie Courtney is starting up a new operation on his own over near Rising Star. It is to be a really shallow venture—to be drilled to about 450 feet! He has a small cable tool rig out there and said he should know if he is in the pay by about next Sunday.

The indications all around out there are such that it would not surprise this reporter if Mr. Courtney does really have a pretty good little shallow well. Jimmie is Production Man in this area for Martin Harris Drilling Co., and on the side looks after some of his brother-in-law, Homer Snowden's interests. Mr. Courtney is from Midland, Texas, and should really know the oil game since every contact he has is in oil. His headquarters are in the Gorman Hotel at present. It would be a fine thing to see this young man really strike it good for himself while he is yet young enough to do something about it, and to enjoy it.

The Jay and Parker Company—the whole Company are camping out around their wells these days of mud and slush. Their No. 2 T. N. Watt is getting its 7-inch pipe set and will begin drilling ahead within a few hours presumably. They are something over 2,600 feet and did not want to set 7 inch now, a cave-in caused the speedup on the setting of pipe. Commercial Production Co. No.

3 R. S. Sanders cannot treat their well until they move the rig off the hole so as to set up a completion unit, and they cannot start up on their No. 1 Sanders across the road from the No. 3 until they can move that rig to the No. 1 location. All in all it is a vicious circle—one thing depending on another right on down the line, and everything being held up by the rain, and prospects of even more every hour.

During 1948 American ate an average of more than an egg per day—a total of 338.

Pioneer Oil Man Dies Friday

WICHITA FALLS, May 21 (UP)—The founder of the Shamrock Oil Co., C. H. Clark, oilman and civic leader, died yesterday after a long illness.

Besides starting the Shamrock Company, Clark, 80, founded the Red River Oil Company, which later became a part of the Magnolia Oil Co. For the last few years, he was an independent oil operator. He owned a ranch north of Pampa.

A native of College Grove, Tenn., Clark moved to Iowa Park in 1890.

Man Buys Own Cow At Auction

WACO, May 21 (UP)—The cow Roy Long bought yesterday at an auction wasn't quite the bargain he'd figured.

When he turned newly-acquainted Bobbie loose in his pasture, she immediately nuzzled up to one of Long's previously-acquired calves.

Just about that time Long discovered his old cow was missing. An idea struck... and a quick checkup showed Long had bought his own cow.

McLennan County Sheriff C. C. Maxey is busy looking for a cattle thief today while Long is learning to identify his own animals.

LUKEMIA CONTROL MAY BE NEXT STEP IN CONTROL OF CANCER

Dane Clark Cast In Hit-Run Tale

Screen tough guy Dane Clark has the toughest acting assignment of his entire motion picture career in his present starring role opposite Geraldine Brooks in Warner Bros. "Embraceable You," which opens next Sunday at the Tower.

Action in one of the scenes calls for Dane to cry real tears. There is no cut in continuity at this particular place to enable a makeup man to apply mehoh and produce them automatically in this fashion.

The hit-run tale finally went before the cameras and Dane was not asked to cry until near the end of the shooting schedule. He did it convincingly.

The control or prolongation of life in leukemia cases may be the next major victory in the battle against cancer.

Leukemia, actually cancer of the blood stream in which the white corpuscles become abnormal and multiply rapidly, has responded to some forms of treatment—but not enough to prolong life.

A new chemical substance, however, is now undergoing human trials at Memorial Hospital Center for Cancer and allied diseases. Scientists at the Sloan-Kettering Institute for Cancer Research, part of the hospital center, are quick to emphasize that no "cures" have been made, and that it may be years before a true analysis of the effects of the chemical can be made.

What is significant is that a chemical has been brought out of the animal and test tube laboratories after earning its right for a trial in human cases.

The chemical is technically known as 2,6-Diaminopurine, an established precursor of a nucleic acid component known as guanine. In simpler words, taken in the diet the chemical converts into the nucleic acid—a substance found in the nucleus of all tissue cells, and necessary for the life of the cell.

In the case of diaminopurine, however, its production of guanine apparently is not what the cancer cell needs. It just appears to be. Yet, animal tests have shown that it does not hurt normal cells if given in proper dosage.

Following many, many months of animal experimentation, the chemical has been given to some patients at Memorial. It has shown some response in at least two persons, but memorial doctors emphasize that it is too early to make conclusions. The patients were given the chemical on an experimental basis.

Even though the chemical should fail—as so many others have—in the treatment of human cancer, the scientists believe the knowledge gained in its test may lead them to a new approach in finding other compounds that when taken in the diet will convert to substances, or nucleic acids, that eventually will stop abnormal growth.

They emphatically pointed out that successful treatment for one type of cancer may not work on another type of cancer. Yet with one criminal caught, the drag-net for the others can be spread. The Sloan-Kettering scientists believe science is closing in on man's ancient foe—cancer.

An average five-year old peach tree probably produces 25 thousand blossoms. Only 250 to 1,250 of these blossoms develop into fruit.

U. T. Players Go Professional

LOS ANGELES May 21 (UP)—Texas University end Lew Holder and tackle Ed Kelley have signed with the Los Angeles Dons of the All-America Conference, Don Coach Jimmy Phelan announced today.

Holder, a 195-pound six-footer, was Texas' hero in the 1948 Sugar Bowl game. He intercepted one pass for a touchdown and stole the ball from Harry Gilmer on the Alabama four-yard line to set up another score.

Kelley was voted Texas' most valuable player by Alabama in the same game and played with Holder on the Longhorn squad three years.

Couples "run out of things to do" on hideaway honeymoons, said Oliver, who went on one himself.

"I know people who came home after one week," he said. "They got lonesome."

Nobody will get lonesome on Oliver's honeymoon special. A train leaves San Francisco and Los Angeles late in June on a month's tour, stopping one night in Houston at millionaire Glenn McCarthy's Shamrock Hotel, one night in New Orleans, two nights in Washington, three nights at New York's Waldorf-Astoria, three nights at Montreal and one at Winnipeg.

The honeymooners will toss coins for the bridal suites. On the train they get sections or compartments.

Say Retail Food Prices Up In Month Of April

DALLAS, May 21 (UP)—Retail food prices in Dallas last March halted their downward trend and then started upward in April, the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the U. S. Department of Labor said today.

The retail food price index for Dallas rose 1.2 per cent during April to a level of 204.4 (1935-39 prices equal 100). That was 1.1 per cent below prices in April 1948, 43.5 per cent above the level of June 1946 and 122.9 per cent higher than in August 1939, last prewar month.

The range of changes in retail food prices in Southern cities varied from a decline of 1.4 per cent in Mobile, Ala., to an increase of 1.6 per cent in Little Rock, Ark.

The regional office of the Department of Labor said retail prices paid for living essentials by moderate-income families in Houston halted their downward trend in March and rose fractionally in April.

DESIGNER WORKS ON COMFORT OF SLIPS TO REPLACE DRESSES

BY BARBARA BUNDSCHU
United Press Fashion Writer
NEW YORK, May 21 (UP)— Want to doff your dress in the heat of noon and sit around in your slip?

If Vera Maxwell can talk the underwear manufacturers into the idea, you may be able to do it one day soon, with complete propriety.
Miss Maxwell, who makes suits and coats and dresses, also is remembered for a romantic hat she can fashion from a fancy pair of lace-trimmed black panties. She shops for girdles with the idea they should double for half a batwing suit.

And she thinks the men who make the nation's slips and girdles and bras are in a better position than anybody to carry the whole idea a step further and revolutionize the female wardrobe.

Her idea of the moment is a nicely tailored camisole slip with a good solid hem instead of the usual rolled or stitched edge and a nicely flared skirt. In some handsome dress-like materials.

It could be worn under a dress like any slip, Miss Maxwell said.
Or it could be worn with a light coat as a redingote. Or—it can stand out all alone as a hot weather dress.

The advantage of having it made by underwear people is price. Miss Maxwell and other dress designers can make the dress. But it's a waste for their high priced tailor to spend their time at it, and it runs the price up terrifically.

Her camisole dress—and they shouldn't be hidden as slips—sell for around $40 bottom. An underwear factory properly geared could turn out the same garment for under $15, she estimated.

Then the manufacturers should get down even further and start designing bras and panties to look nice out in the sun, Miss Maxwell said.

Her travelwardrobe—in the day of the millennium—will start out at the north pole with a fur coat over a fitted cloth coat-dress. Down to the temperate zone, and the fur coat comes off.
Get a little more southerly and the cloth coat comes off—leaving the slip-dress. Right down to the equator, you peel to the two piece foundation-bathing suit.

Nobody's done out of business,
Miss Maxwell said. The woman doesn't need less clothes—just fewer kinds to worry about.

Bride's Biscuits

Following a tested recipe using enriched flour will help the bride make biscuits like these—golden topped, tender and flaky, served piping hot with butter or margarine and honey.

Four square biscuits provide breakfast or tea-time conversation, yet they are even easier to make than the usual round variety.

In following this basic biscuit recipe with sweet milk, cut shortening into the dry ingredients well until the mixture looks like coarse crumbs. Use two knives, a pastry blender, a pastry fork, or fingertips. Then add almost all the milk at once, saving out two or three tablespoons until you see if you need it. Different flours may need a different amount of milk to make a dough of good consistency. Stir vigorously until flour is moistened.

Biscuits are different from most other quickbreads in that they have to be kneaded slightly. This makes them high, light, and flaky.
Warning: knead with a light touch, and only 30 seconds.

After rolling out dough, dip sharp knife in flour. Cut into squares by pressing knife or spatula straight down. Avoid "dragging" the knife through the dough. This pulls the biscuits out of shape and makes them lean to one side during baking. Bake on ungreased baking sheet.

Serve biscuits hot, with honey and tea, the traditional accessories.
Hot biscuits are one of the most economical ways to add not only appetite appeal, but needed B-vitamins and iron to the menu.

BISCUITS

2 cups sifted enriched flour
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt

1/2 to 4 tablespoons shortening
1/2 to 1/4 cup milk

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Cut or rub in shortening until mixture is crumbly. Add milk to make a soft dough. Turn out on lightly floured board and knead gently 30 seconds. Roll out one-half inch thick. Cut with floured biscuit cutter or sharp knife. Bake on ungreased baking sheet in hot oven (450 degrees F.) 10 to 12 minutes. Makes about 12 biscuits.

LESSON IN GARDEN PLANTING NETS CORRESPONDENT A ROW OF RADISHES

By Harman W. Nichols
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, May 21 (UP)—Mama gets smarter around the back yard—the more I teach her. Last year, we had a little family fuss about the way she planted the onion sets. She put 'em in the ground upside down. I bawled her out and showed her the blue-print an onion planting which came from Clint Anderson, then secretary of agriculture.

Clint, she said, was all wet. And she went ahead to prove that she was at least half right, because 50 per cent of the onions came up anyhow.

This year, I told the little woman to plant the peas at least two inches under ground. She wouldn't listen add dug down only about an inch, with me sitting in the shade reading the instructions out loud.

We had a good rain and next morning I went to look at Mama's work. There were the peas sitting on top of the ground and the Robins having a merry old time eating them.

I snapped the little woman down but good. She bought some more peas and sank 'em the proper depth. They're up about four inches at this writing.

Radishes are no trouble. They'll grow if you cast the seeds on a pile of sand, which Mama did.

I looked in the book and found that right now is the time for getting down if you ever want them to come up. I wanted to set my garden department right, so I called on M. L. Wilson, director of the Extension Service for the Department of Agriculture and also a big wheel in the National Garden Institute.

He spoke mostly about the eastern section of the country.

"Don't waste another minute," he said, "before you get your tomatoes planted. Put them far enough apart so that you can stake them if necessary. Shoo off the bugs and you'll be surprised how many tomatoes you can can off a few vines.

Also the early sweet corn ought to be in the ground. There are several kinds, depending on whether you like the yellow or white, the giant or midget.

Wilson said that beans ought to be in the ground at this time of year in the east and in the Washington area. That condition, he said, varies by sections.

Out here, string and lima beans ought to be soaking up the late spring rains right now. So ought the squash.

When I get home tonight, I'm going to pitch the book at mama, before she pitches one at me.

She doesn't have a bean in the ground. The garden is plowed and ready to go, but we don't have a kernel of corn in. The tomato plants are bought and paid for, but they sit sprouting and ready and anxious to get going in little baskets in the summer house.

The squash seeds are acting like they want to be planted.

With the government throwing potatoes away faster than anybody grows them, we're not interested in planting any.

So our garden simmers down to this:

We've got a pretty nice row of radishes.

Tomato Row In Valley Unsettled

HARLINGEN, May 21 (UP)—Rio Grande Valley tomato growers and State Agriculture Commissioner J. E. McDonald remained far apart today in a dispute over regulations governing sizes of tomatoes packed for shipment.

The issue was whether the fruit should be packed as McDonald ordered—in jumbled sizes—or in standardized sizes as sought by the growers.

The growers reached a partial agreement Thursday with McDonald.

Their spokesman, Austin Anson, said the Texas citrus and vegetable shippers and growers had agreed to give up an injunction suit to restrain McDonald from enforcing new regulations.

Anson, executive manager of the shippers and growers, said McDonald agreed to reinstate regulations in effect prior to May 4 on wrapping, branding, marking and grading of tomatoes shipped in 20-pound lugs.

McDonald said the rules would be lifted Monday, but the shippers and McDonald failed to agree upon regulations regarding uniform sizing.

Canned Bean Sprouts Go with Steak

BEAN sprouts used so extensively in chop suey and chow mein dishes take on a thoroughly American air when French fried and served with steak. Fried, these thin white sprouts, have the texture of onions but offer a new and delicate flavor. This side dish with steak may be made in 5 minutes because the bean sprouts need only be dredged in flour and fried. See recipe elsewhere on this page.

To Be Tough With Bean Ball Pitchers

ST. LOUIS, May 21 (UP) — Life banishment from baseball threatens any National League pitcher found guilty of using a bean ball, League President Ford Frick said today.

Frick said the same fate awaits any manager who orders such a pitch.

He issued the warning after Lou Houdean, manager of the Cleveland Indians, charged that "rival pitchers are deliberately throwing the dangerous and outlawed bean ball."

Frick said the penalty for players guilty of using the bean ball would range from a season to life banishment from baseball.

"I'd be just as tough on any manager who ordered such a pitch," Frick said. "But in my 15 years as head of the National League, I've never had to make such a decision."

The "spitting cobra" is perhaps more dangerous than other cobras, since they not only bite at close range but some species may "spit" venom from a short distance.

said the failure of American cities to get together on a single candidate cost this country the '56 games.

Olympic Head Irlked By Dates

NEW YORK, May 21 (UP) — College students will lose a semester's credit if they compete in the 1956 Olympic Games, U. S. Olympic Committee President Avery Brundage complained today.

Brundage said that, because the '56 games are being staged "down under" in Australia, they must be scheduled for either March or October. The northern hemisphere summer months are the southern hemisphere winter months.

The dour U. S. olympic head spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard Gilbert.

Mrs. G. W. Williams and daughter, Bettye Jane, of Longview visited with her parents, over the week-end.

Cotton Bowl Game Nets Each Team $108,909.92

DALLAS, Tex. May 21 (UP) — A final audited report of last New Year's Day Cotton Bowl game showed today that Southern Methodist University and the University of Oregon each received $108,909.92.

Officials of the bowl said the sums represented the largest individual payments in the history of bowl games.

The bowl now is being enlarged by 7,500 seats to give a capacity next Jan. 1 of 75,000. This, officials said, means the 1950 contestants will each take home some $122,000.

Each Cotton Bowl team receives 42 1/2 per cent of net receipts. The remaining 15 per cent goes to the State Fair of Texas for rental of the stadium.

Expenses of the sponsoring Cotton Bowl Athletic Association are derived from payments for radio and television rights.

Department Store Sales Show Jump

DALLAS, May 20 (UP) — Department store sales pulled themselves out of a prolonged slump last week in four major cities and showed an average increase of seven per cent, the Federal Reserve Bank said today.

Fort Worth led the parade with a big gain of 21 per cent in department store sales for the week ending May 14 compared with the similar period last year.

Houston sales were up eight per cent, San Antonio six per cent and Dallas advanced five per cent.

Sales for the four weeks period ending May 14 compared with a similar period in 1948 showed an average decline of six per cent for the district, but as evidence that perhaps the 'drag in sales was over, the district showed a three per cent gain for the two weeks period ending May 14.
