City Commission Adopts Parking Meter Ordinance

Well...
I Dunno,
But...

This in the mail this morning. "A West Texas small town editor, with some space to fill, set up the Ten Commandments and ran them without comment. Seven men left town next morning and another wrote: "Cancel my subscription, you're getting too personal."

And this:
"If you are poor—work;
If you are rich—continue to work;
If you are happy, keep right on working.
If disappointment comes—work.
If sorrow overwhelms you and loved ones seem untrue—work.
If health threatens—work.
When dreams are shattered and hopes seem dead—work.
Work as if your life was in peril, it really is.
Whatever happens—work.
Work is the greatest material available.
Work will heal both mental and physical afflictions."
"The Silent Partner."
Gosh, we sure oughta be well off!

Bob Moore, our militant friend and editor of the Eastland Telegram, who decided to wage a war against the ladies of the press, today bemoans the fact that he ever opened his mouth and then proceeds to go right on talkin'.

After quotin' our Monday column at length, he calls for a rally of men to the cause, addin' "Are we going to let the women get away with taking things over completely?"

Well, whoever said we wanted to take over completely. All we ask is the right to fair competition and with that margin we think we can win. You'd think the ladies of the press were a bunch of subversives the way Bob talks and we don't see anything subversive about pointin' up the ability of women to make a success in the newspaper world. The torch bearer goes on to voice a fear that women will invade the one privacy left to man and that we might have lady presidents. Whether, Bob knows it or not, we've had a lot of lady presidents, those gals that dictate from behind the scenes, and right smart dictatin' they do, too.

Those gals that he wants to put back in the home, could give him an awful lot of trouble from that angle. They wouldn't have to come out in the open and fight the cave-man type, such as our friend. They could sit calmly at home, like lots of ladies do, and hold the reins quietly, and let the big he-men home protectors take the blame for the fight the gals make.

And get a whiff of this. Bob goes on to admit that women were necessary to help win the war and now that the war is over he wants to shove us. Here's what he says, "But the war is over, and it is time the women folk return to the home, so that bachelors like me can have a home. If the present trend continues, there will be no future generations. Thus our slogan is "protect the future, return the women to the home."

Bob maybe doesn't realize it but that's just where he slipped. He overlooks the fact that women do not have one track minds. They can hold responsible jobs outside the home, run their home and rear a family all at the same time and many a one has proved it.

However, Bob seems to be lookin' for a homemaker so we'll look around and see if there's any gal now working that wants to give up that job to make Bob a home. Not bein' eligible for the job, that leaves us free to go on about newspapering.

APPROVES $45,000,000 CUT TO PULL STATE OUT OF RED

BY O. B. LLOYD, JR.
United Press Staff Correspondent

AUSTIN, Tex., June 15 (UP)—Members of the House went on record today as favoring an economy plan calling for drastic cuts of some $45,000,000 (M) in major spending bills as a means of pulling the state out of its financial muddle.

The proposal, sponsored by Reps. Jimmy P. Horany of Archer City and Wayne Wagonseller of Fruitland, was approved by the House, 87-19.

Their plan was the latest in a series offered to lawmakers as they scratched their heads over a way to end the overtime 51st session.

It followed a proposal voiced by Lt. Gov. Allan Shivers, who said his idea would enable legislators to adjourn within 10 days with a $15,000,000 (M) surplus for the coming year.

Horany's plan "requested" conferees on major appropriations to cut out entirely a proposed eleemosynary building program, accounting for some $22,000,000 (M). It also called for 10 per cent slashes in the departmental, judicial and eleemosynary measures, and 15 per cent in the biennial appropriation for higher education.

The final plank in the resolution urged cutting a soil conservation bill from $10,000,000 to $5,000,000.

The House, following the adoption of the economy resolution, carried out the latter proposal by refusing to agree to a Senate amendment which boosted the soil conservation bill to $10,000,000, and sent it to a conference committee.

The Horany resolution, which now goes to the Senate, has no binding force, merely representing an expression of the lower chamber.

The soil conservation proposal, by Dr. J. A. Luedemann of Brenham, was the center of a parliamentary dispute last week over the Senate change boosting the appropriation, which was made to the wrong bill.

RUMOR OUT THAT HOOVER HAS RESIGNED FBI POST

WASHINGTON, June 15 (UP)—The Washington Times-Herald said today in a copyrighted story that FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover is reported to have submitted his resignation to Attorney General Tom C. Clark.

The newspaper said Hoover resigned during a heated showdown on top-level justice department policy. Immediate cause of the resignation, the Times-Herald said, was thought to be the "Condon incident" in the Judith Coplon spy trial.

"An official spokesman for the justice department said: "There is nothing to the story." Dr. Edward U. Condon, director of the National Bureau of Standards, demanded that Hoover apologize to his wife because her name was mentioned in some FBI reports read at the Coplon trial. Hoover has refused to comment on the demand.

The newspaper said the FBI had urged Clark to drop the Coplon case, rather than permit secret files to be opened to public inspection. However, the

Stores To Close Thursday For Clean-Up Drive

Ranger will close its doors to business Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock so that the town may go all-out in a clean-up campaign designed to rid the city of health hazards and unsightly rubbish and trash.

Committee members have been busy for a week organizing their campaigns in the various sections of the city and literature urging the cooperation of the public has been distributed.

Trucks and pickups have been enlisted in the effort and will be busy all over Ranger Thursday afternoon collecting trash that is to be removed.

Those in charge of the drive stated this morning that the cooperation of the public has been very fine and they feel that the concerted effort Thursday afternoon will bring the campaign very near a conclusion.

Stores were asked to close Thursday afternoon in order to release all employees and personnel to join in the city-wide move.

Giles Named To Vet Land Board

AUSTIN, Tex., June 15 (UP)—Administration of Texas' new $25,000,000 Veterans benefit program was launched today with election of Lupi Commissioner Bascom Giles as chairman of the Veterans Land Board.

The board is composed of Gov. Beauford Jester, Attorney General Price Daniel and Giles.

Immediately after his election, Giles announced appointment of Alvis Vandyriff of Ennis, present chief clerk of the General Land office, as executive secretary of the program.

A state constitution amendment, enacted three years ago, authorized issuance of $25,000,000 (M) in state bonds to finance purchase of farms and ranches by veterans of World War II.

The measure became a reality with recent enactment of the measure by the legislature. Giles predicted that it would be at least 45 days before operations of the agency would be ready for making the first loan.

Traffic Net Snags Ranger Policeman

Ranger's traffic safety committee means business and as a result, the police department is hanging its head to hide a red face.

In the first group of complaints from the committee was one on a member of the police department for a minor violation—a wrong angle parking.

Sorrowfully, Chief W. G. Pounds mailed out his first notice of complaints, including one to a member of his own department.

SKIES CLEAR, FLOOD WATERS ARE RECEDING

The skies were clear today and flood water on croplands southwest of Eastland, were beginning to recede.

Waters surged over Highway 6, between Eastland and Carbon, in several places. A guard was maintained at one-way bridge, four miles southwest of the city, where bank deep creek threatened to wash the structure away.

No estimate was available as to the damage sustained by farmers in the area this morning, as the County Agent, J. M. Cooper and his assistant, Ed Steele Jr., are at Texas A. & M. College attending a "short" course.

Former Ranger Resident Shot

CISCO, June 14—F. N. Hassen, Jr., was taken to Graham Hospital here with a shotgun wound in his shoulder.

Attendants there said he was in fair condition.

Hassen was believed to have been cleaning the gun, investigators from the police department said.

The accident occurred at 10:25 p.m. Hassen staggered down from his second story apartment home and was found by Lee Moore, a druggist, in front of his drug store.

The victim formerly made his home in Ranger during the time that his father, F. N. Hassen was in business here.

Thief Spoils Fun

SOUTH BEND Ind. (UP)—Youngsters were alerted throughout this Hoosier city to the sad news that the merry-go-round had broken down. Park officials said the one-horsepower motor used to run it had been stolen.

The latest victim was Tommy Yarbrough, 5, who died of the bulbar type polio that paralyzes the chest. As Tommy gasped for breath, surgeons performed a windpipe operation Sunday. The effort was of no avail.

All but three of the patients at Shannon Hospital were children.

Hospital authorities said they were forced to limit victims to three days a week because scurried parents were impairing the children's chances of recovery with too frequent visits.

Parents of children in critical condition were permitted to stay in their rooms indefinitely, however.

Outwardly, the people of San Angelo were acting normally. They continued to patronize theaters and swimming pools, although city health authorities cautioned everyone to stay away from places where crowds gather.

Crews were spraying DDT throughout the city.

An epidemic team of specialists from Stanford University at Palo Alto, Cal., established headquarters at Shannon Hospital to assist the resident staff in its battle.

An ordinance regulating the installation and use of parking meters in Ranger was passed unanimously last night by the city commission and will become effective just as soon as the meters are installed.

The ordinance calls for the installation of meters on the following described streets:

Main Street—from Commerce Street to the premises known as the Mission Garage.
Rusk Street—from Pine Street to Walnut Street.
Austin Street—from Pine Street to Cherry Street.
Marston Street—from the first alley south of Main Street to the first alley north of Main Street.

Meters will be installed along these streets at every parking place with the exception of loading zones as provided in the ordinance.

Also exempt from the parking meters, so provided by a law of the state of Texas, are spaces in front of theatres. Parking in zones marked off in front of theatres is prohibited by state law and these spaces in Ranger will be kept free of parking at all times of the day.

Cool Front Eases Texas Weather

By United Press

Texas got the promise today of better weather. Thunderstorm conditions, which caused severe flooding in the Dallas area Monday night and Tuesday, were driven out by a cool front which pushed in from the Northwest Tuesday afternoon.

The Trinity River, put on a sharp rise by rains of almost 12 inches in the Dallas area, stood at 35.49 feet at dawn in Dallas and was expected to crest at 36 feet during the morning.

This level is above the Trinity flood stage, but the overflow was not a serious one and was generally viewed by the levee system. Minor damage was anticipated downstream from Dallas in unprotected lowlands.

The rains which doused Dallas moved southward yesterday. By moderate form, and were generally viewed by mid-Texas farmers as crop savers.

Austin had 1.08 inches; Waco 1.97; Bryan .37, and Beaumont .23. There was scattered rainfall as far west as San Angelo, which got .31 inch, and San Antonio, which had .47 inch.

Skies were generally clear and the passage of the cool front promised milder temperatures today, after yesterday brought a year's new high, 110 degrees, at Presidio. Amarillo had the Tuesday afternoon low, 77 degrees, and the overnight minimum, 56.

POLIO EPIDEMIC AT SAN ANGELO BREAKS ANEW

SAN ANGELO, Tex., June 15 (UP)—The nation's first serious polio epidemic this year broke out today.

Shannon Memorial Hospital handled 65 cases, the most it has treated since the epidemic began several days ago in this West Texas area.

Twelve new cases were diagnosed this week, bringing the total for the year to 158. Eight deaths have been attributed to the outbreak.

The latest victim was Tommy Yarbrough, 5, who died of the bulbar type polio that paralyzes the chest. As Tommy gasped for breath, surgeons performed a windpipe operation Sunday. The effort was of no avail.

All but three of the patients at Shannon Hospital were children.

Hospital authorities said they were forced to limit victims to three days a week because scurried parents were impairing the children's chances of recovery with too frequent visits.

Parents of children in critical condition were permitted to stay in their rooms indefinitely, however.

Outwardly, the people of San Angelo were acting normally. They continued to patronize theaters and swimming pools, although city health authorities cautioned everyone to stay away from places where crowds gather.

Crews were spraying DDT throughout the city.

An epidemic team of specialists from Stanford University at Palo Alto, Cal., established headquarters at Shannon Hospital to assist the resident staff in its battle.

Dr. Robert Neville of New York, associate director of medical care of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, was studying the epidemic.

In a radio address last night, he complimented San Angelo's hospitals and its medical profession for the work being done.

Neville said he was "very pleased" with the progress that was being made and expressed confidence the epidemic would abate.

He declined however to estimate how long it would take to stamp out the disease.

At North Camp Hood in the San Angelo-San Antonio polio belt, Pvt. Roy B. Page of Seguin, Tex., was diagnosed as a victim. Page, in summer training with the 35th Division of the National Guard, was believed to have contracted the disease before entering the camp.

No other suspected cases were reported among the 5,000 soldiers at North Camp Hood.

It was also voted at the meeting Tuesday night to require D D T spraying of all outdoor toilets in Ranger and a charge of 25c per month will be required for the service and will be paid in connection with water and sewage bills. The spraying will be operated at least twice a month.

Bills were approved by the commission and the matter of a board of equalization was discussed.

Pupils Get Air Bonus
COLUMBUS Ind. (UP)—Grade school children at Waleboro country school near here got more than a report card at the term's end. They got an airplane ride. Airport officials at a nearby field took more than 50 youngsters up and they all liked it. Parents were grounded.

Provisions are made in the ordinance for enforcement of the order and members of the commission are unanimous in their determination to see that the provisions are enforced. Specific instructions to the police force are outlined in the ordinance and these instructions will be carried out at the outset of the use of the meters.

The ordinance in complete detail appears elsewhere in this newspaper today and will be published, according to law, again next Wednesday. The ordinance was prepared and presented to the commission by Joe Nuesse, city attorney.

City Secretary Lester Crossley stated at the meeting Tuesday night that the posts and flags of the meters have already arrived and it is expected that installation of them will begin at once.

At the meeting Tuesday night James King was unanimously selected for the required audit of the city books. Permission was given the school board and members of the softball committee for the construction of a substantial fence around the softball fields with a view to making a more ideal field for all local sports. This matter was presented to the commission by A. W. Warford of the school board and E. F. Arterburn, president of the Quarterback Club.

Each such owner or operator may, within 48 hours of the time when such notice was attached to such vehicle, pay to the Judge or Clerk of the Corporation Court as a penalty for and in full satisfaction of such violation the sum of one dollar. The failure of such owner or operator to make such payment within 48 hours shall render such owner or operator subject to the penalties hereinafter provided for violation of the provisions of this ordinance.

The fee required to be deposited in said meters is hereby levied as police regulation and inspection fee to cover the cost of providing parking spaces, parking meters, and installation, and maintenance thereof, the cost of regulation and inspection, operation, control and use of the parking meter spaces and zones created herein, for the regulation and control of traffic moving in and out of, and parking in said parking spaces and zones created, and for the costs of any resultant traffic administration expenses, and for such other legal purposes and uses as may be designated by the City officials of Ranger, Texas.

Section 15. All laws, ordinances or parts thereof in conflict herewith, are hereby repealed.

Dr. James Gee, president of the school, yesterday announced East Texas would remain a teachers college, differing from five of the seven state teachers colleges who recently have withdrawn from the teachers college system to become "state colleges."

Says Jail No Place For Her Son

LOS ANGELES, June 15 (UP)—Nine-year-old Richard Morrow is afraid of the Marfa, Tex., jail and shouldn't have to spend his summer vacation there, his mother contended today in a court suit.

Mrs. Martha McFall sued yesterday for full custody of the boy. Under a divorce custody order he spends the summer months with his father, Sheriff Otis W. Morrow, who lives in the jail.

The acreage planted to wheat this year in the United States will be by far the largest on record.

Upon approval by the county ACA committee, a storage loan commitment will be issued. It will show that the Commodity Credit Corporation agrees to make a loan or guarantee a loan by an approved lending agency.

Complete storage structures will be inspected by the county ACA committee. If approved, a loan certificate will be issued.

The committee, Vance said, will collect service charges of one-fourth cent per bushel capacity, with a minimum charge of $2.50. If the loan exceeds 11,000, a small recording fee will be required.

Full amount of storage payments earned from CCC must be applied on repaying the loan, Vance emphasized.

He added that farmers must keep the structures available for grain storage pending payment of loans.

Heavy-Set, Dark Man Sought In Houston Slaying

HOUSTON, Tex., June 15 (UP)— Detectives spread the alarm today for a "heavy-set man with dark hair" as a possible clue in the slaying of Arne Enholm, 40-year-old Finnish seaman.
Enholm's body was found yesterday near a railroad track. He had been shot once in the abdomen and suffered a head wound, a coroner said.

A suspect, reportedly fired from the Lykes Freighter Thomas Jefferson on Enholm's recommendation, was released after questioning.
The latest clue came when three crewmen of a port terminal railroad switch engine told police they saw a heavy-set man with dark

NTSC, Denton End Old Water Feud

DENTON, June 15 (UP)— North Texas State College and the city of Denton are no longer mad at each other, but the college's newly-won friendship will cost it about $1,800 per month.

The college and the city started exchanging chilly glances in a dispute over water. In 1899 the yad-opted an agreement by which the city agreed to furnish the school with "free water."

But the school started expanding and using more water than the city wanted to give.

The feud reached its climax last summer when the city shut off mains to certain sections of the campus.

An agreement made by the school to pay water rates came after the new board of regents ended the "free water" concession with approval of the legislature.

men's league for 1948-49 they were awarded an ivory based trophy atop of which is a gold figure of a man bowling. They also won the first Eastland County team championship and won a trophy for that.

Members of the team are B. C. McKeever, A. N. Ridings, W. A. Reuser, A. A. Full, and R. E. Kenney.

Referring to the use of DDT recently, Dr. George Cox of Austin, State Health Officer, stated that using DDT before a thorough cleaning was just like using perfume to cover up B. O. or using powder to cover up dirt.

That strikes us as being a very convincing proof for the need of cleaning up our town before trying to solve health problems with the use of DDT. The merits of DDT are not questioned by Dr. Cox but the spraying of the chemical is not the first step, he says.

Dr. A. K. Wier, Ranger city health officer, backs up those statements. And so, on such authoritative advice, we have every incentive to get the cleaning job done thoroughly and quickly.

Members of the city commission are convinced that watching the pennies counts. In the seven meetings they have held since they took office the first of May, they have reduced the overdraft of the city from around $5,000 to a little more than $1,000. Which makes close to a reduction of $1,000 per meeting.

That's pretty good average. Wonder if a feller could rent their services.

Alaska which would like to be the 49th state of the Union, is larger than Texas, plus California plus Montana—the three biggest states now in the Union.

Gorman Oil News

By Buena Van Winkle

The Jay and Parker co. No. 2, T. N. Watt acidized last week using 500 gallons of acid. The response was good, but only about 1-2 as good as the response of their No. 1 operation at the treatment. Even so, it has all the same earmarks of being a good well that were encountered in the No. 1 operation.

Commercial Production Co. No. 1, R. S. Sanders has the prettiest little picture of an oil show that most any of these wells have had in any of the area. The oil show does not run out to points and flicker off in a vague way—it just start out in a block and maintain that solid block show through all the formation where there is an oil structure. If they do not have a good well on that location, then predictions are certainly not dependable. They have not run tests yet but are waiting until completion unit is moved.

Continental No. 1, N. L. Box drilling ahead. They must be about 2,800 to 3,000 feet now by the stack of drill stem and also considering the time element involved.

Skeeters and Curry have not moved their rig in on the Burns yet, but will probably drill that location before they move to the O. C. Reid. They had a verbal agreement with Mr. Reid to move in last week, but the bottom of those roads down there is definitely out, so that it is impossible to move the machinery in, so they will drill on the Burns first, and then go from there to the Reid, in all probability. That was what Mr. A. Z. Skeeters seemed to have in mind in our office this morning.

R. H. Patterson No. 1 James drilling at 3,300 feet.

SHANGHAI, June 15 (UP) — About 1,000 employees for the American-owned Texas Oil Company invaded the firm's downtown offices yesterday afternoon and barred officials from leaving the building until an agreement was reached on a June pay controversy.
