We sure should have had four hands today. This typewriter just won't work fast enough with only two.

Don't look now, but when you get around to it, all women about 36 years of age, at least not over that, and who read this column, be sure and read the classified ad section in today's paper.

Rose McHugh of New York, here for a flying visit with her brother, Garvin D. Chastain, and family, is literally paying a flying visit. She has just flown in from Hawaii and will leave soon by plane for a tour of the Scandinavian countries in Europe.

Mrs. McHugh is assistant to the head of the piano department of Teachers College at Columbia University and has been doing some interesting work this summer in connection with her teaching.

Early in the summer she flew to Hawaii where she conducted the same type work.

Heard something this morning. One of the oil companies that has been so busy around Ranger and plans drilling operations named the Tiger Development Company. It gets its name through the fact that one of the partners, Bob Hill, was colonel with Gen. Chenault's "Flying Tigers" that have China a bombing fit.

Ranger got .29 of an inch of rain Friday night and this makes the total for June 3.09 inches or just an inch less than fell in June of last year.

Year's total is 21.19 inches.

Sheriff In New Mexico Faces Multiple Charges

LAS CRUCES, N. M., June 25 (UP)—Sheriff A. L. (Happy) Apodaca of Dona Ana County today faced a multitude of charges, including rape, drunkenness and "gross incompetency" in a grand jury indictment.

Apodaca was released from custody so he could attempt to raise $3,000 bond.

The grand jury at the same time indicted Justice of the Peace Ramon Duran for embezzlement. Duran was released on $1,000 bond.

The 11 charges against Apodaca included the allegation that he raped 17-year-old Alicia Cejan when the orphan girl was employed as a domestic in the home of a friend of the sheriff.

Last fall, the jury reported, Apodaca was sent to the New Mexico Girls' welfare home as a "juvenile delinquent."

Apodaca also was charged with "gross immorality" by attempting to seduce another girl, Romelia Camarillo, 15. He was indicted on the formal charge of "contributing to the delinquency of a minor" in connection with this court.

The sheriff was alleged also to have participated in gambling in Dona Ana County nightclubs; permitting gambling; failing to account for money received by his office; receiving illegal fees from a person charged with a crime; and "drinking intoxicating liquor while conducting the investigation into a slaying."

ITALIAN PLANE CRASH VICTIMS RECOVERED

Rescue workers bring ashore one of the victims of a Dutch Airlines plane crash at Bari, Italy. Thousands of spectators watched in horror as the plane crashed into the water from 15,000 feet. Thirty-two bodies have been recovered. (NEA Radio-Telephoto)

Hearing To Be Held On Crash

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 25 (UP)—The Civil Aeronautics Board indicated today it will conduct a public hearing "within two weeks" on the crash of an American Airlines Convair near the municipal airport Wednesday. Thirty-seven persons were injured when the plane crash-landed shortly after taking off.

A panel of experts in various phases of aeronautics will hear testimony from crew members, technical experts, passengers, eyewitnesses and others.

Printed report of the hearing will be published following its completion.

Meanwhile, O. A. B. and Civil Aeronautics Administration investigators continued their search of the plane wreckage in an attempt to find what caused the right engine of the airplane to fail a few seconds after takeoff.

Jap Sentenced For Bayoneting

YOKOHAMA, Japan, June 25 (UP)—An eighth army military commission today sentenced a former Japanese Army officer to life imprisonment for the fatal bayoneting of an American prisoner in 1945.

In a previous trial, 1st Lt. Tetsutaro Kato was sentenced to death for the crime. It was the first trial in the history of the Japanese war criminal trials.

Kato was convicted last December 23 of ordering the fatal bayoneting of Pvt. Frank Spears of (1537 Wabash St.), Kansas City, Mo., and of personally participating in the slaying. Kato was found guilty also of beating and kicking four other allied prisoners.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur disapproved the sentence last December because the commission had permitted prejudicial evidence that impaired Kato's rights without informing him.

AT LEAST 42 DIE IN FLASH FLOOD IN MEXICO

PACHUCA, Mexico, June 25 (UP)—At least 42 persons died here last night when a cloudburst, hail storm and flash flood ravaged this centuries-old silver mining town, authorities said today.

Nineteen women, fifteen men and eight children were counted among the victims of the minute-long storm.

Pachuca, which grew up around the oldest mine in the western hemisphere, the real deluge, is about 60 miles north of Mexico City and about 450 miles south of Laredo, Tex. The Indians were working the real deluge when Herman Cortes arrived in 1519.

Most of the victims died in the crowded Juarez market area. Flood waters battered down one wall of the market and filled it to a depth of about ten feet.

"It was like dumping a pail of water into a ditch," said Luis Moreno, a volunteer worker. "The waters smashed down the two streets that channel into the market and just filled it up. The people who had jammed the place to get out of the rain drowned without a chance."

The raging water, scattered heavy refrigerators, tore away steel doors on buildings and, at the height of the brief tempest, pushed in two-foot thick brick walls.

The waters spread out over business and residential districts for a distance of almost a mile around the flooded market. They reached a depth of about 6 feet for a time but receded in a few hours.

In addition to the 42 known dead, 40 persons were injured seriously and from 200 to 400 had been reported missing.

Though authorities believed the death toll will grow as search continues, they were inclined to feel that the number of missing persons would drop as confusion passed.

Many of the persons being treated in the Hospital Civil for their injuries were almost crazy

Prisoner Is Transferred To State Pen

Hillman Bridges of Comanche County, under indictment by the Eastland County Grand Jury for theft by bailer, was transferred Thursday, June 23, from the county jail to the state penitentiary at Huntsville, the Sheriff's office stated.

A retrieve violator, the transfer was advisable as hearing of criminal cases in the current term of court have not been docketed until September. He will be returned for trial here at that time.

Wheat Farmers Skanning Skies

AMARILLO, June 25 (UP)—Panhandle wheat farmers again were watching the skies today, as additional rain caused a halt in harvest operations in some sections yesterday.

The rains came as the supply of labor and equipment appeared to be adequate for almost the first time since an earlier siege of rain had caused serious delays in the harvest and raised the threat of shattering.

Randall County, which reported a need for some 20 combines, and Potter County, where machines were needed to harvest small tracts were needed, were the only counties reporting shortages of equipment.

SWINDLERS SWAGGER FAILS TO IMPRESS CHICAGO DETECTIVES

CHICAGO, June 25, (UP)—International Swindler Sigmund Z. Engel set up his fatal charm today but couldn't impress tough Chicago detectives with the continental manner; he used to fleece more than 50 women of an estimated $1,000,000.

Nevertheless, the country and white-haired 73-year-old con man managed to soften the heart of his latest victim, Mrs. Reseda Corrigan, 39, who had spent nine lonely days in New York trying to track him down.

Mrs. Corrigan tried to attack Engel when she first saw him last night. But after a few minutes of smooth sweet talk from him, she seemed almost willing to forget the $8,700 he took her for during a whirlwind courtship.

Engel promised he would pay her the money back. He even handed her $400 from his billfold.

"I believe him, I really believe him," Mrs. Corrigan said. "He seems like such a poor tired old man."

Engel was captured late yesterday in a trap set with the aid of a woman he was trying to bait into a new love swindle. He had already proposed to her and was arranging their "honeymoon."

Police in almost every major city in America and in many foreign nations had sought the suave outlaw, a gentlemanly swindler of the old school made famous by Joseph "yellow kid" Weil.

Engel lost none of his savior's charm under what he called the "filthy hands" of the police. He walked about police headquarters with the aplomb of a prince, acting as though a red plush carpet were unrolling before him.

When he arose today after a night in the town hall station lockup, his gray suit, polka dot tie and white shirt were as smart and unwrinkled as if he had slept at the fashionable Blackstone Hotel where he affected a suit before his capture.

Detectives said they would question him throughout the weekend before his appearance Monday in felony court on charges of swindling Mrs. Corrigan. The charge carries an automatic $10,000 bond.

ROBBINS WELL NORTHEAST OF RANGER IS PRODUCER

F. J. Robbins of Oklahoma City stated Friday that a test of his No. 1 Robbins on the Robert O. Jackson and Son ranch about 14 miles northeast from Ranger will be made within the next 48 hours to determine production of the well.

Robbins stated that he is confident that the well will make a commercial producer but that he does not yet know what the production will be. Storage tanks have already been set up. The well is reported to have made considerable gas.

The well is located in section 77, block 4 of the T&P survey on the Jackson ranch.

Oil in what is believed to be paying quantity was encountered at 1776 in the Strawn sand. Robbins stated that if the well produces enough oil that other locations may be drilled.

Youth Held In Connection With Jackson Slaying

JACKSON, Miss., June 25 (UP)—A prominent middle-aged businessman was shot to death here early today and police said they are holding a youth who had allegedly been ordered to stay away from the dead man's daughter.

The victim was identified as Perry W. Henderson, manager of the Electrolux Corporation here.

Capt. Frank Rodgers of the local detective bureau said Ronald Pitts, 18, had been booked on a tentative charge of murder. When police arrested him, Rodgers said, they found a .38 calibre revolver, which had been fired once, in his possession. He also had an empty shell in his pocket.

The girl, Anna, and her mother were not at home. They were reported vacationing in South Carolina.

According to A. C. Stringer, an electrolux salesman who was with Henderson at the time of the shooting, Henderson had received a threatening phone call, allegedly from the youth, early yesterday. Stringer told police Henderson had told him that the youth had "threatened" him.

Stringer said Henderson also told him he had told Pitts to stay away from his daughter.

Stringer said he and Henderson returned from a business trip to Natchez about midnight and found the telephone off the hook, the telephone wires cut, and several drawers open.

While Henderson was getting a pistol, Stringer said he went next door and called the police. After he returned, Stringer said they heard "a noise in the attic."

Stringer said he then went next door to call police again and tell them to hurry.

"After I left the house, I heard an exchange of shots. When I rushed back I saw someone run out of the house. When I got to Henderson I found he had been shot over the left eye. He was floor. His .45 had been fired once."

Former Resident Rites Are Held

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Wood of Iraan, formerly of Ranger, were conducted at 6 o'clock Saturday evening at the graveside in Merriman cemetery with O. G. Lanier of the Church of Christ officiating. Killingsworth's was in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Wood died in Iraan Friday and rites in Iraan were conducted Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Her husband, Samuel J. Wood, preceded her in death on November 12, 1929 and is interred at Merriman.

Mrs. Wood is survived by one son, Clarence Wood of Iraan.

INVITATION REVEALED BY THE BRITISH

BY JOHN C. McDERMOTT
United Press Staff Correspondent
BERLIN, June 25 (UP)—The western powers have invited the Russians to a meeting here to discuss means of carrying out the limited agreement on Germany reached by the Big Four at their Paris conference.

British sources disclosed the move today. They said the invitation was issued by Maj. Gen. K. G. McLean, deputy British military governor, in a letter to Maj. Gen. M. I. Dratvin, Soviet deputy military governor.

The foreign ministers agreed at Paris that occupation authorities should consult "to mitigate the effects of the present administrative division of Germany and of Berlin."

The 36-day Berlin railway strike was expected to figure in the talks. U. S. authorities asked the Russians last night for clearance of a passenger train from Berlin to western Germany, but the Soviet-controlled railway administration in effect refused it.

U. S. Army and military government officials said they planned no new overtures to the Russians to end their "little blockade" of the Berlin-West German railway line.

The Army requested clearance for a passenger train from Berlin to Western Germany last night after West Berlin's non-Communist railway strikers agreed to handle it and any other trains on the line.

The Russians ignored the request and the Soviet-controlled railway administration in effect rejected it. After first agreeing to accept the train, the railway officials changed their minds and said they could not clear a train operated by strikers.

"We plan to make no new requests to the Russians," said Capt. Harry Youngren, Army public information officer. "The matter is out of our hands for the time being."

The Russians apparently were taking the stand that they will not move any trains across their zone from western Germany to Berlin until all 16,000 West Berlin strikers go back to their jobs.

Although they have agreed to handle trains to and from western Germany, the strikers refuse to work on Berlin's elevated railway system until their demands for pay in western marks and a Russian guarantee of no reprisals are met.

In an effort to force the issue, the West Berlin strikers yesterday asked their fellow railway workers in Western Germany to refuse to handle trains to and from the Soviet zone.

CONVENTS, MONASTERIES IN SLOVAKIA SEIZED

PRAGUE, June 23 (UP) — Church sources said today that the government had seized nine Catholic convents and monasteries in Slovakia, where other quarters reported a mounting wave of clerical arrests.

Informants said the seized monasteries belonged to the Jesuit, Dominican and Salesian orders. Police were reported to have entered a Salesian monastery at Trnava, near Bratislava, and ordered all the monks out in two hours.

They were loaded into police trucks and taken to another monastery at Sasin in Western Slovakia, the sources said, monks from three other monasteries at Michalovcan, Zilian and Komarno were reported moved to Sasin.

tion, where the regular members were asked to make room for them.

A report published here yesterday said Slovak officials had "taken certain steps" against a number of priests and bishops who had "attempted to arouse disorder at several places."

Another published report said the Vatican was "serving Western capitalism in its fight against Slav socialism."

The Czech Socialist organ Svobodne Slovo said the "anti-state activity" of Archbishop Josef Beran and his colleagues was "dictated by the enemies of our country."

(Diplomatic reports reaching Washington yesterday indicated that the archbishop might be arrested soon on charges of "espionage" on behalf of the United States. They said U. S. officials had been advised to expect the prelate's arrest at any time on "trumped up" charges.)

The Svobodne Slovo renewed a warning, first sound implicitly by Premier Antonin Zapotocky, that the government might take further action against the archbishop and his Catholic hierarchy.

"It is necessary to clean up the unhealthy conditions in which arrogance so clumsily serves the anti-national and anti-state interests," the organ said.

"We are ready to do everything to secure the freedom of religious expression. But it is necessary to add that we will do everything possible to hit the fingers of those who would like to degrade the religious feelings of others."

It charged that Beran's ambition to become a cardinal had a major bearing on the failure of the church and state to work out some kind of an agreement.

"The Vatican did not join the anti-Slav intrigues by a mere chance," it said. "It has a century of tradition in this. The worst suffering of the Czech nation and its most difficult moments when it was on the edge of economic destruction always were connected somehow with the Vatican. Today it is serving Western capitalism and its fight against Slav Socialism."

Lilliputian Fashions Go Victorian

Pinafore Revival Slated for School

BY EPSIE KINARD
NEA Fashion Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—This summer's child can match ruffles and bows with the Victorian-Lady look of the best-dressed grownup.

If little bibs and overskirts, eyelet ruffles and velvet-run lace smocks of 19th century picture-book fashions, that resemblance is not merely coincidental. Many small-scaled fashions for today's child stem from Kate Greenaway's drawings.

From this style source comes a pink cotton poplin dress iced to look as edible as a birthday cake with white eyelet ruffles. These run apron-wise on a bow-tied skirt and peep beneath the hemline.

A two-toned gray and royal blue cotton dress of Jack Borgenicht's design revives the Victorian pinafore. Over a blouse of royal blue a front cutaway bib of gray fabric is bow-tied to a skirt of matching color. Although this ready-to-wear design was created for Gigi Perreau, 7-year-old movie star, it's available to off-stage charmers.

Little girls take to Victorian fashions just as grownups do. The tiny party-goer (left) wears a 19th Century inspired dress of pastel cotton, eyelet ruffled over and under the full bow-tied skirt. Gigi Perreau, diminutive movie star (right) sets the style for a revival fashion of primer-school pinafores. The grey cut-away bib ties to matching dress skirt over the royal blue puffed sleeve blouse.

Green Says Klan Will Help Find Hooded Hoodlums

ATLANTA, June 25 (UP)—The grand dragon of the Ku Klux Klan and an Ohio man, unable to get together, today offered separate evidence on terrorism to the FBI.

Joseph Goldwasser said he would take the FBI a scrawled note warning "all Catholics, Jews and Negroes" of flogging if they came into this area. Dr. Samuel Green, head of the Klan, said he would help the FBI catch those men responsible for recent mob acts in Alabama.

"We want these renegades run down and if we can help the FBI do it, we will do it," Green said at a meeting with Goldwasser. The Cleveland, a representative of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, called on Green at his office here.

Nine reporters were present, and Green had a wire recorder

"Christian Science" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 26.

The Golden Text is: "Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come ye, buy wine and milk without money and without price" (Isaiah 55:1).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father" (John 14:12).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The great spiritual facts of being, like rays of light, shine in the darkness, though the darkness, comprehending them not, may deny their reality" (page 546).

★ WEEKLY BIBLE COMMENT

Jesus Lives, and Still Leads On

BY WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.

IF one thinks of the earthly life of Jesus as lived in its Palestinian homeland, the Resurrection was its triumphant climax. It was not only the victory over death, but also the victory over the enemies who had sought to destroy Him. It was the triumph of love and goodness over hate and evil. It was the vindication of all that the Master had said, and of all that He had claimed to be. In that sense it was a glorious triumph and climax.

But for the world at large into which Jesus had come—"For this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world" (John 18:37)—it was not a climax, but a beginning.

It was now that He told His disciples to go forth into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. In obedience to that great commission, 20 centuries have seen the growth of Christianity. But even greater than the outward power of churches and organizations is the mystic fellowship of all believers, who have taken to themselves the Christian name, and who have sought to live according to the teaching and example of the Master.

The evil that Jesus fought, and that crucified Him, is still abroad in the world, seeking to destroy His teaching, setting up other standards, of selfishness, and worldly power, and violence, carrying nothing for justice, and mercy, and right. So great is this evil, so apparently overwhelming and successful, as in the violence of war, that it is easy foolishly to underestimate the power of good, the forces of righteousness, and the strength of Christian progress toward what may still be a far-off goal.

But the power and impulse of Christianity are not in the past. Jesus lives, and is still leading on. He lives and leads in every devout soul whose daily life, no matter how lowly or great its place and environment, is attuned to love. He lives and leads in every service for one's fellowmen, many of them no longer bearing the Christian name, but known only where the power and influence of Christianity have penetrated. He lives and leads in the schools and colleges, many of them the direct product of Christian impulse and organization. He lives and leads in the mission-aries, many of them in the world's dark places, literally fulfilling His command; but He lives and leads in those whose duty is in narrow places performing, it may be, tasks of drudgery, or the commonplace business of life, not as men-pleasers, but as unto God.

We sing in our prayer, "Jesus Still Leads On" and that prayer has its answer before it is spoken, for the surest, truest, most hopeful thing in all the world is that Jesus is still leading on. And in a world where there is so much of evil, it is good to know that so many are sincerely and devoutly following in His footsteps.

Regular Services To Be Resumed

Regular services will be resumed at the First Baptist Church Sunday following the close of the recent revival.

The Rev. D. C. Ham will conduct the services and Bill Courser will direct the music. The sermon topic for Sunday morning will be "The Call, The Cross, The Crown." Sunday evening the pastor will speak on the subject "They Were Called Christians."

The special music will be furnished by the choir, the men's quartet and Mrs. L. C. Williams. The quartet composed of Joe Graham, K. F. Kirk, Lloyd Clem and R. J. Rains will sing at the evening service and Mrs. Williams will sing, "Sometimes" at the morning service.

Wheat From Texas On Way To Europe

CANADIAN, June 25 (UP)—The first carload of new crop wheat earmarked for the Christian Rural Overseas Program was en route to Glaveston early today for shipment.

Hemphill County in West Texas produced the first wheat for the overseas relief program. It was shipped from here last night.

Elmore R. Torn, the program's state director, pointed out the shipment was made despite excessive rainfall which handicapped harvesting.

The 1,460 bushels in the carload were donated by 17 farmers of this region.

Man Charged In Iowa Rape Case

GRUNDY CENTER, Ia., June 25 (UP)—Edward J. Beckwith, 27-year-old factory hand, was charged today with the gruesome "ripper" sex murder of a tavern-keeper's pretty wife.

Beckwith, held on a non-bailable open charge of murder, waived preliminary hearing in the court of justice of the peace Harvey Kimball yesterday.

He was bound over to the grand jury for indictment on charges that he raped Mrs. Harvey Stahlhut, cut her throat from ear to ear, severed her breasts, slashed her abdomen and then left her nude body in the walk-in refrigerator at her husband's tavern. Beckwith told the court he could not pay for an attorney.

Kimball said counsel would be appointed to defend him.

Beckwith told the court he John A. Meyer that he slew Mrs. Stahlhut early Thursday after sitting all evening drinking at the bar and "entertaining the idea of attacking" her.

Mrs. Stahlhut's husband was out of town. He found her body when he returned. The Stahlhut's 13-month-old son slept in an adjoining room as his mother was killed.

Beckwith said he became angered when Mrs. Stahlhut resisted his advances. He slashed her with his knife.

Thief Gets Shock DENVER (UP)—A woman approached a parked car on a downtown street, opened the back door and stole a shoe box. She vanished into the powder room of a nearby department store. A few moments later there was a loud shriek.

English Party To Campaign For "Empire First"

LONDON, June 25 (UP)—Winston Churchill's conservative party announced today it will campaign in the 1950 general election on an "empire first" platform.

The party took its stand for imperial preference in a statement outlining the empire and commonwealth policy it will campaign in its battle to unseat the labor government.

The statement welcomed such regional agreements as the western union, but said:

"The party will not permit any such agreement to override or conflict with the political, economic or defense obligations falling on Great Britain as a member of the British empire and commonwealth."
