

Voters To Rule Tuesday

Pity the beleaguered voter:
AFTER BEING bombarded by figures projections, facts, rumors, charges and countercharges, he'll go to the polls Tuesday to cast his $2 1/2 million vote on whether the City of Dimmitt should build a municipal power plant.

The campaigns for and against the proposed light plant got red-hot this week. City officials spent 5 1/2 hours last Thursday presenting exhaustive reports to voters in two public meetings. Southwestern Public Service Co. and its sympathizers countered by stepping up their campaign against the power-plant proposal.

This week the voter was bombarded with letters, data sheets, circulars and advertisements almost daily — and the language got tougher with each day's mail.

Each camp used different sets of figures, and charged that only their figures were correct.

LAST THURSDAY noon, the city commission drew 90 businessmen to its service clubs hearing, which lasted three hours. That night, only 50 were in the DHS auditorium audience for the called public meeting, while outside hundreds of adults attended a school bonfire and pep rally. But oddly, the crowd grew as the meeting progressed, and more than 100 were there when it broke up at 10:45 p.m.

The proposed Dimmitt Wheat Growers grain processing mill turned out to be the key reason for the city's attempt to start its own power plant. The contract to provide electricity, steam and heat for the $20 million plant would be a big revenue plum for the people of Dimmitt, city spokesmen said.

However, Dimmitt Wheat Growers Manager Aaron Isaacs said at last Thursday night's meeting that DWG is "very neutral" in the current dispute.

"A NATURAL gas and steam waste system will be built into our plant by any of four different companies or the REA," Isaacs said. "We're interested in the cheapest source of supply of this power. We are very neutral in the difference to Dimmitt Wheat Growers whether this bond issue passes or not."

After giving exhaustive figures gleaned from a feasibility study here, Consulting Engineer Bill McMorris of Amarillo concluded: "A municipal electric system can be profitable here with competition; it can be more profitable without competition; the electricity rates within the city should be the same as Southwestern Public Service rates; and a contract by the City of Dimmitt with Dimmitt Wheat Growers would be a profitable venture."

TOM ANDERLICH of San Antonio, president of Texas Securities Corp. and a financial advisor to the city, added: "We definitely think this is a good deal for the citizens of Dimmitt, that it will make money for you. If Dimmitt starts a system here with 700 users, it is anticipated the city could retire the revenue bonds in 25 years, and that the power plant would provide a $4 million surplus for the city during a 30-year lending period."

The plant would consist of one large gas-turbine generator to serve the Dimmitt Wheat Growers mill and two smaller generators to serve an anticipated 700 other city customers — half of the present customers here. If built, it would be located on two blocks of land next to Dimmitt Wheat Growers' facilities in east Dimmitt, which the co-op corporation has agreed to sell for "a price not to exceed $40,000."

But Southwestern Public Service spokesmen are charging that the city's figures aren't correct; that the city hasn't taken a cold, hard look at plant costs; that passage of the bond election would amount to giving the city a "blank check"; and that the city can't possibly match Public Service's bid to supply the grain mill.

Tuesday the voter will decide who's right.

YOUNG NATIVES performed their annual fire ritual last Thursday night at Dimmitt High School, setting the torch to the bonfire and staging a gigantic "flame rally." Here, two DHS cheerleaders and part of the student body are dramatically silhouetted in front of the huge bonfire. The noisy fall rite was the climax of "Spirit Week" and capped a special "Parent's Day" at the high school. The big rally also included the crowning of Martha Nitsa and Kent Lindsey as Flame Queen and King. In the pre-Lockney game pep rally the next day, Carolyn Simpson was crowned Spirit Queen. For more photos of the bonfire and rally, see Page 3.

City Couldn't Compete, SWPS Spokesmen Claim

Spokesmen for Southwestern Public Service Co. claimed this week that the proposed city power plant couldn't meet the competition for industrial customers.

WITH ITS proposed three generator plant, the city "has already priced itself out of the market" for industrial electricity customers, according to Roger Owen, SWPS area development manager.

Owen, who works with industries seeking to locate in this region, said it "is a big mystery to us" how the city intends to compete for the electrical power contract for Dimmitt Wheat Growers and make any money on it.

"The Southwestern Public Service rate for the new grain-processing plant is three-quarters of a cent per kilowatt hour," Owen said. "The City of Dimmitt engineer's study shows that the city cannot produce a kilowatt hour (KWH) for less than one cent, and the interest and overhead raises this cost to 1 1/2 cents per KWH."

"THIS IS the big mystery to us," he said. "What good will it do to the Dimmitt Wheat Growers or the people of Dimmitt if the city establishes an electric plant? Aaron Isaacs (general manager of Dimmitt Wheat Growers) said at Thursday night's public meeting that Dimmitt Wheat Growers is neutral in this thing, and that they'll take the lowest bid.

"So with its 1 1/2 cent production cost, the City of Dimmitt has already priced itself out of the market," he said. "And the city couldn't help it — that's what it costs any small city to provide electricity."

He quoted the City of Tulsa's advertised industrial rate and said a plant such as Western Ammonia here would have had to pay 76 percent more for power if it had located in Tulsa.

"A residential rate is one thing, but an industrial rate is something else again," Owen said. "No small city can produce power cheaply enough to compete for big industrial customers. Tulsa's industrial rate, for instance, is 1 1/2 cents per KWH. Power is a significant cost for any industry, and most industries won't pay a penny per KWH."

EARL BROCK, Dimmitt SWPS manager, said Owen "has been in on the planning of this Dimmitt Wheat Growers plant since its inception. He's in the industrial field and has been working for Dimmitt through this whole thing. He's been to Mexico City to work with Union Starch's engineers on this."

Another problem the city power plant would pose for the people of Dimmitt is a lack of reserve capacity, the SWPS spokesmen said.

"The basic cardinal law of building an electric system is that it must have the capacity to carry the load when one of its base generating units is out of service. This proposed plant violates this rule — it has no reserve capacity," the SWPS spokesmen said.

THE BIG GAS turbine would carry the Dimmitt Wheat Growers Plant, but not the town too," he added. "The two smaller turbines would carry the town, but neither one of them, nor both together, would carry Dimmitt Wheat Growers. This would be a plant without any reserve power. When the machinery is being worked on, the customer will have to do without lights and power."

Brock asked: "What would Dimmitt do if another industry requiring 1500 to 2,000 kilowatts came in? Would the city have to have another million-dollar bond election? Would the industry be willing to wait for a bond election before it could negotiate? Could the city afford to grow on this basis?"

ABOUT THE gas-turbine generators planned for the proposed city power plant, Owen said: "We have some gas turbines like this — and we haven't been able to make them run very well. It took the manufacturer and our crews more than a year to make the one at Roswell run, and we're still having trouble with it. Gas turbines are still somewhat in the developmental stage and we don't consider them reliable enough for a base load station."

LBJ Nominates Wood for Post

President Johnson Friday nominated John Hardy Wood for the Dimmitt postmaster's job.

WOOD, 47, a 21-year employee of the Dimmitt Post Office, has been serving as acting postmaster since Oct. 7. He is the assistant to Postmaster Ernest L. Davis, who died Aug. 18.

President Johnson's nomination must be confirmed by Congress, which is expected to complete its current session this week.

Wood is a 14-year member of the Dimmitt Volunteer Fire Dept. and is Dimmitt's assistant fire marshal, an unpaid post.

HE IS ALSO a member of Greer H. Estes American Legion Post #45 and the First Methodist Church, and has been associated with the Little League and PONY League baseball programs since they were organized here almost 10 years ago.

He and his wife, Gwyneth, have three sons — Michael, 18, David, 15, and Stepph, 9. They live at 506 NW Third St.

A very important election will be held in Dimmitt next Tuesday, when the qualified voters of the city will ballot on a $2,400,000 revenue bond issue. Money from the sale of the bonds would be used to build a municipal electric generating plant.

The News has tried to be impartial in presenting the arguments for and against the proposal, as they have been presented by proponents of the issue and by the opposition. Time element in this particular bond election, probably dictated by circumstances, makes it difficult to cover the arguments pro and con, in the short time intervening between the official announcement of the election and election day. We have, however, made every effort to carry all the factual information possible in the time allotted.

The general proposition is that the City of Dimmitt proposes to construct a generating plant with sufficient capacity to fill the electrical needs of the Dimmitt Wheat Growers grain processing plant, which according to the calculation of their advisors would net a neat profit. In addition the City's municipal electric plant would extend service to any electric user within the city, or an estimated fifty percent of the present customers of Southwestern Public Service Company. The City Commission has made an extensive study of the project, and based on their findings, they recommend the passage of the issue.

Southwestern Public Service Company has gone to considerable effort and expense to point up the disadvantages of a municipally owned and operated electric generating plant, and as could well be expected prefer that the bond election be defeated.

Undoubtedly there is merit to the arguments for both sides of the issue, and it will be up to the good judgment of the qualified voters of the city to render a verdict, in the best interests of the City of Dimmitt, at the polls next Tuesday.

County Cotton Acreage Hiked

Castro County's base cotton acreage allotment for 1967 has been hiked by 525 acres.

THE NEW allotment is for 52,730 acres next year. The 1966 allotment was 52,205 acres.

Texas' Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office at College Station announced the 1 percent increase.

Total base allotment for the 23 High Plains counties in 1967 comes to 2,165,872, compared with 2,122,770 in 1966, according to Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. Except for Motley County, all counties in the High Plains area received slight increases in base acreage.

Nazareth Plans Big Homecoming

Plans are almost complete for the four-day homecoming of Nazareth Public Schools next week.

The homecoming will kick off next Thursday with a bonfire at 6:30 p.m., during which a Flame King and Flame Queen will be crowned.

Homecoming football game will be Nazareth vs. Hart Oct. 28 at 7:30 p.m. One of the highlights will be the crowning of the Homecoming Queen. After the game, a public dance will be held at Nazareth Community Hall.

A homecoming dinner is scheduled for 11:30 Sunday, Oct. 30, with Nazareth High School exes given special recognition. Teachers will conduct guided tours of the school system that afternoon.

Who Can Vote

Tuesday's municipal power plant bond election will be conducted from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the city hall.

To be eligible to vote, you must be a resident of the City of Dimmitt; you must have paid your poll tax in 1965; and your name must be on the current city property tax roll, which was compiled last January.

You are ineligible if you haven't rendered your property (either real or personal) to the city for taxation, or if you have moved to the city since the tax roll was compiled.

Friday is the final day for absentee voting. Absentee ballots are now available at the city hall.

New PO Building Nears Completion

Dimmitt's new post office building is expected to be ready for business next month.

The construction contract calls for completion by Oct. 31. Acting Postmaster John Hardy Wood said. An inspection of the building is due this week by a US Postal Service representative from Dallas.

More Questions Are Fired

BY DON NELSON
Managing Editor

More questions and answers were gleaned from the controversy over the proposed city light and power plant during the week. The first five questions here were submitted by the News before last Thursday's public hearings, and answered by City Manager E. B. Noble. The remaining questions and answers came out of the two public meetings last Thursday.

1. When submitting bids to industrial customers, would the city be allowed by rate regulations to bid below Southwestern Public Service Co.'s minimum rate schedule? Would the city's exemption from taxes have any effect on such bids?

Noble: "The City may bid either above or below Southwestern Public Service rates. The city's exemption from income taxes and property taxes makes more profit available to the city. It is the city's intent to maintain rates comparable to Southwestern Public Service Co., and use the ex-

County Seeks Used Clothes

County Judge Raymond Wilson called this week for donations of winter clothing to be distributed through his office to needy county residents.

"WE HAVE a lot of people here who don't have winter clothes," he said. "We run a charity welfare program through my office, and can use any good used clothing, especially winter clothes right now."

Clothing may be boxed or loose. "If anyone can't bring their used clothing to the courthouse we'll try to come and get it for them," Judge Wilson said.

tra profit to hedge against the increasing tax trend."

2. How much annual revenue do you expect the proposed new plant to provide the city after satisfying bond requirements and paying all operating costs? How much profit does the city anticipate, per dollar on total costs?

Noble: "Based on the reports of our engineer and financial advisors, the city can expect a 13.2 percent profit after paying all operating costs, and a 5.3 percent net profit after paying principal and interest on the system."

"The city's anticipated net income for the first year of operation is $183,500. From this, $132,000 would be paid toward retiring the revenue bonds, leaving a surplus of $51,500. The surplus would climb to $128,800 the second year, and eventually to $190,000, according to the city's financial advisors."

3. Is this plant being proposed mainly because of a request by any present or potential industry? Has the city had any unsolicited requests from other sources such as businesses or private citizens?

Noble: "The city commission was approached on the possibilities of this plant by private citizens because of the very exceptional opportunity presented by the Dimmitt Wheat Growers' proposed new grain processing plant."

4. Based on the design capacity of the plant, how many industries of the size of the proposed new grain mill could this plant serve?

Noble: "The proposed grain processing plant is expected to require 42 million kilowatt hours of electricity per year when it reaches full capacity. This is two and one-third times the entire usage of the City of Tulsa, or the equivalent of a population of approximately 13,400 people."

"The design capacity will be only slightly greater than the present need. If other large plants move in, additional generating capacity can readily be added."

5. If the proposed plant were to provide the power for the new grain mill, how many residential customers could it serve at the same time? How many residential and business customers does Dimmitt have inside its city limits?

Noble: "Dimmitt presently has 1,400 residential and business customers (meters) within its city limits. As proposed, the municipal light plant would have adequate generating capacity to serve the grain processing mill plus 90 percent of Dimmitt's present customers, although our figures are based on the prospect of serving 50 percent of the city's present customers."

6. What's the big hurry on this bond election?

Noble: "What's our hurry? The best opportunity available to the city is here now — the Dimmitt Wheat Growers plant. If the voters authorize this, the rain program is assured."

Youts And Kirby Give Statements

Dimmitt's city commissioners, who have remained mum for the most part on the proposed city power plant issue, this week spoke up.

Commissioners Elmer Youts and Troy Kirby, whose votes called the Tuesday bond election, gave separate statements at Monday night's commission meeting.

Here are their full statements: Statement of City Commissioner Elmer Youts:

"I would like to say some things about the bond election that is vital to the citizens of Dimmitt.

"In almost five years that I have been privileged to serve on your city council the costs of city government have gone up continuously, just like everyone else's expenses. During that period the city has collected the highest percentage of its taxes ever. If his percentage of its tax collection falls, revenue for the city's operation will have to be supplemented from somewhere, and as things are now, the only place to get increased revenue is from taxation. And I personally do not want this.

"Your city commission is charged with the responsibility of looking after your interests. Supposing someone should say to your commission, 'We can sell you a service that will bring a net revenue of $100,000 to $200,000 a year,' and your commission should say, 'No, thank you — we are not interested. We will just wait until the city needs more revenue, then we will raise taxes and let the people pay this revenue in higher taxes. This way it will be better for the citizens; it will be better for business; it will be better for industry wanting to locate here.'"

"No, we haven't taken this attitude. We have said this study looks good enough that we want to present the facts and let the property owners of Dimmitt decide what they want. We tried in two meetings to get the facts to the people.

"Whatever decision the voters of Dimmitt make takes the responsibility off your commission's shoulders.

"THE DISTURBING thing is that there is so much harrassment people cannot properly evaluate this proposal.

"Southwestern Public Service Company last year collected from Dimmitt citizens $320,000, and should get the contract to furnish the Dimmitt Wheat Growers plant with electric service, in five years' time it could be collecting almost $1 million annually here.

"I am proud of my home town, and would like to see this potential revenue be used to employ people, give services and beautify the City of Dimmitt. I do not feel this is being selfish to want this.

"This bond election will not raise your taxes if passed. These are revenue bonds, and the law will not allow cities to use tax money to pay them. Only the revenue from this plant could pay these bonds.

"I would urge the citizens of Dimmitt to think seriously on this and make up their own minds about the proposition."

Statement of City Commissioner Troy Kirby:

"As a commissioner, I would like to ask the public:

"If the commission had not looked into the possibility of establishing a city power plant, then in about three years, after the new grain processing plant was operating, would the people say, 'Look what we could have had if the commission would have looked into it?'"

"WE HAVE worked hard and long to find out the facts. It does not mean any more to us than it does to any other taxpayer in Dimmitt. We would not lie to one person for the price of the plant.

"Southwestern Public Service says that with only one set of rates, it would not be fair. I ask you to ask yourself — if there is just one company serving the town, a monopoly, is this more fair to you than having two choices?"

"I think the citizens of Dimmitt should look at the facts and go vote their honest convictions Oct. 25."

Will You Make Candy For GI's?

Lady, will you make a coffee can full of candy for a Castro County serviceman in Vietnam?

YOUR ABILITY as a candy-maker is needed in the "Candy for Christmas" project, a county-wide campaign to give Castro's servicemen a touch of home for Christmas.

It started as a project of the Bethel Home Demonstration Club but this week it became county-wide.

The homemade candy must be wrapped and ready to go by Oct. 31 if it's to reach our men in Vietnam by Christmas.

NAMES AND addresses of all Castro County men serving in and around Vietnam are needed. Mrs. Raymond Hance at the county agent's office is compiling the list. If you know an address, phone her at 647-3455.

If you can't make candy your cash or check is needed to help pay mailing expenses. Checks should be made payable to Vietnam County Project.

The County Farm Bureau office at 304 N. Broadway will handle the mailing, so your candy, dollar bill or check should be left there within the next 10 days. Hours there are 9 to 12 and 1 to 5.

Mrs. Glenda Rickerd and Mrs. Mary Flynn, who helped launch the program, have spent recent weeks getting information from Washington on postal regulations, due dates, prospects for free delivery (which are nil), and packing instructions.

"THE CANDY should be of a type that won't melt or lose its flavor in shipment," Mrs. Flynn said. "It should be wrapped and packed in coffee cans with plastic lids, and two long pieces of masking tape must be put around the length of the can so the tape forms an X at the top and bottom of the can.

"Then the cans of candy must be packed in a cardboard container, carefully enough that the package can be thrown. The total package can't weigh more than five pounds," she added.

"The candy maker can put her name and address on a slip in the top of the candy can, but no message," Mrs. Flynn said. "Delivery will be potluck — you won't be sure which Castro County boy will get your candy, but we want to get enough to send plenty to each boy, so he'll have enough to share.

"LADIES WHO make the candy only need to pack it — they don't need to address it. That will be done by the Farm Bureau office, using Mrs. Hance's mailing list," she said.

"We need as many cans of candy as possible by Friday so we can get started on the labeling," Mrs. Rickerd said.

"The people in Washington told us they think this is a wonderful idea for our county, and that the boys in Vietnam really need a morale booster right now," the ladies said.

SO IF YOU want to give a serviceman in Vietnam a memorable Christmas present, lady, find your most appropriate recipe and make the candy, wrap it, can it, tape it, pack it, and drop it by the Farm Bureau office as soon as you can.

REV. AND MRS. JOHNNY BURNETT
... Dimmitt couple will serve in Brazil

Burnetts Chosen As Missionaries

Rev. and Mrs. J. N. Burnett of Dimmitt were appointed missionaries to Equatorial Brazil last week by the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board, meeting in annual full session in Richmond, Va.

REV. BURNETT has been minister of music and education in Dimmitt's First Baptist Church for five years. He expects to do religious work in Brazil.

He told the Foreign Mission Board that he and Mrs. Burnett began seriously considering overseas service four years ago, after the Dimmitt church took part in a School of Missions. To fulfill educational requirements for missionary appointment, Mrs. Burnett commuted to Wayland Baptist College for two and a half years.

Rev. Burnett is a native of the Terrell area in east Texas (he was born near Wills Point and graduated from high school in Terrell). He received a bachelor of arts degree from Wayland College and a bachelor of divinity degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth.

HE WAS formerly minister of music and education for churches in Floydada and Amarillo, Woodward, Okla., and Haysville, Kan., and music director for a Plainview church. Mrs. Burnett was secretary for several of the churches.

The former Barbara Evans, she was born in Hazelvalley, Ark., and grew up near Wichita, Kan. The Burnetts have three sons, Barry, 6, Bruce, 4 and Brett, three and a half months.

Rev. and Mrs. Burnett are among 20 persons given missionary assignments during the Foreign Mission Board's October meeting. This group brings the Southern Baptist overseas mission staff to 2,197 (including 167 persons on short-term assignments).

An investment in Your Future ATTEND CHURCH

Where have the LEAVES Gone?

Trees without their leaves, are like a Church building without the people. The real warmth, friendliness, and welcome atmosphere are created by the people. All of these things are a real aid to worship.

"Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name; worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness."

Come, be one among many to share in the joy of worshipping in the Lord's house this Sunday.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Bible Thoughts

"GOD'S SAVING POWER"

by Ronnie Parker

"For I am not ashamed of the gospel: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek" (Rom. 1:16). Potentially, the gospel can save every responsible person. Actually, it will save only those who obey it. When Peter preached on Pentecost, only those who received the word were baptized (Acts 2:41). The necessity of receiving the gospel was emphasized by James. "Receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls" (Jas. 1:21). God commands that we obey the gospel. His love for the world cost Him His only begotten Son. (John 3:16. Jesus says, "If ye love me ye will keep my commandments" (John 14:15). Jesus told the apostles to "make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you: and lo, I am with you a'ways, even to the end of the world." (Matt. 28:19-20). Obedience to the gospel brings one into the blood of Christ. Jesus shed His blood in His death (Matt. 26:28; Jno. 19:34). The life is in the blood, "and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanseth us from all sin." (1 Jno. 1:7). Man reaches the power of the atoning blood in the act of baptism. "Or are ye ignorant that all we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him through baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the father, so we also might walk in newness of life." (Rom. 6:3,4). God's grace is a gift, but man must appropriate the gift by obedience!

GSPA Protests Barley Removal

Removal of barley from the 1967 Feed Grain Program will work a hardship and cause loss of income on many farms now using the barley base to produce grain sorghum, directors of the Grain Sorghum Producers Association decided at their last meeting.

AS A result, the GSPA is protesting the removal.

Protests and negotiations for change have been made directly with the US Dept. of Agriculture in Washington, and by GSPA representative Rudie Tate and association member Martin Gossett before the Texas ASCS Committee.

Last month the state ASCS committee made the following official recommendation to ASCS Washington:

No action had been taken affirming or rejecting this proposal by Oct. 1.

Garrison Urges Farmers Union To Keep Watch On Legislation

In his final report as president of the Castro County Farmers Union, Shirley Garrison of Easter urged fellow members Saturday night to be "very diligent in watching the legislative aspects of the farm program" because "Congress can still make legislative changes that would definitely affect the program."

SPEAKING TO a sparse crowd of 54 at the annual FU county convention and banquet at Nazareth's school cafeteria, Garrison cited FU's part in writing the four-year farm bill now in effect.

"Months before the passage of the 1965 Farm Bill, the Farmers Union was quite active," he said. "It asked for a program that would maintain and increase prices, allow more advance planning for farmers through long-term programs, and give the farmer a more equal share in the economy."

"Most of the programs sought by the Farmers Union were included in the four-year farm bill now in effect," he said.

BUT HE added that he is disappointed in the way Secretary of Agriculture Freeman is administering certain portions of the program.

"Many provisions . . . were left to the discretion of the Secretary of Agriculture, and many of us have been disappointed in the ways in which he has used this discretionary power in administering the farm program," Garrison said. "Some of us feel he isn't administering it as it was intended."

He added, though, that Freeman "has a lot of pressure on him from various other federal agencies, pressure groups and Congress."

Garrison, who went to Washington twice in 1965 to testify before congressional feed grain subcommittees, said Farmers Union must keep up a strong lobby if it's to maintain its influence in Washington.

THERE'LL BE no time in the future that we can get our legislation passed without lobbying for it ourselves," he said. "I think that's the trend of farm legislation now."

The county Farmers Union is an important leg of this lobby, Garrison said. "In fact, in the last few years Deaf Smith, Castro and Parmer Counties, through their resolutions, have been writing the feed grain program for the Texas Farmers Union," he said.

Most members, it was necessary to get county business out of the way before the district FU (Thursday).

The state convention will be in Mineral Wells Nov. 1-3. Delegates from Castro County will be Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. Theron Morrison, Drerup and Acker. Alternates will be James Welch, Charles Heck Jr., Mrs. Mary Acker and Mrs. Shirley Garrison.

Master of ceremonies Saturday night was James Welch. Special guest and speaker was Dee Miller of Amarillo, Democratic candidate for Congress. (See related story, Page 7).

County ASCS Chairman Outlines 'Hows' of 1967 Wheat Program

In the 1967 wheat program, without acreage diversion provisions or diversion payments, how will a farmer qualify for loans and certificates?

JIM ELDER, chairman of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, lines it up this way: A participating farmer will —

1. Sign up with the ASCS County office during the sign-up period to be announced later.
2. Have an acreage of wheat no larger than the farm allotment (or no larger than the acreage available for production under the program if he plans to use and sign up for the substitution or the excess-acreage option.)
3. Maintain the farm's conserving base. (Conserving bases will be reduced for 1967 so that the farm's increased wheat allotment acreage may be utilized.)
4. Keep within all other program allotments established for the participating farm.
5. Keep within the wheat allotment or "permitted" acreage on any other farm in which such producer has an interest. If there is substitution between wheat and feed grains on the farm, keep within the feed grain (corn and grain sorghum) base on permitted acreage as well as the wheat allotment on any other farm in which the participating producer has an interest.

FARM WHEAT allotments under the 1967 program have been increased to reflect the increase in the national wheat allotment, which boosted the total to 53.2 million acres. This is 32 percent larger than the 1966-crop effective allotment. The increased allotment will enable farmers who believe increased production will be profitable to plant more land to wheat and still be eligible for full program benefits.

Benefits under the 1967 wheat program will include price-support loans of $1.25 per bushel, national average, on the participating farm's entire wheat production (except any stored excess wheat); and domestic marketing certificates on 35 percent of the farm allotment's projected production, valued at the difference between $1.25 and parity on July 1, 1967. (The certificates for the 1966 program are valued at $1.32 per bushel.)

'67 Barley Crop Can Be Any Size

Since barley will not be included in the 1967 feed grain acreage diversion program, growers of malting as well as of other types of barley will be able to produce as much or as little of the crop as they wish and still qualify for barley price support, Jim Elder, chairman of Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, said this week.

The announcement that there would be no barley diversion provisions or payments under the 1967 feed grain program was made early in August so that growers could make their production plans. Barley, like wheat, is a fall-seeded crop in many parts of the country.

FARMERS WHO participate in both wheat and feed grain programs next year may again plant wheat on regular base acreage and on feed grain base acreage if grain base" for 1967 includes only corn and grain sorghums.

Farmers who wish to plant wheat on regular barley base acreage, however, should ask the ASC county committee for a special barley base for this purpose when they sign up in the programs. The barley base then would be similar to the oats-rye base on which farmers also will be able to substitute wheat in 1967, as they did in 1966. These two bases for a farm would be in addition to the farm's feed grain base.

(There likewise will be no oats-rye diversion provisions or payments under the 1967 feed grain program.)

'Practical Politics' Demand Demo Congressman, Miller Says

Dee Miller, young Amarillo attorney who's seeking to succeed Congressman Walter Rogers, told the Castro County Farmers Union Saturday night that if his Republican opponent wins in November, the 18th congressional district will have three representatives but only one effective spokesman.

"If we are going to have water for our children, then we've got to spend some money for feasibility studies to develop new water sources and bring water into this area," he said. "You can't develop a program overnight — it takes time, and it takes money."

THE DISTRICT now is represented in Washington by Walter Rogers and Senators Ralph Yarborough (D) and John Tower (R), the 32-year-old Democratic candidate said.

Republican Tower's voice is lost in LBJ's administration, Miller claimed, and so would a Republican congressman's voice be.

In a brief explanation of the "practical mechanics of politics" in Washington, Miller said he, as a Democrat, would get better committee assignments to help him represent 18th district farmers better, and that he would have a better chance of building seniority than would his GOP opponent.

SINCE THE formation of the 18th District, Miller said, "Ben Guill has been the only Republican elected, and he only served a short term. The history of this district is Democratic."

Speaking to 54 at the county Farmers Union convention at Nazareth, Miller commended the FU with definite plans and definite commitments.

"Organization is an area where the Farmers Union can really be effective," the candidate said. "The Farmers Union had a major hand in developing the farm program."

ABOUT THE federal farm program, Miller said, "We cannot, as some people suggest, junk our farm program. The government has been in the farm program business for 35 years, and I think it would be a mistake to eliminate it. I just don't think it's possible to solve our problems that way."

On farm policy, Miller maintained that "When we draw a farm program that lasts four

Teenage Library Club Formed; Drama Club Chooses Sponsors

The following clubs of Dimmitt High School met this week and conducted their various activities.

The T.A.L.A. is an organization sponsored by the School Library Division of the Texas Library Association. It will be guided by the policies of that organization.

THE COLORS of this organization are blue and white and the emblem is an (open) closed book bearing the letters T.A.L.A. The purpose is to arouse and to encourage interest in librarianship as a profession and to give student library assistants opportunities for recognition and participation comparable to those given to students participating in other major school activities, and to gain knowledge about the different kinds of library work connected with library science.

Mrs. Gladys Leeth, librarian of Dimmitt High School, is the sponsor of the Dimmitt High Teenage Library Club.

THE DRAMA CLUB of Dimmitt High School met Oct. 11, in the high school auditorium. They elected as their parent sponsors Mrs. Leinen, Mrs. Davis, and Mr. and Mrs. Dunn.

The members also decided to have play tryouts for the all-school play "Pollyanna" on Oct. 26th and 27th.

After the business session the members cleaned the dressing rooms and flats in preparation for coming productions of the club.

THE FFA of Dimmitt High School met Tuesday night, when they held their Greenhand initiation. The Ag I boys who joined FFA this year had to wear slacks, white shirts and ties. Their duty was to shine the shoes of the older FFA boys. The rest of the initiation activities were held that night in the Ag building.

On Wednesday, the 5th of Oct., a group of students met to organize a Spanish Club. This is the first time for such a club in Dimmitt. The club went right to business and elected club officers.

They are as follows:
 President — Pete Garza
 Vice-President — Daniel Garza
 Secretary — Gloria Gonzales
 Treasurer — Judy Arnold
 Reporter — Flip Taylor
 Parliamentarians — Hilda Peralaz and Esther Guardiola.

The club's sponsor, Miss De La Cerda, decided that a Spanish Club would be helpful for encouraging the learning of the Spanish language and culture.

Our Constitution

BY GARLAND JARVIS

One hundred seventy-nine years ago, the Constitution of the United States was signed. This document, which guarantees each citizen's priceless freedoms, represents the dreams and struggles of people all over the world during many centuries of recorded history.

FROM THESE people, who served to teach America's founding fathers, came the ideas of liberty and justice and human dignity. The dreams of long forgotten ancestors came true, at last in America and . . . endowed us with a concept of government and a charter of liberty that combine the wisdom of the ages with the urgency of the nuclear age. So said President Johnson in commenting on the Constitution. "It is still," he continued, "the protection from government — and by government. But liberty is a blessing that must be constantly nurtured."

This blessing first granted on Sept. 17, 1787, can be taken away by those among us who are selfish or ignorant, by those who are too lazy to vote, by those who prefer a Communistic form of government. Only by education and determination can this country ever hope to remain the "light of the free world." We not only have a responsibility to ourselves, but also to every person on the face of this earth. That responsibility and justice swung open so all who enter can find a more prosperous and productive life.

WE, IN THIS country, have a great heritage of work, determination, loyalty, and love of people. Our founding fathers fought and most of them died so that we might have the present "necessities" of life. If we, today, are not willing to fight and die for these principles, then the MILLIONS of Americans who have lost their lives for this country (you and me) have died in vain.

When riots and mass murders occur in the streets, and when Nazi and Communist party slogans appear on our public highways, I begin to wonder if dying for this "great" country is worth it. If George Washington or Abraham Lincoln could return to this time in history, just what would they say? Would they be proud they helped form this nation, or would they hang their heads in shame? Would they feel guilty about all the wars and trials they helped to cause, or would they feel honored by the "great amount of patriotism" shown in the United States? I wonder!

TODAY IN Viet Nam, thousands of your friends and mine are being tortured and killed for the "cause of freedom." Is it worth it? Is it worth it when anti-American slogans appear on our embassy buildings? Is it worth it when anti-Viet Nam demonstrators tramp the streets shouting insults at our soldiers? Is it worth it when crime and juvenile delinquency rage in the streets? Frankly, I sometimes wonder.

AMERICANISM can be preached from the housetops, but unless it comes down to earth, no good will come from it.

The answer to the question of whether dying for one's country is worth it can be summed up in a few words. "I regret that I have but one life to give for my country!" Today, as far as we should be concerned, ten or even twenty lives would not be enough to give for our country. We would not hesitate to do everything in our power to promote democracy and freedom in a world filled with hate, jealousy, and envy.

Freedom loving people everywhere must dedicate themselves to the gift of liberty and to the Constitution of the United States, a symbol of man's ability to govern himself within the laws adopted by his representatives to protect his life, liberty, and pursuit of happiness.

Don't forget that the world is only as good as those in it, and those in it are only as good as those who passed before them. Let's make our descendants proud that we were here!

Bobcat of the Week:

Ronnie Kenmore

This week's Bobcat of the Week is one of whom we are very proud. He is a star end and is also our punter and field goal kicker. If you haven't already guessed who this mighty Bobcat is, we shall now tell you. Our Bobcat of the Week is Ronnie Kyle Kenmore.

RONNIE IS 18 years old and was born on the 26th day of March, 1948. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Kenmore.

Our Bobcat, after deliberation, has decided that the Oldsmobile Toronado is his favorite car, but for the time being, he will have to be satisfied with a white Chevy II. His favorite color is baby blue, and if you have noticed, this blue matches his eyes.

Presently, Ronnie is taking English IV, civics, band, physics, journalism, and sports. As you can well see, he keeps pretty busy in the classroom, but he always has time for a game of football. He likes basketball very much, too.

AS HIS FAVORITE movie, Ronnie chose "Goldfinger." As his most enjoyable book, he decided that Run Silent, Run Deep held his interest best.

As for the future, Ronnie has not yet made up his mind what he wants to do, but he has narrowed his choice of colleges down to three. Even though undecided, Ronnie is certainly an individual who is filled with ambition and will always do his best at everything he attempts. When such a wonderful and friendly person has such characteristics as these, it is fitting that we salute our Bobcat of the Week — Ronnie Kenmore.

Five Attend AHS Meeting

The Panhandle Chapter of the American Heritage Society met at 7:00, Oct. 10, in the Wayland College cafeteria. After the invocation dinner was served to the members.

MR. OGLEVIE introduced the guests speaker, Dr. Paul Wood of the History Dept. at Texas Tech. Dr. Wood discussed the "Articles of Confederation," the first constitution written for the new American nation in 1783. He also told many amusing incidents related to the period.

These attending from Dimmitt were Mrs. Avis Smith, Miss Betty Griffing, Miss Bernice Littlepage, Mr. Jerry Cockerham, and Mr. Cooksey.

This year, area teachers are again urged to participate in essay writing. This year, each teacher who enters will be given a year's subscription to the American Heritage magazine. The winner will receive an expense paid trip to the National Convention.

Outdoor Rally Marks a First
"YEH PURPLE, YEH WHITE" — as the Bobcats left for Memphis, the band, cheerleaders, student body, and faculty were standing outside the front doors of DHS. This was a FIRST in the history of DHS — a pep rally on the front lawn.
THE BAND began the occasion with the fight song as the cheerleaders brought the Bobcats outside. The pep rally was off to a good start as always, with "Who Are The Bobcats?" which was followed by "Ya Gotta Go!" "Roundup" really inspired the kids. Coach Hunter spoke words of great encouragement about the Mighty Bobcats.
THE STUDENT BODY did the chant "Beat Those Cyclones" while the band played Grandioso. The cheerleaders led the old traditional yell "Two Bits," followed by the School Song. The student body was then led in "VI-VI" after which the band played "National Emblem."
To the familiar ring of this song, the boys boarded the bus as the students did chants such as "Yeh Purple", "Go Fight, Win," and "Beat Those Cyclones." And so the Mighty Bobcats roared off to Memphis to meet the Cyclones in a district game... "YEH BOBCATS, FIGHT, FIGHT, FIGHT!"

VFW Will Host Fry and Dance Saturday Night

Music will be provided by a combo featuring Lillie Marie Howard at the keyboard.
Tickets at $5 per couple may be purchased from any VFW or auxiliary member, or at the door Saturday.

Sunday Visitors
Sunday afternoon visitors in the home of Mrs. Leona Rothwell were her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Nowell, son Derrell, and their daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy White and two girls, all of Muleshoe.

Last Rites Held For Melton Boy
Funeral services were held in Littlefield Oct. 10, for James Raymond Melton IV, 23-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Melton, former Dimmitt residents.
THE BOY WAS dead on arrival at the Medical Arts Hospital in Littlefield Oct. 8 after being hit by a butane truck driven by his father at the Melton home in Earth.
He was born Oct. 23, 1964 at Hereford.
Rites were held in First Baptist Church in Littlefield with Rev. M. B. Baldwin of Earth officiating, assisted by Rev. Robert Longshore, pastor. Burial was in Littlefield Cemetery under Hammons Funeral Home direction.
Pallbearers were Butch Howard and Jim Engle.

DHS Boys Restore Cars
If you happen to be driving down the street one day and see ten eager, bright, young faces peering at you from a 1949 Packard, please don't think you are having hallucinations! You really do see the car.
The ten young faces belong to Scott Nelson, Anthony Stanford, Steve Buckley, Gerald and David Seale, Gail and Gary Crum, Richard Jackson, Michael Wood, and Jim White from Frio.

AUGUST 15 will always be remembered as the day they paid the huge amount of $75 for this jewel (?) of a car. They purchased it from Mr. Bo Merchez.
The boys have spent from $40 to $50 on the car. But, you see, they're going to have to spend a little more to buy tags and a sticker for it. But with ten boys all pooling their pennies, it shouldn't be very long until they bring it out of Steve's grandmother's barn for its appearance on the streets of Dimmitt.

BUT, RIGHT along side of the '49 Packard is Paul Catoe's '37 Chevy.
If you thought $75 for a Packard is cheap, wait until you hear what Paul's father paid for this car: that's right, $12.50!
Paul has spent around $400 restoring this car during the six years he has owned it. But, to fix the car up satisfactorily, he intends to spend about $200 more.
The car still has the original 6-cylinder engine. Paul wants to keep everything as original as possible, even to the bright green paint job.
Many of you may be wondering why Paul devotes so much time and money to fix up this old car when he could buy a newer model for about the same amount. This is about Paul has to say: "People like to see something like that restored. It makes people feel good to see it."
To give the car an interesting history, Paul likes to think it has a bullet hole in it. Maybe it belonged to a gangster during the '30s! But, 'fes up' Paul! Isn't it really where the radio aerial goes?

Outdoor Rally Marks a First
"YEH PURPLE, YEH WHITE" — as the Bobcats left for Memphis, the band, cheerleaders, student body, and faculty were standing outside the front doors of DHS. This was a FIRST in the history of DHS — a pep rally on the front lawn.
THE BAND began the occasion with the fight song as the cheerleaders brought the Bobcats outside. The pep rally was off to a good start as always, with "Who Are The Bobcats?" which was followed by "Ya Gotta Go!" "Roundup" really inspired the kids. Coach Hunter spoke words of great encouragement about the Mighty Bobcats.
THE STUDENT BODY did the chant "Beat Those Cyclones" while the band played Grandioso. The cheerleaders led the old traditional yell "Two Bits," followed by the School Song. The student body was then led in "VI-VI" after which the band played "National Emblem."
To the familiar ring of this song, the boys boarded the bus as the students did chants such as "Yeh Purple", "Go Fight, Win," and "Beat Those Cyclones." And so the Mighty Bobcats roared off to Memphis to meet the Cyclones in a district game... "YEH BOBCATS, FIGHT, FIGHT, FIGHT!"

A reminder of SENATOR TOWER'S service in Washington for TEXAS FARMERS
HERE ARE A FEW OF THE MAJOR PROJECTS SENATOR TOWER HAS UNDERTAKEN FOR YOU:
He supported soil and water conservation projects so necessary to the future of agriculture in Texas.
He sponsored six key bills on water resources, conversion of brackish water, desalination, and rural water systems. Five of the six already have become law and are benefitting Texas farmers.
He served as a leader in the action against suspension of the investment tax credit which would amount to $100 million tax increase on American agriculture.
He supported necessary subsidies to help offset the artificial economic conditions created by too much government in agriculture.
He flatly rejected the contentions of some federal bureaucrats that farmers and ranchers are somehow responsible for the inflation really caused by federal deficit spending. He has fought hard against restricting or freezing farm prices.
He sponsored legislation making federal crop insurance available in high risk areas.
He sponsored legislation to allow states to regulate recruitment of foreign agricultural workers needed to harvest crops.
He has supported the REA's position in working to maintain status independent of Federal Power Commission control. He also cooperated with the REA's efforts in supporting federal bans for rural community water systems.
YOU COME FIRST WITH SENATOR JOHN TOWER
Senator Tower serves you as a STRONG FRIEND OF THE LAW AND OF CIVIL ORDER.
Senator Tower serves you as an effective FIGHTER AGAINST INFLATION AND SKY-ROCKETING PRICES.
Senator Tower serves you as a LEADER IN THE PURSUIT OF VICTORY IN VIET NAM.
YOU CAN COUNT ON THINGS GETTING DONE WITH SENATOR JOHN TOWER ON THE JOB.
He has earned National Congressional seniority and gained experience no new Senator could replace. With John Tower in the Senate, Texas has the distinct advantage of having its voice heard in the highest leadership councils of both parties.

THIS SQUASH looks as though it was ready to wander all over the garden before being picked. Sam Raper, 401 SW Fifth St., holds the banana squash from the family garden. At left is Sam, Jr. This wasn't the largest squash in their garden — one grew more than six feet long before it matured, but was "culled out," since banana squash over 44 inches aren't considered edible.

Young Farmers Hear Dr. Bennett

Dr. Bill Bennett, chief agronomist for Western Ammonia Corp. here, presented a program on "Application of Fertilizers in the Fall" to the Dimmitt Young Farmer chapter last Thursday. DR. BENNETT explained the leaching properties of the various forms of nitrogen compounds and how the farmer could best use them. He discussed experiments that have been completed recently at different places, and their effect upon fertilizer demands. After Dr. Bennett's program, Don Robb reported on the cost of a chartered bus to the state Young Farmer convention at Corpus Christi and the number that would be necessary. He reported if 29 went, the cost would be $684. At the end of the meeting, special interest was given to a plaque that was on display. This plaque was presented to the chapter by Southwestern Public Service for winning the area chapter publicity award at the Area I convention held at Tulla in September. The chapter's chances of winning first at the state convention was discussed. Young Farmers present at the meeting were Richard Hunter, Don Robb, David Cole, Glenn Odum, Jerry Varner and Ben McClomb. Landers have returned from a trip to points near Los Angeles, Calif., where they visited with their children. Mrs. Thelma Davis worked the Hart Variety Store while they were away. Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Dinwiddie were in Tulla on Saturday to attend funeral of Mrs. Kirk Hulsey. S. O. GOLLADAY of Midland died Monday evening. No funeral arrangements are known at this time. Mr. Golladay was the father of Mrs. Max Stephens of Hart. Had he have lived until the 30th of this month he would have been 95 years of age. He had been in failing health for several months. Mr. and Mrs. Stephens and Elizabeth left for Midland late Monday evening. HART SCHOOL LUNCH MENU OCT. 24-28 Monday — Sausage and gravy, creamed potatoes, whole kernel corn, hot rolls, whipped honey and butter, apricot halves, milk and butter. Mr. E. B. Noble
City Manager
City Hall
Dimmitt, Texas

Dear Mr. Noble:

With reference to our recent telephone conversation concerning our Power Plant, I would like to take this means of confirming our conversation with regard to our selling our Power Plant.

We do not plan to sell our Power Plant. In fact, if it were not for our Power Plant our City taxes would have to be raised at least 100%. Our Power Plant has made considerable contribution to the finances of the City of Brownfield. For the last fourteen years I can speak from personal experience that the contribution has averaged during those years in excess of $100,000.00 per year. Therefore, we would take this means of denying any rumors that you might have heard concerning the sale of our Power Plant. The City Council of the City of Brownfield has no plans and has not even discussed the matter within the past several years. Our Power Plant is modern, up-to-date and furnishes adequate power for our people and we have plans to keep it adequate to service and provide for any industrial growth that we might experience in the future.

We trust this is the information that you were interested in and if we can be of any further assistance in this, or any other matter, please call on us.

Sincerely,
Alva J. Geron
City Manager
City of Brownfield

MRS. JAKE SPEAKS UP

It's been a while since we've had a report on Jaycee-Ette activities. THE CLUB members baked cookies for the Jaycee Labor Day rest stop and also prepared and served a Mexican chili supper for the district Jaycee work forum held in Dimmitt Sept. 20. The Dimmitt Jaycee-Ettes are sponsoring the extension of Plainview Jaycee-Ettes as they become a state affiliated club. The Plainview Jaycee-Ettes visited our regular meeting Sept. 27. The latest project of the Jaycee-Ettes is selling the famous Kathryn Beich candies. We have several kinds ordered and as soon as delivery is made, we will be hard at work once again. That's all for now. MRS. JAKE
