Crowd Estimated At 7,000 Sees Rodeo Opening

Well... I Dunno, But...

Those Jaycee "widows," bless 'em get our vote for one of the cleverest entries in the big rodeo parade Wednesday. Though their praises have been unsung while they kept the homesites burning white husbands worked night and day on the rodeo, they didn't have to flash that stunt Wednesday for us to learn that they are ingenious and a brave bunch of gals. The powers behind the scenes, they are, and many of the ideas incorporated into the rodeo and parade have come from these unseen boosters.

For instance, we hear by grape vine that Anne Straley is the gal that thought up the plan for the Commercial State Bank entry in the parade to help friend husband make his rodeo parade the success that it was. And it was Anne's car that was used by the bank. Notice we say "Anne's car" not Doc's.

Also lending true color to the parade was the truck wagon from the Lazy K Ranch, driven by Morris Underwood, overseer for the ranch.

The loyal little citizens of Ranger, their part Wednesday to make things colorful for the opening of the rodeo. Macked out in cowgirl togs were 18-months old Frances Wagner, (Meg to everybody) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wagner, and Meg's cousin, three-year-old Katherine Ann Hubbard of Frederick, Oklahoma and Washington, D. C. The two are the granddaughters of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wieser, owners of the Gholson Hotel.

Another one macked out for the rodeo was Davie Pickrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. David D. Pickrell, whose spurs and their jangle added much to the show for Davie.

We learned this morning that among the members of the famous Hardin-Simmons University Cowboy Band is a former resident of Ranger. He is Robert "Bobbie," Rex, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Rex of Odessa, formerly of Ranger. Bobbie is the main drummer in the band.

Jaycees were apologizing this morning because they did not have enough seats for all of the people that wanted to see the opening of the big rodeo last night. Ticker sellers stated today that they turned away many people last night and that a good many more were admitted for standing room against the advice of the Jaycees.

Jaycees also requested today that people refrain from standing up in the aisles, etc and blocking the view of others trying to see the rodeo.

Parking at the arena last night was handled by 22 men from Ranger's National Guard unit and Jaycees this morning were praising the men for the manner in which it was handled.

Our hat's off to Dr. Carl Straley for the fine parade that he rounded up for the kick-off to the rodeo Wednesday. That was a job well done.

Our apologies to C. B. Pruet in the story concerning the election of directors for the Eastland County Water Supply District in Wednesday paper. Pruet was listed as receiving 51 votes. The matter of fact he received 51. Since there were only 75 votes cast, the matter of ten votes difference is considerable.

The state of Washington ranked seventh in the nation in production of 1949 stakes-winning thoroughbreds.

Big Parade Kicks Off Rodeo

The fourth annual Junior Chamber of Commerce World Championship rodeo was kicked off here Wednesday afternoon in one of the biggest parades yet staged in connection with the opening of the rodeo.

The parade estimated to be at least two miles in length was witnessed by a record breaking crowd. Through lined Main Street, Walnut Street and Pine street and filled every window in downtown buildings.

Prizes were awarded to Frances Brackeen of Palo Pinto, first place in the girls' riding division, L. H. Yeager of Cisco, first place in the boys' riding division, and first place in the floats went to the combined entry of the J. D. Johnson Radio Shop and the Geni-Lou shop and second place awarded to Montgomery Ward and Company for their "welcome to homecomers" entry. The riders received $10 each and first place prize for floats was $20 and second prize $10. Judges were Mrs. J. A. Bates, Dr. Bob Hodges and A. N. Larson.

Headed by the prancing Hardin-Simmons University Cowboy band the parade moved from the intersection of Marston and Walnut streets down Walnut and up Main and dissembled on Pine street. Five other bands lent color and music to the big parade. They were the bands from Ranger, Stephenville, Breckenridge, Comanche and Eastland.

The hour and day of the funeral are pending.

Mr. Burnett died this morning in the Hendricks Memorial Hospital in Abilene following several years of illness. He was born in Ranger on April 9, 1903 and had resided in Ranger approximately 35 years. He was a member of the Church of Christ at Bowie and prior to retiring because of ill health had been a truck driver for the Sinclair Pipeline company. He was married in 1925 to Nettie Blackwell in Ranger and she preceded him in death on June 18, 1929.

He is survived by the parents, a son, Charles Burnett of Ranger; two brothers, L. J. Burnett of Ranger and Louen I. Burnett of Fort Worth; two sisters, Mrs. J. A. Pritchard of Phoenix, Arizona and Mrs. Ralph G. Reed of Camp Verde, Arizona.

People Urged To Observe Meter Ordinance

Members of the city commission today appealed to the people of Ranger to observe the proper use of parking meters and not make it necessary for policemen to pass out violation tickets.

It was pointed out that it is the wish of the commission to have the meters observed and not to collect money for fines as a means of making money for the city. However, they explained that violations will continue to receive the attention of the policemen and tickets will be given.

"It is not fair for one person to abide by the law and let another break it and get by with it," is the way one of the commissioners put it.

Police Chief W. G. Pounds stated today that the number of tickets given for violations fell off some on the second day, with only 33 handed out Wednesday as compared to 42 tickets passed out Tuesday. Lester Crossley, city secretary stated that a total of $34 has been collected in fines and a total of $73 assessed.

Homecomers Asked to Register

Committeemen in charge of the homecoming events this morning asked that all visitors here for the homecoming register at the Gholson Hotel, giving their address, number in family, and number of miles traveled in coming to Ranger.

All registrations are wanted by 5 P. M. Friday.

A $25 prize will be awarded Friday night at the rodeo performance for the largest family present and a $15 prize will be given the person that traveled the greatest distance. Winners must be at the rodeo show Friday night if they claim the prize and at that time winners will be introduced and awards made.

Professors Pair Off
BURLINGTON, Vt. (UP)—Prof. Lyman S. Rowell of the University of Vermont was hired to teach a summer zoology session at San Diego (Cal.) State College. Prof. Robert Howard of the San Diego college was asked to lecture at the local university. So the two zoologists solved the potential housing problem by agreeing to swap houses.

Suicide Verdict Returned In Ranger Shooting

A verdict of suicide was returned this morning by Justice of the Peace Charles Bobo in the death of James E. Roberts at his home, 316 Hunt Street, in Ranger.

Death was said to have been from self inflicted .22 caliber Winchester rifle at the home early this morning and a physician pronounced Roberts dead at 8:05 A. M. The bullet pierced the brain, entering by the right eye.

On hearing the shot in the bedroom of their home, Mrs. Roberts investigated and upon finding the husband, called a physician. Police W. G. Pounds and Policemen Alfred Ames were also summoned and investigated the shooting. The suicide was laid to dependency.

Funeral services were incomplete today, pending contact with relatives but interment will be in Desdemona cemetery. Killingsworth's is in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Roberts was born in Alabama on October 7, 1888 and had resided in Ranger for four months during which time he had operated the Roberts Laundry on Hunt street. Prior to coming to Ranger he had resided about 35 years in Desdemona. He was married on September 3, 1911 in Desdemona to Sir Vella Chism who survives him.

Besides Mrs. Roberts he is survived by five daughters, Mrs. E. D. Lewis and Mrs. John Allen of Desdemona; Mrs. T. L. Fonville and Mrs. Paul Fonville, and Mrs. Q. Z. Rainey, all of Ranger; two brothers, Charles Roberts of Fort Worth and Joe Roberts of Palm City, California and a sister, Mrs. David DeGuire of Abilene. Eleven grandchildren also survive.

GRAND ENTRY MOST SPECTACULAR EVER STAGED AT JAYCEE RODEO

Tickets On Sale For Barbecue Saturday P. M.

One of the highlights for the homecoming of former Ranger residents which opened Wednesday will be a big barbecue at the Willows Park Saturday evening about 6:30 o'clock.

The barbecue is being sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and Junior Chamber of Commerce and details of the event are being handled by Morris Newnam of the Jaycees.

Tickets to the barbecue are $1.00 and may be had by contacting Newnam or R. V. Galloway at the Chamber of Commerce. The barbecue will follow immediately after the fiddler's contest which is scheduled to start at the Willows at 4 o'clock. Those wishing to enter the contest are asked to register at least by 2 o'clock Saturday either at the Gholson Hotel or at the Chamber of Commerce.

Also on the calendar for homecoming visitors and women of Ranger in general is the big forty-two and bridge party which will be held at the Ranger Country Club Friday afternoon beginning at 2 o'clock. The ladies of the country club are giving the party under the sponsorship of the C. of C. and the Jaycees. It was pointed out Wednesday that those who do not wish to join the games will be welcome to attend the party and visit with old friends.

Playing to a crowd estimated to be at least 7,000 people, the opening performance of the fourth annual Jaycee World Championship rodeo was held in Ranger Wednesday night.

The packed grandstands watched as a fast moving show clicked with clock-like precision as one event after another held the spotlight in the arena. People were turned away at the gate because of the sell-out crowd and many were sold standing room.

Everything went well with the show until the Brahma bulls hung out "no riders, please" signs and balked at attempts of all riders with the exception of W. N. Rice of Brooksmith who qualified.

The grand entry at the first performance of the rodeo was the biggest ever held and included representatives from many towns in Texas. Both the Palo Pinto County Sheriff's Posse and the Parker County Sheriff's Posse which had taken part in the rodeo parade remained for the opening night of the show and to ride in the grand entry.

Judges Wednesday night were Ed Curtiss and Buck Jones and announcer is Pete Adams of Tulsa. Homer Todd of Fort Smith, Arkansas is furnishing the stock and Frank Mariani of Ranger is arena manager.

In the events Wednesday night Fuzzy Garner of Comanche, Oklahoma won first in the bareback bronc riding; Kid Morley of Lamesa, second and G. K. Lewallen of Hico, third.

In calf roping, Jess Slaughter of Big Spring was first with 16.8 seconds; Don McLaughlin of Fort Worth second with 17.5 and Red Smith of San Antonio, third with 19.7.

Saddle bronc riding places were won by Bub Evans of Fort Worth, first; Fuzzy Garner of Comanche, Oklahoma, second and G. K. Lewallen of Hico, third.

Amy McGilvray of Mertzon was first in the barrel race with 11.8 seconds; Sally Harbin of Llano and Janelle McGilvray of Mertzon, tied for second with 12.1 seconds and June Probst of S. A. Angelo was third with 12.2 time.

Winning steer wrestlers were, first, C. C. Evans of Coleman, 13.9; second, Junior Fuller, 23.1 and third, Carl Sattafield, 35.1.

George Glascock of Cresson was judge of the cutting horse contest with Robert Corbett of Breckenridge riding "Housekeeper"; Pine Johnson of Arlington on "Poco Bueno" owned by E. P. Waggoner; and Volney Hildreth of Hico riding "Mital H."

Trick ropers gave an entertaining performance with the three small Anz brothers from Waco drawing a big hand from the crowd. The boys are Jim, 12, Bob, 10, and Allen, 8.

Ruth Mariani of Ranger, Virginia Waco of Winslow, Arizona, Don Wilcox of Winslow and Paul Bond, gave exciting performances in trick riding. Other speciality acts were John Lindsey and his trained bull, Iron Ore, and Johnnie Miller, clown.

Greer's Boot Shop is giving a $50 pair of boots to the best all-round cowboy in the rodeo; Pulley Jewelry Company is donating a $60.00 watch for the hard-luck cowboy and another $60 watch for the cowboy that makes the best average in the barrel race.

Ranger Gets Plug In Fiesta-Cade

Ranger is reaping recognition as part of Fort Worth celebration of its Centennial.

One of the 20 scenes in the Fiesta-Cade deals with the discovery of the Ranger oil field and the importance of the event in the development of Fort Worth. The Fiesta-Cade will be presented eight nights (closing Saturday night) and will have been viewed by approximately 60,000 persons during that time.

In addition, the official Fiesta-Cade program contains a history of Fort Worth and this points out how important the Ranger oil field was to the growth of Cowtown.

The events featured in the Fiesta-Cade were suggested by the Fort Worth Centennial Historical Committee of which Boyce House is chairman. House also wrote the history for the souvenir program copies of which, because of the historical associations of Fort Worth's celebration, probably will be saved by thousands of persons.

Legion To Have Dance Tonight

Members of the American Legion and Auxiliary will entertain tonight with a dance at the Legion hall immediately after the rodeo performance. A cakewalk will also be featured at the dance tonight.

All visitors and people of Ranger are invited to attend the benefit event.

ROTARIANS, LIONS HOLD JOINT MEET WEDNESDAY

A joint meeting of the Rotary and Lions Clubs was held Wednesday at noon at the Gholson Hotel in keeping with a custom on the opening day of the annual rodeo.

G. B. Rush, president of the Rotary Club, presided over the assembly and R. B. Thomas Jr., president of the Lions Club introduced Lion visitors and conducted a short business meeting of the club.

Wilson Guest, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, thanked the business men for their cooperation in making the current show of the rodeo possible and read a telegram of congratulations and best wishes from Mayor Price Crawley who is attending the Lions International Convention in New York.

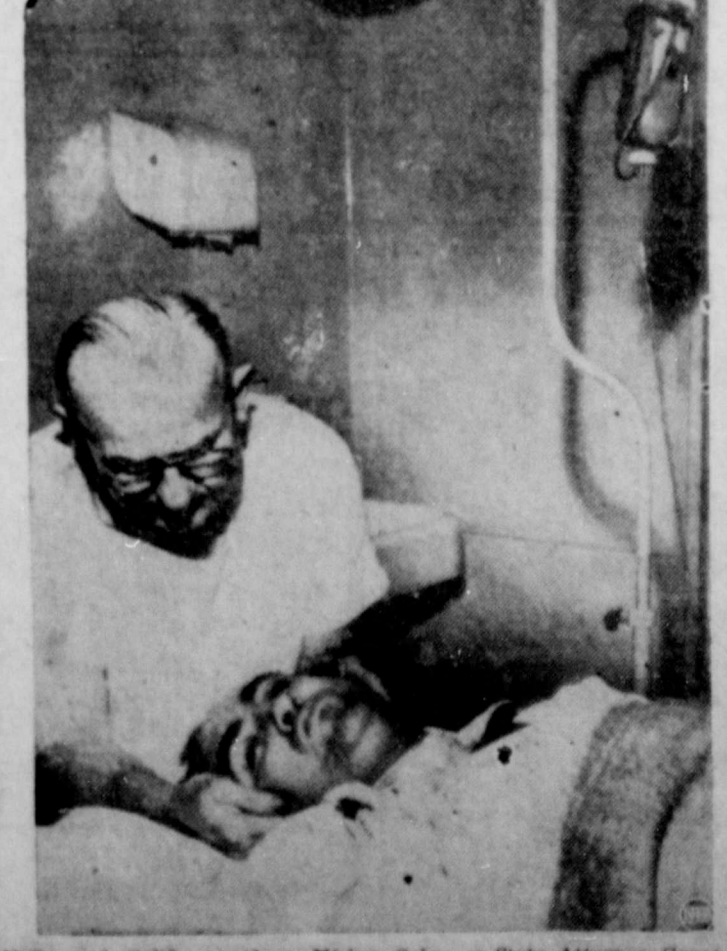

Joe Nusselt of the Lions Club read a telegram from Mayor Crawley in which he asked for an "additional $200" in expenses and Nusselt's reply stating that the club would comply with the request if Mayor Crawley would agree to "stay up there and never come back" Mayor Crawley on receiving the letter wired back that he would be glad to comply with the terms of the letter if the club would double the "ante". By unanimous vote of the men present it was agreed to make the deal with Mayor Crawley.

Mayor Pro Tem O. G. Lanier, welcomed the guests and congratulated the Jaycees on their accomplishments.

Guests at the meeting were Frank Mariani, arena manager for the rodeo, Warren Green of Graham, Frank Kidd of Mineral Wells, Roy Jolliffe of Moundsville, W. Va., and Hall Walker.

H. C. Henderson appealed to those present to support the school tax increase that will be voted upon here Tuesday. He pointed out that acceptance of the tax mandatory under the Gilmer-Aikin reform system for education in Texas, if Ranger schools are to open in the fall.

Morris Newnam, president of the Retail Merchants Association and Chief of Police W. G. Pounds today issued a warning to Ranger merchants about taking checks from strangers.

The warning was issued after it was learned this morning that two checks, one in the amount of $25 and another in the amount of $35, had turned out to be "hot checks."

The Alan Watson family have returned recently from a most interesting and educational trip of 8 days in which they touched on and visited in Louisiana, Arkansas, Mississippi, Kentucky, Missouri and Illinois. That is covering territory in anybody's language. Some of the interesting places they visited were the Mammoth Cave, in Kentucky; Civil War battleground at Vicksburg Mississippi; and the Wycliff Kentucky buried city—a burying ground of the ancient peoples, reputedly an older race than the American Indian which we knew. The old burying ground is at the conjunction of the Ohio and Tennessee Rivers just above where they flow into the Mississippi River and is only a few miles out of Cario, Ill.

Son Ballard, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ballard of Abilene, and grandson of Mrs. Caroline Bennett of Gorman has been seriously ill for the better part of a week, and he is so serious now that there is little hope of his recovery. An infection seems to have set up resulting from a broken arm and the boy is running temperatures of 106 and 107 and has been for almost three days, with nothing that several doctors can do to relieve the situation.

Ruth Slaton is in Blackwell Sanitarium for observation on an infection which seems to be traveling up from one of her limbs to the rest of her body.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Brummet spent the week-end in Monahans. Friday Mr. E. Clyde Whitlock with whom Sylvia Brummet has been studying violin, for over a year was in town Friday form Ft. Worth for a visit with the Brummet's. Mr. Whitlock brought Mrs. Brummet a lovely service of crystal for serving 8 persons.

Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Brandon have returned from San Antonio where the Dr. spent 15 days in an Army Reserve training camp. Joe returned with his parents.

Priest To Tell Of Kidnapping

BLACKWELL, Okla., July 21 (UP) — A Catholic priest leaves his hospital bed today to tell FBI agents how he was kidnaped from Wichita, Kan., by an ex-convict and forced to drive to Oklahoma.
The Rev. Frank N. Heyer, 31, told officers that the former convict, Arthur Andrew Hancock, held him up with a pistol Tuesday evening.

Heyer said his kidnaper pulled the gun from a sweater draped over his arm, asked him how much money he had on him, and then forced him to drive across the state line here.
The week of July 24-30 is National Farm Safety Week.

Lesnevich Now Takes Shot At Charles' Heavy Crown

NEW YORK—(NEA)—It all depends on who has the championship and the situation.
When Gus Lesnevich was the light-heavyweight leader, and everybody in the cockeyed world sought his services, including Joe Louis, his manager, Joe Vella, steadfastly refused to have any truck with Exard Charles.
"Charles would knock him out," Handler Vella told this reporter.
But now that Charles has a leg on the heavyweight title, Lesnevich is fighting him 15 rounds at Yankee Stadium, Aug. 10.
Deprived of the 175-pound crown by Freddie Mills and having dropped the American version of it to Joey Maxim, Lesnevich no longer was the target of promoters breaking their legs in a rush to sign him.
Perhaps Vella feels that a Lesnevich weighing 180 pounds will be vastly more formidable at 24 than was the one who was bothered doing 175.
But a more likely story is that Lesnevich's is ending like that of practically every fighter.
When business isn't good, it's any old port in a storm regardless of the risk.
ALTHOUGH hidden by the more glamorous deeds of the backs, Jim Martin is likely to crack all existing stamina football records at Notre Dame this fall.
Withstanding any possible injuries, Co-captain Martin is expected to play every minute of every game, and in that case will have played more minutes throughout a four-year span than any other Irish player in history.
Martin, an incomparable end, switched to a running tackle slot this spring for the good of the team.
Standing six feet one, weighing 210, with terrific shoulders and hands and exceptionally fast for his bulk, Martin twice won the All-American heavyweight boxing championship.
Skeptical observers say that, with a brief course of sprouts, the Cleveland lad would stick out professionally, but he's going into professional football.
Which gives you an additional slant on why there are so many good professional fighters.
While on football, George Ratterman is foregoing the pay-for-play offer this summer to Johnny Lujack in South Bend, Ratterman further advanced into a crackerjack T quarterback for the Buffalo Bills of the All-American Conference.
Ratterman intends to finish his law course at Notre Dame. Just as everybody suspected that was why young men played professional football in the first place—as a means to an end.

Legal Advice Sought In Parker County Licenses

AUSTIN, Tex., July 21 (UP)—State Highway Engineer Dewitt Greer said today his department will ask the attorney general for legal advice regarding charges that Parker County illegally issued some $24,000 in license plates to out-of-county residents.

"The state and county," Greer said, "are seeking legal advice on the case."

Meanwhile, another avenue of settlement was kept open.

Fred Wemple, chairman of the Texas Highway Commission, told Parker County Judge Joe Dodson, in a telegram, that the commission would "be glad to give future consideration" to any "definite method by which it (Parker County) may discharge in full its financial obligations to the department."

This meant, Greer explained, that the county could pay to the commission the amount the state would have received if the license plates had been sold in the residents' counties.

Greer estimated that the sum "would be about half of the $24,000."

The question arose, Greer said, when the commission discovered that Parker County apparently had been issuing plates to non-residents of the county in a "flagrant violation" of the law.

Issuance was made particularly, he said, to Fort Worth and Dallas car owners. He explained that the practice drew off revenue which might normally go to the state.

After a certain amount in license plates had been raised by a county, Greer said, the state is cut in on revenue over that amount. Thus, he explained, the state shares in revenues mainly from larger counties such as those where Dallas and Fort Worth are located.

Churchill explained that he was with Mr. Roosevelt when the latter made the statement and "I had very rapidly to consider whether the state of our position in the world was such as to justify me in not giving support to it." He said he agreed, although it was not his idea.

Then he acknowledged that if it had been put up to the British cabinet for discussion, the cabinet would have rejected it.

Bevin had blamed "most of the shambles" of allied policy toward Germany which he inherited at the end of the war on the unconditional surrender statement.

It was then that Churchill disclosed that the statement was made by Mr. Roosevelt "without consultation with me," and he had to decide quickly whether to agree to it.

"I was there on the spot," Churchill said, referring to the joint press conference he held with Mr. Roosevelt at the end of the Casablanca conference.

He agreed to support it, he said, "but it was not the idea I had formed in my mind. I have not the slightest doubt that the British cabinet had they considered the phrase around the table, would have decided against it. But working in a great alliance we have to accommodate ourselves."

SAYS COMMITMENT MADE WITHOUT HIS CONSENT

BY R. H. SHACKFORD
UNITED PRESS STAFF CORRESPONDENT

LONDON, July 21 (UP)—Winston Churchill placed on the late President Roosevelt today the full responsibility for the "unconditional surrender" policy regarding Germany, and admitted that the British cabinet would have rejected such a policy.

Mr. Roosevelt made the "unconditional surrender" statement at Casablanca without consulting him, the wartime prime minister told the House of Commons.

Churchill conceded that he had "not the slightest doubt" that the British government would have turned down the policy if the cabinet had been consulted in the matter.

The secrets of the Casablanca conference came out in common debate on foreign policy, marked by an angry exchange between Churchill and Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin.

Bevin sought to lodge a major share of blame for the sad state of affairs in Germany upon the "unconditional surrender" declaration of Churchill and Mr. Roosevelt. Churchill interrupted Bevin to say:

"The first time I heard that phrase used was from the lips of President Roosevelt."

"I never heard it until I saw it in the press," Bevin retorted. "If it had ever been put to me as a member of your cabinet I would never have agreed to such a thing."

Churchill explained that he was with Mr. Roosevelt when the latter made the statement and "I had very rapidly to consider whether the state of our position in the world was such as to justify me in not giving support to it." He said he agreed, although it was not his idea.

Chicago Tribune Buys Newspaper

WASHINGTON, July 21 (UP)—Purchase of the Washington Times-Herald by Col. Robert R. McCormick, publisher and editor of the Chicago Tribune, was announced today in a front-page box in the Times-Herald.

The brief announcement said: "The executors of the estate of Eleanor Patterson announce the sale of the Washington Times-Herald to the Tribune Company, of Chicago, Ill."

"Col. Robert R. McCormick, president of the Tribune company has authorized us to say that the Times-Herald will continue 'business as usual' and that the present staff of the Times-Herald will be retained."

Ann York Given $39,300 Damages

SAN ANTONIO, July 21 (UP)—Ann York, only member of her family to survive a rural ambush laid by Dr. Lloyd I. Ross two years ago, was awarded $39,300 in damages by a Civil Court jury yesterday.

Of the judgment against Ross, approximately $1800 will be used to pay hospital and doctor bills, Ann's attorney's said. The 15-year old girl will benefit personally in the amount of $37,500.

Her grandfather, Ewart York, was awarded $3,600 by the same jury, in 57th District Court. His father was slain by Ross in the wild shooting spree that cost the lives of Ann's mother, father, and a brother.

The jury's award to Ann was comprised of $15,000 for the death of her father, $7,500 for the death of her mother, and $15,000 for personal injuries. The remainder was earmarked for hospital and doctor bills.

Dr. Ross was convicted and sentenced to die for the Quadruple slaying, but was adjudged insane last month in the same court at LaGrange where he heard his doom pronounced, October, 1947.

Now confined at the Texas State Hospital for the Insane at Austin for a 30-day commitment him a lengthy statement but the prosecutor refused to divulge its contents. Snelling was lodged in city jail for the night pending his appearance today in district court on charges of embezzling $1,008.96 from the Red Cross.

"Nothing to say," the tall, thin Snelling mumbled to newsmen as he was arrested on the embezzlement warrant at the airport.

He shielded his face from photographers and shook his head to all questions. A mustache he wore before his disappearance last week had been shaved off.

The embezzlement charges were filed against Snelling in Los Alamos County District Court yesterday by Prince after a complaint was lodged by Sam Musser, chairman of the Los Alamos Red Cross chapter.

Musser said Snelling failed to account for money collected as chairman of a fund-raising drive at the atomic installation last March.

Snelling To Face Embezzling Of Red Cross Funds

SANTA FE, N. M., July 21 (UP)—Tracy Snelling, suspended as director of public information at the Los Alamos Atomic installation when he disappeared for a week, was expected to appear in federal court today on charges of embezzling Red Cross funds.

Snelling, 37, turned up at FBI headquarters in Dallas, Tex., yesterday, ending an intensive four-state search for him.

He was flown back last night in a plane chartered by the Atomic Energy Commission. He was hustled from the airport to the office of Los Alamos County District Attorney Bert Prince.

Prince said that Snelling gave

—ELECTRICALLY!
Either an electric refrigerator or an electric home freezer is an extremely valuable asset in any home but the combination of the two multiplies their individual benefits many times over.
For perishables which don't lend themselves to solid freezing—milk, eggs, beverages, left-overs, jellies and the like—an electric refrigerator is the complete answer to the food storage problem. For berries, fruits, meats, poultry, game birds and animals, vegetables and other important food items, the electric home freezer provides ample protection over long periods of time.
Together, these two—the electric refrigerator and the electric home freezer—form an unbeatable food-storing combination.

California Likes Tarilers

SACRAMENTO, Cal. (UP)—A state survey showed that about one out of each 100 Californians is living in a trailer coach parked on a licensed trailer court. The study estimated that 100,000 persons are dwelling in the mobile quarters but it didn't learn how many resided in the trailers by choice and how many because of the housing shortage.

Tour Called Off

WEYMOUTH, Mass. (UP)—A few hours after Col. Earl Richart of the U. S. Army bought a 1949 automobile for a tour of the nation, his parked car slipped its brakes, rolled down a hill, plunged over a 25-foot embankment and was wrecked.

Hints Foul Play Along Border

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., July 21. (UP)—A justice of the peace today voiced the somber charge that a gang operating along the Rio Grande in Mexico, was robbing and killing Mexican laborers who return to their native country with their wages from work in Texas cottonfields.

Manuel Diaz De Leon held his third inquest in 24 hours yesterday over bodies pulled from the international stream. The latest body had a bullet hole under the left arm.

There's a gang on the other side of the river that does this once in a while," he said.

He theorized that the gang operated by promising to take "wetbacks" back to Mexico in boats. If the worker resists when the gang tries to take his earnings, Diaz De Leon said, he is murdered.

The Rio Grande normally claims a heavy toll in drownings. The justice of the peace said that in the Brownsville-Matamoros section alone, some 50 bodies had been recovered from the stream this year.

Upstream in Hidalgo county, officials said in the month of June 12 drownings in the international stream were investigated.

Most of the drownings occurred apparently, when the Mexican worker attempted to swim the river to Texas.

On the return trip to Mexico most of the workers surrender to U. S. immigration officials and are voluntarily deported across bridges. But a minority tries to return by the route they came. Some of the latter end up in the hands of the gang, according to Diaz De Leon.
