Lt. Gov. Morris Guest Speaker In Ranger Wednesday

Well... I Dunno, But...

We don't know for sure but if we were lettin', we'd bet that at least one ex-sudent of Temple University in Philadelphia will see the Temple-Texas University game in Philadelphia Saturday afternoon.

Yes sir, we'd say that Marvin Gross, former sports editor of the Ranger Daily Times, will be in the grandstand to get a breath of Texas once again.

Marvin's back in Philadelphia, his home town, but admits he'd like to be back in Texas. He's also a Temple graduate.

Another Ranger woman has been rewarded for her jingle ability and is the possessor of a box of Peter Paul mounds.

Mrs. D. E. Pulley, who says that she has been on the outside lookin' in while other members of her family have turned poets to enter contests, decided that she'd try her hand at it and so entered the jingle contest sponsored by the candy company. And she got her box of candy.

Not only was she pleased about winning the prize, but it solved another problem for her. She is one of the heads of the Junior department of the Sunday School at the Methodist Church and she with other leaders were scratching their heads about what they could do for members of their department on promotion day a week from Sunday. They wanted to serve refreshments but had not hit upon the right delicacies for the occasion. The prize box of candy solved that and the kids that've won their promotions will share in Mrs. Pulley's reward.

Etcha that all of the kids are there, too, after they find out about this.

While we may not entirely agree with all the things that the lieutenant governor of Texas advocates, there's one point on which we thoroughly agree.

"If you don't exercise your right as an American to vote, don't criticize what the fellow in office does." Brother, that's just exactly the way we feel about it. If you can't work up enough energy and interest to go to the polls and vote, don't heckle the man that's in office.

Lt. Gov. G. C. Morris, speaking before the Rotary Club and guests Wednesday at noon in Ranger, also hit some other right pertinent points. He mentioned the fact that we as Americans can defeat Communism only by using the same tactics—namely, showing a little enthusiasm about what happens in our own governments, state and nation, and working for the protection of the principals of the same day and night.

Yep, he's right. There are too many of us that just leave it to the "politicians" and then cuss them for being politicians. We're all inclined to take the attitude that we don't have anything to do with runnin' the government, so why bother. And therein lies the danger. If we're to maintain our government "for the people and by the people," we gotta work at the job. Which most of us ain't doin'.

Well, of all things! We never thought of that. The weather man tells us that today isn't the first day of fall at all, that fall will arrive in the morning at 3:04 o'clock, September 23. Though September 22 is usually the first day of fall, 1949 is a little different, in that fall 1949 has been delayed by leap year, "a phenomenon that comes once in every ten years," the weather man says. But date or not date, he can't tell us that fall was late. Reading the arrival of the fall by our first case of "goose bumps" we'd say it got here about September 12 when the thermometer in about 12 hours took a nose dive from a high of 96 to 54.

Man Picked Up Here To Face Car Theft Charge

Chief W. G. Pounds reported today that Bill McGovern, 21, had been turned over to a deputy sheriff from Wichita Falls and returned to that city to face charges of car theft.

McGovern was picked up here early Monday night after Police Capt. Johnny Boyd and Policeman Alfred Ames had received a tip that the car in which McGovern had arrived in Ranger was believed to be "hot."

McGovern first feigned loss of memory as to his actions on several days preceding his arrival in Ranger but finally admitted the theft of the Wichita Falls car, a 1948 Chevrolet, after being confronted with proof of the identity of the car obtained by Ranger police from a detective in Wichita Falls.

Officers stated here that they believed that it was McGovern's intention to steal a Ranger car and leave the Wichita Falls car here. He had had car trouble on the edge of Ranger and was pushed into town by a Fort Worth man. It was the man from Fort Worth who looked up Ranger police and told them of the incident, indicating that McGovern's actions had led him to believe that the car had been stolen.

Sergeant Stiles At Florida Base

Sergeant Virgil E. Stiles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron L. Stiles has reported to Emlin Auxiliary Field No. 2 Elgin Air Force Base, Fla., where he will be stationed with his organization, the Tactical Air Force (Provisional). As a member of the Tactical Air Force (Provisional), Sergeant Stiles will be participating in Air Indocination Course II, a special exercise conducted by the U. S. More than 200 planes, featuring jet types, and approximately 4000 men of the Air Force, Army, and Navy will participate in the exercise.

Starlite Club Guttled By Fire

FORT WORTH, Sept. 22 (UP)—An early-morning three alarm fire gutted and buckled the Starlite Club on Jackboro highway here today.

Cause of the blaze was not immediately determined, but a preliminary estimate of the damage was set by Fire Marshal C. C. Killian at $30,000.

The night club was owned and operated by J. W. (Bill) Jenkins, who was reported to be in Houston.

4-H Pig Show To Be At Ranger Sept. 28, 9 Boys To Have Entries

Nine Eastland County 4-H Club boys will participate in the annual Eastland County Sears Pig Show at the show barn in Ranger on September 28, starting at 10:00 a. m. and Ed Steele, Assistant County Agent.

These boys won their eight gilts and one boar pig last May. They agreed to feed and care for them and show them at the County shows and return next spring.

The top gilt and boar pig will show at the District Show at Breckenridge on Saturday, October 1st. At this show they will compete for honors against the top pig from Young, Throckmorton, Stephens and Jack County.

The gilts will be bred in November with the pigs to farrow in late February and March. The best gilt pig out of each litter will be

Steel Strike May Be Averted

Phillip Murray, president of the CIO, smiles broadly as he talks with a reporter in Washington upon his arrival for mediation talks on the threatened steel strike. Murray has postponed a strike-planning session of his union's policy committee to attend the Washington meeting. This fact gave hopes to the mediators who are attempting to settle the dispute between labor and management. (NEA Telephoto)

Sportsmanship Campaign Is Launched By Ranger Lions

Through the efforts of the Ranger Lions Club, 600 Lions Clubs in Texas and 30 sports editors have received an appeal to help foster better sportsmanship at athletic events throughout the state.

The appeal went out Wednesday in the form of letters appealing for cooperation in spreading a better attitude toward officials at various events over the state. Accompanying the appeal was a circular which the local club will distribute at games in Ranger, appearing to fans to remember their athletic "manners."

In the letter, the clubs and editors are asked to spread the appeal by passing out copies of the circular or similar ones at games over the state; by dedicating at least one club program to better sportsmanship and otherwise appealing for cooperation on the part of fans.

Members of the committee that drew up the campaign were A. N. Larson, J. A. Bates and R. V. Gallo way, assisted by the president, R. B. Thomas, Jr. Following is a copy of the letter:

REQUEST FOR SPORTSMANSHIP

The officials of this game have been selected by both coaches and they are well trained and qualified. They are men with experience and high integrity. They will conscientiously do the best job they can.

REMEMBER THEY ARE ONLY HUMAN.

You will see good sportsmanship on the playing field. We ask for the same type of sportsmanship from the fans. The purpose of competitive athletics in high schools and colleges is to build men and mold character. Please do not defeat this purpose.

Thank You
RANGER LIONS CLUB

Following is a copy of the letter distributed by the Club:
Better Sportsmanship Program Sponsored by Ranger, Texas Lions Club

Since the past few years has evidenced the need for some sort of cooperation effort to build up the type of sportsmanship that we can be proud of, especially during our football and basketball seasons, the Ranger, Texas Lions Club feels the need is great to encourage better sportsmanship and more tolerance toward officials. We are thinking especially of the treatment shown referees and other officials by the fans and general public.

The officials selected for the games are men with experience and high integrity. They are our neighbors and friends, but due to human frailties are not infallible or is it possible for them to see everything that happens in a ball game.

We should remember that they are doing their best and are under terrific pressure to make an instant decision as they see it, and we think, without exception, they are making just and equitable decisions as they see them during the heat of the game.

Their main purpose is to see that the game is played by the rules, many of which are not known to the fans, and seeing that justice to the teams and players is rendered in a fair and equitable manner.

VFV Meeting To Be Friday Nite

Beverly Dudley, commander of the Ralph L. McKisley Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, announced today that the regular meeting of the post will be held Friday night at 8 o'clock at headquarters.

VA Slip May Cost GI's Tuition

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22 (UP)—Veterans Administration officials said today that several thousand ex-GI students may have to pay part of their tuition this fall because VA was too late in notifying them that Sept. 12 was the deadline on applications for new courses.

They also said the students may lose part of their subsistence pay, ranging from $75 to $120 a month, unless VA figures out a way to reimburse them.

These officials frankly admitted that the first intimation that Sept. 12 was the final day for seeking certificates of eligibility was made in a press statement issued Sept. 15, three days too late.

This ruling was amplified in another statement issued yesterday.

The veterans affected are those who have completed courses under the GI Bill of Rights, or who have quit previous courses, and now seek new certificates permitting them to take new courses this fall at government expense.

"It is hard to estimate how many students will be thus adversely affected," a spokesman said. "But it is estimated there will be only several thousand out of the 700,000 who are returning to school this fall under the GI Bill."

The spokesman said that VA recognized its responsibility for not having published the deadline before it was reached.

Phillips Blast Loss $1,000,000

PHILIPS, Tex, Sept. 22 (UP)—Damage from a spectacular explosion at the gasoline plant of the Phillips Petroleum Co., here, which injured five persons, was estimated unofficially today at $1,000,000.

None of the injured was hurt critically. Company officials said an acid line leading to two catalytic units ruptured late yesterday, causing a small blast and a fire. Ten minutes later, two propane tanks were touched off, sending flames spurting 100 feet in the air.

Fearing the danger of still another blast, workmen freed the butane gas contained in a huge 55,000 barrel storage tank.

The injured employees were identified as Barney Frisch, Dial King, Homer Carroll, J. W. Harris and W. N. Reeves.

Intense heat from the fire could be felt blocks from the plant, and shock from the big blast was felt 30 miles away, in Borger.

URGES PEOPLE TO TAKE GREATER INTEREST IN AFFAIRS OF STATE

Mrs. Perkins Makes Statement On Candidacy

Joseph M. Perkins has advised in a telephone conversation with his wife at Austin, that she voluntarily retained her present position on the State Board of Education in order that it might have a quorum to conduct business for the next two months.

A ruling by the Secretary of State declared that present board members would have to resign from their offices, to be eligible as a candidate for the new Gilmer-Alkin board.

Since Mrs. Perkins decided not to resign, the District 17 member of the new board will be E. J. Woodward of Sweetwater, the only other candidate.

Mrs. Perkins has declared her intention to be a candidate for the board next July in the Democratic primaries.

During the next two months the outgoing board has the important business of making State textbook adoptions for public schools, investing 15 million dollars in government bonds and other matters. In order not to embarrass or hamper the board by resigning and leaving it without a quorum, Mrs. Perkins decide to continue. She expressed her appreciation to those who had endorsed her candidacy.

Lt. Gov. G. C. Morris of Texas was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Ranger Rotary Club Wednesday at noon at the Gholson Hotel and appealed to the people of Texas to take a greater interest in the affairs of the state and national governments.

He urged the exercise of the right to vote, appealed to the leaders of communities to seek the offices of state and nation and urged a continued belief in a Supreme Being, as three ways in which the people can solve their government problems and erase the threat of any "ism" no matter how threatening.

Farm Bureau To Hold Drive For New Members

The Farm Bureau bi-district meeting at Comanche on September 19, was well attended. Attendance from Eastland County far exceeded the expectations, according to the Farm Bureau President, E. E. Blackwell.

Eastland County had their extension agents, J. M. Cooper, Ed Stevie, Jr., and Miss Rose McCoy; their veteran instructors and many of their class members, Farm Bureau officers, members and many who were not members.

The best estimates have given more than 300 attending from Eastland County. All of which goes to prove our people are becoming more and more on the alert to help themselves and become informed as to agricultural legislation, rural roads, and better living conditions in general.

Miss Burl June Blackwell was runner-up in the queen's contest. She is the daughter of the County Farm Bureau Federation, E. E. Blackwell. The young lady from Comanche County won first place.

The highlight of the day's program was the address by the State President of the Farm Bureau Federation, Walter Hammond. Infinite plans were made for the state wide membership drive on October 6.

Captains and workers kick-off meeting will be October 20, to be followed by a team captain's report supper, October 27.

Ranger Youth Gets 2 Year Jail Sentence

Marvin Rose, about 24, of Ranger pleaded guilty and waived trial by jury in 91st District Court Wednesday to a burglary indictment and was sentenced to a two year penitentiary term by District Judge George I. Davenport.

Rose was indicted by an Eastland County Grand Jury in August, for allegedly entering a Ranger building and taking property consisting of barbed wire, wire stretchers and other items.

The youth was previously sentenced a two year penitentiary term earlier this year for burglary making a total of four years. A theft complaint has been transferred to County Court.

Phillips Blast Loss $1,000,000

PHILIPS, Tex, Sept. 22 (UP)—Damage from a spectacular explosion at the gasoline plant of the Phillips Petroleum Co., here, which injured five persons, was estimated unofficially today at $1,000,000.

None of the injured was hurt critically. Company officials said an acid line leading to two catalytic units ruptured late yesterday, causing a small blast and a fire. Ten minutes later, two propane tanks were touched off, sending flames spurting 100 feet in the air.

Fearing the danger of still another blast, workmen freed the butane gas contained in a huge 55,000 barrel storage tank.

The injured employees were identified as Barney Frisch, Dial King, Homer Carroll, J. W. Harris and W. N. Reeves.

Intense heat from the fire could be felt blocks from the plant, and shock from the big blast was felt 30 miles away, in Borger.

"If we have lost some of our state's rights, the responsibility for the loss rests squarely with the people," the speaker said. He pointed out that it is the people who select the congressmen and legislators who vote for them on issues and that unless a person uses his American given right to vote, he has no right to complain about what those elected do. He cited figures in the last state election to show that about one out of every five qualified voters cast a ballot in that election.

Morris urged his listeners to give less talk to the protection of our rights and to take a more active part in seeing that they are protected. "You can make your legislative do what you want them to, by the pressure of public opinion and by letting them know what that opinion is," he added.

He called attention to the amendments that will be voted upon in November and urged that the people support the annual session of the legislature and the salary raises for the state legislators. Morris took the stand that it is just good business to increase the law-makers pay considering the tremendous job that they have to do. He indicated that better pay would be an incentive to wipe out lobbying influences and other influences that take advantage of the poor pay received by the legislators.

"We need fear nothing," Morris said, "so long as we use the power of public opinion to get what we want." He added a final plea for more active participation in politics on the part of all of the people.

In his opening remarks the speaker praised the services of L. R. Pearson who served as a representative of the 107th Electoral District in the Texas Legislature for two terms. Morris, who as senator was associated with Pearson, stated that he was one of the "sharpest statesmen during his term of office."

Lt. Gov. Morris was accompanied to Ranger by Ranger S. H. Denson of Greenville who also attended the luncheon and was introduced by G. B. Rush, president of the club, who also introduced the speaker.

Other guests at the luncheon included members of the Lions Club, Hugh Clearman, County agent of Deaf Smith County with headquarters in Hereford, and W. B. Ray of Fort Worth.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

Doctors Would Do Better To Publish Own Health Plan

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—American Medical Association's new "educational campaign" against compulsory national health insurance has some queer angles. What they seem to point up is that the AMA has no real health plan of its own to offer as a substitute.

Dr. L. E. Henderson, AMA president-elect, says that within the next year the association will put out a series of reports on American health problems. They will cover the costs and quality of present U. S. medical, clinical and hospital services. Present voluntary health insurance plans will be analyzed. The need for more medical education and better distribution of doctors will be considered.

"This AMA health plan, when it finally evolves, will apparently be an answer or a companion piece to Federal Security Administrator Charles Ewing's national health conference and his last year's report on "The Nation's Health—a Ten-Year Plan." The Ewing report recommended more medical research and education, more hospitals and more doctors, insurance against medical care costs.

There is of course no danger that the patient—meaning the whole U. S. public—will die en masse while the doctors are arguing about what should be done. But it is to wonder why the docs haven't grabbed their satchels and climbed into their buggies a little faster, in order to visit the national bedside and make their diagnosis. It is no great self-compliment for the U. S. medical profession to argue this late in the case that the facts about U. S. health needs are unspoken or grossly exaggerated. There are health statistics by the mile. During the war, every doctor was indexed.

AMA says 61,000,000 Americans now have voluntary health insurance coverage of some kind, out of a total population of 150,000,000. This represents a jump of 8,000,000 insured since Jan. 1. There seems to be a hope that this rate of coverage will increase, eventually making national health insurance unnecessary.

There seem to be no statistics on what income groups are covered by voluntary health insurance policies. There is one estimate that 60 per cent of those covered may be in middle and lower income groups. This estimate is based on California experience, where there is no other health insurance data than in any other state.

This seems to be due not to California's sunshine and healthy climate, but to the fact that in 1945 and 1949 Gov. Earl Warren—a republican, you'll remember—introduced legislation for state-wide compulsory health insurance. This so alarmed the California Medical Association that it spent $600,000 promoting voluntary health insurance policy sales.

Taking California statistics at face value, what about the 40 per cent of the people uncovered? Those who can afford to pay doctor bills can of course afford to pay insurance premiums. But what about those people who can't afford either?

Clem Whitaker, director of the AMA educational campaign, says medical care of the indigent isn't the doctors' problem. That is said to be the problem of the local community. The man may be sick only because he also needs food, clothing or housing.

None of the AMA spokesmen will take a position on whether there should be federal aid for housing or feeding the undernourished. They do believe that there should be federal aid for hospital construction, federal aid for medical education, federal aid for research.

But they are against bills providing medical care for all school children. That would be socialized medicine. They are against laws for national health insurance. That would be socialized medicine.

In summary, federal subsidies for the doctors seem to be all right, but federal aid for their patients is all wrong.

THE SCOREBOARD

Leo Durocher Ought to Adapt Himself to Material at Hand

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—With the Polo Grounds a lonely place, now that the Dodgers have made their final appearances there, everybody seems worried about the Giants.

Walker Cooper and Johnny Mize have been dealt away, and Buddy Kops is expected to go during the off-season.

The same reason in each case. Leo Durocher no like. Cooper started blasting home runs, as well as Durocher, when he joined with the Reds.

Mize kept Durocher to himself when he joined the Yankees. After all, it wasn't mad at a bloke who ships you from a dead one to a live one headed for a World Series.

Two years ago the home-grown Kerr was considered one of the superior shortstops, and batted .287.

Kerr has been in the dugout more than half the time this trip. Cooper started blasting home runs, as well as Durocher, when he joined with the Reds.

Owner Horace Stenham may find it difficult to build a team to suit Durocher.

It would be much easier for Durocher to adapt himself to the material at hand.

That's what the better managers do—fit the game to the talent at their disposal.

Eddie Dyer, for example, would like to have a right-hand hitting pitcher with the Cardinals who could hit a right-hand pitcher with a snow shovel. It also is highly unlikely that Dyer is just wild about Don Northey, but that's what the skipper is stuck with, and he is making the most of it.

The Dodgers could use a little more balance in the outfield, but old Buddy Shotton is trying to make sense out of what he has.

The Yankees had 60-odd injuries, so Casey Stengel didn't install the shake-well system of his own accord.

Lou Boudreau and Joe Gordon fell off in run production to retard the Indians, but Boudreau didn't become stamped, and banish himself and his second baseman. They were the best he had, and he went through with them.

Joe McCarthy worked on the Red Sox' pitching, brought in two pitchers to brighten it up.

Good managers don't change just for the sake of changing. Leo Durocher obviously works on the theory that if he doesn't change, no one will know who is managing the Giants.

And in the meantime the Giants are being short-changed.

Polio Strikes Family Third Time

Polio, which has struck promiscuously once, even twice, in many homes, has dealt a triple blow to the Carl S. Manzo family in Elyria, Ohio. Three of their eight children have been admitted to City Hospital in Cleveland, Ohio, since September 4. Mrs. Manzo, a 46-year-old produce trucker, a mask hiding his fears, reads to the three children during one of his morning visits to the hospital. That's Verna, 7, smiling bravely into the mirror on his iron lung. The others are Rosemary, 10, and Carl A., 11. (NEA Telephoto)

No Settlement Of Strike Near

ST LOUIS, Sept. 22 (UP)—The strike of 5000 operating employees of the Missouri Pacific Railroad entered its 13th day today with little hope of early settlement.

The expected force of the strike was delayed. Plants in the 11-state area served by the railroad said their layoffs were comparatively light.

Excluding employees of the Missouri Pacific, the number of layoffs was estimated at about 2500.

Spokesman for the four striking railroad brotherhoods, Roy E. Davidson, said they "may get around to contacting management today."

The early meetings following the strike which brought hope of quick settlement have become further spaced. Each side has rejected proposals to end the walk-out caused by 282 grievances of the brotherhoods for which they demand settlement.

Sweater Girl Rebukes Press

LONDON, Sept. 22, (UP)—Jane Russell of Hollywood sweater fame complained today the British and French press had done her an injustice by reporting she was tossed out of a Paris hotel

Oklahoma Night Club Blasted

SAPULPA, Okla. Sept. 22 (UP)—A terrific explosion blew up a Creek County night club early today—for the second time—and a second blast went off near another club half a mile away.

Police at nearby Tulsa, who estimated damage as high as $30,000, feared the blasts may have touched off a full-fledged gambling war in the Creek-Tulsa County area.

Blown literally to bits was a one-story supper club and gambling casino on the Creek County side known unofficially as "The Oaks" because it is on a road leading to the Oaks Country Club. The night club had been operated as a dice-and-dance spot until about two months ago, when it was padlocked by court order after officers found gambling devices on the premises.

Creek County Sheriff Lee Johnson said within three or four minutes of the blast another explosion ripped out a tree near the Blue Dahlia Club, about half a mile to the north. The place was open for business, but no one was hurt.

Tulsa police said a man and for making too much noise. "It wasn't me," she said. "It was a couple of others." The shapely actress, here to attend a ball at Albert Hall sponsored by the London Daily Express, was miffed at French newspapers for printing a picture of her holding a bottle of champagne.

Omaha Not So Interesting OMAHA, Neb. (UP)—When William J. Barker and his dog, Skipper, arrived here, everyone thought they would stay awhile. ## DOPSTERS SILENT ON OUTCOME OF GAME TONITE

Ranger opens another week-end of football tonight when the Ranger Junior College Rangers play their second game of the season at 8 o'clock at the Ranger field.
The Rangers will meet Hardin College B team and the dopsters are silent about the outcome of the game. Though Hardin's first team is rated a good berth, the lack of information about the B team has silenced even the coaches.
About all that anybody knows for sure is that the Rangers are in good condition and have been put through their paces this week in preparation for tonight's game. Stage fright shouldn't bother the Rangers tonight as they have already made their debut and have the feel of the game.
One thing that has been learned for sure is that Marvin Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Wilson of Ranger and one of Ranger High School's outstanding Bulldogs that finished last year, will be in the starting line-up. Marvin will be playing right tackle.

Bulldogs Rated Underdogs In Friday's Game

With all indications that the odds are against them, the Ranger Bulldogs will go to Stephenville Friday night where they meet the Yellow Jackets in another pre-season game.
Generally conceded to be one of the top teams in their Class AA district any year, the Yellow Jackets took an extra significance recently when they dealt Brownwood a resounding defeat to the tune of 33 to 12.
The Bulldog's line, already considerably lighter than the Stephenville line, will be lightened further through the loss of H. V. Davenport who will be out of the Yellow Jacket game because of injury. Jimmy Camacho who is also nursing an injury will likely be slowed by a bad knee.
Starting lineup for the Bulldogs will be Stiles, L.E.; Barnes, L.T.; Sutton, L.G.; Robinson, C.; Patterson, R.G.; Elder, R.T.; C. Williams, R.E.; Camacho, L.H.; K. Williams, R.H.; Simpson, F.B. and Hamrick, Q.B.

Alice Grand Jury Asks For Blank Indictment Forms

ALICE, Tex., Sept. 22 (UP)—The special grand jury investigating charges of fraud in last year's U. S. Senatorial runoff primary was in recess today but here were indications it may be ready to report sometime Friday.
Before recessing yesterday, it called for blank indictment forms and papers for writs of attachment.
Subpena to report tomorrow was Eugenio Solla, who testified at an inquiry last year that he was the last person to vote at the now famous "Box 13" in Jim Wells county. He said his ballot number was 801. Returns from the box showed 1,041 ballots cast.
The defeated U. S. Senatorial candidate, former Gov. Coke Stevenson, claimed 203 votes were added after the polls closed to count for Lyndon B. Johnson.
Johnson went on to win the November general election over his Republican opponent and was seated by the U. S. Senate despite a protest to the Senate committee on elections and privileges by Stevenson.
The jury heard its 54th witness yesterday before recessing. He was Rufino Lopez, clerk at Box 13. The jury originally was summoned in connection with the pistol slaying of Radio Newscaster, W. H. (Bill) Mason, then turned to the controversial runoff primary.

IT'S A DOG'S LIFE—Actress Amanda Blake crowns movie-land's four-footed star, Lassie, "King for a Week" in Hollywood, where anything goes. Lassie will reign over all the pooches during National Dog Week, Sept. 18-24. But he was a lot more interested in the extra bones promised than in all this passing glory.

Plant Explosion Damage $100,000

FORT WORTH, Sept. 22 (UP)—A tentative estimate of $100,000 was placed today on damage from Tuesday's fire and explosion at the Hodge Station Refinery of Magnolia Petroleum Co., here.
The estimate came from John W. Newton of Beaumont, vice-president and general manager of the refining division.
Newton said he expected the

Noronic Death Toll Now 136

TORONTO, Sept. 22 (UP)—The death toll in the burning of the Canada steamship lines lake cruiser Noronic Saturday morning rose to 136 today.
Coroner Herbert Landsborough said doctors and dentists have found sufficient evidence in the charred hull of the liner to prove the death of four additional victims, raising the death toll from 132 to 136.
The search for more victims of the disaster continued, but officials said the exact death toll may never be determined.
Although the ship's manifest listed 685 passengers, not all the persons actually aboard were registered, a company spokesman said. These included any children who may have been aboard and also guests believed to have been invited aboard by passengers after the steamer docked here.
A company official estimated that the number of passengers unaccounted for would exceed 50.

By United Press
By United Press
AUSTIN, Tex., Sept. 22 (UP)—Texas cotton growers felt more confident today about the relationship of their product with the recent devaluation of the British pound.
 They were informed by Dr. A. H. Cox, University of Texas professor of cotton marketing, that Britain's ability to sell more cotton goods would have little effect on the U. S. market.
 ECA commitments and world market needs, Cox said, would keep the American market outlet strong.

LONGVIEW, Sept. 22, (UP)—Gregg County officers today were searching for a smooth-working man and woman who stole jewelry valued at nearly $11,000 from a diamond shop here.
 Leonard Sosiani, one of the owners of the store, said the couple walked away with 12 platinum diamond dinner rings after they casually "looked" the store over yesterday.

An exhibit called "France Comes To You" formally opened to the public. Among various items on display were 12 evening gowns never before exhibited.

FYLER, Tex., Sept. 22 (UP)—Officials of the Texas Rose Festival passed the word today, upon good authority, that British Princess Margaret Rose definitely would not make a trip to the U. S. this fall.

Via the British embassy, the festival's "distinguished guests" committee sent Princess Margaret an invitation to appear at the Sept. 30-Oct. 2 festival.
 The embassy's reply, with "regrets," said "contrary to published reports, the Princess does not in fact plan to visit the United States."

DALLAS, Sept. 22 (UP)—Gov. Allan Shivers reaffirmed his belief yesterday that a tax increase cannot be avoided during the coming year.

However, Shivers, addressing members of the American Association of Oilwell Drilling Contractors in convention here, said he favored holding the tax increase to a minimum.
 The state's chief executive blamed increased need for state taxes on heavy imports of foreign oil, which he termed "a bad thing for Texas."

GULF OF MEXICO STORM REPORTED LOSING PUNCH

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex., Sept. 22 (UP)—A tropical storm south of Galveston in the Gulf of Mexico lost its punch today, and hurricane warnings in one stretch of the coast were ordered down.

A 10 A. M. CST advisory from the New Orleans Weather Bureau said the strongest winds in the disturbance were of mere 35 miles per hour velocity.

Forecaster W. R. Stevens at New Orleans said, "The Gulf disturbance has not increased" and "there is no well defined center".

The storm was tracked by a Navy reconnaissance plane which spotted its approximate center about 160 miles south-southwest of Galveston.

The 10 A. M. advisory, fifth issued since the disturbance was spotted yesterday, warned coastal residents to keep alert "since his disturbance may still increase in intensity."

But for the time being, warnings were taken down south of Part O'Connor to Freeport, Tex. The storm was traveling northward and its forward movement was expected to be at the rate of five to eight miles per hour during the next 12 hours.

At that rate, it would not strike the mainland until late tonight or early Friday and, unless its ferocity increases, would come probably with gale force instead of the feared hurricane punch.

High tides were forecast on the Louisiana coast and all small craft were ordered to remain in port until all danger was past.

The Texas coast was "buttoned up" and waiting calmly for a definite development in this, its first hurricane threat of the season.

Black and red hurricane flags, hoisted yesterday, were everywhere. Tension in this booming port city was at a minimum, and Mayor Leslie Wasserman observed "I can't understand it. Nobody is excited, and only one store has boarded up."

Other towns in the uncertain port city were in the same mood.

Declines for the month ranged from 16 per cent in Amarillo to 83 per cent in Edinburg.

path of the big blow were virtually nailed down.

Freeport, Rockport, Port Lavaca and Palacios business establishments protected glass fronts last night, and home owners followed suit today.

Some Freeport and Velasco families abandoned their homes for the safety of inland cities, and at Galveston hundreds of low-lands residents moved in behind the huge seawall.

The huge Dow Chemical Co. plant at Freeport said no plans had been made for shutting down.

A. T. Desre, DOW official, said hurricane precautions included an elaborate plan for the firm's 3,000 workers in case of a serious blast.

ing, structures, flexible base and single asphalt treatment on Farm Roads 345 and 766, from Flint to 2.5 miles west of Whitehouse and from intersection of Farm Road 346 to 2.5 miles west of Whitehouse to intersection with Farm Road 344, 5.3 miles east of Bullard, 8.41 miles.
