COMPROMISE SOUGHT IN COAL STRIKE

By United Press
 Union and mine officials met to discuss a possible compromise for ending the 23-day old soft coal strike as a trade paper warned that the 12-day steel strike must be settled soon to avoid crippling the economy.
 At St. Louis, negotiators reported that they were nearing settlement of a strike by 5,000 railroad men that has paralyzed the Missouri-Pacific Railroad and affected residents in an 11-state area.
 Bargainers at Honolulu reported that only a single fringe issue was holding up complete settlement of the Hawaiian dock strike. The issue revolved around pay increases for workers in the outer island ports.
 The big liner President Wilson was held in port at San Francisco by a dispute between members of the AFL Sailors Union of the Pacific and CIO Cooks and Stewards Union. The Sailors Union reportedly refused to send seamen to man the ship because of a fight between the opposing unionists in which two men were hurt last August.
 Thirty four prominent citizens urged President Truman to place his influence behind a fact-finding board's recommendations for settling the steel strike. The citizens, including Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and several senators and representatives, said steel industrialists should "demonstrate their sense of public responsibility" by accepting the board's recommendations for company-paid pension and welfare programs.

 Attendance to the barbecue this year will be by ticket and a large crowd is expected to attend. It is hoped that as many as possible secure tickets by October 15th so as to know how many to prepare for, Judge Long said. Tickets can be obtained in Eastland from Judge Long, Geo. I. Lane, Travis Wheat, H. H. Durham, Harold Courtney, Ed Steele, Herb Tanner and M. D. Fox; at Cisco from Henry's Feed Store, Dr. J. H. Denton and A. V. Clark, and in Ranger from Leslie Haganman. Eastland County Peanuts At Fair Get Special Care

Peanuts growing in the Eastland county exhibit get just about the most attentive care of any display at the 64th State Fair of Texas.
 The water that is sprinkled on them daily is hauled all the way from Eastland, according to George I. Lane, manager of the booth.
 Not even the prize livestock and poultry being shown at the State Fair get that kind of care, declared Lane who has been supervisor of the Farmers' Home Administration in Eastland county for 16 years.
 The exhibit of peanut plants is thriving on its imported water as new leaves are appearing every day. There are both growing and harvested peanuts on display in the booth.
 Sam Herring of the Flatwood community in Eastland county provided the harvested peanuts and the growing peanut plants come from a field cultivated by J. W. Overstreet on the Knox Farm.
 Others who were at the Eastland county booth Tuesday which was Eastland County Peanut Day included P. L. Crossley, county judge; J. M. Cooper, county agent; Ed Steele, assistant county agent; Travis Wheat, farm representative of the Texas Electric Service Co., and Miss Rosie McCoy, home demonstration agent.

Judge Speaks In Broadcast At State Fair

County Judge P. L. Crossley was speaker for a broadcast over Station WFAA at Dallas Tuesday noon in observance of Eastland County Peanut Day at the State Fair of Texas.
 Judge Crossley, in a question and answer discussion with the master of ceremonies, Murray Cox said that peanuts was the most important economic crop in Eastland County. He stated that peanuts was used for approximately 150 purposes. Eastland County was cited for pioneering improvement of peanuts by crop rotation.
 Thousands thronged by the Eastland County Peanut exhibit, located in the center of the Agriculture Building, and the county was publicized in wire releases by both the Associated Press and the United Press.

HALSEY SAYS BOMBINGS WOULD UNITE ENEMIES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12 (UP) — Fleet Adm. William F. "Bull" Halsey told Congress today that B-36-type intercontinental bombing is a sure way to unite enemy people in "fiery patriotism."
 Moreover, the only thing B-36 attacks could stop would be enemy bullets, the blunt-jawed hero of the Pacific war told the House Armed Services Committee.
 The five-star officer, highest Navy ranker called in the congressional unification investigation, said the nation should be prepared with giant naval forces to "make pincer movements against an enemy on a world-wide scale."
 Halsey said the mobility of naval forces in war is the prime requisite for victory against an enemy. The lessons of World War II, he said, gave "proof of the pudding" rather than supporting the Air Force theory of pure aerial warfare.
 Halsey's testimony was not limited to criticism of the Air Force. He also outlined what should be done in war, especially

Representative Accused in Row In Harris County

HOUSTON, Tex., Oct. 12 (UP) — The Houston Press, in the midst of a campaign to show that a "special fee" system has drained the Harris County treasury, charged today that State Representative J. M. (Jim) Hefflin was on the receiving end of some of the money.
 Vernon Smylie, reporter for the newspaper, began telling of the results of his findings a week ago.
 Today, Smylie wrote in a Houston Press banner story that Hefflin was paid special fees totaling $700 for work in the Houston area "at a time when the record shows he was 160 miles away."
 The fees were part of a $1750 payment Hefflin received from commissioners court for real estate appraisals on local road projects, the reporter charged.
 "He worked, according to court signed statements, 70 days in all. But the house journal, official record of the Texas House of Representatives, showed Mr. Hefflin was present at the legislative chamber in Austin on 28 of those days," Smylie wrote.

 Of the 15,000 men classified during the month, Wakefield said 3,480 were put in class 1-A, the class acceptable for immediate training and service.
 However, no men have been inducted since January, and Wakefield said he had no official indication of any resumption of inductions.

 It is a completely self-sufficient show, carrying its own ice-making machinery, 5 miles of cooling pipes, stage settings, costumes and the like along with it.

Reds Pushing Toward Canton

CANTON, China, Oct. 12 (UP) — Chinese Communist forces swept within 25 miles of this disintegrating temporary Nationalist capital today.
 Nationalist officers were fleeing aboard every available plane to either Chungking or Taipei on Formosa. They are expected to be designated co-capital of Nationalist China when Canton falls.
 However, acting-president Li Tsung-jen and his cabinet still were in Canton at 5 P. M. (3 A. M. CST). They were awaiting the return of Premier Yan-Shan, who flew to Formosa yesterday.
 Communist Gen. Chen Keng sent his spearheads late today into Tsungfa, famed hill resort 35 miles northwest of Canton. From Tsungfa a broad paved highway leads directly into the city.
 Not far behind the vanguards, 30,000 troops of the 15th and 16th Red armies were advancing rapidly southward from Fokang. Another 10,000 men were said to be driving down the railroad from Yingtak, 75 miles north of Canton.
 Still another column has bypassed Tsingyun, 45 miles northwest of Canton, crossed the Pei River and is preparing to attack Canton from the west.

 A short time later, the same dog walked into another tavern, bit Louis Kozol, similarly engaged, and walked out. In a third tavern, the dog repeated the biting job on Max Brewer.

American Experts Still Tracing Information on Nazi Germany

By Douglas Larsen
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—One of the important and unheralded jobs being done most efficiently by Allied occupation authorities in Europe is a careful writing of the history of the Nazi rule in Germany and of the Axis' side of the war.

Fortunately the Western countries captured most of the official Nazi records and documents. By pooling what each one collected, American, English and French experts have been able to piece together a pretty detailed and intelligent record of everything that went into the growth of Nazism and the prosecution of the war.

There are some important gaps, however. The Russians hold many of the official files and documents. These records have been moved out of Germany and what they contain and how complete they are, nobody but the Russians know. They have flatly refused to discuss the matter with the Allied scholars.

In the last month of the war many important and incriminating papers were destroyed by high Nazi officials. But their system of record keeping was so efficient it ended up outsmarting them. In a great many cases carbons and copies of destroyed originals have been located in different places. But it is still impossible for the experts to determine just what gaps exist because of papers being destroyed or which are due to the papers being in Russian hands.

GERMAN foreign office records and technical data on various scientific developments, unfortunately, have the biggest gaps. It is believed likely that the Russians grabbed more foreign office records than the Americans or British. They may have concentrated on this on purpose, to be able to hide forever the details of the agreement between Hitler and Stalin at the start of the war. The U. S. has made public some of the details which it had of this agreement several years ago. But the experts agree much of the information remains hidden.

Included in the batch of missing records are many of the details of the German attempts to get co-operation during the war with Latin American countries. Knowing how successful or unsuccessful such attempts were would be of extreme importance to the State Department and military experts for future defense planning.

Now that the examination and use of the Nazi records is well under way and some phases almost finished, the Army has begun to worry about what to do with them for permanent keeping. To look into this problem the Army sent one of the country's outstanding experts on records and archival management, Dr. Ernst M. Posner, to Europe this summer.

DR. POSNER was well fitted for the job. He formerly taught archives administration in Berlin and now is with American University, teaching the subject in connection with U. S. and state governments. He found that the German historians are eager to get all of these records returned to them as soon as possible. There are many things that they would like to find out about what went on inside the Nazi Party itself.

Involved in the problem, of course, is the question of how and when all of this material will be made public. The great bulk of it is still classified and confidential information. Most of it, however, only has historical interest.

The German archivists with whom Dr. Posner discussed the problem were astonished to hear about the process of microfilming and the other advances which have been made in the handling of official records. Dr. Posner urged them to try to make the science of keeping archives more alive than has been their habit.

Lows For Season Hit Overnight

By UNITE PRESS

The cold front which moved across the state yesterday left the coldest temperatures of the season in a wide area during the night, but skies were generally fair and the weather cool today.

Scattered showers followed the cold front as it moved southeast, and the Weather Bureau said the rain line had moved to the extreme south coast of Texas this morning.

The mercury plunged to a season's low of 34 degrees at Dallas and the showers and cool front dropped the temperature to 38 at Amarillo, 39 at Lubbock, and 40 at Cleburne. Wichita Falls recorded a 44-degree reading along with Abilene, and El Paso had 45.

Brownsville had the high mercury reading last night with a 72. Corpus Christi was close behind with 70 degrees. Laredo in the Rio Grande Valley had the day's low high with a 96-degree reading.

Houston, already suffering from too much rain during the last week, recorded the highest rainfall during the cold front movement. The Weather Bureau said 2.71 inches fell during the last 24-hour period. Palestine had 1.71 inches and Tyler recorded 1.31 inches.

However, the Weather Bureau said generally fair skies, with little changes in temperature, were predicted for the next 24-hour period.

Ambassador At Texas State Fair

DALLAS, Tex., Oct. 12 (UP)—An international flavor was added to the State Fair of Texas today with an appearance by Belgian Ambassador Baron Robert Silveroyns coinciding with Dallas day and the crowning of two queens at the exposition.

Belgium's envoy to the United States was accompanied to Dallas from Washington by Frans Leemans, Belgium representative to the United Nations. They dedicated the Belgian exhibit in the general exhibits building.

As part of Dallas Day festivities, Miss State Fair of 1949 and the Texas Cotton Queen were to be crowned.

Texas Tech Day was also observed. Threatening weather culminating in showers yesterday sliced attendance to 22,515. However, total attendance since opening day of

Dallas Oil Men Lose Damage Suit

DALLAS, Tex., Oct. 12 (UP)—Two Dallas oilmen have been assessed damages totaling $1,980,000 in federal court for business dealings involving the National Corp. of New Jersey.

The suit, brought in the firm's name by James D. Colyer of New York, a former director of the corporation, charged C. L. Lloyd, former board chairman, and I. F. Pitts, a former director, "tricked the board membership with persons favorable to their views."

It also alleged they "juggled, sold and rebought ownership of another company and profited from all transactions in which the corporation was interested." Federal District Judge William H. Atwell fixed damages against Lloyd at $1,008,000 and $190,000 against Pitts. His opinion said in part: "I find that Lloyd and Pitts secured certain options to purchase stock when the corporation stock was increased to $2,000,000.

"These options were not exercised until the stock had largely risen in value. They exercised the options before the stockholders knew about it.

Rains Hamper Crop Harvesting

AUSTIN, Tex., Oct. 12 (UP)—Torrential rains, following last week's hurricane, have put an abrupt halt to harvesting of crops in upper coastal and East-Texas counties, the United States Department of Agriculture reported today.

The tropical storm beat northward through the center of the Rice belt, where about 5 per cent of the crop had been harvested.

Scattered showers and drizzles slowed harvesting operations in central and north Texas.

However, the news was better from the northern high plains where most wheat was reported up to a good stand, with early fields providing some grazing.

Fall crop commercial vegetables continued to make good progress in all areas. Eggplant, peppers and squash were becoming more plentiful with an occasional solid carload lot being loaded in the winter garden area.

Rayburn Given Irish Shillelagh

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12 (UP)—House Speaker Sam Rayburn today sported a fine new Irish shillelagh fit for cracking Democratic heads if the need should arise.

The shillelagh, cut from the black oaks of county Wicklow, Ireland, was presented to the doughty Texas yesterday in a sly Republican dig at Democratic discipline.

Rep. Daniel A. Reed, R., N. Y., took the floor shortly after the House met at noon and announced that he had been "alarmed" at the headlines he had seen on a recent trip to Europe.

"The headlines said that 'Speaker Rayburn has lost control of his (Democratic) side of the House,'" Reed said. "So I went to the village of Shillelagh, looked at the black oaks and had them make this."

With a sweeping motion, he reached under his coat and pulled out a mysterious-looking long paper bag. He unwrapped it to display a black, knobbed shillelagh which he handed to Rayburn.

"I asked the people of Shillelagh what it was used for," Reed announced. "They said it was to bash heads."

"I am giving it to the speaker to see if he can get control of his side of the house."

Rayburn grinned, hefted the cudgel, and said:

"I've always thought that a Democratic speaker needed this

BACH COMES TO LIFE—Lovers of organ music are turning their ears toward Fort Worth, where the finest concert pipe organ in the Southwest and one of the largest in the entire South will soon echo the masterpieces of J. S. Bach and the other classical composers in their original fiery brilliance of 200 years ago. Just installed in the new $1,500,000 Fine Arts Building and Auditorium at Texas Christian University, the great four-manual Moller organ has 5000 pipes, ranging from two inches to 32 feet in length. Its console, shown above, has 150 controls in addition to the four keyboards and the foot pedals. It will be heard for the first time in concert at 3:30 p. m. Sunday, when Gordon Young, eminent young American concert organist and newly-appointed TCU faculty member, will present a concert. Alexander McCurdy, of Philadelphia's Curtis Institute of Music, will play a concert at 8:15 p. m. Wednesday, Oct. 12. Dr. E. W. Doty of the University of Texas will close the series with a concert at 3:30 p. m. Sunday, Oct. 16. All three concerts will be free to the public.

Praises FHA For Care Of Soil

DALLAS, Tex., Oct. 12 (UP)—Marvin Jones, ex-Texas congressman and now Chief Justice of the U. S. Court of Claims, said today that better care of the soil is one of the major benefits from the Farmers Home Administration program of financing small-scale individual farms.

"When a man owns a small tract of land that he calls his home," Jones said, "he naturally wants to use it to the best advantage and preserve its fertility."

Jones was the principal speaker at the State Fair of Texas' Farmers Home Administration achievement day.

He noted that the nation's farm program for the past 25 years has been built around conservation of soil and water resources, and said:

"It is difficult to properly fashion a program when a majority of the people who are cultivating the soil are tenants and have only a transient interest in the conservation of the particular tract," and:

"This being true, the sense of trusteeship in the conservation and use of the soil is vital to the nation, and to every man, woman and child in the United States and to future generations."

Note Bearing Bottle Found

AUSTIN, Tex., Oct. 12 (UP)—One year, 10 months ago and 2,500 miles away a University of Texas student tossed a note-bearing bottle into the blue Pacific.

Berle E. Bridges of La Porte, then a lieutenant in the Air Force and en route to Guam, offered the finder $5 for notifying him where the bottle was recovered.

Today Bridges had his answer. Masaharu Yamashita of Ei Village, Ibusuki, Kagoshima, Japan, applied for the reward, and enclosed a hand-drawn map of the island indicating where the bottle was found.

Bridges said Yamashita would get his five-spot.

AMAZING PUPS OUT DO EASTLAND BY 25 TO 19

In an amazing display of knowledge of football, the Ranger Pups bucked their way to a 25 to 19 victory over the Eastland Dogies in a game played at the Ranger field Tuesday night.

Long steady gains by the boys that carry the pigskin were made possible by a solid wall of white sweated boys that proved invincible to the red sweated Eastland Dogies. It didn't take the Pups long to get going after they received the kick and early in the first quarter scored the first of four touchdowns. They never gave up either, scoring the fourth touchdown of the game in the fourth quarter. They pile-drive their way through the line, flashed an aerial attack and made long end sweeps to completely overshadow the Dogies.

A pass from Masseege for 15 yards, a run of nine yards by Browning and another longer run by Browning accounted for the first Ranger touchdown. Cole on a ground play went over for the extra point. Shortly after recovering a Dogie fumble, Cole made a dash for the second touchdown in the first quarter. Again it was Cole in the second quarter that made a 45 yard sprint for the third marker.

In the second quarter, Eastland took to the air and a beautiful pass from Jessop to Jordan gave Eastland its first touchdown. It was Jessop that took the ball in the second quarter on a Ranger kick and returned it 90 yards for another score, ending the first half with a score of Ranger 19 and Eastland 12.

The third period was scoreless but with Eastland threatening several times to get away with some beautiful passes. In the fourth quarter Ranger recovered an Eastland fumble on the ten yard line and this time it was Masseege that went over for the score. But Jessop of Eastland in another determined sweep down the field ran 60 yards for another Dogie score. Both teams were tightening up as the game ended 25 to 19 for Ranger.

Rogers had hi-game of 190 and series of 476 while Johnson had hi-game of 185 and series of 428. Auto-Elec. just could not seem to get into their stride. E. C. ★ THE SCOREBOARD ★ McCarthy Has Been Plagued With Sore-Armed Throwers

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Defending Joe McCarthy when a Boston columnist up and "fired" him, "win, lose or draw," a Hub baseball writer pointed out that the Red Sox had a sore-armed pitching staff until July 4.

He wondered if that wasn't worse than all the Yankee injuries wrapped in one package.

"Jack Kramer claimed to have had a bad arm," cut in Joe Cronin, "but you can't look into one. It might have been left fielditis."

What the Red Sox general manager means is that Fenway Park, with its beckoning left field net, is as tough on pitchers as it is favorable to right-hand pull hitters. And the latter do not have to pull the ball too far.

Another thing making the Fens a miserable place for pitchers is that foul balls don't count, as Old Shortstop Cronin points out.

What he means by this is that foul balls are rarely caught there because the stands are so close to the playing area. Hitters fouling off balls nearly always get another chance or two.

This makes this year's pitching feats of Mel Parnell and Ellis Kinder, the Boston Americans' 20-game men, all the more remarkable.

CONVERSELY, it accounts in a large measure for the Back Bay Millionaires boosting the two top men in runs-batted-in and home runs and five 300 hitters, including the batting champion, in a batting order that stays put.

Ted Williams, of course, would hit anywhere, including a cow pasture, considerably better than he does at Fenway Park, where the right field spaces are against a left-hand pull hitter.

McCarthy disappointed the front office when he pitched the veteran Denny Galehouse in the losing play-off game with the Indians last fall, the Boston columnist reported in "ring" him.

"Galehouse was all McCarthy had left," counters Cronin. "He pitched himself out getting into the play-off."

"Had Galehouse struck out 13 and won, McCarthy would have been a master mind, just as Connie Mack was when he trotted out Howard Ehmke in the opening game of the 1929 World Series with the Cubs. "It all depends on how things go."

McCarthy paid no attention to the Boston columnist's blast. The Buffalo Irishman is never ruffled.

Joe McCarthy has a unique way of preventing a bad situation from getting worse, which is not the least reason that he rates well up among great managers.

scheduling difficulties the Longhorns would have encountered otherwise. Big seven conference permission is required for any member team to play an opponent on a neutral field.

TEXAS News Briefs

By United Press

AUSTIN, Oct. 12 (UP)—Almost all state departments and agencies closed today in observance of Columbus Day.

However, state courts continued to do business-as-usual.

EDINBURG, Oct. 12 (UP)—State Senator G. C. Morris, acting lieutenant governor of Texas, was off on a short speaking tour of the Lower Rio Grande Valley today.

Morris said the tour had nothing to do with the 1950 elections, but added that he would be back within six months.

BONHAM, Oct. 12 (UP)—Funeral services were held here today for Thomas B. Williams, 87 former president of the Bonham State Bank.

Williams, co-owner of a general merchandise store, died in a hospital here yesterday.

AUSTIN, Oct. 12 (UP)—Officials of the Veterans Land Board predicted today that a recent ruling by Attorney General Price Daniel "would insure a successful sale" of land bonds on Oct. 26.

Daniel held that bonds issued by the Veterans Land Board are eligible investments for the permanent school fund.

Alvis Vandygriff, executive secretary of the board, said the decision would "considerably enhance the value of the bonds."

The $5,000,000 sale will be the first offering of bonds under the new $25,000,000 veterans land program.

KILGORE, Oct. 12 (UP)—Two persons were killed and one seriously injured in an automobile accident near the Smith-Grege county line yesterday.

Joe A. Johnson, 65, of Tyler, was killed immediately when the automobile in which he was riding careened off the highway and overturned. Johnson was a former Henderson County judge.

L. S. Maddon, 59, of Tyler, died several hours later in a Kilgore hospital. Mrs. Johnson was seriously injured in the accident.

AUSTIN, Oct. 12 (UP)—Dr. T. S. Painter, president of the University of Texas, pushed an idea today which he felt would help eliminate overlapping of the state's college and university facilities.

The proposal was a study of Texas' higher educational system, similar to a "Gilmer-Aikin" type study which the 51st legislature rejected last spring.

Painter told a university faculty meeting yesterday that the need for a "central administrative machinery" was growing as Texas colleges faced declining enrollments and the prospect of reduced legislative appropriations.

AUSTIN, Oct. 12 (UP)—O. B. Ellis, general manager of Texas' prison system, conferred with Gov. Allan Shivers yesterday on measures to recoup an estimated $500,000 loss suffered in last week's hurricane.

Ellis said the loss was particularly hard on the system since it was looking toward its best crop year in history. He reported that the prison staff was taking "every possible step" to make up for losses of the past weeks.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 12 (UP)—Technical Sergeant Nicholas M. Sweden, 55, of Kelly Air Force Base, was killed last night when he was struck by a moving car on a downtown street.

Police said Sweden apparently stepped from behind a parked car into the path of the moving vehicle. He was San Antonio's 37th traffic fatality of the year.

More than 2,250,000 trees were planted in Nebraska this spring, 7 per cent above last year's plantings.

Man Charged In Extortion Letter To Glen McCarthy

HOUSTON, Tex., Oct. 12 (UP)—The Federal Bureau of Investigation arrested a Houston man today on a charge of writing a $50,000 extortion letter to Millionaire Glenn McCarthy.

Galen Willis, agent in charge of the local FBI office, said the man charged was Raymond Chambers (904 Frio.) The note threatened to "kill or injure" McCarthy or some member of his family unless the sum was paid, Willis stated.

The man was to be arrested before a U. S. Commissioner this morning.

Twins Held In Robbery Series

AMARILLO, Tex., Oct. 12 (UP)—A pair of 25-year-old twins were in the Amarillo jail today after being identified as the men who robbed two supermarkets of $11,400 last summer.

The twins, Edward Lee and Leo Earl Rader, were brought to Amarillo late yesterday from Lubbock, where they were arrested over the week end, and employes of the two stores picked them out of a police lineup.

Police said the two men own a small plane which the officers said was used in get-aways from store robberies.

The Raders also are wanted for similar robberies in Bellflower, Nation City and San Diego, Calif.

Officers said the sheriff from Rowell, N. M., also was going to "look" at the twins today. They are suspects in a store robbery there.

The twins live in Bellflower, Calif.

The Cherokees of North Carolina do not know what the name of their tribe means. They call themselves "Ani-Yunwiva" or "real people."

SAYS WAR THREAT BACK OF EAST GERMAN CHANGE

BY JOHN B. McDERMOTT
UNITED PRESS STAFF CORRESPONDENT
BERLIN Oct. 12 (UP)—Communist Prime Minister Otto Grotewohl said today that Russia virtually was forced by "the serious threat of war in Europe" to form a new East German Government.

Unification of Germany was more urgent than ever, Grotewohl told a joint session of both houses of the new East German legislature in his maiden speech as prime minister.

Grotewohl delivered a major statement of policy for the new East German government in an hour-long speech in which he said the new state would:

1. Pay Russia war-damage reparations and "overcome the national misery created by war."
2. Welcome with open arms all non-criminal Nazis.
3. Embark immediately upon a new Soviet-engineered two-year plan.
4. Provide an abundance of food for its people.
5. Remain staunchly loyal to the Soviet Union.
6. Fight for unification of Germany against the German state, which Grotewohl denounced as an "imperialist" puppet government "founded in London."
7. Take sharp legal measures against any Anti-Semitic activity.

"Western Germany today is the gathering place of foreign and German militarists," Grotewohl said in a major statement of policy before a joint session of both houses of the legislature.

The western government at Bonn, he charged, was founded in London and not on the Rhine.

Grotewohl pledged his East German government to pay reparations—presumably to Soviet Russia—for damages in World War II and said his government wants peace and unification of Germany.

"The way toward peace contains a recognition of the payments of reparations," he declared.

Grotewohl did not specify the exact amount that East Germany would pay. Observers recalled that Russia demanded $10,000,000,000 (B) in reparations at the last Ger-
