Someone to Love

By IRENE LONNEN ERNHART Copyright, 1949, NEA SERVICE, INC. THE STORY: When Tod Dunbar's fiancée, Liz Conover, elopes with another man, Tod turns to his old friend Jenny Puloska for comfort. Jenny has always had a crush on Tod but when Tod proposes she is afraid it is "too soon."

THE three days passed in an exciting whirl for Jenny. The girls at the shop gave her a shower; wonderful accessories to go with the cloud pink suit in which she would be married. Max gave her a hat, a dream, cloud pink to match the suit. She had protested, knowing the exclusive label and the price. But Max insisted.

TEXAS News Briefs

AUSTIN, Oct. 19 (UP)—Members of the Texas Legislative Council, granted sweeping powers of investigation by the 51st Legislature, will hold their first meeting today.

The 17-member agency was given authorization to investigate virtually every state agency. Today's meeting was called by Council Chairman Sen. G. C. Morris of Greenville, acting Lieutenant Governor.

AUSTIN, Oct. 19 (UP)—State Sen. Rogers Kelley of Edinburg today assumed chairmanship of the water code committee, created by the 51st Legislature to study and clarify Texas' water laws.

Kelley was elected to the post at an organizational meeting of the 21-member between-session committee yesterday. Other new officers chosen yesterday were Rep. Byron R. Tinsley, Greenville, Vice-Chairman, and John D. McCall, Dallas, secretary.

His mouth on hers, his hand pressed against her throat. Suddenly all her doubts were dissolved.

THE ceremony in the shabby garish parlor had neither dignity nor reality. Jenny always remembered the threadbare red carpet, the framed mottoes on the walls, the bouquet of dusty paper roses on the battered upright piano, the limp soiled lace curtains at the windows.

Tod felt a lack too, and when they drove off, "It's bound to upset your mother this way." And the guilt gave rise to irritation as he said, "They'd have raised such a fuss."

"It doesn't matter really, Tod," Jenny whispered. "It isn't the ceremony—but the years that come after it that matter anyway. I hope they'll be good years for us both and last the rest of our lives."

"I hope so too," Tod said slowly. He felt a little shaky, wishing all at once that he had never known anyone but Jenny, that he had never been in love with anyone else. "Well," he said rather grimly, "from now on we'll do it right, at least. Bridal suites and champagne and stuff!"

But whatever Tod meant by "champagne and stuff," there was very little luxury on the honeymoon trip.

They had meant to reach Chicago by evening, but something went wrong with the car, and they were stranded in northern Indiana.

Of their honeymoon Jenny remembered more clearly than anything else the cramped little tourist cottage where they spent that night together; the sleazy blue spread on the chipped white enameled iron bed, the old insurance calendar on the wall, the fly-specked light bulb, the smoky cracked mirror on the dresser; and the smell of frying hamburgers from the all-night truck stop restaurant nearby mingled with the country smells of hay and clover and honeysuckle and dust; and the roar of traffic pounding by on the state highway, plus the sound of music from the jukebox in the roadside tavern.

MINERAL WELLS, Oct. 19 (UP)—Tentative plans for financing the construction of three major power dams on the Brazos River went on the books of the Brazos River Conservation District here today. The District's Board of directors tentatively agreed to ask bids on the dam's construction in December. They will be built, without federal loan, at a total cost of $25,000,000.

The dams will be located at Decordova Bend in Hood County; at inspiration point and at Turkey Creek, in Palo Pinto County.

DALLAS, Oct. 19 (UP)—Attendance at the State Fair of Texas edged near the 2,000,000 goal today as a roster of special events promised thousands of visitors.

The attendance mark read 1,567,000 yesterday as some 71,000 persons passed through the show's gates. A small slate of special events kept the figure down to only a thousand more than the same date a year ago.

But today was a different story with Texas Grass Day, Texas Soil Conservation Day and Texas Daughters of the American Revolution Day events on hand. A cake baking contest will be held, as will the junior pig show, the junior sheep show, the junior dairy show and the marchista.

TAYLOR, Tex., Oct. 19 (UP)—Arthur Meiske died yesterday after being run over by his own driverless truck.

Meiske, 36, had gone to the farm home of his father to aid in starting a car.

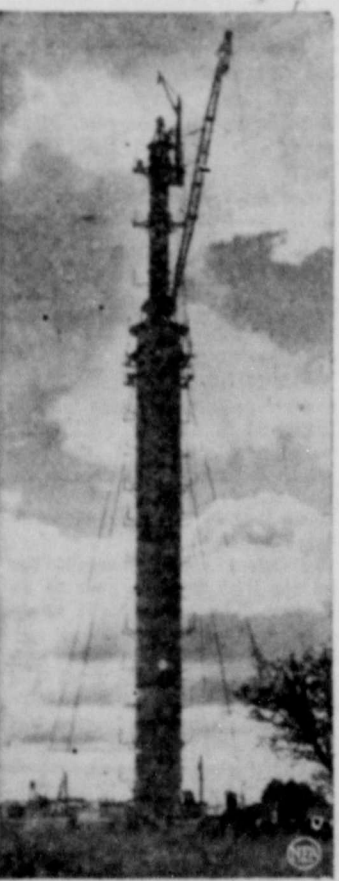

He ran his pickup truck slowly against the rear of the automobile, left the truck in low gear and then leaped from the truck to race ahead and enter the rolling automobile. He started the car.

Then he jumped from the automobile, intending to enter his truck and stop it. However, he slipped and fell. The truck ran over his chest. Meiske died shortly after being admitted to a hospital.

Army Band Has Pipers FORT LEWIS, Wash. (UP)—The Second Division band here claims the only bagpipe section of an Army band in the country. Under supervision of John P. Ironside, 16 members have learned to play well enough to appear regularly as part of the band.

Cat Can Figure LAKE VIEW, Miss. (UP)—Ed Fritz thinks his alley cat has it all over most felines. Tom, the cat, can count money. All you have to do is spread out a handful of dollar bills and Tom will paw each of them until he comes to ten. Then he goes back to sleep.

Comets got their name from their long wispy, or hairy-appearing tails. In the Latin word "coma" means "hair."

ROCKET LAUNCHER?—Motorists on the outskirts of Dallas, Tex., kept expecting this tall, rocket-shaped thing to take off. Having seen pictures of the rocket launchings at White Sands, N. M., they called the papers to find out when the one would be launched. The papers investigated and found the "rocket" was one of the legs for a huge water tower being built at a housing development.

HAIR-BREADTH HARRY

freezing and piling snow into huge drifts. One Canadian was listed as dead due to the storm and two were injured. Roads were blocked and telephone lines knocked down.

Weather forecasters at Los Angeles said it was the earliest cold snap to hit Southern California in 30 seasons. Farmers were advised to run water through irrigation ditches throughout the night to offset expected low temperatures of 28 degrees in some localities. Fear was felt for some vegetable crops.

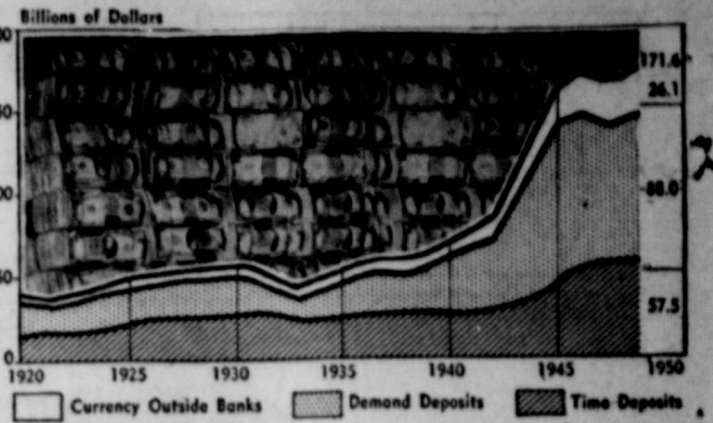

The first snow of the season fell along the ridge route from Los Angeles to San Francisco which had its coldest Oct. 18th in 25 years when the mercury fell to 47 degrees yesterday.

Ranchers in the western plains feared today's storm might be an omen that they faced another winter such as last when the worst shows in history killed hundreds of thousands of livestock and scores of humans.

While the West was getting its foretaste of winter, the remainder of the nation enjoyed relatively mild weather. The mercury lingered around 65 degrees at New York. The Midwest enjoyed a calm Indian summer except for intermittent showers.

On the north Atlantic, however, wild gales delayed the Cunard liner Queen Elizabeth, the Dutch liner Nieuw Amsterdam, and five Army transports. A French freighter, the Caen, was wallowing in heavy seas with a broken propeller off the New Jersey coast, but appeared in no immediate danger.

The storm was heaviest in the Eastern Atlantic where several ship disasters were reported.

PLENTY OF MONEY—The money supply of the United States stood at $171,600,000,000 at the beginning of 1949—or roughly $1150 per person. The chart above, based on data from the National Industrial Conference Board, shows how the money supply rose slightly in 1948, after dipping from the all-time peak of $177,800,000,000 in February, 1946. Most of the money is in demand deposit—or ordinary checking accounts. Time deposits include individual savings accounts and business deposits which may not be withdrawn without advance notice. Currency outside banks includes all paper money and coins not held by the U. S. Treasury or banks.

Says Dwarf Cattle Raised By Rancher

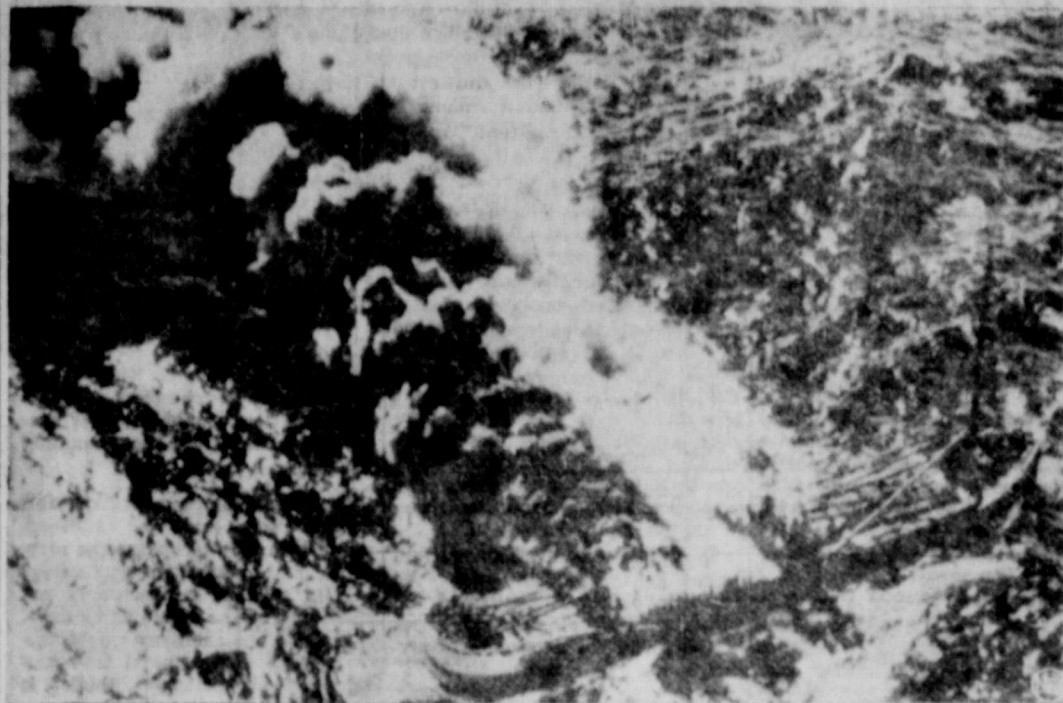

BILLINGS, Mont., Oct. 19 (UP)—The dwarf Hereford cattle which Gene Holter, 27, of Jamestown, N. D., claimed he found in a lost canyon were raised by a Montana rancher, it appeared today.

A Billings meatpacker, who refused to be quoted by name, said the cattle were raised by Kendall Shaule, of Ballantyne, Mont. The packer said the cattle could be identified by tattooed brands in their ears.

The packer said he sold five dwarf Herefords to Holter when the latter was here Sept. 26 with the touring donkey baseball team. Shaule confirmed he had sold the packer the five animals, which he had raised. The Herefords averaged 200 pounds in weight and measured 24 to 28 inches in height, he said.

Shaule said dwarf cattle were becoming "more common all the time" among Hereford and Angus breeds.

Hawkins To Face Murder Charges In Illinois

DALHART, Tex., Oct. 19 (UP)—Officers from Illinois were expected here late today to return Leonard (Lucky) Hawkins to Jerseyville, where he faces a charge of murdering his "friend."

Meanwhile, Texas state police technicians at Austin were making ballistics tests on a .32 calibre automatic pistol of foreign make. It was taken from Hawkins a former Bush League Baseball player, when he was captured near Middle Water late Monday.

"We think it's the same gun used to kill Albert Clark," said sheriff W. L. Stout.

The Elizabeth, which had been due in New York today, was 17 hours behind schedule. The second storm was centered in the North Atlantic with its fringe reaching as far south as Delaware.

Rescue Units Go To Aid Of Storm Tossed Ships

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 19 (UP)—Coast Guard rescue units were alerted from Halifax to Cape May, N. J., today as wave-tossed ships wallowed through two severe Atlantic storms, hours behind schedule.

One storm of near hurricane proportions was centered off the coast of Halifax, heading towards Newfoundland. Nine ships carrying 10,000 passengers, including the Queen Elizabeth and the New Amsterdam, were caught in its fury.

A tug reached the French freighter Caen which had been rolling helplessly since losing its propeller off Cape May. The tug reported that it would put a line on the freighter as soon as the weather permitted.

The Coast Guard said scores of ships had turned from their course to take advantage of a five-hundred-mile-wide stretch of calm seas between the two storms.

(The weather bureau in New York said that both storms were wearing out, but that gale winds were blowing still.) The Coast Guard said no ships caught in the storm off Halifax had sent a distress call.

Father, Daughter Believing Each Other Dead 31 Years Are Reunited

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Calif., Oct. 19 (UP)—The happiest people in the world today were a transplant Texan and his daughter. Each had thought the other had been dead for the last 31 years.

They looked lovingly at each other yesterday for the first time since 1918 and credited the FBI for bringing them together.

The father is Melville Homer Decevo, owner of a Mountain View restaurant. His daughter, Valore, is now Mrs. George R. Schwoob of Butte, Mont.

Decevo, his wife and baby Valore were living in Texas in 1918 during the flu epidemic. As the disease began spreading, Decevo left his family with his mother-in-law, Mrs. Stella Wade. Later Decevo was notified that his wife had died of flu, and he gained the impression that his two-year-old daughter also had perished.

As Valore grew up, she believed both her parents were dead, but in 1936 she received some information that indicated her father still lived. She set out to find him without success.

Finally in 1942 she wrote to J.

Edgar Hoover of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and had Decevo put on the missing persons list. The FBI located several men who had the same unusual name, but until recently had not located Decevo, who had moved to Mountain View.

The FBI "tracked down" their man this summer, and father and daughter exchanged letters for the first time. Mrs. Schwoob, her husband and two daughters drove to Mountain View this week for the reunion.

up without resistance to end one of the Texas Panhandle's greatest manhunts in recent years. He waived extradition to Illinois, but denied that he was guilty of murder in Clark's death.

He and Clark left Clayton, N. M., on Oct. 3 to drive to New York. About a week later, Hawkins showed up in the Dalhart area driving Clark's car. Shortly thereafter, Clark's body was found in a farm field near Jerseyville.

He had been shot in the head and robbed. Authorities said he had been dead about five days. Stout said Hawkins refused to discuss Clark's death, beyond saying, "I'll go up there (to Illinois) and explain how it happened."

Doak Walker Sent Home With Flu

DALLAS, Tex., Oct. 19 (UP)—Southern Methodist University's hopes of upsetting unbeaten, untied Kentucky here next Saturday took a nose dive today when all-American Doak Walker was stricken with an attack of influenza.

Walker complained of feeling ill about 3 A. M. and was sent home from the SMU athletic dormitory where he resides during the football season.

Physicians said he was running a fever, but that it was too early to determine whether he would be able to recover in time to play Saturday. An injection of penicillin was given the star back.

Meyer Evasive On Rumor Of Resignation

FORT WORTH, Tex., Oct. 19 (UP)—Head Coach L. R. (Dutch) Meyer of Texas Christian University said today there was "nothing definite as yet" to published reports that he plans to resign after this season.

Meyer made his statement after a Dallas sports columnist reported that "all plans have been made for the voluntary retirement" of Meyer, with Abe Martin TCU assistant coach, slated to succeed him.

Meyer, who has been on the TCU coaching staff 26 years and served 16 of those as head coach, said he didn't know if he'll be coaching the Frogs next year or not.

He also expressed displeasure and resentment at the matter "being kicked around in the public prints," particularly at mid-season.

Negro Sought in Man's Death

ODESSA, Tex., Oct. 19 (UP)—Ector County police today hunted a 28-year-old negro charged with the fatal slugging of a white man Monday night.

R. L. Walker, the negro, was accused in the murder of Lyn Cutbirth, 30, after the two left a negro tavern together. Cutbirth's body was found at the side of the tavern.

An examining physician said he died of a skull fracture.

Walker was last seen late Monday driving Cutbirth's pick-up truck.

If the bakers of this country laid all the bread they produce end to end, they would find they are turning out loaves at the rate of 7,000 miles per day, according to the American Bakers Association.

In some respects the two teams seem rather evenly matched but there is always the element of luck entering into the game for one side or the other.

If Ranger receives the ball in the Thursday game the starters will likely be LE D. Jones, LT J. Jones, EG, C. Neal, O. Joe Neal; RG L. Williams, RT, C. Boynton RE, H. Frasier and backs, Hargett, Ford, Crawley and B. Williams.

But if Ranger has to kick off there will be some changes. In such a case, C. Neal will play LE D. Jones will be at LT; Knappeneburger will play LG; J. Jones will be at RT and Boyd at RE. Backs will be Ford, Crawley, McWhorter, B. Williams and Chessir.

SOUTHWEST COACHES MOSTLY GLUM OVER SATURDAY GAMES

By JACK WINEMILLER
 United Press Sports Writer

Teas fell like wine today as Southwest Conference coaches prepared their teams for Saturday encounters with other strong-armed young seekers of education.

At Fort Worth, Dutch Meyer never known for carefree cheerfulness was particularly doleful about Texas Christian's chances in their home game with Mississippi.

The Dutchman predicted a bad beating for his Horned Frogs, who put on an extraordinarily docile practice exhibition yesterday. The injury-riddled Frogs, Meyer said, apparently were content to rest on their laurels after thrashing impotent Texas A&M last week.

Texas Aggie Mentor Harry Stiteler, who probably had more reason to shed tears than anyone, struck a brighter note. He was hopeful that his win-free sophomores may conquer their pass defense weakness when they meet undefeated Baylor at College Station.

Stiteler even went so far as to say that the Aggies may do sufficient passing on their own part to overcome Baylor's famed aerial game.

The University of Texas publicized that their Longhorns are strictly "Greenhorns" compared with the Rice Owls whom they play in Austin.

Longhorn mentors were more than quick to point out the every first string has seen prior varsity service, and six of them are Owl squadmen for the fourth straight season.

But the undernourished Longhorns—they average only some 200 pounds in the line—haven't a single man who's lettered more than twice. However, the Stears admittedly were nearing top physical condition, and though the coaches didn't point it out—they lost by only one touchdown to the powerhouse Oklahoma team, one of the finest in the nation.

In Dallas, coach Madison Bell, better known to the trade as "Maasin" Matty, bemoaned the Mustangs' lack of pass defense. He lamented the departure of last year's ace defensive halfback, Paul Page, and said the 1949 Ponies don't look a bit good on defense.

Southern Methodist, upset last week by Rice aerials, is expected to be tormented again in Dallas when it meets Kentucky, the "surprise" team from Bourbonland.

The Arkansas Razorbacks, whose linemen are just as tough and nearly as heavy as five-year-old Bears, continued to rock the Ozark Hills in preparation for their

Strikers Ready To Talk Over Last Grievances

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 19 (UP)—Four striking unions were expected to present plans today for settling the "handful" of grievances holding up settlement of the Missouri Pacific railroad dispute.

Of the 282 original grievances which caused the walkout here Sept. 9, all but about 12 had been settled.

Union negotiators for the 5,000 striking engineers, firemen, conductors and trainmen were expected to hand the company a list of agencies they would consider acceptable to arbitrate the remaining issues.

Guy A. Thompson, trustee for the Mo-Pac, said the railroad would be ready to operate as soon as the final settlement was reached. He said all trains would resume operations within three days.

He said the company would "go along with any proposal from the brotherhoods that we think is fair" in disposing of the remaining grievances.

The railroad's operations have been at a standstill throughout its 11-state system. About 20,000 other employees have been idled as a result of the strike.

Dr. White To Get Thirty-Third Degree

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19 (UP)—Dr. W. R. White, president of Baylor University, and U. S. Rep. Homer Thornberry of Austin were among a large group of Texans elected yesterday to receive the 33rd degree of the Knights Commander of the court of honor (KCCH).

The honors were bestowed by the Supreme Council of 33rd degree ancient and accepted Scottish Rite, Southern Jurisdiction, U. S. A.

Also among the group thus honored was John W. Runyon, First Vice President of the Dallas Times Herald.

Economic Adviser To Truman May Resign Post

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19 (UP)—President Truman's chief economic adviser is scheduled to quit soon, after a public warning that the government's big time spending spree may ruin the nation.

Dr. Edwin G. Nourse rocked the capital to its heels yesterday with a speech before the National Retail Farm Equipment Association here. Nourse is chairman of the President's council of economic advisers.

His disagreements with fellow councilmen have been revealed and reported hereabouts for many months. His colleagues are Dr. Leon Keyserling and Dr. John D. Clark. The United Press was authoritatively informed that Nourse has resigned effective Nov. 1.

Nourse did not single Mr. Truman out especially for criticism. In fact, he told newsmen later that he did not intend his speech as an "attack" on the administration and was surprised that it had been widely interpreted as such.

In his talk, he admonished farm, labor and other pressure groups for squeezing the national economy in their own special interests. He cited industrial management for failure to make a robust effort to cut prices in the national interest. But Nourse's prime target was government and what he regards as dangerous financial practices.

Rene Mayer Due To Organize New French Cabinet

PARIS, Oct. 19 (UP)—Rene Mayer, radical socialist former finance minister, was named premier-designate today, accepting a presidential assignment to try to form a coalition cabinet.

Mayer will be before the national assembly tomorrow to seek a vote of confidence as premier. The 54-year old financial expert accepted president Vincent Auriol's request to try to resolve the government crisis now nearing the end of its second week.

He conferred with Auriol at the Elysee Palace at mid-afternoon, and afterward his acceptance of the nomination was announced.

The former finance minister's "Mayer plan" was credited with saving the inflation-threatened franc in the spring of 1948.

He was called in by the president after the failure of Jules Moch to get an agreement by the Centrist Parties on a new coalition government.

Mayer accepted the bid after getting go-ahead signals from the three main middle-of-the-road parties, the Socialists, Radical Socialists and Popular Republicans.

Political experts said Mayer might get 330 to 335 assembly votes. His confirmation would require a minimum of 311.

Vandenberg Says Navy Repudiates U. S. War Plan

(UP)—Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg said today the Navy seeks to repudiate the national war plan which "is in fact" now preventing Russia from aggression.

The Air Force Chief of Staff said that strategic bombardment, with atomic and other explosives, "is the current national plan" in event of war. He said it bears the stamp of approval of every responsible quarter including the Navy's highest officer, Adm. Louis E. Denfield.

fore the House Armed Services Committee gave the inference that Denfield ran out on that plan last week when he supported the string of Navy admirals who protested against strategic bombing plans.

The joint Chiefs of Staff, of which Denfield, as Chief of Naval operations, is a member, informed the committee in August that they "separately and jointly are of the firm opinion that the concept of strategic bombing and the extent of its employment as now planned, are sound," Vandenberg said.

They must for many of them have been doing business with us for more than a quarter of a century and still are. There is no secret attached to this expression of confidence. Youth Cleared In Brother's Death

An autopsy surgeon's report indicated that the first bullet fired accidentally by Richard Elliot, 15, above, killed his brother Robert, 10, and that the second bullet, fired deliberately "to put him out of his misery," was too late. Richard, described by his Los Angeles neighbors as a "model boy," said he was showing his gun to his younger brother when it went off accidentally, striking the youth in the head. Unable to stand the screaming, Richard fired again, and his brother stopped screaming and moaning. (NEA TELEPHOTO)

Man Held For Impersonation

EDINBURG, Tex., Oct. 19—(UP)—A 23-year-old Virginian charged with violating the Federal Impersonation Statute, was ed in a jail cell here today to be taken to Phoenix, Ariz., for trial. Ellahugh Sluder of Torkland, Va., was committed to jail in lieu of $1,000 bond yesterday by U. S. Commissioner J. C. Hall. He had been arrested by F. B. I. agents Monday in a McAllen cafe where he worked, and accused of representing himself as a Phoenix business woman as a government agent. According to the F. B. I., Sluder told the woman he was assigned to break up a syndicate of wholesale dry goods operators who were attempting to put small businesses out of operation. She gave him control of her goods and merchandise—whereupon he disposed of them and left with the proceeds last July. He arrived in McAllen two weeks ago. The nation's annual milk supply is 57,000,000,000 quarts a year. It is valued at $8,000,000,000 a year.
