Rites For Edwin George, Tuesday Morning At 10

Officers Skeptical Over "Confession"

Police Chief W. G. Pounds said today he planned to confer with District Attorney Elzo Been in Eastland on the Los Angeles "confession" of Mrs. Margaret Nash to the slaying here 25 years ago of a Ranger policeman.

Pounds expressed skepticism in the woman's story, and said he had not decided whether to send an investigator to Los Angeles.

The slain police officer was Jim with Los Angeles police and also to confer with Been.

Former Ranger Police Chief Jim Ingram said he did not believe the story told by Mrs. Nash.

The nurse, Mrs. Margaret Wilma Nash, confessed the killing Sunday after telling California authorities she had lost a battle with her conscience.

The slain police officer was Jim Daniels. Mrs. Nash said she shot him.

Ingram said he believed that Daniels was slain by car thieves. "I don't know what to think of the woman's story," he said.

"But I don't believe it's true," Dist Atty. Elzo Been in Eastland said today he had not heard details of the reported confession in Los Angeles of Mrs. Wilma Nash to the slaying of a Ranger policeman 25 years ago, but planned to begin an immediate investigation.

Been said that County Grand Jury currently was in session here, and that any action he might take in the case depended upon results of his investigation.

Been recently became district attorney and served a good many years ago as a district judge. He said that if he recalled correctly, he was the district judge who tried the case in which one of two men was charged with the fatal shooting of policeman Jim Daniels.

Been said the case was transferred to Stephenville, where a hung jury resulted, and then was brought back to Eastland where it eventually was dismissed.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 13 (UP)—Mrs. Margaret Nash slept her first untroubled sleep in 25 years last night. She had confessed the quarter century old slaying of a Texas officer.

"Have you ever lived with anything like this hanging over you?" she asked. "It's a great relief to get it off my mind. Dreaming about it has kept me awake at night."

Mrs. Nash, 42, came to police yesterday to tell them that in 1925 in Ranger, Tex., she killed Jimmy Daniels, a handsome Texas policeman.

"I wanted to tell until all my family was dead," she said. "Now no harm will come to anyone but me."

Ranger police confirmed that Daniel's death was unsolved. They were sending a man to check her story further, officers here said.

Mrs. Nash said she met Daniels when he questioned her about the death of a girl in her "pretty tough gang." She said she was 17 then.

As a result of Daniels' investigation, Mrs. Nash was sent to a reformatory for a short time.

It was 3 A. M. one moonlight morning when she and Daniels met again.

"A bunch of us were at a dance hall, and he started driving around," she said. "One of the boys saw Daniels—he was a handsome guy—and yelled: 'there's your boy'."

"We were going to beat him up. But one of the boys said, 'he's your duck take him,' and shoved a gun in my hand."

"I aimed and pulled the trigger."

Mrs. Nash said she stayed in Ranger three years after the slaying. On several occasions, she said, she discussed Daniels' death with police.

The woman, tired and haggard, was booked on suspicion of murder while police checked her story.

She wept a little as the jail doors closed behind her, but she said her sleepless nights were over.

"I'm glad it's out," she said. "I couldn't hide it any longer."

UTES HELD FOR GUNSHOT VICTIM TODAY

Funeral services for Marion Reilly Loper of the Oakley community were conducted this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Second Baptist Church in Ranger with the Rev. Jasper C. Massee, pastor of the church, officiating. Interment was in Evergreen cemetery with Morris Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Loper died Saturday afternoon at his home north of Ranger of gunshot wounds believed to have been accidentally inflicted. According to members of the family, Mr. Loper had just started to dress to come to town. He walked into a bedroom adjoining one in which he had just left his wife.

Mrs. Loper, on hearing the shot ran into the room and found her husband still standing. He collapsed into her arms after apparently trying to say something to her.

A son, at home at the time of the shooting, said that the .22 calibre rifle that inflicted the death wound always stood in the corner by a closet door.

The deceased was born in Ranger on June 24, 1894 and had been a resident of this area all of his life. He was a member of the Methodist church and was engaged in farming at the time of his death.

Survivors are Mrs. Loper, four sons, M. Reilly Loper, Jr., and Almer C. Loper both of Kermit and Alfred G. Loper and Wayne E. Loper of Ranger; six daughters, Mrs. Wilma Newcomb of Ranger, Mrs. Thelma Tate of Odessa and Imogene Loper, Gay Nell Loper, Dawn Loper and Yvette Loper, all of Oakley; two sisters, Mrs. Lona Reilly of Austin and Mrs. Lona Matthews of Ranger and one grandchild.

Pallbearers were T. L. Wheat, Henry Basham, Tom Cunningham, Hubert Poole, Aris Gardeshire, and Claude Weekes.

Late Civic Leader

Edwin George

AT CHURCH OF CHRIST WITH MINISTER IN CHARGE

Funeral services for Edwin George of Ranger will be conducted Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the Ranger Church of Christ with Floyd J. Spivy, minister of the church, officiating. Interment will be in Evergreen cemetery with Killingsworth's in charge of arrangements.

Mr. George died at the West Texas Hospital Sunday about noon of injuries sustained in a train-car crash about 2 o'clock last Monday afternoon. He had never regained consciousness after the accident in which he sustained a basal fracture of the skull.

He was born in LaGrange, Texas on October 22, 1895 and had been a resident of Ranger since coming here in 1919 after his discharge from service in World War I. He spent his boyhood in Fisher county and after finishing a business course in Dallas, entered a bank there. He later

Coffee Money Goes To March Of Dimes Drive

The March of Dimes will be an undiminished amount richer when the till at the Lone Star Chicken Inn is emptied and counted.

For sometime now, the owners of the Inn, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wallace have been turning down pay for single coffees and asking that the Java drinkers deposit the price of the coffee in the March of Dimes box.

Wallace stated that he has no idea as to the amount in the box but it must be considerable, he said. A least one customer paid $1.00 for his cup of coffee. Wallace stated that the money will not be counted until turned over to Mrs. J. A. Bates, chairman of the drive.

Mr. George had been an outstanding civic leader during his residence in Ranger. He had served on the city commission, the directorate of the Chamber of Commerce and in many other civic posts. He had recently been active in the Highway 80 Boosters Association, serving as secretary of that organization.

Survivors besides Mrs. George are a son, Morris George of Ranger, a daughter, Mrs. James Bonner of College Station; a granddaughter, Brenda Kay Bonner; three brothers, Warren George of Rotan, Jet George of Clairmont and Milton George of Stephenville; and three sisters, Mrs. E. Hardy of Rotan, Mrs. Jack Cravey of Brownfield and Mrs. L. D. Cravey of Spur.

SLOT MACHINE OPERATIONS MAY BE CURBED BY CONGRESS

BY FRED MULLEN
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Feb. 13 (UP)—Slot machine kings soon may find a crimp in their operations if an idea of the Justice Department is accepted by Congress.

Attorney General J. Howard McGrath's one-day conference, scheduled for Wednesday, is expected to be the opening gun in a drive to outlaw interstate transportation of the one-armed bandits as well as the parts that make them spin.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover told a House committee recently that he saw "merit" in such legislation.

A limited number of representatives from state and local governments have been invited to the conference to discuss crime problems with officials of Federal Investigating Agencies, including the FBI.

There was some apprehension at the Justice Department that the conference might provoke a demand for Federal intervention in many forms of organized crime.

A spokesman said, however, that the Department would fight "vigorously" any move that would turn the FBI into a Federal police force.

Hoover has been fighting for years against all such moves.

Justice Department officials said they will veto any suggestion which would result in the FBI taking over jurisdiction in crimes which are of purely local concern. But it will continue to cooperate with state and local police when asked.

The conference will come on the heels of the annual meeting of U. S. Attorney opening today. The lawyers will be told what to expect in the way of government plans for the coming year.

For one thing, it was said, they will be told to tighten up on

WET NORTHER LEAVES SNOW IN SECTIONS

BY United Press
A wet north blew toward the Texas Gulf coast today, leaving a blanket of snow at El Paso, Wink and Big Spring.

The cold wave whistled into West Texas yesterday as tornadoes were hop-skipping through the eastern section, killing at least six persons before they cut their path of destruction into Louisiana.

The U. S. Weather Bureau at Dallas reported heavy snow at Wink in an early morning report. White flakes also fell in the El Paso and Big Spring area.

East Texas will get showers near the coast today with temperatures falling to 26 to 32 degrees in the northwest portion and Red River Valley tonight.

A few snow flurries were forecast for the Panhandle, South Plains and upper Pecos Valley today, with temperatures dropping from 20-28 in the Panhandle, and 26 to 34 elsewhere in West Texas.

The cold front made a noisy entrance at Dallas, pummeling the area with hail and ending a damp, but warm, weekend. As the skies cleared following the hailstorm the temperature dropped perceptibly.

Early morning rain was reported at Lufkin, Houston, Beaumont, Galveston and Salt Flat.

Temperatures at 4:30 A. M. varied from 27 at Dalhart to 68 at Brownsville.

McAllen deep in the Rio Grande Valley, reported an unofficial high of 91 degrees Sunday afternoon.

Says Dispatches "Warped" By Russian Censors

CHICAGO, Feb. 13 (UP)—Deputy Assistant Secretary of State Howland Sargeant said today that the dispatches of American correspondents in Moscow are "warped" by Russian censorship.

Speaking before the Inland Press Association, Sargeant said: "I have sometimes wondered why our newspapers do not slug all such stories 'passed by Russian censors', to remind American readers that the item has been tampered with, and that the correspondent did not have unhampered access to the facts in the first place."

Sargeant said Russian authorities distort news coming into the Soviet Union as well as news going out of it. He said the Soviet press gave the impression now that the United States had been the enemy, not the ally, of Russia during World War II.

Sargeant said the voice of America offered the one way to get the truth to the people of Russia and the satellite nations, measured acre.

16 Hospitals To Feel Ax Of Defense Dept.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13 (UP)—The defense department today stood pat on its decision to close six military hospitals and curtail activities in 10 others. The proposals are intended to save $25,000,000 (M) a year.

A spokesman said there has been "no significant opposition" despite protests from some members of Congress.

Chairman Carl Vinson, D. Ga., of the house armed services committee has said the department appeared to be achieving a cutback of hospital facilities for dependents by indirection.

"The only areas in which hospital beds are being closed are those in which there will not be concentrations of tops," the spokesman said. "In any geographical area where we are closing hospitals we are maintaining facilities in one of the military departments which will be available to personnel of all the military departments."

Hospitals to be closed are: Murphey General Hospital, Waltham, Mass.; Valley Forge General Hospital, Phoenixville, Pa.; Oliver General Hospital, Augusta, Ga.; Percy Jones General Hospital Battle Creek, Mich.; Mare Island Naval Hospital, Mare Island, Cal.; and Long Beach Naval Hospital, Long Beach, Cal.

Hospitals to be reduced in status include Beaumont General Hospital, Ft. Bliss, Tex.; Corpus Christi Naval Hospital, Corpus Christi, Tex. and Lackland Air Force Hospital, San Antonio, Tex.

The Sheriff said a first degree murder charge would be filed against the suspect.

Sloan had been visiting a sister, Mrs. T. Ward, of Genoa, at the time.

Sloan died in an ambulance after the beating which occurred about 10:50 last night.

INTERNAL REVENUE SHOWS BIG DROP IN 1949

BY RAYMOND H. WILSON
 United Press Staff Correspondent
 WASHINGTON, Feb. 13. (UP)

Government internal revenue receipts slumped by $1,800,000,000 (B) in the 1949 calendar year, mostly because of a huge 12 per cent drop in personal income tax payments.

Officials said the year-end summary released by the Bureau of Internal Revenue sharply reflected 1949 general economic decline and the GOP-sponsored tax cuts of 1948.

Total receipts from Internal Revenue Taxes—which yield the bulk of the government's income—were $49,501,879,695 (B), or four and one-quarter per cent below the $42,302,844,105 collected in 1948.

Personal income tax payments, which normally accounted for almost half the total revenue, dropped to $17,752,414,084 (B) last year. Collections in 1948 amounted to $20,281,564,081.

Officials said the chief reason for this slump was the tax reductions voted by the Republican-controlled 80th Congress. Effective in mid-1948, the full effect was not felt until last year.

Corporation income taxes, the second largest source of Federal Revenue, rose to $11,855,444,106 (B) last year from the $10,928,910,080 (B) collected in 1948. Officials said business firms set aside less money for capital improvements, thus increasing their liability.

Excise taxes of all kinds declined more than $4,000,000 (M) last year. They totaled $3,962,167,574 (B), compared with $3,926,234,709 (B) in 1948.

President Truman has asked Congress to deduce excise devices but to offset the revenue loss by closing tax "loopholes." He also asked Congress to raise another $1,000,000,000 in higher corporation, gift and estate taxes.

The Bureau figures showed consumers are more likely to buy articles on which excise taxes are hidden than those where the levies are obvious.

MAJOR PITS OVER COUNTRY STILL IDLE

BY J. ROBERT SHUBERT
 United Press Staff Correspondent
 PITTSBURGH, Feb. 13.—(UP)—John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers ignored a federal court injunction ordering them back to work today.

Government officials were optimistic that a back-to-work move would develop within a few days. They pointed out that yesterday was Lewis' 70th birthday and that last year the miners stayed home in celebration of their president's anniversary.

However, that was the first time Lewis' birthday brought a shutdown and the current dispute was already brewing. The day is not an official contract holiday in the soft coal mines.

The miners were not in a holiday mood. They bitterly denounced President Truman's Taft-Hartley injunction action.

"Lewis' birthday or not," John Bell, Uniontown, Pa., miner, declared. "I don't work until we get a contract."

It was reported in Washington, that Lewis has upped his wage and welfare fund demands. In the so-called "Kentucky" agreements Lewis signed with a few independent operators, wages were boosted 95 cents to $15 a day and welfare fund royalties raised from 20 cents a ton to 35.

UMW district 17 president Wil was ready to ask $15.50 a day and 40 cents a ton when negotiations resume at the government's direction.

UMW district 17 president William Bilzard said he would sign no more "Kentucky" agreements with the operators, pending outcome to the court proceedings and negotiations.

The mines lay dark and idle when the work whistles sounded this morning. The operators said the pits were open, but the miners simply failed to show up.

In Missouri and Kansas, UMW district 14 president Henry Allai said yesterday he had instructed his men to work today and added that he believed they would. They didn't.

SAM SNEAD CAPTURES TEXAS GOLF TOURNEY

BY ED FITE
 United Press Sports Writer
 SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Feb. 13 (UP)—It took the greatest final 36 holes in PGA Tournament history to win the $10,000 Texas open golf championship, but the one-time temperamental Prima Donna of the Fairways, Sam Snead, proved he was the man who could do it.

The Greenbrier, W. Va. long-ball hitter came roaring out of the pack to fire his second straight eight-under-par 63 yesterday over Brackenridge Park's narrow fairways and nip Johnny Demaret of Ojai, Calif., by a stroke. Snead won with a 265 for the 72 holes. And, except for the elements he conceivably would have tied or broken still another PGA record—the one of 62 strokes for an 18-hole round.

He missed a 14-footer by inches

SMU, A & M THREATS IN CONFERENCE

Southern Methodist and Texas A&M today looked like the teams to beat for the Southwest Conference basketball title, although only one team actually was out of the running.

The Mustangs joined the Aggies in a tie for the lead at the close of last week's play by winning two games while the Aggies were only breaking even.

Each team has a similar schedule in the final two weeks of play. SMU, still must meet Rice, which has won only one of its seven games, Texas, Arkansas and Baylor. The Aggies tap off against Arkansas, Rice, Texas Christian and Texas in that order.

For the record, SMU has defeated the Aggies in their two meetings this season, winning last week 56-50. Each now has won five and lost three.

The Aggies recovered from their loss to SMU by nipping Baylor in a double overtime period.

TCU, after taking a 69-57 drubbing from Texas early last week, climbed back into a tie for third place with idle Arkansas with a 64-63 edge over Rice.

Texas' Tom Hamilton and Baylor's Don Heathington dominated individual play during the past week. Hamilton scored 31 points against TCU to snatch the conference lead away from Rice's Joe McDermott. Heathington basketed 30 points against the Aggies for fifth place.

As the halstones scattered most of the gallery of 8,000, Snead tried to ram home a 40-foot putt for the possible 61, but "it was like trying to putt in a gravel bed", he said, and he missed it and the next one from two feet out.

The three-putted green still gave him a 126 for the final 36 holes, besting by three strokes a PGA mark set on the same 6,400-yard course in 1944 by Sam Byrd. While he missed trying the tournament record of 264, Snead's 19-under-par record enabled him to become the second man in the tourney's 23-year-history to win the event twice. Wild Bill Melhorn was the other, back in 1928 and 1929.

Demaret, in finishing second, marked the third time in four years he has been the runner-up here.

Bothe he and Snead managed to pass the lanky pace-setter of the three previous days, Fred Haas of New Orleans, who faded from his blistered pace just enough to wind up in third spot with a 257. Cary Middlecoff, of Memphis, Tenn., took fourth with a 67 yesterday for a 270. A stroke ahead of George Fazio of Conshohocken, Pa., and three strokes to the good over Fred Hawkins of El Paso, Tex.

Bauer Sisters In Florida Tourney

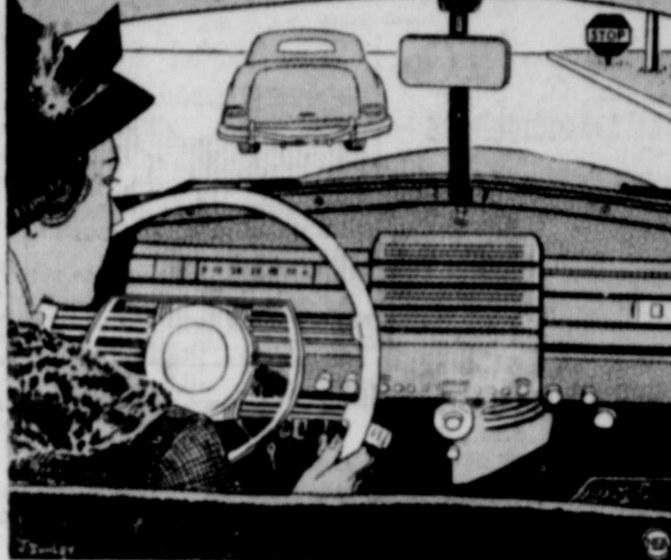

PALM BEACH, Fla., Feb. 13 (UP)—Marlene and Alice Bauer, the golden girls of golf, moved on to a new grab at glory today in the Everglades Scotch foursome tournament after their triumphs of the week-end.

Fifteen year old Marlene beat her big sister, Alice, 22, in the finals of the Palm Beach women's tournament Saturday. Then the midland, Tex., girls teamed yesterday to down veteran Peggy Kirk and Louise Suggs, 1 up, in an exhibition.

Today they were out on the course again, their sun-kissed legs bursting from the brief shorts which have become so familiar on the Florida courses this winter.

In this tournament each woman entry teams with a sociate male partner. They take alternate shots, playing against a similar team. Alice was paired with Clarke Hardwick of Bel-Air, Mr., and Marlene with Reginald Boardman of Palm Beach.

TEXAS NEWS BRIEFS

AMARILLO, Feb. 13 (UP)—Billy Max Mann, 23, went on trial for murder today in the rifle-slaying of his brother Donald last Nov. 17.

District attorney Lloyd King said that Mann has admitted he shot his brother at the home of their parents.

Medal play was scheduled by the team today, with match play beginning tomorrow.

The girls figured to be tired yesterday after their tooth-and-nail battle against one another Saturday, and they did start slowly. They were trailing, one down, most of the way.

But on the 16th hole grim young Marlene hit the flag with a 200-yard approach shot. She holds out the second putt and the Bauers were all even with their foe. On the 17th it was 22-year-old Alice's turn. Calmly she plunked in a 35-foot putt to take the lead for good.

Saturday's match was not so close. Marlene zoomed out in front and gave her sister a trouncing, and at the end—an affectionate hug to show it was all just a game.

This was a victory Marlene dearly wanted, for it brought her up to a 2-2 tie in the four championship finals the girls have played against one another.

The statue was presented by the college by the Amon G. Carter foundation. Charles A. Guy, publisher of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal, will make the presentation in behalf of Amon Carter, Fort Worth publisher.

GAINESVILLE, Tex., Feb. 13 (UP)—The body of R. V. Miller, 28, who was killed in a two-car collision here Saturday midnight, will be returned to his home at Lucedale, Miss., authorities said today.

Three other persons were injured in the collision, which demolished both cars. Ludvik Silhavy, 25, Richmond, Tex., who was riding with Miller, was hospitalized with a brain concussion.

The Law Of Diminishing Returns—
 ... like the law of gravity, is controlled largely by natural forces. When man-made laws come in conflict with natural laws there is never any doubt which will win. Long before the point is reached where cause equals effect the diminishing process sets in. Levying taxes is an excellent example, but the law operates in all fields of endeavor. Successful business men escape serious consequences of the law by selling a quality product for a reasonable profit.

Search Still On For Plane Missing 3 Days

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex., Feb. 13 (UP)—Aerial search over the Gulf of Mexico continued today for the third day, but there was no trace of a Navy flying boat that vanished Friday carrying nine men.

Seventeen search planes swept over vast expanses of the Gulf from Brownsville to the Mississippi area yesterday and set down at dusk with negative reports.

The search was spurred by knowledge that, under certain conditions the twin-engine missing plane could still be afloat and the men safe.

"The Mariner is a sturdy plane built for rough water," said a Naval spokesman. "If it lost its communications land then went down

Coast Guard headquarters at New Orleans ordered its lifeboat stations to search the beaches from Louisiana to Brownsville, looking for wreckage that might have washed ashore. The beachcombing operation turned up a gasoline tank, a compass and several other items, at widely separated points.
