THE STORY: Clemency Norton is a nursery governess in Syria and Jon Amberley's small daughter Baba is the home of Jon's brother Piers in Atlanta. The married couple is obviously dependent on Piers' generosity. While exploring the garden, Clemency and Baba meet Piers and are seen with him by Syria, who apparently is displeased and orders Clemency to go to her quarters.

VIII
ALONE with Piers, Syria turned back towards the house. They reached it in unbroken silence, and climbing the three shallow steps which led up to the veranda, she sat down in one of the garden chairs.

Syria Amberley looked cool, and perfectly groomed, in her fresh linen frock.

"Well, here we are again, my dear-brother." She gave him a half ironical glance. "I am sure you have missed me?"

"There are various ways of missing people," he replied, without attempting to soften the bluntness of the words. "I rather wondered if you would come back."

"Ah! But even then you remembered what a mercenary woman I am." She smoked for a few moments in silence, staring across the garden, her eyes narrowed against the glare. Then turning her head, she gave him a direct, challenging look: "You do dislike me, Piers—don't you?"

"Automatically," he agreed without any trace of emotion.

"She was not a sensitive woman; but something in that coldly impersonal announcement got under her skin. She winced, her eyes glowering.

"If you hated me, it would hardly be almost endurable. At least it would show you are alive," she burst out. Then recovering some of her usual poise: "Hate is, after all, the opposite end of the scale to—love."

She laughed. "I don't hate you, Piers, and I certainly don't love you. She gave him an odd look. "How can you possibly care of yourself you

"Oh, yes," agreed Clemency. "I shall begin with teaching Baba her alphabet, simple counting and that kind of thing—"

"WELL, I shall leave it all entirely in your hands. And of course you will arrange with Lou-llie when you want time off. You can have a car one day a month, and sometimes oftener if you begin to feel you are serving a life sentence." She rose, glancing the most easy of employers. Then hesitating: "There's just one thing—do you mind keeping to your own quarters?" She indicated the flower-filled square beneath the windows. "I don't like Baba wondering all over the place. You can get out on to the road by that door, and there are walks all about the Oasia."

"Of course, Mrs. Amberley, I—" "I'm so sorry to—sort of box you in," Syria's smile faded. The truth is—it's—well, just a little awkward. I like to keep Baba away from Colonel Amberley as much as possible, because really although he is quite sweet to her, I know he is bored with a child about the place." She looked at Clemency with a charming embarrassment. "Between you and me, Miss Norton, I don't think any house was ever built large enough to contain two families—especially such a born bachelor as Colonel Amberley is. By temperament he is actually a recluse—if he wasn't so rightfully fond of you, and had not been so worried about his health, I don't think anything would have induced him to let even us into his home. Again, strictly between ourselves, he almost dislikes women. You see—of course you won't let this go to any farther—he was once terribly in love with someone." Then in a lighter tone: "The trouble for our sex is that they will fall for him. He can have very pretty manners, and that raises hope in the poor things. Kathleen used absolutely to be in wait for him; and the first girl I brought out made an absolute idiot of herself."

"You needn't worry, Mrs. Amberley," said Clemency quietly. "I shall see that Baba is kept away from her uncle."

RANGER LOSES OPENER TO ALBANY TUESDAY NITE

Ranger's softball team opened the season's play at Albany Tuesday night and came home with the little end of the score, 5 to 4.

Billy Simpson pitched a fine game allowing only five hits, and the Ranger team held a 4 to 3 lead until the last part of the 7th inning when Albany got a hit to tie the score. In the eighth inning with two men out and one on base, Albany scored again to take the one point lead.

Albany had a 3 to 2 lead through the fifth inning but in the sixth Ranger scored two hits to pull out in front by one point. Bobby Gene Williams of Ranger hitted 100% per cent, getting two hits and two strikes. E. F. Arterburn stated today that results of the game were pleasing despite the losing score. He pointed out that Albany had played Rising Star last week and won the game in the first inning when they scored 10 points.

The Ranger team will play Gustine on the Ranger field Thursday night beginning at 7:15 o'clock.

GREYHOUND LINE OFFERS PRE-PLANNED TOURS

Whether a vacationer's plans call for a trip to any one of the 48 states, to Mexico, into Canada or even to Alaska over the famed new scenic highway, the Greyhound Bus Lines have an expense-paid tour pre-planned for that destination.

More than 200 tours to every section of the North American continent which attracts travelers because of its spots of scenic beauty the national parks, historic shrines or metropolitan cities, have been scheduled by the Greyhound organization.

These trips are arranged to provide advance reservations for accommodations at first class hotels or resorts, special sightseeing tours at points of interest, and bus transportation, all at a pre-determined price. Meals are not included, except at national parks or such other locations where public eating places are not available, because most travelers prefer the freedom of selecting their own restaurants.

Not only do the Greyhound tours enable the traveler to pre-determine the cost of his vacation trip, except for meals and personal expenses, but also offers conveniences which add to pleasurable traveling. With hotel reservations made in advance, there is never the necessity of paying a higher rate than was anticipated in order to obtain accommodations. Of the various sightseeing tours in any given area, a selection has been made of the ones which provide the greatest value and interest to the tourist. Another advantage is that the traveler is not required to carry large sums of money; payment for hotel rooms and sight-seeing trips is made by Greyhound-issued coupons.

Most of the Greyhound tours are planned for one and two-week vacations, but any trip can be "tail

Pineapple Upside-Down Cake Is an Easy-to-Make Favorite

Pineapple upside-down cakes, light and luscious, are a favorite American dessert. And they're one of the easiest to make, if you use a white cake mix for the foundation, and canned pineapple, in chunks or slices or crisp-cut crushed bits, for the topping.

The pineapple, enriched with brown sugar and butter, is the topping when the cake is served, but it is the part that goes into the pan first. So prepare it first, in whatever kind of pan you choose to use—a square one, individual casseroles, a ring or even an iron skillet. It is easy to cut and serve an upside-down cake topped with the crisp-cut variety of crushed pineapple.

You'll be sure of a downy light cake with the white cake mix. The batter can be ready to pour over the pineapple four minutes after you open the package. The routine is simple—mix with milk, beat and bake. In this cake the baking comes after you have poured the batter over the pineapple mixture. And when you cut your cake, while it's still warm—the pineapple golden brown and fragrant, the cake snowy-white and downy-light—you'll get more praise than you deserve for such an easy triumph.

You can vary your basic pineapple cake—made of white cake mix, baked in a square pan, if that's the one you choose—by varied garnishes. Halved or whole red or green cherries, for instance, pecan or walnut meats or blanched almonds, are attractive garnishes—and any one of these nuts added, chopped, to the pineapple mixture, gives appetizing variety. You can make a pineapple upside-down cake, too, out of the spice cake version of the mix. And you can serve it with whipped cream, if you like that extra touch of richness.

Says Fellow Travelers With Reds Real Threat

NEW YORK, May 3 (UP)—FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover estimates there are about 55,000 "traitorous Communists" in the United States who are members of a "well-knit, closely disciplined, destructive force."

But the real force behind the Communists lies in approximately a half a million fellow travelers and Communist sympathizers, ready to do the Communist bidding," Hoover said last night.

Hoover spoke before the New York State Grand Lodge of Masons, which awarded him a Masonic medal for distinguished achievement.

He called fellow travelers "hypocrites and moral awdlers" who are "constantly gnawing away like termites at the very foundation of American society."

TEXAS WOMAN WRITES BOOK ON OIL INDUSTRY

"We're Texans and I'm an oil man!" With these ringing words Joyce Tilley Simpson opens her absorbing and entertaining story, "Ladder To The Sky," which Thomas Y. Crowell will publish May 1. More than just a story of the oil industry, "Ladder To The Sky" is a highly personal narrative as well. Built around the experiences of her father, L. J. Tilley, it gives a dramatic picture of one of the industry's most dynamic pioneers.

In these early days, wildcatting in Texas, Oklahoma, and the bayous of West Louisiana was a tough but challenging game, as all Texans would be the first to admit. Still in his infancy, the oil industry offered excitement, competition, often hardship and only occasionally fabulous success. Mrs. Simpson has been able to inject into her semi-biographical story all the feeling of excitement and challenge that has always characterized the industry and its leaders. One of the main reasons for her success is the wealth of personal experiences that have contributed to the story. She has, herself, climbed over oil rigging and watched gushers since early childhood days in Beaumont. Even today she says there is nothing quite as exciting as "sitting on a well" that is due to come in.

"And," she continues, "just as soon as my lively two-year-old son can differentiate between a Kelly joint and a "Christmas tree" he'll be initiated into the mysteries of the fabulous game."

After attending Beaumont high school, South Park junior college (now Lamar), Joyce Tilley went to New Orleans to enter Sophie Newcomb college where she majored in journalism. Later she completed her journalistic studies after successfully working on the New Orleans Times-Picayune, teaching school, and traveling to Florida, she met and married Dr. Rufus Simpson, then attached to the armed services and stationed near Gainesville, Florida. Now, in addition to running a busy household, Mrs. Simpson claims that she is "that Babbitty of womanhood, a joiner," having belonged at one time or another to every organi-

Pineapple Upside-Down Cake Is an Easy-to-Make Favorite

Pineapple upside-down cakes, light and luscious, are a favorite American dessert. And they're one of the easiest to make. If you use a white cake mix for the foundation, and canned pineapple, in chunks or slices or crisp-cut crushed bits, for the topping.
The pineapple, enriched with brown sugar and butter, is the topping when the cake is served, but it is the part that goes into the pan first. So prepare it first, in whatever kind of pan you choose to use—a square one, individual casseroles, a ring or even an iron skillet. It is easy to cut and serve an upside-down cake topped with the crisp-cut variety of crushed pineapple.
You'll be sure of a downy light cake with the white cake mix. The batter can be ready to pour over the pineapple four minutes after you open the package. The routine is simple—mix with milk, beat and bake. In this cake the baking comes after you have poured the batter over the pineapple mixture. And when you cut your cake, while it's still warm—the pineapple golden brown and fragrant, the cake snowy-white and downy-light—you'll get more praise than you deserve for such an easy triumph.
You can vary your basic pineapple cake—made of white cake mix, baked in a square pan, if that's the one you choose—by varied garnishes. Halved or whole red or green cherries, for instance, pecan or walnut meats or blanched almonds, are attractive garnishes—and any one of these nuts added, chopped, to the pineapple mixture, gives appetizing variety. You can make a pineapple upside-down cake, too, out of the spice cake version of the mix. And you can serve it with whipped cream, if you like that extra touch of richness.

Winnipeg Fights To Avert Flood

WINNIPEG, Man., May 4 (UP)—Flood fighters built sandbag dikes higher and higher today to protect Winnipeg from cresting Red River flood waters which rose one foot above the 1948 flood level and threatened to inundate the city.

The river stood at 24.3 feet, 6.3 feet above the minimum flood level. Authorities said it might crest later today or tomorrow. Across the river in St. Boniface the situation was described as "serious."

Water lapped across the Canadian National Railway tracks yesterday. Service to Morris, Man., 40 miles to the south, was cancelled to allow workers to bolster the track bed.

A large part of Morris' 1,100 residents were evacuated from the totally flooded town. Some 40 residents arrived here last night in Red Cross motor boats.

The Canadian Pacific Railway still maintained service to Emerson, Man., where the flood crest had passed. Water receded seven inches there.

Go to summer camp with the Army Reserves. It's a two-week vacation—with pay.

Texas Company Hikes Gas Price

DALLAS, Tex., May 4 (UP)—The Texas Company today instituted a one-half cent per gallon boost in gasoline tank wagon prices in Texas, possibly indicating a trend upward by all major refiners.

Whether or not the increase would be passed on to the motorist at the filling station level remained up to the station operators.

Most retail gasoline now sells for 24 and 26 cents, respectively, for regular and ethyl grades.

The new tank wagon prices, according to Dallas' Texas Company sales manager John T. Bolger, Jr., will be 19 and 21 cents.

Other major refiners did not immediately follow suit, but spokesmen said ordinarily their prices conformed with those of other firms.

Bolger said it was Texas Company's first price hike in more than two years.

Woman Faces Embezzlement

DALLAS, Tex., May 4 (UP)—Mrs. Gladys E. Gaar must stand trial on charges of embezzling $40,473 from the Mercantile National Bank in Dallas.

A Federal Grand Jury indicted the 43-year-old divorcee yesterday on the embezzlement charge and 12 counts of misapplying approximately $100,000 in bank funds.

Mrs. Gaar, who had been employed at the bank six years when the shortage was detected, was arrested February 27 in Tyler at her relatives' homes. She has been freed on $10,000 bond.

The appeal was approved unanimously at a meeting of the administrative committee on coordination of the UN. It comprises UN secretary General Trygve Lie as chairman and the heads of all UN specialized agencies.

"The present division of the world and the increasingly serious conflicts of policy among the great powers have gravely impaired the prospects for world peace," the appeal said.

"The peace and well-being of all peoples demands from their governments a great and sustained new effort by the nations of the world to achieve a constructive and durable peace."

The committee expressed "deep concern" over the world situation. Lie announced yesterday that he will leave next Wednesday for Moscow and is hoped for conference with Soviet Premier Josef Stalin in an attempt to arrange an east-west truce.

Conservation Queen Named

FORT WORTH, Tex., May 4 (UP)—Mrs. John E. Schmidt of New Ulm (Austin County), who took over management of her farm when she was widowed by an accident last year, was named Texas Queen of Conservation today.

The honor was voted to Mrs. Schmidt in the "Save the Soil and Save Texas" conservation competition.

Mrs. Schmidt was previously selected as conservation queen of region 3, comprising 52 South Texas counties. She was unanimously chosen for the state honor by judges in the program sponsored by the Fort Worth Press and other Scripps-Howard newspapers of the state, the El Paso Herald Post and the Houston Press.

Mrs. Schmidt, mother of two children, will be honored at the annual state conservation banquet here Saturday when other winners of statewide competition are crowned.

Queen candidates were judged on points of soil and water conservation, sanitation of grounds, development of grounds, upkeep of grounds and structures, and leadership activity.

Winnipeg Fights To Avert Flood

WINNIPEG, Man., May 4 (UP)—Flood fighters built sandbag dikes higher and higher today to protect Winnipeg from cresting Red River flood waters which rose one foot above the 1948 flood level and threatened to inundate the city.

The river stood at 24.3 feet, 6.3 feet above the minimum flood level. Authorities said it might crest later today or tomorrow. Across the river in St. Boniface the situation was described as "serious."

Water lapped across the Canadian National Railway tracks yesterday. Service to Morris, Man., 40 miles to the south, was cancelled to allow workers to bolster the track bed.

A large part of Morris' 1,100 residents were evacuated from the totally flooded town. Some 40 residents arrived here last night in Red Cross motor boats.

The Canadian Pacific Railway still maintained service to Emerson Man., where the flood crest had passed. Water receded seven inches there.

Texas Company Hikes Gas Price

DALLAS, Tex., May 4 (UP)—The Texas Company today instituted a one-half cent per gallon boost in gasoline tank wagon prices in Texas, possibly indicating a trend upward by all major refiners.

Whether or not the increase would be passed on to the motorist at the filling station level remained up to the station operators.

Most retail gasoline now sells for 24 and 26 cents, respectively, for regular and ethyl grades.

The new tank wagon prices, according to Dallas' Texas Company sales manager John T. Bolger, Jr., will be 19 and 21 cents.

Other major refiners did not immediately follow suit, but spokesmen said ordinarily their prices conformed with those of other firms.

Bolger said it was Texas Company's first price hike in more than two years.

Woman Faces Embezzlement

DALLAS, Tex., May 4 (UP)—Mrs. Gladys E. Gaar must stand trial on charges of embezzling $40,473 from the Mercantile National Bank in Dallas.

A Federal Grand Jury indicted the 43-year-old divorcee yesterday on the embezzlement charge and 12 counts of misappropriating approximately $100,000 in bank funds.

Mrs. Gaar, who had been employed at the bank six years when the shortage was detected, was arrested February 27 in Tyler at her relatives' homes. She has been free on $10,000 bond.

Urge Greater Peace Efforts

PARIS, May 4 (UP)—Top United Nations executives called on all governments today to make a "great and sustained new effort" to end the cold war.

The appeal was approved unanimously at a meeting of the administrative committee on coordination of the UN. It comprises UN secretary General Trygve Lie as chairman and the heads of all UN specialized agencies.

"The present division of the world and the increasingly serious conflicts of policy among the great powers have gravely impaired the prospects for world peace," the appeal said.

"The peace and well-being of all peoples demands from their governments a great and sustained new effort by the nations of the world to achieve a constructive and durable peace."

The committee expressed "deep concern" over the world situation. Lie announced yesterday that he will leave next Wednesday for Moscow and is hoped for conference with Soviet Premier Josef Stalin in an attempt to arrange an east-west truce.

Polio Count in Texas Twice That Of Last Year

AUSTIN, Tex., May 4 (UP)—The 1950 Texas polio count is more than twice as great as for a comparable period last year, the State Health Department reported today.

Thirty-one new cases were reported last week, boosting the year's total to 362 as compared with 142 in 1949. There were 18 cases reported during the preceding week.

At Edinburg, Mrs. G. T. Shriber, Administrator at the Edinburg Polio Clinic, said yesterday's admission of a six-year-old Alamo boy brought the Valley's polio count to 86.

The Health Department's report listed Hidalgo County leading in polio incidence with 73 cases thus far this year.

Last week's count showed Hidalgo County with 10 new cases; Nueces and Tarrant, 3 each; Cameron and San Patricio, 2 each; and Bexar, Brewster, Briscoe, Dallas, Fort Bend, Harris, Jefferson, Jim Wells, McLennan, Martin and Tom Green 1 each.

Sit-Down Miners Ousted From Courthouse

POTTSVILLE, Pa., May 4 (UP)—About 250 sit-down miners marched out of the county courthouse singing "God Bless America" last night after a police ultimatum to get out, or else.

"I'll give you 10 minutes to get out or be put out," Sheriff Bruce Fellows told them. A detail of 25 state policemen backed him up.

The miners announced they were going to spend the night in the courtroom when Judge Cyrus M. Palmer adjourned court yesterday without ruling on a preliminary injunction barring four independent miners from a coal property.

The miners, demanding that the injunction be lifted, staged a sit-down.

Fellows was called in and he ordered the demonstrators out of the room. They refused, brought in food and timed in the courtroom.

Fellows returned to the courthouse and issued his ultimatum. The miners left.

R. L. Ferguson tips us off concerning the following catches:
 D. L. Taylor and party of Spearman, Texas, took 60 bass weighing from one to three pounds, casting.

The Hudson and Chumney party from Dallas, caught 159 crappie, eight channel cat, 25 bass and eight drum.

Brooks and Funderburg, Breckenridge, took 21 bass Saturday while casting.

That's all the reports we have this week but there'll be more next week. Keep us informed about your fishing trip and we'll pass it along. Till then, good fishing!

MAYOR, COMMISSIONER TO START GAME TONITE

Mayor Price Crawley will be in the pitchers box and O. G. Lanier, finance commissioner, will be at the bat tonight when the home opener for the softball season is played at the softball park.

The Ranger team meets Gustine at 8:15 o'clock tonight at the local field.

Mayor Crawley has been instructed to give Lanier either three strikes, four balls or a hit. If Lanier makes a hit he is pledged to make the run.

The visitors will be welcomed by the mayor before he pitches the first ball.

The softball committee composed of E. F. Arterburn, Alvis Woods and Onis Littlefield, has invited the public to attend the game. They stated that no admission will be charged but a free will offering will be taken. They pointed out that they will follow this policy all season if the free will offering provides enough funds to carry on. They stated that considerable expense has already been incurred and that more will be. Five new lights at $4.75 each had to be installed and the balls for the games are $2 each and two have to be provided for each game.

 Cars will be permitted inside the field and those who wish to watch the game from their cars may park them near the first and third bases.

The committee urges the support of the team in order that they may continue in their inter-city league. Arterburn stated this morning that this is the first time that Ranger has played in an inter-city league and they hope to make a success of it.

Suit the Bread to the Filling

SANDWICH TIME is almost any time at all. But they're never more popular than in spring and summer when you'll rely on them for auto trips, picnics, beach parties and outdoor teas. Shown above is an appetizing set-up from Good Housekeeping magazine which presents a complete 32-page "Sandwich Manual" in its May issue. From dainty mouthfuls for the ladies to hefty triple-deckers for the boys, there's an ideal sandwich for every occasion. Suit the bread to the fillings as shown in the picture—substituted for cream cheese, enriched white for chicken, wheat or rye for ham or beef. Make your mixed fillings in generous portions, but don't forget the Bakers of America reminder that "bread is two-thirds of the sandwich." So the right bread is just as important as the filling.
