FCC Studying If Big Firms Dominate Video

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18 (UP)—The Federal Communications Commission studied charges today that the giants of the radio industry are trying to dominate television through control of color rights.

The charges were made by Arthur S. Matthews, President of Color Television, Inc., of San Francisco, against Radio Corporation of America and Columbia Broadcasting system. Matthews' company is seeking FCC approval for its color television system.

In a statement issued after commissioners viewed the CTI system yesterday, Matthews accused RCA of proposing its color systems only when it was faced with "threats of competition and of possible consequent weakening of its powerful position in the radio industry."

He said RCA's color television system was "too complicated" for the average service man to handle, for fear the average viewer to adjust successfully.

He said the CBS system would cost the public more than $500,000,000 to convert or adapt present black and white sets to color. Furthermore, he said adoption of the CBS system would prove "frustratingly difficult if not disastrous" to all but the largest television manufacturers.

Matthews claimed the CTI system was compatible with present receivers, produced a good color picture and required no "soup-up" of transmitters.

CIO Press Case Against Bridges' Longshore Union

WASHINGTON, May 18 (UP)—The CIO pressed its case today against Harry Bridges' International Longshoremen who are accused of following the Communist party line.

If upheld by a special three-man hearing committee, the charges could lead to expulsion of the union from the CIO and Bridges' losing his seat on the CIO executive board.

Six other left-wing unions have been ousted on the same charges since last fall.

The Longshoremen's hearings opened yesterday. Neither Bridges nor members of the panel would discuss the case. But it was known the CIO presented a surprise witness in Michael J. Quill, president of the CIO Transport Workers. He is a former militant left-winger who joined the CIO's anti-Communist forces two years ago.

Appearing as defense witnesses with Bridges were other members of the Longshoremen's Executive Board, including Vice President J. R. Robertson. Robertson was Bridges' co-defendant in the recent San Francisco perjury trial in which Bridges was convicted of lying about his Communist party connections.

LONDON, May 18 (UP)—The Atlantic Pact Nations formally created today a high-level committee of deputies to meet continuously in London and work out the defense and economic program of the Atlantic Pact Nations.

Each of the 12 nations will appoint a deputy to sit on the Council. The Council itself will choose a chairman from among its members and all nations were agreed that the American delegate should get the job.

With the conference of foreign ministers in its final stage, the following additional steps were taken to weld the Western World into a strong Atlantic Community:

1. France and Great Britain invited the United States and Canada to join the organization for European Economic Cooperation, the European side of the Marshall plan, on an informal basis to help solve the deadlocked European payments union plan for greater convertibility of currencies.

2. The two units of the Council of Europe, the Consultative Assembly and the Council of Ministers, agreed to set up a joint committee to try to solve their disputes.

The new council of deputies will be spearheaded by its chairman. His functions will include presiding over the council and in effect running the whole Atlantic Treaty organization.

The ministers said the deputies will start work here "in the near future."

The foreign ministers outlined for their new deputies the following list of problems to tackle:

1. Coordinate the defense and economic plans of the Atlantic community.
2. Recommend to governments the steps needed to put the plans into effect.
3. Exchange views on political matters.
4. Promote and coordinate public information about the Atlantic Treaty Organization's objectives.
5. Consider what further steps should be taken to expand cooperation on economic, social and defense matters.

Marine General Says Russia Not Soft Push-Over

LOS ANGELES, May 18 (UP)—War with Russia is not inevitable but America must not underestimate Soviet military power, says Gen. Clifton B. Cates, commander of the Marine Corps.

"How far the temperature has to rise before (the cold war) turns into a hot war I don't know," Cates said yesterday at an armed forces luncheon. "It did appear that in several recent incidents we were on the verge of finding out."

Cates said the Russians mustered 500 divisions in World War II while the US had 100.

"The military capabilities of the Soviet Union are not to be dismissed lightly," he said.

Rent Control Okayed

WASHINGTON, May 18 (UP)—The House Banking Committee today approved a bill extending rent controls for one year, on a local option basis.

The present rent control law expires June 30.

SHE HAS KEPT LONG VIGIL—Mrs. William C. Smith, wife of one of the two Navy fliers held prisoners by Chinese Communists for 19 months, keeps all-night vigil by her telephone at her Long Beach, Calif., home with her two sons, Michael, 3, and Patrick, 17-months. She awaited a call from her husband who is enroute home by way of Honolulu from Communist China. (NEA Telephoto).

Last Stand

Loyal Chinese Prepare

Editor's Note: Robert C. Miller, veteran United Press Staff Correspondent who covered both the European and the Pacific battle fronts during World War II has arrived in Formosa to report what may be Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's last stand against the Chinese Communists. Here is Miller's first dispatch from Formosa.

By Robert C. Miller
United Press Staff Correspondent

KEELUNG, Formosa, May 18—Thousands of Nationalist soldiers arrived on this island of no retreat today from the abandoned Cushman islands. They vowed revenge for the Communist victory.

The crowded troopship Tien Hsing was given a welcome which resembled a victory celebration more than a Dunkerque evacuation. Crowds cheered and hands blared "Swanee River." But other evacuation ships arrived unheralded and unloaded without fanfare.

Madame Chiang Kai-Shek, wife of the Generalissimo, and the wives of other government dignitaries led the celebration passing out sandwiches and congratulating the troops.

The enthusiastic reception covered up the fact that the troops had been ordered out of the Cushans, some 80 miles south of Shanghai, without a fight and now were making their last possible retreat.

Overcast skies failed to dampen the celebration in this land-locked harbor as the rusting, black-hulled, 4,000 ton Tien Hsing tied up at the dock with the first 7,000 evacuees.

The Tien Hsing had been at sea for two days and two nights. But moral aboard was still high. The khaki and green cotton uniforms were clean, and the troops all carried full equipment, including rifles, grenades and mortars.

"We welcome you back and realize your disappointments," she said. "This is the last bastion against Communism and we hope you fight bravely in its defense."

The soldiers answered her with cheers vowing revenge or death.

Nine 4-H Club Contest Winners To Receive Pigs

Nine Eastland County 4-H Club boys will receive Registered Duroc Jersey pigs in the 1950 Sears Foundation pig program, Saturday, May 20. The presentation will be at 10:30 a. m. at Fireman's field, two blocks North of the square in Eastland, according to Ed. Steele, Assistant County Agent.

These boys won the pigs in an essay contest on "Why the Sow Is Important in Eastland County." The Sears Foundation has sponsored this program for several years in the county. Each boy and his dad will sign a contract agreeing to feed and care for the pig properly, according to the County Agent's instructions, to show her in the county show; to breed her to an approved boar at the proper time, and to return the best pig pig out of the litter to the program to go to another boy in 1951.

Boys receiving these pigs are: Leon Rogers, Desdemona; Glen Fleming, Pioneer; Lawrence Ingram, Nimrod; Don Starr, Dan Jobe, Marvin Anthony and Carl Rice, Seranton; Mack Jones, Ranger and Carol Sandlin, Carbon.

The program has been in effect in the county for the past nine years, Steele said.

Not Bill—Mac McKiever

It wasn't Bill—it was Mac McKiever, formerly of Ranger, who was ordained a minister. Tuesday's paper had it the other way—incorrectly.

Church Sates Union

The First Baptist Church Training union will meet at 7 p. m. Sunday but dismiss at 8 p. m. in time for graduation exercises.

Sinatra Unhappy As Bull Fighter Woos Ava Gardner

TOSSA DEL MAR, Spain, May 18 (UP)—Actress Ava Gardner returned to work on her film today while Spanhh Bull Fighter Mario Cabre resumed the courtship interrupted by Frank Sinatra's week long visit.

About the time Sinatra stepped off a plane in Paris early last evening, Miss Gardner, Cabre and a group of friends met in a seaside cafe here for dinner.

Cabre immediately read Miss Gardner a passionate poem while they were having a petit-tif.

The poem was in Spanish which Miss Gardner does not understand, but she sighed deeply while the 30-year-old Cabre recited the verses in her honor.

Sinatra, who flew the Atlantic to visit Miss Gardner in Spain, meanwhile told reporters in Paris he did not know when he would see her again.

The American crooner glared at reporters who asked him about the reported rivalry between himself and the Spanish bull fighter for Miss Gardner's attentions.

"I don't know Cabre, I have never met him, and anyway I didn't come to Europe especially to see Ava Gardner," Sinatra snapped.

His mood apparently had changed since last Monday, when he told reporters here he came to Spain only to see Miss Gardner.

Baccalaureate, Exercises Set

Romania Asks US Cut Legation

BUCHAREST, Romania, May 18 (UP)—Romania demanded today that the United States cut its Bucharest legation staff to 10 persons, claiming that American diplomats took part in "espionage activities."

It also announced that the Romanian legation staff in Washington would be reduced to the same number.

Western quarters said the latter move obviously was announced to forestall American retaliation, including possible expulsion from the United States of Romanian diplomats.

Ben Fairless Calls

BOSTON, May 18 (UP)—President Benjamin Fairless of the United States Steel Corporation, called on government and business leaders today for a "complete re-definition of lawful business conduct."

Federals Look For Narcotic Ring 'Brain'

Twelve Spend Nite In Jail Following Area's Big Raid

GALVESTON, May 18 (UP)—Twelve persons arrested in the Southwest's biggest narcotics raid in a dozen years spent the night in jail as federal agents searched for the "brain" of the ring.

Altogether 41 persons appeared before Mrs. George W. Coltzer, U. S. Commissioner yesterday, but only 12 were charged. They were remanded to jail when they failed to post bonds ranging from $1,500 to $10,000.

The $10,000 bonds were fixed on Rudy Achee, Joe Rangel and Frank Gastano. Gastano was the only one of the trio pleading guilty.

Federal agents, led by Houston Customs Man Alvin Scharff, raided 11 places on Post Office Street and Avenue E, and a downtown Leveah office, picking up both Heroin and Marijuana.

Scharff did not classify the illegal narcotics, however, nor would he discuss the size of the seizure. He said, however, the day's work was "entirely satisfactory."

James Ryan, chief of the U. S. Narcotics Bureau in the Southwest, said the man behind the ring presumably had been tipped that the raids were coming.

"He was seen in a car driving away from Galveston," Ryan said. The raid was organized on information given Houston vice squad officers by an informer who said Galveston was supplying narcotics for almost every major city in the Eastern half of the U. S.

Farm Meetings Set To Discuss Telephone Bill

The rural telephone bill was discussed at the regular monthly meeting of the Eastland County Farm Bureau meeting. E. E. Blackwell, president, presided at the meeting. Dewey Hames, Ranger, director of the district REA Cooperative, was present and introduced Mr. Curch of Brownwood, district REA engineer, who explained the rural telephone bill.

As an outgrowth several other meetings are to be held to explain the telephone bill, Mrs. John Love, secretary, said. These meetings are to be held at Kokomo Church on Thursday night, June 1; Seranton School Thursday night May 25; Cheaney Church of Christ on Monday night, May 29 and at Olden Gym on Thursday night June 8.

Anyone in those communities interested in the possibility of securing rural telephone service are urged to attend these meetings.

The Farm Bureau meets regularly on the second Thursday night.

The members voted to pay the expense of the four 4-H Club boys and girl delegates to the state 4-H Club Roundup at AAM in June. The meeting was held at the County Courthouse, Eastland, May 11. Forty-seven members were present.

Sister's Warning Goes Unheeded—Small Boy Dies

BASSETT, May 18 (UP)—Failure to heed his sister's frantic warnings was blamed today in the death of a four-year-old boy who ran into the path of a car.

Richard Wayne Strachan was struck as he ran across Highway 67 toward his 14-year-old sister yesterday.

The sister said he waited for two cars to pass and then dashed into the path of a vehicle driven by Archie A. Friedberg of El Paso. Friedberg was absolved of blame.

Fuchs Must Be Willing To Be US Interviewed

LONDON, May 18 (UP)—The Labor Government was attacked in Commons today for agreeing to let the American FBI question Dr. Klaus Fuchs, who is serving a 14-year prison sentence for giving atomic secrets to Russia.

Home Secretary Chuter Ede rebuffed the attacks, which came in a barrage of questions from the floor of the House. He said the FBI will not be permitted to see Fuchs unless he "expresses willingness to be interviewed."

The German-born atomic scientist, a naturalized British subject, confessed that he gave Russian agents some of the secrets while working on A-bomb development in the United States.

Agreement to let the FBI question Fuchs was criticized by some of the questioners as a distasteful departure from British custom.

Ede retorted amid Labor Party charges that Fuchs' activities also were "exceedingly distasteful" and that Britain had to "protect itself against such activities." He said Fuchs would not be forced to answer any questions.

Admitting this was the first time such facilities have been given a foreign investigating agency, Ede added that "it was the first time such an offense had been committed."

"A British officer will be present if this interview takes place," he said. "It will be conducted according to British practice... It is desirable in the interests of both countries that so far as possible his activities should be investigated."

Gorgeous Gussie Turns Down V Waist Neckline

PARIS, May 18 (UP)—Gertrude (Gorgeous Gussie) Moran said she is putting away forever the lace panties she wore on the Wimbledon tennis courts last year.

The California tennis player said she would wear bloomers when she appears on the same historic sod this year.

"I shall be feminine this year," she solemnly assured a group of newsmen who happened to get word that she would be fitted for new naiment at this time.

Pierre Baldmain designed the new apparel, and the goggle-eyed newsmen watched her get measured for it. The measurements were announced as bust 37, waist 25, and hips 37 1-4.

The new dress will be in rich accordion pleated silk chiffon with cotton backing, made into a sleeveless sheath with v-neck, mid-thigh length.

Undersneath will be matching bloomers. Caught tight with two silk bands around the top of the leg.

When she saw Baldmain's sketches, Miss Moran suggested a change.

ALL RECORD HOLDERS TO BE AT COLONIAL—The select field of 36 champions and biggest names in golf who will play in the Colonial National Invitation Golf Tournament in Fort Worth May 25-28 includes every low-scoring record holder in golf.

Byron Nelson, upper left, and Ben Hogan, upper center, share the all-time record for 72 holes with 259 strokes, and also the all-time record for 54 holes with 193 strokes. Sam Snead, upper right, Skip Alexander, lower right, and Johnny Palmer, lower center, hold the record for 36 holes of championship play with 126 strokes. The record of 62 for 18 holes is shared by Jim Ferrier, lower left, Lawson Little, second from left, Jimmy Demaret, second from right, along with Alexander, Palmer, Hogan, and Nelson. All will be in Colonial's crack field, along with virtually every other big name in golf. Tickets may be ordered by mail from Colonial Country Club.

The plunging V to the waist, she said, was not practical for tennis. "Make it here," she said, pointing to a spot higher up.

The decision was part of a new anti-monopoly law. French Commissioner Andre Francois-Poncet vetoed the clause a month ago. He said it would permit some future German government to organize the Ruhr into a combine for waging war.

Crosby Is Only Crooner Make Who's Who Book

LONDON, May 18 (UP)—So far as Who's Who is concerned, there is only one topflight crooner. Its 102nd edition, out today, lists him as Harry L. (Bing) Crosby. The 3,100-page reference work ignores Frank Sinatra, Perry Como and other rivals, as well as all other recording and movie musical stars.

Bing summed up his fabulous career for Who's Who in these words: "Two years vaudeville; 4 years vocal trio and Paul Whiteman; 16 years radio and records; 13 years motion-pictures."

George Bernard Shaw, nearing his 94th birthday, still lists himself as an active author with a new

Huns To Decide Who Owns Firms

BON, May 18 (UP)—The Allied High Commission announced over French objections that ownership of the vast Ruhr coal, iron and steel industries will be determined eventually by the Germans themselves.

Francois-Poncet said he might appeal within four weeks for settlement of the dispute. Since he did not do so, his veto has lapsed.

Today's announcement said "the question of eventual ownership of the coal and iron and steel industries should be left to the determination of a representative, freely elected German government."

HONORS STACK UP Sprint relay honors continue to pile up for the University of Texas, the current 440-yard relay team having set a new Southwest Conference record of 41.1 seconds last week. Members of that team, top to bottom, are Floyd Rogers of Austin, Perry Samuels of San Antonio, Carl Mayes of Pampa and Charley Parker of San Antonio. They'll run Friday night in the Coliseum Relays in Los Angeles and Saturday night at Modesto, Calif.

Kilgore's Milk And Ice Cream Co. Slates Openhouse Friday, May 19

Johnny Kilgore likes to show you through his new dairy plant. Like most persons that know their business thoroughly, Johnny has an almost personal love for the machines that pasteurize the milk that Eastlanders drink and the ice cream they eat.

In five years, John Kilgore's business outgrew his plant so he's added some 1,260 feet of floor space to the original 3,040 feet.

At the same time he expanded his plant, he retrofitted the entire building, built new out side walls, painted the inside and calcimined the outside.

He has announced that he'll hold open house Friday, May 19. At the open house, ice cream will be served free to all visitors.

The business services all of Eastland County. The Kilgore's Milk and Ice Cream Company manufactures its own ice cream, collects, pasteurizes and bottles grade A milk for both wholesale and retail trade.

When you tour the plant, here's what you'll see:

Johnny takes you from the office into the creamery. If you're a farmer that sells cream, you've seen this place before. They test the cream for butterfat content, weigh it, and credit the seller.

That's the first stop. The next is the ice cream maker—a Buck Rogers machine that can turn out 80 gallons of ice cream every hour. It comes out of this machine, after one continuous freezing process that is controlled, ready for packaging, moulding work. "Sixteen Self Sketches," published last year. He notes that his diet is vegetarian and his recreation, "being past 90."

Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia didn't make the grade, but Soviet Premier Josef Stalin has his usual entry. It simply lists his offices and books and gives his address as, "the Kremlin, Moscow, U.S.S.R."

Other members of the firm are

Roland Koch, ice cream maker; Rabb Stedlum, milk-processing man; George Scruggs, who works in both the ice cream and milk departments; James Wright, Pete Rogers, O. G. Lindhearted, and M. G. Cartwright are all salesmen for the company, and J. R. Armstrong runs the plant office.

T. L. Willis, who has been with the company the longest, is the truck driver. Two high school seniors have been working at the plant for the past three years part time. They are Richard Bumpass and Glenn Hogan.

Well, Now that's a fine beginning for a column. It says exactly nothing. And the boss, he says, you got to say something.

But maybe we can salvage something by saying that it'll be nice if that Eastland oil well, reported to be producing 1,200 barrels per day, encourages more drilling in this area.

And maybe the oil sand seeing what it can do at one well will get encouraged to flow some more oil.

Some meeting a lot of friendly people in this town. Just wish I had a police's memory and could remember their names. That just shows you the difference. Truman drags over $75,000 a year—I draw... well, just like Morris Frank, Houston Chronicle writer, I got to bum so many free meals a month if I'm to pay my rent.

I've rented a nice apartment at Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Green's but still haven't moved in. I mean I've rented it if they don't see this column about meal bunning and decide I'm not so much of a risk.

Seriously, about this name business, I hope you'll forgive me if I don't remember your name the first time. There's really no excuse for it. But I've got an alibi anyway—that being there's only one of me—and 8,000 of you. Anyway, that's what Rip Galloway at the Chamber of Commerce office says.

And talking about there being only one of me—incidentally I write this column so that English teachers will have something to keep their hand in on when they haven't any pupil's theme to grade. But to get back to there being only one of me—I'd sure appreciate the boss—it'd sure make him like me—if you'd give me a ring on this news.

It's always welcome—even at 11 a. m. when I'm busily wondering why I ever got into the newspaper business and why deadlines were ever invented. I think that subtly says I'd appreciate it even more in the afternoon or 8 a. m. in the morning.

But—honestly and no joking—I'd appreciate a ring anytime. That paragraph there will probably be used by journalism schools. Not what to do—

I'm now a member of the Jaycees. Went up to their meeting on Monday night. They looked askance and squirmed a bit. But one voted to admit me so I squeaked through.

Joe Fabray, manager of the Southern Ice Company here—and like me a former Oklahoman—had a little more majority on his side. He came right through the front door.

Anyway, that's enough guff for now so until tomorrow or the next day—

Two Texas Cases Cited To Prove Cancer Curable

HOUSTON (Special) — The American Cancer Society, Texas Division, today cited two cured cancer cases as evidence that the state's No. 2 disease killer can be curbed by early and thorough treatment.

Two Texans — one a doctor and the other a public official — once lost their voices to cancer. Today they are not only speaking themselves but are teaching other victims of cancer of the larynx to speak.

Dr. J. V. Hopkins of Victoria developed cancer many years ago. In 1928 he was bothered with a hoarse throat. The condition persisted. He wound up with a diagnosis of cancer of the vocal cords.

If he was operated on, he would lose his voice. If not, the disease would spread and he would have but a few years to live. He chose the former course, and in 1929 was operated on in New Orleans.

After the operation he tried to make sounds, but it was almost impossible. He thought of giving up his practice, but his brother physicians surrounded him. "Go ahead," they said. "See your patients. Write them notes." And that is what he did.

Finally Doctor Hopkins found that if he would swallow air he could bring it back up and make a slight sound. He was enormously uplifted when that happened. "He began saying the alphabet." "It has almost every sound you use," he explains.

Soon he was forming simple words. Then came the time when he could pronounce a two-syllable word.

Now and then he would trip on a word... think of the word, but be unable to pronounce it. So he would pause, swallow and think hard—until he thought of a synonymous word.

In time other doctors sent patients with vocal cords removed to him.

"Go see a man who lost his vocal cords, just like you did," they would tell their helpless patients. "See a man who taught himself to talk."

So they came. They would find Doctor Hopkins' waiting room full of patients. He would be bustling around, cautioning them, talking in a rasping oft-times hesitant voice—talking successfully without his vocal cords!

Then, there is the second case: Four years ago doctors told W. E. Archer of the Texas Employment Commission in Austin that he had cancer. A malignant growth had developed in his vocal cords. Only removal of his larynx would save his life.

The operation was performed in August, 1946.

But later, he had to undergo a series of follow-up operations.

"If I had known anything about cancer and had gone to the doctor earlier, I might have been able to save my larynx," says Mr. Archer. "At least, I wouldn't have found it necessary to have lots of surgery."

"The first sign of cancer of the larynx with me was hoarseness. I had been hoarse about six months and did nothing about it."

But Mr. Archer was treated, and he is now back at the employment commission leading a normal life. And he is talking again — handling claims and settling them.

Both Doctor Hopkins and Mr. Archer recommended that anyone falling victim to cancer of the

Senate Group To Overhaul Old SS Act

WASHINGTON, May 18 (UP) — The Senate Finance Committee voted 11 to 6 to overhaul the Social Security act for the first time since it was written in the throes of the depression some 15 years ago.

Exactly four months after it began hearings, the committee approved a bill that would approximately double old-age insurance benefits and bring some 10,000,000 additional persons under the program.

Since the legislation is high on President Truman's "Must" list and enjoys strong Republican backing as well, Senate leaders are confident of passage before the current session adjourns. But floor action may be delayed indefinitely by the gathering filibusters on the fair employment practices bill now before the senate.

The House last year passed a similar bill which would increase benefits about 70 per cent and cover 11,000,000 additional persons.

The House bill would raise the Social Security payroll tax on employers and employees to two per cent next Jan. 1, but the senate version would freeze the present 1 1/2 per cent tax until 1956.

Chairman Walter F. George, D., Ga., said no votes were cast against the bill in committee, although two members refrained from voting. He did not identify them.

The strong bipartisan support reflected the feeling of both Republicans and Democrats that present benefits are radically out of line with the cost of living.

The new act would raise the maximum family benefit from $85 to $150. The minimum benefit in nearly all instances would be $25 monthly, compared to $10 at present.

The legislation falls short of President Truman's request chiefly in the matter of extending coverage. He sought to blanket at least 20,000,000 additional persons under the act.

The senate bill would bring in — on a compulsory basis — about 5,000,000 self-employed persons, excluding farmers; about 800,000 full-time farm hired hands; but not sharecroppers; 1,000,000 domestic servants, who are more or less employed in the same households; and 600,000 employees of non-profit organizations.

Included on a voluntary basis would be about 1,500,000 state and local government employees.

Lie To Talk Again To Truman, Other Personages: He Appears Optimistic

By Henry Shapiro
MOSCOW, May 18 (UP)—
United Nations Secretary General Trygve Lie disclosed Wednesday that he intends to hold new talks with British and French leaders, President Truman and Secretary of State Dean Acheson on the basis of his "cold war" conferences here.

Lie announced he would fly to Prague Friday and continue to Paris, London and New York.
He hopes to see both British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman, he said, if not Premiers Clement R. Attlee and Georges Bidault and then talk to Truman and Acheson in Washington.

Lie talked with the President and other American, British and French leaders before he came here for his week-long talks with Soviet leaders including Premier Joseph Stalin, Vice Premier Vlas-lav Molotov, Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky and others.
Lie disclosed that in his talks
here he discussed the Cold War, atomic energy control, Chinese Communist representation in the UN, his plan for periodic meetings of the UN security council and the general international situation.

He indicated guarded hope that,
within a few months, some beneficial results might come from his talks especially because he has been able to hold full discussions here.

One of these results might be agreement for the periodic security council meetings at which, under Lie's plan, Foreign Ministers of the member countries would be present personally. He believes that agreement on some troublesome questions might be possible at such high-level meetings.

"If have been received in a most friendly way and the exchanges of views and ideas have been of a positive kind," Lie said of his talks here. Asked, at a press conference attended by 50 correspondents, is he satisfied with the results of his talks here and in Washington, London and Paris, Lie said:
"The UN Secretary - General

can not be satisfied before the UN machinery works normally, the Cold War is brought to an end, and friendly relations are established between the member nations.

"I have no reasons to be dissatisfied with my conversations in Moscow. A final judgment, however, cannot be made before two or three months from now. Maybe it will take a longer period, too . . . time will tell."

Lie said he had been much impressed on this, his fifth visit to Moscow.

"I am very much impressed by the state of repair of the streets and houses and by the new buildings," Lie said. "I have never seen so many new automobiles, street cars and buses. In many respects it is like a new capital . .
the people I have seen, and the children, look healthier than at any time before. I am surprised that so much progress has been achieved as regards an abundance of clothing, and shoes for women and children."

Static Makers Put On Griddle

EDINBURG, May 18 (UP)— City Attorney Sid Harden today checked legality of a proposed ordinance to ban the use of mix-masters and electric shavers because they create radio static.
The ordinance, which would prevent "local interference" with radio sets, was proposed by Commissioner Sam Pottorff.

Since there are as many different kinds of abstracts as there are companies producing them it stands to reason that some may be better than others. Main points to consider are: Plant equipment, experienced personnel and the degree of responsibility behind the abstractor's certificate. A combination of these factors will give the customer reasonable assurance that he will get a dependable abstract.

Don't Be A Traffic Safety Vandal

Ed. Note: This is the final in series of eight traffic safety articles, prepared by the Texas Safety Association, Inc., and carried in the Eastland Telegram as a public service.

The dictionary lists one definition of a vandal as "a wanton or ignorant destroyer or defacer of any building, monument, etc., which should be preserved."

This definition—"wanton or ignorant destroyer or defacer of any building, monument, etc., which should be preserved"—well describes a group who are operating on our highways today, the vandals of traffic safety. These vandals of traffic safety are those thoughtless, wanton, ignorant destroyers of monuments to traffic safety—highway traffic signs.

You, the traveling public, the taxpayer, are paying for those acts of destruction: acts of destruction through use of signs for target practice, acts of destruction through defacement of signs with paint and crayons, acts of destruction through knocking signs down, acts of destruction through theft, acts of destruction through bending signs double so their message cannot be read, and acts of destruction through carving of signs with a pocket knife.

And what is the price you pay for these acts of destruction? Each year the highway department alone spends an estimated $20,000 to $25,000 in measured dollars and cents in repairing and replacing some 7,800 signs damaged or destroyed through acts of vandalism—enough to build four miles of farm to market roads and get some farmer out of the mud. And the measured dollars and cents are not the only price you pay. No one will ever know just how many people have paid with their lives; how many people are crippled for life; and how many thousands of dollars in property have been destroyed all because a curve sign with a safe

THE AMERICAN WAY

speed sign mounted below it has been destroyed by vandals. How long should we continue paying the price for this thoughtless destruction?

If you know one who has been guilty of destroying or defacing traffic signs, remember he is not only violating the law for which he may be punished, but you or your loved ones may be the next victims of his acts of destruction. Be a good sport, help get him to promote traffic safety, and do your part to make highway traffic signs "signs of life" as they are intended to be by helping to stamp out vandalism.

a new life will be of assistance. There are instances of couples who sincerely believe they would like to adopt a child, but are not able to overlook the fact that the baby is not of their own flesh and blood. Since the adoption of a child must be made from the viewpoint of the child, based upon unselfish parental desires, such a couple would rightly be denied the privilege of taking a child into their home.

That is just one of the reasons behind the many visits and innumerable questions which a licensed adoption agency goes through to check the home the child will go to. Security and happiness for the child which reflects happiness to the parents are the aims of adoption.

Adoption of a child is nearly always a long process. It should be undertaken with your family physician's counsel. In the past six-month period there were 1,732 adoption petitions filed with the Texas Welfare Department. Each year a great many children and a great many parents get a "new lease on life" through adoption.

John James Audubon, famous naturalist, estimated a vast flock of passenger pigeons he saw near Louisville in 1813 at more than 1,000,000,000 birds. Yet 161 years later the last known passenger pigeon died in the Cincinnati Zoo, says the National Geographic Society.

Your Health

Despite the tremendous advances medicine has made in enabling those who were considered sterile to achieve fertility and have a child of their own, there are still many instances which defy medical science.

Certainly, they are not doomed to a childless life. However, legal processes replace the law of nature to give parenthood to those denied it.

The adoption of a child is a great step, a lifetime undertaking. Here again you may receive some help by consulting your doctor. His advice as to the proper agency through which to give the child

House Means Committee Vote For Lower Tax

WASHINGTON, May 17 (UP)—The House Ways and Means committee voted tentatively Wednesday to reduce the maximum long-term capital gains tax on individuals from 25 per cent to 16 per cent. The capital gains tax is the tax levied on profits from sales of securities, real estate or other such investments.

The decision to reduce this tax, as suggested by Rep. Daniel A. Reed, R., N. Y., is subject to reconsideration later.

The committee also tentatively agreed to reduce from six months to three months the period for which an investment must be held before profits from its sale can be classed as a long-term capital gain.

Short-term capital gains—profits on investments held less than six months under present law—are subjected to regular income taxes, which for persons with large incomes run up to about 90 per cent.

But the maximum effective rate on long-term capital gains is only 25 per cent, and the committee would reduce this to 16 per cent.

The change in the holding period would mean that an investor would have to hold an asset for only three months before any profit on its sale would be classed as a long-term gain which would be taxed at the lower rate.

Earlier, House tax experts figured they have found tax "loopholes" which are costing the treasury about $575,000,000 a year.

Young School Spring Pageant To Be Presented Again

The Young School spring pageant will be presented again at 8 P. M. Tuesday May 23, at the High School Auditorium. Mrs. F. R. King reported that it was being given again because of popular demand and an overflow audience last Tuesday at the Young School.

Paul Revere, savage Indians, and Wild Bill Hickock rode again as the students of Young School relived the colorful days of American history from the Colonial Period to the present era in an all-school pageant presented in the school auditorium Tuesday evening May 16.

The program was opened with two beautiful numbers from the rhythm band composed of students of the second grades.

The initial curtain opened on a Colonial scene which included way pageantry and a colorful May Pole dance, presented by members of the Third and Fourth grades.

This was followed by a routine, "Old West" and the days of '49 presented by students of the Sixth Grade.

The second grades plunged into the 1860's with appropriate Southern atmosphere and Civil War color.

The ghosts of Diamond Jim Brady and Lillian Russell walked again in the "Gay Nineties" through the barber-shop harmony and gala revues of the First Grade.

The pageant was brought to a climax by members of the Fifth and Sixth Grades who re-enacted the days of World War I, the Depression, World War II, and the post-war era.

Collaborating in the production of the pageant were Mrs. E. W. Hobbs, Mrs. A. G. Koenig, Johnnie Young, Mrs. N. E. Landers, Mrs. H. H. Oliver, Mrs. C. C. Harris, Mrs. D. L. Penney, and Morris Jefferies assisted by Betty Wilcox, a fine-arts student in Ranger Junior College.

38 New Polio Cases Found In Last Week

AUSTIN, May 18 (UP)—Thirty-eight new cases of Polio were reported last week as the dreaded disease centered its attack on the Rio Grande Valley, the State Health department reported today.

Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, said that through the week ending May 13, the Polio total for 1950 came to 428, more than double the comparable figure for 1949.

Of the 38 cases listed last week, nine were recorded in Hidalgo county. Over the first four and one-half months this year, Hidalgo county has listed 97 cases to lead the state's polio count.

The year's cases have been registered in 75 counties, Dr. Cox said, compared to 44 in which incident was reported over a similar period in 1949. He said 192 cases were reported over a comparable period last year.

Counties reporting Polio last week were: Hidalgo 9; Dallas, 4; Jefferson, Nueces and Potter, 3 each; Comanche, Tarrant, El Paso and Cameron, 2 each; and Wharton, Victoria, Moore, Travis, Sutton, Kleberg, Ector, and Baxter, 1 each.

Burke Named Honor Student At A&M College

Mrs. Grace Burkes, mother of Charles Burke, and her daughter, Mrs. Frieda Nash, attended the Parents' Day celebration at A&M College on May 13 and 14. One of the main events of the Sunday program was a flower pinning ceremony in which the mother of each of the thirteen most outstanding students pinned flowers on the boys in her son's group.

These thirteen boys are selected from a group of 1300 students and are chosen on the basis of academic standing, military proficiency, leadership, character, personality and participation in extra-curricular activities.

Mrs. Burke participated in the program by pinning flowers on the 90 boys in her son's flight, and she also was given the honor of presenting to her son a medal which is given for the outstanding students of 1949-50.

In addition to these honors, Charles has earned the designation of Distinguished Student in the Spring semester, which is a recognition by the college of scholastic achievement. He has also been elected to Phi Eta Sigma, a freshman honor society.

Mrs. O. M. Grant spent Mother's Day in Ft. Worth with her daughter and families, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. White and Vicki Kay and Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Chorn. Mrs. White and Vicki Kay accompanied her home for a visit.

Equitable Denies Loaning More $'s To McCarthy

NEW YORK, May 18 (UP)—Thomas I. Parkinson, president of the Equitable Life Assurance society of the United States, denied Wednesday that the company has granted any additional loans to Glen McCarthy, Houston oil man-hotel operator.

Recent statements indicating that Equitable had made a commitment to the McCarthy Oil and Gas company for an additional $6,000,000 loan are "inaccurate and misleading," Parkinson said.

He explained that the Equitable has a first mortgage lien on the McCarthy oil and gas wells and a lien on the payments made by the Pipeline upon delivery of oil or gas from the McCarthy wells.

Equitable also has a $5,000,000 mortgage loan on the Shamrock hotel.

"These loans," the Equitable president said, "are adequately secured by the properties and values subject to Equitable's lien."

"Reduction in production in recent months as a result of production under Texas law was reduced the amount of oil which McCarthy and other oil companies can currently produce with the result that there has been a decrease in funds available to meet current payments," Parkinson said.

"Equitable has received all payments of interest on its McCarthy loans and has deferred two monthly payments of amortization."

In addition, "because of the circumstances, Equitable has recently discussed with McCarthy representatives possible adjustments in the situation."
